19 "Then I desired to know the ¹exact meaning of the fourth beast, which was different from all ²the others, exceedingly dreadful, with its teeth of iron and its claws of bronze, and which devoured, crushed, and trampled down the remainder with its feet,

20 and the meaning of the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three of them fell, namely, that horn which had eyes and a mouth uttering great boasts, and ¹which was larger in appearance than its associates.

21 "I kept looking, and that horn was ^awaging war with the ¹saints and overpowering them

22 until the Ancient of Days came, and ^ajudgment was ¹passed in favor of the ²saints of the Highest One, and the time arrived when the ²saints took possession of the kingdom.

23 "Thus he said: 'The fourth beast will be a fourth kingdom on the earth, which will be different from all the other kingdoms, and it will devour the whole earth and tread it down and crush it.

24 'As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom ten kings will arise; and another will arise after them, and he will be different from the previous ones and will subdue three kings.

25 'And he will ^aspeak ^bout against the ^bMost High and ^cwear down the ²saints of the Highest One, and he will intend to make alterations in times and in law; and ³they will be given into his hand for a ^{4d}time, ⁴times, and half a ⁴time.

“His Kingdom Everlasting.” Another Vision.
The Male Goat with the Desecrating Horn.

Daniel 7, 8

26 ‘But the court will sit for judgment, and his dominion will be ^ataken away, ¹annihilated and destroyed ²forever.

27 ‘Then the ^{1a}sovereignty, the dominion, and the greatness of all the kingdoms under the whole heaven will be given to the people of the ²saints of the Highest One; His kingdom will be an ^beverlasting kingdom, and all the dominions will ^cserve and obey Him.’

28 “¹At this point the revelation ended. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts were greatly alarming me and my ²face grew pale, but I ^akept the matter ³to myself.”

CHAPTER 8

IN the third year of the reign of Belshazzar the king a vision appeared to me, ¹Daniel, subsequent to the one which appeared to me ²previously.

2 And I ^alooked in the vision, and it came about while I was looking, that I was in the citadel of ^bSusa, which is in the province of ^cElam; and I looked in the vision, and I myself was beside the Ulai ¹Canal.

3 Then I lifted my gaze and looked, and behold, a ^aram which had two horns was standing in front of the ¹canal. Now the two horns were ²long, but one was ²longer than the other, with the ²longer one coming up last.

4 I saw the ram ^abutting westward, northward, and southward, and no other beasts could stand before him, nor was there anyone to rescue from his ¹power; but he did as he pleased and magnified himself.

5 While I was observing, behold, a male goat was coming from the west over the surface of the whole earth without touching the ground; and the ¹goat had a ^aconspicuous horn between his eyes.

6 And he came up to the ram that had the two horns, which I had seen standing in front of the ¹canal, and rushed at him in his mighty wrath.

7 And I saw him come beside the ram, and he was enraged at him; and he struck the ram and shattered his two horns, and the ram had no strength to withstand him. So he hurled him to the ground and trampled on him, and there was none to rescue the ram from his ¹power.

8 Then the male goat magnified himself exceedingly. But as soon as ^ahe was mighty, the large horn was broken; and in its place there came up four conspicuous horns toward the ^bfour winds of heaven.

9 And out of one of them came forth a rather ^asmall horn which grew exceedingly great toward the south, toward the east, and toward the ^{1b}Beautiful Land.

10 And it grew up to the host of heaven and caused some of the host and some of the ^astars to fall to the earth, and it ^btrampled them down.

11 It even ^amagnified itself ¹to be equal with the ²Commander of the host; and it removed the ^bregular sacrifice from Him, and the place of His sanctuary was thrown down.

12 And on account of transgression the host will be given

13 Then I heard a ^aholy one speaking, and another holy one said to that particular one who was speaking, “^bHow long will the vision about the regular sacrifice apply, ¹while the transgression causes horror, so as to allow both the holy place and the host ²to be “trampled?”

14 And he said to me, “For ^a2,300 evenings and mornings; then the holy place will be ¹properly restored.”

15 And it came about when I, Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought ¹to understand it; and behold, standing before me was one ²who looked like a ^aman.

16 And I heard the voice of a man between the banks of Ulai, and he called out and said, “^aGabriel, give this man an understanding of the vision.”

17 So he came near to where I was standing, and when he came I was frightened and ^afell on my face; but he said to me, “Son of man, understand that the vision pertains to the ^btime of the end.”

18 Now while he was talking with me, I ^asank into a deep sleep with my face to the ground; but he ^btouched me and made me stand ¹upright.

19 And he said, “Behold, I am going to ^alet you know what

And he will magnify himself in his heart,
And he will ²destroy many while they are ³at ease.
He will even ⁴oppose the Prince of princes,
But he will be broken without ^{1a}human agency.

26 “And the vision of the evenings and mornings
Which has been told is true;
But keep the vision secret,
For it pertains to many days in the future.”

27 Then I, Daniel, was ^{1a}exhausted and sick for days.
Then I got up again and carried on the king's business; but I was astounded at the vision, and there was none to ²explain it.

CHAPTER 9

IN the first year of ^aDarius the son of Ahasuerus, of Median descent, who was made king over the kingdom of the Chaldeans—

2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, observed in the books the number of the years which was revealed as the word of the LORD to ^aJeremiah the prophet for the completion of the desolations of Jerusalem, namely, ^aseventy years.

3 So I ^lgave my attention to the LORD God to seek Him by prayer and supplications, with fasting, sackcloth, and ashes.

4 And I prayed to the LORD my God and confessed and said, "Alas, O Lord, the ^agreat and awesome God, who ^bkeeps His covenant and lovingkindness for those who love Him and keep His commandments,

5 we have ^asinned, committed iniquity, acted wickedly, and ^brebelled, even ^cturning aside from Thy commandments and ordinances.

6 "Moreover, we have not ^alistened to Thy servants the prophets, who spoke in Thy name to our kings, our princes, our fathers, and all the people of the land.

7 "^aRighteousness belongs to Thee, O Lord, but to us ^lbopen shame, as it is this day—to the men of Judah, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and all Israel, those who are near by and those who are far away in all the countries to which Thou hast driven them, because of their unfaithful deeds which they have committed against Thee.

8 "^lOpen shame belongs to us, O LORD, to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, because we have sinned against Thee.

9 "To the LORD our God belong ^acompassion and forgiveness, ^lfor we have ^brebelled against Him;

10 nor have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in His ^lteachings which He ^aset before us through His servants the prophets.

11 "Indeed all Israel has transgressed Thy law and turned aside, not obeying Thy voice; so the curse has been poured out on us, along with the oath which is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, for we have sinned against Him.

12 "Thus He has ^aconfirmed His words which he had spoken against us and against our ^lbuilders who ruled us, to bring on us great calamity; for under the whole heaven there has ^cnot been done anything like what was done to Jerusalem.

13 "As it is written in the ^alaw of Moses, all this calamity has come on us; yet we have ^bnot ^lsought the favor of the LORD our God by ^cturning from our iniquity and ²giving attention to Thy truth.

14 "Therefore, the LORD has ^lkept the calamity in store and brought it on us; for the LORD our God is ^brighteous with respect to all His deeds which He has done, but we have not obeyed His voice.

15 "And now, O LORD our God, who hast ^abrought Thy people out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand and hast ^bmade a name for Thyself, as it is this day—we have sinned, we have been wicked.

16 "O Lord, in accordance with all Thy ^lrighteous acts, let now Thine ^aanger and Thy wrath turn away from Thy city

Jerusalem, Thy ^bholy mountain; for because of our sins and the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and Thy people have become a ^creproach to all those around us.

17 "So now, our God, listen to the prayer of Thy servant and to his supplications, and for ¹Thy sake, O Lord, ^alet Thy face shine on Thy ^bdesolate sanctuary.

18 "O my God, ^aincline Thine ear and hear! Open Thine eyes and ^bsee our desolations and the city which is ^ccalled by Thy name; for we are not ^dpresenting our supplications before Thee on account of ²any merits of our own, but on account of Thy great compassion.

19 "O Lord, hear! O Lord, forgive! O Lord, listen and take action! For Thine own sake, O my God, do not ^adelay, because Thy city and Thy people are called by Thy name."

20 Now while I was ^aspeaking and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of ^bmy people Israel, and ¹presenting my supplication before the LORD my God in behalf of the holy mountain of my God, 21 while I was still speaking in prayer, then the man ^aGabriel, whom I had seen in the vision ¹previously, ²came to me ³in my extreme weariness about the time of the ^bevening offering.

22 And he gave me instruction and talked with me, and said, "O Daniel, I have now come forth to give you insight with ^aunderstanding.

23 "At the beginning of your supplications the ¹command was issued, and I have come to tell you, for you are ²highly esteemed; so give heed to the message and gain ^aunderstanding of the vision.

24 "Seventy ¹weeks have been decreed for your people and your holy city, to ²finish the transgression, to ³make an end of sin, to ^bmake atonement for iniquity, to bring in ^ceverlasting righteousness, to ^aseal up vision and ⁴prophecy, and to anoint the most holy place.

25 "So you are to know and discern that from the issuing of a ¹decree to restore and rebuild Jerusalem until ²^bMessiah the ^cPrince there will be seven weeks and sixty-two weeks; it will be built again, with ³plaza and moat, even in times of distress.

26 "Then after the sixty-two weeks the ¹Messiah will be ^acut off and have ²nothing, and the people of the prince who is to come will ^bdestroy the city and the sanctuary. And ³its end will come with a ^cflood; even to the end ⁴there will be war; desolations are determined.

27 "And he will make a firm covenant with the many for one week, but in the middle of the week he will put a stop to sacrifice and grain offering; and on the wing of ¹^aabominations will come one who ²makes desolate, even until a ^bcomplete destruction, one that is decreed, is poured out on the one who ²makes desolate."

CHAPTER 10

IN the third year of ^aCyrus king of Persia a ¹message was revealed to Daniel, who was named Belteshazzar; and the ¹message was true and one of great ²conflict, but he understood the ¹message and had an ^bunderstanding of the vision.

Daniel Is Terrified by the Vision of a Man. The Man Comforts Him.

Daniel 10

2 In those days I, Daniel, had been ^amourning for three entire weeks.

3 I did not eat any ¹tasty food, nor did meat or wine enter my mouth, nor did I use any ointment at all, until the entire three weeks were completed.

4 And on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, while I was by the bank of the great ^ariver, that is, the ¹Tigris,

5 I lifted my eyes and looked, and behold, there was a certain man ^adressed in linen, whose waist was ^bgirded with a belt of pure ^cgold of Uphaz.

6 His body also was like ¹beryl, his face ²had the appearance of lightning, his eyes were like flaming torches, his arms and feet like the gleam of polished bronze, and the sound of his words like the sound of a ³tumult.

7 Now I, Daniel, ^aalone saw the vision, while the ^bmen who were with me did not see the vision; nevertheless, a great ^cdreed fell on them, and they ran away to hide themselves.

8 So I was ^aleft alone and saw this great vision; yet no strength was ^bleft in me, for my ¹natural color turned to ²a deathly pallor, and I retained no strength.

9 But I heard the sound of his words; and as soon as I heard the sound of his words, I ^afell into a deep sleep on my face, with my face to the ground.

10 Then behold, a hand touched me and set me trembling on my ¹hands and knees.

11 And he said to me, "O Daniel, man of ¹high esteem, ^aunderstand the words that I am about to tell you and ^bstand ²upright, for I have now been sent to you." And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood up ^ctrembling.

12 Then he said to me, "^aDo not be afraid, Daniel, for from the first day that you set your heart on understanding this and on ^bhumbling yourself before your God, your words were heard, and I have come in response ^cto your words.

13 "But the prince of the kingdom of Persia was ¹withstanding me for twenty-one days; then behold, ^aMichael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, for I had been left there with the kings of Persia.

14 "Now I have come to give you an understanding of what will happen to your people in the ^{1a}latter days, for the vision pertains to ^bthe days yet future."

15 And when he had spoken to me according to these words, I ¹turned my face toward the ground and became ^aspeechless.

16 And behold, ¹one who resembled a human being was ^atouching my lips; then I opened my mouth and spoke, and said to him who was standing before me, "O my lord, as a result of the vision ^{2b}anguish has come upon me, and I have retained no strength.

17 "For ^ahow can such a servant of my lord talk with such as my lord? As for me, there remains just now no strength in me, nor has any breath been left in me."

18 Then this one with human appearance touched me again and ^astrengthened me.

19 And he said, "O man of ¹high esteem, ^ado not be afraid. Peace ^{2b}be with you; take ^bcourage and be courageous!"

The Man Tells of Coming Conflicts. Alliances and Conflicts between North and South.

Now as soon as he spoke to me, I received strength and said, "May my lord speak, for you have strengthened me."

20 Then he said, "Do you understand why I came to you? But I shall now return to fight against the ²prince of Persia; so I am going forth, and behold, the ^{2a}prince of ³Greece is about to come.

21 "However, I will tell you what is inscribed in the writing of ^atruth. (Yet there is no one who ¹stands firmly with me against these forces except Michael your prince.

AND in the ^afirst year of Darius the Mede I ¹arose to be ^{2a}an encouragement and a protection for him.)

2 "And now I will tell you the ^atruth. Behold, three more kings are going to arise ¹in Persia. Then a fourth will gain far more riches than all of them; as soon as he becomes strong through his riches, ²he will arouse the whole empire against the realm of ^{3b}Greece.

3 "And a ^amighty king will arise, and he will rule with great authority and ^bdo as he pleases.

4 "But as soon as he has arisen, his kingdom will be broken up and parcelled out ^atoward the ^bfour ¹points of the compass, though not to his own descendants, nor according to his authority which he wielded; for his sovereignty will be ^cuprooted and given to others besides ²them.

5 "Then the ^aking of the South will grow strong, ¹along with one of his princes ²who will gain ascendancy over him and obtain dominion; his domain will be a great dominion indeed.

6 "And after some years they will form an alliance, and the daughter of the king of the South will come to the ^aking of the North to carry out ^{1a}a peaceful arrangement. But she will not retain her ²position of power, nor will he remain with his ³power, but she will be given up, along with those who brought her in, and the one who sired her, as well as he who supported her in those times.

7 "But one of the ¹descendants of her line will arise in his place, and he will come against their army and enter the ^afortress of the king of the North, and he will deal with them and display great strength.

8 "And also their ^agods with their ¹metal images and their precious vessels of silver and gold he will take into captivity to Egypt, and he on his part will ²refrain from attacking the king of the North for some years.

9 "Then ¹the latter will enter the realm of the king of the South, and will return to his own land.

10 "And his sons will ¹mobilize and assemble a multitude of great forces; and one of them will keep on coming and ^aoverflow and pass through, that he may ²again wage war up to his very fortress.

11 "And the king of the South will be enraged and go forth and fight ¹with the king of the North. Then the latter will raise a great multitude, but that multitude will be given into ²the hand of the former.

Conflicts between King of the North and King of the South.

12 "When the multitude is carried away, his heart will be lifted up, and he will cause tens of thousands to fall; yet he will not prevail.

13 "For the king of the North will again raise a greater multitude than the former, and ¹after an ²interval of some years he will ³press on with a great army and much equipment.

14 "Now in those times many will rise up against the king of the South; the violent ones among your people will also lift themselves up in order to fulfill the vision, but they will ¹fall down.

15 "Then the king of the North will come, cast up a siege ^around, and capture a well fortified city; and the forces of the South will not stand their ground, not even ¹their choicest troops, for there will be no strength to make a stand.

16 "But he who comes against him will ^ado as he pleases, and ^bno one will be able to withstand him; he will also stay for a time in the ^{1c}Beautiful Land, with destruction in his hand.

17 "And he will ^aset his face to come with the power of his whole kingdom, ¹bringing with him ^{2a}a proposal of peace which he will put into effect; he will also give him the daughter of women to ruin it. But she will not take a stand for him or be ³on his side.

18 "Then he will turn his face to the ^acoastlands and capture many. But a commander will put a stop to his scorn against him; moreover, he will ^brepay him for his scorn.

19 "So he will turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land, but he will ^astumble and fall and be found ^bno more.

20 "Then in his place one will arise who will ^asend an ¹oppressor through the ²Jewel of his kingdom; yet within a few days he will be shattered, though neither in anger nor in battle.

21 "And in his place a despicable person will arise, on whom the honor of kingship has not been conferred, but he will come in a time of tranquility and seize the kingdom by intrigue.

22 "And the overflowing ^aforces will be flooded away before him and shattered, and also the prince of the covenant.

23 "And after an alliance is made with him he will practice deception, and he will go up and gain power with a small force of people.

24 ¹In a time of tranquility he will enter the ^arichest parts of the ²realm, and he will accomplish what his fathers never did, nor his ³ancestors; he will distribute plunder, booty, and possessions among them, and he will devise his schemes against strongholds, but only for a time.

25 "And he will stir up his strength and ¹courage against the king of the South with a large army; so the king of the South will mobilize an extremely large and mighty army for war; but he will not stand, for schemes will be devised against him.

26 "And those who eat his choice food will ¹destroy him, and his army will ^{2a}overflow, but many will fall down slain.

27 "As for both kings, their hearts will be intent on ^aevil, and they will ^bspeak lies to each other at the same table; but it will not succeed, for the ^cend is still to come at the appointed time.

28 "Then he will return to his land with much ¹plunder; but 29 "At the appointed time he will return and come into the South, but ¹this last time it will not turn out the way it did before.

30 "For ships of ^aKittim will come against him; therefore he will be disheartened, and will return and become enraged at the holy covenant and take action; so he will come back and show regard for those who forsake the holy covenant.

31 "And forces from him will arise, ^adesecrate the sanctuary fortress, and do away with the regular sacrifice. And they will set up the ^babomination ¹of desolation.

32 "And by ^asmooth words he will ¹turn to godlessness those who act wickedly toward the covenant, but the people who know their God will display ^bstrength and take action.

33 "And ¹those who have insight among the people will give understanding to the many; yet they will ^afall by sword and by flame, by captivity and by plunder, for many days.

34 "Now when they fall they will be granted a little help, and many will ^ajoin with them in ^bhypocrisy.

35 "And some of ¹those who have insight will fall, in order to ^arefine, ^bpurge, and make them ²pure, until the end time; because it is still to come at the appointed time.

36 "Then the king will ^ado as he pleases, and he will exalt and ^bmagnify himself above every god, and will speak ¹monstrous things against the ^dGod of gods; and he will prosper until the ^eindignation is finished, for that which is ^fdecreed will be done.

37 "And he will show no regard for the ¹gods of his fathers or for the desire of women, nor will he show regard for any other god; for he will magnify himself above them all.

38 "But ¹instead he will honor a god of fortresses, a god whom his fathers did not know; he will honor him with gold, silver, costly stones, and treasures.

39 "And he will take action against the strongest of fortresses with the help of a foreign god; he will give great honor to ¹those who acknowledge him, and he will cause them to rule over the many, and will parcel out land for a price.

40 "And at the end ^atime the king of the South will collide with him, and the king of the North will ^bstorm against him with chariots, with horsemen, and with many ships; and he will enter countries, overflow them, and pass through.

41 "He will also enter the ¹Beautiful Land, and many countries will fall; but these will be rescued out of his hand: Edom, ^aMoab and the foremost of the sons of ^bAmmon.

42 "Then he will stretch out his hand against other countries, and the land of Egypt will not escape.

43 "But he will ¹gain control over the hidden treasures of gold and silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; and ^aLibyans and ^bEthiopians will follow at his ²heels.

44 "But rumors from the East and from the North will disturb him, and he will go forth with great wrath to destroy and ¹annihilate many.

45 "And he will pitch the tents of his royal pavilion between the seas and the beautiful ^aHoly Mountain; yet he will come to his end, and no one will help him.

CHAPTER 12

“NOW at that time Michael, the great prince who stands guard over the sons of your people, will arise. And there will be a time of distress ^asuch as never occurred since there was a nation until that time; and at that time your people, everyone who is found written in the ^bbook, will be rescued.

2 “And ^amany of those who sleep in the dust of the ground will awake, ^bthese to everlasting life, but the others to disgrace and everlasting ¹contempt.

3 “And ¹those who have ^ainsight will ^bshine brightly like the brightness of the ²expanse of heaven, and those who ^clead the many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever.

4 “But as for you, Daniel, ^aconceal these words and ^bseal up the book until the end of ^ctime; ^dmany will go back and forth, and knowledge will increase.”

5 Then I, Daniel, looked and behold, two others were standing, one on this bank of the river, and the other on that bank of the river.

6 And ^aone said to the man ^bdressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “^cHow long will it be until the end of these wonders?”

7 And I heard the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, ¹as he ^araised his right hand and his left toward heaven, and swore by Him who lives forever that it would be for a ^{2b}time, ²times, and half a ²time; and as soon as ³they finish ^cshattering the ⁴power of the holy people, all these events will be completed.

8 As for me, I heard but could not understand; so I said, “My lord, what will be the ¹outcome of these events?”

9 And he said, “Go your way, Daniel, for these words are concealed and sealed up until the end time.

10 “Many will be purged, ¹purified and refined; but the wicked will act wickedly, and none of the wicked will understand, but ²those who ^bhave insight will understand.

11 “And from the time that the regular sacrifice is abolished, and the ^{1a}abomination of desolation is set up, there will be 1290 days.

12 “How ^ablessed is he who keeps waiting and attains to the ^b1335 days!

13 “But as for you, go your way to the ¹end; then you will enter into ^arest and risc again for your ^ballotted portion at the end of the ²age.”

THE word of the LORD which came to ^aHosea the son of Beeri, during the days of ^bUzziah, ^cJotham, ^dAhaz, and ^eHezekiah, kings of Judah, and during the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.

2 When the LORD first spoke through Hosea, the LORD said to Hosea, “^aGo, take to yourself a wife of harlotry, and have children of harlotry; for the land commits flagrant harlotry, ¹forsaking the LORD.”

3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

4 And the LORD said to him, “Name him Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will ¹punish the house of Jehu for the bloodshed of Jezreel, and I will put an end to the kingdom of the house of Israel.

5 “And it will come about on that day, that I will ^abreak the bow of Israel in the ^bvalley of Jezreel.”

6 Then she conceived again and gave birth to a daughter. And ¹the LORD said to him, “Name her ²Lo-ruhamah, for I will no longer have compassion on the house of Israel, that I should ever forgive them.

7 “But I will have ^acompassion on the house of Judah and ^bdeliver them by the LORD their God, and will not deliver them by ^cbow, sword, battle, horses, or horsemen.”

8 When she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived and gave birth to a son.

9 And ¹the LORD said, “Name him ²Lo-ammi, for you are not My people and I am not ³your God.”

10 ¹Yet the number of the sons of Israel will be like the ^asand of the sea,

Which cannot be measured or numbered;

And it will come about that, in the place

Where it is said to them,

“You are ^bnot My people,”

It will be said to them,

“You are the ^csons of the living God.”

11 And the sons of Judah and the sons of Israel will be gathered together,

And they will appoint for themselves ^aone leader,

And they will go up from the land,

For great will be the day of Jezreel.

CHAPTER 2

¹SAY to your brothers, “²Ammi,” and to your sisters, “³Ruhamah.”

2 “Contend with your mother, ^acontend,

For she is not my wife, and I am not her husband;

And let her put away her harlotry from her face,

And her adultery from between her breasts,

3 Lest I strip her ^anaked

And expose her as on the day when she was born.

- I will also ^bmake her like a wilderness,
 Make her like desert land,
 And slay her with ^cthirst.
- 4 "Also, I will have no compassion on her children,
 Because they are children of harlotry.
- 5 "For their mother has played the harlot;
 She who conceived them has acted shamefully.
 For she said, 'I will go after my lovers,
 Who ^bgive me my bread and my water,
 My wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.'
- 6 "Therefore, behold, I will ^ahedge up ¹her way with thorns,
 And I will build ²a wall against her so that she cannot find her ^bpaths.
- 7 "And she will ^apursue her lovers, but she will not overtake them;
 And she will seek them, but will not find them.
 Then she will say, 'I will go back to my ^bfirst husband,
 For it was ^cbetter for me then than now!'
- 8 "For she does ^anot know that it was ^bI who gave her the grain, the new wine, and the oil,
 And lavished on her silver and gold,
 Which they ¹used for Baal.
- 9 "Therefore, I will take back My grain at ¹harvest time
 And My new wine in its season.
 I will also take away My wool and My flax
 Given to cover her nakedness.
- 10 "And then I will ^auncover her lewdness
 In the sight of her lovers,
 And no one will rescue her out of My hand.
- 11 "I will also ^aput an end to all her gaiety,
 Her ^bfeasts, her ^cnew moons, her sabbaths,
 And all her festal assemblies.
- 12 "And I will ^adestroy her vines and fig trees,
 Of which she said, 'These are my wages
 Which my lovers have given me.'
 And I will ^bmake them a forest,
 And the ^cbeasts of the field will devour them.
- 13 "And I will punish her for the ^adays of the Baals
 When she used to ¹offer sacrifices to them
 And adorn herself with her ²earrings and jewelry,
 And follow her lovers, so that she forgot Me," declares
 the LORD.
- 14 "Therefore, behold, I will allure her,
^aBring her into the wilderness,
 And speak ¹kindly to her.
- 15 "Then I will give her her ^avineyards from there,
 And the ^bvalley of Achor as a door of hope.
 And she will ¹sing there as in the days of her youth,
 As in the day when she came up from the land of Egypt.

The birds of the sky,
And the creeping things of the ground.

And will make them ^blie down in safety.19 "And I will ^abetroth you to Me forever;
Yes, I will betroth you to Me in ^brighteousness and in justice,20 And I will betroth you to Me in faithfulness.
Then you will ^aknow the LORD.21 "And it will come about in that day that ^aI will respond," declares the LORD.

"I will respond to the heavens, and they will respond to the earth,

22 And the ^aearth will respond to the grain, to the new wine, and to the oil,
And they will respond to ¹Jezreel.23 "And I will ^asow her for Myself in the land.
I will also have compassion on ¹her who had not obtained compassion,And ^bI will say to ²those who were 'not My people,
'You are My people!'And ³they will say, 'Thou art my God!' "

CHAPTER 3

THEN the LORD said to me, "Go, again love a ¹woman who is loved by her ²husband, yet an adulteress, even as the LORD loves the sons of Israel, though they turn to other gods and love raisin ^acakes."2 So I ^abought her for myself for fifteen shekels of silver and a homer and a ¹half of barley.3 Then I said to her, "You shall stay with me for many days. You shall not play the harlot, nor shall you have a ¹man; so I will also be toward you."4 For the sons of Israel will remain for many days without king or prince, ^awithout sacrifice or sacred ^bpillar, and without ^cephod or ¹household idols.5 Afterward the sons of Israel will ^areturn and seek the LORD their God and ^bDavid their king; and they will come trembling to the LORD and to His goodness in the last days.

CHAPTER 4

LISTEN to the word of the LORD, O sons of Israel,
For the LORD has a ^acase against the inhabitants of the land,

- Because there is ^bno ¹faithfulness or ²kindness
Or knowledge of God in the land.
- 2 There is swearing, deception, murder, stealing, and adultery.
They employ violence, so that bloodshed ¹follows bloodshed.
- 3 Therefore the land ^amourns,
And every one who lives in it languishes
Along with the beasts of the field and the birds of the sky;
And also the fish of the sea ¹disappear.
- 4 Yet let no one ^{1a}find fault, and let none offer reproof;
For your people are like those who ^bcontend with the priest.
- 5 So you will ^astumble by day,
And the prophet also will stumble with you by night;
And I will destroy your ^bmother.
- 6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
Because you have ^arejected knowledge,
I also will reject you from being My priest.
Since you have forgotten the law of your God,
I also will forget your children.
- 7 The more they ^amultiplied, the more they sinned against Me;
I will ^bchange their glory into shame.
- 8 They feed on the ¹sin of My people,
And ^adirect their desire toward their iniquity.
- 9 And it will be, like people, ^alike priest;
So I will punish them for their ways,
And repay them for their deeds.
- 10 And they will eat, but not have enough;
They will play the harlot, but not increase,
Because they have ¹stopped giving heed to the LORD.
- 11 Harlotry, wine, and new wine ^atake away the ¹understanding.
- 12 My people ^aconsult their wooden idol, and their diviner's wand informs them;
For a spirit of harlotry has led them astray,
And they have played the harlot, departing ¹from their God.
- 13 They offer sacrifices on the ^atops of the mountains
And ^{1b}burn incense on the hills,
^cUnder oak, poplar, and terebinth,
Because their shade is pleasant.
Therefore your daughters play the harlot,
And your ²brides commit adultery.
- 14 I will not punish your daughters when they play the harlot
Or your ¹brides when they commit adultery,
For the men themselves go apart with harlots
And offer sacrifices with temple ^aprostitutes;
So the people without understanding are ²ruined.

Like a stubborn heifer,
¹Can the LORD now ^bpasture them

- 18 Their liquor gone,
They play the harlot continually;

- 19 ^aThe wind wraps them in its wings,
And they will be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

CHAPTER 5

- HEAR this, O priests!
Give heed, O house of Israel!
Listen, O house of the king!
For the judgment applies to you,
For you have been a snare at Mizpah,
And a net spread out on Tabor.
- 2 And the revolters have ^{1a}gone deep in depravity,
But I will chastise all of them.
- 3 I ^aknow Ephraim, and Israel is not hidden from Me;
For now, O Ephraim, you have played the harlot,
Israel has defiled itself.
- 4 Their deeds will not allow them
To return to their God.
For a spirit of harlotry is within them,
And they do not ^aknow the LORD.
- 5 Moreover, the pride of Israel testifies against him,
And Israel and Ephraim stumble in their iniquity; ^aJudah also has stumbled with them.
- 6 They will ^ago with their flocks and herds
To seek the LORD, but they will ^bnot find Him;
He has ^cwithdrawn from them.
- 7 They have ^adealt treacherously against the LORD,
For they have borne ^billegitimate children.
Now the ^cnew moon will devour them with their ²land.
- 8 Blow the horn in Gibeah,
The trumpet in Ramah.
Sound an alarm at Beth-aven:
"Behind you, Benjamin!"
- 9 Ephraim will become a ^adesolation in the ^bday of rebuke;
Among the tribes of Israel I declare what is ^csure.
- 10 The princes of Judah have become like those who ^amove a boundary;
On them I will ^bpour out My wrath ^clike water.

- 11 Ephraim is oppressed, crushed in judgment,
Because he was determined to ¹follow man's command.
- 12 Therefore I am like a ²moth to Ephraim,
And like rottenness to the house of Judah.
- 13 When Ephraim saw his sickness,
And Judah his ¹wound,
Then Ephraim went to Assyria
And sent to ²King Jareb.
But he is unable to heal you,
Or to cure you of your ¹wound.
- 14 For I will be ²like a lion to Ephraim,
And like a young lion to the house of Judah.
¹I, even I, will tear to pieces and go away,
I will carry away, and there will be ^cnone to deliver.
- 15 I will go away and return to My place
Until they ^{1a}acknowledge their guilt and seek My face;
In their affliction they will earnestly ^bseek Me.

- ¹ COME, let us return to the LORD.
For he has torn us, but He will heal us;
He has ¹wounded us, but He will ^bbandage us.
- 2 "He will ^arevive us after two days;
He will raise us up on the third day
That we may live before Him.
- 3 "So let us ^aknow, let us press on to know the LORD.
His ^bgoing forth is as certain as the dawn;
And He will come to us like the ^crain,
Like the spring rain watering the earth."
- 4 What shall I do with you, O Ephraim?
What shall I do with you, O Judah?
For your ¹loyalty is like a ^amorning cloud,
And like the dew which goes away early.
- 5 Therefore I have ^ahewn them in pieces by the prophets;
I have slain them by the words of My mouth;
And the judgments on you are like the light that goes forth.
- 6 For ^aI delight in loyalty rather than sacrifice,
And in the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings.
- 7 But like ¹Adam they have transgressed the covenant;
There they have dealt treacherously against Me.
- 8 Gilead is a city of wrongdoers,
Tracked with bloody footprints.
- 9 And as raiders wait for a man,
So a band of priests ^amurder on the way to Shechem;
Surely they have committed ^{1b}crime.
- 10 In the house of Israel I have seen a ^ahorrible thing;
Ephraim's harlotry is there, Israel has defiled itself.
- 11 Also, O Judah, there is a ^aharvest appointed for you,
When I ^brestore the fortunes of My people.

- WHEN I ^awould heal Israel,
The iniquity of Ephraim is uncovered,
And the evil deeds of Samaria,
For they deal falsely;
The thief enters in,
Bandits raid outside,
2 And they do not ¹consider in their hearts
That I ^aremember all their wickedness.
Now their ^bdeeds are all around them;
They are before My face.
3 With their wickedness they make the ^aking glad,
And the princes with their lies.
4 They are ^aall adulterers
Like an oven heated by the baker,
Who ceases to stir up the fire
From the kneading of the dough until it is leavened.
5 On the ¹day of our king the princes ^abecame sick with the heat of wine;
He stretched out his hand with ^bscoffers,
6 For their hearts are like an ^aoven
As they approach their ¹plotting;
Their ²anger ³smolders all night,
In the morning it burns like a flaming fire.
All of them are hot like an oven,
And they consume their rulers;
7 All their kings have fallen.
None of them calls on Me.
- 8 Ephraim mixes himself with the ¹nations;
Ephraim has become a cake not turned.
9 ^aStrangers devour his strength,
Yet he does not know it;
Gray hairs also are sprinkled on him,
Yet he does not know it.
10 Though the pride of Israel testifies against him,
Yet they have neither returned to the LORD their God,
Nor have they sought Him, for all this.
11 So Ephraim has become like a silly dove, without ¹sense;
They call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.
12 When they go, I will ^aspread My net over them;
I will bring them down like the birds of the sky.
I will chastise them in accordance with the ¹proclamation to their assembly.
13 Woe to them, for they have ^astrayed from Me!
Destruction is theirs, for they have rebelled against Me!
I ^bwould redeem them, but they speak lies against Me.
14 And they do not cry to Me from their heart
When they wail on their beds;
For the sake of grain and new wine they ^{1a}assemble themselves,
They turn away from Me.
15 Although I trained and strengthened their arms,
Yet they ^adevise evil against Me.

- 16 They turn, but not ¹upward,
 They are like a ²deceitful bow;
 Their princes will fall by the sword
 Because of the ^{2b}insolence of their tongue.
 This will be their ^cderision in the land of Egypt.

CHAPTER 8

- PUT the trumpet to your ¹lips!
^aLike an eagle the enemy comes ^bagainst the house of the LORD,
 Because they have transgressed My covenant,
 And rebelled against My law.
- 2 They cry out to Me,
 "My God, we of Israel know Thee!"
- 3 Israel has rejected the good;
 The enemy will pursue him.
- 4 They have set up kings, but not by Me;
 They have appointed princes, but I did not know it.
 With their ^asilver and gold they have made idols for themselves,
 That ¹they might be cut off.
- 5 ¹He has rejected your calf, O Samaria, saying,
 "My anger burns against them!"
 How long will they be incapable of ^ainnocence?
- 6 For from Israel is even this!
 A craftsman made it, so it is not God;
 Surely the calf of Samaria will be broken to ¹pieces.
- 7 For they sow the wind,
 And they reap the ^awhirlwind.
 The standing grain has no ¹heads;
 It yields no ²grain.
 Should it yield, strangers would swallow it up.
- 8 Israel is ^aswallowed up;
 They are now among the nations
 Like a ^bvessel in which no one delights.
- 9 For they have gone up to Assyria,
 Like a wild donkey ¹all alone;
 Ephraim has ^ahired ¹lovers.
- 10 Even though they hire allies among the nations,
 Now I will ^agather them up;
 And they will begin ^{1b}to diminish
 Because of the burden of the ^cking of princes.
- 11 Since Ephraim has multiplied altars for sin,
 They have become altars of sinning for him.
- 12 Though I wrote for him ten thousand precepts of My law,
 They are regarded as a strange thing.
- 13 As for My sacrificial gifts,
 They ^asacrifice the flesh and eat it,
 But the LORD has taken no delight in them.

DO not rejoice, O Israel, ¹with exultation like the ²nations! For you have played the harlot, ³forsaking your God. You have loved harlots' earnings on ⁴every threshing floor.

2 Threshing floor and wine press will not feed them, And the new wine will fail ¹them.

3 They will not remain in the LORD's land, But Ephraim will return to Egypt, And in Assyria they will eat ^aunclean food.

4 They will not pour out libations of ^awine to the LORD, Their sacrifices will not please Him, Their bread will ¹be like ²mourners' bread; All who eat of it will be ^bdefiled, For their bread will be for ³themselves alone; It will not enter the house of the LORD.

5 ^aWhat will you do on the day of the appointed festival And on the day of the ^bfeast of the LORD?

6 For behold, they will go because of destruction; Egypt will gather them up, Memphis will bury them. Weeds will take over their treasures of silver; ^aThorns will be in their tents.

7 The days of ^apunishment have come, The days of ^bretribution have come;

¹Let Israel know this! The prophet is a ^cfool, The ^dinspired man is ^edemented, Because of the grossness of your ^einiquity, And because your hostility is so great.

8 Ephraim was a watchman with my God, a prophet; Yet the snare of a bird catcher is in all his ways, And there is only hostility in the house of his God.

9 They have gone ^adeep ¹in depravity As in the days of Gibeah; He will ^bremember their iniquity, He will punish their sins.

10 I found Israel like ^agrapes in the wilderness; I saw your forefathers as the ^bearliest fruit on the fig tree in its first season. But they came to Baal-peor and devoted themselves to ¹shame, And they became as ^ddetestable as that which they loved.

11 As for Ephraim, their glory will ^afly away like a bird— No birth, no pregnancy, and no conception!

12 Though they bring up their children, Yet I will bereave them ¹until not a man is left. Yes, woe to them indeed when I depart from them!

- 13 Ephraim, as I have seen,
Is planted in a pleasant meadow like Tyre;
But Ephraim will bring out his children for slaughter.
- 14 Give them, O LORD— what wilt Thou give?
Give them a ^amiscarrying womb and dry breasts.
- 15 All their evil is at Gilgal;
Indeed, I came to hate them there!
Because of the ^awickedness of their deeds
I will drive them out of My house!
I will love them no more;
All their princes are ^brebels.
- 16 Ephraim is stricken, their root is dried up,
They will bear no fruit.
Even though they bear children,
I will slay the ^aprecious ones of their womb.
- 17 My God will cast them away
Because they have not listened to Him;
And they will be wanderers among the nations.

CHAPTER 10

- ISRAEL is a ¹luxuriant ^avine;

The more altars he ^bmade;
The ²richer his land,

Wickedness Unabated. God Yearns over His People.

- 9 From the days of Gibeah you have sinned, O Israel;
 There they stand!
 Will not the battle against the sons of iniquity overtake them in Gibeah?
- 10 When it is My ^adesire, I will ¹chastise them;
 And the peoples will be gathered against them
 When they are bound for their double guilt.
- 11 And Ephraim is a trained ^aheifer that loves to thresh,
 But I will ^bcome over her fair neck with a yoke;
 I will ^charness Ephraim,
 Judah will plow, Jacob will harrow for himself.
- 12 ^aSow with a view to righteousness,
 Reap in accordance with ¹kindness;
^bBreak up your fallow ground,
 For it is time to seek the LORD
 Until He comes to ²rain righteousness on you.
- 13 You have ^aplowed wickedness, you have reaped injustice,
 You have eaten the fruit of ^blies.
 Because you have trusted in your way, in your ^cnumerous warriors,
- 14 Therefore, a tumult will arise among your people,
 And all your ^afortresses will be destroyed,
 As Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel on the day of battle, When ^bmothers were dashed in pieces with their children.
- 15 Thus it will be done to you at Bethel because of your great wickedness.
 At dawn the king of Israel will be completely cut off.

CHAPTER 11

- WHEN Israel was a youth I loved him,
 And ^aout of Egypt I ^bcalled My son.
- 2 The more ¹they called them,
 The more they went from ¹them;
 They kept sacrificing to the Baals
 And ^bburning incense to idols.
- 3 Yet it is I who taught Ephraim to walk,
¹I ^atook them in ¹My arms;
 But they did not know that I ^bhealed them.
- 4 I ^aled them with cords of a man, with bonds of love,
 And I became to them as one who lifts the yoke from their jaws;
 And I bent down and ^bfed them.
- 5 ¹They will not return to the land of Egypt;
 But Assyria—he will be ²their king,
 Because they refused to return to Me.
- 6 And the sword will whirl against ¹their cities,
 And will demolish ¹their gate bars
 And ^aconsume them because of their ^bcounsels.
- 7 So My people are bent on ^aturning from Me.
 Though ¹they call ²them to the One on high,
 None at all exalts Him.

- 8 ^aHow can I give you up, O Ephraim?
 How can I surrender you, O Israel?
 How can I ¹make you like ^bAdmah?
 How can I treat you like ^bZeboiim?
 My heart is turned over within Me,
²All my compassions are kindled.
- 9 I will ^anot execute My fierce anger;
 I will not destroy Ephraim ^bagain.
 For I am God and not man, the ^cHoly One in your midst,
 And I will not come in ¹wrath.
- 10 They will ^awalk after the LORD,
 He will ^broar like a lion;
 Indeed He will roar,
 And His sons will come ^ctrembling from the west.
- 11 They will come trembling like birds from ^aEgypt,
 And like ^bdoves from the land of ^aAssyria;
 And I will ^csettle them in their houses, declares the LORD.
- 12 ¹Ephraim surrounds Me with lies,
 And the house of Israel with deceit;
 Judah is also unruly against God,
 Even against the Holy one who is faithful.

CHAPTER 12

- ¹EPHRAIM feeds on ^awind,
 And pursues the east ^bwind continually;
 He multiplies lies and violence.
 Moreover, ²he makes a covenant with Assyria,
 And oil is carried to Egypt.
- 2 The LORD also has a ^adispute with Judah,
 And will punish Jacob ^baccording to his ways;
 He will repay him according to his deeds.
- 3 In the womb he ^atook his brother by the heel,
 And in his maturity he ^bcontended with God.
- 4 Yes, he wrestled with the angel and prevailed;
 He wept and ^asought His favor.
 He found Him at ^bBethel,
 And there He spoke with us,
- 5 Even the LORD, the God of hosts;
 The LORD is His ¹^aname.
- 6 Therefore, return to your God,
 Observe ¹kindness and justice,
 And ^await for your God continually.
- 7 A ¹merchant, in whose hands are false ^bbalances,
 He loves to oppress.
- 8 And Ephraim said, "Surely I have become ^arich,
 I have found wealth for myself;
 In all my labors they will find in me
^bNo iniquity, which would be sin."
- 9 But I have been the LORD your God since the land of Egypt;
 I will make you ^alive in tents again,
 As in the days of the appointed festival.

- 10 I have also spoken to the ^aprophets,
 And I ¹gave numerous visions;
 And through the prophets I gave ^bparables.
- 11 Is there iniquity in Gilead?
 Surely they are worthless.
 In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls,
 Yes, their altars are like the stone heaps Beside the furrows of the field.
- 12 Now ^aJacob fled to the ¹land of Aram,
 And ^bIsrael worked for a wife,
 And for a wife he kept sheep.
- 13 But by a ^aprophet the LORD brought Israel from Egypt,
 And by a prophet he was kept.
- 14 ^aEphraim has provoked to bitter anger;
 So his Lord will leave his ^bblood guilt on him,
 And bring back his ^creproach to him.

CHAPTER 13

- ^aWHEN Ephraim ¹spoke, there was trembling.
 He ^bexalted himself in Israel,
 But through ^cBaal he ²did wrong and died.
- 2 And now they sin more and more,
 And make for themselves ^amolten images,
 Idols ^bskillfully made from their silver,
 All of them the ^cwork of craftsmen.
 They say of them, "Let the ²men who sacrifice kiss the calves!"
- 3 Therefore, they will be like the morning cloud,
 And like dew which ¹soon disappears,
 Like ^achaff which is blown away from the threshing floor,
 And like ^bsmoke from a ²chimney.
- 4 Yet I have been the LORD your God
 Since the land of Egypt;
 And you were not to know ^aany god except Me,
 For there is no savior ^bbesides Me.
- 5 I ¹acared for you in the wilderness,
 In the land of drought.
- 6 As they had their pasture, they became ^asatisfied,
 And being satisfied, their heart became proud;
 Therefore, they ^bforgot Me.
- 7 So I will be like a lion to them;
 Like a ^aleopard I will ¹lie in wait by the wayside.
- 8 I will encounter them like a bear robbed of her cubs,
 And I will tear open ¹their chests;
 There I will also ^adevour them like a lioness,
 As a wild beast would tear them.
- 9 It is your destruction, O Israel,
¹That you are ^aagainst Me, against your ^bhelp.
- 10 Where now is your ^aking
 That he may save you in all your cities,

- And your judges of whom you ¹requested,
 "Give me a king and princes"?"
- 11 I ^agave you a king in My anger,
 And ^btook him away in My wrath.
- 12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up;
 His sin is ^astored up.
- 13 The pains of ^achildbirth come upon him;
 He is ^bnot a wise son,
 For ¹it is not the time that he should ^cdelay at the opening of the womb.
- 14 I will ^aransom them from the ¹power of Sheol;
 I will redeem them from death.
^bO Death, where are your thorns?
^cO Sheol, where is your sting?
^cCompassion will be hid from My sight.
- 15 Though he ^aflourishes among the ¹reeds,
 An ^beast wind will come,
 The wind of the LORD coming up from the wilderness;
 And his fountain will ^cbecome dry,
 And his spring will be dried up;
 It will ^dplunder his treasury of every precious article.
- 16 ¹Samaria will be held guilty,
 For she has rebelled against her God.

THE BOOK OF JOEL

Devastation of Locusts.

THE ^aword of the LORD that came to ^bJoel, the son of Pethuel.

- 2 ^aHear this, O ^belders,
 And listen, all inhabitants of the land.
 Has anything like this happened in ^cyour days
 Or in your fathers' days?
- 3 ^aTell your sons about it,
 And let your sons tell their sons,
 And their sons the next generation.
- 4 What the ^agnawing locust has left, the swarming locust has eaten;
 And what the swarming locust has left, the ^bcreeping
 locust has eaten;
 And what the creeping locust has left, the ^cstripping
 locust has eaten.
- 5 Awake, drunkards, and weep;
 And wail, all you wine drinkers,
 On account of the sweet wine,
 That is cut off from your mouth.
- 6 For a ^anation has ¹invaded my land,
 Mighty and without number;
 Its teeth are the teeth of a lion,
 And it has the fangs of a lioness.
- 7 It has ^amade my vine a waste,
 And my fig tree ¹splinters.
 It has stripped them bare and cast them away;
 Their branches have become white.
- 8 Wail like a virgin ^agirded with sackcloth
 For the bridegroom of her youth.
- 9 The ^agrain offering and the libation are cut off
 From the house of the LORD.
 The priests mourn,
 The ministers of the LORD.
- 10 The field is ^aruined,
 The land mourns;

- For the grain is ruined,
The new wine dries up,
Fresh oil ¹fails.
- 11 ^{1a}Be ashamed, O farmers,
Wail, O vinedressers,
For the wheat and the barley;
Because the ^bharvest of the field is destroyed.
- 12 The ^avine dries up,
And the fig tree ¹fails;
The ^bpomegranate, the ^cpalm also, and the ^{2d}apple tree,
All the trees of the field dry up.
Indeed, ^crejoicing dries up
From the sons of men.
- 13 Gird yourselves with sackcloth,
And lament, O priests;
^aWail, O ministers of the altar!
Come, ^bspend the night in sackcloth,
O ministers of my God,
For the grain offering and the libation
Are withheld from the house of your God.
- 14 Consecrate a fast,
Proclaim a solemn assembly;
Gather the elders
And all the inhabitants of the land
To the house of the LORD your God,
And ^acry out to the LORD.
- 15 ^aAlas for the day!
For the day of the LORD is near,
And it will come as ^bdestruction from the ¹Almighty.
- 16 Has not ^afood been cut off before our eyes,
Gladness and ^bjoy from the house of our God?
- 17 The ^{1a}seeds shrivel under their ²clouds;
The storehouses are desolate,
The barns are torn down,
For the grain is dried up.
- 18 How the beasts groan!
The herds of cattle wander aimlessly
Because there is no pasture for them;
Even the flocks of sheep ¹suffer.
- 19 ^aTo Thee, O LORD, I cry;
For ^bfire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness,
And the flame has burned up all the trees of the field.
- 20 Even the beasts of the field ^{1a}pant for Thee;
For the ^bwater brooks are dried up,
And fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

A day of clouds and thick darkness.

As the dawn is spread over the mountains,
 So there is a ^bgreat and mighty people;
 There has ^cnever been anything like it,
 Nor will there be again after it
 To the years of many generations.

3 A ^afire consumes before them,
 And behind them a flame burns.
 The land is ^blike the garden of Eden before them,
 But a ^cdesolate wilderness behind them,
 And nothing at all escapes them.

4 Their ^aappearance is like the appearance of horses;
 And like war horses, so they run.

5 ¹With a ^anoise as of chariots
 They leap on the tops of the mountains,
 Like the ²crackling of a ^bflame of fire consuming the stubble,

Like a mighty people arranged for battle.

6 Before them the peoples are in ^aanguish;
 All ^bfaces ¹turn pale.

7 They run like ^amighty men;
 They climb the wall like soldiers;
 And they each march ¹in line,
 Nor do they deviate from their paths.

8 They do not crowd each other;
 They march every one in his path.
 When they ¹burst through the ²defenses,
 They do not break ranks.

9 They rush on the city,
 They run on the wall;
 They climb into the ^ahouses,
 They ^benter through the windows like a thief.

10 Before them the earth ^aquakes,
 The heavens tremble,
 The ^bsun and the moon grow dark,
 And the stars lose their brightness.

11 And the LORD ^autters His voice before His army;
 Surely His camp is very great,
 For ^bstrong is He who carries out His word.
 The ^cday of the LORD is indeed great and very awesome,

And ^dwho can endure it?

12 "Yet even now," declares the LORD,
 "Return to Me with all your heart,
 And with fasting, weeping, and mourning;
 13 And rend your heart and not your garments."
 Now return to the LORD your God,

For He is ^agracious and compassionate,
 Slow to anger, abounding in lovingkindness,
 And ^brelenting of evil.

14 Who knows whether He will not turn and relent,
 And leave a ^ablessing behind Him,
 Even a grain offering and a libation
 For the LORD your God?

15 Blow a trumpet in Zion,
 Consecrate a fast, proclaim a solemn assembly,

- 16 Gather the people, sanctify the congregation,
 Assemble the elders,
 Gather the children and the nursing infants.
 Let the ^abridegroom come out of his room
 And the bride out of her bridal chamber.
- 17 Let the priests, the LORD's ministers,
^aWeep between the porch and the altar,
 And let them say, "^bSpare Thy people, O LORD,
 And do not make Thine inheritance a ^creproach,
 A byword among the nations.
 Why should they among the peoples say,
 '^dWhere is their God?'"
- 18 Then the LORD ¹will be ^azealous for His land,
 And ²will have ^bpity on His people.
- 19 And the LORD ¹will answer and say to His people,
 "Behold, I am going to send you grain, new wine, and oil,
 And you will be satisfied in full with ²them;
 And I will ^anever again make you a reproach among the nations.
- 20 "But I will remove the ^anorthern army far from you,
 And I will drive it into a parched and desolate land,
 And its vanguard into the ^beastern sea,
 And its rear guard into the ^cwestern sea.
 And its ^dstench will arise and its foul smell will come up,
 For it has done great things."
- 21 Do not ^afear, O land, rejoice and be glad,
 For the LORD has done ^bgreat things.
- 22 Do not fear, beasts of the field,
 For the pastures of the wilderness have turned green,
 For the tree has borne its fruit,
 The fig tree and the vine have yielded ¹in full.
- 23 So rejoice, O sons of Zion,
 And ^abe glad in the LORD your God;
 For He has ^bgiven you ¹the early rain for your vindication.
 And He has poured down for you the rain,
 The ²early and ³latter rain ⁴as before.
- 24 And the threshing ^afloors will be full of grain,
 And the vats will overflow with the new wine and oil.
- 25 "Then I will make up to you for the years
 That the swarming ^alocust has eaten,
 The creeping locust, the stripping locust, and the gnawing locust,
 My great army which I sent among you.
- 26 "And you shall have plenty to ^aeat and be satisfied,
 And ^bpraise the name of the LORD your God,
 Who has ^cdealt wondrously with you;
 Then My people will never be ^dput to shame.
- 27 "Thus you will ^aknow that I am in the midst of Israel,
 And that I am the LORD your God
 And there is ^bno other;
 And My people will never be put to shame.

Outpouring of God's Spirit. The Nations Judged.

- 28 ¹"And it will come about after this
 That I will pour out My ²Spirit on all ^{2b}mankind;
 And your sons and daughters will prophesy,
 Your old men will dream dreams,
 Your young men will see visions.
- 29 "And even on the ³male and female servants
 I will pour out My Spirit in those days.
- 30 "And I will ⁴display wonders in the sky and on the earth,
 Blood, fire, and columns of smoke.
- 31 "The ⁵sun will be turned into darkness,
 And the moon into blood,
 Before the ⁶great and awesome day of the LORD comes.
- 32 "And it will come about that ⁷whoever calls on the name of the LORD
 Will be delivered;
 For on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem
 There will be those who ⁸escape,
 As the LORD has said,
 Even among the survivors whom the LORD calls.

CHAPTER 3

- ¹"FOR behold, in those days and at that time,
 When I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,
 2 I will ²gather all the nations,
 And bring them down to the ³valley of ¹Jehoshaphat.
 Then I will ⁴enter into judgment with them there
 On behalf of My people and My inheritance, Israel,
 Whom they have ⁵scattered among the nations;
 And they have ⁶divided up My land.
- 3 "They have also ⁷cast lots for my people,
^{1b}Traded a boy for a harlot,
 And sold a girl for wine that they may drink.
- 4 "Moreover, what are you to Me, O Tyre, Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia? Are you rendering Me a recompense?
 But if you do recompense Me, swiftly and speedily I will return your recompense on your head.
- 5 "Since you have ⁸taken My silver and My gold, brought
 My precious ¹treasures to your temples,
 6 and sold the sons of Judah and Jerusalem to the ¹Greeks in order to remove them far from their territory, 7 behold, I am going to arouse them from the place where you have sold them, and return your recompense on your head.
- 8 "Also I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the sons of Judah, and they will sell them to the Sabaeans, to a distant nation," for the LORD has spoken.
- 9 ²Proclaim this among the nations:
³Prepare a war; ⁴rouse the mighty men!
 Let all the soldiers draw near, let them come up!
- 10 ⁵Beat your plowshares into swords,
 And your pruning hooks into spears;
 Let the weak say, "I am a mighty man."
- 11 ¹Hasten and come all you surrounding nations,
 And gather yourselves there.
 Bring down, O LORD, Thy ²mighty ones.

- 12 Let the nations be aroused
And come up to the ^avalley of ¹Jehoshaphat,
For there I will sit to ^bjudge
All the surrounding nations.
- 13 Put in the sickle, for the ^aharvest is ripe.
Come, tread, for the wine press is full;
The vats overflow, for their ^bwickedness is great.
- 14 ^aMultitudes, multitudes in the ^bvalley of ¹decision!
For the ^cday of the LORD is near in the valley of ¹decision.
- 15 The ^asun and moon grow dark,
And the stars lose their brightness.
- 16 And the LORD ^aroars from Zion
And utters His voice from Jerusalem,
And the ^bheavens and the earth tremble.
But the LORD is a ^crefuge for His people
And a ^dstronghold to the sons of Israel.
- 17 Then you will know that I am the LORD your God, Dwelling in Zion My ^aholy mountain.
So Jerusalem will be ^bholy,
And ^cstrangers will pass through it no more.
- 18 And it will come about in that day
That the ^amountains will drip with ¹sweet wine,
And the hills will ^bflow with milk,
And all the ^cbrooks of Judah will flow with water;
And a ^dspring will go out from the house of the LORD,
To water the valley of ²Shittim.
- 19 Egypt will become a waste,
And Edom will become a desolate wilderness,
Because of the ^aviolence done to the sons of Judah,
In whose land they have shed innocent blood.
- 20 But Judah will be ^ainhabited forever,
And Jerusalem for all generations.
- 21 And I will ^aavenge their blood which I have not avenged, for the LORD dwells in Zion.

THE BOOK OF AMOS

Judgment on Neighbor Nations.

THE words of Amos, who was among the shepherders from ^aTekoa, which he ¹envisioned in visions concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the ^bearthquake.

2 And he said,

“The ^aLORD roars from Zion,
And from Jerusalem He utters His voice;
And the shepherds’ ^bpasture grounds mourn,
And the ¹summit of Carmel dries up.”

CHAPTER 2

THUS says the LORD,

“For three transgressions of ^aMoab and for four
I will not ¹revoke its punishment,
Because he burned the bones of the king of Edom to lime.

2 “So I will send fire upon Moab,
And it will consume the citadels of ^aKerioth;
And Moab will die amid ^btumult,
With ¹war cries and the sound of a trumpet.

3 “I will also cut off the ^{1a}judge from her midst,
And slay all her princes with him,” says the LORD.

4 Thus says the LORD,

“For three transgressions of ^aJudah and for four
I will not revoke its punishment,
Because they ^brejected the law of the LORD
And have not kept His statutes;
Their ^{1c}lies also have led them astray,
Those after which their ^dfathers walked.

5 “So I will ^asend fire upon Judah,
And it will consume the citadels of Jerusalem.”

6 Thus says the LORD,

“For three transgressions of Israel and for four
I will not revoke its punishment,
Because they ^asell the righteous for money
And the needy for a pair of sandals.

7 “These who ¹pant after the very dust of the earth on the head of the ²helpless

9 “Yet it was I who destroyed the Amorite before them, ¹Though his height was like the height of cedars
And he was strong as the oaks;
I even destroyed his ^afruit above and his root below.

10 “And it was I who brought you up from the land of 11 “Then I ^araised up some of your sons to be prophets

And some of your young men to be ^bNazirites.

- 7 If a ^bcalamity occurs in a city has not the LORD done it?
- 7 ¹Surely the LORD God does nothing
 Unless He ^areveals His secret counsel
 To His servants the prophets.
- 8 A lion has roared! Who will not fear?

- 9 Proclaim on the citadels in Ashdod and on the citadels in the land of Egypt and say, "Assemble yourselves on the ^amountains of Samaria and see the great tumults within her and the ^boppressions in her midst.
- 10 "But they do not ^aknow how to do what is right," declares the LORD, "these who ^bhoard up ¹violence and devastation in their citadels."
- 11 Therefore, thus says the Lord God,
 "An enemy, even one surrounding the land,
 Will pull down your ¹strength from you
 And your citadels will be looted."
- 12 Thus says the LORD,
 "Just as the shepherd ¹a snatches from the lion's mouth a couple of legs or a piece of an ear,
 So will the sons of Israel dwelling in Samaria be ²snatched away—
 With the corner of a bed and the ³cover of a couch!

And they will fall to the ground.

- 15 "I will also smite the ^{1a}winter house together with the ^bsummer house;
The houses of ^{2c}ivory will also perish
And the great houses will come to an end,"
Declares the LORD.

CHAPTER 4

HEAR this word, you cows of ^aBashan who are on the mountain of Samaria,

Who oppress the poor, who crush the needy,
Who say to ¹your husbands, "Bring now, that we may drink!"

- 2 The Lord ¹GOD has sworn by His ^aholiness,

And the last of you with ^cfish hooks.
- 3 "You will ^ago out through breaches in the walls,

Your tithes every three days.
- 5 "Offer a ^athank offering also from that which is leavened,
And proclaim ^bfreewill offerings, make them known.
For so you ^clove to do, you sons of Israel," Declares the Lord God.
- 6 "But I gave you also ^acleanness of teeth in all your cities
And lack of bread in all your places,
Yet you have ^bnot returned to Me," declares the LORD.
- 7 "And furthermore, I ^awithheld the rain from you
While there were still three months until harvest.
Then I would send rain on one city
And on ^banother city I would not send rain;
One part would be rained on,
While the part not rained on would dry up.
- 8 "So two or three cities would stagger to another city to drink ^awater,

- 9 "I ^asmote you with scorching wind and mildew;

"Seek Me that You May Live!"

- 11 "I overthrew you as ^aGod overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah,
And you were like a ^bfirebrand snatched from a blaze;
Yet you have ^cnot returned to Me," declares the LORD.
- 12 "Therefore, thus I will do to you, O Israel;
Because I shall do this to you,
Prepare to ^ameet your God, O Israel."
- 13 For behold, He who ^aforms mountains and ^bcreates the wind
And ^cdeclares to man what are His thoughts,
He who ^dmakes dawn into darkness
And ^etreads on the high places of the earth,
The LORD God of hosts is His name.

CHAPTER 5

HEAR this word which I take up for you as a ^adirge, O house of Israel.

- 2 She has fallen, she will not rise again—
The ^avirgin Israel.
She lies neglected on her land;
There is ^bnone to raise her up.
- 3 For thus says the Lord ¹God,
"The city which goes forth a thousand strong
Will have a ^ahundred left,
And the one which goes forth a hundred strong
Will have ten left to the house of Israel."
- 4 For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel,
"^aSeek Me that you may live.
- 5 "But do not ¹resort to Bethel,
And do not come to Gilgal,
Nor cross over to Beersheba;
For Gilgal will certainly go into captivity,
And Bethel will ²come to trouble.
- 6 "^aSeek the LORD that you may live,
Lest He break forth like a ^bfire, ¹O house of Joseph,
And it consume with none to quench it for Bethel,
- 7 For those who turn ^ajustice into wormwood
And ¹cast righteousness down to the earth."
- 8 He who made the ^aPleiades and Orion
And ^bchanges deep darkness into morning,
Who also ¹darkens day into night,
Who ^ccalls for the waters of the sea
And pours them out on the surface of the earth,
The LORD is His name.
- 9 It is He who ^aflashes forth with destruction upon the strong,
So that ^bdestruction comes upon the fortress.
- 10 They hate him who ^areproves in the ¹gate,
And they ^babhor him who speaks with integrity.
- 11 Therefore, because you ¹impose heavy rent on the poor
And exact a tribute of grain from them,

- Though* you have built houses of well hewn stone,
Yet you will not live in them;
You have planted pleasant vineyards, yet you will ^anot drink their wine.
- 12 Because I know your transgressions are many and your sins are great,
You who ^adistress the righteous and accept bribes,
And ¹turn aside the poor in the ²gate.
- 13 Therefore, at ¹such a time the prudent person ^akeeps silent, for it is an evil time.
- 14 Seek good and not evil, that you may live;
And thus may the LORD God of hosts be with you,
Just as you have said!
- 15 ^aHate evil, love good,
And establish justice in the ¹gate!
Perhaps the LORD God of hosts ^bMay be gracious to the ^cremnant of Joseph.
- 16 Therefore, thus says the LORD God of hosts, the Lord,
“There is ^awailing in all the plazas,
And in all the streets they say, ‘Alas! Alas!’
They also call the ^bfarmer to mourning
And ^{1c}professional mourners to lamentation.
- 17 “And in all the ^avineyards there is wailing, Because I shall pass through the midst of you,” says the LORD.
- 18 Alas, you who are longing for the ^aday of the LORD,
For what purpose will the day of the LORD be to you?
It will be ^bdarkness and not light;
- 19 As when a man ^aflees from a lion,
And a bear meets him,
¹Or goes home, leans his hand against the wall,
And a snake bites him.
- 20 Will not the day of the LORD be ^adarkness instead of light,
Even gloom with no brightness in it?
- 21 “I hate, I ^areject your festivals,
Nor do I ^{1b}delight in your solemn assemblies.
- 22 “Even though you ^aoffer up to Me burnt offerings and your grain offerings,
I will not accept them;
And I will not even look at the ^bpeace offering of your fatlings.
- 23 “Take away from Me the noise of your songs;
I will not even listen to the sound of your harps.
- 24 “But let ^ajustice roll down like waters
And righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.
- 25 “¹Did you present Me with sacrifices and grain offering in the wilderness for forty years, O house of Israel?
26 “You also carried along ¹Sikkuth your ²king and ²Kiyyun, your images, ³the star of your gods which you made for yourselves.

^aW^OE to those who are at ease in Zion,
 And to those who feel secure in the mountain of Samaria,

The ^bdistinguished men of the foremost of nations,
 To whom the house of Israel comes.

2 Go over to ^aCalneh and look,
 And go from there to ^bHamath the great,
 Then go down to ^cGath of the Philistines.
 Are ¹they better than these kingdoms,
 Or is their territory greater than yours?

3 Do you ^aput off the day of calamity,
 And would you ^bbring near the seat of violence?

4 Those who recline on beds of ivory
 And sprawl on their couches,
 And ^aeat lambs from the flock
 And calves from the midst of the stall,

5 Who improvise to the sound of the harp,
 And like David have ^{1a}composed songs for themselves.

6 Who drink wine from ¹sacrificial bowls
 While they anoint themselves with the finest of oils,
 Yet they have not ^agrieved over the ruin of Joseph.

7 Therefore, they will now go into exile at the head of the exiles,
 And the ^asprawlers' ¹banqueting will ²pass away.

8 The Lord ¹GOD has sworn by Himself, the LORD God of hosts has declared:

"I ^aloathe the arrogance of Jacob,
 And I ²detest his citadels;

Therefore, I will ^bdeliver up the city and ³all it contains.

9 And it will be, if ten men are left in one house, they will die.

10 Then one's ¹uncle, or his ^{2a}undertaker, will lift him up to carry out his bones from the house, and he will say to the one who is in the innermost part of the house, "Is anyone else with you?" And that one will say, "No one." Then he will ³answer, "^bKeep quiet. For ⁴the name of the LORD is ^cnot to be mentioned."

11 For behold, the LORD is going to command that the great house be smashed to pieces and the small house to fragments.

12 Do horses run on rocks?
 Or does one plow ¹them with oxen?
 Yet you have turned ^ajustice into poison,
 And the fruit of righteousness into ²wormwood,

13 You who rejoice in ^{1a}Lo-debar,
²And say, "Have we not by our own strength ^btaken ³Karnaim for ourselves?"

14 "For behold, I am going to raise up a nation against you,

O house of Israel," declares the LORD God of hosts,
"And they will afflict you from the entrance of Hamath
To the brook of the Arabah.

CHAPTER 7

THUS the Lord God showed me, and behold, He was forming a locust-swarm when the spring crop began to sprout. And behold, the spring crop was after the king's mowing.

2 And it came about, when it had finished eating the vegetation of the land, that I said,

"Lord God, please pardon!

How can Jacob stand,

For he is small?"

3 The Lord changed His mind about this.

"It shall not be," said the Lord.

4 Thus the Lord God showed me, and behold, the Lord God was calling to contend with them by fire, and it consumed the great deep and began to consume the farm land.

5 Then I said,

"Lord God, please stop!

How can Jacob stand, for he is small?"

6 The Lord changed His mind about this.

"This too shall not be," said the Lord God.

7 Thus He showed me, and behold, the Lord was standing by a vertical wall, with a plumb line in His hand.

8 And the Lord said to me, "What do you see, Amos?" And I said, "A plumb line." Then the Lord said,

"Behold I am about to put a plumb line

In the midst of my people Israel.

I will spare them no longer.

9 "The high places of Isaac will be desolated

And the sanctuaries of Israel laid waste.

Then shall I rise up against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

10 Then Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, sent word to Jeroboam, king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel; the land is unable to endure all his words.

11 "For thus Amos says, 'Jeroboam will die by the sword and Israel will certainly go from its land into exile.'"

12 Then Amaziah said to Amos, "Go, you seer, flee away to the land of Judah, and there eat bread and there do your prophesying!

13 "But no longer prophesy at Bethel, for it is a sanctuary of the king and a royal residence."

14 Then Amos answered and said to Amaziah, "I am not a prophet, nor am I the son of a prophet; for I am a herdsman and a grower of sycamore figs.

15 "But the Lord took me from following the flock and the Lord said to me, 'Go prophesy to My people Israel.'

16 "And now hear the word of the Lord: you are saying, 'You shall not prophesy against Israel nor shall you preach against the house of Isaac.'

17 "Therefore, thus says the Lord, 'Your wife will become

THUS the Lord ¹GOD showed me, and behold, there was a basket of summer fruit.

8 “Because of this will not the land ^aquake

And everyone who dwells in it ^bmourn?

Indeed, all of it will ^crise up like the Nile,

And it will be tossed about,

9 “And it will come about in that day,” declares the Lord
 GOD,

“That I shall make the ^asun go down at noon

And baldness on every head.

And I will make it ^clike a time of mourning for an only

And the end of it will be like a bitter day.

11 “Behold days are coming,” declares the Lord God,

“When I will send a famine on the land,

Not a famine for bread or a thirst for water,

But rather for hearing the words of the LORD.

12 “And people will stagger from sea to sea,

And from the north even to the east;

They will go to and fro to ^aseek the word of the LORD,

Who say, 'As your god lives, O ^bDan,'
And, 'As the way of Beersheba lives,'

CHAPTER 9

- I SAW the Lord standing beside the altar, and He said,
"Smite the ^acapitals so that the thresholds will shake,
And break them on the heads of them all!
Then I will slay the rest of them with the sword;
They will not have a ^bfugitive who will flee,
Or a refugee who will escape.
- 2 "Though they dig into ^aSheol,
From there shall My hand take them;
And though they ^bascend to heaven,
From there will I bring them down.
- 3 "And though they hide on the summit of Carmel,
I will ^asearch them out and take them from there;
And though they ^bconceal themselves from My sight

- 4 "And though they go into ^acaptivity before their enemies,
From there I will command the sword that it slay them,
And I will ^bset My eyes against them for evil and not for good."
- 5 And the Lord ¹GOD of hosts,
The One who ^atouches the land so that it melts,
And all those who dwell in it mourn,
And all of it rises up like the Nile
And subsides like the Nile of Egypt;
- 6 The One who builds His ¹upper ^achambers in the heavens,
And has founded His vaulted dome over the earth,
He who calls for the waters of the sea
And ^bpours them out on the face of the earth,
The LORD is His name.
- 7 "Are you not as the sons of ^aEthiopia to Me, O sons of Israel?" declares the LORD.
"Have I not brought up Israel from the land of Egypt,
And the Philistines from Caphtor and ¹the Syrians from Kir?
- 8 "Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are on the sinful kingdom,
And I will ^adestroy it from the face of the earth;
Nevertheless, I will ^bnot totally destroy the house of Jacob,"
Declares the LORD.
- 9 "For behold, I am commanding,

THE BOOK OF OBADIAH

Edom Will Be Humbled.

THE vision of Obadiah.

Thus says the Lord ¹GOD concerning ^aEdom—

^bWe have heard a report from the LORD,

And an ^cenvoy has been sent among the nations saying,

^d"Arise and let us go against her for battle"—

2 "Behold, I will make you ^asmall among the nations;

You are greatly despised.

3 "The ^aarrogance of your heart has deceived you,

You who live in the clefts of ¹the ^brock,

In the loftiness of your dwelling place,

Who say in your heart,

^c"Who will bring me down to earth?"

4 "Though you ^abuild high like the eagle,

Though you set your nest among the ^bstars,

THE BOOK OF JONAH

Jonah's Disobedience.

THE word of the LORD came to ^aJonah the son of Amittai saying,

2 "Arise; go to ^aNineveh the great city, and ^bcry against it, for their ^cwickedness has come up before Me."

3 But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish ^afrom the presence of the LORD. So he went down to Joppa, found a ship which was going to Tarshish, paid the fare, and went down into it to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD.

4 And the LORD hurled a great wind on the sea and there was a great storm on the sea so that the ship was about to ¹break up.

5 Then the sailors became afraid, and every man cried to ^ahis god, and they ^bthrew the ¹cargo which was in the ship into the sea to lighten it ²for them. But Jonah had gone below into the hold of the ship, lain down, and fallen sound asleep.

6 So the captain approached him and said, "How is it that you are sleeping? Get up, ^acall on your god. Perhaps your ^bgod will be concerned about us so that we will not perish."

7 And each man said to his mate, "Come, let us cast lots so we may ¹learn on whose account this calamity has struck us." So they cast lots and the ¹lot fell on Jonah.

8 Then they said to him, "'Tell us, now! On whose account has this calamity struck us? What is your ^boccupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? From what people are you?'"

9 And he said to them, "I am a ^aHebrew, and I ^bfear the LORD ^cGod of heaven who ^dmade the sea and the dry land."

10 Then the men became extremely frightened and they said to him, "'How could you do this?'" For the men knew that he was ^afleeing from the presence of the LORD; because he had told them.

11 So they said to him, "What should we do to you that

12 And he said to them, "Pick me up and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will become calm ¹for you, for I know that ^bon account of me this great storm has come upon you."

13 However, the men ¹rowed desperately to return to land but they ^acould not, for the sea was becoming even stormier against them.

14 Then they called on the ^aLORD and said, "We earnestly pray, O LORD, do not let us perish on account of this man's life and do not put innocent blood on us; for Thou, O LORD, hast done as Thou hast pleased."

15 So they picked up Jonah, threw him into the sea, and the sea ^astopped its raging.

16 Then the men feared the LORD greatly, and they offered ^asacrifice to the LORD and made ^avows.

17 ¹And the LORD appointed a great fish to swallow Jonah, and Jonah was in the stomach of the fish three days and three nights.

CHAPTER 2

¹ THEN Jonah prayed to the LORD his God ^afrom the stomach of the fish,

2 and he said,

"I ^acalled out of my distress to the LORD,
And He answered me.

I cried for help from the ¹depth of Sheol;
Thou didst hear my voice.

CHAPTER 3

NOW the word of the LORD came to Jonah the second time, saying,

2 "Arise, go to Nineveh the great city and proclaim to it the proclamation which I am going to tell you."

3 So Jonah arose and went to Nineveh according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was ¹an exceedingly great city, a three days' walk.

4 Then Jonah began to go through the city one day's walk; and he ²cried out and said, "Yet forty days and Nineveh will be overthrown."

5 Then the people of Nineveh believed in God; and they called a ³fast and put on sackcloth from the greatest to the least of them.

6 When the word reached the king of Nineveh, he arose from his throne, laid aside his robe from him, covered himself with sackcloth, and sat on the ashes.

7 And he issued a proclamation and it said, "In Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles: Do not let man, beast, herd, or flock taste a thing. Do not let them eat or drink water.

8 "But both man and beast must be covered with sackcloth; and let ¹men call on God earnestly that each may ²turn from his wicked way and from the violence which is in ³his hands.

9 "Who knows, God may turn and relent, and withdraw His burning anger so that we shall not perish?"

10 When God saw their deeds, that they ³turned from their wicked way, then ²God relented concerning the calamity which He had declared He would ¹bring upon them. And He did not do it.

CHAPTER 4

BUT it greatly displeased Jonah, and he became angry.

2 And he ²prayed to the LORD and said, "Please LORD, was not this ¹what I said while I was still in my own country? Therefore, ²in order to forestall this I fled to Tarshish, for I knew that Thou art a ³gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness, and One who relents concerning calamity.

3 "Therefore now, O LORD, please ²take my ¹life from me, for death is ³better to me than life."

4 And the LORD said, "Do you have good reason to be angry?"

5 Then Jonah went out from the city and sat east of ¹it. There he made a shelter for himself and ²sat under it in the shade until he could see what would happen in the city.

6 So the LORD God appointed a ¹plant and it grew up over Jonah to be a shade over his head to deliver him from his discomfort. And Jonah was ²extremely happy about the ¹plant.

7 But God appointed a worm when dawn came the next day, and it attacked the plant and it ²withered.

8 And it came about when the sun came up that God appointed a scorching ^aeast wind, and the ^bsun beat down on Jonah's head so that he became faint and begged with all his soul to die, saying, "Death is better to me than life."

9 Then God said to Jonah, "Do you have good reason to be angry about the plant?" And he said, "I have good reason to be angry, even to death."

10 Then the LORD said, "You had compassion on the plant for which you did not work, and which you did not cause to grow, which came up ¹overnight and perished ¹overnight.

11 "And ~~should I not~~ ^ahave compassion on Nineveh, the great city in which there are more than 120,000 persons who do not ^bknow the difference between their right and left hand, as well as many ^canimals?"

THE BOOK OF MICAH

Destruction in Israel and Judah.

THE word of the LORD which came to ^aMicah ¹the Morashite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.

- 2 Hear, O peoples, all of ¹you;
^aListen, O earth and ²all it contains,
And let the Lord ³God be a ^bwitness against you,
The Lord from His holy temple.
- 3 For behold, the LORD is ^acoming forth from His place.
He will come down and ^btread on the high places of the ¹earth.
- 4 ^aThe mountains will melt under Him,
And the valleys will be split,
Like wax before the fire,
Like water poured down a steep place.
- 5 All this is for the rebellion of Jacob
And for the sins of the house of Israel.
What is the rebellion of Jacob?
Is it not ^aSamaria?
What is the ^bhigh ¹place of Judah?
Is it not Jerusalem?
- 6 For I will make Samaria a heap of ruins ¹in the open country,
^aPlanting places for a vineyard.
I will ^bpour her stones down into the valley,
And will ^clay bare her foundations.
- 7 All of her ^aidols will be smashed,
All of her ^bearnings will be burned with fire,
And all of her images I will make desolate.
For she collected them from a harlot's earnings,
And to the earnings of a harlot they will return.
- 8 Because of this I must lament and wail,
I must go ^abarefoot and naked;
I must make a lament like the ^bjackals
And a mourning like the ostriches.

- 5 Thus says the LORD concerning the prophets
Who ^alead my people astray;
When they have something to ^bbite with their teeth,
They ^dcry, "Peace,"
But against him who puts nothing in their mouths,
They declare holy war.
- 6 Therefore it will be ^anight for you—without vision,
And darkness for you—without divination.
The ^bsun will go down on the prophets,
And the day will become dark over them.
- 7 The seers will be ^aashamed
And the ^bdiviners will be embarrassed.
Indeed, they will all cover their ¹mouths
Because there is ^cno answer from God.
- 8 On the other hand ^aI am filled with power—
With the Spirit of the LORD—
And with justice and courage
To make ^bknown to Jacob his rebellious act,
Even to Israel his sin.
- 9 Now hear this, heads of the house of Jacob
And rulers of the house of Israel,
Who ^aabhor justice
And twist everything that is straight,
- 10 Who ^abuild Zion with bloodshed
And Jerusalem with violent injustice.
- 11 Her leaders pronounce ^ajudgment for a bribe,
Her ^bpriests instruct for a price,
And her prophets divine for money.
Yet they lean on the LORD saying,
"Is not the LORD in our midst?
Calamity will not come upon us."
- 12 Therefore, on account of you,
^aZion will be plowed as a field,
^bJerusalem will become a heap of ruins,
And the mountain of the ¹temple will become high

- AND it will come about in the ^alast days
That the ^bmountain of the house of the LORD
Will be established ^aas the chief of the mountains.

And the ^cpeoples will stream to it.
- 2 And ^amany nations will come and say,
"Come and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD
And to the house of the God of Jacob,
That ^cHe may teach us about His ways
And that we may walk in His paths."
For ^dfrom Zion will go forth the law,

- 3 The LORD is ^aslow to anger and great in power,
And the LORD will by no means leave the guilty unpunished.
In ^bwhirlwind and storm is His way,
And ^cclouds are the dust beneath His feet.
- 4 He ^arebukes the sea and makes it dry;
He dries up all the rivers.
^bBashan and Carmel wither;
The blossoms of Lebanon wither.
- 5 Mountains ^aquake because of Him,
And the hills ^bdissolve;
Indeed the earth is ^cupheaved by His presence,
The ^dworld and all the inhabitants in it.
- 6 Who can stand before His ^aindignation?
Who can endure the ^bburning of His anger?
His ^cwrath is poured out like fire,
And the ^drocks are broken up by Him.
- 7 The LORD is ^agood,
A stronghold in the day of trouble,
And He knows those who take refuge in Him.
- 8 But with an ^aoverflowing flood
He will make a complete end of ¹its site,
And will pursue His enemies into ^bdarkness.
- 9 Whatever you ^adevise against the LORD,
He will make a ^bcomplete end of it.
Distress will not rise up twice.
- 10 Like tangled ^athorns,
And like those who are ^bdrunken with their drink,
They are ^cconsumed
As stubble completely withered.
- 11 From you has gone forth
One who ^aplotted evil against the LORD,
A ¹wicked ^bcounselor.
- 12 Thus says the LORD,
“Though they are at full strength and likewise many,
Even so, they will be ^acut off and pass away.
Though I have afflicted you,
I will afflict you no longer.
- 13 “So now, I will ^abreak his yoke bar from upon you,
And I will tear off your shackles.”
- 14 The LORD has issued a command concerning ¹you:
“²Your name will no longer be perpetuated.

I will cut off ^aidol and ³image
From the house of your gods.
I will prepare your ^bgrave,
For you are contemptible.”

5 He remembers his nobles;
They stumble in their march,
They hurry to her wall,
And the ¹mantelet is set up.
6 The gates of the rivers are opened,
And the palace is dissolved.
7 And it is fixed:

CHAPTER 3

A PRAYER of Habakkuk the prophet, according to ¹Shigionoth.

- 2 LORD, I have ^aheard ¹the report about Thee ²and I ^bfear.
O LORD, ^crevive ^dThy work in the midst of the years,
In the midst of the years make it known;
In wrath remember ^emercy.

- 3 God comes from Teman,
And the Holy One from Mount Paran. [Selah.]
His ^asplendor covers the heavens,
And the ^bearth is full of His praise.
- 4 His ^aradiance is like the sunlight;
He has rays flashing from His hand,
And there is the hiding of His ^bpower.
- 5 Before Him goes ^apestilence,
And ^bplague comes ¹after Him.
- 6 He stood and surveyed the earth;
He looked and ^astartled the nations.
Yes, the perpetual mountains were shattered,
The ancient hills ¹collapsed.
His ways are everlasting.
- 7 I saw the tents of Cushan under ^adistress,
The tent curtains of the land of Midian were trembling.
- 8 Did the LORD rage against the ^aivers,
Or was Thy anger against the rivers,
Or was Thy wrath against the ^bsea,
That Thou didst ^aride on Thy horses,
On Thy ^dchariots of salvation?
- 9 Thy ^abow was made bare,
The rods of ^bchastisement were sworn. [Selah.]
Thou didst ^ccleave the earth with rivers.
- 10 The mountains saw Thee and quaked;
The downpour of waters swept by.
The deep ^auttered forth its voice,
It lifted high its hands.
- 11 ^aSun and moon stood in their places;
They went away at the ^blight of Thine arrows,
At the radiance of Thy gleaming spear.
- 12 In indignation Thou didst ^amarch through the earth;
In anger Thou didst ^btrample the nations.
- 13 Thou didst go forth for the ^asalvation of Thy people,
For the salvation of Thine ^banointed.
Thou didst strike the ^chead of the house of the evil
To lay him open from ^dthigh to neck. [Selah.]
- 14 Thou didst pierce with his ^aown ¹spears
The head of his ²throngs.
They ^bstormed in to scatter ³us;
Their exultation was like those Who ^cdevour the oppressed in secret.
- 15 Thou didst tread on the sea with Thy horses,
On the ^asurge of many waters.
- 16 I heard and my ¹inward parts ^atrembled;
At the sound my lips quivered.
Decay enters my ^bbones,
And in my place I tremble.
Because I must ^cwait quietly for the day of distress,
²For the people to ^darise who will invade us.

THE BOOK OF ZEPHANIAH

Day of Wrath upon Judah.

THE word of the LORD which came to Zephaniah son of Cushi, son of Godaliah, son of Amariah, son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah son of Amon, king of Judah:

- 2 "I will completely ^aremove all things
From the face of the ¹earth," declares the LORD.
3 "I will remove ^aman and beast;
I will remove the ^bbirds of the sky
And the fish of the sea,
And the ¹ruins along with the wicked;
And I will cut off man from the face of the ²earth,"
declares the LORD.
4 "So I will ^astretch out My hand against Judah
And against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
And I will ^bcut off the remnant of Baal from this place,
And the names of the idolatrous priests along with the priests.
5 And those who bow down on the housetops to the ^ahost of heaven,
And those who bow down and ^bswear to the LORD and yet swear by ¹Milcom,
6 And those who have ^aturned back from following the LORD,
And those who have ^bnot sought the LORD or inquired of Him."
7 ^{1a}Be silent before the Lord ²God!
For the day of the LORD is near,
For the LORD has prepared a ^bsacrifice,
He has ^cconsecrated His guests.
8 "Then it will come about on the day of the LORD's sacrifice,
That I will ^apunish the princes, the king's sons,
And all who clothe themselves with ^bforeign garments.
9 "And I will punish on that day all who leap on the temple threshold,
Who fill the house of their ¹lord with ^aviolence and deceit.

- 10 "And on that day," declares the LORD,
 "There will be the sound of a cry from the ^aFish Gate,
 A wail from the ^{1b}Second Quarter,
 And a loud crash from the ^chills.
- 11 "Wail, O inhabitants of the ¹Mortar,
 For all the ²people of Canaan will be silenced;
 All who weigh out ^asilver will be cut off.
- 12 "And it will come about at that time
 That I will ^asearch Jerusalem with lamps,
 And I will punish the men
 Who are ^{1b}stagnant in spirit,
 Who say in their hearts,
 'The LORD will ^cnot do good or evil!'
- 13 "Moreover, their wealth will become ^aplunder,
 And their houses desolate;
 Yes, ^bthey will build houses but not inhabit them,
 And plant vineyards but not drink their wine."
- 14 Near is the ^agreat ^bday of the LORD,
 Near and coming very quickly;
 Listen, the day of the LORD!
¹In it the warrior ^ccries out bitterly.
- 15 A day of wrath is that day,
 A day of ^atrouble and distress,
 A day of destruction and desolation,
 A day of ^bdarkness and gloom,
 A day of clouds and thick darkness,
- 16 A day of ^atrumpet and battle cry,
 Against the ^bfortified cities
 And the high corner towers.
- 17 And I will bring ^adistress on men,
 So that they will walk ^blike the blind,
 Because they have sinned against the LORD;
 And their ^bblood will be poured out like dust,
 And their ^dflesh like dung.
- 18 Neither their silver nor their gold
 Will be able to deliver them
 On the day of the LORD's wrath;
 And all the earth will be devoured
 In the fire of His jealousy,
 For He will ^amake a complete end,
 Indeed a terrifying one,
 Of all the inhabitants of the earth.

CHAPTER 2

GATHER yourselves together, yes, ^agather,
 O nation ^bwithout ¹shame,

 you,
 Before the day of the LORD's anger comes upon you.

And Ashkelon a desolation;

And ^aEkron will be uprooted.
- 5 Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast,
The nation of the ¹Cherethites!

O Canaan, land of the Philistines;
And I will ^bdestroy you,
So that there will be no inhabitant.
- 6 So the seacoast will be ^apastures,
With ¹caves for shepherds and folds for flocks.
- 7 And the coast will be

They will ^bpasture on it.
In the houses of Ashkelon they will lie down at evening;
For the LORD their God will ^ccare for them
And ^drestore their fortune.
- 8 "I have heard the ¹taunting of Moab
And the ^brevilings of the sons of Ammon,
With which they have ²taunted My people
And ³become arrogant against their territory.
- 9 "Therefore, as I live," declares the LORD of hosts,
The God of Israel,
"Surely Moab will be like Sodom,
And the sons of Ammon like Gomorrah—
A place possessed by nettles and salt pits,
And a perpetual desolation.
The remnant of My people will ^aplunder them,
And the remainder of My nation will inherit them."
- 10 This they will have in return for their ^apride, because they have ¹taunted and ²become arrogant against the people of the LORD of hosts.
- 11 The LORD will be ^aterrifying to them, for He will ¹starve all the gods of the earth; and all the ^bcoastlands of the nations will ^cbow down to Him, every one from his own place.
- 12 "You also, O ^aEthiopians, will be slain by My sword."
- 13 And He will stretch out His hand against the north
And destroy Assyria,
And He will make ^aNineveh a desolation,
Parched like the wilderness.
- 14 And flocks will lie down in her midst,
¹All beasts which range in herds;
Both the ²pelican and the hedgehog
Will lodge in ³the tops of her pillars;
⁴Birds will sing in the window,
Desolation will be on the threshold;
For He has laid bare the cedar work.
- 15 This is the ^aexultant city
Which ^bdwells securely,
Who says in her heart,

“I am, and there is no one besides me.”
 How she has become a ^ddesolation,
 A resting place for beasts!
 Every one who passes by her will hiss
 And wave his hand in contempt.

CHAPTER 3

WOE to her who is ^arebellious and ^bdefiled,
 The ^ctyrannical city!
 2 She ^aheeded no voice;
 She ^baccepted no instruction.
 She did not ^ctrust in the LORD;
 She did not ^ddraw near to her God.
 3 Her ^aprinces within her are roaring lions,
 Her judges are ^bwolves at evening;
 They leave nothing for the morning.
 4 Her prophets are ^areckless, treacherous men;
 Her ^bpriests have profaned the sanctuary.
 They have done violence to the law.
 5 The LORD is ^arighteous within her;
 He will do no ^binjustice.
 Every morning He brings His justice to light;
 He does not fail.
 But the unjust knows no shame.
 6 “I have cut off nations;
 Their corner towers are in ruins.
 I have made their streets ^adesolate,
 With no one passing by;
 Their ^bcities are laid waste,
 Without a man, without an inhabitant.
 7 “I said, ‘Surely you will revere Me,
 Accept instruction.’
 So her dwelling will ^anot be cut off
According to all that I have appointed concerning her.
 But they were eager to ^bcorrupt all their deeds.

8 “Therefore, ^await for Me,” declares the LORD,
 “For the day when I rise up to the prey.
 Indeed, My decision is to ^bgather nations,
 To assemble kingdoms,
 To pour out on them My indignation,
 All My burning anger;
 For all the earth will be devoured
 By the fire of My zeal.

I will save the lame
And gather the outcast,
And I will turn their ^bshame into ^cpraise and renown
In all the earth.

20 "At that time I will ^abring you in,
Even at the time when I gather you together;
Indeed, I will give you ^brenown and praise
Among all the peoples of the earth,
When I ^crestore your fortunes before your eyes,"
Says the LORD.

THE BOOK OF HAGGAI

Haggai Begins Temple Building.

IN the second year of Darius the King, on the first day of the sixth month, the word of the LORD came by the prophet ^aHaggai to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, ^bgovernor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest saying,

2 “Thus says the LORD of ¹hosts, “This people says, “The time has not come, even the time for the house of the LORD to be rebuilt.””

3 Then the word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet saying,

4 “Is it time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses while this house ^alies desolate?”

5 Now therefore, thus says the LORD of hosts, “¹Consider your ways!

6 “You have ^asown much, but ¹harvest little; you eat, but there is not enough to be satisfied; you drink, but there is not enough ²to become drunk; you put on clothing, but no one is warm enough; and he who earns, earns wages to put into a purse with holes.”

7 Thus says the LORD of hosts, “¹Consider your ways!

8 “Go up to the ¹mountains, bring wood and rebuild the ²temple, that I may be ^apleased with it and be glorified,” says the LORD.

9 “You look for much, but behold, it comes to little; when you bring it home, I ^ablow it away. Why?” declares the LORD of hosts, “Because of My house which lies desolate, while each of you runs to his own house.

10 “Therefore, because of you the ^asky has withheld ¹its dew, and the earth has withheld its produce.

11 “And I called for a ^adrought on the land, on the mountains, on the grain, on the new wine, on the oil, on what the ground produces, on ^bmen, on cattle, and on all the labor of ¹your hands.”

12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, ^aobeyed the voice of the LORD their God and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him. And the people ^{1b}showed reverence for the LORD.

13 Then Haggai, the ^amessenger of the LORD, spoke ^{1b}by the commission of the LORD to the people saying, “^bI am with you,” declares the LORD.”

14 So the LORD stirred up the spirit of ^aZerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, ^agovernor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the ^bremnant of the people; and they came and ^cworked on the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, 15 on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month in the second year of Darius the king.

ON the twenty-first of the seventh month, the word of the LORD came by ^aHaggai the prophet saying,

2 "Speak now to ^aZerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, ^agovernor of Judah, and to ^aJoshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the brementant of the people saying,

3 "Who is ^aleft among you who saw this ¹temple in its former glory? And how do you see it now? Does it not ²seem to you like nothing ³in comparison?

4 "But now ¹take courage, Zerubbabel," declares the LORD, "take courage also, Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and all you people of the land take courage," declares the LORD, "and work; for ^bI am with you," says the LORD of hosts.

5 "As for the ¹promise which I ²made you when you came out of Egypt, ³My ^bSpirit is abiding in your midst; ^cdo not fear!"

6 "For thus says the LORD of hosts, ^aOnce more ¹in a little while, I am going to shake the heavens and the earth, the sea also and the dry land.

7 "And I will shake ^aall the nations; and ¹they will come with the ^bwealth of all nations; and I will ^cfill this house with glory," says the LORD of hosts.

8 "The ^asilver is Mine, and the gold is Mine," declares the LORD of hosts.

9 "The latter ^aglory of this house will be greater than the former," says the LORD of hosts, "and in this place I shall give ^bpeace," declares the LORD of hosts."

10 On the twenty-fourth of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Haggai the prophet saying,

11 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, ^aAsk now the priests for a ¹ruling:

12 "If a man carries ^aholy meat in the ¹fold of his garment, and touches bread with ²this fold, or cooked food, wine, oil, or any other food, will it become holy?" And the priests answered and said, "No."

13 Then Haggai said, ^a"If one who is unclean from a ¹corpse touches any of these, will the latter become unclean?" And the priests answered and said, "It will become unclean."

14 Then Haggai answered and said, ^a"So is this people, and so is this nation before Me," declares the LORD, "and so is every work of their hands; and what they offer there is unclean.

15 "But now, do ¹consider from this day ²onward: before one ^astone was placed on another in the temple of the LORD, 16 ¹from that time when one came to a grain heap of twenty measures, there would be only ten; and when one came to the wine vat to draw fifty ²measures, there would be only twenty.

17 "I smote you and every work of your hands with ^ablast-ing wind, mildew, and hail; yet you did not ¹come back to me," declares the LORD.

18 "Do ¹consider from this day ²onward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month; from the day when the temple of the LORD was ^bfounded, ¹consider:

19 'Is the seed still in the barn? Even including the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree, it has not borne fruit. Yet from this day on I will ^a'bless you.'

20 Then the word of the LORD came a second time to Haggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month saying, 21 "Speak to Zerubbabel governor of Judah saying, 'I am going to shake the heavens and the earth.

22 'And I will overthrow the ^athrones of kingdoms and destroy the ^bpower of the kingdoms of the ¹nations; and I will overthrow the ^cchariots and their riders, and the horses and their riders will go down, ^devery one by the sword of another.'

23 'On that day,' declares the LORD of hosts, 'I will take you, Zerubbabel, son of Shealtiel, my servant,' declares the LORD, 'and I will make you like a ^{1a}signet ring, for ^bI have chosen you,' " declares the LORD of hosts.

THE BOOK OF ZECHARIAH

The Vision of Horses.

IN the eighth month of the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the prophet, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo saying,

2 "The LORD was very ^aangry with your fathers.

3 "Therefore say to them, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "^aReturn to Me," declares the LORD of hosts, "that I may return to you," says the LORD of hosts.

4 "Do not be ^alike your fathers, to whom the ^bformer prophets proclaimed, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "^cReturn now from your evil ways and from your evil deeds.'" But they did not ^dlisten or give heed to Me," declares the LORD.

5 "Your fathers, where are they? And the ^aprophets, do they live forever?

6 "But did not My words and My statutes, which I commanded My servants the prophets, ^aovertake your fathers? Then they repented and said, "^bAs the LORD of hosts purposed to do to us in accordance with our ways and our deeds, so He has dealt with us.'" "

7 On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the prophet, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, as follows—

8 I saw at night, and behold, a man was riding on a red horse, and he was standing among the ^amyrtle trees which were in the ravine, with red, sorrel, and white horses behind him.

9 Then I said, "My ^alord, what are these?" And the angel who was speaking with me said to me, "I will show you what these are."

10 And the man who was standing among the myrtle trees answered and said, "These are those whom the LORD has sent to ^{1a}patrol the earth."

11 So they answered the angel of the LORD who was standing among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have ¹patrolled the earth, and behold, ²all the earth is ¹peaceful and quiet."

12 Then the angel of the LORD answered and said, "O LORD of hosts, ^ahow long wilt Thou ^bhave no compassion for Jerusalem and the cities of Judah, with which Thou hast been ^cindignant these ^dseventy years?"

13 And the LORD answered the angel who was speaking with me with ¹gracious words, ^acomforting words.

14 So the angel who was speaking with me said to me, ^a"Proclaim, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "I am exceedingly jealous for Jerusalem and Zion."

15 "But I am very angry with the nations who are ^aat ease; for while I was only a little angry, they ^{1b}furthered the disaster."

16 "Therefore, thus says the LORD, "I will ^areturn to Jerusalem with compassion; My ^bhouse will be built in it," declares the LORD of hosts, "and a measuring ^cline will be stretched over Jerusalem."

17 "Again, proclaim, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of hosts, "My ^acities will again overflow with prosperity, and the LORD will again ^bcomfort Zion and again choose Jerusalem."'"

18 ¹Then I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, there were four horns.

19 So I said to the angel who was speaking with me, "What are these?" And he answered me, "These are the ^ahorns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

20 Then the LORD showed me four ^acraftsmen.

21 And I said, "What are these coming to do?" And he said, "These are the ^ahorns which have scattered Judah, so that no man lifts up his head; but these craftsmen have come to terrify them, to ^bthrow down the horns of the nations who have lifted up their horns against the land of Judah in order to scatter it."

CHAPTER 2

¹THEN I lifted up my eyes and looked, and behold, there was a man with a ^ameasuring line in his hand.

2 So I said, "Where are you going?" And he said to me, "To ^ameasure Jerusalem, to see how wide it is and how long it is."

3 And behold, the angel who was speaking with me was going out, and another angel was coming out to meet him,

4 and said to him, "Run, speak to that ^ayoung man, saying, 'Jerusalem will be inhabited ^{1b}without walls, because of the ^cmultitude of men and cattle within it."

5 'For I,' declares the LORD, 'will be a ^awall of fire ¹around her, and I will be the ^bglory in her midst.'"

6 "Ho there! ^aFlee from the land of the north," declares the LORD, "for I have ^bdispersed you as the four winds of the heavens," declares the LORD.

7 "Ho, Zion! ^aEscape, you who are living with the daughter of Babylon."

8 For thus says the LORD of hosts, "After ^{1a}glory He has sent Me against the nations which plunder you, for he who touches you, touches the ^{2b}apple of His eye.

9 "For behold, I will ^awave My hand over them, so that they will be ^bplunder for their slaves. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me.

10 "Sing for joy and be glad, O daughter of Zion; for behold I am coming and I will dwell in your midst," declares the LORD.

11 "And ^amany nations will join themselves to the LORD in that day and will become My people. Then I will dwell in your midst, and you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me to you.

12 "And the LORD will ^{1a}possess Judah as His portion in the holy land, and will again ^bchoose Jerusalem.

13 "Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD; for He is ^baroused from His holy habitation."

CHAPTER 3

THEN he showed me ^aJoshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and ^{1b}Satan standing at his right hand to accuse him.

2 And the LORD said to Satan, "The LORD rebuke you, Satan! Indeed, the LORD who has ^achosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Is this not a brand plucked from the fire?"

3 Now Joshua was clothed with ^afilthy garments and standing before the angel.

4 And he spoke and said to those who were standing before him saying, "Remove the filthy garments from him." Again he said to him, "See, I have ^btaken your iniquity away from you and ¹will ^cclothe you with festal robes.

5 Then I said, "Let them put a clean ^aturban on his head." So they put a clean turban on his head and clothed him with garments, while the angel of the LORD was standing by.

6 And the angel of the LORD admonished Joshua saying,

7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'If you will ^awalk in My ways, and if you will perform My service, then you will also ^bgovern My house and also have charge of My ^ccourts, and I will grant you ¹free access among these who are standing here.

8 "Now listen, Joshua the high priest, you and your friends who are sitting in front of you—indeed they are men who are a ^asymbol, for behold, I am going to bring in My Servant the ^{1b}Branch.

9 "For behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes. Behold, I will engrave an inscription on it," declares the LORD of hosts, "and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.

10 'In that day,' declares the LORD of hosts, 'every one of you will invite his neighbor to sit under his ^avine and under his fig tree.'

CHAPTER 4

THEN the angel who was speaking with me returned, and ^aroused me as a man who is awakened from his sleep.

⁴ Then I answered and said to the angel who was speaking with me saying, "What are these, my lord?"

⁵ So the angel who was speaking with me answered and said to me, "Do you not know what these are?" And I said, "No, my lord."

⁶ Then he answered and ¹said to me, "This is the word of the LORD to ^aZerubbabel saying, ^b'Not by might nor by power, but by My ^cSpirit,' says the LORD of hosts.

⁷ 'What are you, O great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you will become a plain; and he will bring forth the top stone with ^ashouts of "Grace, grace to it!" ' "

⁸ Also the word of the LORD came to me saying,

⁹ "The hands of Zerubbabel have ^alaid the foundation of this house, and his hands will ^bfinish it. Then you will know that the LORD of hosts has sent Me to ¹you.

¹⁰ "For who has despised the day of ^asmall things? ¹But these ^bseven will be glad when they see the ²plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel—these are the eyes of the LORD which range to and fro throughout the earth."

¹³ So he answered me saying, "Do you not know what these are?" And I said, "No, my lord."

¹⁴ Then he said, "These are the two ¹anointed ones, who are ^bstanding by the ^cLord of the whole earth."

CHAPTER 5

THEN I lifted up my eyes again and looked, and behold, there was a flying scroll.

² And he said to me, "What do you see?" And I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty ¹cubits and its width ten cubits."

³ Then he said to me, "This is the ^acurse that is going forth over the face of the whole ¹land; surely everyone who ^bsteals will be purged away according to ²the writing on one side, and everyone who swears will be purged away according to ²the writing on the other side.

⁴ "I will ^amake it go forth," declares the LORD of hosts. "and it will ^benter the house of the ^cthief and the house of the one who swears falsely by My name; and it will spend the night within that house and ^dconsume it with its timber and stones."

⁵ Then the angel who was speaking with me went out, and said to me, "Lift up now your eyes, and see what this is, going forth."

⁶ And I said, "What is it?" And he said, "This is the ¹ephah going forth." Again he said, "This is their ²appearance in all the ³land

7 (and behold, a lead cover was lifted up); and this is a woman sitting inside the ephah."

8 Then he said, "This is ^aWickedness!" And he threw her down into the middle of the ephah and cast the lead weight on its ¹opening.

9 Then I lifted up my eyes and looked, and there two women were coming out with the wind in their wings; and they had wings like the wings of a ^astork, and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heavens.

10 And I said to the angel who was speaking with me, "Where are they taking the ephah?"

11 Then he said to me, "To build a ¹temple for her in the land of ^aShinar; and when it is prepared, she will be set there on her own pedestal."

CHAPTER 6

NOW I lifted up my eyes again and looked, and behold, ^afour chariots were coming forth from between the two mountains; and the mountains were bronze mountains.

2 With the first chariot were red horses, with the second chariot black horses,

3 with the third chariot white horses, and with the fourth chariot strong dappled horses.

4 Then I spoke and said to the angel who was speaking with me, "What are these, my lord?"

5 And the angel answered and said to me, "These are the ^afour spirits of heaven, going forth after standing before the Lord of all the earth,

6 with one of which the black horses are going forth to the ^anorth country; and the white ones go forth after them, while the dappled ones go forth to the ^bsouth country.

7 "When the strong ones went out, they ¹were eager to go to ²patrol the earth." And he said, "Go, ²patrol the earth." So they ³patrolled the earth.

8 Then he cried out to me and spoke to me saying, "See, those who are going to the land of the north have ^{1a}appeased My wrath in the land of the north."

9 The word of the LORD also came to me saying,

10 "Take an offering from the exiles, from Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah; and you go the same day and enter the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, where they have arrived from Babylon.

11 "And take silver and gold, make an ornate ^acrown, and set it on the head of ^bJoshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest.

12 "Then say to him, "Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Behold, a man whose name is ^{1a}Branch, for He will ^{2b}branch out from where He is; and He will ^cbuild the temple of the LORD.

13 "Yes, it is He who will build the temple of the LORD, and He who will ^abear the honor and sit and ^brule on His throne. Thus, He will be a ^cpriest on His throne, and the counsel of peace will be between the two ¹offices."

CHAPTER 7

THEN it came about in the fourth year of King Darius, that the word of the LORD came to Zechariah on the fourth day of the ninth month, which is Chislev.

2 Now the town of Bethel had sent Sharezer and Regem-melch and ¹their men to ^{2a}seek the favor of the LORD,

3 speaking to the ^apriests who belong to the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets saying, "Shall I weep in the fifth month ¹and abstain, as I have done these many years?"

5 "Say to all the people of the land and to the priests, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh months ¹these ^aseventy years, was it actually for ^bMe that you fasted?

6 'And when you eat and drink, ¹do you not eat for yourselves and do you not drink for yourselves?

7 'Are not these the words which the LORD ^aproclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and ^{1b}prosperous with its cities around it, and the ^{2c}Negev and the ³foothills were inhabited?'"

8 Then the word of the LORD came to Zechariah saying,

9 "Thus has the LORD of hosts said, ^a"Dispense true justice, and practice ^bkindness and compassion each to his brother;

10 and do not ^aoppress the widow or the ¹orphan, the ²stranger or the poor; and do ^bnot devise evil in your hearts against one another.'

11 "But they ^arefused to pay attention, and ^{1b}turned a stubborn shoulder and ^{2c}stopped their ears from hearing.

12 "And they made their ^ahearts like ^{1b}flint ²so that they could not hear the law and the words which the LORD of hosts had sent by His Spirit through the ^cformer prophets; therefore great ^dwrath came from the LORD of hosts.

13 "And it came about that just as ^aHe called and they would not listen, so ^bthey called and I would not listen," says the LORD of hosts;

14 "but I ^{1a}scattered them with a ^bstorm wind among all the nations whom they have not known. Thus the land is ^cdesolated behind them, ²so that ^dno one went back and forth, for they ^emade the pleasant land desolate."

CHAPTER 8

THEN the word of the LORD of hosts came saying,

2 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, 'I am exceedingly jealous for Zion, yes, with great wrath I am jealous for her.'

3 "Thus says the LORD, 'I will return to Zion and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Then Jerusalem will be called the City of Truth, and the mountain of the LORD of hosts will be called the Holy Mountain.'

The Coming Peace and Prosperity of Zion.
Other Nations Will Seek God.

Zechariah 8

4 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Old men and old women will again sit in the streets of Jerusalem, each man with his staff in his hand because of age.

5 "And the streets of the city will be filled with boys and girls playing in its streets."

6 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, "If it is too difficult in the sight of the remnant of this people in those days, will it also be too difficult in My sight?" declares the LORD of hosts.

7 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Behold, I am going to save My people from the land of the east and from the land of the west;

8 and I will bring them back, and they will live in the midst of Jerusalem, and they will be My people and I will be their God in truth and righteousness."

9 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, "Let your hands be strong, you who are listening in these days to these words from the mouth of the prophets, those who spoke in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, to the end that the temple might be built.

10 "For before those days there was no wage for man or any wage for animal; and for him who went out or came in there was no peace because of his enemies, and I set all men one against another.

11 "But now I will not treat the remnant of this people as in the former days," declares the LORD of hosts.

12 "For there will be peace for the seed: the vine will yield its fruit, the land will yield its produce, and the heavens will give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things.

13 "And it will come about that just as you were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you that you may become a blessing. Do not fear; let your hands be strong."

14 "For thus says the LORD of hosts, "Just as I purposed to do harm to you when your fathers provoked Me to wrath," says the LORD of hosts, "and I have not relented, 15 so I have again purposed in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Do not fear!

16 "These are the things which you should do: Speak the truth to one another; judge with truth and judgment for peace in your gates.

17 "Also let none of you devise evil in your heart against another, and do not love perjury; for all these are what I hate," declares the LORD."

18 Then the word of the LORD of hosts came to me saying,

19 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, "The fast of the fourth, the fast of the fifth, the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth months will become joy, gladness, and cheerful feasts for the house of Judah; so love truth and peace."

20 "Thus says the LORD of hosts, "It will yet be that peoples will come, even the inhabitants of many cities;

21 and the inhabitants of one will go to another saying, "Let us go at once to entreat the favor of the LORD, and to seek the LORD of hosts; I will also go."

22 "So many peoples and mighty nations will come to seek

CHAPTER 9

THE ¹burden of the word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach, with ²Damascus as its resting place (for the eyes of men, especially of all the tribes of Israel, are toward the LORD),

2 And ³Hamath also, which borders on it;

⁴Tyre and ⁵Sidon, ¹though they are ²very ³wise.

3 For Tyre built herself a ⁴fortress

And ⁵piled up silver like dust,

And ⁶gold like the mire of the streets.

4 Behold, the Lord will ⁷dispossess her

And cast her wealth into the sea;

And she will be ⁸consumed with fire.

5 Ashkelon will see it and be afraid.

Gaza too will writhe in great pain;

Also Ekron, for her expectation has been confounded.

Moreover, the king will perish from Gaza,

And Ashkelon will not be inhabited.

6 And a ¹mongrel race will dwell in Ashdod,

And I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

7 And I will remove their blood from their mouth,

And their detestable things from between their teeth.

Then they also will be a remnant for our God,

And be like a ¹clan in Judah,

And Ekron like a Jebusite.

8 But I will camp around My house ¹because of an army,

Because of ²him who passes by and returns;

And ³no oppressor will pass over them any more.

For now I have seen with My eyes.

9 ¹Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion!

Shout in triumph, O daughter of Jerusalem!

Behold, your ²king is coming to you;

He is ³just and ⁴endowed with salvation,

⁵Humble, and mounted on a donkey,

Even on a ⁶colt, the ⁷foal of a donkey.

10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim,

And the horse from Jerusalem;

And the bow of war will be cut off.

And He will speak ⁸peace to the nations;

And His ⁹dominion will be from sea to sea,

And from ¹the River to the ends of the earth.

11 As for you also, because of the ¹blood of My covenant with you,

I have set your ²prisoners free from the ³waterless pit.

12 Return to the ⁴stronghold, O prisoners ⁵who have the hope;

This very day I am declaring that I will restore ⁶double to you.

- 13 For I will ^abend Judah ¹as My bow,
I will fill the bow with Ephraim.
And I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons,
O ^bGreece;
And I will make you like a warrior's sword.

And His ^barrow will go forth like lightning;
And the Lord ¹God will blow the ^ctrumpet,
And will march in the ^dstorm winds of the south.

And they will drink, and be ^bboisterous as with wine;
And they will be filled like a sacrificial basin,
Drenched like the ^ccorners of the altar.

CHAPTER 11

- OPEN your doors, O Lebanon,
That a fire may feed on your ^bcedars.
- 2 Wail, O ^{1c}cypress, for the cedar has fallen,
Because the glorious trees have been destroyed;
Wail, O oaks of Bashan,
For the ²impenetrable forest has come down.
- 3 There is a sound of the shepherds' ^awail,
For their glory is ruined;
There is a ^bsound of the young lions' roar,
For the ¹pride of the Jordan is ruined.
- 4 Thus says the LORD my God: "Pasture the flock doomed to slaughter.
- 5 "Those who buy them slay them and ¹go ^aunpunished, and each of those who sell them says, 'Blessed be the LORD, for ^bI have become rich!' And their ^cown shepherds have no pity on them.
- 6 "For I shall ^ano longer have pity on the inhabitants of the land," declares the LORD; "but behold, I shall ^bcause the men to ¹fall into one another's ²power and into the ²power of his king; and they will strike the land, and I shall ^cnot deliver them from their ²power."
- 7 So I pastured the flock doomed to slaughter, ¹hence
the ^aafflicted of the flock. And I took for myself two ^bstaffs:
the one I called ^{2c}Favor, and the other I called ^{3d}Union; so I pastured the flock.
- 8 Then I annihilated the three shepherds in ^aone month, for my soul was impatient with them, and their soul also ¹was weary of me.
- 9 Then I said, "I will not pasture you. What is to ^adie, ¹let it die, and what is to be annihilated, ²let it be annihilated; and ³let those who are left eat one another's flesh."
- 10 And I took my staff ¹Favor and cut it in pieces, to ^{2a}break my covenant which I had made with all the peoples.

Thirty Shekels Wages.
The Might of Judah.

11 So it was ¹broken on that day; and ²thus the ³afflicted of the flock who were watching me realized that it was the word of the LORD.

12 And I said to them, "If it is good in your sight, give me my ^awages; but if not, ¹never mind!" So they weighed out ^bthirty shekels of silver as my wages.

13 Then the LORD said to me, "Throw it to the ^apotter, that magnificent price at which I was valued by them." So I took the thirty shekels of silver and threw them to the potter in the house of the LORD.

14 Then I cut my second staff, ¹Union, in pieces, to ^abreak the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

15 And the LORD said to me, "Take again for yourself the equipment of a ^{1a}foolish shepherd.

16 "For behold, I am going to raise up a shepherd in the land who will not ^acare for the perishing, seek the scattered, heal the broken, or sustain ²the one standing, but will ^bdevour the flesh of the fat sheep and tear off their hoofs.

17 "Woe to the worthless shepherd
Who leaves the flock!

And on his right eye!
His arm will be totally withered,
And his right eye will be ¹blind."

CHAPTER 12

THE ¹burden of the word of the LORD concerning Israel. Thus declares the LORD who ^astretches out the heavens, ^bblays the foundation of the earth, and ^cforms the spirit of man within him:

2 "Behold, I am going to make Jerusalem a ^acup ¹that causes reeling to all the peoples around; and when the siege is against Jerusalem, it will also be against Judah.

3 "And it will come about in that day that I will make Jerusalem a heavy ^astone for all the peoples; all who lift it will be ^bseverely ¹injured. And all the nations of the earth will be gathered against it.

4 "In that day," declares the LORD, "I will strike every horse with bewilderment, and his rider with madness. But I will ¹watch over the house of Judah, while I strike every horse of the peoples with blindness.

5 "Then the clans of Judah will say in their hearts, ^{1a}A strong support for us are the inhabitants of Jerusalem through the LORD of hosts, their God."

6 "In that day I will make the clans of Judah like a ^afirepot among pieces of wood and a flaming torch among sheaves, so they will consume on the right hand and on the left all the surrounding peoples, while the inhabitants of Jerusalem again dwell on their own sites in Jerusalem.

7 "The LORD also will ^asave the tents of Judah first in order that the glory of the house of ^bDavid and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem may not be magnified above Judah.

8 "In that day the LORD will ^adefend the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the one who ^{1b}is feeble among them in that day will be like David, and the house of David will be like ^cGod, like the ^dangel of the LORD before them.

9 "And it will come about in that day that I will ¹set about to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.

10 "And I will ^apour out on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem ¹the Spirit of grace and of supplication, so that they will look on Me whom they have ^bpierced; and they will mourn for Him, as one ^cmourns for an only son, and they will weep bitterly over Him, like the bitter weeping over a first-born.

11 "In that day there will be great ^amourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the ¹plain of ²Megiddo.

12 "And the land will mourn, every family by itself; the family of the house of David by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the house of Nathan by itself, and their wives by themselves;

13 the family of the house of Levi by itself, and their wives by themselves; the family of the Shimeites by itself, and their wives by themselves;

14 all the families that remain, every family by itself, and their wives by themselves.

"IN that day a ^afountain will be opened for the house of David and for the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for ^bsin and for ^cimpurity.

2 "And it will come about in that day," declares the LORD of hosts, "that I will ^acut off the names of the idols from the land, and they will no longer be remembered; and I will also remove the ^bprophets and the ^cunclean spirit from the land.

3 "And it will come about that if anyone still ^aprophesies, then his father and mother who gave birth to him will say to him, 'You shall ^bnot live, for you have spoken ^cfalsely in the name of the LORD'; and his ^dfather and mother who gave birth to him will pierce him through when he prophesies.

4 "Also it will come about in that day that the prophets will each be ^aashamed of his vision when he prophesies, and they will not put on a ^bhairy robe in order to deceive;

5 but he will say, 'I am ^anot a prophet; I am a tiller of the ground, for a man ¹sold me as a slave in my youth.'

6 "And one will say to him, 'What are these wounds between your ¹arms?' Then he will say, 'Those, with which I was wounded in the house of ²my friends.'

7 "Awake, O sword, against My ^aShepherd,
And against the man, My ^bAssociate," Declares the LORD of hosts.

"Strike the Shepherd that the sheep may be scattered;
And I will ^dturn My hand ¹against the little ones.

8 "And it will come about in all the land,"
Declares the LORD,

"That ^atwo parts in it will be cut off and perish;
But the third will be left in it.

9 "And I will bring the third part through the ^afire,
Refine them as silver is refined,
And test them as gold is tested.

They will ^bcall on My name,
 And I will ^canswer them;
 I will say, 'They are ^d'My people,'
 And they will say, 'The LORD is my God.' "

CHAPTER 14

BEHOLD, a ^aday is coming for the LORD when the spoil taken from you will be divided among you.

2 For I will gather all the nations against Jerusalem to battle, and the city will be captured, the ^ahouses plundered, the women ravished, and half of the city exiled, but the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city.

3 Then the LORD will go forth and fight against those nations, as ¹when He fights on a day of battle.

4 And in that day His feet will ^astand on the Mount of Olives, which is in front of Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be ^bsplit in its middle from east to west by a very large valley, so that half of the mountain will move toward the north and the other half toward the south.

5 And you will flee by the valley of My mountains, for the valley of the mountains will reach to Azel; yes, you will flee just as you fled before the ^aearthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. Then the LORD, O My God, will come, and all the holy ones with ¹Him!

6 And it will come about in that day that there will be ^ano light; the ¹luminaries will dwindle.

7 For it will be ^aa unique day which is ^bknown to the LORD, neither day nor night; but it will come about that at ^cevening time there will be light.

8 And it will come about in that day that ^aliving waters will flow out of Jerusalem, half of them toward the eastern sea and the other half toward the western sea; it will be in summer as well as in winter.

9 And the LORD will be ^aking over all the earth; in that day the LORD will be the only ^bone, and His name the only one.

10 All the land will be changed into a plain from ^aGeba to ^bRimmon south of Jerusalem; but ¹Jerusalem will ^crise and ^dremain on its site from ^eBenjamin's gate as far as the place of the First Gate to the ^fCorner Gate, and from the ^gTower of Hananel to the king's wine presses.

11 And ¹people will live in it, and there will be ^ano more curse, for Jerusalem will ^bdwell in security.

12 "Now this will be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the peoples who have gone to war against Jerusalem; their flesh will ^arot while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongue will rot in their mouth.

13 And it will come about in that day that a great panic from the LORD will ¹fall on them; and they will seize one another's hand, and the hand of one will ²be lifted against the hand of another.

14 And Judah also will fight at Jerusalem; and the ^awealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered, gold and silver and garments in great abundance.

15 So also like this plague, will be the plague on the horse, the mule, the camel, the donkey, and all the cattle that will be in those camps.

16 Then it will come about that any who are left of all the nations that went against Jerusalem will ^ago up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, and to celebrate the ^bFeast of Booths.

17 And it will be that whichever of the families of the earth does not go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of hosts, there will be ^ano rain on them.

18 And if the family of Egypt does not go up or enter, then no rain will fall on them; it will be the plague with which the LORD smites the nations who do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Booths.

19 This will be the ¹punishment of Egypt, and the ¹punishment of all the nations who do not go up to celebrate the Feast of Booths.

20 In that day there will be inscribed on the bells of the horses, "^aHOLY TO THE LORD." And the ^bcooking pots in the LORD's house will be like the bowls before the altar.

21 And every cooking pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be ^aholy to the LORD of hosts; and all who sacrifice will come and take of them and boil in them. And there will no longer be a ¹Canaanite in the house of the LORD of hosts in that day.

THE ¹oracle of the word of the LORD to Israel through ²Malachi.

2 "I have ^aloved you," says the LORD. But you say, "How hast Thou loved us?" "Was not Esau Jacob's brother?" declares the LORD. "Yet I ^bhave loved Jacob;

3 but I have hated Esau, and I have made his mountains a desolation, and appointed his inheritance for the jackals of the wilderness."

4 Though Edom says, "We have been ^abeaten down, but we will ^breturn and build up the ruins"; thus says the LORD of hosts, "They may ^cbuild, but I will tear down; and men will call them the ²wicked territory, and the people ³toward whom the LORD is indignant forever."

5 And your eyes will see this and you will say, "The LORD ¹be magnified beyond the ²border of Israel!"

6 "A son ^ahonors his father, and a servant his master. Then if I am a ^bfather, where is My honor? And if I am a master, where is My ¹respect? says the LORD of hosts to you, O ^cpriests who despise My name. But you say, 'How have we despised Thy name?'

7 "You are presenting defiled ¹food upon My altar. But you say, 'How have we defiled Thee?' In that you say, 'The table of the LORD is to be despised.'

8 "But when you present the ^ablind for sacrifice, is it not evil? And when you present the lame and sick, is it not evil? ¹Why not offer it to your governor? Would he be pleased with you? Or would he receive you kindly?" says the LORD of hosts.

9 "But now ¹will you not ^aentreat God's favor, that He may be gracious to us? ²With such an offering on your part, will He ^breceive any of you kindly?" says the LORD of hosts.

10 "Oh that there were one among you who would ^ashut the ¹gates, that you might not uselessly kindle fire on My altar! I am not pleased with you," says the LORD of hosts, "nor will I ^baccept an offering from ²you.

11 "For from the ^arising of the sun, even to its setting, My name will be great among the nations, and in every place ^bincense is going to be offered to My name, and a grain offering that is pure; for My name will be ^cgreat among the nations," says the LORD of hosts.

12 "But you are profaning it, in that you say, 'The table of the LORD is defiled, and as for its fruit, its food is to be despised.'

13 "You also say, '¹My, how ^atiresome it is!' And you disdainfully sniff at it," says the LORD of hosts, "and you bring what was taken by ^brobbery, and what is lame or sick; so you bring the offering! Should I receive that from your hand?" says the LORD.

14 "But cursed be the swindler who has a male in his flock, and vows it, but sacrifices a ^ablemished animal to the Lord, for I am a great ^bKing," says the LORD of hosts, "and My name is ^cfeared among the ²nations."

CHAPTER 2

"^aAND now, this commandment is for you, O priests.

2 "If you do ^anot listen, and if you do not take it to heart to give honor to My name," says the LORD of hosts, "then I will send the ^bcurse upon you, and I will curse your blessings; and indeed, I have cursed them already, because you are not taking it to heart.

3 "Behold, I am going to ^arebuke your ¹offspring, and I will ^bspread ²refuse on your faces, the ²refuse of your ^cfeasts; and you will be taken away ³with it.

4 "Then you will know that I have sent this commandment to you, ¹that My ^acovenant may ²continue with Levi," says the LORD of hosts.

5 "My covenant with him was one of life and ^apeace, and I gave them to him as an object of ¹reverence; so he ²revered Me, and stood in awe of My name.

6 "^{1a}True instruction was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found on his lips; he walked ^bwith Me in peace and uprightness, and he ^cturned many back from iniquity.

7 "For the lips of a priest should preserve ^aknowledge, and ¹men should ^bseek ²instruction from his mouth; for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts.

8 "But as for you, you have turned aside from the way; you have caused many to ^astumble ¹by the instruction; you have ²corrupted the covenant of Levi," says the LORD of hosts.

9 "So I also have made you despised and abased ¹before all the people, just as you are not keeping My ways, but are showing ²partiality in the ³instruction.

10 "Do we not all have ⁴one father? Has not one God created us? Why do we deal ⁵treacherously each against his brother so as to profane the ⁶covenant of our fathers?

11 "Judah has dealt ⁷treacherously, and an abomination has been committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has ⁸profaned the sanctuary of the LORD ¹which He loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god.

12 "As for the man who does this, may the ²LORD cut off from the tents of Jacob everyone who awakes and answers, or who presents an ³offering to the LORD of hosts.

13 "And this is ⁴another thing you do: you cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping and with groaning, because He ⁵no longer regards the ⁶offering or accepts it with favor from your hand.

14 "Yet you say, 'For what reason?' Because the LORD has been a witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt ⁷treacherously, though she is your companion and your wife by covenant.

15 "But not one has ⁸done so who has a remnant of the Spirit. And ⁹what did that one do while he was seeking a ¹⁰godly ¹¹offspring? Take heed then, to your spirit, and let no one deal ¹²treacherously against the wife of your youth.

16 "For ¹I hate ²divorce," says the LORD, the God of Israel, "and ³him who covers his garment with ⁴wrong," says the LORD of hosts. "So take heed to your spirit, that you do not deal treacherously."

17 You have ⁵wearied the LORD with your words. Yet you say, "How have we wearied Him?" In that you say, "⁶Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and He ⁷delights in them," or, "Where is the God of ⁸justice?"

CHAPTER 3

“¹BEHOLD, I am going to send My ²messenger, and he will ³clear the way before Me. And ⁴the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to His temple; ⁵and ⁶the ⁷messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight, behold, he is coming,” says the LORD of hosts.

2 "But who can ⁸endure the day of His coming? And who can stand when He appears? For He is like a ⁹refiner's fire and like ¹⁰fullers' soap.

3 "And He will sit as a smelter and purifier of silver, and He will ¹¹purify the sons of Levi and refine them like gold and silver, so that they may ¹²present to the LORD ¹³offerings in righteousness.

4 "Then the ¹⁴offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be ¹⁵pleasing to the LORD, as in the ¹⁶days of old and as in former years.

5 "Then I will draw near to you for judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the ¹⁷sorcerers and against the ¹⁸adulterers and against those who ¹⁹swear falsely, and against those who oppress the ²⁰wage earner in his wages, the ²¹widow and the ¹orphan, and those who turn aside the ²alien, and do not ³fear Me," says the LORD of hosts.

6 "For ¹I, the LORD, do not change; therefore you, O sons of Jacob, ²are not consumed.

7 "From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from My statutes, and have not kept them. ³Return to Me, and I will return to you," says the Lord of hosts. "But you say, 'How shall we return?'

8 "Will a man ¹rob God? Yet you are robbing Me! But you say, 'How have we robbed Thee?' In ²tithe and ²contributions.

9 "You are cursed with a curse, for you are ¹robbing Me, the whole nation of you!

10 "Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, so that there may be ¹food in My house, and test Me now in this," says the LORD of hosts, "if I will not ²open for you the windows of heaven, and ³pour out for you a blessing until there is ²no more need.

11 "Then I will rebuke the ²devourer for you, so that it may not ¹destroy the fruits of the ground; nor will your vine in the field cast its grapes," says the LORD of hosts.

12 "And ²all the nations will call you blessed, for you shall be a ¹delightful land," says the LORD of hosts.

13 "Your words have been ¹arrogant against Me," says the LORD. "Yet you say, 'What have we spoken against Thee?'

14 "You have said, 'It is ²vain to serve God; and what ³profit is it that we have kept His charge, and that we have walked in mourning before the LORD of hosts?'

15 "So now we call the arrogant blessed; not only are the doers of wickedness built up, but they also test God and ²escape."

16 Then those who ¹feared the LORD spoke to one another, and the LORD ²gave attention and heard it, and a ³book of remembrance was written before Him for those who ²fear the LORD and who esteem His name.

17 "And they will be ²Mine," says the LORD of hosts, "on the ³day that I ¹prepare My ²own possession, and I will ³spare them as a man ³spares his own son who serves him."

18 So you will again ²distinguish between the righteous and the wicked, between one who serves God and one who does not serve him.

CHAPTER 4

¹"FOR behold, the day is coming, ²burning like a furnace; and all the arrogant and every evildoer will be ³chaff; and the day that is coming will ⁴set them ablaze," says the LORD of hosts, "so that it will leave them neither root nor branch."

2 "But for you who ¹fear My name the ²sun of righteousness will rise with ³healing in its wings; and you will go forth and ⁴skip about like calves from the stall.

3 "And you will ²tread down the wicked, for they shall be ³bashes under the soles of your feet on the day ¹which I am preparing," says the LORD of hosts.

Genealogy of Jesus. Birth of Jesus.

THE book of the genealogy of Jesus Christ, ^athe son of David, ^bthe son of Abraham.

2 To Abraham was born Isaac; and to Isaac, Jacob; and to Jacob, ¹Judah and his brothers;

3 and to Judah were born Perez and Zerah by Tamar; and to ^aPerez was born Hezron; and to Hezron, ¹Ram;

4 and to Ram was born Amminadab; and to Amminadab, Nahshon; and to Nahshon, Salmon;

5 and to Salmon was born Boaz by Rahab; and to Boaz was born Obed by Ruth; and to Obed, Jesse;

6 and to Jesse was born David the king.

And to David ^awas born Solomon by her who had been the wife of Uriah;

7 and to Solomon ^awas born Rehoboam; and to Rehoboam, Abijah; and to Abijah, ¹Asa;

8 and to Asa was born Jehoshaphat; and to Jehoshaphat, ¹Joram; and to Joram, Uzziah;

9 and to Uzziah was born ¹Jotham; and to Jotham, Ahaz; and to Ahaz, Hezekiah;

10 and to Hezekiah was born Manasseh; and to Manasseh, ¹Amon; and to Amon, Josiah;

11 and to Josiah were born ¹Jeconiah and his brothers, at the time of the ^adeportation to Babylon.

12 And after the ^adeportation to Babylon, to Jeconiah was born ¹Shealtiel; and to Shealtiel, Zerubbabel;

13 and to Zerubbabel was born ¹Abiud; and to Abiud, Eliakim; and to Eliakim, Azor;

14 and to Azor was born Zadok; and to Zadok, Achim; and to Achim, Eliud;

15 and to Eliud was born Eleazar; and to Eleazar, Matthan; and to Matthan, Jacob;

16 and to Jacob was born Joseph the husband of Mary, by whom was born Jesus, ^awho is called ¹Christ.

17 Therefore all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David to the ^adeportation to Babylon fourteen generations; and from the ^adeportation to Babylon to the time of ¹Christ fourteen generations.

18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was as follows. When His ^amother Mary had been betrothed to Joseph, before they came together she was ^bfound to be with child by the Holy Spirit.

19 And Joseph her husband, being a righteous man, and not wanting to disgrace her, desired ¹to put her away secretly.

20 But when he had considered this, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary as your wife; for that which has been ¹conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit.

22 Now all this ¹took place that what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet might be fulfilled, saying,

23 "^aBEHOLD, THE VIRGIN SHALL BE WITH CHILD, AND SHALL BEAR A SON, AND THEY SHALL CALL HIS NAME ¹IMMANUEL;" which translated means, "GOD WITH US."

25 and ¹kept her a virgin until she gave birth to a Son; and ^ahe called His name Jesus.

CHAPTER 2

NOW after Jesus was ^aborn in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of ^bHerod the king, behold, ¹magi from the East arrived in Jerusalem, saying,

2 "Where is He who has been born ^aKing of the Jews? For we saw ^bHis star in the East, and have come to worship Him."

3 And when Herod the king heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

4 And gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he began to inquire of them where ¹the Christ was to be born.

5 And they said to him, "^aIn Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written ¹by the prophet,

6 "^aAND YOU, BETHLEHEM, LAND OF JUDAH; ARE BY NO MEANS LEAST AMONG THE LEADERS OF JUDAH; FOR OUT OF YOU SHALL COME FORTH A RULER, WHO WILL ^bSHEPHERD MY PEOPLE ISRAEL."

7 Then Herod secretly called the magi, and ascertained from them ¹the time the star appeared.

8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, "Go and make careful search for the Child; and when you have found Him, report to me, that I too may come and worship Him."

9 And having heard the king, they went their way; and lo, the star, which they had seen in the East, went on before them, until it came and stood over where the Child was.

10 And when they saw the star, they rejoiced exceedingly, with great joy.

11 And they came into the house and saw the Child with ^aMary His mother; and they fell down and worshiped Him; and opening their treasures they presented to Him gifts of gold and frankincense and myrrh.

12 And having been ^awarned by God in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their own country by another way.

13 Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord ^aappeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, "Arise and take the Child and His mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you; for Herod is going to search for the Child to destroy Him."

14 And he arose and took the Child and His mother by night, and departed for Egypt;

15 and was there until the death of Herod; that what was spoken by the Lord through the prophet might be fulfilled, saying, "aOUT OF EGYPT DID I CALL bMY SON."

16 Then when Herod saw that he had been tricked by the magi, he became very enraged, and sent and slew all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all its environs, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had ascertained from the magi.

17 Then that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying,

18 "aA VOICE WAS HEARD IN RAMAH,
 WEEPING AND GREAT MOURNING,
 RACHEL WEEPING FOR HER CHILDREN;
 AND SHE REFUSED TO BE COMFORTED,
 BECAUSE THEY WERE NO MORE."

19 But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord ^aappeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying,

20 "Arise and take the Child and His mother, and go into the land of Israel; for those who sought the Child's life are dead."

21 And he arose and took the Child and His mother, and came into the land of Israel.

22 But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there; and being ^awarned by God in a dream, he departed for the regions of Galilee,

23 and came and resided in a city called ^aNazareth; that what was spoken through the prophets might be fulfilled, "bHe shall be called a ^cNazarene."

CHAPTER 3

NOW ^ain those days John the Baptist ¹came, ²preaching in the ^bwilderness of Judea, saying,

2 "aRepent, for bthe kingdom of ¹heaven ²is at hand."

3 For this is the one referred to ¹by Isaiah the prophet, saying,

"aTHE VOICE OF ONE CRYING IN THE WILDERNESS,
 bMAKE READY THE WAY OF THE LORD,
 MAKE HIS PATHS STRAIGHT! "

4 Now John himself had ^{1a}a garment of camel's hair, and a leather belt about his waist; and his food was ^blocusts and wild honey.

5 Then Jerusalem was going out to him, and all Judea, and all ^athe district around the Jordan;

6 and they were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, as they confessed their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the ^aPharisees and ^bSadducees coming for baptism, he said to them, "You ^cbrood of vipers, who warned you to flee from ^dthe wrath to come?"

8 "Therefore bring forth fruit ^ain keeping with your repentance;

9 and do not suppose that you can say to yourselves, 'aWe have Abraham for our father;' for I say to you, that God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham.

11 "As for me, ^aI baptize you in water for repentance; but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, and I am not even fit to remove His sandals; ^bHe Himself will baptize you ¹with the Holy Spirit and fire.

12 "And His ^awinnowing fork is in His hand, and He will thoroughly clean His threshing-floor; and He will gather His wheat into the barn, but He will burn up the chaff with ^cunquenchable fire."

13 ^aThen Jesus ^{*}arrived ^bfrom Galilee at the Jordan coming to John, to be baptized by him.

14 But John tried to prevent Him, saying, "I have need to be baptized by You, and do You come to me?"

15 But Jesus answering said to him, "Permit it at this time; for in this way it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he ^{*}permitted Him.

16 And after being baptized, Jesus went up immediately from the water; and behold, the heavens were opened, and ^{1a}he saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming upon Him;

17 and behold, a voice out of the heavens, saying, "^aThis is ¹My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

CHAPTER 4

^a THEN Jesus was ¹led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil.

2 And after He had ^afasted forty days and forty nights, He ¹then became hungry.

3 And ^athe tempter came and said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, command that these stones become ¹bread."

4 But He answered and said, "It is written, ^aMAN SHALL NOT LIVE ON BREAD ALONE, BUT ON EVERY WORD THAT PROCEEDS OUT OF THE MOUTH OF GOD."

5 Then the devil ^{*}took Him into ^athe holy city; and he stood Him on the pinnacle of the temple,

6 and ^{*}said to Him, "If You are the Son of God throw Yourself down; for it is written,

^aHE WILL GIVE HIS ANGELS CHARGE CONCERNING YOU;

AND ON THEIR HANDS THEY WILL BEAR YOU UP,

LEST YOU STRIKE YOUR FOOT AGAINST A STONE."

7 Jesus said to him, "¹On the other hand, it is written, ^aYOU SHALL NOT ²TEMPT THE LORD YOUR GOD."

8 Again, the devil ^{}took Him to a very high mountain, and ^{}showed Him all the kingdoms of the world, and their glory;

9 and he said to Him, "All these things will I give You, if You fall down and worship me."

10 Then Jesus ^{*}said to him, "Begone, Satan! For it is written, ^aYOU SHALL WORSHIP THE LORD YOUR GOD, AND ¹SERVE HIM ONLY."

11 Then the devil ^{*}left Him; and behold, ^aangels came and ^{began} to minister to Him.

12 Now when He heard that ^aJohn had ¹been taken into custody, ^bHe withdrew into Galilee;

13 and leaving Nazareth, He came and ^asettled in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali.

14 This was to fulfill what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

15 ^a"THE LAND OF ZEBULUN AND THE LAND OF NAPHTALI, ¹BY THE WAY OF THE SEA, BEYOND THE JORDAN, GALILEE
OF THE ²GENTILES.

16 ^a"THE PEOPLE WHO WERE SITTING IN DARKNESS SAW A GREAT LIGHT, AND TO THOSE WHO WERE SITTING IN THE LAND AND SHADOW OF DEATH, UPON THEM A LIGHT DAWNED."

17 ^aFrom that time Jesus began to ¹preach and say, "^bRepent; for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

18 ^aAnd walking by ^bthe sea of Galilee, He saw two brothers, ^cSimon who was called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen.

19 And He ^asaid to them, "¹Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men."

20 And they immediately left the nets, and followed Him.

21 And going on from there He saw two other brothers, ^{1a}James the son of Zebedee, and ²John his brother, in the boat with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and He called them.

22 And they immediately left the boat and their father, and followed Him.

23 And Jesus was going about ^ain all Galilee, ^bteaching in their synagogues, and ^cproclaiming the ¹gospel of the kingdom, and ^dhealing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness among the people.

24 And the news about Him went out ^ainto all Syria; and they brought to Him all who were ill, taken with various diseases and pains, ^bdemoniacs, ^{1c}epileptics, ^dparalytics; and He healed them.

25 And great multitudes ^afollowed Him from Galilee and ^bDecapolis and Jerusalem and Judea and from ^cbeyond the Jordan.

CHAPTER 5

^aAND when He saw the multitudes, He went up on ^bthe ¹mountain; and after He sat down, His disciples came to Him.

2 And ^aopening His mouth He began to teach them, saying,

3 ^a"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for ^btheirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 "Blessed are ^athose who mourn, for they shall be comforted.

5 "Blessed are ^athe ¹gentle, for they shall inherit the earth.

6 "Blessed are ^athose who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be satisfied.

7 "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall receive mercy.

8 "Blessed are ^athe pure in heart, for ^bthey shall see God.

9 "Blessed are the peacemakers, for ^athey shall be called sons of God.

38 "^aYou have heard that it was said, ^b'AN EYE FOR AN EYE, AND A TOOTH FOR A TOOTH.'

39 "But I say to you, do not resist him who is evil; but ^awhoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also.

40 "And if any one wants to sue you, and take your ¹shirt, let him have your ²coat also.

41 "And whoever shall force you to go one mile, go with him two.

42 "^aGive to him who asks of you, and do not turn away from him who wants to borrow from you.

43 "^aYou have heard that it was said, ^b'YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR, AND HATE YOUR ENEMY.'

44 "But I say to you, ^alove your enemies, and pray for those who persecute you;

45 in order that you may ¹be ^asons of your Father who is in heaven; for He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.

47 "And if you greet your brothers only, what do you do more than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same?

48 "Therefore ^ayou are to be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

3 "But when you give alms, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing;

4 that your ¹alms may be in secret; and ^ayour Father who sees in secret will repay you.

5 "And when you pray, you are not to be as the hypocrites; for they love to ^astand and pray in the synagogues and on the street corners, ^{1b}in order to be seen by men. ^cTruly I say to you, they have their reward in full.

6 "But you, when you pray, ^aGO INTO YOUR INNER ROOM, AND WHEN YOU HAVE SHUT YOUR DOOR, pray to your Father who is in secret, and ^byour Father who sees in secret will repay you.

7 "And when you are praying, do not use meaningless repetition, as the Gentiles do, for they suppose that they will be heard for their ^amany words.

8 "Therefore do not be like them; for ^ayour Father knows what you need, before you ask Him.

9 "Pray, then, in this way:
'Our Father|who art in ¹heaven,| Hallowed be Thy name.'

10 'Thy kingdom come.|

16 "And ^awhenever you fast, do not put on a gloomy face as the hypocrites do; for they ¹neglect their appearance in order to be seen fasting by men. ^bTruly I say to you, they have their reward in full.

18 so that you may not be seen fasting by men, but by your Father who is in secret; and your ^aFather who sees in secret will repay you.

19 "Do not lay up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust destroy, and where thieves break in and steal;

20 but lay up for yourselves ^atreasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys, and where thieves do not break in or steal;

21 for ^awhere your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

22 "The lamp of the body is the eye; if therefore your eye is ¹clear, your whole body will be full of light.

23 "But if ^ayour eye is bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

24 "No one can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will hold to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and ^{1b}Mammon.

25 ^aFor this reason I say to you, ¹do not be ^banxious for your life, as to what you shall eat, or what you shall drink; nor for your body, as to what you shall put on. Is not life more than food, and the body than clothing?

26 ^aLook at the birds of the ^{1a}air, that they do not sow, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not worth much more than they?

27 ^aAnd which of you by being ^aanxious can ^badd a single cubit to his ²life's span?

28 ^aAnd why are you ^aanxious about clothing? Observe how the lilies of the field grow; they do not toil nor do they spin, 29 yet I say to you that even ^aSolomon in all his glory did not clothe himself like one of these.

30 ^aBut if God so arrays the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, will He not much more do so for you, ^aO men of little faith?

31 ^aDo not be ^aanxious then, saying, ^a'What shall we eat?' or, ^a'What shall we drink?' or, ^a'With what shall we clothe ourselves?'

32 ^aFor all these things the Gentiles eagerly seek; for ^ayour heavenly Father knows that you need all these things.

33 ^aBut ¹seek first ²His kingdom, and His righteousness; and ^aall these things shall be ³added to you.

your children, how much more shall your Father who is in heaven give what is good to those who ask Him!

12 ^aTherefore whatever you want others to do for you, ¹do so for them; for ^bthis is the Law and the Prophets.

13 ^aEnter by the narrow gate; for the gate is wide, and the way is broad that leads to destruction, and many are those who enter by it.

14 ^aFor the gate is small, and the way is narrow that leads to life, and few are those who find it.

15 ^aBeware of the ^afalse prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ^bravenous wolves.

16 ^aYou will ¹know them ^aby their fruits. ²Grapes are not gathered from thornbushes, nor figs from thistles, are they?

17 ^aEven so every good tree bears good fruit; but the rotten tree bears bad fruit.

18 ^aA good tree cannot produce bad fruit, nor can a rotten tree produce good fruit.

19 ^aEvery tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire.

20 ^aSo then, you will ¹know them ^aby their fruits.

21 ^aNot every one who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven; but he who does the will of My Father, who is in heaven.

22 ^aMany will say to Me on ^bthat day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your name, and in Your name cast out demons, and in Your name perform many ¹miracles?'

23 ^aAnd then I will declare to them, 'I never knew you; ^aDEPART FROM ME, YOU WHO PRACTICE LAWLESSNESS.'

24 ^aTherefore ^aevery one who hears these words of Mine, and ¹acts upon them, ²may be compared to a wise man, who built his house upon the rock;

25 and the rain descended, and the ¹floods came, and the winds blew, and burst against that house; and yet it did not fall; for it had been founded upon the rock.

26 ^aAnd every one who hears these words of Mine, and does not ¹act upon them, will be like a foolish man, who built his house upon the sand.

27 ^aAnd the rain descended, and the ¹floods came, and the winds blew, and burst against that house; and it fell, and great was its fall."

28 ^{1a}The result was that when Jesus had finished these words, ^bthe multitudes were amazed at His teaching;

29 for He was teaching them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

CHAPTER 8

AND when He had come down from the mountain, great multitudes followed Him.

2 And behold, a leper ^acame to Him, and ^bbowed down to Him, saying, "Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean."

3 And stretching out His hand, He touched him, saying, "I am willing; be cleansed." And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

^bgo, ^cSHOW YOURSELF TO THE PRIEST, and present the ¹offering that Moses prescribed, for a testimony to them.”

5 And ^awhen He had entered Capernaum, a centurion came to Him, entreating Him,

6 and saying, “¹Sir, my ²servant is ³lying ^aparalyzed at home, ⁴suffering great pain.”

7 And He ^asaid to him, “I will come and heal him.”

8 But the centurion answered and said, “¹Lord, I am not qualified for You to come under my roof, but ²just say the word, and my ³servant will be healed.

9 “¹For I too am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to this one, ‘Go!’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come!’ and he comes, and to my slave, ‘Do this!’ and he does it.”

10 Now when Jesus heard this, He marveled, and said to those who were following, “¹Truly I say to you, I have not found such great faith ¹with anyone in Israel.

11 “¹And I say to you, that many ^ashall come from east and west, and ¹recline at table with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven;

12 but ^athe sons of the kingdom shall be cast out into ^bthe outer darkness; in that place ^cthere shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

13 And Jesus said to the centurion, “¹Go your way; let it be done to you ^aas you have believed.” And the ¹servant was healed that very hour.

14 ^aAnd when Jesus had come to Peter’s ¹home, He saw his mother-in-law lying ²sick in bed with a fever.

15 And He touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she arose, and began to ¹wait on Him.

16 And when evening had come, they brought to Him many ^awho were demon-possessed; and He cast out the spirits with a word, and ^bhealed all who were ill;

17 in order that what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, saying, “^aHE HIMSELF TOOK OUR INFIRMITIES, AND CARRIED AWAY OUR DISEASES.”

18 Now when Jesus saw a crowd around Him, ^aHe gave orders to depart to the other side.

19 ^aAnd a certain scribe came and said to Him, “¹Teacher, I will follow You wherever You go.”

20 And Jesus ^asaid to him, “¹The foxes have holes, and the birds of the ¹air have ²nests; but ^athe Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head.”

21 And another of the disciples said to Him, “¹Lord, permit me first to go and bury my father.”

22 But Jesus ^asaid to him, “¹Follow Me; and allow the dead to bury their own dead.”

23 ^aAnd when He got into the boat, His disciples followed Him.

24 And behold, there arose ¹a great storm in the sea, so that the boat was covered with the waves; but He Himself was asleep.

31 And the demons began to entreat Him, saying, "If You are going to cast us out, send us into the herd of swine."

32 And He said to them, "Begone!" And they came out, and went into the swine, and behold, the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and perished in the waters.

33 And the herdsmen fled, and went away to the city, and reported everything, ¹including the incident of the demons.

34 And behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus; and when they saw Him, they entreated Him to depart from their region.

CHAPTER 9

AND getting into a boat, He crossed over, and came to ^aHis own city.

2 ^aAnd behold, they were bringing to Him a ^bparalytic, lying on a bed; and Jesus seeing their faith said to the paralytic, "^cTake courage, My son, ^dyour sins ³are forgiven."

3 And behold, some of the scribes said ¹to themselves, "This fellow blasphemeth."

4 And Jesus ^aknowing their thoughts said, "Why are you thinking evil in your hearts?"

5 "For which is easier, to say, '^aYour sins are ¹forgiven,' or to say, 'Rise, and walk'?"

6 "But in order that you may know that ^athe Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—then He ^asaid to the ^bparalytic, "Rise, take up your bed, and go home."

7 And he rose, and ¹went to his home.

8 But when the multitudes saw this, they ¹were filled with awe, and ^aglorified God, who had given such authority to men.

9 ^aAnd as Jesus passed on from there, He saw a man, called ^bMatthew, sitting ¹in the tax office; and He ^asaid to him, "^cFollow Me!" And he rose, and followed Him.

10 And it happened that as He was reclining at table in the house, behold many ¹tax-gatherers and ²sinners came and ³joined Jesus and His disciples at the table.

11 And when the Pharisees saw this, they said to His disciples, "^aWhy does your Teacher eat with the tax-gatherers and sinners?"

Curing the Ruler's Daughter; a Woman's Chronic Illness.

Matthew 9

12 But when He heard this, He said, "It is not ^athose who are healthy who need a physician, but those who are ill.

13 "But go and learn ^awhat this means, ^bI DESIRE ¹COMPASSION, ²AND NOT SACRIFICE;" for ^cI did not come to call the righteous, but sinners."

14 Then the disciples of John ^acame to Him, saying, "Why do we and ^athe Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?"

15 And Jesus said to them, "The ¹attendants of the bridegroom cannot mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them, can they? But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast.

16 "But no one puts a ¹patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the ²patch pulls away from the garment, and a worse tear results.

17 "Nor do men put new wine into old ¹wineskins; otherwise the wineskins burst, and the wine pours out, and the wineskins are ruined; but they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved."

18 ^aWhile He was saying these things to them, behold, there came ^{1a} ²synagogue official, and ^{3b}bowed down before Him, saying, "My daughter has just died; but come and lay Your hand on her, and she will live."

19 And Jesus rose and began to follow him, and so did His disciples.

20 And behold, a woman who had been suffering from a hemorrhage for twelve years, came up behind Him and touched ^athe fringe of His ¹cloak;

21 for she was saying ¹to herself, "If I only ^atouch His garment, I shall ²get well."

22 But Jesus turning and seeing her said, "Daughter, ^atake courage; ^byour faith has ¹made you well." And ²at once the woman was ¹made well.

23 And when Jesus came into the ¹official's house, and saw ^athe flute-players, and the crowd in noisy disorder, 24 He began to say, "Depart; for the girl ^ais not dead, but is asleep." And they were laughing at Him.

25 But when the crowd had been put out, He entered and took her by the hand; and the girl ¹arose.

26 And ^athis news went out into all that land.

27 And as Jesus passed on from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out, and saying, "Have mercy on us, ^aSon of David!"

28 And after He had come into the house, the blind men came up to Him, and Jesus ^asaid to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They ^asaid to Him, "Yes, Lord."

29 Then He touched their eyes, saying, "Be it done to you ^aaccording to your faith."

30 And their eyes were opened. And Jesus ^asternly warned them, saying, "See here, let no one know about this!"

31 But they went out, and ^aspread the news about Him in all that land.

32 And as they were going out, behold, ^aa dumb man ^bdemon-possessed ¹was brought to Him.

33 And after the demon was cast out, the dumb man spoke; and the multitudes marveled, saying, "Nothing like this was ever seen in Israel."

34 But the Pharisees were saying, "He casts out the demons by the ruler of the demons."

35 And Jesus was going about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every kind of disease and every kind of sickness.

36 And seeing the multitudes, He felt compassion for them, because they were distressed and downcast like sheep without a shepherd.

37 Then He said to His disciples, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few.

38 "Therefore beseech the Lord of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest."

CHAPTER 10

AND having summoned His twelve disciples, He gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every kind of disease and every kind of sickness.

2 Now the names of the twelve apostles are these: The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; and James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother;

3 Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-gatherer; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus;

4 Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed Him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent out after instructing them, saying, "Do not go in the way of the Gentiles, and do not enter any city of the Samaritans;

6 but rather go to the lost sheep of the house of Israel.

7 "And as you go, preach, saying, 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.'

8 "Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons; freely you received, freely give.

9 "Do not acquire gold, or silver, or copper for your money belts;

10 or a bag for your journey, or even two tunics, or sandals, or a staff; for the worker is worthy of his support.

11 "And into whatever city or village you enter, inquire who is worthy in it; and abide there until you go away.

12 "And as you enter the house, give it your greeting.

13 "And if the house is worthy, let your greeting of peace come upon it; but if it is not worthy, let your greeting of peace return to you.

14 "And whoever does not receive you, nor heed your words, as you go out of that house or that city, shake off the dust of your feet.

15 "Truly I say to you, it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.

16 "Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves; therefore be shrewd as serpents, and innocent as doves.

17 "But beware of men; for they will deliver you up to the courts, and scourge you in their synagogues;

18 and you shall even be brought before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles.

19 ^aBut when they deliver you up, ^bdo not become anxious about how or what you will speak; for it shall be given you in that hour what you are to speak.

20 ^aFor it is not you who speak, but it is the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you.

21 ^aAnd brother will deliver up brother to death, and a father his child; and ^bCHILDREN WILL RISE UP AGAINST PARENTS, and ^ccause them to be put to death.

22 ^aAnd you will be hated by all on account of My name, but ^bit is the one who has endured to the end who will be saved.

23 ^aBut whenever they persecute you in this city, flee to ^bthe next; for truly I say to you, you shall not finish going through the cities of Israel, ^cuntil the Son of Man comes.

25 ^aIt is enough for the disciple that he become as his teacher, and the slave as his master. ^bIf they have called the head of the house ^cBeelzebub, how much more the members of his household!

26 ^aTherefore do not fear them, ^bfor there is nothing covered that will not be revealed, and hidden that will not be known.

27 ^aWhat I tell you in the darkness, speak in the light; and what you hear whispered in your ear, proclaim ^bupon the housetops.

28 ^aAnd do not fear those who kill the body, but are unable to kill the soul; but rather fear Him who is able to destroy both soul and body in ^bhell.

29 ^aAre not two sparrows sold for a ^bcent? And yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father.

30 ^aBut ^bthe very hairs of your head are all numbered.

31 ^aTherefore do not fear; ^byou are of more value than many sparrows.

32 ^aEvery one therefore who shall confess ^bMe before men, I will also confess ^chim before My Father who is in heaven.

33 ^aBut ^bwhoever shall deny Me before men, I will also deny him before My Father who is in heaven.

34 ^aDo not think that I came to ^bbring peace on the earth; I did not come to bring peace, but a sword.

35 ^aFor I came to ^bSET A MAN AGAINST HIS FATHER, AND A DAUGHTER AGAINST HER MOTHER, AND A DAUGHTER-IN-LAW AGAINST HER MOTHER-IN-LAW;

36 and ^aA MAN'S ENEMIES WILL BE THE MEMBERS OF HIS HOUSEHOLD.

37 ^aHe who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me; and he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me.

38 ^aAnd ^bhe who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me.

39 ^aHe who has found his ^blife shall lose it, and he who has lost his ^clife for My sake shall find it.

40 ^aHe who receives you receives Me, and ^bhe who receives Me receives Him who sent Me.

CHAPTER 11

^aAND it came about that when Jesus had finished ¹giving instructions to His twelve disciples, He departed from there ^bto teach and ²preach in their cities.

²Now when ^bJohn in prison heard of the works of Christ, he sent word by his disciples,

³ and said to Him, "Are You ^athe Coming One, or shall we look for someone else?"

⁴ And Jesus answered and said to them, "Go and report to John the things which you hear and see:

⁶ "And blessed is he ¹who ^akeeps from ²stumbling over Me."

⁷ And as these were going away, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John, "What did you go out into ^athe wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind?

⁸ "But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft clothing? Behold, those who wear soft clothing are in ¹kings' ²palaces.

⁹ "But why did you go out? To see ^aa prophet? Yes, I tell you, and one who is more than a prophet.

¹⁰ "This is the one about whom it ¹was written,

^aBEHOLD, I SEND MY MESSENGER BEFORE YOUR FACE,
 WHO WILL PREPARE YOUR WAY BEFORE YOU."

¹¹ "Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has not arisen anyone greater than John the Baptist; yet he who is ¹least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

¹² "And ^afrom the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of heaven ¹suffers violence, and violent men ²take it by force.

¹³ "For ^aall the prophets and the Law prophesied until John.

¹⁴ "And if you care to accept it, he himself is ^aElijah, who ¹was to come.

¹⁵ "He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

¹⁶ "But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the market places, who call out to the other children,

¹⁷ and say, 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we sang a dirge, and you did not ¹mourn.'

¹⁸ "For John came neither ^aeating nor ^bdrinking, and they say, 'He has a demon!'

¹⁹ "The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man and a ¹drunkard, ^aa friend of Unrepenting Cities.

"Take My Yoke." Sabbath Questions.

²tax-gatherers and sinners!' ³Yet wisdom is vindicated by her deeds."

20 Then He began to reproach the cities in which most of His ¹miracles were done, because they did not repent.

21 "Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, ^bBethsaida! For if the ¹miracles had occurred in ^cTyre and ^cSidon which occurred in you, they would have repented long ago in ^dsackcloth and ashes.

22 "Nevertheless I say to you, ^ait shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in ^bthe day of judgment, than for you.

23 "And you, ^aCapernaum, will not be EXALTED TO HEAVEN, will you? You shall ¹DESCEND TO ^cHADES; for if the ²miracles had occurred in ^dSodom which occurred in you, it would have remained to this day.

24 "Nevertheless I say to you that ^ait shall be more tolerable for the land of ^bSodom in ^bthe day of judgment, than for you."

25 ^aAt that ¹time Jesus ^banswered and said, "I ²praise Thee, O ^cFather, Lord of heaven and earth, that ^dThou didst hide these things from the wise and intelligent and didst reveal them to babes.

26 "Yes, ^aFather, for thus it was well-pleasing in Thy sight.

27 "^aAll things ¹have been handed over to Me by My Father; and no one ²knows the Son, except the Father; nor does anyone ²know the Father, ^bexcept the Son, and anyone to whom the Son wills to reveal Him.

28 "^aCome to Me, all who are ¹weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest.

29 "Take My yoke upon you, and ^alearn from Me, for I am gentle and humble in heart; and ^bYOU SHALL FIND REST FOR YOUR SOULS.

30 "For My yoke is ¹easy, and My load is light."

CHAPTER 12

AT that ¹time Jesus went on the Sabbath through the grain-fields, and His disciples became hungry and began to ^bpick the heads of grain and eat.

2 But when the Pharisees saw it, they said to Him, "Behold, Your disciples do what ^ais not lawful to do on a Sabbath."

3 But He said to them, "Have you not read what David did, when he became hungry, he and his companions;

4 how he entered the house of God, and ^athey ate the ¹consecrated bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, nor for those with him, but for the priests alone?

5 "Or have you not read in the Law, that on the Sabbath the priests in the temple ¹break the Sabbath, and are innocent?

6 "But I say to you, that something ^agreater than the temple is here.

7 "But if you had known what this ¹means, '^aI DESIRE ²COMPASSION, AND NOT A SACRIFICE,' you would not have condemned the innocent.

8 "For ^athe Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

9 ^aAnd departing from there, He went into their synagogue.

10 And behold, there was a man with a withered hand. And they questioned Him, saying, "^aIs it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"—in order that they might accuse Him.

11 And He said to them, "What man shall there be ¹among you, who shall have one sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will he not take hold of it, and lift it out?"

12 "Of ^ahow much more value then is a man than a sheep! So then, it is lawful to do ¹good on the Sabbath."

13 Then He ^asaid to the man, "Stretch out your hand!" And he stretched it out, and it was restored to ¹normal, like the other.

14 But the Pharisees went out, and ^acounseled together against Him, as to how they might destroy Him.

15 But Jesus, ¹aware of this, withdrew from there. And many followed Him, and ^aHe healed them all,

16 and ^awarned them not to make Him ¹known;

17 in order that what was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, might be fulfilled, saying,

18 ^a"BEHOLD, MY ¹SERVANT WHOM I ²HAVE CHOSEN;

^bMY BELOVED IN WHOM MY SOUL IS ³WELL PLEASSED;

^cI WILL PUT MY SPIRIT UPON HIM,

^aAND HE SHALL PROCLAIM ⁴JUSTICE TO THE ⁵GENTILES.

19 ^a"HE WILL NOT QUARREL, NOR CRY OUT;

NOR WILL ANY ONE HEAR HIS VOICE IN THE STREETS.

20 ^a"A BATTERED REED HE WILL NOT BREAK OFF,

AND A SMOLDERING WICK HE WILL NOT PUT OUT,

UNTIL HE ¹LEADS ²JUSTICE TO VICTORY.

21 ^aAND IN HIS NAME THE ¹GENTILES WILL HOPE."

22 ^aThen there was brought to Him a ^bdemon-possessed man who was blind and dumb, and He healed him, so that the dumb man spoke and saw.

23 And all the multitudes were amazed, and began to say, "This man cannot be the ^aSon of David, can he?"

24 But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, "This man casts out demons only ^aby ¹Beelzebub the ruler of the demons."

25 ^aAnd ^bknowing their thoughts He said to them, "¹Any kingdom divided against itself is laid waste; and ¹any city or house divided against itself shall not stand.

26 "And if ^aSatan casts out ^aSatan, he ¹is divided against himself; how then shall his kingdom stand?"

27 "And if I ^aby ¹Beelzebub cast out demons, ^bby whom do your sons cast them out? Consequently they shall be your judges.

28 "But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

29 "Or how can anyone enter the strong man's house and carry off his property, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house.

30 ^a"He who is not with Me is against Me; and he who does not gather with Me scatters.

31 ^a"Therefore I say to you, any sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven men; but blasphemy against the Spirit shall not be forgiven.

32 "And whoever shall speak a word against the Son of Man, it shall be forgiven him; but whoever shall speak against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, either in ^athis age, or in the age to come.

33 "Either make the tree good, and its fruit good; or make the tree rotten, and its fruit rotten; for ^athe tree is known by its fruit.

34 "aYou brood of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak ¹what is good? ^bFor the mouth speaks out of that which fills the heart.

35 "The good man out of his good treasure brings forth ¹what is good; and the evil man out of his evil treasure brings forth ²what is evil.

36 "And I say to you, that every ¹careless word that men shall speak, they shall render account for it in ^athe day of judgment.

37 "For ¹by your words you shall be justified, and ¹by your words you shall be condemned."

38 Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered Him, saying, "Teacher, ^awe want to see a ¹sign from You."

39 But He answered and said to them, "aAn evil and adulterous generation craves for a ¹sign; and yet no ¹sign shall be given to it but the ¹sign of Jonah the prophet;

40 for just as ^aJONAH WAS THREE DAYS AND THREE NIGHTS IN THE BELLY OF THE SEA-MONSTER; so shall ^bthe Son of Man be ^cthree days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41 "aThe men of Nineveh shall stand up with this generation at the judgment, and shall condemn it because ^bthey repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, ^csomething greater than Jonah is here.

42 "aThe Queen of the South shall rise up with this generation at the judgment and shall condemn it; because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, ^bsomething greater than Solomon is here.

43 "aNow when the unclean spirit goes out of a man, it passes through waterless places, seeking rest, and does not find it.

44 "Then it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came;' and when it comes, it finds it unoccupied, swept, and put in order.

45 "Then it goes, and takes along with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there; and ^athe last state of that man becomes worse than the first. That is the way it will also be with this evil generation."

46 "While He was still speaking to the multitudes, behold, His ^bmother and His ^cbrothers were standing outside, seeking to speak to Him.

47 And someone said to Him, "Behold, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside seeking to speak to You."

48 But He answered the one who was telling Him and said, "Who is My mother and who are My brothers?"

49 And stretching out His hand toward His disciples, He said, "Behold, My mother and My brothers!

CHAPTER 13

ON that day Jesus went out of ^athe house, and was sitting ^bby the sea.

2 And great multitudes gathered about Him, so that ^aHe got into a boat and sat down, and the whole multitude was standing on the beach.

3 And He spoke many things to them in ^aparables, saying, "Behold, the sower went out to sow;

4 and as he sowed, some seeds fell beside the road, and the birds came and devoured them.

5 "And others fell upon the rocky places, where they ¹did not have much soil; and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of soil.

6 "But when the sun had risen, they were scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away.

7 "And others fell ¹among the thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them out.

8 "And others fell on the good soil, and ²yielded a crop, some a ^ahundredfold, some sixty, and some thirty.

9 "^aHe who has ears, let him hear."

10 And the disciples came and said to Him, "Why do You speak to them in parables?"

11 And He answered and said to them, "^aTo you it has been granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been granted.

12 "^aFor whoever has, to him shall more be given, and he shall have an abundance; but whoever does not have, even what he has shall be taken away from him.

13 "Therefore I speak to them in parables; because while ^aseeing they do not see, and while hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.

14 "And ¹in their case the prophecy of Isaiah is being fulfilled, which says,

^{2a}YOU WILL KEEP ON HEARING, ³BUT WILL NOT UNDERSTAND;

AND ⁴YOU WILL KEEP ON SEEING, BUT WILL NOT PERCEIVE;

15 ^aFOR THE HEART OF THIS PEOPLE HAS BECOME DULL, AND WITH THEIR EARS THEY SCARCELY HEAR, AND THEY HAVE CLOSED THEIR EYES; LEST THEY SHOULD SEE WITH THEIR EYES, AND HEAR WITH THEIR EARS, AND UNDERSTAND WITH THEIR HEART AND TURN AGAIN, AND I SHOULD HEAL THEM."

16 "^aBut blessed are your eyes, because they see; and your ears, because they hear.

17 "For truly I say to you, that ^amany prophets and righteous men desired to see what you see, and did not see it; and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

18 "^aHear then the parable of the sower.

19 "When any one hears ^athe word of the kingdom, and does not understand it, ^bthe evil one comes and snatches away what has been sown in his heart. This is the one on whom seed was sown beside the road.

20 "And the one on whom seed was sown on the rocky places, this is the man who hears the word, and immediately receives it with joy;

21 yet he has no firm root in himself, but is only temporary, and when affliction or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he ¹falls away.

22 "And the one on whom seed was sown among the thorns, this is the man who hears the word, and the worry of ^athe world, and the ^bdeceitfulness of riches choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.

23 "And the one on whom seed was sown on the good ground, this is the man who hears the word and understands it; who indeed bears fruit, and brings forth, some ^aa hundredfold, some sixty, and some thirty."

24 He presented another parable to them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven ¹may be compared to ^aa man who sowed good seed in his field.

25 "But while men were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed ¹tares also among the wheat, and went away.

26 "But when the ¹wheat sprang up and bore grain, then the tares became evident also.

27 "And the slaves of the landowner came and said to him, 'Sir, did you not sow good seed in your field? ¹How then does it have tares?'

28 "And he said to them, 'An ¹enemy has done this!' And the slaves ²said to him, 'Do you want us, then, to go and gather them up?'

29 "But he ^{*}said, 'No; lest while you are gathering up the tares, you may root up the wheat with them.

30 'Allow both to grow together until the harvest; and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, "First gather up the tares; and bind them in bundles to burn them up; but ^agather the wheat into my barn." ' ' "

31 He presented another parable to them, saying, "The kingdom of heaven is like ^aa mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field;

32 and this is smaller than all other seeds; but when it is full grown, it is larger than the garden plants, and becomes a tree, so that ^aTHE BIRDS OF THE ¹AIR come and NEST IN ITS BRANCHES."

33 He spoke another parable to them; "The kingdom of heaven is like leaven, which a woman took, and hid in ^bthree ¹pecks of meal, until it was all leavened."

34 All these things Jesus spoke to the multitudes in parables, and He was not talking to them ^awithout a parable,

35 so that what was spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled, saying,

"^aI WILL OPEN MY MOUTH IN PARABLES;

I WILL UTTER THINGS HIDDEN SINCE THE FOUNDATION OF THE WORLD."

36 Then He left the multitudes, and went into ^athe house. And His disciples came to Him, saying, "b^bExplain to us the parable of the ¹tares of the field."

38 and the field is the world; and as for the good seed, these are ^athe sons of the kingdom; and the tares are ^bthe sons of ^cthe evil one;

39 and the enemy who sowed them is the devil, and the harvest is ^athe ¹end of the age; and the reapers are angels.

40 "Therefore just as the tares are gathered up and burned with fire, so shall it be at ^athe ¹end of the age.

41 ^a"The Son of Man ^bwill send forth His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all ^{1c}STUMBLING-BLOCKS, AND THOSE WHO COMMIT LAWLESSNESS, 42 and ^awill cast them into the furnace of fire; in that place ^bthere shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

43 ^a"Then THE RIGHTEOUS WILL SHINE FORTH AS THE SUN in the kingdom of their Father. ^bHe who has ears, let him hear.

44 ^a"The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field; which a man found and hid; and from joy over it he goes and ^bsells all that he has, and buys that field.

45 "Again, ^athe kingdom of heaven is like a merchant seeking fine pearls, 46 and upon finding one pearl of great value, he went and sold all that he had, and bought it.

47 "Again, ^athe kingdom of heaven is like a drag-net cast into the sea, and gathering fish of every kind;

48 and when it was filled, they drew it up on the beach; and they sat down, and gathered the good fish into containers, but the bad they threw away.

49 "So it will be at ^athe ¹end of the age; the angels shall come forth, and ²take out the wicked from among the righteous, 50 and ^awill cast them into the furnace of fire; ^bthere shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

51 "Have you understood all these things?" They ^asaid to Him, "Yes."

52 And He said to them, "Therefore every scribe who has become a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a head of a household, who brings forth out of his treasure things new and old."

53 ^aAnd it came about that when Jesus had finished these parables, He departed from there.

54 ^aAnd coming to ¹His home town He ^{2b}began teaching them in their synagogue, so that ^cthey became astonished, and said, "Where did this man get this wisdom, and these ³miraculous powers?"

55 "Is not this the carpenter's son? Is not ^aHis mother called Mary, and His ^abrothers, James and Joseph and Simon and Judas?"

56 "And ^aHis sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this man get all these things?"

57 And they ¹took ^aoffense at Him. But Jesus said to them, "^bA prophet is not without honor except in his ²home town, and in his own household."

58 And He did not do many ¹miracles there because of their unbelief.

CHAPTER 14

AT that ¹time ^bHerod the tetrarch heard the news about Jesus,

2 and said to his servants, "aThis is John the Baptist; ¹he has risen from the dead; and that is why miraculous powers are at work in him."

3 For ^aHerod had seized John, and bound him, and put him ^bin prison on account of ^cHerodias, the wife of his brother Philip.

4 For John had been saying to him, "aIt is not lawful for you to have her."

5 And although he wanted to put him to death, he feared the multitude, because ¹they regarded him as ^aa prophet.

6 But when Herod's birthday ¹came, the daughter of ^aHerodias danced ²before them and pleased ^bHerod.

7 Thereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked.

8 And having been prompted by her mother, she ^{*}said, "Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist."

9 And although he was grieved, the king commanded it to be given because of his oaths, and because of ¹his dinner-guests.

10 And he sent and had John beheaded in the prison.

11 And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl; and she brought it to her mother.

12 And his disciples came and took away the body and buried ¹it; and they went and reported to Jesus.

13 ^aNow when Jesus heard it, He withdrew from there in a boat, to a lonely place by Himself; and when the multitudes heard of this, they followed Him on foot from the cities.

14 And when He came out, He ^asaw a great multitude, and felt compassion for them, and ^bhealed their sick.

15 And when it was evening, the disciples came to Him, saying, "The place is desolate, and the time is already past; so send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and buy food for themselves."

16 But Jesus said to them, "They do not need to go away; you give them something to eat!"

17 And they ^{*}said to Him, "We have here only ^afive loaves, and two fish."

18 And He said, "Bring them here to Me."

19 And ordering the multitudes to recline on the grass, He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up toward heaven, He ^ablessed the food, and breaking the loaves He gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave to the multitudes, 20 and they all ate, and were satisfied. And they picked up what was left over of the broken pieces, twelve full ¹baskets.

21 And there were about five thousand men who ate, aside from women and children.

22 ^aAnd immediately ¹He ¹made the disciples get into the boat, and go ahead of Him to the other side, while He sent the multitudes away.

23 And after He had sent the multitudes away, ^aHe went up to the mountain by Himself to pray; and when it was evening, He was there alone.

24 But the boat was already many ¹stadia away from the land, ²battered by the waves; for the wind was contrary!

25 And in ^athe ¹fourth watch of the night He came to them, walking upon the sea.

26 And when the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were ¹frightened, saying, "It is ^aa ghost!" And they cried out for fear.

27 But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "^aTake courage, ²it is I; ^bdo not be afraid."

28 And Peter answered Him and said, "Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the waters"

29 And He said, "Come!" And Peter got out of the boat, and walked on the water and came toward Jesus.

30 But seeing the wind, he became afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!"

31 And immediately Jesus stretched out His hand and ¹took hold of him, and ²said to him, "'O you of little faith, why did you doubt?'"

32 And when they got into the boat, the wind stopped.

33 And those who were in the boat worshiped Him, saying, "You are certainly ^aGod's Son!"

34 ^aAnd when they had crossed over, they came to ¹land at ^bGennesaret.

CHAPTER 15

^a THEN some Pharisees and scribes ^{*}came to Jesus ^bfrom Jerusalem, saying,

2 "Why do Your disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? For they ^ado not wash their hands when they eat bread."

3 And He answered and said to them, "And why do ¹you yourselves transgress the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition?"

4 "For God said, '^aHONOR YOUR FATHER AND MOTHER,' and, '^bHE WHO SPEAKS EVIL OF FATHER OR MOTHER, LET HIM ¹BE PUT TO DEATH.'

5 "But you say, 'Whoever shall say to his father or mother, "Anything of mine you might have been helped by has been ¹given to God,"

6 he is not to honor his father ¹or his mother².' And thus you invalidated the ³word of God for the sake of your tradition.

7 "You hypocrites, rightly did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

8 '^aTHIS PEOPLE HONORS ME WITH THEIR LIPS, BUT THEIR HEART IS FAR AWAY FROM ME.

9 '^aBUT IN VAIN DO THEY WORSHIP ME, TEACHING AS THEIR ^bDOCTRINES THE PRECEPTS OF MEN.' "

10 And He called to Himself the multitude, and said to them, "Hear, and understand.

11 "Not what enters into the mouth defiles the man, but what proceeds out of the mouth, this defiles the man."

12 Then the disciples came and said to Him, "Do You know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this statement?"

13 But He answered and said, "Every plant which My heavenly Father did not plant shall be rooted up.

14 "Let them alone; they are blind guides of the blind. And if a blind man guides a blind man, both will fall into a pit."

15 And Peter answered and said to Him, "Explain the parable to us."

16 And He said, "Are you also still without understanding?"

17 "Do you not understand that everything that goes into the mouth passes into the stomach, and is eliminated?"

18 "But the things that proceed out of the mouth come from the heart, and those defile the man.

19 "For out of the heart come evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, slanders.

20 "These are the things which defile the man; but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile the man."

21 "And Jesus went away from there, and withdrew into the district of Tyre and Sidon.

22 And behold, a Canaanite woman came out from that region, and began to cry out, saying, "Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David; my daughter is cruelly demon-possessed."

23 But He did not answer her a word. And His disciples came to Him and kept asking Him, saying, "Send her away, for she is shouting out after us."

24 But He answered and said, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

25 But she came and began to bow down before Him, saying, "Lord, help me!"

26 And He answered and said, "It is not good to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs." [pupplies [kunanin]]

27 But she said, "Yes, Lord; but even the dogs feed on the crumbs which fall from their master's table."

28 Then Jesus answered and said to her, "O woman, your faith is great; be it done for you as you wish." And her daughter was healed at once.

29 And departing from there, Jesus went along by the sea of Galilee, and having gone up to the mountain, He was sitting there.

30 And great multitudes came to Him, bringing with them those who were lame, crippled, blind, dumb, and many others, and they laid them down at His feet; and He healed them, 31 so that the multitude marveled as they saw the dumb speaking, the crippled restored, and the lame walking, and the blind seeing; and they glorified the God of Israel.

32 And Jesus summoned to Himself His disciples, and said, "I feel compassion for the multitude, because they have remained with Me now for three days and have nothing to eat;

33 And the disciples ^asaid to Him, "Where would we get so many loaves in a desert place to satisfy such a great multitude?"

CHAPTER 16

^a AND the ^bPharisees and Sadducees came up, and testing Him ^casked Him to show them a ¹sign from heaven.

2 ¹But He answered and said to them, "^aWhen it is evening, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.'

3 "And in the morning, 'There will be a storm today, for the sky is red and threatening.' Do you know how to discern the ¹appearance of the sky, but cannot discern the signs of the times?"

4 "^aAn evil and adulterous generation seeks after a ¹sign; and a ¹sign will not be given it, except the sign of Jonah." And He left them, and went away.

5 And the disciples came to the other side and had forgotten to take bread.

6 And Jesus said to them, "Watch out and ^abeware of the ¹heaven of the ^bPharisees and Sadducees."

7 And they began to discuss among themselves, saying, "It is because we took no bread."

8 But Jesus, aware of this, said, "^aYou men of little faith, why do you discuss among yourselves because you have no bread?"

9 "Do you not yet understand or remember ^athe five loaves of the five thousand, and how many large ^bbaskets you took up?"

10 "Or ^athe seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many ^bbaskets you took up?"

11 "How is it that you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread? But ^abeware of the ¹heaven of the ^bPharisees and Sadducees."

12 Then they understood that He did not say to beware of the heaven of bread, but of the teaching of the ^aPharisees and Sadducees.

13 ^aNow when Jesus came into the district of ^bCaesarea Philippi, He began asking His disciples, saying, "Who do people say that ^cthe Son of Man is?"

15 He ^{*}said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

16 And Simon Peter answered and said, "Thou art ^{1a}the Christ, ^bthe Son of ^cthe living God."

17 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Blessed are you, ^{1a}Simon Barjonas, because ^bflesh and blood did not reveal this to you, but My Father who is in heaven.

18 "And I also say to you that you are ^{1a}Peter, and upon this ²rock I will build My church; and ³the gates of ^bHades shall not overpower it.

19 "I will give you ^athe keys of the kingdom of heaven; and ^bwhatever you shall bind on earth shall have been bound in heaven, and whatever you shall loose on earth shall have been loosed in heaven."

20 ^aThen He ^warned the disciples that they should tell no one that He was ^{2b}the Christ.

21 ^aFrom that time Jesus Christ began to show His disciples that He must go to Jerusalem, and ^bsuffer many things from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised up on the third day.

22 And Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, "¹God forbid it, Lord! This shall never ²happen to You."

23 But He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, ^aSatan! You are a stumbling-block to Me; for you are not setting your mind on ¹God's interests, but man's."

24 Then Jesus said to His disciples, "If any one wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and ^atake up his cross, and follow Me.

25 "For ^awhoever wishes to save his ¹life shall lose it; but whoever loses his ¹life for My sake shall find it.

26 "For what will a man be profited, if he gains the whole world, and forfeits his ¹soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his ¹soul?

27 "For the ^aSon of Man ^bis going to come in the glory of His Father with His angels; and ^cWILL THEN RECOMPENSE EVERY MAN ACCORDING TO HIS ¹DEEDS.

8 And lifting up their eyes, they saw no one, except Jesus Himself alone.

9 aAnd as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus commanded them, saying, "bTell the vision to no one until cthe Son of Man has drisen from the dead."

13 Then the disciples understood that He had spoken to them about John the Baptist.

14 aAnd when they came to the multitude, a man came up to Him, falling on his knees before Him, and saying, 15 "1Lord, have mercy on my son; for he is an 2aepileptic, and is very ill; for he often falls into the fire, and often into the water.

18 And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon came out of him, and the boy was cured 1at once.

19 Then the disciples came to Jesus privately and said, "Why could we not cast it out?"

20 And He a said to them, "Because of the littleness of your faith; for truly I say to you, afif you have faith as ba mustard seed, you shall say to cthis mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it shall move; and dnothing shall be impossible to you.

25 He a said, "Yes." And when he came into the house, Jesus 1spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth collect acustoms or bpoll-tax, from their sons or from strangers?"

26 And upon his saying, "From strangers," Jesus said to him, "Consequently the sons are 1exempt.

31 "So when his fellow-slaves saw what had happened, they were deeply grieved and came and reported to their lord all that had happened.

32 "Then summoning him, his lord ^asaid to him, 'You wicked slave, I forgave you all that debt because you entreated me.

33 'Should you not also have had mercy on your fellow-slave, even as I had mercy on you?'

34 "And his lord, moved with anger, handed him over to the torturers until he should repay all that was owed him.

AND it came about that when Jesus had finished these words, He departed from Galilee, and ^bcame into the region of Judea beyond the Jordan;

6 "Consequently they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate."

7 They ^asaid to Him, "aWhy then did Moses command to GIVE HER A CERTIFICATE AND DIVORCE HER"?

8 He ^asaid to them, "1Because of your hardness of heart, Moses permitted you to divorce your wives; but from the beginning it has not been this way.

9 "And I say to you, ^awhoever divorces his wife, except for ¹immorality, and marries another ²commits adultery."³

10 The disciples ^asaid to Him, "If the relationship of the man with his wife is like this, it is better not to marry."

11 But He said to them, "aNot all men can accept this statement, but ^bonly those to whom it has been given.

12 "For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother's womb; and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men; and there are also eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. He who is able to accept this let him accept it."

13 ^aThen some children were brought to Him so that He might lay His hands on them and pray; and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But Jesus said, "1aLet the children alone, and do not hinder them from coming to Me; for ^bthe kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

15 And after laying His hands on them, He departed from there.

16 ^aAnd behold, one came to Him and said, "Teacher, what good thing shall I do that I may obtain ^beternal life?"

17 And He said to him, "Why are you asking Me about what is good? There is only One who is good; but ^aif you wish to enter into life, keep the commandments."

18 He ^asaid to Him, "Which ones?" And Jesus said, "aYOU SHALL NOT COMMIT MURDER; YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY; YOU SHALL NOT STEAL; YOU SHALL NOT BEAR FALSE WITNESS;

19 ^aHONOR YOUR FATHER AND MOTHER; and ^bYOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF."

20 The young man ^asaid to Him, "All these things I have kept; what am I still lacking?"

21 Jesus said to him, "If you wish to be ¹complete, go and ^asell your possessions and give to the poor, and you shall have ^btreasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

22 But when the young man heard this statement, he went away grieved; for he was one who owned much property.

23 And Jesus said to His disciples, "Truly I say to you, ^ait is hard for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven.

24 "And again I say to you, ^ait is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

25 And when the disciples heard this, they were very astonished and said, "Then who can be saved?"

26 And looking upon them Jesus said to them, "aWith men this is impossible, but with God all things are possible."

teaching, and said, "By what authority are You doing these things, and who gave You this authority?"

24 But Jesus answered and said to them, "I will ask you one thing too, which if you tell Me, I will also tell you by what authority I do these things.

25 "The baptism of John was from what source, from heaven or from men?" And they began reasoning among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' He will say to us, 'Then why did you not believe him?'"

26 "But if we say, 'From men,' we fear the multitude; for they all hold John to be a prophet."

27 And they answered Jesus and said, "We do not know." He also said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.

28 "But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, 'Son, go work today in the vineyard.'

29 "And he answered and said, 'I will, sir'; and he did not go.

30 "And he came to the second and said the same thing. But he answered and said, 'I will not'; yet he afterward regretted it and went.

31 "Which of the two did the will of his father?" They said, "The latter." Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you that the tax-gatherers and harlots will get into the kingdom of God before you.

32 "For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him; but the tax-gatherers and harlots did believe him; and you, seeing this, did not even feel remorse afterward so as to believe him.

33 "Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard and put a wall around it and dug a winepress in it, and built a tower, and rented it out to vine-growers, and went on a journey.

34 "And when the harvest time approached, he sent his slaves to the vine-growers to receive his produce.

35 "And the vine-growers took his slaves and beat one, and killed another, and stoned a third.

36 "Again he sent another group of slaves larger than the first; and they did the same thing to them.

37 "But afterward he sent his son to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.'

38 "But when the vine-growers saw the son, they said among themselves, 'This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and seize his inheritance.'

39 "And they took him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

40 "Therefore when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those vine-growers?"

41 They said to Him, "He will bring those wretches to a wretched end, and will rent out the vineyard to other vine-growers, who will pay him the proceeds at the proper seasons."

THIS CAME ABOUT FROM THE LORD, AND IT IS MARVELOUS IN OUR EYES?

43 "Therefore I say to you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you, and be given to a nation producing the fruit of it.

44 "And he who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; but on whomever it falls, it will scatter him like dust."

45 And when the chief priests and the Pharisees heard His parables, they understood that He was speaking about them.

46 And when they sought to seize Him, they ^abecame afraid of the multitudes, because they held Him to be a ^bprophet.

CHAPTER 22

AND Jesus ^aanswered and spoke to them again in parables, saying,

2 ^a"The kingdom of heaven may be compared to ¹a king, who ²gave a wedding feast for his son.

3 "And he ^asent out his slaves to call those who had been invited to the wedding feast, and they were unwilling to come.

4 "Again he ^asent out other slaves saying, 'Tell those who have been invited, "Behold, I have prepared my dinner; my oxen and my fattened livestock are all butchered and everything is ready; come to the wedding feast."'

5 "But they paid no attention and went their way, one to his own ¹farm, another to his business,

6 and the rest seized his slaves and mistreated them and killed them.

7 "But the king was enraged and sent his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and set their city on fire.

8 "Then he ^asaid to his slaves, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy.'

9 'Go therefore to ^athe main highways, and as many as you find there, invite to the wedding feast.'

10 "And those slaves went out into the streets, and gathered together all they found, both evil and good; and the wedding hall was filled with ¹dinner-guests.

11 "But when the king came in to look over the dinner-guests, he saw there ^aa man not dressed in wedding clothes, 12 and he ^asaid to him, '^aFriend, how did you come in here ¹without wedding clothes?' And he was speechless.

13 "Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, and cast him into ^athe outer darkness; in that place ^athere shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

14 "For many are ¹called, but few are ^achosen."

15 ^aThen the Pharisees went and counseled together how they might trap Him ¹in what He said.

16 And they ^asent their disciples to Him, along with the ^aHerodians, saying, "Teacher, we know that You are truthful and teach the way of God in truth, and ¹defer to no one; for You are not partial to any.

17 "Tell us therefore, what do You think? Is it ¹lawful to give a ^apoll-tax to ^bCaesar, or not?"

18 But Jesus perceived their ¹malice, and said, "Why are you testing Me, you hypocrites?"

19 "Show Me the ^acoin used for the poll-tax." And they brought Him a ¹denarius.

20 And He ^{*}said to them, "Whose likeness and inscription is this?"

21 They ^{}said to Him, "Caesar's." Then He ^{}said to them, "^aThen render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's; and to God the things that are God's."

22 And hearing this, they marveled, and ^aleaving Him, they went away.

23 ^aOn that day some ^bSadducees (who say ^cthere is no resurrection) came to Him and questioned Him,

24 saying, "Teacher, Moses said, ^aIF A MAN DIES, HAVING NO CHILDREN, HIS BROTHER AS NEXT OF ^aIN SHALL MARRY HIS WIFE, AND RAISE UP AN OFFSPRING TO HIS BROTHER."

25 "Now there were seven brothers with us; and the first married and died, and having no offspring left his wife to his brother;

26 so also the second, and the third, down to the seventh.

27 "And last of all, the woman died.

28 "In the resurrection therefore whose wife of the seven shall she be? For they all had her."

29 But Jesus answered and said to them, "You are mistaken, ^anot ¹understanding the Scriptures, or the power of God.

30 "For in the resurrection they neither ^amarry, nor are given in marriage, but are like angels¹ in heaven.

31 "But regarding the resurrection of the dead, have you not read that which was spoken to you by God, saying,

32 ^aI AM THE GOD OF ABRAHAM, AND THE GOD OF ISAAC, AND THE GOD OF JACOB? God is not the God of the dead but of the living."

33 And when the multitudes heard this, ^athey were astonished at His teaching.

34 ^aBut when the Pharisees heard that He had put ^bthe Sadducees to silence, they gathered themselves together.

35 And one of them, ^{1a}a lawyer, asked Him a question, testing Him,

36 "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?"

37 And He said to him, "^aYOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND."

38 "This is the great and ¹foremost commandment.

39 "And a second is like it, ^aYOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF."

40 "^aOn these two commandments depend the whole Law and the Prophets."

41 ^aNow while the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them a question,

42 saying, "What do you think about ¹the Christ, whose son is He?" They ^{*}said to Him, "^aThe son of David."

43 He ^{*}said to them, "Then how does David ^{1a}in the Spirit call Him 'Lord,' saying,

44 ^aTHE LORD SAID TO MY LORD,

"SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND,

UNTIL I PUT THINE ENEMIES BENEATH THY FEET." "

45 'If David then calls Him 'Lord', how is He his son?"

CHAPTER 23

^aTHEN Jesus spoke to the multitudes and to His disciples, ² saying, ^a"The scribes and the Pharisees have seated themselves in the chair of Moses;

³ therefore all that they tell you, do and observe, but do not do according to their deeds; for they say things, and do not do them.

⁴ ^a"And ^athey tie up heavy loads, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves are unwilling to move them with so much as a finger.

⁵ ^a"But they do all their deeds ^ato be noticed by men; for they ^bbroaden their ¹phylacteries, and lengthen ^cthe tassels of their garments.

⁶ ^a"And they ^alove the place of honor at banquets, and the chief seats in the synagogues, ⁷ and respectful greetings in the market places, and being called by men, ^aRabbi.

⁸ ^a"But ^ado not be called ^bRabbi; for One is your Teacher, and you are all brothers.

⁹ ^a"And do not call anyone on earth your father; for ^aOne is your Father, He who is in heaven.

¹⁰ ^a"And do not be called ¹leaders; for One is your Leader, that is, Christ.

¹¹ ^a"The greatest among you shall be your servant.

¹² ^a"And ^awhoever exalts himself shall be humbled; and whoever humbles himself shall be exalted.

¹⁴ [^a"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because ^ayou devour widows' houses, even while for a pretense you make long prayers; therefore you shall receive greater condemnation.]

¹⁵ ^a"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you travel about on sea and land to make one ¹proselyte; and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much a son of ²hell as yourselves.

¹⁶ ^a"Woe to you, ^ablind guides, who say, ^b"Whoever swears by the ¹temple, that is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the ¹temple, he is obligated."

¹⁷ ^a"You fools and blind men; ^awhich is ¹more important, the gold, or the ²temple that sanctified the gold?

¹⁸ ^a"And, 'Whoever swears by the altar, that is nothing, but whoever swears by the ¹offering upon it, he is obligated.'

¹⁹ ^a"You blind men, ^awhich is ¹more important, the ²offering or the altar that sanctifies the ²offering?

²⁰ ^a"Therefore he who swears, swears both by the altar and by everything on it.

²¹ ^a"And he who swears by the ¹temple, swears both by the ²temple and by Him who ^adwells within it.

22 "And he who swears by heaven, ^aswears both by the throne of God and by Him who sits upon it.

23 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe the mint and dill and ¹cummin, and have neglected the weightier provisions of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness; but these are the things you should have done without neglecting the others.

24 "You ^ablind guides, who strain out a gnat and swallow a camel!

25 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For ^ayou clean the outside of the cup and of the dish, but inside they are full ¹of robbery and self-indulgence.

26 "You blind Pharisee, first ^aclean the inside of the cup and of the dish, so that the outside of it may become clean also.

27 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which on the outside appear beautiful, but inside they are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness.

28 "Even so you too outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness.

29 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets and adorn the monuments of the righteous,

30 and say, "If we had been living in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partners with them in shedding the blood of the prophets."

31 "Consequently you bear witness against yourselves, that you ^aare ¹sons of those who murdered the prophets.

32 "Fill up then the measure of the guilt of your fathers.

33 "You serpents, ^ayou brood of vipers, how shall you escape the ¹sentence of ²hell?

34 "Therefore, behold, ¹I am sending you prophets and wise men and scribes; some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will ^cscourge in your synagogues, and ^dpersecute from city to city;

35 that upon you may fall the guilt of all the righteous blood shed on earth, from the blood of righteous ^aAbel to the blood of Zechariah, the ^bson of Berechiah, whom ^cyou murdered between the ¹temple and the altar.

36 "Truly I say to you, all these things shall come upon ^athis generation.

37 "O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who ^bkills the prophets and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, ^cthe way a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were unwilling.

38 "Behold, ^ayour house is being left to you ¹desolate.

39 "For I say to you, from now on you shall not see Me until you say, "BLESSED IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD."

2 And He answered and said to them, "Do you not see all these things? Truly I say to you, ^anot one stone here shall be left upon another, which will not be torn down."

3 And as He was sitting on ^athe Mount of Olives, the disciples came to Him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign of ^bYour ¹coming, and of the ²end of the age?"

4 And Jesus answered and said to them, "^aSee to it that no one misleads you.

5 "For ^amany will come in My name, saying, 'I am the ¹Christ,' and will mislead many.

6 "And you will be hearing of wars and rumors of wars; see that you are not frightened, for those things must take place, but that is not yet the end.

7 "For ^anation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and in various places there will be ^bfamines and earthquakes.

8 "But all these things are merely the beginning of birth-pangs.

9 "^aThen they will deliver you up to tribulation, and will kill you, and ^byou will be hated by all nations on account of My name.

10 "And at that time many will ^{1a}fall away and will ²betray one another and hate one another.

11 "And many ^afalse prophets will arise, and will mislead many.

12 "And because lawlessness is increased, ¹most people's love will grow cold.

13 "^aBut the one who endures to the end, it is he who shall be saved.

14 "And this ^agospel of the kingdom ^bshall be preached in the whole ^{1c}world for a witness to all the nations, and then the end shall come.

15 "Therefore when you see the ^aABOMINATION OF DESOLATION which was spoken of through Daniel the prophet, standing in ^bTHE HOLY PLACE (^clet the reader understand),

16 then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains;

17 let him who is on ^athe housetop not go down to get the things out that are in his house;

18 and let him who is in the field not turn back to get his cloak.

19 "But ^awoe to those who are with child and to those who nurse babes in those days!

20 "But pray that your flight may not be in the winter, or on a Sabbath;

21 for then there will be a ^agreat tribulation, such as has not occurred since the beginning of the world until now, nor ever shall.

22 "And unless those days had been cut short, no ¹life would have been saved; but for ^athe sake of the ²elect those days shall be cut short.

23 "^aThen if any one says to you, 'Behold, here is the ¹Christ,' or '²There He is,' do not believe him.

24 "For false Christs and ^afalse prophets will arise and will show great ^{1b}signs and wonders, so as to mislead, if possible, even ^cthe ²elect.

The Second Coming.
The Fig Tree.

25 "Behold, I have told you in advance.

26 "If therefore they say to you, 'Behold, He is in the wilderness,' do not go forth, or, 'Behold, He is in the inner rooms,' do not believe them.

27 "For just as the lightning comes from the east, and flashes even to the west, so shall the ^{1b}coming of the ^cSon of Man be.

28 "Wherever the corpse is, there the ^{1v}vultures will gather.

29 "But immediately after the ^atribulation of those days ^bTHE SUN WILL BE DARKENED, AND THE MOON WILL NOT GIVE ITS LIGHT, AND ^cTHE STARS WILL FALL FROM ¹the sky, and the POWERS OF ¹THE HEAVENS WILL BE shaken,

30 and then ^athe sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see ^bthe SON OF MAN COMING ON THE CLOUDS OF THE SKY with power and great glory.

31 "And ^aHe will send forth His angels WITH ^{ba} GREAT TRUMPET and THEY WILL GATHER TOGETHER HIS ^{1c}elect FROM ^dTHE FOUR WINDS, ^eFROM ONE END OF THE SKY TO THE OTHER.

32 "Now learn the parable FROM THE FIG TREE: when its branch has already become tender, and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near;

33 even so you too, when you see all these things, ¹recognize that ²He is near, right ^aat the ³door.

34 "Truly I say to you, ^athis ¹generation will not pass away until all these things take place.

35 "Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words shall not pass away.

36 "But ^aof that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but the Father alone.

37 "For ¹the ^{2a}coming of the Son of Man will be ^bjust like the days of Noah.

38 "For as in those days which were before the flood they were eating and drinking, they were ^amarrying and giving in marriage, until the day that ^bNOAH ENTERED THE ARK, 39 and they did not ¹understand until the flood came and took them all away, so shall the ^{2a}coming of the Son of Man be.

40 "Then there shall be two men in the field; one ¹will be taken, and one ¹will be left.

41 "Two women will be grinding at the ^{1b}mill; one ²will be taken, and one ²will be left.

42 "Therefore ^abe on the alert, for you do not know which day your Lord is coming.

43 "But ¹be sure of this, that ^aif the head of the house had known ^{bat} what time of the night the thief was coming, he would have been on the alert and would not have allowed his house to be ²broken into.

"THEN ^athe kingdom of heaven will be comparable to ten virgins, who took their ^blamps, and went out to meet the bridegroom.

² "And five of them were foolish, and five were ^aprudent.

3 "For when the foolish took their lamps, they took no oil with them,

4 but the ^aprudent took oil in flasks along with their lamps.

5 "Now while the bridegroom was delaying, they all got drowsy and began to sleep.

6 "But at midnight there was a shout, 'Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him.'

7 "Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.

8 "And the foolish said to the prudent, 'Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.'

9 "But the ^aprudent answered, saying, 'No, there will not be enough for us and you too; go instead to the dealers and buy some for yourselves.'

10 "And while they were going away to make the purchase, the bridegroom came, and those who were ^aready went in with him to ^bthe wedding feast; and ^cthe door was shut.

11 "And later the other virgins also came, saying, '^aLord, Lord, open up for us.'

12 "But he answered and said, 'Truly I say to you, I do not know you.'

13 "^aBe on the alert then, for you do not know the day nor the hour.

14 "^aFor it is just like a man ^babout to go on a journey, who called his own slaves, and entrusted his possessions to them.

15 "And to one he gave five ¹talents, to another, two, and to another, one, each according to his own ability; and he ^bwent on his journey.

16 "Immediately the one who had received the five ^atalents went and traded with them, and gained five more talents.

17 "In the same manner the one who had received the two talents gained two more.

18 "But he who received the one talent went away and dug in the ground, and hid his ¹master's money.

19 "Now after a long time the master of those slaves ^ccame and ^asettled accounts with them.

20 "And the one who had received the five ^atalents came up and brought five more talents, saying, 'Master, you entrusted five talents to me; see, I have gained five more talents.'

21 'His master said to him, 'Well done, good and ^afaithful slave; you were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things, enter into the joy of your ¹master.'

22 'The one also who had received the two ^atalents came up and said, 'Master, you entrusted to me two talents; see, I have gained two more talents.'

23 'His master said to him, 'Well done, good and ^afaithful slave; you were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.'

24 'And the one also who had received the one ^atalent came up and said, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you scattered no seed.

25 'And I was afraid, and went away and hid your talent in the ground; see, you have what is yours.'

26 'But his master answered and said to him, 'You wicked, lazy slave, you knew that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I scattered no seed?

27 'Then you ought to have put my money ¹in the bank, and on my arrival I would have received my money back with interest.

28 'Therefore take away the talent from him, and give it to the one who has the ten talents.'

29 '^aFor to everyone who has shall more be given, and he shall have an abundance; but from the one who does not have, even what he does have shall be taken away.

30 'And cast out the worthless slave into ^athe outer darkness; in that place there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

31 'But when ^athe Son of Man comes in His glory, and all the angels with Him, then ^bHe will sit on His glorious throne.

32 'And all the nations will be gathered before Him; and He will separate them from one another, ^aas the shepherd separates the sheep from the goats;

33 and He will put the sheep ^aon His right, and the goats ^bon the left.

34 'Then the King will say to those on His right, 'Come, you who are blessed of My Father, ^ainherit the kingdom prepared for you ^bfrom the foundation of the world.

35 'For ^aI was hungry, and you gave Me something to eat; I was thirsty, and you gave Me drink; ^bI was a stranger, and you invited Me in;

36 ^anaked, and you clothed Me; I was sick, and you ^bvisited Me; ^cI was in prison, and you came to Me.'

37 'Then the righteous will answer Him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see You hungry, and feed You, or thirsty, and give You drink?

38 'And when did we see You a stranger, and invite You in, or naked, and clothe You?

39 'And when did we see You sick, or in prison, and come to You?'

CHAPTER 26

AND it came about that when Jesus had finished all these words, He said to His disciples,

2 "You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man is to be delivered up for crucifixion."

3 "Then the chief priests and the elders of the people were gathered together in the court of the high priest, named Caiaphas;

4 and they plotted together to seize Jesus by stealth, and kill Him.

5 But they were saying, "Not during the festival, lest a riot occur among the people."

6 "Now when Jesus was in Bethany, at the home of Simon the leper,

7 a woman came to Him with an alabaster vial of very costly perfume, and she poured it upon His head as He reclined at table.

8 But the disciples were indignant when they saw this, and said, "What is the point of this waste?"

9 "For this perfume might have been sold for a high price and the money given to the poor."

10 But Jesus, aware of this, said to them, "Why do you bother the woman? For she has done a good deed to Me.

11 "For the poor you have with you always; but you do not always have Me.

12 "For when she poured this perfume upon My body, she did it to prepare Me for burial.

13 "Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done shall also be spoken of in memory of her."

14 "Then one of the twelve, named Judas Iscariot, went to the chief priests, 15 and said, "What are you willing to give me to deliver Him up to you?" And they weighed out to him thirty pieces of silver.

16 And from then on he began looking for a good opportunity to betray Him.

17 "Now on the first day of the Feast of Unleavened

Preparation for the Passover.
Peter's Denial Foretold.

Bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying, "Where do You want us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?"

18 And He said, "Go into the city to ^aa certain man, and say to him, 'The Teacher says, ^b"My time is at hand; I am to keep the Passover at your house with My disciples.'"

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had directed them; and they prepared the Passover.

20 ^aNow when evening had come, He was reclining at table with the twelve disciples.

21 And as they were eating, He said, "^aTruly I say to you that one of you will betray Me."

22 And being deeply grieved, they ¹each one began to say to Him, "Surely not I, Lord?"

23 And He answered and said, "^aHe who dipped his hand with Me in the bowl is the one who will betray Me.

24 "The Son of Man is to go, ^ajust as it is written of Him; but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is betrayed! ^bIt would have been good ¹for that man if he had not been born."

25 And ^aJudas, who was betraying Him, answered and said, "Surely it is not I, ^bRabbi?" He ^csaid to him, "^cYou have said it yourself."

26 ^aAnd while they were eating, Jesus took some bread, and ^{1b}after a blessing, He broke it and gave it to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is My body."

27 And He took a cup and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you;

28 for ^athis is My blood of the covenant, which is to be shed on behalf of ^bmany for forgiveness of sins.

29 "But I say to you, I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in My Father's kingdom."

30 ^aAnd after singing a hymn, they went out to ^bthe Mount of Olives.

31 Then Jesus ^csaid to them, "You will all ^{1a}fall away because of Me this night, for it is written, ^bI WILL STRIKE DOWN THE SHEPHERD, AND THE SHEEP OF THE FLOCK SHALL BE ^cSCATTERED."

32 "But after I have been raised, ^aI will go before you to Galilee."

33 But Peter answered and said to Him, "Even though all may ¹fall away because of You, I will never fall away."

34 Jesus said to him, "^aTruly I say to you that ^bthis very night, before a cock crows, you shall deny Me three times."

35 Peter ^csaid to Him, "^aEven if I must die with You, I will not deny You." All the disciples said the same thing too.

36 ^aThen Jesus ^ccame with them to a place called ^bGethsemane, and ^csaid to His disciples, "Sit here while I go over there and pray."

37 And He took with Him ^aPeter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be grieved and distressed.

38 Then He ^csaid to them, "^aMy soul is deeply grieved, to the point of death; remain here and ^bkeep watch with Me."

39 And He went a little beyond them, and fell on His face, and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let ^athis cup pass from Me; ^byet not as I will, but as Thou wilt."

40 And He *came to the disciples and *found them sleeping, and *said to Peter, "So, you men could not *keep watch with Me for one hour?

41 ¹"Keep watching and praying, that you may not enter into temptation; ²the spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak."

42 He went away again a second time and prayed, saying, "My Father, if this ^acannot pass away unless I drink it, ^bThy will be done."

43 And He came back and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.

44 And He left them again, and went away and prayed a third time, saying the same thing once more.

45 Then He *came to the disciples, and *said to them, "¹Are you still sleeping and taking your rest? Behold, ^athe hour is at hand and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners.

46 "Arise, let us be going; behold, the one who betrays Me is at hand!"

47 ^aAnd while He was still speaking, behold, ^bJudas, one of the twelve, came up, ¹accompanied by a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48 Now he who was betraying Him gave them a sign, saying, "Whomever I shall kiss, He is the one; seize Him."

49 And immediately he came to Jesus and said, "Hail, ^aRabbi;" and kissed Him.

50 And Jesus said to him, "^aFriend, do what you have come for." Then they came and laid hands on Jesus and seized Him.

51 And behold, ^aone of those who were with Jesus ¹reached and drew out his ^bsword, and struck the ^cslave of the high priest, and ²cut off his ear.

52 Then Jesus *said to him, "Put your sword back into its place; for ^aall those who take up the sword shall perish by the sword.

53 "Or do you think that I cannot appeal to My Father, and He will at once put at My disposal more than twelve ¹legions of ²angels?

54 "How then shall ^athe Scriptures be fulfilled, that it must happen this way?"

55 At that time Jesus said to the multitudes, "Have you come out with swords and clubs to arrest Me ¹as though I were a robber? ^aEvery day I used to sit in the temple teaching and you did not seize Me.

56 "But all this has taken place that ^athe Scriptures of the prophets may be fulfilled." Then all the disciples left Him and fled.

57 ^aAnd those who had seized Jesus led Him away to ^bCaiafas, the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together.

58 But ^aPeter also followed Him at a distance as far as the ^bcourtyard of the high priest, and entered in, and sat down with the ¹officers to see the outcome.

59 Now the chief priests and the whole ^{1a}Council kept trying to obtain false testimony against Jesus, in order that they might put Him to death;

60 and they did not find it, even though many false witnesses came forward. But later on ^atwo came forward,

61 and said, "This man stated, 'I am able to destroy the ¹temple of God and to rebuild it ²in three days.'"

62 And the high priest stood up and said to Him, "Do You make no answer? What is it that these men are testifying against You?"

63 But ^aJesus kept silent. ^bAnd the high priest said to Him, "I ¹adjure You by ^dthe living God, that You tell us whether You are ²the Christ, ^ethe Son of God."

64 Jesus ^{*}said to him, "^aYou have said it yourself; nevertheless I tell you, ^bhereafter you shall see ^bTHE SON OF MAN SITTING AT THE RIGHT HAND OF POWER, and ^cCOMING ON THE CLOUDS OF HEAVEN."

65 Then the high priest ^atore his ¹robes, saying, "He has blasphemed! What further need do we have of witnesses? Behold, you have now heard the blasphemy;

66 what do you think?" They answered and said, "^aHe is deserving of death!"

67 ^aThen they ^bspat in His face and beat Him with their fists, and others ¹slapped Him,

68 and said, "^aProphecy to us, You ¹Christ; who is the one who hit You?"

69 ^aNow Peter was sitting outside in the ^bcourtyard, and a certain servant-girl came to him and said, "You too were with Jesus the Galilean."

70 But he denied it before them all, saying, "I do not know what you are talking about."

71 And when he had gone out to the gateway, another servant-girl saw him and ^{*}said to those who were there, "This man was with Jesus of Nazareth."

72 And again he denied it with an oath, "I do not know the man."

73 And a little later the bystanders came up and said to Peter, "Surely you too are one of them; ^afor the way you talk ¹gives you away."

74 Then he began to curse and swear, "I do not know the man!" And immediately a cock crowed.

75 And Peter remembered the word which Jesus had said, "^aBefore a cock crows, you will deny Me three times." And he went out and wept bitterly.

CHAPTER 27

^aNOW when morning had come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Jesus to put Him to death;

2 and they bound Him, and led Him away, and ^adelivered Him up to ^bPilate the governor.

3 Then when ^aJudas, who had betrayed Him, saw that He had been condemned, he felt remorse and returned ^bthe thirty ¹pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders,

4 saying, "I have sinned by betraying innocent blood." But they said, "What is that to us? ^aSee to that yourself!"

5 And he threw the pieces of silver into ^athe sanctuary and departed; and ^bhe went away and hanged himself.

6 And the chief priests took the pieces of silver and said, "It is not lawful to put them into the temple treasury, since it is the price of blood."

7 And they counseled together and with ¹the money bought the Potter's Field as a burial place for strangers.

8 ^aFor this reason that field has been called the Field of Blood to this day.

9 Then that which was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying, "^aAND ¹THEY TOOK THE THIRTY PIECES OF SILVER, THE PRICE OF THE ONE WHOSE PRICE HAD BEEN SET BY THE SONS OF ISRAEL;

¹⁰ AND ¹THEY GAVE THEM FOR THE POTTER'S FIELD, AS THE LORD DIRECTED ME."

11 ^aNow Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor questioned Him, saying, "Are You the ^bKing of the Jews?" And Jesus said to him, "^c*It is as you say.*"

12 And while He was being accused by the chief priests and elders, ^aHe made no answer.

13 Then Pilate ^asaid to Him, "Do You not hear how many things they testify against You?"

14 And ^aHe did not answer him with regard to even a single ¹charge, so that the governor was quite amazed.

15 ^aNow at the feast the governor was accustomed to release for the multitude any one prisoner whom they wanted.

16 And they were holding at that time a notorious prisoner, called Barabbas.

17 When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release for you? Barabbas, or Jesus ^awho is called Christ?"

18 For he knew that because of envy they had delivered Him up.

19 And ^awhile he was sitting on the judgment-seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that ^brighteous Man; for ¹last night I suffered greatly ^cin a dream because of Him."

20 But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes to ^aask for Barabbas, and to put Jesus to death.

21 But the governor answered and said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release for you?" And they said, "Barabbas."

22 Pilate ^asaid to them, "What then shall I do with Jesus ^awho is called Christ?" They all ^asaid, "Let Him be crucified!"

23 And he said, "Why, what evil has He done?" But they kept shouting all the more, saying, "Let Him be crucified!"

24 And when Pilate saw that he was accomplishing nothing, but rather that ^aa riot was starting, he took water and ^bwashed his hands in front of the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of ¹this Man's blood; ^dsee to that yourselves."

25 And all the people answered and said, "^aHis blood be on us and on our children!"

26 Then he released Barabbas ¹for them; but Jesus he ^ascourged and delivered over to be crucified.

27 ^aThen the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into ^bthe Praetorium and gathered the whole Roman ¹cohort around Him.

28 And they stripped Him, and ^aput a scarlet robe on Him.

29 ^aAnd after weaving a crown of thorns, they put it on His head, and a ¹reed in His right hand; and they kneeled down before Him and mocked Him, saying, "^bHail, King of the Jews!"

30 And ^athey spat on Him, and took the reed and began to beat Him on the head.

31 ^aAnd after they had mocked Him, they took His robe off and put His garments on Him, and led Him away to crucify Him.

32 ^aAnd as they were coming out, they found a ¹certain ^bCyrenian named Simon; this man they pressed into service to bear His cross.

33 ^aAnd when they had come to a place called ^bGolgotha, which means Place of a Skull, 34 ^aTHEY GAVE HIM ^bWINE TO DRINK MINGLED WITH GALL; and after tasting it, He was unwilling to drink.

35 And when they had crucified Him, ^aTHEY DIVIDED UP HIS GARMENTS AMONG THEMSELVES, CASTING ¹LOTS;

36 and sitting down, they began to ^akeep watch over Him there.

37 And they put up above His head the charge against Him ¹which read, "^aTHIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS."

38 At that time two robbers ^awere crucified with Him, one on the right and one on the left.

39 And those who were passing by were ¹hurling abuse at Him, ^aWAGGING THEIR HEADS,

40 and saying, "^aYou who destroy the temple and rebuild it in three days, save Yourself! ^bIf You are the Son of God, come down from the cross."

41 In the same way the chief priests, along with the scribes and elders, were mocking Him, and saying, 42 "^aHe saved others; ¹He cannot save Himself. ^bHe is the King of Israel; let Him now come down from the cross, and we shall believe in Him.

43 "^aHE TRUSTS IN GOD; LET HIM DELIVER Him NOW, IF HE TAKES PLEASURE IN HIM; for He said, 'I am the Son of God.' "

44 ^aAnd the robbers also who had been crucified with Him were casting the same insult at Him.

45 ^aNow from the ¹sixth hour darkness ²fell upon all the land until the ³ninth hour.

46 And about the ninth hour Jesus cried out with a loud voice, saying, "ELI, ELI LAMA SABACHTHANI?" that is, "^aMY GOD, MY GOD, WHY HAST THOU FORSAKEN ME?"

47 And some of those who were standing there, when they heard it, began saying, "This man is calling for Elijah."

48 And ^aimmediately one of them ran, and taking a sponge, he filled it with sour wine, and put it on a reed, and gave Him a drink.

49 But the rest of them said, "¹Let us see whether Elijah will come to save Him."²

50 And Jesus ^acried out again with a loud voice, and yielded up His spirit.

51 ^aAnd behold, ^bthe veil of the temple was torn in two from ¹top to bottom and ^cthe earth shook; and the rocks were split,

52 and the tombs were opened; and many bodies of the ¹saints who had ^afallen asleep were raised;

53 and coming out of the tombs after His resurrection they entered ^athe holy city and appeared to many.

54 ^aNow the centurion, and those who were with him ^bkeeping guard over Jesus, when they saw ^cthe earthquake and the things that were happening, became very frightened and said, "Truly this was ¹dthe Son of God!"

55 ^aAnd many women were there looking on from a distance, who had followed Jesus from Galilee, ¹bministering to Him;

56 among whom was ^aMary Magdalene, along with Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and ^bthe mother of the sons of Zebedee.

57 ^aAnd when it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who himself had also become a disciple of Jesus.

58 This man came to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Then Pilate ordered it to be given over to him.

59 And Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, 60 and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock; and he rolled ^aa large stone against the entrance of the tomb and went away.

61 And ^aMary Magdalene was there, and the other Mary, sitting opposite the grave.

62 Now on the next day, which is the one after ¹athe preparation, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered together with Pilate,

63 and said, "Sir, we remember that when he was still alive that deceiver said, ^a"After three days I am to rise again."

64 "Therefore, give orders for the grave to be made secure until the third day, lest the disciples come and steal Him away and say to the people, 'He has risen from the dead,' and the last deception will be worse than the first."

65 Pilate said to them, "You have ^aguard; go, make it as secure as you know how."

66 And they went and made the grave secure, and along with ^athe guard they set ^ba seal on ^cthe stone.

CHAPTER 28

^a NOW late on the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, ^bMary Magdalene and the other Mary came to look at the grave.

2 And behold, a severe earthquake had occurred, for ^aan angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled away ^bthe stone and sat upon it.

3 And ^ahis appearance was like lightning, and his garment as white as snow;

4 and the guards shook for fear of him, and became like dead men.

5 And the angel answered and said to the women, ¹aDo

6 "He is not here, for He has risen, ^ajust as He said. Come, see the place where He was lying.

7 "And go quickly and tell His disciples that He has risen from the dead; and behold, He is going before you ^ainto Galilee, there you will see Him; behold, I have told you."

8 And they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy and ran to report it to His disciples.

9 And behold, Jesus met them ¹and greeted them. And they came up and took hold of His feet and worshiped Him.

10 Then Jesus ^asaid to them, "^{1a}Do not be afraid; go and take word to ^bMy brethren to leave ^cfor Galilee, and there they shall see Me."

11 Now while they were on their way, behold, some of ^athe guard came into the city and reported to the chief priests all that had happened.

12 And when they had assembled with the elders and counseled together, they gave a large sum of money to the soldiers,

13 and said, "You are to say, 'His disciples came by night and stole Him away while we were asleep.'"

14 "And if this should come to ^athe governor's ears, we will win him over and ¹keep you out of trouble."

15 And they took the money and did as they had been instructed; and this story was widely ^aspread among the Jews, and is ^bto this day.

16 But the eleven disciples proceeded ^ato Galilee, to the mountain which Jesus had designated.

17 And when they saw Him, they worshiped Him; but ^asome were doubtful.

THE beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, ^{1a} the Son of God.

2 ^a As it is written in Isaiah the prophet,

“^b BEHOLD, I SEND MY MESSENGER BEFORE YOUR FACE,
WHO WILL PREPARE YOUR WAY;

3 “^a THE VOICE OF ONE CRYING IN THE WILDERNESS, ‘MAKE READY THE WAY OF THE LORD,
MAKE HIS PATHS STRAIGHT.’ ”

4 John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness ^{1a} preaching a baptism of repentance for the ^b forgiveness of sins.

5 And all the country of Judea was going out to him, and all the people of Jerusalem; and they were being baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins.

6 And John was clothed with camel’s hair and wore a leather belt around his waist, and ¹ his diet was locusts and wild honey.

7 And he was ¹ preaching, and saying, “After me comes One who is mightier than I, and I am not even fit to stoop down and untie the thong of His sandals.

8 “I baptized you ¹ with water; but He will baptize you ¹ with the Holy Spirit.”

9 ^a And it came about in those days that Jesus ^b came from Nazareth in Galilee, and was baptized by John in the Jordan.

10 And immediately coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens ¹ opening, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon Him;

11 and a voice came out of the heavens: “^a Thou art My beloved Son, in Thee I am well pleased.”

12 ^a And immediately the Spirit ^{*} impelled Him to go out into the wilderness.

13 And He was in the wilderness forty days being tempted by ^a Satan; and He was with the wild beasts, and the angels were ministering to Him.

14 ^a And after John had been ¹ taken into custody, Jesus came into Galilee, ^{2b} preaching the gospel of God,

15 and saying, “^a The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; ^b repent and ¹ believe in the gospel.”

16 ^a And as He was going along by the sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, casting a net in the sea; for they were fishermen.

17 And Jesus said to them, “Follow Me, and I will make you become fishers of men.”

18 And they immediately left the nets and followed Him.

19 And going on a little farther, He saw ¹ James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who were also in the boat mending the nets.

Jesus Calls Disciples.
Teaches in Capernaum. Heals Many.

20 And immediately He called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants, ¹and went away to follow Him.

21 ^aAnd they ^{*}went into Capernaum; and immediately on the Sabbath ^bHe entered the synagogue and began to teach.

22 And ^athey were amazed at His teaching; for He was teaching them as one having authority, and not as the scribes.

23 And just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out,

24 saying, "^aWhat do we have to do with You, Jesus of ^bNazareth? Have You come to destroy us? I know who You are—^cthe Holy One of God!"

25 And Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet, and come out of him!"

26 And throwing him into convulsions, the unclean spirit cried out with a loud voice, and came out of him.

27 And they were all ^aamazed, so that they debated among themselves, saying, "What is this? A new teaching with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him."

28 And immediately the news about Him went out everywhere into all the surrounding district of Galilee.

29 ^aAnd immediately ¹after they had come ^bout of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with ²James and John.

30 Now Simon's mother-in-law was lying sick with a fever; and immediately they ^{*}spoke to Him about her.

31 And He came to her and raised her up, taking her by the hand, and the fever left her, and she began to ¹wait on them.

32 ^aAnd ^bwhen evening had come, ^bafter the sun had set, they began bringing to Him all who were ill and those who were ^cdemon-possessed.

33 And the whole ^acity had gathered at the door.

34 And He ^ahealed many who were ill with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and He was not permitting the demons to speak, because they ¹knew who He was.

35 ^aAnd in the early morning, while it was still dark, He arose and went out and departed to a lonely place, and ^bwas praying there.

36 And Simon and his companions hunted for Him;

37 and they found Him, and ^{*}said to Him, "Everyone is looking for You."

38 And He ^asaid to them, "Let us go somewhere else to the towns nearby, in order that I may ¹preach there also; for that is what I came out for."

39 ^aAnd He went into their synagogues throughout all Galilee, ¹preaching and casting out the demons.

40 ^aAnd a leper ^{*}came to Him, beseeching Him and ^bfalling on his knees before Him, and saying to Him, "If You are willing, You can make me clean."

41 And moved with compassion, He stretched out His hand and touched him, and ^{*}said to him, "I am willing; be cleansed."

42 And immediately the leprosy left him and he was cleansed.

44 and He ^asaid to him, “^aSee that you say nothing to anyone; but ^bgo, show yourself to the priest and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.”

45 But he went out and began to ^aproclaim it freely and to ^aspread the news about, to such an extent that Jesus could no longer publicly enter a city, but ¹stayed out in unpopulated areas; and ^bthey were coming to Him from everywhere.

CHAPTER 2

AND when He had come back to Capernaum several days afterward, it was heard that He was at home.

2 And ^amany were gathered together, so that there was no longer room, even near the door; and He was speaking the word to them.

3 ^aAnd they ^acame, bringing to Him a ^bparalytic, carried by four men.

4 And being unable to ¹get to Him on account of the crowd, they ^aremoved the roof ²above Him; and when they had dug an opening, they let down the pallet on which the ^bparalytic was lying.

5 And Jesus seeing their faith ^asaid to the paralytic, “My ¹son, ^ayour sins are forgiven.”

6 But there were some of the scribes sitting there and reasoning in their hearts,

7 “Why does this man speak that way? He is blaspheming; ^awho can forgive sins ¹but God alone?”

8 And immediately Jesus, perceiving ¹in His spirit that they were reasoning that way within themselves, ^asaid to them, “Why are you reasoning about these things in your hearts?”

9 “Which is easier, to say to the ^aparalytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven;’ or to say, ‘Arise, and take up your pallet and walk?’

10 “But in order that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—He ^asaid to the paralytic,

11 “I say to you, rise, take up your pallet and go home.”

12 And he rose and immediately took up the pallet and went out in the sight of all; so that they were all amazed and ^awere glorifying God, saying, “^bWe have never seen anything like this.”

13 And He went out again by the seashore; and ^aall the multitude were coming to Him, and He was teaching them.

14 ^aAnd as He passed by, He saw ^bLevi the son of Alpheus sitting in the tax office, and He ^asaid to him, “^cFollow Me!” And he rose and followed Him.

15 And it ¹came about that He was reclining at table in his house, and many ²tax-gatherers and sinners ³were dining with Jesus and His disciples; for there were many of them, and they were following Him.

16 And when ^athe scribes of the Pharisees saw that He was eating with the sinners and tax-gatherers, they began saying to His disciples, “^bWhy is He eating and drinking with tax-gatherers and sinners?”

17 And hearing this, Jesus ^asaid to them, “^a*It is not those* who are healthy who need a physician, but those who are sick; I did not come to call the righteous, but sinners.”

18 ^aAnd John’s disciples and the Pharisees were fasting; and they ^{}came and ^{}said to Him, “Why do John’s disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but Your disciples do not fast?”

19 And Jesus said to them, “While the bridegroom is with them, ¹the attendants of the bridegroom do not fast, do they? So long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.

20 “But the ^adays will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they will fast in that day.

21 “No one sews a ¹patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; otherwise the ²patch pulls away from it, the new from the old, and a worse tear results.

22 “And no one puts new wine into old ¹wineskins; otherwise the wine will burst the skins, and the wine is lost, and the skins as well; but one puts new wine into fresh wineskins.”

23 ^aAnd it came about that He was passing through the grainfields on the Sabbath, and His disciples began to make their way along while ^bpicking the heads of grain.

24 And the Pharisees were saying to Him, “See here, ^awhy are they doing what is not lawful on the Sabbath?”

25 And He ^{*}said to them, “Have you never read what David did when he was in need and became hungry, he and his companions:

26 “How he entered into the house of God in the time of ^aAbiathar the high priest, and ate the ¹consecrated bread, which is not lawful for anyone to eat except the priests, and he gave it also to those who were with him?”

27 And He was saying to them, “^aThe Sabbath ¹was made ²for man, and ^bnot man ²for the Sabbath.

28 “Consequently, the Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath.”

the Jordan, and the vicinity of ^bTyre and Sidon, a great multitude heard of all that He was doing and came to Him.

9 And He told His disciples that a boat should stand ready for Him because of the multitude, in order that they might not crowd Him;

10 for He had ^ahealed many, with the result that all those who had ^bafflictions pressed about Him in order to ^ctouch Him.

11 And whenever the unclean spirits beheld Him, they would fall down before Him and cry out, saying, "You are ^athe Son of God!"

12 And He ^aearnestly warned them not to ¹reveal His identity.

13 And He ^awent up to ^athe mountain and ^bsummoned those whom He Himself wanted, and they came to Him.

14 And He appointed twelve¹, that they might be with Him, and that He might send them out to preach,

15 and to have authority to cast out the demons.

16 And He appointed the twelve: ^aSimon (to whom He gave the name Peter),

17 and ¹James, the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of ¹James (to them He gave the name Boanerges, which means, "Sons of thunder");

18 and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and ¹James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon ²the Cananaean;

19 and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed Him.

20 And He ^acame ¹home, and the ^bmultitude ^agathered again, ^cto such an extent that they could not even eat ²a meal.

21 And when ^aHis own ¹people heard of this, they went out to take custody of Him; for they were saying, "^bHe has lost His senses."

22 And the scribes who came down ^afrom Jerusalem were saying, "He is possessed by ¹Beelzebul," and "^cHe casts out the demons by the ruler of the demons."

23 ^aAnd He called them to Himself and began speaking to them in ^bparables, "How can ^cSatan cast out Satan?"

24 "And if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 "And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand.

26 "And if ^aSatan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but ¹he is finished!

27 "But no one can enter the strong man's house and plunder his property unless he first binds the strong man, and then he will plunder his house.

28 "^aTruly I say to you, all sins shall be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they utter;

29 but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin;" — ISA. 61:1-3

30 because they were saying, "He has an unclean spirit."

31 ^aAnd His mother and His brothers ^aarrived, and standing outside they sent word to Him, and called Him.

32 And a multitude was sitting around Him, and they ^asaid to Him, "Behold, Your mother and Your brothers¹ are outside looking for You."

33 And answering them, He *said, "Who are My mother and My brothers?"

CHAPTER 5

^a AND they came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gerasenes.

2 And when He had come out of ^athe boat, immediately a man from the tombs ^bwith an unclean spirit met Him,

3 and he had his dwelling among the tombs; and no one was able to bind him any more, even with a chain;

4 because he had often been bound with shackles and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him, and the shackles broken in pieces, and no one was strong enough to subdue him.

5 And constantly night and day, among the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out and gashing himself with stones.

6 And seeing Jesus from a distance, he ran up and bowed down before Him;

7 and crying out with a loud voice, he ^{*}said, "What do I have to do with You, Jesus, ^bSon of ^cthe Most High God? I implore You by God, do not torment me!"

8 For He had been saying to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!"

9 And He was asking him, "What is your name?" And he ^{*}said to Him, "My name is ^aLegion; for we are many."

10 And he began to entreat Him earnestly not to send them out of the country.

11 Now there was a big herd of swine feeding there on the mountain side.

12 And they entreated Him, saying, "Send us into the swine so that we may enter them."

13 And He gave them permission. And coming out, the unclean spirits entered the swine; and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the sea, about two thousand of them; and they ¹were drowned in the sea.

14 And those who tended them ran away and reported it in the city and out in the country. And the people came to see what it was that had happened.

15 And they ^{}came to Jesus and ^{}observed the man who had been ^ademon-possessed sitting down, ^bclothed and ^cin his right mind, the very man who had had the "^dlegion;" and they became frightened.

16 And those who had seen it described to them how it had happened to the ^ademon-possessed man, and all about the swine.

17 And they began to entreat Him to depart from their region.

18 ^aAnd as He was getting into the boat, the man who had been ^bdemon-possessed was entreating Him that he might ¹accompany Him.

19 And He did not let him, but He ^{*}said to him, "Go home to your people and report to them ¹what great things the Lord has done for you, and how He had mercy on you."

the other side, a great multitude gathered about Him; and He ¹stayed ^cby the seashore.

22 ^aAnd one of ^bthe synagogue ¹officials named Jairus ^acame up, and upon seeing Him, ^afell at His feet,

23 and ^aentreated Him earnestly, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death; please come and ^alay Your hands on her, that she may ¹get well and live."

24 And He went off with him; and a great multitude was following Him and pressing in on Him.

25 And a woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years,

26 and had endured much at the hands of many physicians, and had spent all that she had and was not helped at all, but rather had grown worse,

27 after hearing about Jesus, came up in the crowd behind Him, and touched His ¹cloak.

28 For she ¹thought, "If I just touch His garments, I shall ²get well."

29 And immediately the flow of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her ^aaffliction.

30 And immediately Jesus, perceiving in Himself that ^athe power proceeding from Him had gone forth, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched My garments?"

31 And His disciples said to Him, "You see the multitude pressing in on You, and You say, 'Who touched Me?'"

32 And He looked around to see the woman who had done this.

33 But the woman fearing and trembling, aware of what had happened to her, came and fell down before Him, and told Him the whole truth.

34 And He said to her, "Daughter, ^ayour faith has ¹made you well; ^bgo in peace, and be healed of your ^aaffliction."

35 While He was still speaking, they ^acame from the house of the ^asynagogue official, saying, "Your daughter has died; why trouble the Teacher any more?"

36 But Jesus, overhearing what was being spoken, ^asaid to the ^asynagogue official, "^bDo not be afraid any longer, only ¹believe."

37 And He allowed no one to follow with Him, except ^aPeter and ¹James and John the brother of ¹James.

38 And they ^acame to the house of the ^asynagogue official; and He ^abeheld a commotion, and people loudly weeping and wailing.

39 And entering in, He ^asaid to them, "Why make a commotion and weep? The child has not died, but is asleep."

40 And they were laughing at Him. But putting them all out, He ^atook along the child's father and mother and His own companions, and ^aentered the room where the child was.

41 And taking the child by the hand, He ^asaid to her, "Talitha kum!" (which translated means, "Little girl, ^aI say to you, arise!")

42 And immediately the girl got up and began to walk; for she was twelve years old. And immediately they were completely astounded.

43 And He ^agave them strict orders that no one should know about this; and He said that something should be given her to eat.

CHAPTER 6

^aAND He went out from there; and He ^{}came into ^{1b}His home town; and His disciples ^{}followed Him.

2 And when the Sabbath had come, He began ^ato teach in the synagogue; and the ^bmany listeners were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things, and what is this wisdom given to Him, and such ¹miracles as these performed by His hands?"

3 "Is not this ^athe carpenter, ^bthe son of Mary, and brother of ¹James, and Joses, and Judas, and Simon? Are not ^cHis sisters here with us?" And they ²took ^doffense at Him.

4 And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in ^{1b}his home town and among his own relatives and in his own household."

5 And He could do no ¹miracle there except that He ^alaid His hands upon a few sick people and healed them.

6 And He wondered at their unbelief.

^aAnd He was going around the villages teaching.

7 ^aAnd ^bHe ^{*}summoned the twelve and began to send them out ^cin pairs; and He was giving them authority over the unclean spirits;

8 ^aand He instructed them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a mere staff; no bread, no ¹bag, no money in their belt;

9 but ¹to wear sandals; and He added, "Do not put on two ²tunics."

10 And He said to them, "Wherever you enter a house, stay there until you ¹leave town.

11 "And any place that does not receive you or listen to you, as you go out from there, ^ashake off the dust ¹from the soles of your feet for a testimony against them."

12 ^aAnd they went out and ¹preached that men should repent.

13 And they were casting out many demons and ^awere anointing with oil many sick people and healing them.

14 ^aAnd king Herod heard of it; for His name had become well known; and people were saying, "^bJohn the Baptist has risen from the dead, and therefore these miraculous powers are at work in him."

15 But others were saying, "He is ^aElijah." And others were saying, "He is ^aba prophet, like one of the prophets of old."

16 But when Herod heard of it, he kept saying, "John, whom I beheaded, he has risen!"

17 For Herod himself had sent and had John arrested and bound in prison on account of ^aHerodias, the wife of his brother Philip, because he had married her.

18 For John had been saying to Herod, "^aIt is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."

19 And ^aHerodias had a grudge against him and wanted to kill him; and could not do so;

20 for ^aHerod was afraid of John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. And when he heard him, he was very perplexed; ¹but he ²used to enjoy listening to him.

21 And a strategic day came when Herod on his birthday ^agave a banquet for his lords and ¹military commanders and the leading men ^bof Galilee;

22 and when the daughter of ^aHerodias herself came in and danced, she pleased Herod and his ¹dinner-guests; and the king said to the girl, "Ask me for whatever you want and I will give it to you."

23 And he swore to her, "Whatever you ask of me, I will give it to you; up to ^ahalf of my kingdom."

24 And she went out and said to her mother, "What shall I ask for?" And she said, "The head of John the Baptist."

25 And immediately she came in haste before the king and asked, saying, "I want you to give me right away the head of John the Baptist on a platter."

26 And although the king was very sorry, yet because of his oaths and because of his ¹dinner-guests, he was unwilling to refuse her.

27 And immediately the king sent an executioner and commanded him to bring back his head. And he went and beheaded him in the prison, 28 and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother.

29 And when his disciples heard about this, they came and took away his body and laid it in a tomb.

30 ^aAnd the ^bapostles ^agathered together with Jesus; and they reported to Him all that they had done and taught.

31 And He ^asaid to them, "Come away by yourselves to a lonely place and rest a while." (For there were many people coming and going, and ^athey did not even have time to eat.)

32 ^aAnd they went away in ^bthe boat to a lonely place by themselves.

33 And the people saw them going, and many recognized them, and they ran there together on foot from all the cities, and got there ahead of them.

34 And ¹disembarking, He ^asaw a great multitude, and He felt compassion for them because ^athey were like sheep without a shepherd; and He began to teach them many things.

35 And when it was already quite late, His disciples came up to Him and began saying, "The place is desolate and it is already quite late;

36 send them away so that they may go into the surrounding countryside and villages and buy themselves ¹something to eat."

37 But He answered and said to them, "You give them something to eat!" ^aAnd they ^asaid to Him, "Shall we go and spend two hundred ¹denarii on bread and give them something to eat?"

38 And He ^asaid to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go look!" And when they found out, they ^asaid, "Five and two fish."

39 And He commanded them all to recline by groups on the green grass.

40 And they reclined in companies of hundreds, and of fifties.

41 And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up toward heaven, He ^ablessed the food and broke the loaves and He kept giving them to the disciples to set before them; and He divided up the two fish among them all.

42 And they all ate and were satisfied.

43 And they picked up twelve full ^{1a}baskets of the broken pieces, and also of the fish.

44 And there were ^afive thousand men who ate the loaves.

45 ^aAnd immediately He made His disciples get into ^bthe boat and go ahead of Him to the other side to ^cBethsaida, while He Himself was sending the multitude away.

46 And after ^abidding them farewell, He departed ^bto the mountain to pray.

47 And when it was evening, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and He was alone on the land.

48 And seeing them ¹straining at the oars, for the wind was against them, at about the ^{2a}fourth watch of the night, He ^{*}came to them, walking on the sea; and He intended to pass by them.

49 But when they saw Him walking on the sea, they supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out;

50 for they all saw Him and were ¹frightened. But immediately He spokc with them and ^{*}said to them, "^aTake courage; it is I, ^bdo not be afraid."

51 And He got into ^athe boat with them, and the wind stopped; and they were greatly astonished, 52 for ^athey ¹had not gained any insight from the incident of the loaves, but ²their heart ^bwas hardened.

53 ^aAnd when they had crossed over they came to land at Gennesaret, and moored to the shore.

54 And when they had come out of the boat, immediately the people recognized Him, 55 and ran about that whole country and began to carry about on their pallets those who were sick, to ¹the place they heard He was.

56 And wherever He entered villages, or cities, or countryside, they were laying the sick in the market places, and entreating Him that they might just ^atouch ^bthe fringe of His cloak; and as many as touched it were being cured.

^a AND the Pharisees and some of the scribes gathered together around Him when they had come ^bfrom Jerusalem,

2 and had seen that some of His disciples were eating their bread with ^aimpure hands, that is, unwashed.

3 (For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they ¹carefully wash their hands, thus observing the ^atraditions of the elders;

4 and when they come from the market place, they do not eat unless they ¹cleanse themselves; and there are many other things which they have received in order to observe, such as the ²washing of ^acups and pitchers and copper pots.)

do Your disciples not walk according to the ^atradition of the elders, but eat their bread with ^bimpure hands?"

6 And He said to them, "Rightly did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written,

^aTHIS PEOPLE HONORS ME WITH THEIR LIPS,
BUT THEIR HEART IS FAR AWAY FROM ME.

7 ^aBUT IN VAIN DO THEY WORSHIP ME, TEACHING AS DOCTRINES THE PRECEPTS OF MEN.'

8 "Neglecting the commandment of God, you hold to the ^atradition of men."

9 He was also saying to them, "You nicely set aside the commandment of God in order to keep your ^atradition.

10 "For Moses said, ^aHONOR YOUR FATHER AND YOUR MOTHER;' and, ^bHE WHO SPEAKS EVIL OF FATHER OR MOTHER, LET HIM ¹BE PUT TO DEATH;'

11 but you say, 'If a man says to his father or his mother, anything of mine you might have been helped by is ^aCorban (that is to say, ¹given to God),'

12 you no longer permit him to do anything for his father or his mother;

13 thus invalidating the word of God by your ^atradition which you have handed down; and you do many such things like that."

14 And summoning the multitude again, He began saying to them, "Listen to Me, all of you, and understand:

15 there is nothing outside the man which going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed out of the man are what defile the man."

16 (See marginal note.¹)

17 And when leaving the multitude, He had entered ^athe house, ^bHis disciples questioned Him about the parable.

18 And He ^asaid to them, "Are you too so uncomprehending? Do you not see that whatever goes into the man from outside cannot defile him;

19 because it does not go into his heart, but into his stomach, and ¹is eliminated?" (Thus He declared ^aall foods ^bclean.)

20 And He was saying, ^a"That which proceeds out of the man, that is what defiles the man.

21 "For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed the evil thoughts and ¹fornications, thefts, murders, adulteries, 22 deeds of coveting and wickedness, as well as deceit, sensuality, ^{1a}envy, slander, ²pride and foolishness.

23 "All these evil things proceed from within and defile the man."

24 ^aAnd from there He arose and went away to the region of ^bTyre¹. And when He had entered a house, He wanted no one to know of it; ²yet He could not escape notice.

25 But after hearing of Him, a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, immediately came and fell at His feet.

26 Now the woman was a ¹Gentile, of the Syrophenician race. And she kept asking Him to cast the demon out of her daughter.

27 And He was saying to her, "Let the children be satisfied first, for it is not ¹good to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

28 But she answered and ^{*}said to Him, "Yes, Lord, but even the dogs under the table feed on the children's crumbs."

29 And He said to her, "Because of this ¹answer go your way; the demon has gone out of your daughter."

30 And going back to her home, she found the child ¹lying on the bed, ²the demon having departed.

31 ^aAnd again He went out from the region of ^bTyre, and came through Sidon to ^cthe sea of Galilee, within the region of ^dDecapolis.

32 And they ^{}brought to Him one who was deaf and spoke with difficulty, and they ^{}entreated Him to ^alay His hand upon him.

33 And ^aHe took him aside from the multitude by himself, and put His fingers into his ears, and after ^aspitting, He touched his tongue with the saliva;

34 and looking up to heaven with a deep ^asigh, He ^{*}said to him, "Ephphatha!" that is, "Be opened!"

35 And his ears were opened, and the ¹impediment of his tongue ²was removed, and he began speaking plainly.

36 And ^aHe gave them orders not to tell anyone; but the more He ordered them, the more widely they ^bcontinued to proclaim it.

37 And they were utterly astonished, saying, "He has done all things well; He makes even the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak."

CHAPTER 8

IN those days again, when there was a great multitude and they had nothing to eat, ^aHe summoned His disciples and ^{*}said to them,

2 "^aI feel compassion for the multitude because they have remained with Me now three days, and have nothing to eat;

3 and if I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way; and some of them have come from a distance."

4 And His disciples answered Him, "Where will anyone be able to find enough to satisfy these men with ¹bread here in the wilderness?"

5 And He was asking them, "How many loaves do you have?" And they said, "Seven."

6 And He ^{*}directed the multitude to ¹sit down on the ground; and taking the seven loaves, He gave thanks and broke them, and began giving them to His disciples to ²serve to them, and they ²served them to the multitude.

7 They also had a few small fish; and ^aafter He had blessed them, He ordered these to be ¹served as well.

8 And they ate and were satisfied; and they picked up seven full ^abaskets of what was left over of the broken pieces.

9 And about four thousand were there; and He sent them away.

11 ^aAnd the Pharisees came out and began to argue with Him, ^bseeking from Him a ¹sign from heaven, ²to test Him.

12 And ^asighing deeply ¹in His spirit, He ^asaid, "Why does this generation seek for a ²sign? Truly I say to you, ³no ²sign shall be given to this generation."

13 And leaving them, He again embarked and went away to the other side.

14 And they had forgotten to take bread; and ¹did not have more than one loaf in the boat with them.

15 And He was giving orders to them, saying, "^aWatch out! Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of ^bHerod."

16 And they began to discuss with one another the fact that they had no bread.

17 And Jesus, aware of this, ^asaid to them, "Why do you discuss the fact that you have no bread? ^aDo you not yet see or understand? Do you have a ¹hardened heart?"

18 ^a"HAVING EYES, DO YOU NOT SEE? AND HAVING EARS, DO YOU NOT HEAR? And do you not remember, 19 when I broke ^athe five loaves for the five thousand, how many large ^bbaskets full of broken pieces you picked up?" They ^asaid to Him, "Twelve."

20 "And when I broke ^athe seven for the four thousand, how many ^bbasketfuls of broken pieces did you pick up?" And they ^asaid to Him, "Seven."

21 And He was saying to them, "^aDo you not yet understand?"

22 And they ^acame to ^aBethsaida. And they ^abrought a blind man to Him, and ^aentreated Him to ^btouch him.

23 And taking the blind man by the hand, He ^abrought him out of the village; and after ^aspitting on his eyes, and ^bblaying His hands upon him, He asked him, "Do you see anything?"

24 And he ¹looked up and said, "I see men, for ²I am seeing them like trees, walking about."

25 Then again He laid His hands upon his eyes; and he looked intently and was restored, and began to see everything clearly.

26 And He sent him to his home, saying, "^aDo not even enter ^bthe village."

27 ^aAnd Jesus went out, along with His disciples, to the villages of ^bCaesarea Philippi; and on the way He questioned His disciples, saying to them, "Who do people say that I am?"

28 ^aAnd they told Him, saying, "John the Baptist; and others say Elijah; but still others, one of the prophets."

29 And He continued by questioning them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter ^aanswered and ^asaid to Him, "Thou art ¹the Christ."

30 And ^aHe ¹warned them to tell no one about Him.

31 ^aAnd He began to teach them that ^bthe Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

32 And He was stating the matter ^aplainly. And Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him.

33 But turning around and seeing His disciples, He rebuked Peter, and *said, "Get behind Me, ^aSatan; for you are not setting your mind on ¹God's interests, but man's."

34 And He summoned the multitude with His disciples, and said to them, "If anyone wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and ^atake up his cross, and follow Me.

35 "For ^awhoever wishes to save his ¹life shall lose it; and whoever loses his ¹life for My sake and the gospel's shall save it.

36 "For what does it profit a man to gain the whole world, and forfeit his ¹soul?

37 "For what shall a man give in exchange for his ¹soul?

38 "For ^awhoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinful generation, ^bthe Son of Man will also be ashamed of him when He ^ccomes in the glory of His Father with the holy angels."

CHAPTER 9

AND He was saying to them, "^aTruly I say to you, there are some of those who are standing here who shall not taste of death until they see the kingdom of God after it has come with power."

2 ^aAnd six days later, Jesus ^{}took with Him ^bPeter and ¹James and John, and ^{}brought them up to a high mountain by themselves. And He was transfigured before them;

3 and ^aHis garments became radiant and exceedingly white, as no launderer on earth can whiten them.

4 And Elijah appeared to them along with Moses; and they were conversing with Jesus.

5 And Peter ^{}answered and ^{}said to Jesus, "^aRabbi, it is good for us to be here; and ^blet us make three ¹tabernacles, one for You, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

6 For he did not know what to answer; for they became terrified.

7 Then a cloud ¹formed, overshadowing them, and ^aa voice ¹came out of the cloud, "^bThis is My beloved Son, ²listen to Him!"

8 And all at once they looked around and saw no one with them any more, except Jesus only.

9 ^aAnd as they were coming down from the mountain, He ^bgave them orders not to relate to anyone what they had seen, ¹until the Son of Man should rise from the dead.

10 And they ¹seized upon ²that statement, discussing with one another ³what rising from the dead might mean.

11 And they began questioning Him, saying, "Why is it that the scribes say that first ^aElijah must come?"

12 And He said to them, "Elijah does first come and restore everything. And yet how is it written of ^athe Son of Man that ^bHe should suffer many things and be treated with contempt?

13 "But I say to you, that Elijah has ¹indeed come, and they did to him whatever they wished, just as it is written of him."

14 ^aAnd when they came back to the disciples, they saw a large crowd around them, and some scribes arguing with them.

15 And immediately, when the entire crowd saw Him, they were ^aamazed, and began running up to greet Him.

16 And He asked them, "What are you discussing with them?"

17 And one of the crowd answered Him, "Teacher, I brought You my son, possessed with a spirit which makes him mute;

18 and ¹whenever it seizes him, it ²dashes him to the ground and he foams at the mouth, and grinds his teeth, and ³stiffens out. And I told Your disciples to cast it out, and they could not do it."

19 And He ^aanswered them and ^asaid, "O unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him to Me!"

20 And they brought ¹the boy to Him. And when he saw Him, immediately the spirit threw him into a convulsion, and falling to the ground, he began rolling about and foaming at the mouth.

21 And He asked his father, "How long has this been happening to him?" And he said, "From childhood.

22 "And it has often thrown him both into the fire and into the water to destroy him. But if You can do anything, take pity on us and help us!"

23 And Jesus said to him, "'If You can!' ^aAll things are possible to him who believes."

24 Immediately the boy's father cried out and began saying, "I do believe; help me in my unbelief."

25 And when Jesus saw that ^aa crowd was ¹rapidly gathering, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You deaf and dumb spirit, I ²command you, come out of him and do not enter him ³again."

26 And after crying out and throwing him into terrible convulsions, it came out; and the boy became so much like a corpse that most of them said, "He is dead!"

27 But Jesus took him by the hand and raised him; and he got up.

28 And when He had come ^ainto the house, His disciples began questioning Him privately, "Why is it that we could not cast it out?"

29 And He said to them, "This kind cannot come out by anything but prayer."¹

30 ^aAnd from there they went out and began to go through Galilee, and He was unwilling for anyone to know about it.

31 For He was teaching His disciples and telling them, "^aThe Son of Man is to be ¹delivered up into the hands of men, and they will kill Him; and when He has been killed, He will rise again three days later."

32 But ^athey ¹did not understand this statement, and they were afraid to ask him.

33 ^aAnd they came to Capernaum; and when He ¹was in ^bthe house, He began to question them, "What were you discussing on the way?"

34 But they kept silent, for on the way ^athey had discussed with one another which of them was the greatest.

35 And sitting down, He called the twelve and ^asaid to them, "If any one wants to be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all."

36 And taking a child, He stood him in the midst of them; and taking him in His arms, He said to them,

37 "Whoever receives one child like this in My name is receiving Me; and whoever receives Me is not receiving Me, but Him who sent Me."

38 John said to Him, "Teacher, we saw someone casting out demons in Your name, and we tried to hinder him because he was not following us."

39 But Jesus said, "Do not hinder him, for there is no one who shall perform a miracle in My name, and be able soon afterward to speak evil of Me.

40 "For he who is not against us is for us.

41 "For whoever gives you a cup of water to drink because of your name as followers of Christ, truly I say to you, he shall not lose his reward.

42 And whoever causes one of these little ones who believe to stumble, it would be better for him if with a heavy millstone hung around his neck, he had been cast into the sea.

CHAPTER 10

AND rising up, He went from there to the region of Judea, and beyond the Jordan; and crowds gathered around Him again, and according to His custom, He once more began to teach them.

2 And some Pharisees came up to Him, testing Him, and began to question Him whether it was lawful for a man to divorce a wife.

3 And He answered and said to them, "What did Moses command you?"

4 And they said, "Moses permitted a man to write a certificate of divorce and send her away."

5 But Jesus said to them, "Because of your hardness of heart he wrote you this commandment.

7 ^aFOR THIS CAUSE A MAN SHALL LEAVE HIS FATHER AND MOTHER,¹

8 ^aAND THE TWO SHALL BECOME ONE FLESH; consequently they are no longer two, but one flesh.

9 "What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate."

10 And in the house the disciples began questioning Him about this again.

11 And He ^asaid to them, "^aWhoever divorces his wife and marries another woman commits adultery against her;

12 and ^aif she herself divorces her husband and marries another man, she is committing adultery."

13 ^aAnd they began bringing children to Him, so that He might touch them; and the disciples rebuked them.

14 But when Jesus saw this, He was indignant and said to them, "Permit the children to come to Me; do not hinder them; ^afor the kingdom of God belongs to such as these.

15 "Truly I say to you, ^awhoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it at all."

16 And He ^atook them in His arms and began blessing them, laying His hands upon them.

17 ^aAnd as He was setting out on a journey, a man ran up to Him and ^bkneled before Him, and began asking Him, "Good Teacher, what shall I do to ^cinherit eternal life?"

18 And Jesus said to him, "Why do you call Me good? No one is good except God alone.

19 "You know the commandments, ^aDO NOT MURDER, DO NOT COMMIT ADULTERY, DO NOT STEAL, DO NOT BEAR FALSE WITNESS, DO NOT DEFRAUD, HONOR YOUR FATHER AND MOTHER."

20 And he said to Him, "Teacher, I have kept ^aall these things from my youth up."

21 And looking at him, Jesus felt a love for him, and said to him, "One thing you lack: go and sell all you possess, and give it to the poor, and you shall have ^atreasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

22 But at these words ¹his face fell, and he went away grieved, for he was one who owned much property.

23 And Jesus, looking around, ^asaid to His disciples, "^aHow hard it will be for those who are wealthy to enter the kingdom of God!"

24 And the disciples ^awere amazed at His words. But Jesus ^aanswered again and ^asaid to them, "Children, how hard it is ¹to enter the kingdom of God!

25 "^aIt is easier for a camel to go through the eye of ¹a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

26 And they were even more astonished and said ¹to Him, "^aThen who can be saved?"

27 Looking upon them, Jesus ^asaid, "^aWith men it is impossible, but not with God; for all things are possible with God."

28 ^aPeter began to say to Him, "Behold, we have left everything and followed You."

29 Jesus said, "Truly I say to you, ^athere is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or mother or father or children or farms, for My sake and for the gospel's sake,

31 "But ^amany who are first, will be last; and the last, first."

32 ^aAnd they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was walking on ahead of them; and they ^bwere amazed, and those who followed were fearful. And again He took the twelve aside and began to tell them what was going to happen to Him, 33 saying, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and ^athe Son of Man will be ¹delivered up to the chief priests and the scribes; and they will condemn Him to death, and will ²deliver Him up to the Gentiles.

34 "And they will mock Him and ^aspit upon Him, and scourge Him, and kill Him, and three days later He will rise again."

35 ^aAnd ¹James and John, the two sons of Zebedee, ^{*}came up to Him, saying to Him, "Teacher, we want You to do for us whatever we ask of You."

36 And He said to them, "What do you want Me to do for you?"

37 And they said to Him, "Grant that we ^amay sit in Your glory, one on Your right, and one on Your left."

38 But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking for. Are you able ^ato drink the cup that I drink, or ^bto be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?"

39 And they said to Him, "We are able." And Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink ^ayou shall drink; and you shall be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized.

40 "But to sit on My right or on My left, this is not Mine to give; ^abut it is for those for whom it has been prepared."

41 ^aAnd hearing this, the ten began to feel indignant toward ¹James and John.

42 And calling them to Himself, Jesus ^{*}said to them, "You know that those who are recognized as rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them; and their great men exercise authority over them.

43 "But it is not so among you, ^abut whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant;

44 and whoever wishes to be first among you shall be slave of all.

45 "For even the Son of Man ^adid not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His ¹life a ransom for many."

46 ^aAnd they ^{*}came to Jericho. And ^bas He was going out from Jericho with His disciples and a great multitude, a blind beggar named Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, was sitting by the road.

47 And when he heard that it was Jesus the ^aNazarene, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, ^bSon of David, have mercy on me!"

48 And many were sternly telling him to be quiet, but he began crying out all the more, "^aSon of David, have mercy on me!"

CHAPTER 11

^aAND as they ^{}approached Jerusalem, at Bethphage and ^bBethany, near ^cthe Mount of Olives, He ^{}sent two of His disciples,

2 and ^{*}said to them, "Go into the village opposite you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find a colt tied there, on which no one yet has ever sat; untie it and bring it here."

4 And they went away and found a colt tied at the door outside in the street; and they ^{*}untied it.

5 And some of the bystanders were saying to them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?"

6 And they spoke to them just as Jesus had told them, and they gave them permission.

7 ^aAnd they ^{*}brought the colt to Jesus and put their garments on it; and He sat upon it.

8 And many spread their garments in the road, and others spread leafy branches which they had cut from the fields.

9 And those who went before, and those who followed after, were crying out,

"^aHOSANNA!

BLESSED IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD;

10 "Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David; HOSANNA ^ain the highest."

11 And ^aHe entered Jerusalem and came into the temple; and after looking all around, ^bHe departed for Bethany with the twelve, since it was already late.

12 ^aAnd on the next day, when they had departed from Bethany, He became hungry.

13 And seeing at a distance a fig tree in leaf, He went to see if perhaps He would find anything on it; and when He came to it, He found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.

14 And He answered and said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again!" And His disciples were listening.

15 ^aAnd they ^{*}came to Jerusalem. And He entered the temple and began to cast out those who were buying and selling in the temple, and overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who were selling ¹doves;

16 and He would not permit anyone to carry ¹goods through the temple.

17 And He began to teach and say to them, "Is it not written, "^aMY HOUSE SHALL BE CALLED A HOUSE OF PRAYER FOR ALL THE NATIONS'? ^bBut you have made it a robber's ¹den."

18 And the chief priests and the scribes heard this, and began seeking how to destroy Him; for they were afraid of Him, for ^ball the multitude was astonished at His teaching.

19 And ^awhenever evening came, ¹they would go out of the city.

20 ^aAnd as they were passing by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered from the roots up.

21 And being reminded, Peter ^asaid to Him, “^aRabbi, behold, the fig tree which You cursed has withered.”

22 And Jesus ^aanswered saying to them, “^aHave faith in God.

28 and began saying to Him, “By what authority are You doing these things, or who gave You this authority to do these things?”

29 And Jesus said to them, “I will ask you one question, and you answer Me, and then I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 “Was the baptism of John from heaven, or from men? Answer Me.”

31 And they began reasoning with one another, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Then why did you not believe him?’

32 “But ¹shall we say, ‘From men?’” —they were afraid of the multitude, for all considered John to have been a prophet indeed.

33 And answering Jesus, they ^asaid, “We do not know.” And Jesus ^asaid to them, “Neither ¹will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

12 And ^athey were seeking to seize Him; and yet they feared the multitude; for they understood that He had spoken the parable against them. And so ^bthey left Him, and went away.

14 And they ^{}came and ^{}said to Him, "Teacher, we know that You are truthful, and ¹defer to no one; for You are not partial to any, but teach the way of God in truth. Is it ²lawful to pay a poll-tax to Caesar, or not?

17 And Jesus said to them, "^aRender to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's." And they ¹were amazed at Him.

18 ^aAnd some Sadducees (who say that there is no resurrection) ^{*}came to Him, and began questioning Him, saying, 20 "There were seven brothers; and the first one took a wife, and died, leaving no offspring.

21 "And the second one took her, and died, leaving behind no offspring; and the third likewise;

22 and so ¹all seven left no offspring. Last of all the woman died too.

23 "In the resurrection, ¹when they rise again, which one's wife will she be? For ²all seven had her as wife."

24 Jesus said to them, "Is this not the reason you are mistaken, that you do not ¹understand the Scriptures, or the power of God?

25 "For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.

26 "But ¹regarding the fact that the dead rise again, have you not read in the book of Moses, ^ain the passage about the burning bush, how God spoke to him, saying, ^b'I AM THE GOD OF ABRAHAM, AND THE GOD OF ISAAC, AND THE GOD OF JACOB'?"

27 ^a"He is not the God ¹of the dead, but of the living; you are greatly mistaken."

28 ^aAnd one of the scribes came and heard them arguing, and ^brecognizing that He had answered them well, asked Him, "What commandment is the ¹foremost of all?"

29 Jesus answered, "The foremost is, ^aHEAR, O ISRAEL; THE LORD OUR GOD IS ONE LORD;

30 ^aAND YOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND, AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH.'

31 "The second is this, ^aYOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF.' There is no other commandment greater than these."

32 And the scribe said to Him, "Right, Teacher, You have truly stated that ^aHE IS ONE; AND THERE IS NO ONE ELSE BESIDES HIM;

33 ^aAND TO LOVE HIM WITH ALL THE HEART AND WITH ALL THE UNDERSTANDING AND WITH ALL THE STRENGTH, AND TO LOVE ONE'S NEIGHBOR AS HIMSELF, ^bis much more than all burnt offerings and sacrifices."

34 And when Jesus saw that he had answered intelligently, He said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." ^aAnd after that, no one would venture to ask Him any more questions.

35 ^aAnd Jesus answering began to say, as He ^btaught in the temple, "How is it that the scribes say that ¹the Christ is the ^cson of David?"

36 "David himself said ¹in the Holy Spirit,

37 "David himself calls Him 'Lord;' and so in what sense is He his son?" And ^athe great crowd ¹enjoyed listening to Him.

39 and chief seats in the synagogues, and places of honor at banquets.

40 ^a"They are the ones who devour widows' houses, and for appearance's sake offer long prayers; these will receive greater condemnation."

41 ^aAnd He sat down opposite ^bthe treasury, and began observing how the multitude were ^cputting ¹money into the treasury; and many rich people were putting in large sums.

42 And a poor widow came and put in two ¹small copper coins, which amount to a ²cent.

43 And calling His disciples to Him, He said to them, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all ¹the contributors to the treasury;

AND as He was going out of the temple, one of His disciples ^asaid to Him, "Teacher, behold ¹what wonderful stones and ¹what wonderful buildings!"

² And Jesus said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? ^aNot one stone shall be left upon another which will not be torn down."

³ And as He was sitting on ^athe Mount of Olives opposite the temple, ^bPeter and ¹James and John and Andrew were questioning Him privately,

⁴ "Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the ¹sign when all these things are going to be fulfilled?"

⁵ And Jesus began to say to them, "See to it that no one misleads you.

⁶ "Many will come in My name, saying, '^aI am He!' and will mislead many.

⁷ "And when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be frightened; those things must take place; but that is not yet the end.

⁸ "For nation will arise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; there will be earthquakes in various places; there will also be famines. These things are merely the beginning of birth pangs.

⁹ "But ¹be on your guard; for they will ^adeliver you up to the ²courts, and you will be flogged ^bin the synagogues, and you will stand before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them.

¹⁰ "^aAnd the gospel must first be preached to all the nations.

¹¹ "^aAnd when they ¹arrest you and deliver you up, do not be anxious beforehand about what you are to say, but say whatever is given you in that hour; for it is not you who speak, but it is the Holy Spirit.

¹³ "And ^ayou will be hated by all on account of My name, but it is the one who has endured to the end who will be saved.

¹⁴ "But ^awhen you see the ^bABOMINATION OF DESOLATION standing where it should not be (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.

¹⁵ "And let him who is on the housetop not go down, or enter in, to get anything out of his house;

¹⁶ and let him who is in the field not turn back to get his cloak.

¹⁷ "But woe to those who are with child and to those who nurse babes in those days!

¹⁸ "But pray that it may not happen in the winter.

¹⁹ "For those days will be a time of tribulation such as has not occurred ^asince the beginning of the creation which God created, until now, and never shall.

²⁰ "And unless the Lord had shortened those days, no ¹life would have been saved; but for the sake of the ²elect whom He chose, He shortened the days.

21 "And then if anyone says to you, 'Behold, here is ¹the Christ;' or, 'Behold, He is there;' do not believe him;

22 for false Christs and ^afalse prophets will arise, and will show ^{1b}signs and ^bwonders, in order, if possible, to lead the elect astray.

23 "But take heed; behold, I have told you everything in advance.

24 "But in those days, after that tribulation, ^aTHE SUN WILL BE DARKENED, AND THE MOON WILL NOT GIVE ITS LIGHT, 25 ^aAND THE STARS WILL BE FALLING from heaven, and the POWERS THAT ARE IN ¹THE HEAVENS WILL BE shaken.

26 "AND THEN THEY SHALL SEE THE SON OF MAN ^bCOMING IN CLOUDS with great power and glory.

27 "And then He will send forth the angels, and ^aWILL GATHER TOGETHER His ¹elect FROM THE FOUR WINDS, ^bFROM THE FARTHEST END of the earth, TO THE FARTHEST END OF HEAVEN.

28 "Now learn the parable from the fig tree: when its branch has already become tender, and puts forth its leaves, you know that the summer is near.

29 "Even so you too, when you see these things happening, ¹recognize that ²He is near, right at the ³door.

30 "Truly I say to you, this ¹generation will not pass away until all these things take place.

31 "Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will not pass away.

32 "But of that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but the Father alone.

33 "Take heed, ^akeep on the alert; for you do not know when the appointed time is.

34 "It is like a man, away on a journey, who upon leaving his house and ¹putting his slaves in charge, assigning to each one his task, also commanded the doorkeeper to stay on the alert.

35 "Therefore, ^abe on the alert — for you do not know when the ¹master of the house is coming, whether in the evening, at midnight, at ^bcockcrow, or ^cin the morning;—

INASMUCH as many have undertaken to compile an account of the things ^{1a}accomplished among us,

2 just as those who ^afrom the beginning ^{1b}were ^beyewitnesses and ^{2c}servants of ^dthe ³Word have handed them down to us,

3 it seemed fitting for me as well, ^ahaving ¹investigated everything carefully from the beginning, to write it out for you ^bin consecutive order, ^cmost excellent ^dTheophilus;

4 so that you might know the exact truth about the things you have been ^{1a}taught.

5 ^aIn the days of Herod, King of Judea, there ^{1b}was a certain priest named ²Zacharias, of the ^bdivision of ³Abijah; and he had a wife ⁴from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.

6 And they were both ^arighteous in the sight of God, walking ^bblamelessly in all the commandments and requirements of the Lord.

7 And they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they were both advanced in ¹years.

8 Now it came about, while ^ahe was performing his priestly service before God in the ^{appointed} order of his division, 9 according to the custom of the priestly office, he was chosen by lot ^ato enter the temple of the Lord and burn incense.

10 And the whole multitude of the people were in prayer ^aoutside at the hour of the incense offering.

11 And ^aan angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing to the right of the altar of incense.

12 And Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, and fear ^lgripped him.

13 But the angel said to him, “^aDo not be afraid, Zacharias, for your petition has been heard, and your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and ^byou will ^lgive him the name John.

14 “And you will have joy and gladness, and many will rejoice at his birth.

15 “For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and he will ^adrink no wine or liquor; and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, ^lwhile yet in his mother’s womb.

16 “And he will turn back many of the sons of Israel to the Lord their God.

17 “And it is he who will ^ago as a forerunner before Him in the spirit and power of ^bElijah, ^cTO TURN THE HEARTS OF THE FATHERS BACK TO THE CHILDREN, and the disobedient to the attitude of the righteous; so as to ^amake ready a people prepared for the Lord.”

18 And Zacharias said to the angel, “How shall I know this for certain? For I am an old man, and my wife is advanced in ^lyears.”

19 And the angel answered and said to him, “I am ^aGabriel, who ^lstands in the presence of God; and I have been sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news.

20 “And behold, you shall be silent and unable to speak until the day when these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which shall be fulfilled in their proper time.”

21 And the people were waiting for Zacharias, and were wondering at his delay in the temple.

22 But when he came out, he was unable to speak to them; and they realized that he had seen a vision in the temple; and he ^akept ^lmaking signs to them, and remained mute.

23 And it came about, when the days of his priestly service were ended, that he went back home.

24 And after these days Elizabeth his wife became pregnant; and she ^lkept herself in seclusion for five months, saying,

25 “This is the way the Lord has dealt with me in the days when He looked with favor upon me, to ^atake away my disgrace among men.”

26 Now in the sixth month the angel ^aGabriel was sent from God to a city in Galilee, called ^bNazareth, 27 to ^aa virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, ^bof the ^ldescendants of David; and the virgin’s name was Mary.

28 And coming in, he said to her, “Hail, ^l favored one! The Lord ²is with you.”³

29 But she ^awas greatly troubled at this statement, and kept pondering what kind of salutation this might be.

30 And the angel said to her, “^aDo not be afraid, Mary; for you have found favor with God.

31 “And behold, you will conceive in your womb, and bear a son, and you ^ashall name Him Jesus.

32 “He will be great, and will be called the Son of ^athe Most High; and the Lord God will give Him the throne of His father David;

39 Now ^{1a}at this time Mary arose and went with haste to ^athe hill country, to a city of Judah, 40 and entered the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth.

41 And it came about that when Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby leaped in her womb; and Elizabeth was ^afilled with the Holy Spirit.

Now it came about in those days that a decree went out from ^aCaesar Augustus, that a census be taken of ^ball ¹the inhabited earth.

² ¹This was the first census taken while ²Quirinius was governor of ^aSyria.

³ And all were proceeding to register for the census, everyone to his own city.

⁴ And Joseph also went up from Galilee, from the city of Nazareth, to Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because ^ahe was of the house and family of David;

⁵ in order to register, along with Mary, who was engaged to him, and was with child.

⁶ And it came about that while they were there, the days were completed for her to give birth.

⁷ And she gave birth to her first-born son; and she wrapped Him in cloths, and laid Him in a ¹manger, because there was no room for them in the inn.

⁸ And in the same region there were some shepherds staying out in the fields, and keeping watch over their flock by night.

⁹ And ^aan angel of the Lord suddenly ^bstood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them; and they were terribly frightened.

¹⁰ And the angel said to them, ^a“Do not be afraid; for behold, I bring you good news of a great joy which shall be for all the people;

¹¹ for today in the city of David there has been born for you a ^aSavior, who is ^{1b}Christ ^cthe Lord.

¹² “And ^athis will be a sign for you: you will find a baby wrapped in cloths, and lying in a ¹manger.”

¹³ And suddenly there appeared with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

¹⁴ ^a“Glory to God in the highest,

And on earth peace among men ^{1b}with whom He is pleased.”

¹⁵ And it came about that when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds began saying to one another, “Let us go straight to Bethlehem then, and see this thing that has happened which the Lord has made known to us.”

¹⁶ And they came in haste and found their way to Mary and Joseph, and the baby as He lay in the ¹manger.

¹⁷ And when they had seen this, they made known the statement which had been told them about this Child.

¹⁸ And all who heard it wondered at the things which were told them by the shepherds.

¹⁹ But Mary ^atreasured up all these things, pondering them in her heart.

²⁰ And the shepherds went back, ^aglorifying and praising God for all that they had heard and seen, just as had been told them.

²¹ And when ^aeight days were completed ¹before His circumcision, ^bHis name was then called Jesus, the name given by the angel before He was conceived in the womb.

22 And when the days for their purification according to the law of Moses were completed, they brought Him up to Jerusalem to present Him to the Lord

23 (as it is written in the Law of the Lord, "A EVERY first-born MALE THAT OPENS THE WOMB SHALL BE CALLED HOLY TO THE LORD"),

24 and to offer a sacrifice according to what was said in the Law of the Lord, "A PAIR OF TURTLEDOVES, OR TWO YOUNG PIGEONS."

25 And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; and this man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel; and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

26 And it had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Christ.

27 And he came in the Spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to carry out for Him the custom of the Law,

28 then he took Him into his arms, and blessed God, and said,

29 "Now Lord, Thou dost let Thy bondservant depart, In peace, according to Thy word;

30 For mine eyes have seen Thy salvation,

31 Which Thou hast prepared in the presence of all peoples,

32 A LIGHT OF REVELATION TO THE GENTILES, And the glory of Thy people Israel."

33 And His father and mother were amazed at the things which were being said about Him.

34 And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary His mother, "Behold, this Child is appointed for the fall and rise of many in Israel, and for a sign to be opposed —

35 and a sword will pierce even your own soul — to the end that thoughts from many hearts may be revealed."

36 And there was a prophetess, Anna the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher. She was advanced in years, having lived with a husband seven years after her marriage, 37 and then as a widow to the age of eighty-four. And she never left the temple, serving night and day with fastings and prayers.

38 And at that very moment she came up and began giving thanks to God, and continued to speak of Him to all those who were looking for the redemption of Jerusalem.

39 And when they had performed everything according to the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city of Nazareth.

40 And the Child continued to grow and become strong, increasing in wisdom; and the grace of God was upon Him.

41 And His parents used to go to Jerusalem every year at the Feast of the Passover.

42 And when He became twelve, they went up there according to the custom of the Feast;

43 and as they were returning, after spending the full number of days, the boy Jesus stayed behind in Jerusalem. And His parents were unaware of it, 47 And all who heard Him were amazed at His understanding and His answers.

48 And when they saw Him, they were astonished; and ^aHis mother said to Him, "Son, why have You treated us this way? Behold, ^bYour father and I ²have been anxiously looking for You."

CHAPTER 3

NOW in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, when ^aPontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and ^bHerod was tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Phillip was tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias was tetrarch of Abilene,

2 in the high priesthood of ^aAnnas and ^bCaiaphas, ^cthe word of God came to John, the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness.

3 And he came into all ^athe district around the Jordan, preaching a baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins;

4 as it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

^aMAKE READY THE WAY OF THE LORD,
MAKE HIS PATHS STRAIGHT.

5 ^aEVERY RAVINE SHALL BE FILLED UP,
AND EVERY MOUNTAIN AND HILL SHALL BE ¹BROUGHT LOW;

AND THE CROOKED SHALL BECOME STRAIGHT, AND THE ROUGH ROADS SMOOTH;

6 ^aAND ALL ¹FLESH SHALL ^bSEE THE SALVATION OF GOD."

7 He therefore began saying to the multitudes who were going out to be baptized by him, "You brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 "Therefore bring forth fruits in keeping with your repentance, and ^ado not begin to say ¹to yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father,' for I say to you that God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham.

9 "And also the axe is already laid at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire."

Luke 3

10 And the multitudes were questioning him, saying, "Then what shall we do?"

11 And he would answer and say to them, "Let the man who has two tunics share with him who has none; and let him who has food do likewise."

12 And some ¹tax-gatherers also came to be baptized, and they said to him, "Teacher, what shall we do?"

13 And he said to them, "Collect no more than what you have been ordered to."

14 And some ¹soldiers were questioning him, saying, "And what about us, what shall we do?" And he said to them, "Do not take money from anyone by force, or accuse anyone falsely, and be content with your wages."

15 Now while the people were in a state of expectation and all were ¹wondering in their hearts about John, ²as to whether he might be ²the Christ;

16 ^aJohn answered and said to them all, "As for me, I baptize you with water; but He who is mightier than I is coming, and I am not fit to untie the thong of His sandals; He Himself will baptize you ¹in the Holy Spirit and fire.

17 "And His ^awinnowing fork is in His hand to clean out His threshing-floor, and to gather the wheat into His barn; but He will burn up the chaff with ^bunquenchable fire."

18 So with many other exhortations also he preached the gospel to the people.

19 But when ^aHerod the tetrarch was reproved by him on account of ^aHerodias, his brother's wife, and on account of all the wicked things which ^bHerod had done,

20 he added this also to them all, that ^ahe locked John up in prison.

21 ^aNow it came about that when all the people were baptized, that Jesus also was baptized, and while He was ^bpraying, heaven was opened,

22 and the Holy Spirit descended upon Him in bodily form like a dove, and a voice came out of heaven, "Thou art My beloved Son, in Thee I am well pleased."

23 And ^awhen He began His ministry, Jesus Himself was about thirty years of age, [being ¹supposedly the son of ^bJoseph], the son of ²Eli,

AND Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, ^breturned from the Jordan and was ^{led about} ¹by the Spirit in the wilderness

2 for forty days, while tempted by the devil. And He ate nothing during those days; and when they had ended, He became hungry.

3 And the devil said to Him, "If You are the Son of God, tell this stone to become bread."

4 And Jesus answered him, "It is written, ^aMAN SHALL NOT LIVE ON BREAD ALONE."

5 ^aAnd he led Him up and showed Him all the kingdoms of ¹the world in a moment of time.

37 And ^athe report about Him was getting out into every locality in the surrounding district.

38 ^aAnd He arose and left the synagogue, and entered Simon's home. Now Simon's mother-in-law was ^bsuffering from a high fever; and they made request of Him on her behalf.

39 And standing over her, He ^arebuked the fever, and it left her; and she immediately arose and began to ¹wait on them.

40 ^aAnd while ^bthe sun was setting, all who had any sick with various diseases brought them to Him; and ^claying His hands on every one of them, He was ^dhealing them.

41 And demons also were coming out of many, crying out and saying, "You are ^athe Son of God!" And ^brebuking them, He would ^cnot allow them to speak, because they knew Him to be ¹the Christ.

42 ^aAnd when day came, He departed and went to a lonely place; and the multitudes were searching for Him, and came to Him, and tried to keep Him from going away from them.

43 But He said to them, "I must preach the kingdom of God to the other cities also, ^afor I was sent for this purpose."

44 And He kept on preaching in the synagogues ^aof ¹Judea.

CHAPTER 5 ^a*the message of Jesus*

^aNow it came about that while the multitude were pressing around Him and listening to the word of God, He was standing by ^bthe lake of Gennesaret;

2 and He saw two boats lying at the edge of the lake; but the fishermen had gotten out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And ^aHe got into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little way from the land. And He sat down and began teaching the multitudes from the boat.

4 And when He had finished speaking, He said to Simon, "Put out into the deep water and ^alet down your nets for a catch."

5 And Simon answered and said, "Master, we worked hard all night and caught nothing, but at Your ¹bidding I will let down the nets."

6 And when they had done this, they enclosed a great quantity of fish; and their nets began to break;

7 and they signaled to their partners in the other boat, for them to come and help them. And they came, and filled both of the boats, so that they began to sink.

8 But when Simon Peter saw that, he fell down at Jesus' ¹feet, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, O Lord!" ^aKnowledge of Jesus' divine nature was revealed to Peter.

9 For amazement had seized him and all his companions because of the catch of fish which they had taken;

10 and so also ¹James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, “^aDo not fear, from now on you will be ^bcatching men.”

11 And when they had brought their boats to land, ^athey left everything and followed Him.

12 ^aAnd it came about that while He was in one of the cities, behold, there was a man full of leprosy; and when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face and implored Him, saying, “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean.”

13 And He stretched out His hand, and touched him, saying, “I am willing; be cleansed.” And immediately the leprosy left him.

14 And He ordered him to tell no one, “But go and show yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your cleansing, just as Moses commanded, for a testimony to them.”

15 But ^athe news about Him was spreading even farther, and great multitudes were gathering to hear Him and to be healed of their sicknesses.

16 But He Himself would often slip away ¹to the ²wilderness and ^apray.

17 And it came about ¹one day that He was teaching; and ^athere were some Pharisees and ^bteachers of the law sitting there, who had ^ccome from every village of Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem; and ^dthe power of the Lord was present for Him to perform healing.

18 ^aAnd behold, some men were carrying on a ¹bed a man who was paralyzed; and they were trying to bring him in, and to set him down in front of Him.

19 And not finding any way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on ^athe roof and let him down ^bthrough the tiles with his stretcher, right in the center, in front of Jesus.

20 And seeing their faith, He said, “¹Friend, ^ayour sins are forgiven you.”

21 And the scribes and the Pharisees ^abegan to reason, saying, “Who is this man who speaks blasphemies? ^bWho can forgive sins, but God alone?”

22 But Jesus, ^aaware of their reasonings, answered and said to them, “Why are you reasoning in your hearts?”

23 “Which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins have been forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Rise and walk?’

24 “But in order that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins”—He said to the ^aparalytic, “I say to you, rise, and take up your stretcher and go home.”

25 And at once he rose up before them, and took up what he had been lying on, and went home, ^aglorifying God.

26 And they were all seized with astonishment and began ^aglorifying God; and they were filled ^bwith fear, saying, “We have seen remarkable things today.”

27 ^aAnd after that He went out, and noticed a ¹tax-gatherer named ^bLevi, sitting in the tax office, and He said to him, “Follow Me.”

28 And he ^aleft everything behind, and rose up and began to follow Him.

29 And ^aLevi gave a big ¹reception for Him in his house; and there was a great crowd of ^btax-gatherers and other people who were reclining at table with them.

CHAPTER 7

^aWHEN He had completed all His discourse in the hearing of the people, ^bHe went to Capernaum.

2 And a certain centurion's slave, ¹who was highly regarded by him, was sick and about to die.

3 And when he heard about Jesus, ^ahe sent some ¹Jewish elders asking Him to come and ²save the life of his slave.

4 And when they had come to Jesus, they earnestly entreated Him, saying, "He is worthy for You to grant this to him;

5 for he loves our nation, and it was he who built us our synagogue."

6 Now Jesus started on His way with them; and when He was already not far from the house, the centurion sent friends, saying to Him, "Lord, do not trouble Yourself further, for I am not fit for You to come under my roof;

7 for this reason I did not even consider myself worthy to come to You, but just ¹say the word, and my ²servant will be healed.

8 "For indeed, I am a man under authority, with soldiers under me; and I say to this one, 'Go!' and he goes; and to another, 'Come!' and he comes; and to my slave, 'Do this!' and he does it."

9 And when Jesus heard this, He marveled at him, and turned and said to the multitude that was following Him, "I say to you, ^anot even in Israel have I found such great faith."

10 And when those who had been sent returned to the house, they found the slave in good health.

11 And it came about ¹soon afterwards, that He went to a city called Nain; and His disciples were going along with Him, ²accompanied by a large multitude.

12 Now as He approached the gate of the city, behold, ^{1a} a dead man was being carried out, the ²only son of his mother, and she was a widow; and a sizeable crowd from the city was with her.

13 And when ^athe Lord saw her, He felt compassion for her, and said to her, "Do not weep."

14 And He came up and touched the coffin; and the bearers came to a halt. And He said, "Young man, I say to you, arise!" ¹Behold, ²the son was alive.

15 And the ¹dead man sat up, and began to speak. And Jesus gave him back to his mother.

16 And ^afear gripped them all, and they began ^bglorifying God, saying, "A great ^cprophet has arisen among us!" and, "God has ¹visited His people!"

23 "And blessed is he ¹who keeps from stumbling over Me."

24 And when the messengers of John had left, He began to speak to the multitudes about John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind?

25 "¹But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft ²clothing? Behold, those who are splendidly clothed and live in luxury are found in royal palaces.

26 "But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and one who is more than a prophet.

27 "This is the one about whom it ¹is written,
^aBEHOLD, I SEND MY MESSENGER BEFORE YOUR FACE,
WHO WILL PREPARE YOUR WAY BEFORE YOU."

28 "I say to you, among those born of women, there is no one greater than John; yet he who is ¹least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

29 And when all the people and the ¹tax-gatherers heard this, they ²acknowledged ^aGod's justice, ^bhaving been baptized with ^cthe baptism of John.

30 But the Pharisees and the ^{1a}lawyers rejected God's purpose for themselves, not having been baptized by ²John.

31 "To what then shall I compare the men of this generation, and what are they like?

32 "They are like children who sit in the market place and call to one another; and they say, 'We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we sang a dirge, and you did not weep.'

33 "For John the Baptist has come ^aeating no bread and drinking no wine; and you say, 'He has a demon!'

34 "The Son of Man has come eating and drinking; and you say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man, and a ¹drunkard, a friend of ²tax-gatherers and sinners!'

35 "¹Yet wisdom ^ais vindicated by all her children."

36 Now one of the Pharisees was requesting Him to ¹dine with him. And He entered the Pharisee's house, and reclined at table.

37 ^aAnd behold, there was a woman in the city who was a ¹sinner; and when she learned that He was reclining at table in the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster vial of perfume.

38 and standing behind Him at His feet, weeping, she began to wet His feet with her tears, and kept wiping them with the hair of her head, and kissing His feet, and anointing them with the perfume.

39 Now when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he said ¹to himself, "If this man were ^{2a}a prophet He would know who and what sort of person this woman is who is touching Him, that she is a ³sinner."

40 And Jesus answered and said to him, "Simon, I have something to say to you." And he ¹replied, "Say it, Teacher."

41 "A certain money-lender had two debtors: one owed five hundred ^{1a}denarii, and the other fifty.

42 "When they ^awere unable to repay, he graciously forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him more?"

43 Simon answered and said, "I suppose the one whom he forgave more." And He said to him, "You have judged correctly."

44 And turning toward the woman, He said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered your house; you gave Me no water for My feet, but she has wet My feet with her tears, and wiped them with her hair.

45 "You gave Me no kiss; but she, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss My feet.

46 "You did not anoint My head with oil, but she anointed My feet with perfume.

47 "For this reason I say to you, her sins, which are many, have been forgiven, for she loved much, but he who is forgiven little, loves little."

48 And He said to her, "Your sins have been forgiven."

49 And those who were reclining at table with Him began to say to themselves, "Who is this man who even forgives sins?"

50 And He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

CHAPTER 8

AND it came about soon afterwards, that He began going about from one city and village to another, proclaiming and preaching the kingdom of God; and the twelve were with Him,

2 and also some women who had been healed of evil spirits and sicknesses: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out,

3 and Joanna the wife of Chuza, Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others who were contributing to their support out of their private means.

4 And when a great multitude were coming together, and those from the various cities were journeying to Him, He spoke by way of a parable:

5 "The sower went out to sow his seed; and as he sowed, some fell beside the road; and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the air devoured it.

6 "And other seed fell on rocky soil, and as soon as it grew up, it withered away, because it had no moisture.

7 "And other seed fell among the thorns; and the thorns grew up with it, and choked it out.

8 "And other seed fell into the good ground, and grew up, and produced a crop a hundred times as great." As He said these things, He would call out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

9 And His disciples began questioning Him as to what this parable might be.

10 And He said, "To you it is granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables; in order that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.

11 "Now the parable is this: the seed is the word of God.

12 "And those beside the road are those who have heard;

24 And they came to Him, and woke Him up, saying, "^aMaster, Master, we are perishing!" And being aroused, He ^brebuked the wind and the surging waves, and they stopped, and ¹it became calm.

25 And He said to them, "Where is your faith?" And they were fearful and amazed, saying to one another, "Who then is this, that He commands even the winds and the water, and they obey Him?"

26 ^aAnd they sailed to the country of the ¹Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee.

27 And when He had come out onto the land, a certain man from the city met Him who was possessed with demons; and who had not put on any clothing for a long time, and was not living in a house, but in the tombs.

28 And seeing Jesus, he cried out and fell before Him, and said in a loud voice, "^aWhat do I have to do with You, Jesus, Son of ^bthe Most High God? I beg You, do not torment me."

29 For He ¹had been commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had seized him many times; and he was bound with chains and shackles and kept under guard; and yet he would burst his fetters and be driven by the demon into the deserts.

30 And Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" And he said, "^aLegion"; for many demons had entered him.

CHAPTER 9

^aAND He called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all the demons, and to heal diseases.

2 And He sent them out to proclaim the kingdom of God, and to perform healing. ^bHerodship

3 And He said to them, "Take nothing for your journey, neither a staff, nor a bag, nor bread, nor money; and do not even have two tunics apiece.

4 "And whatever house you enter, stay there, and take your leave from there.

5 "And as for those who do not receive you, when you depart from that city, shake off the dust from your feet as a testimony against them."

6 And departing, they began going about among the villages, preaching the gospel, and healing everywhere.

7 "Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was happening; and he was greatly perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead,

8 and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others, that one of the prophets of old had risen again.

9 And Herod said, "I myself had John beheaded; but who is this man about whom I hear such things?" And he kept trying to see Him.

10 "And when the apostles returned, they gave an account to Him of all that they had done. And taking them with Him, He withdrew privately to a city called Bethsaida.

11 But the multitudes were aware of this and followed Him; and welcoming them, He began speaking to them about the kingdom of God and curing those who had need of healing.

12 And the day began to decline, and the twelve came and said to Him, "Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding villages and countryside and find lodging and get something to eat; for here we are in a desolate place."

13 But He said to them, "You give them something to eat!" And they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless perhaps we go and buy food for all these people."

14 (For there were about five thousand men). And He said to His disciples, "Have them recline to eat in groups of about fifty each."

15 And they did so, and had them all recline.

16 And He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, He blessed them, and broke them, and kept giving them to the disciples to set before the multitude.

17 And they all ate and were satisfied; and that which was left over to them of the broken pieces was picked up, twelve ^{1a}baskets full.

18 ^aAnd it came about that while He was ^bpraying alone, the disciples were with Him, and He questioned them, saying, "Who do the multitudes say that I am?"

19 And they answered and said, "John the Baptist; but others say, Elijah; and others, that one of the prophets of old has risen again."

20 And He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" And Peter answered and said, "^aThe ¹Christ of God."

21 But He ^{1a}warned them, and instructed them not to tell this to anyone,

22 ^asaying, "^bThe Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised up on the third day."

23 And He was saying to them all, "If anyone wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and ^atake up his cross daily, and follow Me.

24 "For ^awhoever wishes to save his ¹life shall lose it, but whoever loses his ¹life for My sake, he is the one who will save it.

25 "For what is a man profited if he gains the whole world, and ^aloses or forfeits himself?

26 "^aFor whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed when He comes in His glory, and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.

27 "But I tell you truly, ^athere are some of those standing here who shall not taste death until they see the kingdom of God."

28 ^aAnd some eight days after these sayings, it came about that He took along ^bPeter and John and James, and ^cwent up to the mountain ^dto pray.

29 And while He was ^apraying, the appearance of His face ^bbecame different, and His clothing became white and ¹gleaming.

30 And behold, two men were talking with Him; and they were Moses and Elijah, said, "You do not know of. For the Son of Man did not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them."

36 And when the voice ¹had spoken, Jesus was found alone. And ^athey kept silent, and reported to no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.

37 ^aAnd it came about on the next day, that when they had come down from the mountain, a great multitude met Him.

38 And behold, a man from the multitude shouted out, saying, "Teacher, I beg You to look at my son, for he is my ¹only boy, 39 and behold, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly screams, and it throws him into a convulsion with foaming at the mouth, and as it mauls him, it scarcely leaves him.

40 "And I begged Your disciples to cast it out, and they could not."

41 And Jesus answered and said, "O unbelieving and perverted generation, how long shall I be with you, and put up with you? Bring your son here."

42 And while he was still approaching, the demon ¹dashed him to the ground, and threw him into a violent convulsion. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.

43 And they were all amazed at the ^{1a}greatness of God.

^bBut while everyone was marveling at all that He was doing, He said to His disciples,

44 "Let these words sink into your ears; ^afor the Son of Man is going to be ¹delivered into the hands of men."

45 But ^athey ¹did not understand this statement, and it was concealed from them so that they might not perceive it; and they were afraid to ask Him about this statement.

46 ^aAnd an argument ¹arose among them as to which of them might be the greatest.

47 But Jesus, ^aknowing ¹what they were thinking in their heart, took a child and stood him by His side,

48 and said to them, "^aWhoever receives this child in My name receives Me; and whoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me; ^bfor he who is ¹least among you, this is the one who is great."

49 ^aAnd John answered and said, "^bMaster, we saw someone casting out demons in Your name; and we tried to hinder him because he does not follow along with us."

50 But Jesus said to him, "^aDo not hinder him; ^afor he who is not against you is ¹for you."

51 And it came about, when the days were approaching for ^aHis ¹ascension, that He resolutely set His face ^bto go to Jerusalem;

52 and He sent messengers on ahead of Him. And they went, and entered a village of the ^aSamaritans, to ¹make arrangements for Him.

53 And they did not receive Him, ^abecause ¹He was journeying with His face toward Jerusalem.

54 And when His disciples ^aJames and John saw this, they said, "Lord, do You want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?"

55 But He turned and rebuked them.¹

56 And they went on to another village.

57 And ^aas they were going along the road, ^bsomeone said to Him, "I will follow You wherever You go."

58 And Jesus said to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the ^aair ^{have} ²nests, but ^athe Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head."

59 And He said to another, "^aFollow Me." But he said, "¹Permit me first to go and bury my father."

60 But He said to him, "Allow the dead to bury their own dead; but as for you, go and ^aproclaim everywhere the kingdom of God."

61 And another also said, "I will follow You, Lord; but ^afirst permit me to say good-bye to those at home."

62 But Jesus said to him, "^aNo one, after putting his hand to the plow and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God."

CHAPTER 10

NOW after this ^athe Lord appointed ¹seventy ^bothers, and sent them ^ctwo and two ahead of Him to every city and place where He Himself was going to come.

2 And He was saying to them, "^aThe harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore beseech the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest.

3 "Go your ways; ^abehold, I send you out as lambs in the midst of wolves.

4 "^aCarry no purse, no ¹bag, no shoes; and greet no one on the way.

5 "And whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace ^{be} to this house.'

6 "And if a ¹man of peace is there, your peace will rest upon him; but if not, it will return to you.

7 "And stay in ¹that house, eating and drinking ²what they give you; for ^athe laborer is worthy of his wages. Do not keep moving from house to house.

8 "And whatever city you enter, and they receive you, ^aeat what is set before you;

9 and heal those in it who are sick, and say to them, "^aThe kingdom of God has come near to you.'

10 "But whatever city you enter and they do not receive you, go out into its streets and say, 11 "^aEven the dust of your city which clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you; yet ¹be sure of this, that ^bthe kingdom of God has come near.

17 And the ¹seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even ^athe demons are subject to us in Your name."

18 And He said to them, "I was watching ^aSatan fall from heaven like lightning.

19 "Behold, I have given you authority to ^atread upon serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall injure you.

20 "Nevertheless do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that ^ayour names are recorded in heaven."

21 At that very time He rejoiced greatly in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I ²praise Thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that Thou didst hide these things from the wise and intelligent and didst reveal them to babes. Yes, Father, for thus it was well-pleasing in Thy sight.

22 "All things have been handed over to Me by My Father, and no one knows who the Son is except the Father, and who the Father is except the Son, and anyone to whom the Son wills to reveal Him."

23 ^aAnd turning to the disciples, He said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things you see,

24 for I say to you, that many prophets and kings wished to see the things which you see, and did not see them, and to hear the things which you hear, and did not hear them."

25 ^aAnd behold, a certain ¹lawyer stood up and put Him to the test, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

26 And He said to him, "What is written in the Law? How ¹does it read to you?"

27 And he answered and said, "^aYOU SHALL LOVE THE LORD YOUR GOD WITH ALL YOUR HEART, AND WITH ALL YOUR SOUL, AND WITH ALL YOUR STRENGTH, AND WITH ALL YOUR MIND; AND YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF."

28 And He said to him, "You have answered correctly; ^aDO THIS, AND YOU WILL LIVE."

29 But wishing ^ato justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

30 Jesus replied and said, "A certain man was ^agoing down from Jerusalem to Jericho; and he fell among robbers, and they stripped him and ¹beat him, and went off leaving him half dead.

31 "And by chance a certain priest was going down on that road, and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 "And likewise a Levite also, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side.

33 "But a certain ^aSamaritan, who was on a journey, came upon him; and when he saw him, he felt compassion, 34 and came to him, and bandaged up his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them; and he put him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 "And on the next day he took out two ¹denarii and gave them to the innkeeper and said, 'Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, when I return, I will repay you.'

36 "Which of these three do you think proved to be a neighbor to the man who fell into the robbers' hands?"

37 And he said, "The one who showed mercy toward him." And Jesus said to him, "Go and do the same."

38 Now as they were traveling along, He entered a certain village; and a woman named Martha welcomed Him into her home.

39 And she had a sister called Mary, who moreover was listening to the Lord's word; seated at His feet.

40 But Martha was distracted with all her preparations; and she came up to Him, and said, "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to do all the serving alone? Then tell her to help me."

41 But the Lord answered and said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and bothered about so many things;

42 but only a few things are necessary, really only one: for Mary has chosen the good part, which shall not be taken away from her."

CHAPTER 11

AND it came about that while He was praying in a certain place, after He had finished, one of His disciples said to Him, "Lord, teach us to pray just as John also taught his disciples."

2 And He said to them, "When you pray, say:

1 Father, hallowed be Thy name!
2 Thy kingdom come! 3 Thy will be done!

4 Give us each day our daily bread.

5 And forgive us our sins,

6 for we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us.

7 And lead us not into temptation!"

8 And He said to them, "Suppose one of you shall have a friend, and shall go to him at midnight, and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves;

9 for a friend of mine has come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him';

10 and from inside he shall answer and say, 'Do not bother me; the door has already been shut and my children and I are in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.'

11 "I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence he will get up and give him as much as he needs.

12 "And I say to you, ask, and it shall be given to you; seek, and you shall find; knock, and it shall be opened to you.

13 "For everyone who asks receives; and he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks it shall be opened.

14 "Now suppose one of you fathers is asked by his son for a fish; he will not give him a snake instead of a fish, will he?

15 "Or if he is asked for an egg, he will not give him a scorpion, will he?

16 "If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more shall your Heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask Him?"

25 "And when it comes, it finds it swept and put in order.

26 "Then it goes and takes along seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they go in and live there; and the last state of that man becomes worse than the first."

27 And it came about while He said these things, one of the women in the crowd raised her voice, and said to Him, "^aBlessed is the womb that bore You, and the breasts at which You nursed."

28 But He said, "On the contrary, blessed are ^athose who hear the word of God, and observe it."

29 And as the crowds were increasing, He began to say, "^aThis generation is a wicked generation; it ^bseeks for a ¹sign, and yet no ¹sign shall be given to it but the ¹sign of Jonah.

30 "For just as Jonah became a ¹sign to the Ninevites, so shall the Son of Man be to this generation.

31 "The Queen of the South shall rise up with the men of this generation at the judgment and condemn them, because she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, something greater than Solomon is here.

32 "The men of Nineveh shall stand up with this generation at the judgment and condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, something greater than Jonah is here.

33 "No ^aone, after lighting a lamp, puts it away in a cellar, nor under a peck-measure, but on the lampstand, in order that those who enter may see the light.

34 "The lamp of your body is your eye; when your eye is clear, your whole body also is full of light; but when it is bad, your body also is full of darkness.

35 "Then watch out that the light in you may not be darkness.

36 "If therefore your whole body is full of light, with no dark part in it, it shall be wholly illumined, as when the lamp illumines you with its rays."

37 Now when He had spoken, a Pharisee asked Him to have lunch with him; and He went in, and reclined at table.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he was surprised that He had not first ceremonially washed before the meal.

39 But the Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and of the platter; but inside of you, you are full of robbery and wickedness.

40 "You foolish ones, did not He who made the outside make the inside also?

41 "But give that which is within as charity, and then all things are clean for you.

42 "But woe to you Pharisees! For you pay tithes of mint and rue and every kind of garden herb, and yet disregard justice and the love of God; but these are the things you should have done without neglecting the others.

43 "Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the front seats in the synagogues, and the respectful greetings in the market places.

44 "Woe to you! For you are like concealed tombs, and the people who walk over them are unaware of it."

45 And one of the lawyers said to Him in reply, "Teacher, when You say this, You insult us too."

46 But He said, "Woe to you lawyers as well! For you weigh men down with burdens hard to bear, while you yourselves will not even touch the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 "Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and it was your fathers who killed them.

48 "Consequently, you are witnesses and approve the deeds of your fathers; because it was they who killed them, and you build their tombs.

49 "For this reason also the Wisdom of God said, 'I will send to them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will kill and some they will persecute,

50 in order that the blood of all the prophets, shed since the foundation of the world, may be charged against this generation,

51 from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the House of God, yes, I tell you, it shall be charged against this generation.'

52 "Woe to you lawyers! For you have taken away the key of knowledge; you did not enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in you hindered."

UNDER these circumstances, after ¹so many thousands of the multitude had gathered together that they were stepping on one another, He began saying to His disciples first of all, ^a"Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

² ^a"But there is nothing covered up that will not be revealed, and hidden that will not be known.

³ "Accordingly whatever you have said in the dark shall be heard in the light, and what you have ¹whispered in the inner rooms shall be proclaimed upon ^athe housetops.

⁴ "And I say to you ^amy friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.

⁵ "But I will ¹warn you whom to fear: ^aFear the One who after He has killed has authority to cast into ^{2b}hell; yes, I tell you, fear Him!

⁶ "Are not ^afive sparrows sold for two ¹cents? And yet not one of them is forgotten before God.

⁷ ^a"Indeed the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Do not fear; you are of more value than many sparrows.

⁸ "And I say to you, everyone who confesses Me before men, the Son of Man shall confess him also ^abefore the angels of God;

⁹ but ^ahe who denies Me before men shall be denied ^bbefore the angels of God.

¹⁰ ^a"And everyone who will speak a word against the Son of Man, it shall be forgiven him; but he who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him.

¹¹ "And when they bring you before ^athe synagogues and the rulers and the authorities, do not become ^banxious about how or what you should speak in your defense, or what you should say;

¹² for ^athe Holy Spirit will teach you in that very hour what you ought to say."

¹³ And someone ¹in the crowd said to Him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the family inheritance with me."

¹⁴ But He said to him, ^a"Man, who appointed Me a judge or arbiter over you?"

¹⁵ And He said to them, ^a"Beware, and be on your guard against every form of greed; for not even when one has an abundance does his life consist of his possessions."

¹⁶ And He told them a parable, saying, "The land of a certain rich man was very productive.

¹⁷ "And he began reasoning to himself, saying, 'What shall I do, since I have no place to store my crops?'

¹⁸ "And he said, 'This is what I will do: I will tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.

¹⁹ 'And I will say to my soul, "Soul, ^ayou have many goods laid up for many years to come; take your ease, eat, drink and be merry.'"

²⁰ "But God said to him, ^a"You fool! This very night ^{1b}your soul is required of you; and ^cnow who will own what you have prepared?"

21 "So is the man who ^alays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

22 And He said to His disciples, "^aFor this reason I say to you, do not be anxious for your ¹life, as to what you shall eat; nor for your body, as to what you shall put on.

23 "For life is more than food, and the body than clothing.

24 "Consider the ^aravens, for they neither sow nor reap; and they have no storeroom nor ^bbarn; and yet God feeds them; how much more valuable you are than the birds!

25 "And which of you by being anxious can add a single ^{1a}cubit to his ²life's span?

26 "If then you cannot do even a very little thing, why are you anxious about other matters?

27 "Consider the lilies, how ¹they grow; they neither toil nor spin; but I tell you, even ^aSolomon in all his glory did not clothe himself like one of these.

28 "But if God so arrays the grass in the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, how much more will He clothe you, ^aO men of little faith!

29 "And do not seek what you shall eat, and what you shall drink, and do not ^akeep worrying.

30 "For ¹all these things the nations of the world eagerly seek; but your Father knows that you need these things.

31 "But seek for His kingdom, and ^athese things shall be added to you.

32 "^aDo not be afraid, ^blittle flock, for ^cyour Father has chosen gladly to give you the kingdom.

33 "^aSell your possessions and give to charity; make yourselves purses which do not wear out, ^ban unfailling treasure in heaven, where no thief comes near, nor moth destroys.

34 "For ^awhere your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

35 "^{1a}Be dressed in ^breadiness, and keep your lamps alight.

36 "And be like men who are waiting for their master when he returns from the wedding feast, so that they may immediately open the door to him when he comes and knocks.

37 "Blessed are those slaves whom the master shall find ^aon the alert when he comes; truly I say to you, that ^bhe will gird himself to serve, and have them recline at table, and will come up and wait on them.

38 "Whether he comes in the ^{1a}second watch, or even in the ^{2a}third, and finds them so, blessed are those slaves.

39 "^aAnd ^{1b}be sure of this, that if the head of the house had known at what hour the thief was coming, he would not have allowed his house to be ^{2b}broken into.

40 "^aYou too, be ready; for the Son of Man is coming at an hour that you do not ¹expect."

41 And Peter said, "Lord, are You addressing this parable to us, or ^ato everyone else as well?"

42 And ^athe Lord said, "^bWho then is the faithful and sensible ^csteward, whom his master will put in charge of his ¹servants, to give them their rations at the proper time?

43 "Blessed is that ^aslave whom his ¹master finds so doing when he comes.

44 "Truly I say to you, that he will put him in charge of all his possessions.

54 And He was also saying to the multitudes, "When you see a cloud rising in the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming,' and so it turns out.

CHAPTER 13

NOW on the same occasion there were some present who reported to Him about the Galileans, whose blood ^aPilate had ¹mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And He answered and said to them, "Do you suppose that these Galileans were greater sinners than all other Galileans, because they suffered this fate?

3 "I tell you, no, but, unless you ¹repent, you will all likewise perish.

4 "Or do you suppose that those eighteen on whom the tower in ^aSiloam fell and killed them, were worse ^{1b}culprits than all the men who live in Jerusalem?

5 "I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all likewise perish."

6 And He began telling this parable: "A certain man had ^aa fig tree which had been planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it, and did not find any.

7 "And he said to the vineyard-keeper, 'Behold, for three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree ¹without finding any. ^aCut it down! Why does it even use up the ground?'

8 "And he answered and said to him, 'Let it alone, sir, for this year too, until I dig around it and put in fertilizer;

9 and if it bears fruit next year, fine; but if not, cut it down.'"

10 And He was ^ateaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath.

11 And behold, there was a woman who for eighteen years had had ^aa sickness caused by a spirit; and she was bent double, and could not straighten up at all.

12 And when Jesus saw her, He called her over and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your sickness."

13 And He ^alaid His hands upon her; and immediately she was made erect again, and began ^bglorifying God.

14 And ^athe synagogue official, indignant because Jesus ^bhad healed on the Sabbath, began saying to the multitude in response, "'There are six days in which work should be done; therefore come during them and get healed, and not on the Sabbath day.'"

15 But ^athe Lord answered him and said, "You hypocrites, ^bdoes not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the stall, and lead him away to water him?

16 "And this woman, ^aa daughter of Abraham as she is, whom ^bSatan has bound for eighteen long years, should she not have been released from this bond on the Sabbath day?"

17 And as He said this, all his opponents were being humiliated; and ^athe entire multitude was rejoicing over all the glorious things being done by Him.

18 Therefore ^aHe was saying, "^bWhat is the kingdom of God like, and to what shall I compare it?

19 "It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and threw into his own garden; and it grew and became a tree; and the birds of the ¹air nested in its branches."

20 And again He said, "^aTo what shall I compare the kingdom of God?

21 "^aIt is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in ^bthree ¹pecks of meal, until it was all leavened."

22 And He was passing through from one city and village to another, teaching, and ^aproceeding on His way to Jerusalem.

23 And someone said to Him, "Lord, are there just a few who are being saved?" And He said to them,

24 "^aStrive to enter by the narrow door; for many, I tell you, will seek to enter and will not be able.¹

5 And He said to them, "Which one of you shall have a ¹son or an ox fall into a well, and will not immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?"

6 ^aAnd they could make no reply to this.

7 And He began speaking a parable to the invited guests when He noticed how ^athey had been picking out the places of honor at the table; saying to them,

NOW all the ^{1a}tax-gatherers and the ²sinners were coming near Him to listen to Him.

2 And both the Pharisees and the scribes ¹began to grumble, saying, "This man receives sinners and ^aeats with them."

3 And He told them this parable, saying,

4 "What man among you, if he has a hundred sheep and has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the ¹open pasture, and go after the one which is lost, until he finds it?"

5 "And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 "And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!'

7 "I tell you that in the same way, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous persons who need no repentance.

13 "And not many days later, the younger son gathered everything together and went on a journey into a distant country, and there he squandered his estate with loose living.

my father's hired men have more than enough bread, but I am dying here with hunger!

18 "I will get up and go to my father, and will say to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight;

19 "I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me as one of your hired men."

20 "And he got up and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him, and felt compassion for him, and ran and embraced him, and kissed him.

21 "And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and in your sight; I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

22 "But the father said to his slaves, 'Quickly bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet;

23 and bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat and be merry;

24 for this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again; he was lost, and has been found.' And they began to be merry.

25 "Now his older son was in the field, and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing.

26 "And he summoned one of the servants and began inquiring what these things might be.

27 "And he said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and sound.'

28 "But he became angry and was not willing to go in; and his father came out and began entreating him.

29 "But he answered and said to his father, 'Look! For so many years I have been serving you, and I have never neglected a command of yours; and yet you have never given me a kid, that I might be merry with my friends;

30 but when this son of yours came, who has devoured your wealth with harlots, you killed the fattened calf for him.'

31 "And he said to him, 'My child you have always been with me, and all that is mine is yours.

32 'But we had to be merry and rejoice, for this brother of yours was dead and has begun to live, and was lost and has been found.'

CHAPTER 16

NOW He was also saying to the disciples, "There was a certain rich man who had a steward, and this steward was reported to him as squandering his possessions.

2 "And he called him and said to him, 'What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your stewardship, for you can no longer be steward.'

3 "And the steward said to himself, 'What shall I do, since my master is taking the stewardship away from me? I am not strong enough to dig; I am ashamed to beg.

4 'I know what I shall do, so that when I am removed from the stewardship, they will receive me into their homes.'

7 "Then he said to another, 'And how much do you owe?' And he said, 'A hundred ¹measures of wheat.' He ^asaid to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.'

8 "And his ¹master praised the unrighteous steward because he had acted shrewdly; for the sons of ^athis age are more shrewd in relation to their own ²kind than the ^bsons of light.

9 "And I say to you, ^amake friends for yourselves by means of the ^{1b}Mammon of unrighteousness; that when it fails, ^cthey may receive you into the eternal dwellings.

10 "He who is faithful in a very little thing is faithful also in much; and he who is unrighteous in a very little thing is unrighteous also in much.

11 "If therefore you have not been faithful in the use of unrighteous ^{1a}Mammon, who will entrust the true riches to you?

13 "No ¹servant can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other, or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. 'You cannot serve God and ^{2b}Mammon.'"

14 Now the Pharisees, who were ^alovers of money, were listening to all these things, and they ^bwere scoffing at Him.

15 And He said to them, "You are those who ^ajustify yourselves ¹in the sight of men, but ^bGod knows your hearts; for that which is ²highly esteemed among men is detestable ³in the sight of God.

16 "The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John; since then ^bthe gospel of the kingdom of God is preached, and every one is forcing his way into it.

17 "But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one ¹stroke of a letter of the Law to fail.

18 "Every one who divorces his wife and marries another commits adultery; and he who marries one who is divorced from a husband commits adultery.

19 "Now there was a certain rich man, and he habitually dressed in purple and fine linen, gaily living in splendor every day.

20 "And a certain poor man named Lazarus ^awas laid at his gate, covered with sores, 21 and longing to be fed with the crumbs which were falling from the rich man's table; besides, even the dogs were coming and licking his sores.

22 "Now it came about that the poor man died and he was carried away by the angels to ^aAbraham's bosom; and the rich man also died and was buried.

23 "And in ^aHades ¹he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and ^asaw Abraham far away, and Lazarus in his bosom.

24 "And he cried out and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water and cool off my tongue; for I am in agony in ^bthis flame.

25 "But Abraham said, 'Child, remember that ^aduring your life you received your good things, and likewise Lazarus bad things; but now he is being comforted here, and you are in agony.

26 'And ¹besides all this, between us and you there is a great chasm fixed, in order that those who wish to come over from here to you may not be able, and that none may cross over from there to us.

27 "And he said, 'Then I beg you, Father, that you send him to my father's house —

28 for I have five brothers — that he may ^awarn them, lest they also come to this place of torment.'

29 "But Abraham ^asaid, 'They have ^aMoses and the Prophets; let them hear them.'

30 "But he said, 'No, ^aFather Abraham, but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent!'

31 "But he said to him, 'If they do not listen to Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone rises from the dead.' "

CHAPTER 17

AND He said to His disciples, "It is inevitable that ¹stumbling-blocks should come, but woe to him through whom they come!

2 "It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck and he were thrown into the sea, than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble.

3 "Be on your guard! ^aIf your brother sins, rebuke him; and if he repents, forgive him.

4 "And if he sins against you ^aseven times a day, and returns to you seven times, saying, 'I repent,' ¹forgive him."

5 And ^athe apostles said to ^bthe Lord, "Increase our faith!"

14 And when He saw them, He said to them, "^aGo and show yourselves to the priests." And it came about that as they were going, they were cleansed.

15 Now one of them, when he saw that he had been healed, turned back, ^aglorifying God with a loud voice, 16 and he fell on his face at His feet, giving thanks to Him. And he was a ^aSamaritan.

18 "^aWere none found who turned back to ^agive glory to God, except this foreigner?"

19 And He said to him, "Rise, and go your way; ^ayour faith ¹has made you well."

20 Now having been questioned by the Pharisees ^aas to when the kingdom of God was coming, He answered them and said, "The kingdom of God is not coming with ^{1b}signs to be observed;

21 nor will ^athey say, 'Look, here it is!' or, 'There it is!' For behold, the kingdom of God is ¹in your midst."

22 And He said to the disciples, "^aThe days shall come when you will long to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it.

23 "^aAnd they will say to you, 'Look there! Look here!' Do not go away, and do not run after them.

24 "^aFor just as the lightning, when it flashes out of one part ¹of the sky, shines to the other part ¹of the sky, so will the Son of Man be in His day.

25 "^aBut first He must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.

26 "^aAnd just as it happened ^{1b}in the days of Noah, so it shall be also in the days of the Son of Man:

27 they were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were being given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.

28 "¹It was the same as happened in ^athe days of Lot: they were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building;

29 but on the day that Lot went out from Sodom it rained fire and ¹brimstone from heaven and destroyed them all.

30 "It will be ¹just the same on the day that the Son of Man ^ais revealed.

31 "On that day, let not the one who is ^aon the housetop and whose goods are in the house go down to take them away; and likewise let not the one who is in the field turn back.

32 "^aRemember Lot's wife.

33 "^aWhoever seeks to keep his ¹life shall lose it, and whoever loses his life shall preserve it alive.

34 "I tell you, on that night there will be two men in one bed; one will be taken, and the other will be left.

35 "^aThere will be two women grinding at the same place; one will be taken, and the other will be left."

37 And answering they ^asaid to Him, "Where, Lord?"

CHAPTER 18

NOW He was telling them a parable to show that at all times they ^aought to pray and not to ^blose heart,

2 saying, "There was in a certain city a judge who did not fear God, and did not ^arespect man.

3 "And there was a widow in that city, and she kept coming to him, saying, 'Give me legal protection from my opponent.'

4 "And for a while he was unwilling; but afterward he said to himself, 'Even though I do not fear God nor ^arespect man,

5 yet ^abecause this widow bothers me, I will ^lgive her legal protection, lest by continually coming she ^{2b}wear me out.'"

6 And ^athe Lord said, "Hear what the unrighteous judge ^asaid;

7 now shall not God ^abring about justice for His ^belect, who cry to Him day and night, ^land will He ^cdelay long over them?

8 "I tell you that He will bring about justice for them speedily. However, when the Son of Man comes, ^awill He find ^lfaith on the earth?"

9 And He also told this parable to certain ones who ^atrusted in themselves that they were righteous, and ^bviewed others with contempt:

10 "Two men ^awent up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee, and the other a ^ltax-gatherer.

11 "The Pharisee ^astood and was praying thus to himself,
'God, I thank Thee that I am not like other people, swindlers, unjust, adulterers, or even like this ^ltax-gatherer.

12 'I ^afast twice a week; I ^bpay tithes of all that I get.'

13 "But the ^ltax-gatherer, ^astanding some distance away, order that He might touch them, but when the disciples saw it, they ^{began} rebuking them.

16 But Jesus called for them, saying, "Permit the children

God belongs to such as these.

17 "Truly I say to you, ^awhoever does not receive the king-

21 And he said, "All these things I have kept from my youth."

22 And when Jesus heard this, He said to him, "One thing you still lack; ^asell all that you possess, and distribute it to the poor, and you shall have ^btreasure in heaven; and come, follow Me."

23 But when he had heard these things, he became very sad; for he was extremely rich.

24 And Jesus looked at him and said, "^aHow hard it is for those who are wealthy to enter the kingdom of God!

25 "For ^ait is easier for a camel to ¹go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God."

26 And they who heard it said, "¹Then who can be saved?"

27 But He said, "^aThe things impossible with men are possible with God."

28 And Peter said, "Behold, ^awe have left ¹our own homes, and followed You."

29 And He said to them, "Truly I say to you, ^athere is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God,

30 who shall not receive many times as much at this time and in ^athe age to come, eternal life."

31 ^aAnd He took the twelve aside and said to them, "Behold, ^bwe are going up to Jerusalem, and ^call things which are written through the prophets about the Son of Man will be accomplished.

34 And ^athey understood none of these things, and this saying was hidden from them, and they did not comprehend the things that were said.

35 ^aAnd it came about that ^bas He was approaching Jericho, a certain blind man was sitting by the road, begging.

36 Now hearing a multitude going by, he began to inquire what this might be.

37 And they told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.

38 And he called out, saying, "Jesus, ^aSon of David, have mercy on me!"

39 And those who led the way were sternly telling him to be quiet; but he kept crying out all the more, "^aSon of David, have mercy on me!"

43 And immediately he received his sight, and began following Him, ^aglorifying God; and when ^ball the people saw it, they gave praise to God.

CHAPTER 19

1 ^aLuke 18:35

AND He ^aentered and was passing through Jericho.

2 And behold, there was a man called by the name of Zaccheus; and he was a chief ¹tax-gatherer, and he was rich.

3 And he was trying to see who Jesus was, and he was unable because of the crowd, for he was small in stature.

4 And he ran on ahead and climbed up into a ^{1a}sycamore tree in order to see Him, for He was about to pass through that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and said to him, "Zaccheus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house."

6 And he hurried and came down, and received Him ¹gladly.

7 And when they saw it, they all began to ¹grumble, saying, "He has gone ²to be the guest of a man who is a sinner."

8 And Zaccheus ¹stopped and said to ^athe Lord, "Behold, Lord, half of my possessions I will give to the poor, and if I have ^bdefrauded anyone of anything, I will give back ^cfour times as much."

9 And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he, too, is ^aa son of Abraham.

10 "For ^athe Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost."

11 And while they were listening to these things, He went on to tell a parable, because ^aHe was near Jerusalem, and they supposed that ^bthe kingdom of God was going to appear immediately.

12 He said therefore, "^aA certain nobleman went to a distant country to receive a kingdom for himself, and then return.

13 "And he called ten of his slaves, and gave them ten ¹minas, and said to them, 'Do business with this ²until I come back.'

14 "But his citizens hated him, and sent ^{1a} a delegation after him, saying, 'We do not want this man to reign over us.'

15 "And it came about that when he returned, after receiving the kingdom, he ordered that these slaves, to whom he had given the money, be called to him in order that he might know what business they had done.

CHAPTER 20 of Amos

^aAND it came about on one of the days while ^bHe was teaching the people in the temple and ^cpreaching the gospel, that the chief priests and the scribes with the elders ^dconfronted^e Him,

1 ^aand they spoke, saying to Him, “Tell us by ^bwhat authority You are doing these things, or who is the one who gave You this authority?”

2 ^aAnd He answered and said to them, “I shall also ask you a ¹question, and you tell Me:

3 “Was the baptism of John from heaven or from men?”

4 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He will say, ‘Why did you not believe him?’

5 “But if we say, ‘From men,’ all the people will stone us to death, for they are convinced that John was a ^aprophet.”

6 And they answered that they did not know where it came from.

7 And Jesus said to them, “Neither ¹will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

8 ^aAnd He began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard and rented it out to ¹vine-growers, and went on a journey for a long time.

9 “And at the harvest time he sent a slave to the vine-growers, in order that they might give him some of the produce of the vineyard; but the vine-growers beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

10 “And he proceeded to send another slave; and they beat him also and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty-handed.

11 “And he proceeded to send a third; and this one also they wounded and cast out.

12 “And the ¹owner of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will ^arespect him.’

13 “But when the vine-growers saw him, they reasoned with one another, saying, ‘This is the heir: let us kill him that the inheritance may be ours.’

14 “And they cast him out of the vineyard and killed him. What, therefore, will the ¹owner of the vineyard do to them?

15 “He will come and ^adestroy these vine-growers and will 17 But He looked at them and said, "What then is this that is written,

^a"THE STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS REJECTED,
THIS BECAME ^bTHE CHIEF CORNER-STONE?"

18 "Every one who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces; but on whomever it falls, it will scatter him like dust."

19 And the scribes and the chief priests ^atried to lay hands on Him that very hour, and they feared the people; for they understood that He spoke this parable against them.

20 ^aAnd they watched Him, and sent spies who ¹pretended to be righteous, in order ^bthat they might ²catch Him in some statement, so as to deliver Him up to the rule and the authority of the governor.

21 And they questioned Him, saying, "Teacher, we know that You speak and teach correctly, and You ¹are not partial to any, but teach the way of God in truth.

25 And He said to them, "Then ^arender to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

26 And they were unable to ^{1a}catch Him in a saying in the presence of the people; and marveling at His answer, they became silent.

27 ^aNow there came to Him some of the Sadducees (who say that there is no resurrection), 28 and they questioned Him, saying, "Teacher, Moses wrote us that ^aIF A MAN'S BROTHER DIES, HAVING A WIFE, AND HE IS CHILDLESS, HIS BROTHER SHOULD TAKE THE WIFE AND RAISE UP OFFSPRING TO HIS BROTHER.

29 "Now there were seven brothers; and the first took a wife, and died childless;

30 and the second

31 and the third took her; and in the same way the seven also ¹died, leaving no children.

32 "Finally the woman died also.

33 "In the resurrection therefore, which one's wife will the woman be? For the seven had her as wife."

34 And Jesus said to them, "The sons of ^athis age marry and are given in marriage,

35 but those who are considered worthy to attain to ^athat age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage;

36 for neither can they die any more, for they are like angels, and are ^asons of God, being sons of the resurrection.

37 "But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed, in ^athe passage about the burning bush, where he calls the Lord ^bTHE GOD OF ABRAHAM, AND THE GOD OF ISAAC, AND THE GOD OF JACOB.

38 "Now He is not the God of the dead, but of the living; for ^aall live to Him."

39 And some of the scribes answered and said, "Teacher, You have spoken well."

CHAPTER 22

^aNOW the Feast of Unleavened Bread, which is called the ^bPassover, was approaching.

2 And the chief priests and the scribes ^awere seeking how they might put Him to death; for they were afraid of the people.

3 ^aAnd ^bSatan entered into Judas who was called Iscariot, ¹belonging to the number of the twelve.

4 And he went away and discussed with the chief priests and ^aofficers how he might betray Him to them.

5 And they were delighted, and agreed to give him money.

6 And he consented, and began seeking a good opportunity to betray Him to them ¹apart from the multitude.

7 ^aThen came the day of Unleavened Bread on which ^bthe Passover lamb had to be sacrificed.

8 And He sent ^aPeter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat it."

9 And they said to Him, "Where do You want us to prepare it?"

10 And He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered the city, a man will meet you carrying a pitcher of water; follow him into the house that he enters.

11 "And you shall say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room in which I may eat the Passover with My disciples?'"

12 "And he will show you a large, furnished, upper room; prepare it there."

13 And they departed and found everything just as He had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

14 ^aAnd when the hour had come He reclined at table, and ^bthe apostles with Him.

15 And He said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer;

17 ^aAnd having taken a cup, ^bwhen He had given thanks, He said, "Take this and share it among yourselves;

25 ^aAnd He said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them; and those who have authority over them are called 'Benefactors.'

26 "But not so with you, ^abut let him who is the greatest among you become as ^bthe youngest, and the leader as the servant.

27 "For ^awho is greater, the one who reclines at table, or the one who serves? Is it not the one who reclines at table? But ^{b1} I am among you as the one who serves.

28 "And you are those who have stood by Me in My ^atrials; ^aand just as My Father has granted Me a ^akingdom, I grant you 30 that you may ^aeat and drink at My table in My ^bkingdom, and ^cyou will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

31 "Simon, Simon, behold, ^aSatan has ¹demande*d permission* to ^bsift you like wheat;

32 but I ^ahave prayed for you, that your faith may not fail; and you, when once you have turned again, ^bstrengthen your brothers."

33 ^aAnd he said to Him, "Lord, with You I am ready to go both to prison and to death!"

34 And He said, "I tell you, Peter, the cock will not crow today until you have denied three times that you know Me."

35 And He said to them, "^aWhen I sent you out without purse and bag and sandals, you did not lack anything, did you?" And they said, "No, nothing."

36 And He said to them, "But now, let him who has a purse take it along, likewise also a bag, and let him who has no sword sell his ¹robe and buy one.

37 "For I tell you, that this which is written must be fulfilled in Me, ^aAND HE WAS ¹CLASSED AMONG CRIMINALS; for ^bthat which refers to Me has its fulfillment."

38 And they said, "Lord, look, here are two ^aswords." And He said to them, "It is enough."

39 ^aAnd He came out and proceeded ^bas was His custom to ^cthe Mount of Olives; and the disciples also followed Him.

40 ^aAnd when He arrived at the place, He said to them, ^b"Pray that you may not enter into temptation."

41 And He withdrew from them about a stone's throw, and He ^aknelt down and began to pray,

42 saying, "Father, if Thou art willing, remove this ^acup from Me; ^byet not My will, but Thine be done."

43 ¹Now an ^aangel from heaven appeared to Him, strengthening Him.

44 And ^abeing in agony He was praying very fervently; and His sweat became like drops of blood, falling down upon the ground.

45 And when He rose from prayer, He came to His disciples and found them sleeping from sorrow,

46 and said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Rise and ^apray that you may not enter into temptation."

47 ^aWhile He was still speaking, behold, a multitude came, and the one called Judas, one of the twelve, was preceding them; and he approached Jesus to kiss Him.

48 But Jesus said to him, "Judas, are you betraying the Son of Man with a kiss?"

49 And when those who were around Him saw what was going to happen, they said, "Lord, shall we strike with the ^asword?"

50 And a certain one of them struck the slave of the high priest and cut off his right ear.

51 But Jesus answered and said, "¹Stop! No more of this." And He touched his ear and healed him.

52 And Jesus said to the chief priests and ^aofficers of the temple and elders who had come against Him, "Have you come out with swords and clubs ^bas against a robber?"

53 "While I was with you daily in the temple, you did not lay hands on Me; but ¹this hour and the power of darkness are yours."

54 ^aAnd having arrested Him, they led Him away, and brought Him to the house of the high priest; but ^bPeter was following at a distance.

55 ^aAnd after they had kindled a fire in the middle of ^bthe courtyard and had sat down together, Peter was sitting among them.

56 And a certain servant-girl, seeing him as he sat in the firelight, and looking intently at him, said, "This man was with Him too."

57 But he denied it, saying, "Woman, I do not know Him."

58 And a little later, ^aanother saw him and said, "You are one of them too!" But Peter said, "Man, I am not!"

59 And after about an hour had passed, another man be-gan to insist, saying, "Certainly this man also was with Him, ^afor he is a Galilean too."

60 But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are talking about." And immediately, while he was still speaking, a cock crowed.

61 And ^athe Lord turned and looked at Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how He had told him, "^bBefore a cock crows today, you will deny Me three times."

62 And he went outside and wept bitterly.

63 ^aAnd the men who were holding ¹Jesus in custody were mocking Him, and beating Him,

64 and they blindfolded Him and were asking Him, saying, "^aProphesy, who is the one who hit You?"

65 And they were saying many other things against Him, ^ablaspheming.

66 ^aAnd when it was day, ^bthe ¹Council of Elders of the people assembled, both chief priests and scribes, and they led Him away to their ^ccouncil chamber, saying,

67 "^aIf You are the ¹Christ, tell us." But He said to them, "If I tell you, you will not believe;

68 and if I ask a question, you will not answer.

69 "^aBut from now on ^bTHE SON OF MAN WILL BE SEATED AT THE RIGHT HAND OF THE POWER OF GOD."

70 And they all said, "Are You ^athe Son of God, then?" And He said to them, "¹Yes, I am."

71 And they said, "What further need do we have of testimony? For we have heard it ourselves from His own mouth."

THEN the whole body of them arose and ^abrought Him before Pilate.

2 ^aAnd they began to accuse Him, saying, "We found this man ^bmisleading our nation and ^cforbidding to pay taxes to Caesar, and saying that He Himself is ¹Christ, a King."

3 And Pilate asked Him, saying, "Are You the King of the Jews?" And He answered him and said, "^aIt is as you say."

4 And Pilate said to the chief priests and the multitudes, "^aI find no guilt in this man."

5 But they kept on insisting, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching all over Judea, ^astarting from Galilee, even as far as this place."

6 But when Pilate heard it, he asked whether the man were a Galilean.

7 And when he learned that He belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent Him to ^aHerod, who himself also was in Jerusalem ¹at that time.

8 Now Herod was very glad when he saw Jesus; for ^ahe had wanted to see Him for a long time, because he had been hearing about Him and was hoping to see some ¹sign performed by Him.

9 And he questioned Him ¹at some length; but ^aHe answered him nothing.

10 And the chief priests and the scribes were standing there, accusing Him vehemently.

11 And Herod with his soldiers, after treating Him with contempt and mocking Him, ^adressed Him in a gorgeous robe and sent Him back to Pilate.

12 Now ^aHerod and Pilate became friends with one another that very day; for before they had been at enmity with each other.

13 And Pilate summoned the chief priests and the ^arulers and the people,

14 and said to them, "You brought this man to me as one who ^aincites the people to rebellion, and behold, having examined Him before you, I ^bhave found no guilt in this man regarding the charges which you make against Him.

15 "No, nor has ^aHerod, for he sent Him back to us; and behold, nothing deserving death has been done by Him.

16 "I will therefore ^apunish Him and release Him."

17 (See marginal note.¹)

18 But they cried out all together, saying, "^aAway with this man, and release for us Barabbas!"

19 (He was one who had been thrown in prison for a certain insurrection made in the city, and for murder.)

20 And Pilate, wanting to release Jesus, addressed them again,

21 but they kept on calling out, saying, "Crucify, crucify Him!"

22 And he said to them the third time, "Why, what evil has this man done? I have found in Him no guilt demanding death; I will therefore ^apunish Him and release Him."

23 But they were insistent, with loud voices asking that He be crucified. And their voices began to prevail.

24 And Pilate pronounced sentence that their demand should be granted.

25 And he released the man they were asking for who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, but he turned Jesus over to their will.

26 ^aAnd when they led Him away, they laid hold of one Simon, a ^bCyrenian, coming in from the country, and placed on him the cross to carry behind Jesus.

27 And there were following Him a great multitude of the people, and of women who were ^{1a}mourning and lamenting Him.

28 But Jesus turning to them said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, stop weeping for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.

29 "For behold, the days are coming when they will say, "Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed."

30 "Then they will begin to ^aSAY TO THE MOUNTAINS, 'FALL ON US,' AND TO THE HILLS, 'COVER US.'

31 "For if they do these things in the green tree, what will happen in the dry?"

32 ^aAnd two others also, who were criminals, were being led away to be put to death with Him.

33 ^aAnd when they came to the place called ¹The Skull, there they crucified Him and the criminals, one on the right and the other on the left.

34 ¹But Jesus was saying, "^aFather forgive them; for they do not know what they are doing." ^bAND THEY CAST LOTS, DIVIDING UP HIS GARMENTS AMONG THEMSELVES.

35 And the people stood by, looking on. And even the ^arulers were sneering at Him, saying, "He saved others; ^blet Him save Himself if this is the ¹Christ of God, His Chosen One."

36 And the soldiers also mocked Him, coming up to Him, ^aoffering Him sour wine,

37 and saying, "^aIf You are the King of the Jews, save Yourself!"

38 Now there was also an inscription above Him, "^aTHIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS."

39 ^aAnd one of the criminals who were hanged there was ¹hurling abuse at Him, saying, "Are You not the ²Christ? ^bSave Yourself and us!"

40 But the other answered, and rebuking him said, "Do you not even fear God, since you are under the same sentence of condemnation?"

41 "And we indeed justly, for we are receiving ¹what we deserve for our deeds; but this man has done nothing wrong."

42 And he was saying, "Jesus, remember me when You come ¹in Your kingdom!"

43 And He said to him, "Truly I say to you, today you shall be with Me in ^aParadise."

44 ^aAnd it was now about ^{1b}the sixth hour, and darkness ²fell over the whole land until ³the ninth hour, 45 the sun ¹being obscured; and ^athe veil of the temple was torn ²in two.

46 And Jesus, ^acrying out with a loud voice, said, "Father, ^bINTO THY HANDS I COMMIT MY SPIRIT." And having said this, He breathed His last.

47 ^aNow when the centurion saw what had happened, he began ^bpraising God, saying, "Certainly this man was ¹innocent."

48 And all the multitudes who came together for this spectacle, when they observed what had happened, began to return, ^abeating their breasts.

49 ^aAnd all His acquaintances and ^athe women who accompanied Him from Galilee, were standing at a distance, seeing these things.

50 ^aAnd behold, a man named Joseph, who was a ^bmember of the Council, a good and righteous man,

51 (he had not consented to their plan and action) a man from Arimathea, a city of the Jews, who was ^awaiting for the kingdom of God,

52 this man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus.

53 And he took it down and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid Him in a tomb cut into the rock, where no one had ever lain.

54 And it was ^athe Preparation Day, and the Sabbath was about to ¹begin.

55 Now ^athe women who had come with Him out of Galilee followed after, and saw the tomb and how His body was laid.

56 And they returned and ^aprepared spices and perfumes.

And on the Sabbath they rested according to ^bthe commandment.

CHAPTER 24

^aBUT on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared.

2 And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb,

3 but when they entered, they did not find the body of ^athe Lord Jesus.

4 And it happened that while they were perplexed about this, behold, ^atwo men suddenly ^bstood near them in dazzling apparel;

5 and as the women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, "Why do you seek the living One among the dead?"

6 "He is not here, but He ^ahas ²risen. Remember how He spoke to you ^bwhile He was still in Galilee,

7 saying that ^athe Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again."

8 And ^athey remembered His words,

9 and returned from the tomb and reported all these things to the eleven and to all the rest.

10 Now they were ^aMary Magdalene and Joanna and Mary the mother of James; also the other women with them were telling these things to ^bthe apostles.

11 And these words appeared ¹to them as nonsense, and they ^awould not believe them.

12 [¹But Peter arose and ^aran to the tomb; ^astooping and looking in, he ^asaw the linen wrappings ²only; and he went away ^bto his home, marveling at that which had happened.]

13 And behold, ^atwo of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was ¹about seven miles from Jerusalem.

14 And they were conversing with each other about all these things which had taken place.

15 And it came about that while they were conversing and discussing, Jesus Himself approached, and began traveling with them.

16 But ^atheir eyes ¹were prevented from recognizing Him.

17 And He said to them, "What are these words that you are exchanging with one another as you are walking?" And they stood still, looking sad.

18 And one of them, named Cleopas, answered and said to Him, "1Are You the only one visiting Jerusalem and unaware of the things which have happened here in these days?"

19 And He said to them, "What things?" And they said to Him, "The things about ^aJesus the Nazarene, who was a ^bprophet mighty in deed and word in the sight of God and all the people, 20 and how the chief priests and our ^arulers delivered Him up to the sentence of death, and crucified Him.

21 "But we were hoping that it was He who was going to ^aredeem Israel. Indeed, besides all this, it is the third day since these things happened.

22 "But also some women among us ^aamazed us. ^aWhen they were at the tomb early in the morning,

23 and did not find His body, they came, saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that He was alive.

24 "And some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just exactly as the women also had said; but Him they did not see."

25 And He said to them, "O foolish men and slow of heart to believe in all that ^athe prophets have spoken!

26 "^aWas it not necessary for the ¹Christ to suffer these things and to enter into His glory?"

27 And beginning ¹with ^aMoses and ¹with all the ^bprophets, He explained to them the things concerning Himself in all the Scriptures.

28 And they approached the village where they were going, and ^aHe acted as though He would go farther.

29 And they urged Him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is getting toward evening, and the day ¹is now nearly over." And He went in to stay with them.

30 And it came about that when He had reclined at table with them, He took the bread and ^ablessed it, and breaking it, He began giving it to them.

31 And their ^aeyes were opened and they recognized Him; and He vanished from ¹their sight.

32 And they said to one another, "1Were not our hearts burning within us while He was speaking to us on the road, while He ^awas ²explaining the Scriptures to us?"

36 And while they were telling these things, ^aHe Himself stood in their midst.¹

37 But they were startled and frightened and thought that they were seeing ^aa spirit.

38 And He said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do doubts arise in your ¹hearts?"

THE GOSPEL

ACCORDING TO JOHN

The Prologue: The Word Made Flesh Announced by John.

IN the beginning was ^bthe Word, and the Word was ^awith God, and ^dthe Word was God.

² He was in the beginning with God.

³ All things came into being through Him; and apart from Him nothing came into being that has come into being.

⁴ In Him was life; and the life was ^bthe light of men.

⁵ And ^athe light shines in the darkness; and the darkness did not ¹comprehend it.

⁶ There ¹came a man, sent from God, whose name was ^aJohn.

⁷ He came ^afor a witness; that he might bear witness of the light, ^bthat all might believe through him.

⁸ He was not the light, but ^acame that he might bear witness of the light.

⁹ There was ^athe true light which, coming into the world, enlightens every man.

¹⁰ He was in the world; and ^athe world was made through Him, and the world did not know Him.

¹¹ He came to His ¹own; and those who were His own did not receive Him.

¹² But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become ^achildren of God, even ^bto those who believe in His name:

¹³ who were ¹born not of ^ablood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God;

¹⁴ And ^athe Word ^bbecame flesh; and ¹dwelt among us; and ^awe beheld His glory, glory as of ²the only begotten from the Father, full of ^agrace and ^atruth.

¹⁵ John ^abore witness of Him, and ^acried out, saying, "This was He of whom I said, ^bHe who comes after me ¹has a higher rank than I, ^cfor He existed before me."

¹⁶ For of His ^afullness we have all received, and ²grace upon grace;

¹⁷ For ^athe law was given through Moses; ^bgrace and ^atruth were realized through Jesus Christ.

¹⁸ No man has seen God at any time; ^bthe only begotten ¹God, who is ^ain the bosom of the Father, ^aHe has explained Him.

¹⁹ And this is ^athe witness of John, when ^bthe Jews sent to him priests and Levites ^cfrom Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

²⁰ And he confessed, and did not deny, and he confessed, "I am not ¹the Christ."

²¹ And they asked him, "What then? Are you ^aElijah?" And he ^asaid, "I am not." "Are you ^bthe Prophet?" And he answered, "No."

20 ^aThe Jews therefore said, "It took ^bforty-six years to build this ¹temple, and will You raise it up in three days?"

21 But He was speaking of ^{1a} the temple of His body.

22 When therefore He was raised from the dead, His ^adisciples ^bremembered that He said this; and they believed ^cthe Scripture, and the word which Jesus had spoken.

23 Now when He was in Jerusalem at ^athe Passover, during the feast, many believed in His name, ^bbeholding His signs which He was doing.

24 But Jesus, on His part, was not entrusting Himself to them, for He knew all men, 25 and because He did not need any one to bear witness concerning man ^afor He Himself knew what was in man.

CHAPTER 3

NOW there was a man of the Pharisees, named ^aNicodemus, ^aa ruler of the Jews;

2 this man came to Him by night, and said to Him, "^aRabbi, we know that You have come from God as a teacher; for no one can do these ^{1b}signs that You do unless ^cGod is with him."

3 Jesus answered and said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one ^ais born ^{1a}again, he cannot see ^bthe kingdom of God."

4 Nicodemus ^asaid to Him, "How can a man be born when he is old? He cannot enter a second time into his mother's womb and be born, can he?"

5 Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of ^awater and the Spirit, he cannot enter into ^bthe kingdom of God.

6 ^a"That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 "Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born ^{1a}again.'

8 ^a"The wind blows where it wishes and you hear the sound of it, but do not know where it comes from and where it is going; so is every one who is born of the Spirit."

9 Nicodemus answered and said to Him, "How can these things be?"

10 Jesus answered and said to him, “Are you ^athe teacher of Israel, and do not understand these things?”

11 “Truly, truly, I say to you, ^awe speak that which we know, and ^bbear witness of that which we have seen; and ^byou do not receive our witness.

12 “If I told you earthly things and you do not believe, how shall you believe if I tell you heavenly things?”

13 “And ^ano one has ascended into heaven, but ^bHe who descended from heaven, even ^cthe Son of Man.¹

14 “And as ^aMoses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must ^bthe Son of Man ^cbe lifted up;

15 that whoever ¹believes may ^ain Him have eternal life.

16 “For God so ^aloved the world, that He ^bgave His ¹only begotten Son, that whoever ^dbelieves in Him should not perish, but have eternal life.

17 “For God ^adid not send the Son into the world ^bto judge^d the world; but that the world should be saved through Him.

18 “^aHe who believes in Him is not judged; he who does not believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of ^bthe ¹only begotten Son of God.

19 “And this is the judgment, that ^athe light is come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for ^btheir deeds were evil.

20 “^aFor everyone who does evil hates the light, and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed.

21 “But he who ^apractices the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be manifested as having been wrought in God.”

22 After these things Jesus and His ^adisciples came into the land of Judaea; and there He was spending time with them, and ^bbaptizing.

23 And John also was baptizing in Aenon near Salim, because there was much ¹water there; and they were coming, and were being baptized.

24 For ^aJohn had not yet been thrown into prison.

25 There arose therefore a discussion on the part of John’s disciples with a Jew about ^apurification.

26 And they came to John, and said to him, “^aRabbi, He who was with you ^bbeyond the Jordan, to whom you ^chave borne witness, behold, He is baptizing, and all are coming to Him.”

27 John answered and said, “^aA man can receive nothing, unless it has been given him from heaven.

28 “You yourselves bear me witness, that I said, ‘^aI am not the ¹Christ’, but, ‘I have been sent before Him.’”

29 “He who has the bride is ^athe bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom’s voice. And so this ^bjoy of mine has been ⁿmade full.

30 “He must increase, but I must decrease.

31 “^aHe who comes from above is above all, he who is of the earth is from the earth and speaks ^bof the earth. ^aHe who comes from heaven is above all. ● 32 “What He has seen and heard, of that He ^abears witness; and ^ano man receives His witness.

33 “He who has received His witness ^ahas set his seal to this, that God is true.

CHAPTER 4

WHEN therefore ^athe Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and ^bbaptizing more disciples than John

2 (although ^aJesus Himself was not baptizing, but His ^bdisciples were),

3 He left ^aJudea, and departed ^bagain into Galilee.

4 And He had to pass through ^aSamaria.

5 So He ^acame to a city of ^aSamaria, called Sychar, near the parcel of ground that ^bJacob gave to his son Joseph;

6 and Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied from His journey, was sitting thus by the well. It was about the ¹sixth hour.

7 There ^acame a woman of Samaria to draw water. Jesus ^asaid to her, "Give Me a drink."

8 For His ^adisciples had gone away into ^bthe city to buy food.

9 The ^aSamaritan woman therefore ^asaid to Him, "How is it that You, being a Jew, ask me for a drink since I am a Samaritan woman?" (For ^bJews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

10 Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give Me a drink,' you would have asked Him, and He would have given you ^aliving water."

11 She ^asaid to Him, "Sir, You have nothing to draw with and the well is deep; where then do You get that ^aliving water?"

12 "You are not greater than our father Jacob, are You, who ^agave us the well, and drank of it himself, and his sons, and his cattle?"

13 Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks of this water shall thirst again;

14 but whoever drinks ¹of the water that I shall give him ^ashall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall become in him a well of water springing up to ^beternal life."

15 The woman ^asaid to Him, "Sir, ^agive me this water, so I will not be thirsty, nor come all the way here to draw."

16 He ^asaid to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."

17 The woman answered and said, "I have no husband." Jesus ^asaid to her, "You have well said, 'I have no husband';

18 for you have had five husbands; and the one whom you now have is not your husband; this you have said truly."

19 The woman ^asaid to Him, "Sir, I perceive that You are ^aa prophet.

20 "Our fathers worshiped in ^bthis mountain; and you people say that ^cin Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.”

20 ^cLuke 9:53

21 Jesus ^asaid to her, “Woman, believe Me, ^aan hour is coming when ^bneither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, shall you worship the Father.

21 ^aJohn 5:28; 16:2; John 4:23; 5:25; 16:32 ^bMal. 1:11; 1 Tim. 2:8

23 “But ^aan hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father ^bin spirit and truth; for such people the Father seeks to be His worshipers.

23 ^aJohn 5:25; 16:32; John 4:21; 5:28; 16:2 ^bPhil. 3:3

24 “God is ¹spirit; and those who worship Him must worship ^ain spirit and truth.”

24 ¹Or, God is a Spirit ^aPhil. 3:3

25 The woman ^asaid to Him, “I know that ^aMessiah is coming (^bHe who is called Christ); when that One comes, He will declare all things to us.”

25 ^aJohn 1:41 ^bMatt. 1:16

26 Jesus ^asaid to her, “^aI who speak to you am He.”

27 And at this point His ^adisciples ^bcame, and they marvelled that He had been speaking with a woman; yet no one said, “What do You seek?” or, “Why do You speak with her?”

26 ^aJohn 8:24; John 9:35-37

28 So the woman left her waterpot,⁴ and went into the city, and ^asaid to the men,

29 “Come, see a man ^awho told me all the things that I have done; ^bthis is not ¹the Christ, is it?”

29 ¹i.e., The Messiah ^aJohn 4:17f. ^bJohn 7:26, 31; Matt. 12:23

30 They went out of the city, and were coming to Him.

31 In the meanwhile the disciples were requesting Him, saying, “^aRabbi, eat.”

31 ^aMatt. 23:7

32 But He said to them, “I have food to eat that you do not know about.”

33 The ^adisciples therefore were saying to one another, “No one brought Him anything to eat, did he?”

33 ^aJohn 2:2

34 Jesus ^asaid to them, “My food is to ^ado the will of Him who sent Me, and to ^baccomplish His work.

38 “I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored; others have labored, and you have entered into their labor.”

39 And from ^athat city many of the Samaritans believed in Him because of the word of the woman who testified, “^bHe told me all the things that I have done.”

39 ^aJohn 4:5, 30 ^bJohn 4:29

40 So when the Samaritans came to Him, they were asking Him to stay with them; and He stayed there two days.

42 ^a1 John 4:14; 1 Tim. 4:10; Luke 2:11; Acts 5:31; 13:23

41 And many more believed because of His word;

42 and they were saying to the woman, “It is no longer because of what you said that we believe, for we have heard for ourselves and know that this One is indeed ^athe Savior of the world.”

45 So when He came to Galilee, the Galileans received Him, ^ahaving seen all the things that He did in Jerusalem at the feast; for they themselves also went to the feast.

46 He came therefore again to ^aCana of Galilee ^bwhere He had made the water wine. And there was a certain royal official, whose son was sick at ^cCapernaum.

47 When he heard that Jesus had come ^aout of Judea into Galilee, he went to Him, and was requesting Him to come down and heal his son; for he was at the point of death.

48 Jesus therefore said to him, "Unless you people see ¹signs and ^awonders, you simply will not believe."

49 The royal official ^asaid to Him, "Sir, come down before my child dies."

50 Jesus ^asaid to him, "Go your way; your son lives." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he started off.

51 And as he was now going down, his slaves met him, saying that his ¹son was living.

52 So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. They said therefore to him, "Yesterday at the ¹seventh hour the fever left him."

53 So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives;" and he himself believed, and ^ahis whole household.

54 This is again a ^asecond ¹sign that Jesus performed, when He had ^bcome out of Judea into Galilee.

CHAPTER 5

AFTER these things there was ¹a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now there is in Jerusalem by ^athe sheep gate a pool, which is called ^{bin} ¹Hebrew ²Bethesda, having five porticoes.

3 In these lay a multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, withered.

4 (See marginal note.)

5 And a certain man was there, who had been thirty-eight years in his sickness.

6 When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had already been a long time in that condition, He ^asaid to him, "Do you wish to get well?"

7 The sick man answered Him, "Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when ^athe water is stirred up, but while I am coming, another steps down before me."

8 Jesus ^asaid to him, "^aArise, take up your pallet, and walk."

9 And immediately the man became well, and took up his pallet and began to walk.

^aNow it was the Sabbath on that day.

10 Therefore ^athe Jews were saying to him who was cured, "It is the Sabbath, and ^{bit} it is not permissible for you to carry your pallet."

11 But he answered them, "He who made me well was the one who said to me, 'Take up your pallet and walk.'"

12 They asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, 'Take up your pallet, and walk?'"

"My Father Is Working."
Honor the Father and the Son.

13 But he who was healed did not know who it was; for Jesus had slipped away while there was a crowd in that place.

14 Afterward Jesus ^afound him in the temple, and said to him, "Behold, you have become well; do not ^asin any more, ^bso that nothing worse may befall you."

15 The man went away, and told ^athe Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.

16 And for this reason ^athe Jews were persecuting Jesus, because He was doing these things on the Sabbath.

17 But He answered them, "My Father is working until now, and I Myself am working."

18 For this cause therefore ^athe Jews ^bwere seeking all the more to kill Him, because He not only was breaking the Sabbath, but also was calling God His own Father, ^cmaking Himself equal with God.

19 Jesus therefore answered and was saying to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, ^athe Son can do nothing of Himself, unless it is something He sees the Father doing; for whatever the Father does, these things the Son also does in like manner.

20 ^aFor the Father loves the Son, and shows Him all things that He Himself is doing; and ^bgreater works than these will He show Him, that you may marvel.

21 "For just as the Father raises the dead and ^agives them life, even so ^bthe Son also gives life to whom He wishes.

22 "For not even the Father judges any one, but ^aHe has given all judgment to the Son, 23 in order that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. ^aHe who does not honor the Son does not honor the Father who sent Him.

24 "Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears My word, and ^abelieves Him who sent Me, has eternal life, and ^bdoes not come into judgment, but has ^cpassed out of death into life.

25 "Truly, truly, I say to you, ^aan hour is coming and now is, when ^bthe dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God; and those who ^chear shall live.

26 "For just as the Father has life in Himself, even so He ^agave to the Son also to have life in Himself;

27 and He gave Him authority to ^aexecute judgment, because He is ¹*the Son of Man*.

28 "Do not marvel at this; for ^aan hour is coming, in which ^ball who are in the tombs shall hear His voice, 29 and shall come forth; ^athose who did the good deeds, to a resurrection of life, those who committed the evil deeds to a resurrection of judgment.

30 ^aI can do nothing on My own initiative, as I hear, I judge; and ^bMy judgment is just; because I do not seek My own will but ^cthe will of Him who sent Me.

31 ^a"If I alone bear witness of Myself, My testimony is not ¹true.

32 "There is ^aanother who bears witness of Me; and I know that the testimony which He bears of Me is true.

33 "You have sent to John, and he ^ahas borne witness to the truth.

37 "And the Father who sent Me, ^aHe has borne witness of Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, nor seen His form.

CHAPTER 6

AFTER these things ^aJesus went away to the other side of ^bthe sea of Galilee (or ^cTiberias).

2 And a great multitude was following Him, because they were seeing the ^lsigns which He was performing on those who were sick.

3 And Jesus went up on ^athe mountain, and there He sat with His disciples.

4 Now ^athe Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand.

5 Jesus therefore lifting up His eyes, and seeing that a great multitude was coming to Him, ^asaid to ^aPhilip, "Where are we to buy bread, that these may eat?"

6 And this He was saying to ^atest him; for He Himself knew what He was intending to do.

7 ^aPhilip answered Him, "^bTwo hundred ^ldenarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, for every one to receive a little."

8 One of His ^adisciples, ^bAndrew, Simon Peter's brother, ^asaid to Him,

9 "There is a lad here, who has five barley loaves, and two ^afish; but what are these for so many people?"

10 Jesus said, "Have the people ^lsit down." Now there was

Five Thousand Fed. Make Him King.
Jesus Walks on the Sea.

^amuch grass in the place. So the men ¹sat down, in number about ^bfive thousand.

11 Jesus therefore took the loaves; and ^ahaving given thanks, He distributed to those who were seated; likewise also of the ^bfish as much as they wanted.

12 And when they were filled, He ^{*}said to His ^adisciples. "Gather up the left-over fragments that nothing may be lost."

13 And so they gathered them up, and filled twelve ^abaskets with fragments from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten.

14 When therefore the people saw the ¹sign which He had performed, they said, "This is of a truth the ^aProphet who is to come into the world."

15 Jesus therefore perceiving that they were ¹intending to come and take Him by force, ^ato make Him king, ^bwithdrew again to ^cthe mountain by Himself alone.

16 Now when evening came, His ^adisciples went down to the sea,

17 and after getting into a boat, they started to cross the sea ^ato Capernaum. And it had already become dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them.

18 And the sea began to be stirred up because a strong wind was blowing.

19 When therefore they had rowed about ¹three or four miles, they ^{*}beheld Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing near to the boat; and they were frightened.

20 But He ^{*}said to them, "It is I; ^{1a}do not be afraid."

21 They were willing therefore to receive Him into the boat; and immediately the boat was at the land to which they were going.

22 The next day ^athe multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other small boat there, except one, and that Jesus ^bhad not entered with His disciples into the boat, but that His disciples had gone away alone.

23 There came other small boats from ^aTiberias near to the place where they ate the bread after the ^bLord ^chad given thanks.

24 When the multitude therefore saw that Jesus was not there, nor His disciples, they themselves got into the small boats, and ^acame to Capernaum, seeking Jesus.

25 And when they found Him on the other side of the sea, they said to Him, "^aRabbi, when did You get here?"

26 Jesus answered them and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you ^aseek Me, not because you saw ^bsigns, but because you ate of the loaves, and were filled.

27 "Do not ^awork for the food which perishes, but for the food which endures to ^beternal life, which ^cthe Son of Man shall give to you, for on Him the Father, even God, ^dhas set His seal."

28 They said therefore to Him, "What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?"

29 Jesus answered and said to them, "This is ^athe work of God, that you believe in Him whom He ^bhas sent."

30 They said therefore to Him, "^aWhat then do You do for a ^bsign, that we may see, and believe You? What work do You perform?"

31 ^a“Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, ^bHE GAVE THEM BREAD OUT OF HEAVEN TO EAT.”

32 Jesus therefore said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, it is not Moses who has given you the bread out of heaven, but it is My Father who gives you the true bread out of heaven.

33 “For the bread of God is ¹that which ^acomes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world.”

34 They said therefore to Him, “Lord, evermore ^agive us this bread.”

35 Jesus said to them, “^aI am the bread of life; he who comes to Me shall not hunger, and he who believes in Me ^bshall never thirst.

36 “But ^aI said to you, that you have seen Me, and yet do not believe.

37 ^a“All that the Father gives Me shall come to Me; and the one who comes to Me I will certainly not cast out.

38 “For ^aI have come down from heaven, ^bnot to do My own will, but ^cthe will of Him who ^dsent Me.

39 “And this is the will of Him who sent Me, that of ^aall that He has given Me I ^blose nothing, but ^craise it up on the last day.

40 “For this is the will of My Father, that every one who ^abelieves the Son, and ^bbelieves in Him, may have eternal life; and I Myself will ^craise him up on the last day.”

41 ^aThe Jews therefore were grumbling about Him, because He said, “I am the bread that ^bcame down out of heaven.”

42 And they were saying, “^aIs not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother ^bwe know? How does He now say, ‘I have come down out of heaven?’”

43 Jesus answered and said to them, “Do not grumble among yourselves.

44 “No one can come to Me, unless the Father who sent Me ^adraws him; and I will ^braise him up on the last day.

45 “It is written ^ain the prophets, ^bAND THEY SHALL ALL BE ^cTAUGHT OF GOD.’ Every one who has heard and learned from the Father, comes to Me.

46 ^a“Not that any man has seen the Father, except the One who is from God, He has seen the Father.

47 “Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes ^ahas eternal life.

48 ^aI am the bread of life.

49 ^a“Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.

50 “This is the bread which ^acomes down out of heaven, so that one may eat of it and ^bnot die.

51 ^aI am the living bread that ^bcame down out of heaven; if any one eats of this bread, ^che shall live forever; and the bread also which I shall give ^dfor the life of the world is ^eMy flesh.”

52 ^aThe Jews therefore ^bbegan to argue with one another, saying, “How can this man give us His flesh to eat?”

53 Jesus therefore said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of ^athe Son of Man and drink His blood, you have no life in yourselves.

54 "He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood has eternal life; and I will raise him up on the last day.

55 "For My flesh is true food, and My blood is true drink.

56 "He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood abides in Me, and I in him.

57 "As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father; so he who eats Me, he also shall live because of Me.

58 "This is the bread which came down out of heaven; not as the fathers ate, and died; he who eats this bread shall live forever."

59 These things He said in the synagogue, as He taught in Capernaum.

60 Many therefore of His disciples, when they heard this said, "This is a difficult statement; who can listen to it?"

61 But Jesus, conscious that His disciples grumbled at this, said to them, "Does this cause you to stumble?"

62 "What then if you should behold the Son of Man ascending where He was before?"

63 "It is the Spirit who gives life; the flesh profits nothing; the words that I have spoken to you are spirit and are life.

64 "But there are some of you who do not believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who it was that would betray Him.

65 And He was saying, "For this reason I have said to you, that no one can come to Me, unless it has been granted him from the Father."

66 As a result of this many of His disciples withdrew, and were not walking with Him any more.

67 Jesus said therefore to the twelve, "You do not want to go away also, do you?"

68 Simon Peter answered Him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have words of eternal life.

69 "And we have believed and have come to know that You are the Holy One of God."

70 Jesus answered them, "Did I Myself not choose you, the twelve, and yet one of you is a devil?"

71 Now He meant Judas the son of Simon Iscariot, for he, one of the twelve, was going to betray Him.

CHAPTER 7

AND after these things Jesus was walking in Galilee; for He was unwilling to walk in Judea, because the Jews were seeking to kill Him.

2 Now the feast of the Jews, the Feast of Tabernacles, was at hand.

3 His brothers therefore said to Him, "Depart from here, and go into Judea, that Your disciples also may behold Your works which You are doing.

4 "For no one does anything in secret, when he himself seeks to be known publicly. If You do these things, show Yourself to the world."

5 For not even His brothers were believing in Him.

6 Jesus therefore said to them, "My time is not yet at hand; but your time is always opportune.

8 "Go up to the feast yourselves; I do not go up to this feast because ^aMy time has not yet fully come."

9 And having said these things to them, He stayed in Galilee.

10 But when His ^abrothers had gone up to the feast, then He Himself also went up, not publicly, but as it were, in secret.

11 ^aThe Jews therefore ^bwere seeking Him at the feast, and were saying, "Where is He?"

12 And there was much grumbling among the multitudes concerning Him; ^asome were saying, "He is a good man;" others were saying, "No, on the contrary, He leads the multitude astray."

13 Yct no one was speaking openly of Him for ^afear of the Jews.

14 But when it was now the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and began to ^ateach.

15 ^aThe Jews therefore were marveling, saying, "How has this man ^bbecome learned, having never been educated?"

16 Jesus therefore answered them, and said, "^aMy teaching is not Mine, but His who sent Me.

17 ^a"If any man is willing to do His will, he shall know of the teaching, whether it is of God, or whether I speak from Myself.

18 ^a"He who speaks from himself ^aseeks his own glory; but He who is seeking the glory of the one who sent Him, He is true, and there is no unrighteousness in Him.

19 ^a"Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you carries out the law? Why do you ^bseek to kill Me?"

20 The multitude answered, "^aYou have a ¹demon! Who seeks to kill You?"

21 Jesus answered and said to them, "I did ^aone ¹decd, and you all marvel.

22 ^a"On this account ^aMoses has given you circumcision (not because it is from Moses, but from ^bthe fathers); and on the Sabbath you circumcise a man.

23 ^a"If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath that the Law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with Me because I made an entire man well on the Sabbath?"

24 "Do not ^ajudge according to appearance, but ¹judge with righteous judgment."

25 Therefore some of the people of Jerusalem were saying, "Is this not the man whom they are seeking to kill?"

26 ^a"And look, He is speaking publicly, and they are saying nothing to Him. ^aThe rulers do not really know that this is ¹the Christ, do they?"

27 ^a"However ^awe know where this man is from; but whenever the Christ may come, no one knows where He is from."

28 Jesus therefore cried out in the temple, ^ateaching and saying, ^b"You both know Me, and know where I am from; and ^cI have not come of Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom you do not know.

29 ^a"I know Him; because ^bI am from Him, and ^cHe sent Me."

Plotting Against Jesus.
His Invitation. Officers Puzzled.

30 They ^awere seeking therefore to seize Him; and no man laid his hand on Him, because His ^bhour had not yet come.

31 But ^amany of the multitude believed in Him; and they were saying, "^bWhen ¹the Christ shall come, He will not perform more ^{2c}signs than those which this man has, will He?"

32 The Pharisees heard the multitude muttering these things about Him; and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent ^aofficers to ^bseize Him.

33 Jesus therefore said, "^aFor a little while longer I am with you, then ^{b1} I go to Him who sent Me.

34 "^aYou shall seek Me, and shall not find Me; and where I am, you cannot come."

35 ^aThe Jews therefore said to one another, "^bWhere does this man intend to go that we shall not find Him? He is not intending to go to ^cthe Dispersion among ^dthe Greeks, and teach the Greeks, is He?"

36 "What is this statement that He said, '^aYou will seek Me, and will not find Me; and where I am, you cannot come?'"

37 Now on ^athe last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "^bIf any man is thirsty, let him ¹come to Me and drink.

38 "He who believes in Me, ^aas the Scripture said, 'From ¹his innermost being shall flow rivers of ^bliving water.' "

39 But this He spoke ^aof the Spirit, whom those who believed in Him were to receive; ¹for ^bthe Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet ^cglorified.

40 Some of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, were saying, "This certainly is ^athe Prophet."

41 Others were saying, "This is ¹the Christ." Still others were saying, "^aSurely ¹the Christ is not going to come from Galilee, is He?"

42 "Has not the Scripture said that THE CHRIST COMES FROM ^aTHE OFFSPRING OF DAVID, AND FROM BETHLEHEM, the village where David was?"

43 So ^athere arose a division in the multitude because of Him.

44 And ^asome of them wanted to seize Him, but no one laid hands on Him.

45 The ^aofficers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why did you not bring Him?"

46 The ^aofficers answered, "^bNever did a man speak the way this man speaks."

47 The Pharisees therefore answered them, "^aYou have not also been led astray, have you?"

48 "^aNo one of ^bthe rulers or Pharisees has believed in Him, has he?"

49 "But this multitude which does not know the Law is accursed."

50 ^aNicodemus ^asaid to them (he who came to Him before, being one of them),

CHAPTER 8

BUT Jesus went to ^athe Mount of Olives.

2 And early in the morning He came again into the temple, and all the people were coming to Him; and ^aHe sat down and began to teach them.

3 And the scribes and the Pharisees ^abrought a woman caught in adultery, and having set her in the midst,

4 they ^asaid to Him, "Teacher, this woman has been caught in adultery, in the very act.

5 "Now in the Law ^aMoses commanded us to stone such women; what then do You say?"

6 And they were saying this, ^atesting Him, ^bin order that they might have grounds for accusing Him. But Jesus stooped down, and with His finger wrote on the ground.

7 But when they persisted in asking Him, ^aHe straightened up, and said to them, "^bHe who is without sin among you, let him be the ^cfirst to throw a stone at her."

8 And again He stooped down, and wrote on the ground.

9 And when they heard it, they began to go out one by one, beginning with the older ones, and He was left alone, and the woman, where she had been, in the midst.

10 And ^astraightening up, Jesus said to her, "Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?"

11 And she said, "No one, ¹Lord." And Jesus said, "^aNeither do I condemn you; go your way; from now on ^bsin no more."

12 Again therefore Jesus spoke to them, saying, "^aI am the light of the world; ^bhe who follows Me shall not walk in the darkness, but shall have the light of life."

13 The Pharisees therefore said to Him, "^aYou are bearing witness of Yourself; Your witness is not ¹true."

14 Jesus answered and said to them, "^aEven if I bear witness of Myself, My witness is true; for I know ^bwhere I came from, and where I am going; but ^cyou do not know where I come from, or where I am going.

15 "^aYou people judge ¹according to the flesh; ^bI am not judging any one.

16 "But even ^aif I do judge, My judgment is true; for I am not alone in it, but I and ¹He who sent Me.

17 "Even in ^ayour law it has been written, that the testimony of ^btwo men is ¹true.

18 "I am He who bears witness of Myself, and ^athe Father who sent Me bears witness of Me."

19 And so they were saying to Him, "Where is Your Father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither Me, nor My Father; ^aif you knew Me, you would know My Father also."

20 These words He spoke in ^athe treasury, as ^bHe taught in the temple; and no one seized Him, because ^cHis hour had not yet come.

21 He said therefore again to them, "I go away, and ^ayou shall seek Me, and ^bshall die in your sin; where I am going, you cannot come."

22 Therefore ^athe Jews were saying, "Surely He will not kill Himself, will He, since He says, ^b'Where I am going, you cannot come?'"

23 And He was saying to them, "^aYou are from below, I am from above; ^byou are of this world; ^cI am not of this world.

24 "I said therefore to you, that you ^ashall die in your sins; for unless you believe that ^bI am He, ^ayou shall die in your sins."

25 And so they were saying to Him, "Who are You?" Jesus said to them, "^aWhat have I been saying to you from the beginning?

26 "I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you, but ^aHe who sent Me is true; and ^bthe things which I heard from Him, these I speak to the world."

27 They did not realize that He had been speaking to them about the Father.

28 Jesus therefore said, "When you ^alift up the Son of Man, then you will know that ^bI am He, and ^cI do nothing on My own initiative, but I speak these things as the Father taught Me.

29 "And He who sent Me is with Me; ^aHe ^bhas not left Me alone, for ^bI always do the things that are pleasing to Him."

30 As He spoke these things, ^amany came to believe in Him.

31 Jesus therefore was saying to those Jews who had believed Him, "^aIf you abide in My word, then you are truly ^bdisciples of Mine;

32 and ^ayou shall know the truth, and ^bthe truth shall make you free."

33 They answered Him, "^aWe are Abraham's offspring, and have never yet been enslaved to any one; how is it that You say, 'You shall become free?'"

34 Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, ^aevery one who commits sin is the slave of sin.

35 "And ^athe slave does not remain in the house forever; ^bthe son does remain forever.

36 "If therefore the Son ^ashall make you free, you shall be free indeed.

37 "I know that you are ^aAbraham's offspring; yet ^byou seek to kill Me, because My word ^bhas no place in you.

38 "I speak the things which I have seen ^awith My Father; therefore you also do the things which you heard from ^ayour father."

39 They answered and said to Him, "Abraham is ^aour father." Jesus ^asaid to them, "^bIf you are Abraham's children, do the deeds of Abraham.

40 "But as it is, ^ayou are seeking to kill Me, a man who has ^btold you the truth, which I heard from God; this Abraham did not do.

41 "You are doing the deeds of ^ayour father." They said to Him, "We were not born of fornication; ^bwe have one Father, even God."

42 Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, ^ayou would love Me; ^bfor I proceeded forth and have come from

53 "Surely You ^aare not greater than our father Abraham, who died? The prophets died too; whom do You make Yourself out to be?"

54 Jesus answered, "If I glorify Myself, My glory is nothing; ^bit is My Father who glorifies Me, of whom you say, 'He is our God;'

58 Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly, I say to you, before Abraham ¹was born, ^{2a}I AM."

59 Therefore they ^apicked up stones to throw at Him; but Jesus ^{1b}hid Himself, ²and went out of the temple.

CHAPTER 9

AND as He passed by, He saw a man blind from birth.

2 And His disciples asked Him, saying, "a Rabbi, who sinned, ^bthis man, or his ^cparents, that he should be born blind?"

3 Jesus answered, "It was neither that this man sinned, nor his parents; but it was in order ^athat the works of God might be displayed in him.

The Blind Man Healed.
Pharisees Question Him.

John 9

6 When He had said this, He ^aspat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and applied the clay to his eyes,

6 ^aMark 7:33; 8:23

7 and said to him, "Go, wash in ^athe pool of Siloam" (which is translated, Sent). And so he went away and washed, and ^bcame back seeing.

7 ^aJohn 9:11; Luke 13:4
^bJohn 11:37

8 The neighbors therefore, and those who previously saw him as a beggar, were saying, "Is not this the one who used to ^asit and beg?"

9 Others were saying, "This is he," still others were saying, "No, but he is like him." He kept saying, "I am the one."

8 ^aActs 3:2, 10

10 Therefore they were saying to him, "How then were your eyes opened?"

11 He answered, "The man who is called Jesus made clay, and anointed my eyes, and said to me, 'Go to ^aSiloam, and wash'; so I went away and washed, and I received sight."

11 ^aJohn 9:7

12 And they said to him, "Where is He?" He ^asaid, "I do not know."

13 They ^abrought to the Pharisees him who was formerly blind.

14 ^aJohn 5:9

14 ^aNow it was a Sabbath on the day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.

15 ^aAgain therefore the Pharisees also were asking him how he received his sight. And he said to them, "He applied clay to my eyes, and I washed, and I see."

15 ^aJohn 9:10

16 Therefore some of the Pharisees were saying, "^aThis man is not from God, because he does not keep the Sabbath." But others were saying, "How can a man who is a sinner perform such ^bsigns?" And ^cthere was a division among them.

18 ^aThe Jews therefore did not believe it of him, that he had been blind, and had received sight, until they called the parents of the very one who had received his sight,

17 ^aJohn 9:15 ^bMatt. 21:11

19 and questioned them, saying, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? Then how does he now see?"

20 His parents answered then, and said, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;

18 ^aJohn 1:19; 9:22

21 but how he now sees, we do not know; or who opened his eyes, we do not know. Ask him; he is of age, he shall speak for himself."

22 His parents said this because they ^awere afraid of the Jews; for the Jews ^bhad already agreed, that if any one should confess Him to be ¹Christ, ^che should be put out of the synagogue.

28 And they reviled him, and said, "You are His disciple; but we are disciples of Moses.

29 "We know that God has spoken to Moses; but as for this man, we do not know where He is from."

30 The man answered and said to them, "Well, here is an amazing thing, that you do not know where He is from, and yet He opened my eyes.

31 "We know that God does not hear sinners; but if any one is God-fearing, and does His will, He hears him.

32 "Since the beginning of time it has never been heard that any one opened the eyes of a person born blind.

33 "If this man were not from God, He could do nothing."

34 They answered and said to him, "You were born entirely in sins, and are you teaching us?" And they put him out.

35 Jesus heard that they had put him out; and finding him, He said, "Do you believe in the Son of Man?"

36 He answered and said, "And who is He, Lord, that I may believe in Him?"

37 Jesus said to him, "You have both seen Him, and He is the one who is talking with you."

38 And he said, "Lord, I believe." And he worshiped Him.

39 And Jesus said, "For judgment I came into this world, that those who do not see may see; and that those who see may become blind."

40 Those of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these things, and said to Him, "We are not blind too, are we?"

41 Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, 'We see;' your sin remains.

CHAPTER 10

TRULY, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter by the door into the fold of the sheep, but climbs up some other way, he is a thief and a robber.

2 "But he who enters by the door is a shepherd of the sheep.

3 "To him the doorkeeper opens; and the sheep hear his voice; and he calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out.

4 "When he puts forth all his own, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice.

5 "And a stranger they simply will not follow, but will flee from him, because they do not know the voice of strangers."

6 This figure of speech Jesus spoke to them, but they did not understand what those things were which He had been saying to them.

7 Jesus therefore said to them again, "Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep;

8 "All who came before Me are thieves and robbers; but the sheep did not hear them.

9 "I am the door; if anyone enters through Me, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.

10 "The thief comes only to steal, and kill, and destroy; I came that they ^amight have life, and might ¹have it abundantly.

11 "^aI am the good shepherd; the good shepherd ^blays down His life for the sheep.

12 "He who is a hireling, and not a ^ashepherd, who is not the owner of the sheep, beholds the wolf coming, and leaves the sheep, and flees, and the wolf snatches them, and scatters them.

13 "He flees because he is a hireling, and is not concerned about the sheep.

14 "^aI am the good shepherd; and ^bI know My own, and My own know Me, 16 "And I have ^aother sheep, which are not of this fold; I must bring them also, and they shall hear My voice; and they shall become ^bone flock with ^cone Shepherd;

17 "For this reason the Father loves Me, because I ^alay down My life that I may take it again.

18 "^aNo one ¹has taken it away from Me, but I ^blay it down on My own initiative. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again. ^cThis commandment I received from My Father."

19 ^aThere arose a division again among the Jews because of these words.

20 And many of them were saying, "He ^ahas a demon, and ^bis insane; why do you listen to Him?"

21 Others were saying, "These are not the sayings of one ^ademon-possessed. ^bA demon cannot open the eyes of the blind, can he?"

22 At that time the Feast of the Dedication took place at Jerusalem;

23 it was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple in the portico of ^aSolomon.

24 ^aThe Jews therefore gathered around Him, and were saying to Him, "How long will You keep us in suspense? If You are ¹the Christ, tell us ^bplainly."

25 Jesus answered them, "^aI told you, and you do not believe; ^bthe works that I do in My Father's name, these bear witness of Me.

31 The Jews ^atook up stones again to stone Him.

32 Jesus answered them, "I showed you many good works from the Father; for which of them are you stoning Me?"

34 Jesus answered them, "Has it not been written in ^ayour ^bLaw, 'I said, you are gods'?"

35 "If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Scripture cannot be broken), 36 do you say of Him, whom the Father ^asanctified and ^bsent into the world, 'You are blaspheming'; because I said, 'I am the Son of God'?"

37 "If I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me;

38 but if I do them, though you do not believe Me, believe ^athe works; that you may ¹know and understand that ^bthe Father is in Me, and I in the Father."

39 Therefore ^athey were seeking again to seize Him; and ^bHe eluded their grasp.

40 And He went away ^aagain beyond the Jordan to the place where John was first baptizing; and He was staying there.

41 And many came to Him; and they were saying, "While John performed no ^asign, yet ^beverything John said about this man was true."

42 And ^amany believed in Him there.

CHAPTER 11

Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of ^aBethany, of the village of Mary and her sister ^bMartha.

2 And it was the Mary who ^aanointed ^bthe Lord with ointment, and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.

3 The sisters therefore sent to Him, saying, "Lord, behold, ^bhe whom You love is sick."

4 But when Jesus heard it, He said, "This sickness is not unto death, but for ^athe glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified by it."

5 Now Jesus loved ^aMartha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 When therefore He heard that he was sick, He stayed then two days longer in the place where He was.

7 Then after this He ^asaid to the disciples, "Let us go to Judca again."

8 The disciples ^asaid to Him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just now seeking ^bto stone You; and are You going there again?"

9 Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world.

10 "But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him."

11 This He said, and after that He ^asaid to them, "Our ^afriend Lazarus ^bhas fallen asleep; but I go, that I may awaken him out of sleep."

12 The disciples therefore said to Him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will ¹recover."

13 Now ^aJesus had spoken of his death; but they thought that He was speaking of ¹literal sleep.

14 Then Jesus therefore said to them plainly, "Lazarus is dead,

15 and I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe; but let us go to him."

Jesus Consoles Martha and Mary.

John 11

16 ^aThomas therefore, who is called ^bDidymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go, that we may die with Him."

17 So when Jesus came, He found that he had already been in the tomb ^afour days.

18 Now ^aBethany was near Jerusalem, about ¹two miles off;

19 and many of ^athe Jews had come to ^bMartha and Mary, ^cto console them concerning their brother.

20 ^aMartha therefore, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went to meet Him; but ^aMary still sat in the house.

21 Martha therefore said to Jesus, "^aLord, ^bif You had been here, my brother would not have died.

22 "Even now I know that ^awhatever You ask of God, God will give You."

23 Jesus ^{*}said to her, "Your brother shall rise again."

24 Martha ^{*}said to Him, "^aI know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day."

25 Jesus said to her, "^aI am the resurrection, and the life; he who believes in Me shall live even if he dies, 26 and everyone who lives and believes in Me ^ashall never die. Do you believe this?"

27 She ^{*}said to Him, "Yes, Lord; I have believed that You are ¹the Christ, the Son of God, even ²He who comes into the world."

28 And when she had said this, she ^awent away, and called Mary her sister, saying secretly, "^bThe Teacher is here, and is calling for you."

29 And when she heard it, she ^{*}arose quickly, and was coming to Him.

30 Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but ^awas still in the place where Martha met Him.

31 ^aThe Jews then who were with her in the house, and ^bconsoling her, when they saw that Mary rose up quickly and went out, followed her, supposing that she was going to the tomb to ¹weep there.

32 Therefore, when Mary came where Jesus was, she saw Him, and fell at His feet, saying to Him, "^aLord, ^bif You had been here, my brother would not have died."

33 When Jesus therefore saw her ¹weeping, and ^athe Jews who came with her, also ¹weeping, He ^bwas deeply moved in spirit, and ²was troubled,

34 and said, "Where have you laid him?" They ^{*}said to Him, "Lord, come and see."

35 Jesus ^awept.

36 And so ^athe Jews were saying, "Behold how He ¹loved him!"

37 But some of them said, "Could not this man, who ^aopened the eyes of him who was blind, ¹have kept this man also from dying?"

38 Jesus therefore again being deeply moved within, ^acame to the tomb. Now it was a ^acave, and a stone was lying against it.

39 Jesus ^{}said, "Remove the stone." Martha, the sister of the deceased, ^{}said to Him, "Lord, by this time ¹there will be a stench; for he has been dead ^afour days."

[40] Jesus ^asaid to her, "Did I not say to you, if you believe, you will see the glory of God?"

41 And so they removed the ^astone. And Jesus ^braised His eyes, and said, "Father, I thank Thee that Thou hearest Me.

42 "And I knew that Thou hearest Me always; but ^abecause of the people standing around I said it, that they may believe that ^bThou didst send Me."

43 And when He had said these things, He cried out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come forth."

44 He who had died came forth, ^abound hand and foot with wrappings; and ^bhis face was wrapped around with a cloth. Jesus ^asaid to them, "Unbind him, and let him go."

45 ^aMany therefore of the Jews, ^bwho had come to Mary and ^cbeheld what He had done, believed in Him.

46 But some of them went away to the ^aPharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done.

47 Therefore ^athe chief priests and the Pharisees ^bconvened a ^ccouncil, and were saying, "What are we doing? For this man is performing many ^dsigns.

48 "If we let Him go on like this, all men will believe in Him, and the Romans will come and take away both our ^aplace and our nation."

49 But a certain one of them, ^aCaiaphas, ^bwho was high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all,

50 nor do you take into account that ^ait is expedient for you that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation should not perish."

51 Now this he did not say ¹on his own initiative; but ^abeing high priest that year, he ^bprophesied that Jesus was going to die for the nation;

52 and not for the nation only, but that He might also ^agather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad.

53 So from that day on they ^aplanned together to kill Him.

54 Jesus therefore ^ano longer continued to walk publicly among the Jews, but went away from there to the country near the wilderness, into a city called ^bEphraim; and there He stayed with the disciples.

55 Now ^athe Passover of the Jews was at hand, and many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the Passover, ^bto purify themselves.

56 Therefore they ^awere seeking for Jesus, and were saying to one another, as they stood in the temple, "What do you think; that He will not come to the feast at all?"

57 Now ^athe chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if any one knew where He was, he should report it, that they might seize Him.

CHAPTER 12

^aJESUS therefore six days before ^bthe Passover, came to ^cBethany where Lazarus was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead.

2 So they made Him a supper there; and ^aMartha was servings; but Lazarus was one of those reclining at the table with Him.

3 ^aMary therefore took a pound of very costly, ^bgenuine spikenard-ointment, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped His feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment.

4 But ^aJudas Iscariot, one of His disciples, who was intending to ^bbetray Him, ^csaid,

5 "Why was this ointment not sold for ^bthree hundred denarii, and given to poor people?"

6 Now he said this, not because he was concerned about the poor, but because he was a thief, and as he ^ahad the money box, he used to pilfer ^bwhat was put into it.

7 Jesus therefore said, "Let her alone, in order that she may keep ^bit for ^athe day of My burial.

8 ^a"For the poor you always have with you; but you do not always have Me."

9 The ^agreat multitude therefore of the Jews learned that He was there; and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might also see Lazarus, ^bwhom He raised from the dead.

10 But the chief priests took counsel that they might put Lazarus to death also;

11 because ^aon account of him ^bmany of the Jews were going away, and were believing in Jesus.

12 On the next day ^athe great multitude who had come to ^bthe feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,

13 took the branches of the palm trees, and went out to meet Him, and began to cry out, ^a"Hosanna: BLESSED IS HE WHO COMES IN THE NAME OF THE LORD, even the ^bKing of Israel."

14 And Jesus, finding a young donkey, sat on it; as it is written,

15 ^a"FEAR NOT, DAUGHTER OF ZION; BEHOLD, YOUR KING COMES SITTING ON A DONKEY'S COLT."

16 ^aThese things His disciples did not understand at the first; but when Jesus ^bwas glorified, then they remembered that these things were written of Him, and that they had done these things to Him.

17 And so ^athe multitude who were with Him when He called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, were bearing Him witness.

18 ^aFor this cause also the multitude went and met Him, ^bbecause they heard that He had performed this ^csign.

19 The Pharisees therefore said to one another, "You see that you are not doing any good; look, the world has gone after Him."

20 Now there were certain ^aGreeks among those who were going up to worship at ^bthe feast;

21 these therefore came to ^aPhilip, who was from ^bBethsaida of Galilee, and began to ask him, saying, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus."

25 "He who loves his ¹life loses it; and he who ^bhates his ¹life in this world shall keep it to life eternal.

26 "If any one serves Me, let him follow Me; and ^awhere I am, there shall My servant also be; if any one serves Me, the Father will ^bhonor him.

27 "Now My soul has become troubled; and what shall I say, ^bFather, save Me from ^cthis hour? But for this purpose I came to this hour.

28 "Father, glorify Thy name." There came therefore a ^bvoice out of heaven: "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again."

29 The multitude therefore, who stood by and heard it, were saying that it had thundered; others were saying, "An angel has spoken to Him."

30 Jesus answered and said, "This voice has not come for My sake, but for your sakes.

31 "Now judgment is upon this world; now ^bthe ruler of this world shall be cast out.

32 "And I, if I ^abe lifted up from the earth, will ^bdraw all men to Myself."

33 But He was saying this ^ato indicate the kind of death by which He was to die.

34 The multitude therefore answered Him, "We have heard out of ^athe Law that ^bthe Christ is to remain forever; and how can You say, 'The ^cSon of Man must be ^dlifted up? Who is this ^cSon of Man?'"

35 Jesus therefore said to them, "For a little while longer ^bthe light is among you. ^cWalk while you have the light, that darkness may not overtake you; he who ^dwalks in the darkness does not know where he goes.

36 "While you have the light, ^abelieve in the light, in order that you may become ^bsons of light."

These things Jesus spoke, and He departed and ¹hid Himself from them.

37 But though He had performed so many ¹signs before them, yet they were not believing in Him;

38 that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke, "LORD, WHO HAS BELIEVED OUR REPORT? AND TO WHOM HAS THE ARM OF THE LORD BEEN REVEALED?"

39 For this cause they could not believe, for Isaiah said again,

40 "HE HAS BLINDED THEIR EYES, AND HE ^bHARDENED THEIR HEART; LEST THEY SEE WITH THEIR EYES, AND PERCEIVE WITH THEIR HEART, AND ¹BE CONVERTED, AND I HEAL THEM."

41 These things Isaiah said, because ^ahe saw His glory, and ^bhe spoke of Him.

42 Nevertheless ^amany even of ^bthe rulers believed in Him, but ^cbecause of the Pharisees they were not confessing Him, lest they should be ^dput out of the synagogues;

43 for they loved the approval of men rather than the approval of God.

44 And Jesus cried out and said, "He who believes in Me does not believe in Me, but in Him who sent Me.

CHAPTER 13

NOW before the feast of ^athe Passover, Jesus knowing that ^bHis hour had come that He should depart out of this world ^cto the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them ¹to the end.

2 And during supper, ^athe devil having already put into the heart of ^bJudas Iscariot, the son of Simon, to betray Him,

3 Jesus, ^aknowing that the Father had given all things into His hands, and that ^bHe had come forth from God, and was going back to God,

4 ^{}rose from supper, and ^{}laid aside His garments; and taking a towel, ^agirded Himself about.

5 Then He ^{*}poured water into the basin, and began to ^awash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded.

6 And so He ^{}came to Simon Peter. He ^{}said to Him, "Lord, do You wash my feet?"

7 Jesus answered and said to him, "What I do you do not realize now; but you shall understand ^ahereafter."

8 Peter ^{*}said to Him, "Never shall You wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "If I do not ^awash you, ^ayou have ^bno part with Me."

9 Simon Peter ^{*}said to Him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head."

10 Jesus ^{*}said to him, "He who has ^abathed needs only to wash his feet, but is completely clean; and ^ayou are clean, but not all ^bof you."

11 For ^aHe knew the one who was betraying Him; for this reason He said, "Not all of you are clean."

12 And so when He had washed their feet, and ^ataken His garments, and reclined at table again, He said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?"

13 "You call me ^aTeacher, and ^bLord; and ¹you are right; for so I am.

14 "If I then, ^athe Lord and the Teacher, washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.

15 "For I gave you ^aan example that you also should do as I did to you.

16 "Truly, truly, I say to you, ^aa slave is not greater than his master; neither ^bone who is sent greater than the one who sent him.

17 "If you know these things, you are ^ablessed if you do them.

18 "I do not speak of all of you. I know the ones I have ^bchosen; but it is ^cthat the Scripture may be fulfilled, ^dHE WHO EATS MY BREAD HAS LIFTED UP HIS HEEL AGAINST ME."

19 "From now on ^aI am telling you before it comes to pass, so that when it does occur, you may believe that ^bI am He.

20 "Truly, truly, I say to you, ^ahe who receives whomever I send receives Me; and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me."

21 When Jesus had said this, He ^abecame troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, that ^bone of you will ¹betray Me."

22 The disciples began looking at one another, ^aat a loss to know of which one He was speaking.

23 There was reclining on ^aJesus' breast one of His disciples, ^bwhom Jesus loved.

24 Simon Peter therefore ^{}gestured to him, and ^{}said to him. "Tell us who it is of whom He is speaking."

25 He, ^aleaning back thus on Jesus' breast, ^{*}said to Him, "Lord, who is it?"

26 Jesus therefore ^{}answered, "That is the one for whom I shall dip the morsel, and give it to him." So when He had dipped the morsel, He ^{}took and ^{*}gave it to Judas, ^athe son of Simon Iscariot.

27 And after the morsel, ^aSatan then ^bentered into him. Jesus therefore ^{*}said to him, "What you do, do quickly."

28 Now no one of those reclining at table knew for what purpose He had said this to him.

29 For some were supposing, because Judas ^ahad the money box, that Jesus was saying to him, "Buy the things we have need of ^bfor the feast"; or else, that he should ^cgive something to the poor.

30 And so after receiving the morsel he went out immediately; and ^ait was night.

31 When therefore he had gone out, Jesus ^{*}said, "Now ¹is ^athe Son of Man ^bglorified, and ^cGod ¹is glorified in Him;

32 ¹if God is glorified in Him, ^aGod will also glorify Him in Himself, and will glorify Him immediately.

33 "A little children, I am with you ^ba little while longer. ^cYou shall seek Me; and as I said to the Jews, 'Where I am going, you cannot come', now I say to you also.

34 "A ^anew commandment I give to you, ^bthat you love one another, ^ceven as I have loved you, that you also love one another.

35 "A By this all men will know that you are My disciples, if you have love for one another."

36 Simon Peter ^{*}said to Him, "Lord, where are You going?" Jesus answered, "A Where I go, you cannot follow Me now; but ^byou shall follow later."

37 Peter ^{*}said to Him, "Lord, why can I not follow You right now? ^aI will lay down my life for You."

38 Jesus ^{*}answered, "Will you lay down your life for Me?"

CHAPTER 15

23 ^aI AM the true vine, and My Father is the ^bvinedresser.

24 "Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit, He takes away; and every branch that bears fruit, He ¹prunes it, that it may bear more fruit.

25 "You are already clean because of the word which I have spoken to you.

26 "Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, so neither can you, unless you abide in Me.

27 "I am the vine, you are the branches; he who abides in Me, and I in him, he ^abears much fruit; for apart from Me you can do nothing.

28 "If anyone does not abide in Me, he is ^athrown away as a branch, and dries up; and they gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.

29 "If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, ^aask whatever you wish, and it shall be done for you.

30 "By this is My Father glorified, ¹that you bear much fruit, and so ^bprove to be My disciples.

31 "Just as ^athe Father has loved Me, I have also loved you; abide in My love.

32 "If you keep My commandments, you will abide in My love; just as ^bI have kept My Father's commandments, and abide in His love.

33 "A These things I have spoken to you, that My joy may be in you, and that your ^bjoy may be made full.

34 "This is ^aMy commandment, that you love one another, just as I have loved you.

13 “^aGreater love has no one than this, that one ^blay down his life for his friends.

14 “You are My ^afriends, if ^byou do what I command you.

15 “No longer do I call you slaves; for the slave does not know what his master is doing; but I have called you friends, for ^aall things that I have heard from My Father I have made known to you.

16 “^aYou did not choose Me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you should go and ^bbear fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that ^cwhatever you ask of the Father in My name, He may give to you.

17 “^aThis ^aI command you, that you love one another.

18 “^aIf the world hates you, ¹you know that it has hated Me before it hated you.

19 “^aIf you were of the world, the world would love its own; but because you are not of the world, but ^bI chose you out of the world, ^ctherefore the world hates you.

20 “Remember the word that I said to you, ‘^aA slave is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted Me, ^bthey will also persecute you; if they ^ckept My word, they will keep yours also.

21 “But all these things they will do to you ^afor My name’s sake, ^bbecause they do not know the One who sent Me.

22 “^aIf I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have ¹sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin.

23 “He who hates Me hates My Father also.

24 “^aIf I had not done among them ^bthe works which no one else did, they would not have ¹sin; but now they have both seen and hated Me and My Father as well.

25 “But they have done this in order that the word may be fulfilled that is written in their ^aLaw, “^bTHEY HATED ME WITHOUT A CAUSE.”

26 “When the ^{1a}Helper comes, ^bwhom I will send to you from the Father, that is ^cthe Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, ^dHe will bear witness of Me, away; for if I do not go away, the ^{1a}Helper shall not come to you; but if I go, ^{b1} will send Him to you.

8 "And He, when He comes, will convict the world concerning sin, and righteousness, and judgment;

9 concerning sin, ^abecause they do not believe in Me;

10 and concerning ^arighteousness, because ^{b1} go to the Father, and you no longer behold Me;

11 ^aand concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.

12 "I have many more things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now.

13 "But when He, ^athe Spirit of truth, comes, He will ^bguide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own initiative, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come.

14 "He shall ^aglorify Me; for He shall take of Mine, and shall disclose it to you.

15 "All things that the Father has are Mine; therefore I said, that He takes of Mine, and will disclose it to you.

16 "A little while, and ^byou will no longer behold Me; and again a little while, and ^cyou will see Me."

17 Some of His disciples therefore said to one another, "What is this thing He is telling us, ^aA little while, and you will not behold Me; and again a little while, and you will see Me; and, 'Because ^{b1} go to the Father?'"

18 And so they were saying, "What is this that He says, 'A little while'? We do not know what He is talking about."

19 ^aJesus knew that they wished to question Him, and He said to them, "Are you deliberating together about this, that I said, 'A little while, and you will not behold Me, and again a little while, and you will see Me?'"

20 "Truly, truly, I say to you, that ^ayou will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice; you will be sorrowful, but ^byour sorrow will be turned to joy.

21 "Whenever a woman is in travail she has sorrow, because her hour has come; but when she gives birth to the child, she remembers the anguish no more, for joy that a ¹child has been born into the world.

22 "Therefore ^ayou, too, now have sorrow; but ^{b1} will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one takes your joy away from you.

23 "And ^ain that day ^byou will ¹ask Me no question. Truly, truly, I say to you, ^cif you shall ask the Father for anything, He will give it to you in My name.

24 "Until now you have asked for nothing in My name; ask, and you will receive, that your ^bjoy may be made full.

25 "These things I have spoken to you in ^{1a}figurative language; ^ban hour is coming, when I will speak no more to you in ¹figurative language, but will tell you plainly of the Father.

26 "In that day ^byou will ask in My name; and I do not say to you that I will request the Father on your behalf;

27 for ^athe Father Himself loves you, because you have loved Me, and ^bhave believed that ^cI came forth from the Father.

28 "I came forth from the Father, and have come into the world; I am leaving the world again, and ^bgoing to the Father."

“I Have Overcome the World.”
The Farewell Prayer.

John 16, 17

29 His disciples ^asaid, “Lo, now You are speaking plainly, and are not using ^aa figure of speech.

30 “Now we know that You know all things, and have no need for anyone to question You; by this we ^abelieve that You ^bcame from God.”

31 Jesus answered them, “Do you now believe?”

32 “Behold, ^aan hour is coming, and has already come, for ^byou to be scattered, each to ^chis own home, and to leave Me alone; and yet ^dI am not alone, because the Father is with Me.

33 “These things I have spoken to you, that ^ain Me you may have peace. ^bIn the world you have tribulation, but ^ctake courage; ^dI have overcome the world.”

CHAPTER 17

THESE things Jesus spoke; and ^alifting up His eyes to heaven, He said, “Father, the hour has come; ^bglorify Thy Son, that the Son may glorify Thee,

2 even as ^aThou gavest Him authority over all ¹mankind, that ^bto ²all whom Thou hast given Him, ^cHe may give eternal life.

3 “And this is eternal life, that they may know Thee ^athe only true God, and Jesus Christ whom ^bThou hast sent.

4 “^aI glorified Thee on the earth, ^bhaving accomplished the work which Thou hast given Me to do.

5 “And now, ^aglorify Thou Me together with Thyself; Father, with the glory which I ^cever had ^bwith Thee before the world was.

6 “^aI manifested Thy name to the men whom ^bThou gavest Me out of the world; ^cThine they were, and Thou gavest them to Me, and they have ^dkept Thy word.

7 “Now they have come to know that everything Thou hast given Me is from Thee;

8 for ^athe words which ^aThou gavest Me ^bI have given to them; and they received them, and truly understood that ^cI came forth from Thee, and they believed that ^dThou didst send Me.

9 “^aI ask on their behalf; ^bI do not ask on behalf of the world, but of those whom ^cThou hast given Me; for ^dthey are Thine;

10 and ^aall things that are Mine are Thine, and Thine are Mine; and I have been glorified in them.

11 “And I am no more in the world; and yet ^athey themselves are in the world, and ^bI come to Thee. ^cHoly Father, keep them in Thy name, the name ^dwhich Thou hast given Me, that ^ethey may be one, even as We are.

12 “While I was with them, I was keeping them in Thy name ^awhich Thou hast given Me; and I guarded them, and ^bnot one of them perished but ^cthe son of perdition; that the ^dScripture might be fulfilled.

13 “But now ^aI come to Thee; and ^bthese things I speak in the world, that they may have My ^cjoy made full in themselves.

14 “I have given them Thy word; and ^athe world has hated them, because ^bthey are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

CHAPTER 18

WHEN Jesus had spoken these words, ^aHe went forth with His disciples over ^bthe ¹ravine of the Kidron, where there was ^aa garden, into which He Himself entered, and His disciples.

2 Now Judas also, who was ¹betraying Him, knew the place; for Jesus had ^aoften met there with His disciples.

3 ^aJudas then, having received ^bthe ¹Roman cohort, and ^cofficers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, ^acame there with lanterns and ^dtorches and weapons.

4 Jesus therefore, ^aknowing all the things that were coming upon Him, went forth, and ^asaid to them, "Whom do you seek?"

5 They answered Him, "Jesus the Nazarene." He ^asaid to them, "I am He." And Judas also who was betraying Him, was standing with them.

6 When therefore He said to them, "I am He", they drew back, and fell to the ground.

7 Again therefore He asked them, "Whom do you seek?" And they said, "Jesus the Nazarene."

8 Jesus answered, "I told you that I am He; if therefore you seek Me, let these go their way."

9 that the word might be fulfilled which He spoke, "Of those whom Thou hast given Me I lost not one."

10 Simon Peter therefore ^ahaving a sword, drew it, and struck the high priest's slave, and cut off his right ear; and the slave's name was Malchus.

11 Jesus therefore said to Peter, "Put the sword into the sheath; ^athe cup which the Father has given Me, shall I not drink it?"

12 ^aSo ^bthe Roman ¹cohort and the ²commander, and the ^bofficers of the Jews, arrested Jesus and bound Him, 13 and led Him to ^aAnnas first; for he was father-in-law of ^bCaiaphas, who was high priest that year.

14 Now Caiaphas was the one who had advised the Jews that ^ait was expedient for one man to die on behalf of the people.

15 And ^aSimon Peter was following Jesus, and so was another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered with Jesus into ^bthe court of the high priest, 16 ^abut Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the doorkeeper, and brought in Peter.

17 ^aThe slave-girl therefore who kept the door ^{*}said to Peter, "^bYou are not also one of this man's disciples, are you?" He ^{*}said, "I am not."

18 Now the slaves and the ^aofficers were standing there, ^bhaving made ^ca charcoal fire, for it was cold and they were warming themselves; and Peter also was with them, standing and warming himself.

19 ^aThe high priest therefore questioned Jesus about His disciples, and about His teaching.

20 Jesus answered him, "I ^ahave spoken openly to the world; I always ^btaught in ¹synagogues, and ^cin the temple, where all the Jews come together; and I spoke nothing in secret.

21 "Why do you question Me? Question those who have heard what I spoke to them; behold, these know what I said."

22 And when He had said this, one of the ^aofficers standing by ^bgave Jesus a blow, saying, "Is that the way You answer the high priest?"

23 ^aJesus answered him, "If I have spoken wrongly, bear witness of the wrong; but if rightly, why do you strike Me?"

24 ^aAnnas therefore sent Him bound to ^aCaiaphas the high priest.

25 ^aNow ^bSimon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, "^cYou are not also one of His disciples, are you?" He denied it, and said, "I am not."

26 One of the slaves of the high priest, being a relative of the one ^awhose ear Peter cut off, ^{*}said, "Did I not see you in ^bthe garden with Him?"

27 Peter therefore denied it again; and immediately ^aa cock crowed.

28 ^aThey ^{*}led Jesus therefore from ^bCaiaphas into ^cthe ¹Prætorium; and it was early; and they themselves did not enter into ^cthe ¹Prætorium in order that ^dthey might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover.

29 ^aPilate therefore went out to them, and ^{*}said, "What accusation do you bring against this Man?"

30 They answered and said to him, "If this Man were not an evildoer, we would not have delivered Him up to you."

31 Pilate therefore said to them, "Take Him yourselves, and judge Him according to your law." The Jews said to him, "We are not permitted to put any one to death,"

32 that ^athe word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which He spoke, signifying by what kind of death He was about to die.

33 Pilate therefore ^aentered again into the Praetorium, and summoned Jesus, and said to Him, "^bYou are the King of the Jews?"

34 Jesus answered, "Are you saying this ¹on your own initiative, or did others tell you about Me?"

35 Pilate answered, "I am not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered You up to me; what have You done?"

36 Jesus answered, "^aMy kingdom ¹is not of this world. If My kingdom were of this world, then My servants would be fighting, that I might not be delivered up to the Jews; but as it is My kingdom is not ²of this realm."

37 Pilate therefore said to Him, "So You are a king?" Jesus answered, "^aYou say correctly that I am a king. For this I have been born, and for this I have come into the world, ^bto bear witness to the truth. ^cEvery one who is of the truth hears My voice."

38 Pilate ^asaid to Him, "What is truth?"

And when he had said this, he ^awent out again to the Jews, and ^asaid to them, "^bI find no guilt in Him.

39 "^aBut you have a custom, that I should release someone ¹for you at the Passover; do you wish then that I release ¹for you the King of the Jews?"

40 Therefore they cried out again, saying, "^aNot this Man, but Barabbas." Now Barabbas was a robber.

CHAPTER 19

THEN Pilate therefore took Jesus, and ^{1a}scourged Him.

2 ^aAnd the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and arrayed Him in a purple robe;

3 and they began to come up to Him, and say, "^aHail, King of the Jews!" and to ^bgive Him blows in the face.

4 And Pilate ^acame out again, and ^asaid to them, "Behold, I am bringing Him out to you, that you may know that ^{b1}find no guilt in Him."

5 Jesus therefore came out, ^awearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate ^asaid to them, "Behold, the Man!"

6 When therefore the chief priests and the ^aofficers saw Him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify, crucify!" Pilate ^asaid to them, "Take Him yourselves, and crucify Him, for ^{b1}find no guilt in Him."

7 The Jews answered him, "^aWe have a law, and by that law He ought to die because He ^bmade Himself out to be the Son of God."

8 When Pilate therefore heard this statement, he was the more afraid;

9 and he ^aentered into the ¹Praetorium again, and ^asaid to Jesus, "Where are You from?" But ^bJesus gave him no answer.

10 Pilate therefore ^asaid to Him, "You do not speak to me? Do You not know that I have authority to release You, and I have authority to crucify You?"

11 Jesus answered, "^aYou would have no authority ¹over Me, unless it had been given you from above; for this reason ^bhe who delivered Me up to you has the greater sin."

12 As a result of this Pilate ¹made efforts to release Him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "^aIf you release this Man, you are no friend of Caesar; every one who makes himself out to be a king ²opposes Caesar."

13 When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and ^asat down on the judgment-seat at a place called ¹The Pavement, but ^bin ²Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 Now it was ^athe day of preparation for the Passover; it was about the ^bsixth hour. And he ^asaid to the Jews, "Behold, ^cyour King!"

15 They therefore cried out, "^aAway with Him, away with Him, crucify Him!" Pilate ^asaid to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar."

16 And so he then ^adelivered Him up to them to be crucified.

17 ^aThey took Jesus therefore; and He went out, ^bbearing His own cross, to the place called ^cthe Place of a Skull, which is called ^din ²Hebrew Golgotha;

18 where they crucified Him, and with Him ^atwo other men, one on either side, and Jesus in between.

19 And Pilate wrote an inscription also, and put it on the cross. And it was written, "^aJESUS THE NAZARENE, ^bTHE KING OF THE JEWS."

20 Therefore this inscription many of the Jews read, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written ^ain ¹Hebrew, Latin, and in Greek.

21 And so the chief priests of the Jews were saying to Pilate, "Do not write, ^aThe King of the Jews; but that He said, 'I am ^aKing of the Jews.'"

22 Pilate answered, "^aWhat I have written I have written."

23 ^aThe soldiers therefore, when they had crucified Jesus, took His outer garments and made ^bfour parts, a part to every soldier and also the ¹tunic; now the tunic was seamless, woven ²in one piece.

24 They said therefore to one another, "^aLet us not tear it, but cast ¹lots for it, to decide whose it shall be;" ^bthat the Scripture might be fulfilled, "THEY ^cDIVIDED MY OUTER GARMENTS AMONG THEM, AND FOR MY CLOTHING THEY CAST ¹LOTS."

25 Therefore the soldiers did these things. ^aBut there were standing by the cross of Jesus ^bHis mother, and His mother's sister, Mary the wife of ^cClopas, and ^dMary Magdalene.

26 When Jesus therefore saw His mother, and ^athe disciple whom He loved standing nearby, He ^asaid to His mother, "^bWoman, behold, your son!"

27 Then He ^asaid to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her into ^ahis own household.

28 After this, Jesus, ^aknowing that all things had already been accomplished, ^bin order that the Scripture might be fulfilled, ^asaid, "cI am thirsty."

29 A jar full of sour wine was standing there; so ^athey put a sponge full of the sour wine upon a branch of hyssop, and brought it up to His mouth.

30 When Jesus therefore had received the sour wine, He said, "aIt is finished!" And He bowed His head, and ^bgave up His spirit.

31 The Jews therefore, because it was ^athe day of preparation, so that ^bthe bodies should not remain on the cross on the Sabbath (¹for that Sabbath was a high day), asked Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

32 The soldiers therefore came, and broke the legs of the first man, and of the other man who was ^acrucified with Him;

33 but coming to Jesus, when they saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs;

34 but one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and immediately there came out ^ablood and water.

35 And he who has seen has ^aborne witness, and his witness is true; and he knows that he is telling the truth, so that you also may believe.

36 For these things came to pass, ^athat the Scripture might be fulfilled, "bNOT A BONE OF HIM SHALL BE ¹BROKEN."

37 And again another Scripture says, "aTHEY SHALL LOOK ON HIM WHOM THEY PIERCED."

38 ^aAnd after these things Joseph of Arimathea, being a disciple of Jesus, but a ^bsecret one, for ^cfear of the Jews, asked Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus; and Pilate granted permission. He came therefore, and took away His body.

39 And ^aNicodemus came also, who had first come to Him by night; ^bbringing a ¹mixture of ^cmyrrh and aloes, about a ^dhundred ²pounds weight.

40 And so they took the body of Jesus, and ^abound it in ^blinen wrappings with the spices, as is the burial custom of the Jews.

41 Now in the place where He was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a ^anew tomb, ^bin which no one had yet been laid.

42 Therefore on account of the Jewish day of ^apreparation, because the tomb was ^bnearby, they laid Jesus there.

CHAPTER 20

^a NOW on the first day of the week ^bMary Magdalene ^acame early to the tomb, while it ^awas still dark, and ^asaw ^cthe stone already taken away from the tomb.

2 And so she ^aran and ^acame to Simon Peter, and to the other ^adisciple whom Jesus ¹loved, and ^asaid to them, "bThey have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid Him."

3 ^aPeter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they were going to the tomb.

4 And the two were running together; and the other disciple ran ahead faster than Peter, and came to the tomb first;

5 and ^astooping and looking in, he ^{*}saw the ^blinen wrappings lying there; but he did not go in.

6 Simon Peter therefore also ^{}came, following him, and entered the tomb; and he ^{}beheld the linen wrappings lying there,

7 and ^athe face-cloth, which had been on His head, not lying with the ^blinen wrappings, but rolled up in a place by itself.

8 Then entered in therefore the other disciple also, who ^ahad first come to the tomb, and he saw, and believed.

9 For as yet ^athey did not understand the Scripture, ^bthat He must rise again from the dead.

10 So the disciples went away again ^ato their own homes.

11 ^aBut Mary was standing outside the tomb weeping; and so, as she wept, she ^bstooped and looked into the tomb;

12 and she ^{*}beheld ^atwo angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had been lying.

13 And they ^{}said to her, “^aWoman, why are you weeping?” She ^{}said to them, “Because ^bthey have taken away my Lord, and I do not know where they have laid Him.”

14 When she had said this, she turned around, and ^{*}beheld Jesus standing there, and ^bdid not know that it was Jesus.

15 Jesus ^{}said to her, “^aWoman, why are you weeping? Whom are you seeking?” Supposing Him to be the gardener, she ^{}said to Him, “Sir, if you have carried Him away, tell me where you have laid Him, and I will take Him away.”

16 Jesus ^{}said to her, “Mary!” She ^{}turned and ^{*}said to Him ^ain ¹Hebrew, “^bRabboni,” (which means, Teacher.)

17 Jesus ^{*}said to her, “Stop clinging to Me; for I have not yet ascended to the Father; but go to ^aMy brethren, and say to them, ‘I ^bascend to My Father and your Father, and My God and your God.’”

18 ^aMary Magdalene ^{*}came, ^bannouncing to the disciples, “I have seen the Lord;” and that He had said these things to her.

19 When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for ^afear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst, and ^{*}said to them, “^{1b}Peace be with you.”

20 And when He had said this, ^aHe showed them both His hands and His side. The disciples therefore ^brejoiced when they saw the Lord.

21 Jesus therefore said to them again, “^{1a}Peace be with you; ^bas the Father has sent Me, I also send you.”

22 And when He had said this, He breathed on them, and ^{*}said to them, “Receive the Holy Spirit.

23 “^aIf you forgive the sins of any, their sins ¹have been forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they have been retained.”

24 But ^aThomas, one of ^bthe twelve, called ^{1a}Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

25 The other disciples therefore were saying to him, “We have seen the Lord!” But he said to them, “Unless I shall see in ^aHis hands the imprint of the nails, and put my finger into the place of the nails, and put my hand into His side, ^bI will not believe."

26 And ¹after eight days again His disciples were inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus ^acame, the doors having been ²shut, and stood in their midst, and said, "^aPeace be with you."

27 Then He ^asaid to Thomas, "^aReach here your finger, and see My hands; and reach here your hand, and put it into My side; and be not unbelieving, but believing."

28 Thomas answered and said to Him, "My Lord and my God!"

29 Jesus ^asaid to him, "Because you have seen Me, have you believed? ^aBlessed are they who did not see, and yet believed."

30 ^aMany other ¹signs therefore Jesus also performed in the presence of the disciples, which are not written in this book;

31 but these have been written ^athat you may believe that Jesus is ¹the Christ, ^bthe Son of God; and that ^cbelieving you may have life in His name.

CHAPTER 21

AFTER these things Jesus ¹manifested Himself ^aagain to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and He manifested Himself in this way.

2 There were together Simon Peter, and ^aThomas called ¹Didymus, and ^bNathanael of ^cCana in Galilee, and ^dthe sons of Zebedee, and two others of His disciples.

3 Simon Peter ^asaid to them, "I am going fishing." They ^asaid to him, "We will also come with you." They went out, and got into the boat; and ^athat night they caught nothing.

4 But when the day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach; yet the disciples did not ^aknow that it was Jesus.

5 Jesus therefore ^asaid to them, "Children, ^ayou do not have any ¹fish, do you?" They answered Him, "No."

6 And He said to them, "^aCast the net on the right-hand side of the boat, and you will find a catch." They cast therefore, and then they were not able to haul it in because of the great number of fish.

7 ^aThat disciple therefore whom Jesus ¹loved ^asaid to Peter, "It is the Lord!" And so when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put his outer garment on (for he was stripped for work), and ¹threw himself into the sea.

8 But the other disciples came in the little boat, for they were not far from the land, but about ¹one hundred yards away, dragging the net full of fish.

9 And so when they got out upon the land, they ^asaw a charcoal ^afire already laid, and ^bfish placed on it, and bread.

10 Jesus ^asaid to them, "Bring some of the ^afish which you have now caught."

11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land, full of large fish, a hundred and fifty-three; and although there were so many, the net was not torn.

12 Jesus ^asaid to them, "Come and have ^abreakfast." None of the disciples ventured to question Him, "Who are You?" knowing that it was the Lord.

13 Jesus *came and *took ^athe bread, and *gave them, and the ^bfish likewise.

14 This is now the ^athird time that Jesus ¹was manifested to the disciples, after He was raised from the dead.

15 So when they had ^afinished breakfast, Jesus *said to Simon Peter, "Simon, ¹son of John, do you ^{2b}love Me more than these?" He *said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I ³love You." He *said to him, "Tend ^cMy lambs."

16 He *said to him again a second time, "Simon, ¹son of John, do you ¹love Me?" He *said to Him, "Yes, Lord; You know that I ²love You." He *said to him, "^aShepherd My sheep."

17 He *said to him the third time, "Simon, ¹son of John, do you ¹love Me?" Peter was grieved because He said to him ^athe third time, "Do you ¹love Me?" And he said to Him, "Lord, ^bYou know all things; You know that I ¹love You." Jesus *said to him, "^cTend My sheep."

18 "Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were younger, you used to gird yourself, and walk wherever you wished; but when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will gird you, and bring you where you do not wish to go."

19 Now this He said, ^asignifying by ^bwhat kind of death he would glorify God. And when He had spoken this, He *said to him, "^cFollow Me!"

20 Peter, turning around, *saw the ^adisciple whom Jesus loved following them; the one who also had ^bleaned back on His breast at the supper, and said, "Lord, who is the one who betrays You?"

21 Peter therefore seeing him *said to Jesus, "Lord, and what about this man?"

22 Jesus *said to him, "If I want him to remain ^auntil I come, what is that to you? You ^bfollow Me!"

23 This saying therefore went out among ^athe brethren that that disciple would not die; yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die; but only, "If I want him to remain ^buntil I come, what is that to you?"

24 This is the disciple who ^abears witness of these things, and wrote these things; and we know that his witness is true.

25 And there are also ^amany other things which Jesus did, which if they *were written in detail, I suppose that even the world itself *would not contain the books which *were written.

Jesus ^b began to do and teach,

2 until the day when He ^a was taken up, after He ^b had ¹ by the Holy Spirit given orders to ^c the apostles whom He had ^d chosen.

3 To ¹ these ^a He also presented Himself alive, after His suffering, by many convincing proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days, and speaking of ^b the things concerning the kingdom of God.

4 And ¹ gathering them together, He commanded them
^a not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait for ² what the Father had promised, "Which," He said, "you heard of from Me;

5 for ^a John baptized with water, but you shall be baptized ¹ with the Holy Spirit ² not many days from now."

6 And so when they had come together, they were asking Him, saying, "Lord, ^a is it at this time You are restoring the kingdom to Israel?"

7 He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or epochs which ^a the Father has fixed by His own authority;

8 but you shall receive power ^a when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be ^b My witnesses both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and ^c Samaria, and even to ^d the remotest

9 And after He had said these things, ^a He was lifted up

18 (Now this man acquired a field with the price of his wickedness; and falling headlong, he burst open in the middle and all his bowels gushed out.)

19 And it became known to all who were living in Jerusalem; so that in their own language that field was called Hakeldama, that is, Field of Blood.)

20 "For it is written in the book of Psalms,
"LET HIS HOMESTEAD BE MADE DESOLATE, AND LET NO MAN DWELL IN IT;"
and,
"HIS OFFICE LET ANOTHER MAN TAKE."

21 "It is therefore necessary that the men who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us—

22 beginning with the baptism of John, until the day that He was taken up from us—one of these should become a witness with us of His resurrection."

23 And they put forward two men, Joseph called Barsabas (who was also called Justus), and Matthias.

24 And they prayed, and said, "Thou, Lord, who knowest the hearts of all men, show which one of these two Thou hast chosen

25 to occupy this ministry and apostleship from which Judas turned aside to go to his own place."

26 And they drew lots for them, and the lot fell to Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

CHAPTER 2

AND when the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place.

2 And suddenly there came from heaven a noise like a violent, rushing wind, and it filled the whole house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared to them tongues as of fire distributing themselves, and they rested on each one of them.

4 And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit was giving them utterance.

5 Now there were Jews living in Jerusalem, devout men, from every nation under heaven.

6 And when this sound occurred, the multitude came together, and were bewildered, because they were each one hearing them speak in his own language.

7 And they began to be amazed and to marvel, saying, "Why, are not all these who are speaking Galileans?"

8 "And how is it that we each hear them in our own language to which we were born?"

9 "Parthians and Medes and Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, 11 Cretans and Arabs—we hear them in our own tongues speaking of the mighty deeds of God.”

12 And ^athey continued in amazement and great perplexity, saying to one another, “What does this mean?”

13 But others were mocking and saying, “^aThey are full of ¹sweet wine.”

14 But Peter, ¹taking his stand with ^athe eleven, raised his voice and declared to them: “Men of Judea, and all you who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and give heed to my words.

15 “For these men are not drunk, as you suppose, ^afor it is only the ¹third hour of the day;

16 but this is what was spoken of through the prophet Joel:

17 ^aAND IT SHALL BE IN THE LAST DAYS, GOD SAYS, THAT I WILL POUR FORTH OF MY SPIRIT UPON ALL ¹MANKIND;

AND YOUR SONS AND YOUR DAUGHTERS SHALL PROPHECY, AND YOUR YOUNG MEN SHALL SEE VISIONS, AND YOUR OLD MEN SHALL DREAM DREAMS;

18 ^aEVEN UPON MY BONDSLAVES, BOTH MEN AND WOMEN, I WILL IN THOSE DAYS POUR FORTH OF MY SPIRIT And they shall prophesy.

19 ^aAND I WILL GRANT WONDERS IN THE SKY ABOVE, AND SIGNS ON THE EARTH BENEATH, BLOOD, AND FIRE, AND VAPOR OF SMOKE.

20 ^aTHE SUN SHALL BE TURNED INTO DARKNESS, AND THE MOON INTO BLOOD, BEFORE THE GREAT AND GLORIOUS DAY OF THE LORD SHALL COME.

21 ^aAND IT SHALL BE, THAT ^aEVERY ONE WHO CALLS ON THE NAME OF THE LORD SHALL BE SAVED.’

22 “Men of Israel, listen to these words: ^aJesus the Nazarene, ^ba man ¹attested to you by God with ²miracles and ^cwonders and ³signs which God performed through Him in your midst, just as you yourselves know—

23 this Man, delivered up by the ^apredetermined plan and foreknowledge of God, ^byou nailed to a cross by the hands of ¹godless men and put Him to death.

24 ^aAnd ^aGod raised Him up again, putting an end to the ²agony of death, since it ^bwas impossible for Him to be held in its power.

25 “For David says of Him, ^aI WAS ALWAYS BEHOLDING THE LORD IN MY PRESENCE; FOR HE IS AT MY RIGHT HAND, THAT I MAY NOT BE SHAKEN.

26 ^aTHEREFORE MY HEART WAS GLAD AND MY TONGUE EXULTED;

27 ^aMOREOVER MY FLESH ALSO WILL ABIDE IN HOPE; ^bBECAUSE THOU WILT NOT ABANDON MY SOUL TO ^aHADES, ^bNOR ¹ALLOW THY ²HOLY ONE TO ³UNDERGO DECAY.

28 ^aTHOU HAST MADE KNOWN TO ME THE WAYS OF LIFE; THOU WILT MAKE ME FULL OF GLADNESS WITH THY PRESENCE.’

29 "Brethren, I may confidently say to you regarding the patriarch David that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

30 "And so, because he was a prophet, and knew that God had sworn to him with an oath to seat one of his descendants upon his throne, 31 he looked ahead and spoke of the resurrection of the Christ, that He was neither abandoned to Hades, nor did His flesh suffer decay.

32 "This Jesus God raised up again, to which we are all witnesses.

33 "Therefore having been exalted to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, He has poured forth this which you both see and hear.

34 "For it was not David who ascended into heaven, but he himself says:

"THE LORD SAID TO MY LORD,

"SIT AT MY RIGHT HAND,

35 UNTIL I MAKE THINE ENEMIES A FOOTSTOOL FOR THY FEET."

36 "Therefore let all the house of Israel know for certain that God has made Him both Lord and Christ—this Jesus whom you crucified."

37 Now when they heard this, they were pierced to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brethren, what shall we do?"

38 And Peter said to them, "Repent, and let each of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.

39 "For the promise is for you and your children, and for all who are far off, as many as the Lord our God shall call to Himself."

40 And with many other words he solemnly testified and kept on exhorting them, saying, "Be saved from this perverse generation!"

41 So then, those who had received his word were baptized; and there were added that day about three thousand souls.

42 And they were continually devoting themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer.

43 And everyone kept feeling a sense of awe; and many wonders and signs were taking place through the apostles.

44 And all those who had believed were together, and had all things in common;

45 and they began selling their property and possessions, and were sharing them with all, as anyone might have need.

46 And day by day continuing with one mind in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, they were taking their meals together with gladness and sincerity of heart, 47 praising God, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord was adding to their number day by day those who were being saved.

NOW ^aPeter and John were going up to the temple at the ¹ninth hour, ^bthe hour of prayer.

2 And ^aa certain man who had been lame from his mother's womb was being carried along, whom they ^bused to set down every day at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, ^cin order to beg ¹alms of those who were entering the temple.

3 And when he saw ^aPeter and John about to go into the temple, he began asking to receive alms.

4 And Peter, along with John, ^afixed his gaze upon him and said, "Look at us!"

5 And he began to give them his attention, expecting to receive something from them.

6 But Peter said, "I do not possess silver and gold, but what I do have I give to you: ^aIn the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene—walk!"

7 And seizing him by the right hand, he raised him up; and immediately his feet and his ankles were strengthened.

8 ^aAnd ^bwith a leap, he stood upright and began to walk; and he entered the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God.

9 And ^aall the people saw him walking and praising God; and they were taking note of him as being the one who used to ^asit at the Beautiful Gate of the temple to beg alms, and they were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him.

11 And while he was clinging to ^aPeter and John, all the people ran together to them at the so-called ¹b²portico of Solomon, full of amazement.

12 But when Peter saw this, he ^areplied to the people, "Men of Israel, why do you marvel at this, or why do you gaze at us, as if by our own power or piety we had made him walk?"

13 ^a"The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, ^bthe God of our fathers, has glorified His ¹c²Servant Jesus, the one whom ^dyou delivered up, and disowned in the presence of ^ePilate, when he had ^fdecided to release Him.

14 "But you disowned ^athe Holy and Righteous One, and ^basked for a murderer to be granted to you, 15 but put to death the ¹a²Prince of life, the one whom ^bGod raised from the dead,—a fact to which we are ^cwitnesses.

16 "And on the basis of faith ^ain His name, it is the name of ¹Jesus which has strengthened this man whom you see and know; and the faith which comes through Him has given him this perfect health in the presence of you all.

17 "And now, brethren, I know that you acted ^ain ignorance, just as your ^brulers did also.

18 "But the things which ^aGod announced beforehand by the mouth of all the prophets, ^bthat His ¹Christ should suffer, He has thus fulfilled.

19 ^a"Repent therefore and return, that your sins may be wiped away, in order that ^btimes of refreshing may come from the presence of the Lord;

20 and that he may send Jesus, the ¹Christ appointed for you,

21 ^awhom heaven must receive until the ¹period of ^brestoration of all things, about which ^cGod spoke by the mouth of His holy prophets from ancient time.

22 ^a"Moses said, ^aTHE LORD GOD SHALL RAISE UP FOR YOU A PROPHET ¹LIKE ME FROM YOUR BRETHREN; TO HIM YOU SHALL GIVE HEED IN EVERYTHING HE SAYS TO YOU.

23 ^aAND IT SHALL BE THAT EVERY ^bSOUL THAT DOES NOT HEED THAT PROPHET SHALL BE UTTERLY DESTROYED FROM AMONG THE PEOPLE.'

24 "And likewise, ^aall the prophets who have spoken, from Samuel and his successors onward, also announced these days.

25 "It is you who are ^athe sons of the prophets, and of the ^bcovenant which God ¹made with your fathers, saying to Abraham, ^cAND IN YOUR SEED ALL THE FAMILIES OF THE EARTH SHALL BE BLESSED.'

26 "For you ^afirst, God ^braised up His ¹Servant, and sent Him to bless you by turning every one of you from your wicked ways."

AND as they were speaking to the people, the priests and ^athe captain of the temple guard, and ^bthe Sadducees, ^ccame upon them,

3 And they laid hands on them, and ^aput them in jail until the next day, for it was already evening.

4 But many of those who had heard the ¹message believed; and ^athe number of the men came to be about five thousand.

5 And it came about on the next day, that their ^arulers and elders and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem;

6 and ^aAnnas the high priest was there, and ^bCaiaphas and John and Alexander, and all who were of high-priestly descent.

7 And when they had placed them in the center, they began to inquire, "By what power, or in what name, have you done this?"

8 Then Peter, ^{1a}filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, ^{2b}Rulers and elders of the people,

^bWHY DID THE ²GENTILES RAGE,

AND THE PEOPLES DEVISE FUTILE THINGS?

26 ^aTHE KINGS OF THE EARTH ¹TOOK THEIR STAND,

AND THE RULERS WERE GATHERED TOGETHER,

AGAINST THE LORD, AND AGAINST HIS ^{2b}CHRIST.’

27 “For truly in this city there were gathered together against Thy holy ^{1a}Servant Jesus, whom Thou didst anoint, both ^bHerod and ^cPontius Pilate, along with ^dthe ²Gentiles and the peoples of Israel, 28 to do whatever Thy hand and ^aThy purpose predestined to occur.

29 “Now, Lord, take note of their threats, and grant that Thy bond-servants may ^aspeak Thy word with all ^bconfidence, 30 while Thou dost extend Thy hand to heal, and ^{1a}signs and wonders take place through the name of Thy holy ^{2b}Servant Jesus.”

31 And when they had prayed, the ^aplace where they had gathered together was shaken, and they were all ^bfilled with the Holy Spirit, and began to ^cspeak the word of God with ^dboldness.

32 And the ¹congregation of those who believed were of one heart and soul; and not one of them ²claimed that anything belonging to him was his own; but ^aall things were common property to them.

33 And ^awith great power the apostles were giving ^bwitness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus¹, and abundant grace was upon them all.

34 For there was not a needy person among them, for all who were owners of lands or houses ^awould sell them and bring the ¹proceeds of the sales,

35 and ^alay them at the apostles' feet; and they would be ^bdistributed to each, as any had need.

36 And Joseph, a Levite of ^aCyprian birth, who was also called ^bBarnabas by the apostles (which translated means, Son of ^{1c}Encouragement), 37 and who owned a tract of land, sold it and brought the money and ^alaid it at the apostles' feet.

CHAPTER 5

BUT a certain man named Ananias, with his wife Sapphira, sold a piece of property,

2 and ^akept back some of the price for himself, with his wife's ¹full knowledge, and bringing a portion of it, he ^blaid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But Peter said, "Ananias, why has ^aSatan filled your heart to lie ^bto the Holy Spirit, and to ^ckeep back some of the price of the land?"

4 "While it remained unsold, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not ¹under your control? Why is it that you have ²conceived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to men, but ^ato God."

5 And as he heard these words, Ananias ^afell down and breathed his last; and ^bgreat fear came upon all who heard of it.

6 And the ¹young men arose and ^acovered him up, and after carrying him out, they buried him.

7 Now there elapsed an interval of about three hours, and his wife came in, not knowing what had happened.

8 And Peter ^aresponded to her, "Tell me whether you sold the land ^bfor such and such a price?" And she said, "Yes, ¹that was the price."

9 Then Peter said to her, "Why is it that you have agreed together to ^aput ^bthe Spirit of the Lord to the test? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they shall carry you out as well."

10 And she ^afell immediately at his feet, and breathed her last; and the young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her beside her husband.

11 And ^agreat fear came upon the whole church, and upon all who heard of these things.

12 And ¹at the hands of the apostles many ^asigns and wonders were taking place among the people; and they were all with one accord in ^bSolomon's portico.

13 But none of the rest dared to associate with them; however, ^athe people ¹held them in high esteem.

14 And all the more ^abelievers in the Lord, multitudes of men and women, were constantly ^badded to their number;

15 to such an extent that they even carried the sick out into the streets, and laid them on cots and pallets, so that when Peter came by, ^aat least his shadow might fall on any one of them.

16 And also the ¹people from the cities in the vicinity of Jerusalem were coming together, bringing people who were sick ²or afflicted with unclean spirits; and they were all being healed.

17 But the high priest rose up, along with all his associates (that is ^athe sect of ^bthe Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy;

18 and they laid hands on the apostles, and ^aput them in a public jail.

19 But ^aan angel of the Lord during the night opened the gates of the prison, and taking them out he said,

20 "Go your way, stand and ¹speak to the people in the temple ^{2a}the whole message of this Life."

21 And upon hearing this, they entered into the temple ^aabout daybreak, and began to teach. Now when ^bthe high priest and his associates had come, they called ^cthe ¹Council together, and all the Senate of the sons of Israel, and sent orders to the prison-house for them to be brought.

22 But ^athe officers who came did not find them in the prison; and they returned, and reported back,

23 saying, "We found the prison-house locked quite securely and the guards standing at the doors; but when we had opened up, we found no one inside."

24 Now when ^athe captain of the temple guard and the chief priests heard these words, they were greatly perplexed about them as to what ¹would come of this.

25 But someone came and reported to them, "Behold, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the temple and teaching the people!"

26 Then ^athe captain went along with ^bthe officers and proceeded to bring them back without violence; (for ^cthey were afraid of the people, lest they should be stoned).

27 And when they had brought them, they stood them ¹before ^athe Council. And the high priest questioned them,

28 saying, "We gave you ^astrict orders not to continue teaching in this name, and behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and ^bintend to bring this man's blood upon us."

29 But Peter and the apostles answered and said, "^aWe must obey God rather than men.

30 "^aThe God of our fathers braised up Jesus, ¹whom you had ^cput to death by hanging Him on a ²cross.

31 "^aHe is the one whom God exalted ¹to His right hand as a ^{2b}Prince and a ^cSavior, to grant ^drepentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

32 "^aAnd we are ^awitnesses ¹of these things; and ^bso is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey Him."

33 But when they heard this, they were ^{1a}cut to the quick and were intending to slay them.

34 But a certain Pharisee named ^aGamaliel, a ^bteacher of the Law, respected by all the people, stood up in ^cthe Council and gave orders to put the men outside for a short time.

35 And he said to them, "Men of Israel, take care what you propose to do with these men.

36 "For sometime ago Theudas rose up, ^aclaiming to be somebody; and a group of about four hundred men joined up with him. ¹And he was slain; and all who ²followed him were dispersed and came to nothing.

37 "After this man Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of ^athe census, and drew away some people after him; he too perished, and all those who ¹followed him were scattered.

38 "And so in the present case, I say to you, stay away from these men and let them alone, for if this plan or ¹action should ^abe of men, it will be overthrown;

39 but if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow them; or else you may even be found ^afighting against God."

40 And they ¹took his advice; and after calling the apostles in, they ^aflogged them and ordered them to ²speak no more in the name of Jesus, and then released them.

41 So they went on their way from the presence of the ^{1a}Council, ^brejoicing that they had been considered worthy to suffer shame ^cfor ²His name.

42 ^aAnd every day, in the temple and ¹from house to house, they ²kept right on teaching and ^{3b}preaching Jesus as the ⁴Christ.

CHAPTER 6

NOW ¹at this time while the ^adisciples were increasing ^bin number, a complaint arose on the part of the ^{2c}Hellenistic Jews against the ^dnative Hebrews, because their ^ewidows were being overlooked in ^fthe daily serving of food.

2 And the Twelve summoned the ¹congregation of the disciples and said, "It is not desirable for us to neglect the word of God in order to serve tables.

3 "But select from among you, ^abrethren, seven men of good reputation, ^bfull of the Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may put in charge of this task.

4 "But we will ^adevote ourselves to prayer, and to the ¹ministry of the word."

5 And the statement found approval with the whole ¹congregation; and they chose ^aStephen, a man ^bfull of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and ^cPhilip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas and ²Nicolas, a ^{3d}proselyte from ^eAntioch.

6 And these they brought before the apostles; and after ^apraying, they ^blaid their hands on them.

7 And ^athe word of God kept on spreading; and ^bthe number of the disciples continued to increase greatly in Jerusalem, and a great many of the priests were becoming obedient to ^cthe faith.

8 And Stephen, full of grace and power, was performing great ^awonders and ^bsigns among the people.

9 But some men from what was called the Synagogue of the Freedmen, including both ^aCyrenians and ^bAlexandrians, and some from ^cCilicia and ^dAsia, rose up and argued with Stephen.

12 And they stirred up the people, the elders and the scribes, and they ^acame upon him and dragged him away, and brought him ¹before ²the Council.

13 And they put forward ^afalse witnesses who said, "This man incessantly speaks against this ^bholy place, and the Law;

15 And fixing their gaze on him, all who were sitting in the ^{1a}Council saw his face like the face of an angel.

CHAPTER 7

AND the high priest said, "Are these things so?"

2 And he said, "Hear me, ^abrethren and fathers! ^bThe God of glory ^cappeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in ¹Haran,

3 AND SAID TO HIM, ^a'DEPART FROM YOUR COUNTRY AND YOUR RELATIVES, AND COME INTO THE LAND THAT I WILL SHOW YOU.'

4 ^a'Then he departed from the land of the Chaldeans, and settled in ¹Haran. And ^bfrom there, after his father died, God removed him into this country in which you are now living.

5 "And He gave him no inheritance in it, not even a foot of ground; and yet, even when he had no child, ^aHe promised that HE WOULD GIVE IT TO HIM AS A POSSESSION, AND TO HIS OFFSPRING AFTER HIM.

6 "But ^aGod spoke to this effect, that HIS OFFSPRING WOULD BE ALIENS IN A FOREIGN LAND, AND THAT THEY WOULD ¹BE ENSLAVED AND MISTREATED FOR FOUR HUNDRED YEARS.

7 "'AND WHATEVER NATION TO WHICH THEY SHALL BE IN BONDAGE I MYSELF WILL JUDGE,' said God, 'AND ^aAFTER THAT THEY WILL COME OUT AND ¹SERVE ME IN THIS PLACE.'

8 "And He ^agave him ¹the covenant of circumcision; and so ^bAbraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him on the eighth day; and ^cIsaac became the father of Jacob, and ^dJacob of the twelve ^epatriarchs.

9 "And the patriarchs ^aBECAME JEALOUS OF JOSEPH AND SOLD HIM INTO EGYPT. And yet God was WITH HIM,

10 and rescued him from all his afflictions, and ^aGRANTED HIM FAVOR and wisdom IN THE SIGHT OF PHARAOH, KING OF EGYPT; AND HE MADE HIM GOVERNOR OVER EGYPT AND ALL HIS HOUSEHOLD.

11 "Now ^aA FAMINE CAME OVER ALL EGYPT AND CANAAN, and great affliction with it; and our fathers ¹could find no ²food.

12 "But ^aWHEN JACOB HEARD THAT THERE WAS GRAIN IN EGYPT, he sent our fathers there the first time.

13 "And on the second visit ^aJoseph ¹made himself known to his brothers, and Joseph's family was disclosed to Pharaoh.

14 "And ^aJoseph sent word and invited Jacob his father and all his relatives to come to him, ^bseventy-five ^cpersons in all.

15 "And ^aJacob WENT DOWN TO EGYPT AND there PASSED AWAY, he and our fathers.

16 "And from there they were removed to ^{1a}Shechem, and laid in the tomb which Abraham had purchased for a sum of money from the sons of ²Hamor in ¹Shechem.

17 "But as the time of the promise was approaching which God had assured to Abraham, ^athe people increased and multiplied in Egypt, 18 until ^aTHERE AROSE ANOTHER KING OVER EGYPT WHO KNEW NOTHING ABOUT JOSEPH.

19 "It was he who took ^ashrewd advantage of our race, and mistreated our fathers so that they would ¹expose their infants and they would not survive.

20 "And it was at this time that ^aMoses was born; and he was lovely ¹in the sight of God; and he was nurtured three months in his father's home.

21 "And after he had been ¹exposed, ^aPharaoh's daughter ²took him away, and nurtured him as her own son.

22 "And Moses was educated in all ^athe learning of the Egyptians, and he was a man of power in words and deeds.

23 "But when he was approaching the age of forty, ^ait entered his ¹mind to visit his brethren, the sons of Israel.

24 "And when he saw one of them being treated unjustly, he defended him and took vengeance for the oppressed by striking down the Egyptian.

25 "And he ¹supposed that his brethren understood that God was granting them ²deliverance ³through him; but they did not understand.

26 "^aAnd on the following day he appeared to them as they were fighting together, and he tried to reconcile them in peace, saying, 'Men, you are brethren, why do you injure one another?'

27 "^aBUT THE ONE WHO WAS INJURING HIS NEIGHBOR pushed him away, saying, 'WHO MADE YOU A RULER AND JUDGE OVER US?'

28 '^aYOU DO NOT MEAN TO KILL ME AS YOU KILLED THE EGYPTIAN YESTERDAY, DO YOU?'

29 "AND AT THIS REMARK ^aMOSES FLED, AND BECAME AN ALIEN IN THE LAND OF ¹MIDIAN, where he became the father of two sons.

30 "And after forty years had passed, ^aAN ANGEL APPEARED TO HIM IN THE WILDERNESS OF MOUNT Sinai, IN THE FLAME OF A BURNING THORN-BUSH.

31 "And when Moses saw it, he began to marvel at the sight; and as he approached to look more closely, there came the voice of the Lord:

32 '^aI AM THE GOD OF YOUR FATHERS, THE GOD OF ABRAHAM AND ISAAC AND JACOB.' And Moses shook with fear and would not venture to look.

33 "BUT THE LORD SAID TO HIM, '^aTAKE OFF THE SANDALS FROM YOUR FEET, FOR THE PLACE ON WHICH YOU ARE STANDING IS HOLY GROUND.

DOWN TO DELIVER THEM; ^{1b}COME NOW, AND I WILL SEND YOU TO EGYPT.'

35 "This Moses whom they ^adisowned, saying, 'WHO MADE YOU A RULER AND A JUDGE?' is the one whom God ¹sent to be both a ruler and a deliverer with the ²help of the angel who appeared to him in the thorn-bush.

36 "This man led them out, performing ^bwonders and ¹signs in the land of Egypt and in the Red Sea and in the ^cwilderness for forty years.

37 "This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel, 'GOD SHALL RAISE UP FOR YOU ^aA PROPHET ¹LIKE ME FROM YOUR BRETHREN.'

38 "This is the one who was in ^athe ¹congregation in the wilderness together with ^bthe angel who was speaking to him in Mount Sinai, and who was with our fathers; and he received ^cliving ^doracles to pass on to you.

39 "And our fathers were unwilling to be obedient to him, but ^arepudiated him and in their hearts turned back to Egypt,

40 SAYING TO AARON, '^aMAKE FOR US GODS WHO WILL GO BEFORE US; FOR THIS MOSES WHO LED US OUT OF THE LAND OF EGYPT—WE DO NOT KNOW WHAT HAPPENED TO HIM.'

41 "And ¹at that time ^athey made a ²calf and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and were rejoicing in ^bthe works of their hands.

42 "But God ^aturned away and delivered them up to ¹serve the ²host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, '^bIT WAS NOT TO ME THAT YOU OFFERED VICTIMS AND SACRIFICES ^cFOR FORTY YEARS IN THE WILDERNESS, WAS IT, O HOUSE OF ISRAEL?'

43 "YOU ALSO TOOK ALONG THE TABERNACLE OF MOLOCH AND THE STAR OF THE GOD ¹ROMPHA, THE IMAGES WHICH YOU MADE TO WORSHIP THEM. I ALSO WILL REMOVE YOU BEYOND BABYLON.'

44 "Our fathers had ^athe tabernacle of testimony in the wilderness, just as He who spoke to Moses directed him to make it according to the pattern which he had seen.

45 "And having received it in their turn, our fathers ^abrought it in with ¹Joshua upon dispossessing the ²nations whom God drove out before our fathers, until the time of David.

46 "And ^aDavid found favor in God's sight, and asked that he might find a dwelling place for the ¹God of Jacob.

47 "But it was ^aSolomon who built a house for Him.

48 "However, ^athe Most High does not dwell in houses made by human hands; as the prophet says:

49 ^aHEAVEN IS MY THRONE,

AND EARTH IS THE FOOTSTOOL OF MY FEET;

WHAT KIND OF HOUSE WILL YOU BUILD FOR ME? says the Lord;

OR WHAT PLACE IS THERE FOR MY REPOSE?

50 ^aWAS IT NOT MY HAND WHICH MADE ALL THESE THINGS?'

51 "You men who are ^astiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears are always resisting the Holy Spirit; you are doing just as your fathers did.

52 "Which one of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who had previously announced the coming of ^bthe Righteous One, whose betrayers and murderers ^cyou have now become;

53 you who received the law as ^dordained by angels and yet did not keep it."

54 Now when they heard this, they were ^acut ^to the quick, and they began gnashing their teeth at him.

55 But being ^afull of the Holy Spirit, he ^bgazed intently into heaven and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing ^cat the right hand of God;

56 and he said, "Behold, I see the ^aheavens opened up and ^bthe Son of Man standing at the right hand of God."

57 But they cried out with a loud voice, and covered their ears, and they rushed upon him with one impulse.

58 And when they had ^adriven him out of the city, they began stoning him, and ^bthe witnesses ^claid aside their robes at the feet of ^da young man named Saul.

59 And they went on stoning Stephen as he ^acalled upon the Lord and said, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!"

60 And ^afalling on his knees, he cried out with a loud voice, "Lord, ^bdo not hold this sin against them!" And having said this, he ^cfell asleep.

CHAPTER 8

AND ^aSaul was in hearty agreement with putting him to death.

And on that day a great persecution arose against ^bthe church in Jerusalem; and they were all ^cscattered throughout the regions of Judea and ^dSamaria, except the apostles.

2 And some devout men buried Stephen, and made loud lamentation over him.

3 But ^aSaul began ravaging the church, entering house after house; and ^bdragging off men and women, he would put them in prison.

4 Therefore, those ^awho had been scattered went about ^bpreaching the word.

5 And ^aPhilip went down to the city of Samaria and began proclaiming ¹Christ to them.

6 And the multitudes with one accord were giving attention to what was said by Philip, as they heard and saw the ¹signs which he was performing.

7 For in the case of many who had ^aunclean spirits, they were coming out of them shouting with a loud voice; and many who had been ^bparalyzed and lame were healed.

8 And there was ^amuch rejoicing in that city.

9 Now there was a certain man named Simon, who formerly was practicing ^amagic in the city, and astonishing the people of Samaria, ^bclaiming to be someone great;

10 and they all, from smallest to greatest, were giving attention to him, saying, "^aThis man is what is called the Great Power of God."

11 And they were giving him attention because he had for a long time astonished them with his ^amagic arts.

12 But when they believed Philip ^apreaching the good news about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were being ^bbaptized, men and women alike.

13 And even Simon himself believed; and after being baptized, he continued on with Philip; and as he observed ^asigns and ^bgreat miracles taking place, he was constantly amazed.

14 Now when ^athe apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent them ^bPeter and John, 15 who came down and prayed for them, ^athat they might receive the Holy Spirit.

16 For He had not yet fallen upon any of them; they had simply been ^abaptized ¹in the name of the Lord Jesus.

17 Then they ^abegan laying their hands on them, and they were ^breceiving the Holy Spirit.

18 Now when Simon saw that the Spirit was bestowed through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money,

19 saying, "Give this authority to me as well, so that everyone on whom I lay my hands may receive the Holy Spirit."

20 But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could ^aobtain the gift of God with money!

21 "You have ^ano part or portion in this ¹matter, for your heart is not ^bright before God.

22 "Therefore repent of this wickedness of yours, and pray the Lord that if possible, the intention of your heart may be forgiven you.

23 "For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in ^athe ¹bondage of iniquity."

24 But Simon answered and said, "Pray to the Lord for me yourselves, so that nothing of what you have said may come upon me."

25 And so, when they had solemnly ^atestified and spoken ^bthe word of the Lord, they started back to Jerusalem, and were ^cpreaching the gospel to many villages of the ^dSamaritans.

26 But ^aan angel of the Lord spoke to ^bPhilip saying, "Arise and go south to the road that descends from Jerusalem to ^cGaza." (¹This is a desert road.)

27 And he arose and went; and behold, ^athere was an Ethiopian eunuch, a court official of Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was in charge of all her treasure; and he ^bhad come to Jerusalem to worship.

28 And he was returning and sitting in his ¹chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah.

29 And ^athe Spirit said to Philip, "Go up and join this ¹chariot."

30 And when Philip had run up, he heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

31 And he said, "Well, how could I, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip to come up and sit with him.

32 Now the passage of Scripture which he was reading was this:

^a"HE WAS LED AS A SHEEP TO SLAUGHTER;

AND AS A LAMB BEFORE ITS SHEARER IS SILENT,

SO HE DOES NOT OPEN HIS MOUTH.

33 ^a"IN HUMILIATION HIS JUDGMENT WAS TAKEN AWAY;

WHO SHALL ¹RELATE HIS ²GENERATION?
FOR HIS LIFE IS REMOVED FROM THE EARTH."

34 And the eunuch answered Philip and said, "Please tell me, of whom does the prophet say this? Of himself, or of someone else?"

35 And Philip ^aopened his mouth, and ^bbeginning from this Scripture he ^cpreached Jesus to him.

36 And as they went along the road they came to some water; and the eunuch ^{*}said, "Look! Water! ^aWhat prevents me from being baptized?"

37 (See marginal note.)

38 And he ordered the ¹chariot to stop; and they both went down into the water, Philip as well as the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39 And when they came up out of the water, ^a the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip away; and the eunuch saw him no more, but went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip ¹found himself at ^{2a}Azotus; and as he passed through he ^bkept preaching the gospel to all the cities, until he came to ^cCaesarea.

CHAPTER 9

^a NOW Saul, still ^bbreathing ¹threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest,

2 and asked for ^aletters from him to ^bthe synagogues at ^cDamascus, so that if he found any belonging to ^dthe Way, both men and women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

3 And it came about that as he journeyed, he was approaching Damascus, and ^asuddenly a light from heaven flashed around him;

4 and ^ahe fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?"

5 And he said, "Who art Thou, Lord?" And He said, "I am Jesus whom you are persecuting, 6 but rise, and enter the city, and ^ait shall be told you what you must do."

7 And the men who traveled with him ^astood speechless, ^bhearing the ¹voice, but seeing no one.

8 And Saul got up from the ground, and ^athough his eyes were open; he ¹could see nothing; and leading him by the hand, they brought him into ^bDamascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

10 Now there was a certain disciple at ^aDamascus, named ^bAnanias; and the Lord said to him in ^ca vision, "Ananias." And he said, "Behold, here am I, Lord."

11 And the Lord said to him, "Arise and go to the street called Straight, and inquire at the house of Judas for a man from ^aTarsus named Saul, for behold, he is praying, 12 and he has seen ¹in a vision a man named Ananias come in and ^alay his hands on him, so that he might regain his sight."

about this man, ^ahow much harm he did to ^bThy ¹saints at Jerusalem;

14 and here he ^ahas authority from the chief priests to bind all who ^bcall upon Thy name."

15 But the Lord said to him, "Go, for ^ahe is a chosen instrument of Mine, to bear My name before ^bthe Gentiles and ^ckings and the sons of Israel;

16 for ^aI will show him how much he must suffer for My name's sake."

17 And ¹Ananias departed and entered the house, and after ^alaying his hands on him said, "^bBrother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on the road by which you were coming, has sent me so that you may regain your sight, and be ^cfilled with the Holy Spirit."

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes something like scales, and he regained his sight, and he arose and was ^bbaptized;

19 and he took food and was strengthened.

Now ^afor several days he was with ^bthe disciples who were at Damascus,

20 and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus ^ain the synagogues, ¹saying, "He is ^bthe Son of God."

21 And all those hearing him continued to be amazed, and were saying, "Is this not he who in Jerusalem ^adestroyed those who ^bcalled on this name, and who had come here for the purpose of bringing them bound before the chief priests?"

22 But Saul kept increasing in strength and confounding the Jews who lived at Damascus by proving that this Jesus is the ¹Christ.

23 And when ^amany days had elapsed, ^bthe Jews plotted together to do away with him,

24 but ^atheir plot became known to Saul. And ^bthey were also watching the gates day and night so that they might put him to death;

25 but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through an opening in the wall, lowering him in a ^abasket.

26 And ^awhen he had come to Jerusalem, he was trying to associate with the disciples; and they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple.

27 But ^aBarnabas took hold of him and brought him to the apostles and described to them how he had ^bseen the Lord on the road, and that He had talked to him, and how ^cat
Damascus he had ^dspoken out boldly in the name of Jesus.

28 And he was with them ¹moving about freely in Jerusalem, ^aspeaking out boldly in the name of the Lord.

29 And he was talking and arguing with the ^aHellenistic
Jews; but they were attempting to put him to death.

30 But when ^athe brethren learned of it, they brought him down to ^bCaesarea and ^csent him away to ^dTarsus.

31 So ^athe church throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria ¹enjoyed peace, being built up; and, going on in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, it continued to increase.

32 Now it came about that as Peter was traveling through all those parts, he came down also to ^athe ¹saints who lived at ^bLydda.

33 And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden eight years, for he was paralyzed.

34 And Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you; arise, and make your bed." And immediately he arose.

35 And all who lived at ^aLydda and ^bSharon saw him, and they ^cturned to the Lord.

36 Now in ^aJoppa there was a certain disciple named Tabitha (which translated in Greek is called ¹Dorcas); this woman was abounding with deeds of kindness and charity, which she continually did:

37 And it came about ¹at that time that she fell sick and died; and when they had washed her body, they laid it in an ^aupper room.

38 And since Lydda was near ^aJoppa, ^bthe disciples, having heard that Peter was there, sent two men to him, entreating him, "Do not delay to come to us."

39 And Peter arose and went with them. And when he had come, they brought him into the ^aupper room; and all the ^bwidows stood beside him weeping, and showing all the ¹tunics and garments that Dorcas used to make while she was with them.

40 But Peter ^asent them all out and ^bknelt down and prayed, and turning to the body, he said, "Tabitha, arise." And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he gave her his hand and raised her up; and calling ^athe ¹saints and ^bwidows, he presented her alive.

42 And it became known all over ^aJoppa, and ^bmany believed in the Lord.

43 And it came about that he stayed many days in ^aJoppa with ^ba certain tanner, Simon.

CHAPTER 10

NOW there was a certain man at ^aCaesarea named Cornelius, a centurion of what was ^bcalled the Italian ¹cohort,

2 a devout man, and ^aone who feared God with all his household, and ^bgave many ¹alms to the Jewish people, and prayed to God continually.

3 About ^athe ¹ninth ¹hour of the day he clearly saw ^bin a vision ^can angel of God who had just come in to him, and said to him, "Cornelius!"

4 And ^afixing his gaze upon him and being much alarmed, he said, "What is it, Lord?" And he said to him, "Your prayers and ¹alms ^bhave ascended ^cas a memorial before God.

5 "And now dispatch some men to ^aJoppa, and send for a man named Simon, who is also called Peter;

6 he ¹is staying with a certain tanner named ^aSimon, whose house is by the sea."

7 And when the angel who was speaking to him had departed, he summoned two of his ¹servants and a devout soldier of those who were in constant attendance upon him, approaching the city, ^aPeter went up on ^bthe housetop about ^cthe ¹sixth hour to pray.

10 And he became hungry, and was desiring to eat; but while they were making preparations, he ^afell into a trance;

11 and he ^abeheld ^athe ¹sky opened up, and a certain ²object like a great sheet coming down, lowered by four corners to the ground,

12 and there were in it all kinds of four-footed animals and ¹crawling creatures of the earth and birds of the ²air.

13 And a voice came to him, "Arise, Peter, ¹kill and eat!"

14 But Peter said, "By no means, ^aLord, for ^bI have never eaten anything ¹unholy and unclean."

15 And again a voice came to him a second time, "^aWhat God has cleansed, no longer consider ¹unholy."

16 And this happened three times; and immediately the ¹object was taken up into the ²sky.

17 Now while Peter was greatly perplexed ¹in mind as to what ^athe vision which he had seen might be, behold, ^bthe men who had been sent by Cornelius, having asked directions for Simon's house, appeared at the gate;

18 and calling out, they were asking whether Simon, who was also called Peter, was ¹staying there.

19 And while Peter was reflecting on ^athe vision, ^bthe Spirit said to him, "Behold, ¹three men are looking for you.

20 "But arise, go downstairs, and ^aaccompany them ¹without misgivings; for I have sent them Myself."

21 And Peter went down to the men and said, "Behold, I am the one you are looking for; what is the reason for which you have come?"

22 And they said, "Cornelius a centurion, a righteous and ^aGod-fearing man well spoken of by the entire nation of the Jews, ^bwas divinely directed by a ^choly angel to send for you to come to his house and hear ^da ¹message from you."

23 And so he invited them in and gave them lodging.

And on the next day he arose and went away with them, and ^asome of ^bthe brethren from ^cJoppa accompanied him.

24 And on the following day he entered ^aCaesarea. Now Cornelius was waiting for them, and had called together his relatives and close friends.

25 And when it came about that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, and fell at his feet and ¹worshiped him.

26 But Peter raised him up, saying, "^aStand up; I too am just a man."

27 And as he talked with him, he entered, and ¹found ^amany people assembled.

28 And he said to them, "You yourselves know how ^aunlawful it is for a man who is a Jew to associate with a foreigner or to visit him; and yet ^bGod has shown me that I should not call any man ¹unholy or unclean.

29 "That is why I came without even raising any objection when I was sent for. And so I ask for what reason you have sent for me."

30 And Cornelius said, "^aFour days ago to this hour, I was praying in my house during ^bthe ¹ninth hour; and behold, ^ca man stood before me in shining garments, 31 and he ^asaid, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been heard and your ^lalms have been remembered before God.

32 'Send therefore to ^aJoppa and invite Simon, who is also called Peter, to come to you; he is ^lstaying at the house of Simon the tanner by the sea.'

33 'And so I sent to you immediately, and you have ^lbeen kind enough to come. Now then, we are all here present before God to hear all that you have been commanded by the Lord.'

34 And ^aopening his mouth, Peter said:

'I most certainly understand now that ^bGod is not one to show partiality, 35 but ^ain every nation the man who ^lbears Him and ²does what is right, is welcome to Him.

36 'The word which He sent to the sons of Israel, ^apreaching ^{2b}peace through Jesus Christ (He is ^cLord of all)—

37 you yourselves know the thing which took place throughout all Judea, starting from Galilee, after the baptism which John proclaimed.

38 'You know of ^aJesus of Nazareth, how God ^banointed Him with the Holy Spirit and with power, ^{2c}and how He went about doing good, and healing all who were oppressed by the devil; for ^dGod was with Him.

39 'And we are ^awitnesses of all the things He did both in the ^lland of the Jews and in Jerusalem. And they also ^bput Him to death by hanging Him on a ²cross.

40 'God raised Him up on the third day, and granted that He should become visible, 41 ^anot to all the people, but to ^bwitnesses who were chosen beforehand by God, that is, to us, ^cwho ate and drank with Him after He arose from the dead.

42 'And He ^aordered us to ^lpreach to the people, and solemnly to ^btestify that this is the One who has been ^cappointed by God as ^dJudge of the living and the dead.

43 'Of Him ^aall the prophets bear witness that through ^bHis name every one who believes in Him has received forgiveness of sins.'

44 While Peter was still speaking these words, ^athe Holy Spirit fell upon all those who were listening to the ^lmessage.

45 And ^aall the ^lcircumcised believers who had come with Peter were amazed, because the gift of the Holy Spirit had been ^bpoured out upon the Gentiles also.

46 For they were hearing them ^aspeaking with tongues and exalting God. Then Peter ^banswered,

47 'Surely no one can refuse the water for these to be baptized who ^bhave received the Holy Spirit just as we did, can he?'

48 And he ^aordered them to be baptized ^bin the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay on for a few days.

3 saying, "You¹ went to uncircumcised men and ate with them."

4 But Peter began speaking and proceeded to explain to them ^ain orderly sequence, saying,

5 "I^a was in the city of Joppa praying; and in a trance I saw ^ba vision, a certain ¹object coming down like a great sheet lowered by four corners from ²the sky; and it came right down to me,

6 and when I had fixed my gaze upon it and was observing it ¹I saw the four-footed animals of the earth and the wild beasts and the ²crawling creatures and the birds of the ³air.

7 "And I also heard a voice saying to me, 'Arise, Peter; ¹kill and eat.'

8 "But I said, 'By no means, Lord, for nothing ¹unholy or unclean has ever entered my mouth.'

9 "But a voice from heaven answered a second time, "What God has cleansed, no longer ¹consider unholy.'

10 "And this happened three times, and everything was drawn back up into ¹the sky.

11 "And behold, at that moment three men appeared before the house in which we were staying, having been sent to me from ^aCaesarea.

12 "And ^athe Spirit told me to go with them ^{1b}without misgivings. And ^cthese six brethren also went with me, and we entered the man's house.

13 "And he reported to us how he had seen the angel ¹standing in his house, and saying, 'Send to Joppa, and have Simon, who is also called Peter, brought here;

14 and he shall speak ^awords to you by which you will be saved, you and ^ball your household.'

15 "And as I began to speak, ^athe Holy Spirit fell upon them, just ^{ba}as He did upon us at the beginning.

16 "And I remembered the word of the Lord, how He used to say, ^aJohn baptized with water, but you shall be baptized ¹with the Holy Spirit.'

17 "If ^aGod therefore gave to them the same gift as He gave to us also after believing in the Lord Jesus Christ, ^bwho was I that I could ¹stand in God's way?"

18 And when they heard this, they ¹quieted down, and ^aglorified God, saying, "Well then, God has granted to the Gentiles also the ^brepentance that leads to life."

19 ^aSo then those who were scattered because of the ¹persecution that arose in connection with Stephen made their way ²to ^bPhoenicia and ^cCyprus and ^dAntioch, speaking the word to no one except to Jews alone.

20 But there were some of them, men of ^aCyprus and ^bCyrene, who came to ^cAntioch and began speaking to the ^{1d}Greeks also, ^{2e}preaching the Lord Jesus.

21 And ^athe hand of the Lord was with them, and ^{ba}a large number who believed turned to the Lord.

22 And the ¹news about them ²reached the ears of the church at Jerusalem, and they sent ^aBarnabas off ³to ^bAntioch.

23 Then when he had come and ¹witnessed ^athe grace of God, he rejoiced and began to encourage them all with ²resolute heart to remain true to the Lord;

24 for he was a good man, and ^afull of the Holy Spirit and of faith. And ^bconsiderable ¹numbers were ²brought to the Lord.

25 And he left for ^aTarsus to look for Saul;

26 and when he had found him, he brought him to ^aAntioch. And it came about that for an entire year they ¹met with the church, and taught considerable ²numbers; and ^bthe disciples were first called ^cChristians in ^aAntioch.

27 Now ¹at this time ^asome prophets ^bcame down from Jerusalem to ^cAntioch.

28 And one of them named ^aAgabus stood up and began to indicate ¹by the Spirit that there would certainly be a great famine ²all over the ²world. And this took place in the reign of ^cClaudius.

29 And in the proportion that any of ^athe disciples had means, each of them determined to send a contribution for the ¹relief of ^bthe brethren living in Judea.

30 ^aAnd this they did, sending it ¹in charge of ^bBarnabas and Saul to the ^celders.

CHAPTER 12

NOW about that time ¹Herod the king laid hands on some who belonged to the church, in order to mistreat them.

2 And he ^ahad James the brother of John ^bput to death with a sword.

3 And when he saw that it ^apleased the Jews, he proceeded to arrest Peter also. Now ¹it was during ^bthe days of the Feast of Unleavened Bread.

4 And when he had seized him, he put him in prison, delivering him to four ¹squads of soldiers to guard him, intending after ^bthe Passover to bring him out before the people.

5 So Peter was kept in the prison, but prayer for him was being made fervently by the church to God.

6 And on the very night when Herod was about to bring him forward, ¹Peter was sleeping between ¹two soldiers, ^abound with two chains; and ²guards in front of the door were watching over the prison.

7 And behold, ^aan angel of the Lord ^bsuddenly ^bappeared, and a light shone in the cell; and he struck Peter's side and roused him, saying, "Get up quickly." And ^chis ^cchains ^cfell off his hands.

8 And the angel said to him, "Gird yourself and ¹put on your sandals." And he did so. And he ^asaid to him, "Wrap your cloak around you and follow me."

9 And he went out and continued to follow, and he did not know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing ^aa vision.

10 And when they had passed the first and second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which ^aopened for them by itself; and they went out and went along one street; and ^bimmediately the angel ^bdeparted from him.

11 And when Peter ^acame to himself, he said, "Now I know for sure that ^bthe Lord has sent forth His angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all ¹that the Jewish people were expecting."

12 And when he realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of ^aJohn who was also called Mark, where many were gathered together and ^bwere praying.

13 And when he knocked at the door of the gate, ^aa servant-girl named Rhoda came to answer.

14 And when she recognized Peter's voice, ^abecause of her joy she did not open the gate, but ran in and announced that Peter was standing in front of the gate.

15 And they said to her, "You are out of your mind!" But she kept insisting that it was so. And they kept saying, "It is ^ahis angel."

16 But Peter continued knocking; and when they had opened, they saw him and were amazed.

17 But ^amotioning to them with his hand to be silent, he described to them how the Lord had led him out of the prison. And he said, "Report these things to ^{1b}James and ^cthe brethren." And he departed and went to another place.

18 Now when day came, there was no small disturbance among the soldiers as to ¹what could have become of Peter.

19 And when Herod had searched for him and had not found him, he examined the guards and ordered that they ^abe led away to execution. And he went down from Judea to ^bCaesarea and was spending time there.

20 Now he was very angry with the people of ^aTyre and Sidon; and with one accord they came to him, and having won over Blastus the king's chamberlain, they were asking for peace, because ^btheir country was fed by the king's country.

21 And on an appointed day Herod, having put on his royal apparel, took his seat on the ¹rostrum and began delivering an address to them.

22 And the people kept crying out, "The voice of a god and not of a man!"

23 And immediately ^aan angel of the Lord struck him because he did not give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and ¹died.

24 But ^athe word of the Lord continued to grow and to be multiplied.

25 And ^aBarnabas and ^aSaul returned ¹from Jerusalem ^bwhen they had fulfilled their ²mission, taking along with them ^cJohn, who was also called Mark.

CHAPTER 13

NOW there were at ^aAntioch, in the ^bchurch that was there, ^cprophets and ^dteachers: ^eBarnabas, and Simeon who was called Niger, and Lucius of ^fCyrene, and Manaen who had been brought up with ^gHerod the tetrarch, and ^hSaul.

2 And while they were ministering to the Lord and fasting, ^athe Holy Spirit said, "Set apart for Me ^bBarnabas and Saul for ^cthe work to which I have called them."

3 Then, when they had fasted and ^aprayed and ^blaid their hands on them, ^cthey sent them away.

4 So, being ^asent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia and from there they sailed to ^bCyprus.

5 And when they reached Salamis, they began to proclaim the word of God in ^athe synagogues of the Jews; and they also had ^bJohn as their helper.

6 And when they had gone through the whole island as far as Paphos, they found a certain ^amagician, a Jewish ^bfalse prophet whose name was Bar-Jesus,

7 who was with the ^aproconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of intelligence. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul and sought to hear the word of God.

8 But Elymas the ^amagician (for thus his name is translated) was opposing them, seeking to turn the ^bproconsul away from ^cthe faith.

9 But Saul, who was also known as Paul, ^{1a}filled with the Holy Spirit, fixed his gaze upon him,

10 and said, "You who are full of all deceit and fraud, you ^ason of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to make crooked ^bthe straight ways of the Lord?"

11 "And now, ^b behold, ^athe hand of the Lord is upon you, and you will be blind and not see the ^csun for a time." And immediately a mist and a darkness fell upon him, and he went about seeking those who would lead him by the hand.

12 Then the ^aproconsul believed when he saw what had happened, being amazed at ^bthe teaching of the Lord.

13 Now Paul and his companions put out to sea from ^aPaphos and came to ^bPerga in ^cPamphylia; and ^dJohn left them and returned to Jerusalem.

14 But going on from Perga, they arrived at ^aPisidian ^bAntioch, and on ^cthe Sabbath day they went into ^dthe synagogue and sat down.

15 And after ^athe reading of the Law and ^bthe Prophets ^cthe synagogue officials sent to them, saying, "Brethren, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, say it."

16 And Paul stood up, and ^amotioning with his hand, he said,

"^aMen of Israel, and ^byou who fear God, listen:

17 "The God of this people Israel ^achose our fathers, and ¹made the people great during their stay in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm He led them out from it.

18 "And for about ^aa period of forty years ^bHe ¹put up with them in the wilderness.

19 "And ^awhen He had destroyed ^bseven nations in the land of Canaan, He ^cdistributed their land as an inheritance—all of which took ^dabout four hundred and fifty years.

20 "And after these things He ^agave them judges until ^bSamuel the prophet.

21 "And then they ^aasked for a king, and God gave them ^bSaul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years.

22 "And after He had ^aremoved him, He raised up David to be their king, concerning whom He also testified and said, 'I have found ^bDavid the son of Jesse, a man after My heart, who will do all My ¹will.'

23 "^aFrom the offspring of this man ^baccording to promise God has brought to Israel ^aa Savior, Jesus, 24 after ^aJohn had proclaimed before ¹His coming a baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.

29 "And when they had ^acarried out all that was written concerning Him, ^bthey took Him down from ^cthe ¹cross and laid Him in a tomb.

30 "But God ^araised Him from the dead;

31 and for many days He appeared to those who came up with Him ^afrom Galilee to Jerusalem, the very ones who are now ^bHis witnesses to the people.

32 "And we ^apreach to you the good news of ^bthe promise made to the fathers,

34 "And as for the fact that He ^araised Him up from the dead, no more to return to decay, He has spoken in this way: ^b"I WILL GIVE YOU THE HOLY AND SURE BLESSINGS OF DAVID."

35 "Therefore He also says in another Psalms, ^a"THOU WILT NOT ¹ALLOW THY ²HOLY ONE TO ³UNDERGO DECAY."

36 "For ^aDavid, after he had ¹served ^bthe purpose of God in his own generation, ^cfell asleep, and was laid among his fathers, and ²underwent decay;

37 but He whom God ^araised did not ¹undergo decay.

38 "Therefore let it be known to you, brethren, that ^athrough ¹Him forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you,

39 and through Him ^aeveryone who believes is ¹freed² from all things, from which you could not be ¹freed through the Law of Moses.

40 "Take heed therefore, so that the thing spoken of ^ain the Prophets may not come upon you:

41 ^a"BEHOLD, YOU SCOFFERS, AND MARVEL, AND ¹PERISH;

FOR I AM ACCOMPLISHING A WORK IN YOUR DAYS,

A WORK WHICH YOU WILL NEVER BELIEVE, THOUGH SOME-ONE SHOULD DESCRIBE IT TO YOU."

42 And as ¹Paul and Barnabas were going out, ²the people kept begging that these ³things might be spoken to them the next ^aSabbath.

43 Now when the meeting of the synagogue had broken up, many of the Jews and of the ^aGod-fearing ¹proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas, who, speaking to them, were urging them to continue in ^cthe grace of God.

44 And the next ^aSabbath nearly the whole city assembled to hear the word of ¹God.

45 But when ^athe Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy, and began contradicting the things spoken by Paul, and were ¹blaspheming.

46 And Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly and said, "It was necessary that the word of God should be spoken to you ^afirst; since you repudiate it, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, ^bwe are turning to the Gentiles.

47 "For thus the Lord has commanded us,

"I HAVE PLACED YOU AS A ^bLIGHT FOR THE GENTILES, THAT YOU SHOULD ¹BRING SALVATION TO THE END OF THE EARTH."

48 And when the Gentiles heard this, they began rejoicing and glorifying ^athe word of ¹the Lord; and as many as ^bhad been appointed to eternal life believed.

49 And ^athe word of the Lord was being spread through the whole region.

50 But ^athe Jews aroused the ^{1b}devout women ^cof prominence and the leading men of the city, and instigated a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and drove them out of their ²district.

51 But ^athey shook off the dust of their feet in protest against them and went to ^bIconium.

52 And the disciples were continually ^afilled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.

CHAPTER 14

AND it came about that in ^aIconium ^bthey entered the synagogue of the Jews together, and spoke in such a manner ^cthat a great multitude believed, both of Jews and of ^cGreeks.

2 But ^athe Jews who ^{1b}disbelieved stirred up the ²minds of the Gentiles, and embittered them against ^cthe brethren.

3 Therefore they spent a long time there ^aspeaking boldly with reliance upon the Lord, who was bearing witness to the word of His grace, granting that ^{1b}signs and wonders be done by their hands.

4 ^aBut the multitude of the city was divided; and some ¹sided with ^bthe Jews, and some with ^cthe apostles.

5 And when an attempt was made by both the Gentiles and ^athe Jews with their rulers, to mistreat and to ^bstone them,

6 they became aware of it and fled to the cities of ^aLycania, ^bLystra and ^cDerbe, and the surrounding region;

7 and there they continued to ^apreach the gospel.

8 And at ^aLystra there was sitting ^ba certain man, without strength in his feet, lame from his mother's womb, who had never walked.

9 This man was listening to Paul as he spoke, who, ^awhen he had fixed his gaze upon him, and had seen that he had ^bfaith to be ¹made well,

10 said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet." ^aAnd he leaped up and began to walk.

11 And when the multitudes saw what Paul had done, they raised their voice, saying in the ^aLycanian language, "^bThe gods have become like men and have come down to us."

12 And they began calling Barnabas, ¹Zeus, and Paul, ²Hermes, because he was ³the chief speaker.

13 And the priest of Zeus, whose temple was ¹just outside the city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and ^awanted to offer sacrifice with the crowds.

14 But when ^athe apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they ^btore their ¹robes and rushed out into the crowd, crying out

18 And even saying these things, they with difficulty restrained the crowds from offering sacrifice to them.

19 But ^aJews came from ^bAntioch and ^cIconium, and having won over the multitudes, they ^dstoned Paul and ¹dragged him out of the city, supposing him to be dead.

20 But while ^athe disciples stood around him, he arose and entered the city. And the next day he went away with Barnabas to ^bDerbe.

21 And after they had ^apreached the gospel to that city and had ^bmade many disciples, they returned to ^cLystra and to ^dIconium and to ^eAntioch,

22 strengthening the souls of ^athe disciples, encouraging them to continue in ^bthe faith, and saying, "^cThrough many tribulations we must enter the kingdom of God."

23 And when ^athey had appointed ^belders for them in every church, having ^cprayed with fasting, they ^dcommended them to the Lord in whom they had believed.

24 And they passed through ^aPisidia and came into ^bPamphylia.

26 and from there they sailed to ^aAntioch, from ^bwhich they had been ^ccommended to the grace of God for the work that they had ¹accomplished.

27 And when they had arrived and gathered the church together, they began to ^areport all things that God had done with them and ¹how He had opened a ^bdoor of faith to the Gentiles.

28 And they spent ¹a long time with ^athe disciples.

CHAPTER 15

AND ^asome men came down from Judea and began teaching ^bthe brethren, "Unless you are ^ccircumcised according to ^dthe custom of Moses, you cannot be saved."

2 And when Paul and Barnabas had ¹great dissension and ^adebate with them, ²*the brethren* determined that Paul and Barnabas and certain others of them, should go up to Jerusalem to the ^capostles and elders concerning this issue.

3 Therefore, being ^asent on their way by the church, they were passing through both ^bPhoenicia and Samaria, ^cdescribing in detail the conversion of the Gentiles, and were bringing great joy to all ^dthe brethren.

4 And when they arrived at Jerusalem, they were received by the church and ^athe apostles and the elders, and they ^breported all that God had done with them.

5 But certain ones of ^athe sect of the ^bPharisees who had believed, stood up, saying, "It is necessary to ^ccircumcise them, and to direct them to observe the Law of Moses."

6 And ^athe apostles and the elders came together to ¹look into this ²matter.

7 And after there had been much ^adebate, Peter stood up and said to them, "Brethren, you know that ¹in the early days ^bGod made a choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of ^cthe gospel and believe.

8 "And God, ^awho knows the heart, bore witness to them, ^bgiving them the Holy Spirit, just as He also did to us;

9 and ^aHe made no distinction between us and them, ^bcleansing their hearts by faith.

10 "Now therefore why do you ^aput God to the test by placing upon the neck of the disciples a yoke which ^bneither our fathers nor we have been able to bear?

11 "But we believe that we are saved through ^athe grace of the Lord Jesus, in the same way as they also are."

12 And all the multitude kept silent, and they were listening to Barnabas and Paul as they were ^arelating what ^bsigns and wonders God had done through them among the Gentiles.

13 And after they had stopped speaking, ^{1a}James answered, saying, "Brethren, listen to me.

14 "^aSimcon has related how God first concerned Himself about taking from among the Gentiles a people for His name.

15 "And with this the words of ^athe Prophets agree, just as it is written,

16 ^aAFTER THESE THINGS ^bI WILL RETURN,

17 ^aIN ORDER THAT THE REST OF ¹MANKIND MAY SEEK THE LORD,

AND ALL THE GENTILES ^{2b}WHO ARE CALLED BY MY NAME,

18 ^aSAYS THE LORD, WHO ^{1b}MAKES THESE THINGS KNOWN FROM OF OLD.'

19 "Therefore it is ^amy judgment that we do not trouble those who are turning to God from among the Gentiles, 20 but that we write to them that they abstain from ^{1a}things contaminated by idols and from fornication and from ^bwhat is strangled and from blood.

21 "For ^aMoses from ancient generations has in every city those who preach him, since he is read in the synagogues every Sabbath."

22 Then it seemed good to ^athe apostles and the elders, with the whole church, to choose men from among them to send to ^bAntioch with Paul and Barnabas—Judas called Barsabbas, and ^cSilas, leading men among ^dthe brethren,

23 and they ¹sent this letter by them, whom we gave no instruction have ^bdisturbed you with their words, unsettling your souls,

25 ^ait seemed good to us, having ¹become of one mind, to select men to send to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, 26 men who have ¹risksed their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

27 “Therefore we have sent ^aJudas and ^bSilas, who themselves will also report the same things by word of mouth.

28 “For ^ait seemed good to ^bthe Holy Spirit and to ^cus to lay upon you no greater burden than these essentials: that you abstain from ^athings sacrificed to idols and from ^ablood and from ^athings strangled and from ^afornication; ¹if you keep yourselves free from such things, you will do well. Farewell.”

30 So, when they were sent away, ^athey went down to Antioch; and having gathered the ¹congregation together, they delivered the letter.

31 And when they had read it, they rejoiced because of its ¹encouragement.

32 And ^aJudas and ^bSilas, also being ^cprophets themselves, ¹encouraged and strengthened ^dthe brethren with a lengthy message.

33 And after they had spent time there, they were sent away from the brethren ^ain peace to those who had ^bsent them out.

34 (See marginal note.¹)

35 But ^aPaul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and ^bpreaching with many others also ^cthe word of the Lord.

36 And after some days Paul said to Barnabas, “Let us return and visit the brethren in ^aevery city in which we proclaimed ^bthe word of the Lord, and see how they are.”

37 And Barnabas was desirous of taking ^aJohn, called Mark, along with them also.

38 But Paul kept insisting that they should not take him along who had ^adeserted them ¹in Pamphylia and had not gone with them to the work.

39 And there arose such a sharp disagreement that they separated from one another, and Barnabas took ^aMark with him and sailed away to ^bCyprus.

40 But Paul chose ^aSilas and departed, being ^bcommitted by the brethren to the grace of the Lord.

41 And he was traveling through ^aSyria and ^bCilicia, strengthening the churches.

CHAPTER 16

AND he came also to ^aDerbe and to ^aLystra. And behold, a certain disciple was there, named ^bTimothy, the son of a ^cJewish woman who was a believer, but his father was a Greek,

2 and he was well spoken of by ^athe brethren who were in ^bLystra and ^cIconium.

3 Paul wanted this man to ¹go with him; and he ^atook him and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts, for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

4 Now while they were passing through the cities, they were delivering ^athe decrees, which had been decided upon by ^bthe apostles and ^celders who were in Jerusalem, for them to observe.

5 So ^athe churches were being strengthened ¹in the faith, and were ^bincreasing in number daily.

6 And they passed through the ^{1a}Phrygian and ^bGalatian region, having been forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in ^{2c}Asia;

7 and when they had come to ^aMysia, they were trying to go into ^bBithynia, and the ^cSpirit of Jesus did not permit them;

8 and passing ^{1b}y ^aMysia, they came down to ^bTroas.

9 And ^aa vision appeared to Paul in the night: ^{1A}A certain man of ^bMacedonia was standing and appealing to him, and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us."

10 And when he had seen ^athe vision, immediately ^bwe sought to ^{1go}into Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to ^cpreach the gospel to them.

11 ¹Therefore putting out to sea from ^aTroas, we ran ^{ba}straight course to Samothrace, and on the day following to Neapolis;

12 and from there to ^aPhilippi, which is a leading city of the district of ^bMacedonia, ^{ca} a Roman colony; and we were staying in this city for some days.

13 And on ^athe Sabbath day we went outside the gate to a river side, where we were supposing that there would be a place of prayer; and we sat down and began speaking to the women who had assembled.

14 And a certain woman named Lydia, from the city of ^aThyatira, a seller of purple fabrics, ^{ba} a worshiper of God, was listening; ^{1and} the Lord ^copened her heart to respond to the things spoken by Paul.

15 And when she and ^aher household had been baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house and stay." And she prevailed upon us.

16 And it happened that as we were going to ^athe place of prayer, a certain slave-girl having ^{ba} a spirit of divination met us, who was bringing her masters much profit by fortune-telling.

17 Following after Paul and us, she kept crying out, saying, "These men are bond-servants of ^athe Most High God, who are proclaiming to you ¹the way of salvation."

18 And she continued doing this for many days. But Paul was greatly annoyed, and turned and said to the spirit, "I command you ^ain the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!" And it came out at that very ¹moment.

19 But when her masters saw that their hope of ^aprofit was ¹gone, they seized ^bPaul and Silas and ^cdragged them into the market place before the authorities,

20 and when they had brought them to the chief magistrates, they said, "These men are throwing our city into confusion, being Jews,

21 and ^aare proclaiming customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being ^bRomans."

22 And the crowd rose up together against them, and the chief magistrates tore their ¹robes off them, and proceeded to order ²them to be ^abeaten with rods.

23 And when they had inflicted many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, commanding ^athe jailer to guard them securely;

24 ¹and he, having received such a command, threw them into the inner prison, and fastened their feet in ^athe stocks.

25 But about midnight ^aPaul and Silas were praying and ^bsinging hymns of praise to God, and the prisoners were listening to them;

26 and suddenly ^athere came a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison-house were shaken; and immediately ^ball the doors were opened, and everyone's ^cchains were unfastened.

27 And when ^athe jailer had been roused out of sleep and had seen the prison doors opened, he drew his sword and was about ^bto kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.

28 But Paul cried out with a loud voice, saying, "Do yourself no harm, for we are all here!"

29 And he called for lights and rushed in and trembling with fear, he fell down before ^aPaul and Silas,

30 and after he brought them out, he said, "Sirs, ^awhat must I do to be saved?"

31 And they said, "^aBelieve in the Lord Jesus, and you shall be saved, you and ^byour household."

32 And they spoke the word of ¹the Lord to him together with all who were in his house.

33 And he took them ^athat very hour of the night and washed their wounds, and immediately he was baptized, he and all his household.

34 And he brought them into his house and set ¹food before them, and rejoiced ²greatly, having believed in God with ^ahis whole household.

35 Now when day came, the chief magistrates sent their policemen, saying, "Release those men."

36 And ^athe jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, "The chief magistrates have sent to release you. Now therefore come out and go ^bin peace."

37 But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us in public without trial, ^amen who are Romans, and have thrown us into prison; and now are they sending us away secretly? No indeed! But let them come themselves and bring us out."

38 And the policemen reported these words to the chief magistrates. And ^athey were afraid when they heard that they were Romans, 39 and they came and appealed to them, and when they had brought them out, they kept begging them ^ato leave the city.

40 And they went out of the prison and entered the house of ^aLydia, and when they saw ^bthe brethren, they ¹encouraged them and departed.

CHAPTER 17

NOW when they had traveled through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to ^aThessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.

2 And ^aaccording to Paul's custom, he went to them, and for three ^bSabbaths reasoned with them from ^cthe Scriptures.

3 ¹explaining and ²giving evidence that the ³Christ ^ahad to suffer and ^brise again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus whom I am proclaiming to you is the ³Christ."

4 ^aAnd some of them were persuaded and joined ^bPaul and Silas, ¹along with a great multitude of the ^cGod-fearing ^dGreeks and ²a number of the ^eleading women.

5 But ^athe Jews, becoming jealous and taking along some wicked men from the market place, formed a mob and set the city in an uproar; and coming upon the house of ^bJason, they were seeking to bring them out to the people.

6 And when they did not find them, they began ^adragging Jason and some brethren before the city authorities, shouting, "These men who have upset ^bthe world have come here also;

7 ¹and Jason ^ahas welcomed them, and they all act ^bcontrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus."

8 And they stirred up the crowd and the city authorities who heard these things.

9 And when they had received a ¹pledge from ^aJason and the others, they released them.

10 And ^athe brethren immediately sent ^bPaul and Silas away by night to ^cBerea; ¹and when they arrived, they went into ^dthe synagogue of the Jews.

11 Now these were more noble-minded than those in ^aThessalonica, ¹for they received the word with ²great eagerness, examining the Scriptures daily, to see whether these things were so.

12 ^aMany of them therefore believed, ¹along with a number of ^bprominent Greek ^cwomen and men.

13 But when the Jews of ^aThessalonica found out that the word of God had been proclaimed by Paul in ^bBerea also, they came there likewise, agitating and stirring up the crowds.

14 And then immediately ^athe brethren sent Paul out to go as far as the sea; and ^bSilas and ^cTimothy remained there.

15 Now ^athose who conducted Paul brought him as far as ^bAthens; and receiving a command for ^cSilas and Timothy to ^dcome to him as soon as possible, they departed.

16 Now while Paul was waiting for them at ^aAthens, his spirit was being provoked within him as he was beholding the city full of idols.

17 So he was reasoning ^ain the synagogue with the Jews and ^bthe God-fearing Gentiles, and in the market place every day with those who happened to be present.

18 And also some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers were ¹conversing with him. And some were saying, "What would ^athis ²idle babbler wish to say?" Others, "He seems to be a proclaimer of strange ³deities,"—because he was preaching ^bJesus and the resurrection.

19 And they ^atook him and brought him ¹to the ²*Areopagus*, saying, "May we know what ^cthis new teaching is ³which you are proclaiming?"

20 "For you are bringing some strange things to our ears; we want to know therefore what these things mean."

21 (Now all the Athenians and the strangers ^avisiting there used to spend their time in nothing other than telling or hearing something new.)

22 And Paul stood in the midst of the ¹Areopagus and said, "Men of ^aAthens, I observe that you are very ^breligious in all respects.

23 "For while I was passing through and examining the ^aobjects of your worship, I also found an altar with this inscription, 'TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.' What therefore ^byou worship in ignorance, this I proclaim to you.

24 "The God who made the world and all things in it, since He is ^bLord of heaven and earth, does not ^cdwell in temples made with hands;

25 neither is He served by human hands, ^aas though He needed anything, since He Himself gives to all life and breath and all things;

26 and ^aHe made from ¹one every nation of mankind to live on all the face of the earth, having ^bdetermined their appointed times, and the boundaries of their habitation,

27 that they should seek God, if perhaps they might grope for Him and find Him, ^athough He is not far from each one of us;

28 for ^ain Him we live and move and ¹exist, as even some of your own poets have said, 'For we also are His offspring.'

29 "Being then the offspring of God, we ^aought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold or silver or stone, an image formed by the art and thought of man.

30 "Therefore having ^aoverlooked ^bthe times of ignorance, God is ^cnow declaring to men that all everywhere should repent,

31 because He has fixed ^aa day in which ^bHe will judge ¹the world in righteousness through a Man whom He has ^dappointed, having furnished proof to all men ²by ^craising Him from the dead."

32 Now when they heard of ^athe resurrection of the dead, some began to sneer, but others said, "We shall hear you ¹again concerning this."

33 So Paul went out of their midst.

34 But some men joined him and believed, among whom also was Dionysius the ^aAreopagite and a woman named Damaris and others with them.

CHAPTER 18

AFTER these things he left ^aAthens and went to ^bCorinth.

2 And he found a certain Jew named ^aAquila, a native of ^bPontus, having recently come from ^cItaly with his wife ^aPriscilla, because ^dClaudius had commanded all the Jews to leave Rome. He came to them,

3 and because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and ^athey were working; for by trade they were tent-makers.

4 And he was reasoning ^ain the synagogue every ^bSabbath and trying to persuade ^cJews and Greeks.

5 But when ^aSilas and Timothy ^bcame down from ^cMace-domia, Paul began devoting himself completely to the word, solemnly ^dtestifying to the Jews that ^cJesus was the ¹Christ.

6 And when they resisted and blasphemed, he ^ashook out his garments and said to them, “^bYour blood be upon your own heads, I am clean; from now on I shall go ^cto the Gentiles.”

7 And he departed from there and went to the house of a certain man named ¹Titus Justus, ^aa worshiper of God, whose house was next to the synagogue.

8 And ^aCrispus, ^bthe leader of the synagogue, believed in the Lord ^cwith all his household, and many of the ^dCorinthians when they heard were believing and being baptized.

9 And the Lord said to Paul in the night by ^aa vision, “Do not be afraid any longer, but go on speaking and do not be silent;

10 for I am with you, and no man will attack you in order to harm you, for I have many people in this city.”

11 And he settled there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

12 But while Gallio was ^aproconsul of ^bAchaia, ^cthe Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before ^dthe judgment-seat,

13 saying, “This man persuades men to worship God contrary to ^athe law.”

14 But when Paul was about to ^aopen his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, “If it were a matter of wrong or of vicious crime, O Jews, it would be reasonable for me to put up with you;

15 but if there are ^aquestions about words and names and your own Law, look after it yourselves; I am unwilling to be a judge of these matters.”

16 And he drove them away from ^athe judgment-seat.

17 And they all took hold of ^aSosthenes, ^bthe leader of the synagogue, and began beating him in front of ^cthe judgment-seat. And Gallio was not concerned about any of these things.

18 And Paul, having remained many days longer, ^atook leave of ^bthe brethren and put out to sea for ^cSyria, and with him were ^dPriscilla and ^dAquila. In ^cCenchrea ¹he ^fhad his hair cut, for he was keeping a vow.

19 And they came to ^aEphesus, and he left them there. Now he himself entered ^bthe synagogue and reasoned with the Jews.

20 And when they asked him to stay for a longer time, he did not consent, 21 but ^ataking leave of them and saying, “I will return to you again ^bif God wills,” he set sail from ^cEphesus.

22 And when he had landed at ^aCaesarea, he went up and greeted the church, and went down to ^bAntioch.

23 And having spent some time there, he departed and passed successively through the ^aGalatian region and Phrygia, strengthening all the disciples.

24 Now a certain Jew named ^aApollos, an ^bAlexandrian by birth, ¹an eloquent man, came to ^cEphesus; and he was mighty in the Scriptures.

25 This man had been instructed in ^athe way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he was speaking and teaching accu-

26 and he began to speak out boldly in the synagogue. But when ^aPriscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside and explained to him ^bthe way of God more accurately.

27 And when he wanted to go across to ^aAchaia, ^bthe brethren encouraged him and wrote to ^cthe disciples to welcome him; and when he had arrived, he ¹helped greatly those who had believed through grace;

CHAPTER 19

AND it came about that while ^aApollos was at ^bCorinth, Paul having passed through the ^cupper country came to ^dEphesus, and found some disciples,

2 and he said to them, ^a“Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?” And they said to him, “No, ^bwe have not even heard whether ¹there is a Holy Spirit.”

3 And he said, “Into what then were you baptized?” And they said, ^a“Into John’s baptism.”

4 And Paul said, ^a“John baptized with the baptism of repentance, telling the people ^bto believe in Him who was coming after him, that is, in Jesus.”

5 And when they heard this, they were ^abaptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had ^alaid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they began ^bspeaking with tongues and ^cprophesying.

7 And there were in all about twelve men.

8 And he entered ^athe synagogue and continued speaking out boldly for three months, reasoning and ¹persuading them ^babout the kingdom of God.

9 But when ^asome were becoming hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of ^bthe Way before the multitude, he withdrew from them and took away ^cthe disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus.

10 And this took place for ^atwo years, so that all who lived in ¹Asia heard ^cthe word of the Lord, both Jews and Greeks.

11 And God was performing ^aextraordinary ¹miracles by the hands of Paul, 12 ^aso that handkerchiefs or aprons were even carried from his body to the sick, and the diseases left them and ^bthe evil spirits went out.

13 But also some of the Jewish ^aexorcists, who went from place to place, attempted to name over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, “I adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches.”

14 And seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, were doing this.

15 And the evil spirit answered and said to them, “I recognize Jesus, and I know about Paul, but who are you?”

16 And the man in whom was the evil spirit leaped on them and subdued both of them and overpowered them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived in ^aEphesus; and fear fell upon them all and the name of the Lord Jesus was being magnified.

18 Many also of those who had believed kept coming, confessing and disclosing their practices.

19 And many of those who practiced magic brought their books together and began burning them in the sight of all; and they counted up the price of them and found it ¹fifty thousand ^apieces of silver.

20 So ^{1a}the word of the Lord ^bwas growing mightily and prevailing.

21 Now after these things were finished, Paul purposed in the ¹spirit to ^ago to Jerusalem ^bafter he had passed through ^cMacedonia and ^dAchaia, saying, "After I have been there, ^eI must also see Rome."

22 And having sent into ^aMacedonia two of ^bthose who ministered to him, ^cTimothy and ^dErastus, he himself stayed in ^{1c}Asia for a while.

23 And about that time there arose no small disturbance concerning ^athe Way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of ¹Artemis, ^awas bringing no little ²business to the craftsmen;

25 these he gathered together with the workmen of similar trades, and said, "Men, you know that our prosperity ¹depends upon this business.

26 "And you see and hear that not only in ^aEphesus, but in almost all of ^{1b}Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away a considerable number of people, saying that ^cgods made with hands are no gods at all.

27 "And not only is there danger that this trade of ours fall into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess ¹Artemis be regarded as worthless and that she whom all of ^{2a}Asia and ^bthe ³world worship should even be dethroned from her magnificence."

28 And when they heard this and were filled with rage, they began crying out, saying, "Great is ¹Artemis of the ^aEphesians!"

29 And the city was filled with the confusion, and they rushed with one accord into the theater, ¹dragging along ^aGaius and ^bAristarchus, Paul's traveling ^ccompanions from ^dMacedonia.

30 And when Paul wanted to go in to the ¹assembly, ^athe disciples would not let him.

31 And also some of the ¹Asiarchs who were friends of his sent to him and repeatedly urged him not to ²venture into the theater.

32 So then, some were shouting one thing and some another, for the ¹assembly was in confusion, and the majority did not know ²for what cause they had come together.

33 And some of the crowd ¹concluded it was Alexander, since the Jews had put him forward; and having ^amotioned with his hand, Alexander was intending to make a defense to the ²assembly.

34 But when they recognized that he was a Jew, a single outcry arose from them all as they shouted for about two hours, "Great is ¹Artemis of the Ephesians!"

35 And after quieting the multitude the townclerk ^asaid, "Men of ^aEphesus, what man is there after all who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is guardian of the temple of the great ¹Artemis, and of the image which fell down from ²heaven?"

36 "Since then these are undeniable facts, you ought to keep calm and to do nothing rash.

37 "For you have brought these men here who are neither ^arobbers of temples nor blasphemers of our goddess.

38 "So then, if Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a complaint against any man, the courts are in session and ^{1a}proconsuls are available; let them bring charges against one another.

41 And after saying this he dismissed the ¹assembly.

CHAPTER 20

AND after the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for ^athe disciples and when he had exhorted them and taken his leave of them, he departed ^bto go to ^cMacedonia.

2 And when he had gone through those districts and had given them much exhortation, he came to Greece.

3 And there he spent three months, and when ^aa plot was formed against him by the Jews as he was about to set sail for ^bSyria, he determined to return through ^cMacedonia.

4 And ¹he was accompanied by Sopater of ^aBerea, the son of Pyrrhus; and by ^bAristarchus and Secundus of the ^cThessalonians; and ^dGaius of ^eDerbe, and ^fTimothy; and ^gTychicus and ^hTrophimus of ²Asia.

5 But these had gone on ahead and were waiting for ^aus at ^bTroas.

6 And ^awe sailed from ^bPhilippi after ^cthe days of Unleavened Bread, and came to them at ^dTroas within five days; and there we stayed seven days.

7 And on ^athe first day of the week, when ^bwe were gathered together to ^cbreak bread, Paul began talking to them, intending to depart the next day, and he prolonged his ¹message until midnight.

8 And there were many ^alamps in the ^bupper room where we were gathered together.

9 And there was a certain young man named Eutychus sitting ¹on the window-sill, sinking into a deep sleep; and as Paul kept on talking, he was overcome by sleep and fell down from the third floor, and was picked up dead.

10 But Paul went down and ^afell upon him and after embracing him, he ^bsaid, "Do not be troubled, for his life is in him."

11 And when he had gone back up, and had ^abroken the bread and eaten, he talked with them a long while, until daybreak, and so departed.

12 And they took away the boy alive, and were greatly comforted.

13 But ^awc, going ahead to the ship, set sail for Assos, intending from there to take Paul on board; for thus he had arranged it, intending himself to go ¹by land.

14 And when he met us at Assos, we took him on board and came to Mitylene.

15 And sailing from there, we arrived the following day opposite Chios; and the next day we crossed over to Samos; and ¹the day following we came to ^aMiletus.

16 For Paul had decided to sail past ^aEphesus in order that he might not have to spend time in ^{1b}Asia; for he was hurrying ^cto be in Jerusalem, if possible, ^don the day of Pentecost.

17 And from Miletus he sent to ^aEphesus and called to him ^bthe elders of the church.

18 And when they had come to him, he said to them,

“You yourselves know, ^afrom the first day that I set foot in ^{1a}Asia, how I was with you the whole time,

19 serving the Lord with all humility and with tears and with trials which came upon me through ^athe plots of the Jews;

20 how I ^adid not shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, and teaching you publicly and ¹from house to house,

21 solemnly ^atestifying to both Jews and Greeks of ^brepentance toward God and ^cfaith in our Lord Jesus Christ.

22 “And now, behold, bound in ¹spirit, ^aI am on my way to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there, 23 except that ^athe Holy Spirit solemnly ^btestifies to me in every city, saying that ^cbonds and afflictions await me.

24 “But ^aI do not consider my life of any account as dear to myself, in order that I may ^bfinish my course, and ^cthe ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to ^dtestify solemnly of the gospel of ^ethe grace of God.

25 “And now, behold, I know that you all, among whom I went about ^apreaching the kingdom, will see my face no more.

26 “Therefore I ¹testify to you this day, that ^aI am ²innocent of the blood of all men.

27 “For I ^adid not shrink from declaring to you the whole ^bpurpose of God.

28 “Be on guard for yourselves and for all ^athe flock, among which the Holy Spirit has made you ¹overseers, to shepherd ^bthe church of ²God which ^cHe ³purchased with His own blood. [God or Jehovah the Father of the world]

29 “I know that after my departure ^asavage wolves will come in among you, not sparing ^bthe flock;

30 and from among your own selves men will arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away ^athe disciples after them.

31 “Therefore be on the alert, remembering that night and day for a period of ^athree years I did not cease to admonish each one ^bwith tears.

32 “And now I ^acommend you to ¹God and to ^bthe word of His grace, which is able to ^cbuild you up and to give you ^dthe inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

34 "You yourselves know that ^athese hands ministered to my own needs and to the ^bmen who were with me.

35 "In every thing I showed you that by working hard in this manner you must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that He Himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' "

36 And when he had said these things, he ^aknelt down and prayed with them all.

37 And ¹they began to weep aloud and ²embraced Paul, and repeatedly kissed him, 38 grieving especially over ^athe word which he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they were ^baccompanying him to the ship.

CHAPTER 21

AND when it came about that ^awe had parted from them and had set sail, we ran ^ba straight course to Cos and the next day to Rhodes and from there to Patara;

2 and having found a ship crossing over to ^aPhoenicia, we went aboard and set sail.

3 And when we had come in sight of ^aCyprus, leaving it on the left, we kept sailing to ^bSyria and landed at ^cTyre; for ^dthere the ship was to unload its cargo.

4 And after looking up ^athe disciples, we stayed there seven days; and ^bthey kept telling Paul ¹through the Spirit ²not to set foot in Jerusalem. the will of God revealed

5 And when it came about that ¹our days there were ended, we departed and started on our journey, while they all, with wives and children, ^aescorted us until we were out of the city. And after ^bkneceling down on the beach and praying, we said farewell to one another.

6 Then we went on board the ship, and they returned ^ahome again.

7 And when we had finished the voyage from ^aTyre, we arrived at Ptolemais; and after greeting ^bthe brethren, we stayed with them for a day.

8 And on the next day we departed and came to ^aCaesarea; and entering the house of ^bPhilip the evangelist, who was ^bone of the seven, we stayed with him.

9 Now this man had four virgin daughters who were ^aprophetesses.

10 And as we were staying there for some days, a certain prophet named ^aAgabus came down from Judea.

11 And coming to us, he ^atook Paul's belt and bound his own feet and hands, and said, "This ^bis what the Holy Spirit says: 'In this way the Jews at Jerusalem will ^cbind the man who owns this belt and ^ddeliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.' "

12 And when we had heard this, we as well as the local residents ^abegan begging him ^anot to go up to Jerusalem.

13 Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For ¹I am ready not only ²to be bound; but even ³to die at Jerusalem for ^bthe name of the Lord Jesus! "

14 And since he would not be persuaded, we fell silent, remarking, "The will of the Lord be done! "

15 And after these days we got ready and ^astarted on our way up to Jerusalem.

16 And some of ^athe disciples from ^bCaesarea also came with us, taking us to Mnason of ^cCyprus, a ^ddisciple of long standing with whom we were to lodge.

17 And when we had come to Jerusalem, ^athe brethren received us gladly.

18 And now the following day Paul went in with us to ^{1a}James, and all ^bthe elders were present.

19 And after he had greeted them, he ^abegan to relate one by one the things which God had done among the Gentiles through his ^bministry.

20 And when they heard it they began ^aglorifying God; and they said to him, "You see, brother, how many ¹thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed, and they are all ^bzealous for the Law;

21 and they have been told about you, that you are ^ateaching all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them ^bnot to circumcise their children nor to walk according to ^cthe customs.

22 "What, then, is to be done? They will certainly hear that you have come.

23 "Therefore do this that we tell you: We have four men who ^{1a}are under a vow;

24 take them and ^apurify yourself along with them, and ¹pay their expenses in order that they may ^bshave their ²heads; and all will know that there is nothing to the things which they have been told about you, but that you yourself also walk orderly, keeping the Law.

25 "But concerning the Gentiles who have believed, we wrote, ^ahaving decided that they should abstain from ¹meat sacrificed to idols and from blood and from what is strangled and from fornication."

26 Then Paul ¹took the men, and the next day ^apurifying himself along with them ^bwent into the temple, giving notice of the completion of the days of purification, until the sacrifice was offered for each one of them.

27 And when ^athe seven days were almost over, ^bthe Jews from ^{1c}Asia, upon seeing him in the temple, began to stir up all the multitude and laid hands on him,

28 crying out, "Men of Israel, come to our aid! ^aThis is the man who preaches to all men everywhere against our people, and the Law, and this place; and besides he has even brought Greeks into the temple and has ^bdefiled this ^aholy place."

29 For they had previously seen ^aTrophimus the ^bEphe-sian in the city with him, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.

30 And all the city was aroused, and ¹the people rushed together; and taking hold of Paul, they ^adragged him out of the temple; and immediately the doors were shut.

31 And while they were seeking to kill him, a report came up to the ¹commander of the ^aRoman ²Cohort that all Jerusalem was in confusion.

32 And at once he ^atook along some soldiers and centu- rions, and ran down to them; and then they saw the ¹command- er and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

34 But among the crowd ^asome were shouting one thing and some another, and when he could not find out the ¹facts on account of the uproar, he ordered him to be brought into ^bthe barracks.

35 And when he got to ^athe stairs, it so happened that he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the ¹mob;

36 for the multitude of the people kept following behind, crying out, "^aAway with him!"

37 And as Paul was about to be brought into ^athe barracks, he said to the ¹commander, "May I say something to you?" And he ^asaid, "Do you know Greek?"

38 "Then you are not ^athe Egyptian who some ¹time ago stirred up a revolt and led the four thousand men of the Assassins out ^binto the wilderness?"

39 But Paul said, "^aI am a Jew of Tarsus in ^bCilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city; and I beg you, allow me to speak to the people."

40 And when he had given him permission, Paul, standing on ^athe stairs, ^bmotioned to the people with his hand; and when there ¹was a great hush, he spoke to them in the ^{2c}Hebrew dialect, saying,

CHAPTER 22

"^aBRETHREN and fathers, hear my defense which I now offer to you."

2 And when they heard that he was addressing them in the ^{1a}Hebrew dialect, they became even more quiet; and he ^asaid,

3 "^aI am ^aa Jew, born in ^cTarsus of ^dCilicia, but brought up in this city, ^eeducated ¹under ^fGamaliel, ²strictly according to the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, just as ^byou all are today.

4 "And ^aI persecuted this ^bWay to the death, binding and putting both men and women into prisons,

5 as also ^athe high priest and all ^bthe Council of the elders ¹can testify. From them I also ^creceived letters to ^dthe brethren, and started off for ^cDamascus in order to bring even those who were there to Jerusalem ²as prisoners to be punished.

6 "^aAnd it came about that as I was on my way, approaching Damascus about noontime, a very bright light suddenly flashed from heaven all around me,

7 and I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting Me?'

8 "And I answered, 'Who art Thou, Lord?' And He said to me, 'I am ^aJesus the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting.'

9 "And those who were with me ^abeheld the light, to be sure, but ^bdid not ¹understand the voice of the One who was speaking to me.

10 "And I said, '^aWhat shall I do, Lord?' And the Lord said to me, 'Arise and go on into Damascus; and there you will be told of all that has been appointed for you to do.'

11 "But since I ^acould not see because of the ¹brightness of that light, I was led by the hand by those who were with me, and came into Damascus.

12 "And a certain ^aAnanias, a man who was devout by the standard of the Law, and ^bwell spoken of by all the Jews who lived there, 13 came to me, and standing near said to me, "^aBrother Saul, receive your sight!" And ¹that that very time I looked up at him.

14 "And he said, "^aThe God of our fathers has ^bappointed you to know His will, and to ^csee the ^dRighteous One, and to hear an ¹utterance from His mouth.

15 "For you will be ^aa witness for Him to all men of ^bwhat you have seen and heard.

16 "And now why do you delay? ^aArise, and be baptized, and ^bwash away your sins, ^ccalling on His name."

17 "And it came about that when I ^areturned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, I ^bfell into a trance,

18 and I saw Him saying to me, "^aMake haste, and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not accept your testimony about Me."

19 "And I said, "Lord, they themselves understand that in one synagogue after another ^aI used to imprison and ^bbeat those who believed in Thee.

20 "And ^awhen the blood of Thy witness Stephen was being shed, I also was standing by approving, and watching out for the cloaks of those who were slaying him."

21 "And He said to me, "Go! For I will send you far away ^ato the Gentiles."

22 And they listened to him up to this statement, and then they raised their voices and said, "^aAway with such a fellow from the earth, for ^bhe should not be allowed to live!"

23 And as they were crying out and ^athrowing off their cloaks and ^btossing dust into the air,

24 the ¹commander ordered him to be brought into ^athe barracks, stating that he should be ^bexamined by scourging so that he might find out the reason why they were shouting against him that way.

25 And when they stretched him out ¹with thongs, Paul said to the centurion who was standing by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge ^aa man who is a Roman and uncondemned?"

26 And when the centurion heard this, he went to the ¹commander and told him, saying, "What are you about to do? For this man is a Roman."

27 And the ¹commander came and said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" And he said, "Yes."

28 And the ¹commander answered, "I acquired this citizenship with a large sum of money." And Paul said, "But I was actually born a citizen."

29 Therefore those who were about to ^aexamine him immediately ¹let go of him; and the ²commander also ^bwas afraid when he found out that he was a Roman, and because he had ³put him in chains.

30 But on the next day, ^awishing to know for certain why he had been accused by the Jews, he ^breleased him and ordered

AND Paul, looking intently at ^athe ¹Council, said, "^bBrethren, ^cI have ²lived my life with a perfectly good conscience before God up to this day."

2 And the high priest ^aAnanias commanded those standing beside him ^bto strike him on the mouth.

3 Then Paul said to him, "God is going to strike you, ^ayou white-washed wall! And do you ^bsit to try me according to the Law, and in violation of the Law order me to be struck?"

4 But the bystanders said, "Do you revile God's high priest?"

5 And Paul said, "I was not aware, brethren, that he was high priest; for it is written, ^aYOU SHALL NOT SPEAK EVIL OF A RULER OF YOUR PEOPLE."

6 But perceiving that one party were ^aSadducees and the other Pharisees, Paul began crying out in ^bthe ¹Council, "^cBrethren, ^dI am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees; I am on trial for ^ethe hope and resurrection of the dead!"

7 And as he said this, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and Sadducees; and the assembly was divided.

8 For ^athe Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor an angel, nor a spirit; but the Pharisees acknowledged them ¹all.

9 And there arose a great uproar; and some of ^athe scribes of the Pharisaic party stood up and began to argue heatedly, saying, "^bWe find nothing wrong with this man; ^csuppose a spirit or an angel has spoken to him?"

10 And as a great dissension was developing, the ¹commander was afraid Paul would be torn to pieces by them and ordered the troops to go down and take him away from them by force, and bring him into ^athe barracks.

11 But on ^athe night immediately following, the Lord stood at his side and said, "^bTake courage; for ^cas you have ^dsolemnly witnessed to My cause at Jerusalem, so you must witness at Rome also."

12 And when it was day, ^athe Jews formed a ¹conspiracy and ^bbound themselves under an oath, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.

13 And there were more than forty who formed this plot.

14 And they came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, "We have ^abound ourselves under a solemn oath to taste nothing until we have killed Paul.

15 "Now, therefore, you ¹and ^athe ²Council notify the ³commander to bring him down to you, as though you were going to determine his case by a more thorough investigation; and we for our part are ready to slay him before he comes near the place."

16 But the son of Paul's sister heard of their ambush, ¹and he came and entered ^athe barracks and told Paul.

17 And Paul called one of the centurions to him and said, "Lead this young man to the ¹commander, for he has something to report to him."

2 And after Paul had been summoned, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying to the governor,
"Since we have through you attained much peace, and since by your providence reforms are being carried out for this nation,
3 we acknowledge this in every way and everywhere, ^amost excellent Felix, with all thankfulness.
4 "But, that I may not weary you any further, I beg you ¹to grant us, by your kindness, a brief hearing.
5 "For we have found this man a real pest and a fellow who stirs up dissension among all the Jews throughout ¹the world, and a ringleader of the ^asect of the Nazarenes.
6 "And he even tried to ^adesecrate the temple; and ¹then we arrested him.²
7 (See marginal note², vs. 6.)
8 "And by examining him yourself concerning all these matters, you will be able to ascertain the things of which we accuse him."
9 And ^athe Jews also joined in the attack, asserting that these things were so.
10 And when ^athe governor had nodded for him to speak, Paul responded:
"Knowing that for many years you have been a judge to this nation, I cheerfully make my defense, 11 since you can take note of the fact that no more than ^atwelve days ago I went up to Jerusalem to worship.
12 "And ^aneither in the temple, nor in the synagogues, nor in the city itself did they find me carrying on a discussion with anyone or ^bcausing ¹a riot.
13 "^aNor can they prove to you the charges of which they now accuse me.
14 "But this I admit to you, that according to ^athe Way which they call a ^bsect I do serve ¹the God of our fathers, ^dbelieving everything that is in accordance with the Law, and that is written in the Prophets;
15 having a hope in God, which ^athese men cherish themselves, that there shall certainly be a resurrection of both the righteous and the wicked.
16 "In view of this, ^aI also ¹do my best to maintain always a blameless conscience both before God and before men.
17 "Now ^aafter several years I ^bcame to bring ¹alms to my nation and to present offerings;
18 in which they found me occupied in the temple, having been ^apurified, without any ^bcrowd or uproar. But there were certain ^cJews from ¹Asia—
19 who ought to have been present before you, and to ^amake accusation, if they should have anything against me.
20 "Or else let these men themselves tell what misdeed they found when I stood before ^athe ¹Council.
21 other than for this one statement which ^aI shouted out while standing among them, 'For the resurrection of the dead I am on trial before you today.'
22 But Felix, having a more exact knowledge about ^athe Way, put them off, saying, "When Lysias the ¹commander comes down, I will decide your case."

in custody and yet ^bhave some freedom, and not to prevent any of ^chis friends from ministering to him.

24 But some days later, Felix arrived with Drusilla, his ¹wife who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him *spe*ak about ^afaith in Christ Jesus.

25 And as he was discussing ^arighteousness, ^bself-control and ^cthe judgment to come, Felix became frightened and said, "Go away for the present, and when I find time, I will summon you."

26 At the same time too, he was hoping that ^amoney would be given him by Paul; therefore he also used to send for him quite often and converse with him.

27 But after two years had passed, Felix ¹was succeeded by Porcius ^aFestus; and ^bwishing to do the Jews a favor, Felix left Paul ^cimprisoned.

CHAPTER 25

FESTUS therefore, having arrived in ^athe province, three days later went up to Jerusalem from ^bCaesarea.

2 And the chief priests and the leading men of the Jews ^abrought charges against Paul; and they were urging him,

3 requesting a ¹concession against ²Paul, that he might ³have him brought to Jerusalem, (at the same time, ^asetting an ambush to kill him on the way).

4 Festus then ^aanswered that Paul ^bwas being kept in custody at ^cCaesarea and that he himself was about to leave shortly.

5 "Therefore," he ^asaid, "let the influential men among you ¹go there with me, and if there is anything wrong ²about the man, let them ³prosecute him."

6 And after he had spent not more than eight or ten days among them, he went down to ^aCaesarea; and on the next day he took his seat on ^bthe tribunal and ordered Paul to be brought.

7 And after he had arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing ^amany and serious charges against him ^bwhich they could not prove;

8 while Paul said in his own defense, "I have committed no offense either against the Law of the Jews or against the temple or against Caesar."

9 But Festus, ^awishing to do the Jews a favor, answered Paul and said, "^bAre you willing to go up to Jerusalem and ¹stand trial before me on these charges?"

10 But Paul said, "I am standing before Caesar's ^atribunal, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you also very well know.

11 "If then I am a wrongdoer, and have committed anything worthy of death, I do not refuse to die; but if none of those things is true of which these men accuse me, no one can hand me over to them. I ^aappeal to Caesar."

12 Then when Festus had conferred with ^ahis council, he answered, "You have appealed to Caesar, to Caesar you shall go."

13 Now when several days had elapsed, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived at ^aCaesarea, ¹and paid their respects to Festus.

14 And while they were spending many days there, Festus laid Paul's case before the king, saying, "There is a certain man ^aleft a prisoner by Felix;

15 and when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews ^abrought charges against him, asking for a sentence of condemnation upon him.

16 "And I ^aanswered them that it is not the custom of the Romans to hand over any man before ^bthe accused meets his accusers face to face, and has an opportunity to make his defense against the charges.

17 "And so after they had assembled here, I made no delay, but on the next day took my seat on ^athe tribunal, and ordered the man to be brought.

18 "And when the accusers stood up, they began bringing charges against him not of such crimes as I was expecting;

19 but they simply had some ^apoints of disagreement with him about their own ¹religion and about a certain dead man, Jesus, whom Paul asserted to be alive.

20 "And ^abeing at a loss how to investigate ¹such matters, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there stand trial on these matters.

21 "But when Paul ^aappealed to be held in custody for ¹the Emperor's decision, I ordered him to be kept in custody until I send him to Caesar."

22 And ^aAgrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he ^asaid, "you shall hear him."

23 And so, on the next day when ^aAgrippa had come ¹together with ^aBernice, amid great pomp, and had entered the auditorium ²accompanied by the ³commanders and the prominent men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought in.

24 And Festus ^asaid, "King Agrippa, and all you gentlemen here present with us, you behold this man about whom ^aall the people of the Jews appealed to me, both at Jerusalem and here, loudly declaring that ^bhe ought not to live any longer.

25 "But I found that he had committed ^anothing worthy of death; and since he himself ^bappealed to ¹the Emperor, I decided to send him.

26 "Yet I have nothing definite about him to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him before you all and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after the investigation has taken place, I may have something to write.

27 "For it seems absurd to me in sending a prisoner, not to indicate also the charges against him."

CHAPTER 26

AND ^aAgrippa said to Paul, "You are permitted to speak for yourself." Then Paul stretched out his hand and proceeded to make his defense:

2 "In regard to all the things of which I am accused by the Jews, I consider myself fortunate, King Agrippa, that I am about to make my defense before you today;

3 ¹especially because you are an expert in all ^acustoms and ²questions among the Jews; therefore I beg you to listen to me patiently.

4 "So then, all Jews know ^amy manner of life from my youth up, which from the beginning was spent among my own nation and at Jerusalem;

5 since they have known about me for a long time previously, if they are willing to testify, that I lived as a ^aPharisee ^baccording to the strictest ^csect of our religion.

6 "And now I am ¹standing trial ^afor the hope of ^bthe promise made by God to our fathers;

7 the promise ^ato which our twelve tribes hope to attain, as they earnestly serve God night and day. And for this ^bhope, O King, I am being ^caccused by Jews.

8 "Why is it considered incredible among you people ^aif God does raise the dead?

9 "So then, ^aI thought to myself that I had to do many things hostile to ^bthe name of Jesus of Nazareth.

10 "And this is ¹just what I ^adid in Jerusalem; not only did I lock up many of the ²saints in prisons, having ^breceived authority from the chief priests, but also when they were being put to death I ^ccast my vote against them.

11 "And ^aas I punished them often in all the synagogues, I tried to force them to blaspheme; and being ^bfuriously enraged at them, I kept pursuing them ^aeven to ¹foreign cities.

12 "¹While thus engaged ^aas I was journeying to Damascus with the authority and commission of the chief priests, 13 at midday, O King, I saw on the way a light from heaven, ¹brighter than the sun, shining all around me and those who were journeying with me.

14 "And when we had ^aall fallen to the ground, I heard a voice saying to me in the ¹Hebrew dialect, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

15 "And I said, 'Who art Thou, Lord?' And the Lord said, 'I am Jesus whom you are persecuting.'

16 "But arise, and ^astand on your feet; for this purpose I have appeared to you, to ^bappoint you a ^cminister and ^da witness not only to the things which you have ¹seen, but also to the things in which I will appear to you;

17 ^adelivering you ^bfrom the Jewish people and from the Gentiles, to whom I am sending you,

18 to ^aopen their eyes so that they may turn from ^bdarkness to light and from the dominion of ^cSatan to God, in order that they may receive ^dforgiveness of sins and an ^einheritance among those who have been sanctified by ^ffaith in Me.'

19 "Consequently, King Agrippa, I did not prove disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20 but kept declaring both ^ato those of Damascus first, and also ^bat Jerusalem and then throughout all the region of Judea, and even ^cto the Gentiles, that they should ^drepent and turn to God, performing deeds ^eappropriate to repentance.

21 "For this reason some Jews ^aseized me in the temple and tried ^bto put me to death.

22 "And so, having obtained help from God, I stand to this day ^atestifying both to small and great, stating nothing but what ^bthe Prophets and Moses said was going to take place;

27 “King Agrippa, do you believe the Prophets? I know that you do.”

28 And Agrippa replied to Paul, “¹In a short time you ²will persuade me to ³become a ^aChristian.”

29 And Paul said, “¹I would to God, that whether ²in a short or long time, not only you, but also all who hear me this day, might become such as I am, except for these ^achains.”

30 And ^athe king arose and the governor and Bernice, and those who were sitting with them,

31 and when they had drawn aside, they began talking to one another, saying, “^aThis man is not doing anything worthy of death or ¹imprisonment.”

CHAPTER 27

AND when it was decided that ^awe ^bshould sail for ^cItaly, they proceeded to deliver Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion of the Augustan ^{1d}Cohort named Julius.

2 And embarking in an Adramyttian ship, which was about to sail to the regions along the coast of ^{1a}Asia, we put out to sea, accompanied by ^bAristarchus, a ^cMacedonian of ^dThessalonica.

3 And the next day we put in at ^aSidon; and Julius ^btreated Paul with consideration and ^callowed him to go to his friends and receive care.

4 And from there we put out to sea and sailed under the shelter of ^aCyprus because ^bthe winds were contrary.

5 And when we had sailed through the sea along the coast of ^aCilicia and ^bPamphylia, we landed at Myra in Lycia.

6 And there the centurion found an ^aAlexandrian ship sailing for ^bItaly, and he put us aboard it.

7 And when we had sailed slowly for a good many days, and with difficulty had arrived off Cnidus, ^asince the wind did not permit us to go farther, we sailed under the shelter of ^bCrete, off Salmone;

8 and with difficulty ^asailing past it we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near which was the city of Lasca.

9 And when considerable time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, since even ^athe ¹Fast was already over, Paul began to admonish them,

10 and said to them, “Men, I perceive that the voyage will certainly be attended with ^adamage and great loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives.”

11 But the centurion was more persuaded by the ^apilot and the ¹captain of the ship, than by what was being said by Paul.

12 And because the harbor was not suitable for wintering, the majority reached a decision to put out to sea from there, if somehow they could reach Phoenix, a harbor of ^aCrete, facing ¹northeast and southeast, and spend the winter there.

13 And ¹when a moderate south wind came up, supposing that they had gained their purpose, they weighed anchor and began ^asailing along ^bCrete, close inshore.

14 But before very long there ^arushed down from ¹the land a violent wind, called ²Euraquilo;

15 and when the ship was caught in it, and could not face the wind, we gave way to it, and let ourselves be driven along.

16 And running under the shelter of a small island called ¹Clauda, we were scarcely able to get the ship's boat under control.

17 And after they had hoisted it up, they used ¹supporting cables in undergirding the ship; and fearing that they might ^arun aground on the shallows of Syrtis, they let down the ²sea anchor, and so let themselves be driven along.

18 The next day as we were being violently storm-tossed, ¹they began to ^ajettison the cargo;

19 and on the third day they threw the ship's tackle overboard with their own hands.

20 And since neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small storm was assailing us, from then on all hope of our being saved was gradually abandoned.

21 And ¹when they had gone a long time without food, then Paul stood up in their midst and said, "Men, you ought to have ²followed my advice and not to have set sail from ^bCrete, and ³incurred this ^adamage and loss.

22 "And yet now I urge you to ^akeep up your courage, for there shall be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.

23 "For this very night ^aan angel of the God to whom I belong and ^bwhom I serve ^cstood before me,

24 saying, 'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar; and behold, God has granted you ^ball those who are sailing with you.'

25 "Therefore, ^akeep up your courage, men, for I believe God, that ¹it will turn out exactly as I have been told.

26 "But we must ^arun aground on a certain ^bisland."

27 But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were being driven about in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors began to surmise that ¹they were approaching some land.

28 And they took soundings, and found it to be twenty fathoms; and a little farther on they took another sounding and found it to be fifteen fathoms.

29 And fearing that we might ^arun aground somewhere on the ¹rocks, they cast four anchors from the stern and ²wished for daybreak.

30 And as the sailors were trying to escape from the ship, and had let down ^athe ship's boat into the sea, on the pretense of intending to lay out anchors from the bow,

31 Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these men remain in the ship, you yourselves cannot be saved."

32 Then the soldiers cut away the ^aropes of the ship's boat, and let it fall away.

33 And until the day was about to dawn, Paul was encouraging them all to take some food, saying, "Today is the fourteenth day that you have been constantly watching and going without eating, having taken nothing.

34 "Therefore I encourage you to take some food, for this is for your preservation; for ^anot a hair from the head of any of you shall perish."

35 And having said this, he took bread and ^agave thanks to God in the presence of all; and he broke it and began to eat.

36 And all ^aof them ¹were encouraged, and they themselves also took food.

37 And all of us in the ship were two hundred and seventy-six ^{1a}persons.

38 And when they had eaten enough, they began to lighten the ship by ^athrowing out the wheat into the sea.

39 And when day came, ^athey ¹could not recognize the land; but they ²did observe a certain bay with a beach, and they ³resolved to ⁴drive the ship onto it if they could.

40 And casting off ^athe anchors, they ¹left them in the sea while at the same time they were loosening the ropes of the rudders, and hoisting the foresail to the wind, they were heading for the beach.

41 But striking a ¹reef where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground; and the prow stuck fast and remained immovable, but the stern began to be broken up by the force of the waves.

42 And the soldiers' plan was to ^akill the prisoners, that none of them should swim away and escape;

43 but the centurion, ^awanting to bring Paul safely through, kept them from their intention, and commanded that those who could swim should ¹jump overboard first and get to land, 44 and the rest should follow, some on planks, and others on various things from the ship. And thus it happened that ^athey all were brought safely to land.

AND when ^athey had been brought safely through, ^bthen we found out that ^cthe island was called ¹Malta.

2 And ^athe ¹natives showed us extraordinary kindness; for because of the rain that had set in and because of the cold, they kindled a fire and ^breceived us all.

3 But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out ¹because of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when ^athe ¹natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they began saying to one another, "Undoubtedly this man is a murderer, and though he has been saved from the sea, ²justice has not allowed him to live."

5 However ^ahe shook the creature off into the fire and suffered no harm.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE ROMANS

Salutation. Personal Explanations. The Gospel.

PAUL, a bond-servant of Christ Jesus, ^{1a}called ~~as~~ an apostle, ^bset apart for ^cthe gospel of God,

2 which He ^apromised beforehand through His ^bprophets in the holy Scriptures,

3 concerning His Son, who was born ^aof the seed of David ^baccording to the flesh,

4 who was declared ¹with power ~~to be~~ ^athe Son of God ²by the resurrection from the dead, according to the ³Spirit of holiness, Jesus Christ our Lord,

5 through whom we have received grace and ^aapostleship ¹to bring about ^bthe ^bobedience of faith among ^call the Gentiles, for His name's sake,

6 among whom you also are the ^acalled of Jesus Christ;

7 to all who are ^abeloved of God in Rome, called ~~as~~ ^{1b}saints; ^cGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

8 First, ^aI thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, because by your faith is being proclaimed throughout the whole world.

9 For God, whom I serve in my spirit in the preaching of the gospel of His Son, is my witness as to how unceasingly I make mention of you,

10 always in my prayers making request, if perhaps now at last by the will of God I may succeed in coming to you.

11 For I long to see you in order that I may impart some spiritual gift to you, that you may be established;

12 that is, that I may be encouraged together with you while among you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine.

13 And I do not want you to be unaware, brethren, that often I have planned to come to you (and have been prevented thus far) in order that I might obtain some fruit among you also, even as among the rest of the Gentiles.

14 I am under obligation both to Greeks and to Barbarians, both to the wise and to the foolish.

15 Thus, for my part, I am eager to preach the gospel to you also who are in Rome.

16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel, for it is the power of God for salvation to every one who believes, to the Jew first and also to the Greek.

17 For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, "BUT THE RIGHTEOUS man SHALL LIVE BY FAITH."

18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, 19 because that which is known about God is evident within them; for God made it evident to them.

20 For since the creation of the world His invisible attributes, His eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly seen, being understood through what has been made, so that they are without excuse.

21 For even though they knew God, they did not honor Him as God, or give thanks; but they became futile in their speculations, and their foolish heart was darkened.

22 Professing to be wise, they became fools,

23 and exchanged the glory of the incorruptible God for an image in the form of corruptible man and of birds and four-footed animals and crawling creatures.

24 Therefore God gave them over in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, that their bodies might be dishonored among them.

25 For they exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.

26 For this reason God gave them over to degrading passions; for their women exchanged the natural function for that which is unnatural, 27 and in the same way also the men abandoned the natural function of the woman and burned in their desire towards one another, men with men committing indecent acts and receiving in their own persons the due penalty of their error.

28 And just as they did not see fit ¹to acknowledge God any longer, [†]God gave them over to a depraved mind, to do those things which are not proper,

29 being filled with all unrighteousness, wickedness, greed, malice; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, malice; they are ^agossips,

30 slanderers, ^{1a}haters of God, insolent, arrogant, boastful, inventors of evil, ^bdisobedient to parents,

31 without understanding, untrustworthy, ^aunloving, unmerciful;

32 and, although they know the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of ^adeath, they not only do the same, but also ^bgive hearty approval to those who practice them.

CHAPTER 2

THEREFORE you are ^awithout excuse, ^bevery man of you who passes judgment, for in that ^cyou judge another, you condemn yourself; for you who judge practice the same things.

2 And we know that the judgment of God ¹rightly falls upon those who practice such things.

3 And do you suppose this, ^aO man, ¹when you pass judgment upon those who practice such things and do the same yourself, that you will escape the judgment of God?

4 Or do you think lightly of ^athe riches of His ^bkindness and ^cforbearance and ^dpatience, not knowing that ^ethe kindness of God leads you to repentance?

5 But ¹because of your stubbornness and unrepentant heart ^ayou are storing up wrath for yourself ^bin the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God:

6 ^aWHO WILL RENDER TO EVERY MAN ACCORDING TO HIS DEEDS:

7 to those who by ^aperseverance in doing good seek for ^bglory and honor and ^cimmortality, ^deternal life;

8 but to those who are ^aselfishly ambitious and ^bdo not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, wrath and indignation.

9 There will be ^atribulation and distress ¹for every soul of man who does evil, of the Jew ^bfirst and also of the Greek,

10 but ^aglory and honor and peace to every man who does good, to the Jew ^bfirst and also to the Greek.

11 For ^athere is no partiality with God.

12 For all who have sinned ^{1a}without the Law will also perish ¹without the Law; and all who have sinned ²under the Law will be judged ³by the Law;

13 for ^anot the hearers ¹of the Law are ²just before God, but the doers ¹of the Law will be justified.

14 For when Gentiles who do not have ¹the Law do ^{2a}instinctively the things of the Law, these, not having ¹the Law, are a law to themselves,

15 in that they show ^athe work of the Law written in their hearts, their conscience bearing witness, and their thoughts alternately accusing or else defending themselves,

16 on the day when, ^aaccording to my gospel, ^bGod will judge the secrets of men through Christ Jesus.

17 But if you bear the name 'Jew,' and ^arely ¹upon the Law, and boast in God,

18 and know His will, and ^{1a}approve the things that are essential, being instructed out of the Law,

19 and are confident that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,

20 ^a a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of ²the immature, having in the Law ^athe embodiment of knowledge and of the truth;

21 you therefore ^awho teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who ¹preach that one should not steal, do you steal?

22 You who say that one should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you ^arob temples?

23 You who ^aboast ¹in the Law, through your breaking the Law, do you dishonor God?

24 For ^a"THE NAME OF GOD IS BLASPHEMED AMONG THE GENTILES ^bBECAUSE OF YOU," just as it is written.

25 For indeed circumcision is of value, if you ^apractice ¹the Law; but if you are a transgressor ²of the Law, ^byour circumcision has become uncircumcision.

26 ^aIf therefore ^bthe ¹uncircumcised man ^ckeep the requirements of the Law, will not his uncircumcision be regarded as circumcision?

27 And will not ^ahe who is physically uncircumcised, if he keeps the Law, will he not ^bjudge you who ¹though having the letter of the Law and circumcision are a transgressor ²of the Law?

28 For ^ahe is not a Jew who is one outwardly; neither is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh;

29 but ^ahe is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that which is of the heart, by the ^bSpirit, not by the letter; and his praise is not from men, but from God.

CHAPTER 3

THEN what ¹advantage has the Jew? Or what is the benefit of circumcision?

2 Great in every respect. First of all, that ^athey were entrusted with the ^boracles of God.

3 What then? If ^asome ¹did not believe, their ²unbelief will not nullify the faithfulness of God, will it? ²

4 ^aMay it never be! Rather, let God be found true, though every man ^bbe found ^aliar, as it is written,

"^cTHAT THOU MIGHTEST BE JUSTIFIED IN THY WORDS, AND MIGHTEST PREVAIL WHEN THOU ¹ART JUDGED."

5 But if our unrighteousness ^{1a}demonstrates the righteousness of God, ^bwhat shall we say? The God who inflicts wrath is not unrighteous, is He? (^cI am speaking in human terms.)

6 ^aMay it never be! For otherwise how will ^bGod judge the world?

7 But if through my lie ^athe truth of God abounded to His glory, ^bwhy am I also still being judged as a sinner?

8 And why not say (as we are slanderously reported and as some affirm that we say), "^aLet us do evil that good may come"? ¹Their condemnation is just.

9 What then? ^{1a}Are we better than they? Not at all; for we have already charged that both ^bJews and ^cGreeks are ^dall under sin;

10 as it is written,

"^aTHERE IS NONE RIGHTEOUS, NOT EVEN ONE;

11 THERE IS NONE WHO UNDERSTANDS,
THERE IS NONE WHO SEEKS FOR GOD;

12 ALL HAVE TURNED ASIDE, TOGETHER THEY HAVE BECOME USELESS;

THERE IS NONE WHO DOES GOOD,
THERE IS NOT EVEN ONE."

13 "^aTHEIR THROAT IS AN OPEN GRAVE, WITH THEIR TONGUES THEY KEEP DECEIVING,"

"THE POISON OF ASPS IS UNDER THEIR LIPS;"

14 "^aWHOSE MOUTH IS FULL OF CURSING AND BITTERNESS;"

15 "^aTHEIR FEET ARE SWIFT TO SHED BLOOD,

16 DESTRUCTION AND MISERY ARE IN THEIR PATHS,

17 AND THE PATH OF PEACE HAVE THEY NOT KNOWN,"

18 "^aTHERE IS NO FEAR OF GOD BEFORE THEIR EYES."

19 Now we know that whatever the ^aLaw says, it speaks to ^bthose who are ¹under the Law, that every mouth may be closed, and ^call the world may become accountable to God;

20 because ^aby the works ¹of the Law no flesh will be justified in His sight; for ^{2b}through the Law comes the knowledge of sin.

21 But now apart ¹from the Law ^athe righteousness of God has been manifested, being ^blawed by the Law and the Prophets;

22 even the ^arighteousness of God through ^bfaith ^cin Jesus Christ for ^dall those who believe; for ^ethere is no distinction;

23 for ¹all ^ahave sinned and fall short of the glory of God.

24 being justified as a gift ^aby His grace through ^bthe redemption which is in Christ Jesus;

25 whom God displayed publicly as ^aa ¹propitiation ²in His blood through faith. This was to demonstrate His righteousness, ³because in the ^cforbearance of God He ^dpassed over the sins previously committed;

26 for the demonstration, I say, of His righteousness at the present time, that He might be just and the justifier of the one who ¹has faith in Jesus.

27 Where then is ^aboasting? It is excluded. By ^bwhat kind of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith.

28 ¹For ^awe maintain that a man is justified by faith apart from works ²of the Law.

29 Or ^ais God the God of Jews only? Is He not the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also—30 if indeed ^aGod is one—and ^bHe will justify the ¹circumcised ²by faith and the ³uncircumcised through faith.

31 Do we then nullify ¹the Law through faith? ^aMay it never be! On the contrary, we ^bestablish the Law.

CHAPTER 4

WHAT then shall we say that Abraham, ¹our forefather ^aaccording to the flesh, has found?

2 For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about; but ^anot ¹before God.

3 For what does the Scripture say? ^a“AND ABRAHAM BELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS RECKONED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS.”

4 Now to the one who ^aworks, his wage is not reckoned as a favor but as what is due.

5 But to the one who does not work, but ^abelieves in Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is reckoned as righteousness.

6 Just as David also speaks of the blessing upon the man to whom God reckons righteousness apart from works:

7 ^a“BLESSED ARE THOSE WHOSE LAWLESS DEEDS HAVE BEEN FORGIVEN,

^b AND WHOSE SINS HAVE BEEN COVERED. Επιστολή

8 ^a“BLESSED IS THE MAN WHOSE SIN THE LORD WILL NOT ¹TAKE INTO ACCOUNT.”

9 Is this blessing then upon ^{1a}the circumcised, or upon the ²uncircumcised also? For ^bwe say, ^c“FAITH WAS RECKONED TO ABRAHAM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS.”

10 How then was it reckoned? While he was ¹circumcised, or ²uncircumcised? Not while ¹circumcised, but while ²uncircumcised;

11 and he ^areceived the sign of circumcision, ^{ba} a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while uncircumcised, that he might be ^cthe father of ^{da}all who believe without being circumcised, that righteousness might be reckoned to them,

12 and the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also follow in the steps of the faith of our father Abraham which he had while uncircumcised.

13 For ^athe promise to Abraham or to his ¹descendants ^bthat he would be heir of the world was not ²through the Law, but through the righteousness of faith.

14 For ^aif those who are ¹of the Law are heirs, faith is made void and the promise is nullified;

15 for ^athe Law brings about wrath, but ^bwhere there is no law, neither is there violation.

16 For this reason it is ¹by faith, that it might be in accordance with ^agrace, in order that the promise may be certain to ^{ball} the ²descendants, not only to ³those who are of the Law, but also to ³those who are of the faith of Abraham, who is ^cthe father of us all,

17 (as it is written, ^a“A FATHER OF MANY NATIONS HAVE I MADE YOU”) in the sight of Him whom he believed, even God, ^bwho gives life to the dead and ^{1c}calls into being ^dthat which does not exist.

18 In hope ^aagainst hope he believed, in order that he might become ^aa father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, ^b“SO SHALL YOUR ¹DESCENDANTS BE.”

19 And without becoming weak in faith he contemplated his own body, now ^aas good as dead since ^bhe was about a hundred years old, and ^cthe deadness of Sarah’s womb;

20 yet, with respect to the promise of God, he did not waver in unbelief, but grew strong in faith, giving glory to God,

21 and being fully assured that what He had promised, He was able also to perform.

22 Therefore also it was reckoned to him as righteousness.

23 Now not for his sake only was it written, that "it was reckoned to him,"

24 but for our sake also, to whom it will be reckoned, as those who believe in Him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 Him who was delivered up because of our transgressions, and was raised because of our justification.

CHAPTER 5

1 THEREFORE having been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ,

2 through whom also we have obtained our introduction by faith into this grace in which we stand; and we exult in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only this, but we also exult in our tribulations; knowing that tribulation brings about perseverance;

4 and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope;

5 and hope does not disappoint; because the love of God has been poured out within our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us.

6 For while we were still helpless, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 For one will hardly die for a righteous man; though perhaps for the good man someone would dare even to die.

8 But God demonstrates His own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

9 Much more then, having now been justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath of God through Him.

10 For if while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life.

11 And not only this, but we also exult in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.

12 Therefore, just as through one man sin entered into the world, and death through sin, and so death spread to all men, because all sinned—

13 for until the Law sin was in the world; but sin is not imputed when there is no law.

14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those who had not sinned in the likeness of Adam's offense, who is a type of Him who was to come.

15 But the free gift is not like the transgression. For if by the transgression of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God and the gift by the grace of the one Man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many.

16 And the gift is not like that which came through the Grace Abounding.

The Believer Is Dead to Sin, Alive to God.

Romans 5, 6

one who sinned; for on the one hand ^athe judgment arose from one transgression ¹resulting in condemnation, but on the other hand the free gift arose from many transgressions ²resulting in justification.

17 For if by the transgression of the one, death reigned ^athrough the one, much more those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness will ^breign in life through the One, Jesus Christ.

18 So then as through ^aone transgression ¹there resulted condemnation to all men; even so through one ^bact of righteousness ²there resulted ^cjustification of life to all men.

19 For as through the one man's disobedience ^athe many ^bwere made sinners, even so through ^cthe obedience of the One ^athe many will be made righteous.

20 And ^{1a}the Law came in that the transgression might increase; but where sin increased, ^bgrace abounded all the more,

21 that, as ^asin reigned in death, even so ^bgrace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

CHAPTER 6

^aWHAT shall we say then? Are we to ^bcontinuc in sin that grace might increase?

2 ^aMay it never be! How shall we who ^bdied to sin still live in it?

3 Or do you not know that all of us who have been ^abaptized into ^bChrist Jesus have been baptized into His death?

4 Therefore we have been ^aburied with Him through baptism into death, in order that as Christ was ^braised from the dead through the ^cglory of the Father, so we too might walk in ^dnewness of life.

5 For ^aif we have become ¹united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall be also ²in the likeness of His resurrection,

6 knowing this, that our ^aold ¹self was ^bcrucified with Him, that our ^cbody of sin might be ²done away with, that we should no longer be slaves to sin;

7 for ^ahe who died is ¹freed from sin.

8 Now ^aif we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him,

9 knowing that Christ, having been ^araised from the dead, is never to die again; ^bdeath no longer is master over Him.

10 For the death that He died, He died to sin, once for all; but the life that He lives, He lives to God.

11 Even so consider yourselves to be ^adead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus.

12 Therefore do not let sin ^areign in your mortal body that you should obey its lusts, 13 and do not go on ^apresenting ¹the members of your body to sin as ²instruments of unrighteousness; but ^bpresent yourselves to God as those alive from the dead, and your members as ²instruments of righteousness to God.

14 For ^asin shall not ^bbe master over you, for ^cyou are not under law, but ^dunder grace.

15 What then? ^aShall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? ^bMay it never be!

16 Do you not ^aknow that when you present yourselves to someone ^as slaves for obedience, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of ^csin ¹resulting in death, or of obedience ²resulting in righteousness?

17 But ^athanks be to God that ¹though you were slaves of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that ^bform of teaching to which you were committed,

18 and having been ^afreed from sin, you became slaves of righteousness.

19 ^aI am speaking in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh. For just ^bas you presented your members ^as slaves to impurity and to lawlessness, ¹resulting in further lawlessness, so now present your members ^as slaves to righteousness, ²resulting in sanctification.

20 For ^awhen you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.

21 Therefore what ¹benefit were you then ²deriving ³from the things of which you are now ^aashamed? For the outcome of those things is ^bdeath.

22 But now having been ^afreed from sin and ^benslaved to God, you ¹derive your ²benefit, ³resulting in sanctification, and ^dthe outcome, eternal life.

23 For the wages of ^asin is death, but the free gift of God is ^beternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

CHAPTER 7

OR do you not know, ^abrethren (for I am speaking to those who know the law), that the law has jurisdiction over a person as long as he lives?

2 For ^athe married woman is bound by law to her husband while he is living; but if her husband dies, she is released from the law concerning the husband.

3 So then if, while her husband is living, she is joined to another man, she shall be called an adulteress; but if her husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is not an adulteress, though she is joined to another man.

4 Therefore, my brethren, you also were ^amade to die ^bto the Law ^cthrough the body of Christ, that you might be joined to another, to Him who was raised from the dead, that we might bear fruit for God.

5 For while we were ^ain the flesh, the sinful passions, which were ^baroused by the Law, were at work ^cin ¹the members of our body to bear fruit for death.

6 But now we have been ^areleased from the Law, having ^bdied to that by which we were bound, so that we serve in ^cnewness of ^dthe ¹Spirit and not in oldness of the letter. (Rom. 7:6)

7 ^aWhat shall we say then? Is the Law sin? ^bMay it never be! On the contrary, ^cI would not have come to know sin except ¹through the Law; for I would not have known about ²coveting if the Law had not said, "^dYOU SHALL NOT ³COVET."

8 But sin, ^ataking opportunity ^bthrough the commandment, produced in me ¹coveting of every kind; for ^capart ²from the Law sin is dead.

Now No Condemnation.

9 And I was once alive apart ¹from the Law; but when the commandment came, sin became alive, and I died;

10 and this commandment, which was ^{1a}to result in life, proved ²to result in death for me;

11 for sin, ^ataking opportunity ^bthrough the commandment, ^cdeceived me, and through it killed me.

12 ^aSo then, the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good.

13 Therefore did that which is good become a cause of death for me? ^aMay it never be! Rather it was sin, in order that it might be shown to be sin by effecting my death through that which is good, that through the commandment sin might become utterly sinful.

14 For we know that the Law is ^aspiritual; but I am ^aof flesh, ^bsold ^{1c}into bondage to sin.

15 For that which I am doing, ^aI do not understand; for I am not practicing ^bwhat I would like to do, but I am doing the very thing I hate.

16 But if I do the very thing I do not wish to do, I agree with ^athe Law, confessing that it is good.

17 So now, ^ano longer am I the one doing it, but sin which indwells me.

18 For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my ^aflesh; for the wishing is present in me, but the doing of the good is not.

19 For ^athe good that I wish, I do not do; but I practice the very evil that I do not wish.

20 But if I am doing the very thing I do not wish, ^aI am no longer the one doing it, but sin which dwells in me.

21 I find then ^athe ¹principle that evil is present in me, the one who wishes to do good.

22 For I joyfully concur with the law of God ¹ⁱⁿ ^athe inner man, 23 but I see ^aa different law in ¹the members of my body, waging war against the ^blaw of my mind, and making me a prisoner ²of ^cthe law of sin which is in my members.

24 Wretched man that I am! Who will set me free from ^{1a}the body of this ^bdeath?

25 ^aThanks be to God through Jesus Christ our Lord! So then, on the one hand I myself with my mind am serving the law of God, but on the other, with my flesh ^bthe law of sin.

CHAPTER 8

THERE is therefore now no condemnation for those who are ¹ⁱⁿ ^cChrist Jesus.

2 For ^athe law of the Spirit of life ¹ⁱⁿ ^bChrist Jesus ^chas set ²you free from the law of sin and of death.

→ 3 For ^awhat the Law could not do, ^bweak as it was through the flesh, God did: sending His own Son in ^cthe likeness of ²sinful flesh and as an offering for sin, He condemned sin in the flesh. Ad Rom 7-8:17 fulfilled ⁱⁿ us, who ^bdo not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.

5 For those who are according to the flesh set their minds on ^athe things of the flesh, but those who are according to the Spirit, ^bthe things of the Spirit.

6 ^aFor the mind set on the flesh is ^bdeath, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace;

7 because the mind set on the flesh is ^ahostile toward God; for it does not subject itself to the Law of God, for it is not even able to do so;

8 and those who are ^ain the flesh cannot please God.

9 However you are not ^ain the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God ^bdwells in you. But ^cif anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he does not belong to Him.

10 And ^aif Christ is in you, though the body is dead because of sin, yet the spirit is ¹alive because of righteousness.

11 But if the Spirit of Him who ^araised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, ^bHe who raised ^cChrist Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies ¹through His Spirit who indwells you.

12 So then, brethren, we are under obligation, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh—

13 for ^aif you are living according to the flesh, you ¹must die; but if by the Spirit you are ^bputting to death the deeds of the body, you will live.

14 For all who are ^abeing led by the Spirit of God, these are ^bsons of God.

15 For you ^ahave not received a spirit of slavery ¹leading to fear again, but you ^bhave received ^{2a}a spirit of adoption as sons by which we cry out, “^cAbba! Father!”

16 The Spirit Himself ^abears witness with our spirit that we are ^bchildren of God,

17 and if children, ^aheirs also, heirs of God and fellow-heirs with Christ, ^bif indeed we suffer with Him in order that we may also be glorified with Him.

18 For I consider that the sufferings of this present time ^aare not worthy to be compared with the ^bglory that is to be revealed to us.

19 For the ^aanxious longing of the creation waits eagerly for ^bthe revealing of the ^csons of God.

20 For the creation ^awas subjected to ^bfutility, not of its own will, but ^cbecause of Him who subjected it, ¹in hope

21 that ^athe creation itself also will be set free from its slavery to corruption into the freedom of the glory of the children of God.

22 For we know that the whole creation ^agroans and suffers the pains of childbirth together until now.

23 ^aAnd not only this, but also we ourselves, having ^bthe first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves ^cgroan within ourselves, ^dwaiting eagerly for our adoption as sons, ^ethe redemption of our body.

24 For ^ain hope we have been saved, but ^bhope that is seen is not hope; for ¹why does one also hope for what he sees?

25 But ^aif we hope for what we do not see, with perseverance we wait eagerly for it.

26 And in the same way the Spirit also helps our weakness; for ^awe do not know how to pray as we should, but ^bthe Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words; 27 and ^aHe who searches the hearts, knows what ^bthe mind of the Spirit is, because He ^cintercedes for the ¹saints according to the will of God.

28 And we know that ¹God causes ^aall things to work together for good to those who love God, to those who are ^bcalled according to His purpose.

29 For whom He ^aforeknew, He also ^bpredestined to become ^cconformed to the image of His Son, that He might be the ^dfirst-born among many brethren;

^b30 and whom He ^apredestined, these He also ^bcalled; and whom He called, these He also ^cjustified, and whom He justified, these He also ^dglorified.

31 ^aWhat then shall we say to these things? ^bIf ¹God is for us, who is against us?

32 He who ^adid not spare His own Son, but ^bdelivered Him up for us all, how will He not also with Him freely give us all things?

^b33 Who will bring a charge against ^aGod's elect? ^bGod is the one who ^cjustifies —

34 who is the one who ^acondemns? Christ Jesus is He who ^bdied, yes, rather who was ¹raised; who is ^dat the right hand of God, who also ^cintercedes for us.

35 Who shall separate us from ^athe love of ¹Christ? Shall ^btribulation, or distress, or ^cpersecution, or ^dfamine, or ^enakedness, or ^fperil, or sword?

36 Just as it is written,
"FOR THY SAKE WE ARE BEING PUT TO DEATH ALL DAY LONG;

WE WERE CONSIDERED AS SHEEP TO BE SLAUGHTERED."

37 But in all these things we overwhelmingly ^aconquer through ^bHim who loved us.

38 For I am convinced that neither ^adeath, nor life, nor ^bangels, nor principalities, nor ^cthings present, nor things to come, nor powers, 39 nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall ^bbe able to separate us from ^athe love of God, which is ^bin Christ Jesus our Lord.

6 But it is not as though ^athe word of God has failed.
^bFor they are not all Israel who are descended from Israel;

7 neither are they all children ^abecause they are Abraham's ¹descendants, but: "^bTHROUGH ISAAC YOUR ¹DESCENDANTS WILL BE NAMED."

8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are ^achildren of God, but the ^bchildren of the promise are regarded as ¹descendants.

9 For this is a word of promise: "^aAT THIS TIME I WILL COME, AND SARAH SHALL HAVE A SON."

10 ^aAnd not only this, but there was ^bRebekah also, when she had conceived twins by one man, our father Isaac;

11 for though the twins were not yet born, and had not done anything good or bad, in order that ^aGod's purpose according to His choice might stand, not because of works, but because of Him who calls,

12 it was said to her, "^aTHE OLDER WILL SERVE THE YOUNGER."

13 Just as it is written, "^aJACOB I LOVED, BUT ESAU I HATED."

14 ^aWhat shall we say then? ^bThere is no injustice with God, is there? ^cMay it never be!

15 For He says to Moses, "^aI WILL HAVE MERCY ON WHOM I HAVE MERCY, AND I WILL HAVE COMPASSION ON WHOM I HAVE COMPASSION."

16 So then it does not depend on the man who wills or the man who ^aruns, but on ^bGod who has mercy.

17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "^aFOR THIS VERY PURPOSE I RAISED YOU UP, TO DEMONSTRATE MY POWER IN YOU, AND THAT MY NAME MIGHT BE PROCLAIMED ¹THROUGHOUT THE WHOLE EARTH."

18 So then He has mercy on whom He desires, and He ^ahardens whom He desires.

19 ^aYou will say to me then, "^bWhy does He still find fault? For ^cwho resists His will?"

20 On the contrary, who are you, ^aO man, who ^banswers back to God? ^cThe thing molded will not say to the molder, "Why did you make me like this," will it?

21 Or does not the potter have a right over the clay, to make from the same lump one vessel ¹for honorable use, and another ²for common use?

22 What if God, although willing to demonstrate His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much ^apatience vessels of wrath ^bprepared for destruction?

23 And He did so in order that He might make known ^athe riches of His glory upon ^bvessels of mercy, which He ^cprepared beforehand for glory, 24 even us, whom He also ^acalled, ^bnot from among Jews only, but also from among Gentiles.

25 As He says also in Hosea,

"^aI WILL CALL THOSE WHO WERE NOT MY PEOPLE, 'MY PEOPLE,'

AND HER WHO WAS NOT BELOVED, 'BELOVED.'"

26 "^aAND IT SHALL BE THAT IN THE PLACE WHERE IT WAS SAID TO THEM, 'YOU ARE NOT MY PEOPLE.'

THERE THEY SHALL BE CALLED SONS OF ^bTHE LIVING GOD."

27 And Isaiah cries out concerning Israel, "aTHOUGH THE NUMBER OF THE SONS OF ISRAEL BE ^bAS THE SAND OF THE SEA, IT IS ^cTHE REMNANT THAT WILL BE SAVED;

28 aFOR THE LORD WILL EXECUTE HIS WORD UPON THE EARTH, ¹THOROUGHLY AND ²QUICKLY."

29 And just as Isaiah foretold,

"aEXCEPT ^bTHE LORD OF ¹SABAOOTH HAD LEFT TO US A ²POSTERITY, cWE WOULD HAVE BECOME AS SODOM, AND WOULD HAVE ³RESEMBLED GOMORRAH."

30 aWhat shall we say then? That Gentiles, who did not pursue righteousness, attained righteousness, even ^bthe righteousness which is ¹by faith;

31 but Israel, ^apursuing a law of righteousness, did not ^barrive at that law.

32 Why? Because they did not pursue it ¹by faith, but as though it were ¹by works. They stumbled over ^aTHE STUMBLING-STONE,

33 just as it is written,

"aBEHOLD, I LAY IN ZION A STONE OF STUMBLING AND A ROCK OF OFFENSE, bAND HE WHO BELIEVES IN HIM ^cWILL NOT BE ¹DISAPPOINTED."

CHAPTER 10. THE

BRETHREN, my heart's desire and my prayer to God for them is for their salvation.

2 For I bear them witness that they have ^aa zeal for God, but not in accordance with knowledge.

3 For not knowing about ^aGod's righteousness, and ^bseeking to establish their own, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of God.

4 For ^aChrist is the ¹end of the law for righteousness to ^beveryone who believes.

5 For Moses writes that the man who practices the righteousness which is ¹based on law ^ashall live ²by that righteousness.

6 But ^athe righteousness ¹based on faith speaks thus, "bDO NOT SAY IN YOUR HEART, 'WHO WILL ASCEND INTO HEAVEN?' (that is, to bring Christ down),

7 or 'WHO WILL DESCEND INTO THE ^aABYSS?' (that is, to ^bbring Christ up from the dead)."

8 But what does it say? "aTHE WORD IS NEAR YOU, IN YOUR MOUTH AND IN YOUR HEART"—that is, the word of faith which we are preaching,

9 ¹that ^aif you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and ^bbelieve in your heart that ^cGod raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved;

10 for with the heart man believes, ¹resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses, ²resulting in salvation.

11 For the Scripture says, "aWHOEVER BELIEVES IN HIM WILL NOT BE ¹DISAPPOINTED."

the same Lord is ^bLord of ^call, abounding in riches for all who call upon Him;

13 for ^a"WHOEVER WILL CALL UPON THE NAME OF THE LORD WILL BE SAVED."

14 How then shall they call upon Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him ^awhom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without ^ba preacher?

15 And how shall they preach unless they are sent? Just as it is written, ^a"HOW BEAUTIFUL ARE THE FEET OF THOSE WHO ^bBRING GLAD TIDINGS OF GOOD THINGS!"

16 However, they ^adid not all heed the ^bglad tidings; for Isaiah says, ^b"LORD, WHO HAS BELIEVED OUR REPORT?"

17 So faith comes from ^ahearing, and hearing by ^bthe word ^cof Christ.

18 But I say, surely they have never heard, have they? Indeed they have:

^a"THEIR VOICE HAS GONE OUT INTO ALL THE EARTH, AND THEIR WORDS TO THE ENDS OF THE ^bWORLD."

19 But I say, surely Israel did not know, did they? At the first Moses says,

^a"I WILL ^bMAKE YOU JEALOUS BY THAT WHICH IS NOT A NATION,
BY A NATION WITHOUT UNDERSTANDING WILL I ANGER YOU."

20 And Isaiah is very bold and says,

^a"I WAS FOUND BY THOSE WHO SOUGHT ME NOT,
I BECAME MANIFEST TO THOSE WHO DID NOT ASK FOR ME."

21 But as for Israel he says, ^a"ALL THE DAY LONG I HAVE STRETCHED OUT MY HANDS TO A DISOBEDIENT AND OBSTINATE PEOPLE."

CHAPTER 11

I SAY then, God has not ^arejected His people, has He? ^bMay it never be! For ^cI too am an Israelite, ^da descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

2 God ^ahas not rejected His people whom He ^bforeknew. ^cOr do you not know what the Scripture says in the passage about Elijah, how he pleads with God against Israel?

3 "Lord, ^aTHEY HAVE KILLED THY PROPHETS, THEY HAVE TORN DOWN THINE ALTARS, AND I ALONE AM LEFT, AND THEY ARE SEEKING MY ^bLIFE."

4 But what ^bis the divine response to him? ^a"I HAVE KEPT for Myself SEVEN THOUSAND MEN WHO HAVE NOT BOWED THE KNEE TO BAAL."

5 In the same way then, there has also come to be at the present time ^aa remnant according to God's ^bgracious choice.

6 But ^aif it is by grace, it is no longer on the basis of works, otherwise grace is no longer grace.

7 What then? That which ^aIsrael is seeking for, it has not obtained, but ^bthose who were chosen obtained it, and the rest were ^bhardened;

8 just as it is written,

^a"GOD GAVE THEM A SPIRIT OF STUPOR, EYES TO SEE NOT AND EARS TO HEAR NOT, DOWN TO THIS VERY DAY."

9 And David says,

^aLET THEIR TABLE BECOME A SNARE and a trap,
AND A STUMBLING-BLOCK AND A RETRIBUTION TO THEM.

10 ^aLET THEIR EYES BE DARKENED TO SEE NOT,
AND BEND THEIR BACKS FOREVER."

11 ^aI say then, they did not stumble so as to fall, did they?
^bMay it never be! But by their transgression ^csalvation has come to the Gentiles, to ^dmake them jealous.

12 Now if their transgression be riches for the world and their failure be riches for the Gentiles, how much more will their ^{1a}fulfillment be!

13 But I am speaking to you who are Gentiles. Inasmuch then as ^aI am an apostle of Gentiles, I magnify my ministry,

14 if somehow I might ^amove to jealousy ^bmy ¹fellowcountrymen and ^csave some of them.

15 For if their rejection be the ^areconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but ^blife from the dead?

16 And if the ^afirst piece of dough be holy, the lump is also; and if the root be holy, the branches are too.

17 But if some of the ^abranches were broken off, and ^byou, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them and became partaker with them of the ¹rich root of the olive tree,

18 do not be arrogant toward the branches; but if you are arrogant, remember that ^ait is not you who supports the root, but the root supports you.

19 ^aYou will say then, "Branches were broken off so that I might be grafted in."

20 Quite right, they were broken off for their unbelief, and you ^astand only by your faith. ^bDo not be conceited, but fear;

21 for if God did not spare the natural branches, neither will He spare you.

22 Behold then the kindness and severity of God; to those who fell, severity, but to you, God's ^akindness, ^bif you continue in His kindness; otherwise you also ^cwill be cut off.

23 And they also, ^aif they do not continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in; for God is able to graft them in again.

24 For if you were cut off from what is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a cultivated olive tree, how much more shall these who are the natural branches be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For ^aI do not want you, brethren, to be uninformed of this ^bmystery, lest you be ^cwise in your own estimation, that a partial ^dhardening has happened to Israel until the ^efulness of the Gentiles has come in;

26 and thus all Israel will be saved; just as it is written,

"^aTHE DELIVERER WILL COME FROM ZION,
HE WILL REMOVE UNGODLINESS FROM JACOB."

27 "^aAND THIS IS ¹MY COVENANT WITH THEM,
WHEN I TAKE AWAY THEIR SINS."

28 ¹From the standpoint of the gospel they are ^aenemies for your sake, but ²from the standpoint of God's choice they are beloved for ^bthe sake of the fathers;

29 for the gifts and the ^acalling of God ^bare irrevocable;

30 For just as you once were disobedient to God but now have been shown mercy because of their disobedience,

31 so these also now have been disobedient, in order that because of the mercy shown to you they also may now be shown mercy.

32 For ^aGod has shut up all in disobedience that He might show mercy to all.

36 For ^afrom Him and through Him and to Him are all things. ^bTo Him be the glory ¹forever. Amen.

CHAPTER 12

^aI URGE you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, to ^bpresent your bodies a living and holy sacrifice, ¹acceptable to God, which is your ²spiritual service of worship.

2 And do not ^abe conformed to ^bthis ¹world, but be transformed by the ^crenewing of your mind, that you may ^dprove what the will of God is, that which is good and ²acceptable and perfect.

3 For through ^athe grace given to me I say to every man among you ^bnot to think more highly of himself than he ought to think; but to think so as to have sound judgment, as God has allotted to ^ceach a measure of faith.

4 For ^ajust as we have many members in one body and all the members do not have the same function,

5 so we, ^awho are many, are ^bone body in Christ, and individually members one of another.

6 And since we have gifts that ^adiffer according to the grace given to us, let each exercise them according to: if ^bprophecy, according to the proportion of his faith;

7 if ¹service, in his serving; or he who ^bteaches, in his teaching;

8 or he who ^aexhorts, in his exhortation; he who gives, with ^bliberality; ^che who ²leads, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with ^dcheerfulness.

9 Let ^alove be without hypocrisy. ^bAbhor what is evil; cleave to what is good.

10 Be ^adevoted to one another in brotherly love; ¹give preference to one another ^bin honor;

11 not lagging behind in diligence, ^afervent in spirit, ^bserving the Lord;

12 ^arejoicing in hope, ^bpersevering in tribulation, ^cdevoted to prayer,

13 ^acontributing to the needs of the ¹saints, ²practicing hospitality.

14 ^aBless those who persecute ¹you; bless and curse not.

15 ^aRejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep.

16 ^aBe of the same mind toward one another; do not be haughty in mind, ^bbut ¹associate with the lowly. ^cDo not be wise in your own estimation.

17 ^aNever pay back evil for evil to anyone. ^bRespect what is right in the sight of all men.

18 If possible, ^aso far as it depends on you, ^bbe at peace with all men.

19 ^aNever take your own revenge, beloved, but ¹leave room for the wrath of God, for it is written, ^b"VENGEANCE IS MINE, I WILL REPAY, SAYS THE LORD."

20 ^a"BUT IF YOUR ENEMY IS HUNGRY, FEED HIM, AND IF HE IS THIRSTY, GIVE HIM A DRINK; FOR ^bIN SO DOING YOU WILL HEAP BURNING COALS UPON HIS HEAD."

21 Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

CHAPTER 13

LET every ^{1a}person be in ^bsubjection to the governing authorities. For ^cthere is no authority except ²from God, and those which exist are established by God.

2 Therefore he who resists authority has opposed the ordinance of God; and they who have opposed will receive condemnation upon themselves.

3 For ^arulers are not a cause of fear for ¹good behavior, but for evil. Do you want to have no fear of authority? Do what is good, and you will have praise from the same;

4 for it is a minister of God to you for good. But if you do what is evil, be afraid; for it does not bear the sword for nothing; for it is a minister of God, an ^aavenger who brings wrath upon the one who practices evil.

5 Wherefore it is necessary to be in subjection, not only because of wrath, but also ^afor conscience' sake.

6 For because of this you also pay taxes, for rulers are servants of God, devoting themselves to this very thing.

7 ^aRender to all what is due them: ^btax to whom tax is due; ^ccustom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor.

8 OWE nothing to anyone except to love one another; for ^ahe who loves ¹his neighbor has fulfilled the law.

9 For this, ^a"YOU SHALL NOT COMMIT ADULTERY, YOU SHALL NOT MURDER, YOU SHALL NOT STEAL, YOU SHALL NOT COVEY," and if there is any other commandment, it is summed up in this saying, ^b"YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF."

10 Love ^{1a}does no wrong to a neighbor; ^alove therefore is the fulfillment of the law.

11 And this do, knowing the time, that it is ^aalready the hour for you to ^bawaken from sleep; for now ¹salvation is nearer to us than when we believed.

12 ^aThe night is almost gone, and ^bthe day is at hand. Let us therefore lay aside ^cthe deeds of darkness and put on ^dthe armor of light.

13 Let us ^{1a}behave properly as in the day, ^bnot in carousing and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and sensuality, not in strife and jealousy.

14 But ^aput on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh ^bin regard to its lusts.

NOW accept the one who is ^bweak in faith, but not for the purpose of passing judgment on his opinions.

2 ^aOne man has faith that he may eat all things, but he who is ^bweak eats vegetables only.

3 Let not him who eats ^aregard with contempt him who does not eat, and let not him who does not eat ^bjudge him who eats, for God has ^caccepted him.

4 ^aWho are you to judge the ¹servant of another? To his own ²master he stands or falls; and stand he will, for the Lord is able to make him stand.

5 ^aOne man ¹regards one day above another, another regards every day alike. Let each man be ^bfully convinced in his own mind.

6 He who observes the day, observes it for the Lord, and he who eats, ¹does so for the Lord, for he ^agives thanks to God; and he who eats not, for the Lord he does not eat, and gives thanks to God.

7 For not one of us ^alives for himself, and not one dies for himself;

8 for if we live, we live for the Lord, or if we die, we die for the Lord; therefore ^awhether we live or die, we are the Lord's.

9 For to this end ^aChrist died and lived again, that He might be ^bLord both of the dead and of the living.

10 But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you again, why do you ^aregard your brother with contempt? For ^bwe shall all stand before the judgment-seat of God.

11 For it is written,

“^aAS I LIVE, SAYS THE LORD, ^bEVERY KNEE SHALL BOW TO ME,

AND EVERY TONGUE SHALL ¹GIVE PRAISE TO GOD.”

12 So then ^aeach one of us shall give account of himself to God.

13 Therefore let us not ^ajudge one another any more, but rather determine this — ^bnot to put an obstacle or a stumbling-block in a brother's way.

14 I know and am convinced in the Lord Jesus that ^anothing is unclean in itself; but to him who ^bthinks anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.

15 For if because of food your brother is hurt, you are no longer ^awalking according to love. ^bDo not destroy with your food him for whom Christ died.

16 Therefore ^ado not let what is for you a good thing be ¹spoken of as evil;

17 for the kingdom of God ^ais not eating and drinking, but righteousness and ^bpeace and ^cjoy in the Holy Spirit.

18 For he who in this way ^aserves Christ is ^bacceptable to God and approved by men.

19 So then ¹let us ^apursue the things which make for peace and the ^bbuilding up of one another.

20 ^aDo not tear down the work of God for the sake of food. ^bAll things indeed are clean, but ^cthey are evil for the man who eats ¹and gives offense.

21 ^aIt is good not to eat meat or to drink wine, or to do anything by which your brother stumbles.

22 The faith which you have, have ¹as your own conviction before God. Happy is he who ^adoes not condemn himself in what he approves.

23 But ^ahe who doubts is condemned if he eats, because his eating is not from faith; and whatever is not from faith is sin.

CHAPTER 15

NOW we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of ^athose without strength and not just please ourselves.

2 Let each of us ^aplease his neighbor ¹for his good, to his edification.

3 For even ^aChrist did not please Himself; but as it is written, ^b"THE REPROACHES OF THOSE WHO REPROACHED THEM FELL UPON ME."

4 ¹For ^awhatever was written in earlier times was written for our instruction, that through perseverance and the encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope.

5 Now may the ^aGod ¹who gives perseverance and encouragement grant you ^bto be of the same mind with one another according to Christ Jesus;

6 that with one accord you may with one ¹voice glorify ^athe God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 Wherefore, ¹accept one another, just as Christ also accepted ¹us to the glory of God.

8 For I say that Christ has become a servant to ^athe circumcision on behalf of the truth of God to confirm ^bthe promises given to the fathers,

9 and for ^athe Gentiles to ^bglorify God for His mercy; as it is written,

"^cTHEREFORE I WILL ¹GIVE PRAISE TO THEE AMONG THE GENTILES, AND I WILL SING TO THY NAME."

10 And again he says,

"^aREJOICE, O GENTILES, WITH HIS PEOPLE."

11 And again,

"^aPRaise THE LORD ALL YOU GENTILES, AND LET ALL THE PEOPLES PRAISE HIM."

12 And again Isaiah says,

"^aTHERE SHALL COME ^bTHE ROOT OF JESSE,
AND HE WHO ARISES TO RULE OVER THE GENTILES;
IN HIM SHALL THE GENTILES HOPE."

13 Now may the God of hope fill you with all ^ajoy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope ^bby the power of the Holy Spirit.

14 And concerning you, my brethren, I myself also am convinced that you yourselves are full of ^agoodness, filled with ^ball knowledge, and able also to admonish one another,

15 But I have written very boldly to you on some points, so as to remind you again, because of ^athe grace that was given me ¹from God,

16 to be ^aa minister of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, ministering as a priest the ^bgospel of God, that my ^coffering of the Gentiles might become acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

17 Therefore in Christ Jesus I have found ^areason for boasting in ^bthings pertaining to God.

18 For I will not presume to speak of anything ¹except what ^aChrist has accomplished through me, ²resulting in the obedience of the Gentiles by word and deed,

19 in the power of ¹signs and ^awonders, ^bin the power of the Spirit; so that ^cfrom Jerusalem and round about as ^dfar as Illyricum I have ²fully preached the gospel of Christ.

20 And thus I aspired to ^apreach the gospel, not where Christ was already named, ^bthat I might not build upon another man's foundation;

21 but as it is written,

"^aTHEY WHO HAD NO NEWS OF HIM SHALL SEE,

AND THEY WHO HAVE NOT HEARD SHALL UNDERSTAND."

22 For this reason ^aI have often been hindered from coming to you;

23 but now, with no further place for me in these regions, and since I ^ahave had for many years a longing to come to you

24 whenever I ^ago to Spain — for I hope to see you in passing, and to be ^bhelped on my way there by you, when I have first ^cenjoyed your company ¹for awhile —

25 but now, ^aI am going to Jerusalem ^bservicing the ¹saints.

26 For ^aMacedonia and ^bAchaia have been pleased to make a contribution for the poor among the ¹saints in Jerusalem.

27 Yes, they were pleased to do so, and they are indebted to them. For ^aif the Gentiles have shared in their spiritual things, they are indebted to minister to them also in material things.

28 Therefore, when I have finished this, and ^ahave ¹put my seal on this fruit of theirs, I will ^bgo on by way of you to Spain.

29 And I know that when ^aI come to you, I will come in the fulness of the blessing of Christ.

30 Now I urge you, brethren, by our Lord Jesus Christ and by ^athe love of the Spirit to ^bstrive together with me in your prayers to God for me,

31 that I may be ^adelivered from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my ^bservice for Jerusalem may prove acceptable to the ¹saints;

32 so that ^aI may come to you in joy by ^bthe will of God and find refreshing rest in your company.

33 Now ^athe God of peace be with you all. Amen.

I ^aCOMMEND to you our sister Phoebe, who is a ¹servant of the church which is at ^bCenchrea;

2 that you ^areceive her in the Lord in a manner worthy of the ¹saints, and that you help her in whatever matter she may have need of you; for she herself has also been a helper of many, ²and of myself as well.

3 Greet ^aPrisca and ^aAquila my fellow-workers ^bin ^cChrist Jesus,

4 who for my life risked their own necks, to whom not only do I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles;

5 also greet ^athe church that is in their house. Greet Epacnetus my beloved, who is the ^bfirst convert to Christ from ^{1c}Asia.

6 Greet Mary, who has worked hard for you.

7 Greet Andronicus and ¹Junias, my ^akinsmen, and my ^bfellow-prisoners, who are outstanding among the apostles, who also were ^cin Christ before me.

8 Greet Ampliatus my beloved in the Lord.

11 Greet Herodion my ^akinsman. ^bGreet those of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.

12 Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, workers in the Lord. Greet Persis the beloved, who has worked hard in the Lord.

13 Greet ^aRufus, a choice man in the Lord, also his mother and mine.

14 Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas and the brethren with them.

15 Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all ^athe ¹saints who are with them.

16 ^aGreet one another with a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ greet you.

17 Now I urge you, brethren, keep your eye on those who cause dissensions and ¹hindrances ^acontrary to the teaching which you learned, and ^bturn away from them.

18 For such men are ^aslaves not of our Lord Christ but of ^btheir own ¹appetites; and by their ^csmooth and flattering speech they deceive the hearts of the unsuspecting.

19 For the report of your obedience ^ahas reached to all; therefore I am rejoicing over you, but ^{b1} I want you to be wise in what is good, and innocent in what is evil.

20 And ^athe God of peace will soon crush ^bSatan under your feet.

^cThe grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.

21 ^aTimothy my fellow-worker greets you; and so do ^bLucius and ^cJason and ^dSosipater, my ^ekinsmen.

25 ^aNow to Him who is able to establish you ^baccording to my gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of ^cthe mystery which has been kept secret for ^dlong ages past,

26 but now is manifested, and by ^athe Scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the eternal God, has been made known to all the nations, leading to ^bobedience of faith;

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving. Exhortation to Unity.

PAUL, ^acalled as an apostle of Jesus Christ ^{1b}by ^bthe will of God, and ^cSosthenes our ^dbrother,

2 to ^athe church of God which is at ^bCorinth, to those who have been sanctified in Christ Jesus, ^{1a}saints ^bby calling, with all who in every place ^dcall upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours:

3 aGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace comes before peace. Always.

4 ^aI thank ^{1my} God always concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus,

5 that in everything you were ^aenriched in Him, in all ^bspeech and ^{all} knowledge,

6 even as ^athe testimony concerning Christ was confirmed ¹ⁱⁿ you,

7 so that you are not lacking in any gift, ^aawaiting eagerly the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ,

8 ^awho shall also confirm you to the end, blameless in ^bthe day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 God is faithful, through whom you were ^bcalled into ^cfellowship with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

10 Now ^aI exhort you, ^bbrethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all ^{1a}agree, and there be no ^{2c}divisions among you, but you be ³made complete in ^dthe same mind and in the same judgment.

11 For I have been informed concerning you, my brethren, by ^aChloe's people, that there are quarrels among you.

12 Now I mean this, that ^aeach one of you is saying, "I am of Paul," and "I of ^bApollos," and "I of ^cCephas," and "I of Christ."

13 ¹Has Christ been divided? Paul was not crucified for you, was he? Or were you ^abaptized in the name of Paul?

14 ¹I thank God that I ^abaptized none of you, except ^aCrispus and ^bGaius, 15 that no man should say you were baptized in my name.

16 Now I did baptize also the ^ahousehold of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptized any other.

17 ^aFor Christ did not send me to baptize, but to preach the gospel, ^bnot in ^{1c}cleverness of speech, that the cross of Christ should not be made void.

18 For the word of the cross is to ^athose who ^{1a}are perishing ^bfoolishness, but to us who ^{2a}are being saved it is ^cthe power of God.

19 For it is written,

"^aI WILL DESTROY THE WISDOM OF THE WISE,

AND THE CLEVERNESS OF THE CLEVER I WILL SET ASIDE."

20 ^aWhere is the wise man? Where is the scribe? Where is the debater of ^bthis age? Has not God ^cmade foolish the wisdom of ^dthe world?

wisdom did not come to know God, ^bGod was well pleased through the ^cfoolishness of the ¹message preached to ^dsave those who believe.

22 For indeed ^aJews ask for ¹signs, and Greeks search for wisdom;

23 but we preach ^{1a}Christ crucified, ^bto Jews a stumbling-block, and to Gentiles ^cfoolishness, 24 but to those who are ^athe called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ ^bthe power of God and ^cthe wisdom of God.

2 For I determined to know nothing among you except ^aJesus Christ, and Him crucified.

3 And I ^awas with you in ^bweakness and in ^cfear and in much trembling.

4 And my ¹message and my preaching were ^anot in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of ^bthe Spirit and of power,

5 that your faith should not ¹rest on the wisdom of men, but on ^athe power of God.

6 Yet we do speak wisdom among those who are ^aamature; a wisdom; however, not of ^bthis age, nor of the rulers of ^bthis age, who are ^cpassing away;

7 but we speak God's wisdom in a ^amystery, the hidden wisdom, which God ^bpredestined before the ^cages to our glory;

8 the wisdom ^awhich none of the rulers of ^bthis age has understood; for if they had understood it, they would not have crucified ^cthe Lord of glory;

9 but just as it is written,

"THINGS WHICH EYE HAS NOT SEEN AND EAR HAS NOT HEARD, [without man] ¹NEITHER ENTERED THE HEART OF MAN; ²ALL THAT GOD HAS PREPARED FOR THOSE WHO LOVE HIM."

10 ^{1a}For to us God revealed them ^bthrough the Spirit; for the Spirit ^csearches all things, even the ^ddepths of God.

11 For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the ^aspirit of the man, which is in him? Even so the thoughts of God no one knows except the Spirit of God.

12 Now we ^ahave received, not the spirit of ^bthe world, but the Spirit who is from God, that we might know the things freely given to us by God,

13 which things we also speak, ^anot in ^bwords taught by human wisdom, but in those taught by the Spirit, ^ccombining spiritual thoughts with spiritual ^dwords.

14 But a ^anatural man ^bdoes not accept the things of the Spirit of God; for they are ^cfoolishness to him, and he cannot understand them, because they are ^dspiritually ^eappraised.

15 But he who is ^aspiritual appraises all things, yet he himself is appraised by no man.

16 For ^aWHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE SHOULD INSTRUCT HIM? But ^bwe have the mind of Christ.

CHAPTER 3

AND I, brethren, could not speak to you as to ^aspiritual men, but as to ^bmen of flesh, as to ^cbabes in Christ.

2 I gave you ^amilk to drink, not solid food; for you ^bwere not yet able to receive it. Indeed, even now you are not yet able,

3 for you are still fleshy. For since there is ^ajealousy and strife among you, are you not ^bfleshy, and are you not walking ^blike mere men?

4 For when ^aone says, "I am of Paul," and another, "I am of Apollos," are you not mere ^bmen?

5 What then is Apollos? And what is Paul? ^aServants through whom you believed, even ^bas the Lord gave opportunity to each one.

6 ^aI planted, ^bApollos watered, but ^cGod was causing the growth.

7 So then neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but God who causes the growth.

8 Now he who plants and he who waters are one; but each will ^areceive his own ^breward according to his own labor.

9 For we are God's ^afellow-workers; you are God's ^bfield,
 God's ^cbuilding.

10 According to ^athe grace of God which was given to me, as a wise masterbuilder ^bI laid a foundation, and ^canother is building upon it. But let each man be careful how he builds upon it.

11 For no man can lay a ^afoundation other than the one which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.

12 Now if ^aany man builds upon the foundation with gold, silver, ^bprecious stones, wood, hay, straw,

13 ^aeach man's work will become evident; for ^bthe day will show it, because it is ^cto be revealed with fire; and the fire itself will test ^dthe quality of each man's work.

14 If any man's work which he has built upon it remains, he shall ^areceive a reward.

15 If any man's work is burned up, he shall suffer loss; but he himself shall be saved, yet ^aso as through fire.

16 ^aDo you not know that ^byou are ^atemple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?

17 If any man destroys the ¹temple of God, God will destroy him, for the ¹temple of God is holy, and ²that is what you are.

18 ^aLet no man deceive himself. ^bIf any man among you thinks that he is wise in ^cthis age, let him become foolish that he may become wise.

19 For ^athe wisdom of this world is foolishness before God. For it is written, "^bHe is ^bTHE ONE WHO CATCHES THE WISE IN THEIR CRAFTINESS";

20 and again, "^aTHE LORD KNOWS THE REASONINGS of the wise, THAT THEY ARE USELESS."

21 So then ^alet no one boast in men. For ^ball things belong to you,

22 ^awhether Paul or Apollos or Cephas or the world or ^blife or death or things present or things to come; all things belong to you,

23 and ^ayou belong to Christ; and ^bChrist belongs to God.

CHAPTER 4

LET a man regard us in this manner, as ^aservants of Christ, and ^bstewards of ^cthe mysteries of God.

2 In this case, moreover, it is required ¹of stewards that one be found trustworthy.

3 But to me it is a very small thing that I should be examined by you, or by any human ¹court; in fact, I do not even examine myself.

4 I ¹am conscious of nothing against myself, yet I am not by this ²acquitted; but the one who examines me is ³the Lord;

5 Therefore ^ado not go on ^bpassing judgment before ²the time, but wait ^buntil the Lord comes who will both ^cbring to light the things hidden in the darkness and disclose the motives of men's hearts; and then each man's ^dpraise will come to him from God.

6 Now these things, brethren, I have figuratively applied to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that in us you might learn not to exceed ^awhat is written, in order that no one of you might ^bbecome ¹arrogant ^cin behalf of one against the other.

7 For who regards you as superior? And ^awhat do you have that you did not receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?

8 You are ^aalready filled, you have already become rich, you have become kings without us; and would indeed that you had become kings so that we also might reign with you.

9 For, I think, God has exhibited us apostles last of all, as men ^acondemned to death; because we ^bhave become a spectacle to the world, ¹both to angels and to men.

10 We are ^afools for Christ's sake, but ^byou are prudent in Christ; ^cwe are weak, but you are strong; you are distinguished, but we are without honor.

11 To this present hour we are both ^ahungry and thirsty, and are poorly clothed, and are roughly treated, and are homeless;

12 and we toil, ^aworking with our own hands; when we are reviled, we bless; when we are ^cpersecuted, we endure;

13 when we are slandered, we try to ¹conciliate; we have ^abecome as the scum of the world, the dregs of all things, even until now.

14 I do not write these things to ^ashame you, but to admonish you as my beloved ^bchildren.

15 For if you were to have countless ^atutors in Christ, yet you would not have many fathers; for in ^bChrist Jesus I ^cbecame your father through the ^dgospel.

16 I exhort you therefore, be ^aimitators of me.

17 For this reason I ^ahave sent to you ^bTimothy, who is my ^cbeloved and faithful child in the Lord, and he will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, ^djust as I teach everywhere in every church.

18 Now some have become ¹arrogant, as though I were not ^bcoming to you.

19 But I ^awill come to you soon, ^bif the Lord wills, and I shall find out, not the ¹words of those who are ^carrogant, but their power.

20 For the kingdom of God does ^anot consist in ¹words, but in power.

21 What do you desire? ^aShall I come to you with a rod or with love and a spirit of gentleness?

CHAPTER 5

IT is actually reported that there is immorality among you, and immorality of such a kind as does not exist even among the Gentiles, that someone has ^ahis father's wife.

2 And ¹you ^ahave become ²arrogant, and ³have not ^bmourned instead, in order that the one who had done this deed might be ^cremoved from your midst.

3 For I, on my part, though ^aabsent in body but present in spirit, have already judged him who has so committed this, as though I were present.

4 ^aIn the name of our Lord Jesus, when you are assembled, and ¹I with you in spirit, ^bwith the power of our Lord Jesus,

5 ~~I have decided to~~ ^adeliver such a one to ^bSatan for the destruction of his flesh, that his spirit may be saved in ^cthe day of the Lord ¹Jesus.

6 ^aYour boasting is not good. ^bDo you not know that ^ca little leaven leavens the whole lump of dough?

7 Clean out the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, just as you are in fact unleavened. For Christ our ^aPassover also has been sacrificed.

8 Let us therefore celebrate the feast, ^anot with old leaven, nor with the leaven of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

9 I wrote you in my letter ^anot to associate with immoral people;

10 I did not at all mean with the immoral people of this world, or with the covetous and swindlers, or with ^aidolaters; for then you would have to go out of the world.

11 But ¹actually, I wrote to you not to associate ²with any so-called ^abrother if he should be an immoral person, or covetous, or ^ban idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or a swindler—not even to eat with such a one.

12 For what have I to do with judging ^aoutsiders? ^bDo you not judge those who are within the church?

13 But those who are outside God ¹judges. ^aRemove the wicked man from among yourselves.

CHAPTER 6

DOES any one of you, when he has a ¹case against his neighbor, dare to go to law before the unrighteous, and ^anot before the ²saints?

2 Or ^ado you not know that ^bthe ¹saints will judge ^cthe world? And if the world is judged by you, are you not competent to ²constitute the smallest law courts?

3 ^aDo you not know that we shall judge angels? How much more, matters of this life?

4 If then you have law courts dealing with matters of this life, ¹do you appoint them as judges who are of no account in the church?

5 ^aI say this to your shame. Is it so, that there is not among you one wise man who will be able to decide between his ^bbrethren,

6 but brother goes to law with brother, and that before ^aunbelievers?

7 Actually, then, it is already a defeat for you, that you have lawsuits with one another. ^aWhy not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded?

8 On the contrary, you yourselves wrong and defraud, and that your ^abrethren.

9 Or ^ado you not know that the unrighteous shall not ^binherit the kingdom of God? ^cDo not be deceived; ^dneither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor ¹effeminate, nor homosexuals,

10 nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers, shall ^ainherit the kingdom of God.

11 And ^asuch were some of you; but you were ^bwashed, but you were ^csanctified, but you were ^djustified in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, and in the Spirit of our God.

12 ^aAll things are lawful for me, but not all things are profitable. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be mastered by anything.

13 ^aFood is for the ¹stomach, and the ¹stomach is for food; but God will ^bdo away with both ²of them. Yet the body is not for immorality, but ^cfor the Lord; and ^dthe Lord is for the body.

14 Now God has not only ^araised the Lord, but ^bwill also raise us up through His power.

15 ^aDo you not know that ^byour bodies are members of Christ? Shall I then take away the members of Christ and make them members of a harlot? ^cMay it never be!

a harlot is one body with her? For He says, "bTHE TWO WILL BECOME ONE FLESH."

17 But the one who joins himself to the Lord is ^aone spirit with Him.

18 ^aFlee immorality. Every other sin that a man commits is outside the body, but the ¹immoral man sins against his own body.

19 Or ^ado you not know that ^byour body is a ¹temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you, whom you have from ²God, and that ^cyou are not your own?

20 For ^ayou have been ^{bought} with a price: therefore glorify God in ^byour body.

CHAPTER 7

NOW concerning the things about which you wrote, it is ^agood for a man not to touch a woman.

2 But because of immoralities, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.

3 Let the husband ¹fulfill his duty to his wife, and likewise also the wife to her husband.

4 The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does; and likewise also the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does.

5 ^aStop depriving one another, except by agreement for a time that you may devote yourselves to prayer, and ¹come together again lest ^bSatan tempt you because of your lack of self-control.

6 But this I say by way of concession, ^anot of command.

7 Yet I wish that all men were ^aeven as I myself am. However, ^beach man has his own gift from God, one in this manner, and another in that.

8 But I say to the unmarried and to widows that it is ^agood for them if they remain ^aeven as I.

9 But if they do not have self-control, ^alet them marry; for it is better to marry than to ¹burn.

10 But to the married I give instructions, ^anot I, but the Lord, that the wife should not ¹leave her husband 11 (but if she does leave, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband should not ¹send his wife away.

12 But to the rest ^aI say, not the Lord, that if any brother has a wife who is an unbeliever, and she consents to live with him, let him not ¹send her away.

13 And a woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he consents to live with her, let her not ¹send her husband away.

14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified through his wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified through ¹her believing husband; for otherwise your children are unclean, but now they are ^aholy.

15 Yet if the unbelieving one leaves, let him leave; the brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called ¹us ^{2a}to peace.

16 For how do you know, O wife, whether you will ^asave your husband? Or how do you know, O husband, whether you will save your wife?

17 Only, ^aas the Lord has assigned to each one, as God has called each, in this manner let him walk. And ^bthus I direct in ^call the churches.

18 Was any man called already circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Has anyone been called in uncircumcision? ^aLet him not be circumcised.

19 ^aCircumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but what matters is ^bthe keeping of the commandments of God.

20 ^aLet each man remain in that ¹condition in which he was called.

21 Were you called while a slave? ¹Do not worry about it; but if you are able also to become free, rather ²do that.

22 For he who was called in the Lord while a slave, is ^athe Lord's freedman; likewise he who was called while free, is ^bChrist's slave.

23 ^aYou were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men.

24 Brethren, ^alet each man remain with God in that condition in which he was called.

25 Now concerning virgins I have ^ano command of the Lord, but I give an opinion as one who ¹by the mercy of the Lord is trustworthy.

26 I think then that this is good in view of the ¹present ^adistress, that ^bit is good for a man ²to remain as he is.

27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be released. Are you released from a wife? Do not seek a wife.

28 But if you should marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin should marry, she has not sinned. Yet such will have ¹trouble in this life, and I am trying to spare you.

29 But this I say, brethren, ^athe time has been shortened, so that from now on both those who have wives should be as though they had none;

30 and those who weep, as though they did not weep; and those who rejoice, as though they did not rejoice; and those who buy, as though they did not possess;

31 and those who use the world, as though they did not ^amake full use of it; for ^bthe form of this world is passing away.

32 But I want you to be free from ^cconcern! One who is ^aunmarried is concerned about the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord;

33 but one who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his ¹wife,

34 and his interests are divided. And the woman who is unmarried, and the virgin, is concerned about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and spirit; but one who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how she may please her husband.

35 And this I say for your own benefit; not to put a restraint upon you, but ¹to promote what is seemly, and to secure undistracted devotion to the Lord.

36 But if any man thinks that he is acting unbecomingly toward his virgin daughter, if she should be of full age, and if it must be so, let him do what he wishes, he does not sin; let ¹her marry.

37 But he who stands firm in his heart, ¹being under no constraint, but has authority ²over his own will, and has decided this in his own heart, to keep his own ³virgin daughter, he will do well.

38 So then both he who gives his own virgin daughter in marriage does well, and he who does not give her in marriage will do better.

39 ^aA wife is bound as long as her husband lives; but if her husband ^bis dead, she is free to be married to whom she wishes, only ^bin the Lord.

40 But ^ain my opinion she is happier if she remains as she is; and I think that I also have the Spirit of God.

CHAPTER 8

NOW concerning ^athings sacrificed to idols, we know that we all have ^bknowledge. Knowledge ¹makes arrogant, but love ^dedifies.

2 ^aIf any one supposes that he knows anything, he has not yet ^bknown as he ought to know;

3 but if any one loves God, he ^ais known by Him.

4 Therefore concerning the eating of ^athings sacrificed to idols, we know that ¹there is ^bno such thing as an idol in the world, and that ^cthere is no God but one.

5 For even if ^athere are so-called gods whether in heaven or on earth, as indeed there are many gods and many lords,

6 yet for us ^athere is but one God, ^bthe Father, ^cfrom whom are all things, and we exist for Him; and ^done Lord, Jesus Christ, ^ethrough whom are all things, and we exist
through Him.

7 However not all men ^ahave this knowledge; but ^bsome, being accustomed to the idol until now, eat food as if it were sacrificed to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.

8 But ^afood will not ¹commend us to God; we are neither ²the worse if we do not eat, nor ³the better if we do eat.

9 But ^atake care lest this ¹liberty of yours somehow become a stumbling-block to the ^bweak.

10 For if someone sees you who have ^aknowledge dining in an idol's temple, will not his conscience, if he is weak, be strengthened to eat ^bthings sacrificed to idols?

11 For through ^ayour knowledge he who is weak ^bis ruined, the brother for whose sake Christ died.

12 ^aAnd thus, by sinning against the brethren and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin ^bagainst Christ.

13 Therefore, ^aif food causes my brother to stumble, I will never eat meat again, that I might not cause my brother to stumble.

CHAPTER 9

AM I not ^afree? Am I not an ^bapostle? Have I not ^cseen Jesus our Lord? Are you not ^dmy work in the Lord?

2 If to others I am not an apostle, at least I am to you;
for you are the ^aseal of my ^bapostleship in the Lord.

3 My defense to those who examine me is this:

4 ^{1a}Do we not have a right to eat and drink?

5 ^{1a}Do we not have a right to take along a ²believing wife, even as the rest of the apostles, and the ^bbrothers of the Lord, and ^cCephas?

6 Or do only ^{1a}Barnabas and I not have a right to refrain from working?

7 Who at any time serves ^aas a soldier/at his own expense? Who ^bplants a vineyard, and does not eat the fruit of it? Or who tends a flock and does not ¹use the milk of the flock?

8 I am not speaking these things ^aaccording to ¹human judgment, am I? Or does not the Law also say these things?

9 For it is written in the Law of Moses, ^a"YOU SHALL NOT MUZZLE THE OX WHILE HE IS THRESHING." God is not concerned about ^boxen, is He?

10 Or is He speaking altogether for our sake? Yes, ^afor our sake it was written, because ^bthe plowman ought to plow in hope, and the thresher ^{to thresh} in hope of sharing ^{the crops}.

11 ^aIf we sowed spiritual things in you, is it too much if we should reap material things from you?

12 If others share the right over you, do we not more? Nevertheless, we ^adid not use this right, but we endure all things, ^bthat we may cause no hindrance to the ^cgospel of Christ.

13 ^aDo you not know that those who ^bperform sacred services eat the ^{food} of the temple, ^{and} those who attend regularly to the altar have their share with the altar?

14 So also ^athe Lord directed those who proclaim the ^bgospel to ^cget their living from the gospel.

15 But I have ^aused none of these things. And I am not writing these things that it may be done so in my case; for it would be better for me to die than have any man make ^bmy boast an empty one.

16 For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of, for ^aI am under compulsion; for woe is me if I do not preach ^bthe gospel.

17 For if I do this voluntarily, I have a ^areward; but if against my will, I have a ^bstewardship entrusted to me.

18 What then is my ^areward? That, when I preach the gospel, I may offer the gospel ^bwithout charge, so as ^cnot to make full use of my right in the gospel.

19 For though I am ^afree from all ^{men}, I have made myself ^aslave to all, that I might ^cwin the more.

20 And ^ato the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might win Jews; to those who are under ^{the} Law, as under ¹the Law, though ^bnot being myself under ¹the Law, that I might win those who are under ¹the Law;

21 to those who are ^awithout law, ^{as} without law, though not being without the law of God but ^cunder the law of Christ, that I might win those who are without law.

22 To the ^aweak I became weak, that I might win the weak; I have become ^aall things to all men, ^cthat I may by all means save some.

23 And I do all things for the sake of the gospel, that I may become a fellow-partaker of it.

24 ^aDo you not know that those who run in a race all run,

CHAPTER 10

FOR ^{a1} I do not want you to be unaware, brethren, that our fathers were all ^bunder ^cthe cloud, and all ^dpassed through the sea;

2 and all ¹were ^abaptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

3 and all ^aate the same spiritual food;

4 and all ^adrank the same spiritual drink, for they were drinking from a spiritual rock which followed them; and the rock was ¹Christ.

5 Nevertheless, with most of them God was not well pleased; for ^athey were laid low in the wilderness.

6 Now these things happened as ^aexamples for us, that we should not crave evil things, as ^bthey also craved.

7 And do not be ^aidolaters, as some of them were; as it is written, ^b"THE PEOPLE SAT DOWN TO EAT AND DRINK, AND STOOD UP TO ^cPLAY."

8 Nor let us act immorally, as ^asome of them ¹did, and ^btwenty-three thousand fell in one day.

9 Nor let us try the Lord, as ^asome of them ¹did, and were destroyed by the serpents.

10 Nor grumble, ^aas some of them ¹did, and ^bwere ²destroyed by the ^cdestroyer.

11 Now these things happened to them as an ^aexample, and ^bthey were written for our instruction, upon whom ^cthe ends of the ages have come.

12 Therefore let him who ^athinks he stands take heed lest he fall.

13 No temptation has overtaken you but such as is common to man; and ^aGod is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted beyond what you are able; but with the temptation will provide the way of escape also, that you may be able to endure it.

14 Therefore, my ^abeloved, flee from ^bidolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men; you judge what I say.
 16 Is not the ^acup of blessing which we bless a sharing in the blood of Christ? Is not the ^bbread which we break a sharing in the body of Christ?

17 Since there is one ¹bread, we ^awho are many are one body; for we all partake of the one ¹bread.

18 Look at ¹the nation ^aIsrael; are not those who ^beat the sacrifices sharers in the altar?

19 What do I mean then? That a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or ^athat an idol is anything?

20 No; but I say that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they ^asacrifice to demons, and not to God; and I do not want you to become sharers in demons.

21 ^aYou cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons; you cannot partake of the table of the Lord, and ^bthe table of demons.

22 Or do we ^aprovoke the Lord to jealousy? We are not ^bstronger than He, are we?

23 ^aAll things are lawful, but not all things are profitable. All things are lawful, but not all things ^bedify.

24 Let no one ^aseek his own good, but that of his ¹neighbor.

25 ^aEat anything that is sold in the meat market, without asking questions for conscience' sake;

26 ^aFOR THE EARTH IS THE LORD'S, AND EVERYTHING THAT IS IN IT.

27 If ^aone of the unbelievers invites you, and you wish to go, ^beat anything that is set before you, without asking questions for conscience' sake.

28 But ^aif anyone should say to you, "This is meat sacrificed to idols," do not eat it, for the sake of the one who informed you, and for conscience' sake;

29 I mean not your own conscience, but the other man's; for ^awhy is my freedom judged by another's conscience?

30 If I partake with thankfulness, ^awhy am I slandered concerning that for which I ^bgive thanks?

31 Whether, then, you eat or drink or ^awhatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

32 ^aGive no offense either to Jews or to Greeks or to ^bthe church of God;

33 just as I also ^aplease all men in all things, ^bnot seeking my own profit, but the profit of the many, ^cthat they may be saved.

CHAPTER 11

^aBE imitators of me, just as I also am of Christ.

2 Now ^aI praise you because you ^bremember me in everything, and ^chold firmly to the traditions, just as I delivered them to you.

3 But I want you to understand that ¹Christ is the ^ahead of every man, and ^bthe man is the head of a woman, and God is the ^chead of ¹Christ.

4 Every man who has something on his head while praying or ^aprophesying, disgraces his head.

5 But every ^awoman who has her head uncovered while praying or prophesying, disgraces her head; for she is one and the same with her ¹whose head is ^bshaved.

6 For if a woman does not cover ¹her head, let her also ²have her hair cut off; but if it is disgraceful for a woman to ²have her hair cut off or ¹her head shaved, let her cover ¹her head.

7 For a man ought not to have his head covered, since he is the ^aimage and glory of God; but the woman is the glory of man.

⁸ For ^aman ¹does not originate from woman, but woman from man;

⁹ for indeed man was not created for the woman's sake, but ^awoman for the man's sake.

¹⁰ Therefore the woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the angels.

¹¹ However, in the Lord, neither is woman ¹independent of man, nor is man ¹independent of woman.

¹² For as the woman ¹originates from the man, so also the man has his birth through the woman; and ^aall things ²originate ^bfrom God.

¹³ ^aJudge ¹for yourselves: is it proper for a woman to pray to God with head uncovered?

¹⁴ Does not even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him, ¹⁵ but if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her? For her hair is given to her for a covering.

¹⁶ But if one is inclined to be contentious, ^awe have no ¹other practice, nor have ^bthe churches of God.

¹⁷ But in giving this instruction, ^aI do not praise you, because you come together not for the better but for the worse.

¹⁸ For, in the first place, when you come together ¹as a church, I hear that ²divisions exist among you; and in part, I believe it.

¹⁹ For there ^amust also be factions among you, ^bin order that those who are approved may have become ¹evident among you.

²⁰ Therefore when you meet together, it is not to eat the Lord's Supper, ²¹ for in your eating each one takes his own supper first; and one is hungry and ^aanother is drunk.

²² What! Do you not have houses in which to eat and drink? Or do you despise the ^achurch of God, and ^bshame those who have nothing? What shall I say to you? Shall ^cI praise you? In this I will not praise you.

²³ For ^aI received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you, that ^bthe Lord Jesus in the night in which He was betrayed took bread;

²⁴ and when He had given thanks, He broke it, and said, "This is My body, which ¹is for you; do this in remembrance of Me."

²⁵ In the same way ^athe cup also, after supper, saying, "This cup is the ^bnew covenant in My blood; do this; as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me."

²⁶ For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death ^auntil He comes.

²⁷ Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner, shall be ^aguilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.

²⁸ But let a man ^aexamine himself, and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

²⁹ For he who eats and drinks, eats and drinks judgment to himself, if he does not judge the body rightly.

³⁰ For this reason many among you are weak and sick, and a number ^asleep.

31 But if we judged ourselves rightly, we should not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are ^adisciplined by the Lord in order that we may not be condemned along with ^bthe world.

33 So then, my brethren, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

34 If anyone is ^ahungry, let him eat ^{bat} home, so that you may not come together for judgment. And the remaining matters I shall ^carrange ^dwhen I come.

CHAPTER 12 [IN THE BODY]

NOW concerning ^aspiritual ~~gifts~~, brethren, ^bI do not want you to be unaware.

^c2 You know that ^dwhen you were pagans, ~~you were~~ ^ebled astray to the ^fdumb idols, ^ghowever you were led- [^hspiritual]

3 Therefore I make known to you, that no one speaking ^{la}by the Spirit of God says, "Jesus is ^{2b}accursed"; and no one can say, "Jesus is ^cLord," except ^{la}by the ^hHoly Spirit;

4 Now there are ^avarieties of ~~gifts~~, but the ^bsame Spirit.

5 And there are varieties of ministries, and the ^bsame Lord.

6 And there are varieties of ^{le}effects, but the ^bsame ^aGod who works all things in all ^{persons}.

7 But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit ^afor the common good.

8 For to one is given the word of ^awisdom through the Spirit, and to another the word of ^bknowledge according to the same Spirit;

9 to another ^afaith ^{1b}by the same Spirit, and to another ^bgifts of ²healing ^{1b}by the one Spirit,

10 and to another the ^{le}effecting of ^{2a}miracles, and to another ^bprophecy, and to another the ^{3c}distinguishing of spirits, to another ^{various} ^dkinds of tongues, and to another the ^einterpretation of tongues.

11 But one and the same Spirit ^{works} all these things, ^adistributing to each one individually just as He wills.

12 For even ^aas the body is one and ^{yet} has many members, and all the members of the body, though they are many, are one body, ^{so} also is Christ.

13 For ^{la}by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether ^bJews or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to ^ddrink of one Spirit.

14 For ^athe body is not one member, but many.

15 If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I am not ^apart of the body," it is not for this reason ^{1a}any the less ^apart of the body.

16 And if the ear should say, "Because I am not an eye, I am not ^apart of the body," it is not for this reason ^{1a}any the less ^apart of the body.

17 If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the sense of smell be?

18 But now God has ^aplaced the members, each one of them, in the body, ^bjust as He desired.

19 And if they were all one member, where would the body be?

20 But now ^athere are many members, but one body.

21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, "I have no need of you"; or again the head to the feet, "I have no need of you."

22 On the contrary, ¹it is much truer that the members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary;

23 and those members of the body, which we ¹deem less honorable, ²on these we bestow more abundant honor, and our unseemly members come to have more abundant seemliness,

24 whereas our seemly members have no need of it. But God has so composed the body, giving more abundant honor to that member which lacked,

25 that there should be no ¹division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another.

26 And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; if one member is ¹honored, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now you are ^aChrist's body; and ^bindividually members of it.

28 And God has ^{1a}appointed in ^bthe church, first ^capostles, second ^dprophets, third ^eteachers, then ^{2f}miracles, then ^ggifts of healings, helps, ^hadministrations, ~~various~~ ⁱvarious kinds of tongues.

29 All are not apostles, are they? All are not prophets, are they? All are not teachers, are they? All are not workers of ¹miracles, are they?

30 All do not have gifts of healings, do they? All do not speak with tongues, do they? All do not ^ainterpret, do they?

31 But ^aearnestly desire the greater gifts.

And I show you a still more excellent way:

CHAPTER 13

IF I speak with the ^atongues of men and of ^bangels, but do not have love, I have become a noisy gong or a ^cclanging cymbal.

2 And if I have the gift of ^aprophecy, and know all ^bmysteries and all ^cknowledge; and if I have ^dall faith, so as to ^eremove mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing.

3 And if I ^agive all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I ^bdeliver my body ¹to be burned, but do not have love, it profits me nothing.

4 Love ^ais patient, love is kind, and ^bis not jealous; love does not brag and is not ^carrogant,

5 ¹does not act unbecomingly; it ^adoes not seek its own, is ^bnot provoked; ^bdoes not take into account a wrong suffered,

6 ^adoes not rejoice in unrighteousness; but ^brejoices with the truth;

7 ^{1b}bears all things, ^bbelieves all things, ^bhopes all things, endures all things.

8 Love ^bnever fails; but if there are gifts of ^{1a}prophecy, they will be done away; if there are ^btongues, they will cease; if there is knowledge, it will be done away.

9 For we ^aknow in part, and we prophesy in part;

10 but when the perfect comes, ^bthe partial will be done away;

11 When I was a child, I used to speak as a child, think as a child, reason as a child; when I became a man, I did away with childish things.

12 For now we ^asee in a mirror dimly, but then ^bface to face; now I know in part, but then I shall know fully just as I also ^chave been fully known.

13 But now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the ¹greatest of these is ²love.

CHAPTER 14 in the following

PURSU^aE love, yet ^bdesire earnestly ^cspiritual gifts, but especially that you may ^dprophesy.

2 For one who ^aspeaks in a tongue does not speak to men, but to God; for no one ¹understands, but ²in ~~his~~ spirit he speaks ^bmysteries.

3 But one who prophesies speaks to men for ^aedification and ^bexhortation and consolation.

4 One who ^aspeaks in a tongue ^bedifies himself; but one who ^cprophesies ^bedifies the church.

5 Now I wish that you all ^aspoke in tongues, but ^beven more that you would prophesy; and greater is one who prophesies than one who ^aspeaks in tongues, unless he interprets, so that the church may receive ^cedifying.

6 But now, brethren, if I come to you speaking in tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of ^arevelation or of ^bknowledge or of ^cprophecy or of ^dteaching?

7 Yet ^aeven lifeless things, either flute or harp, in producing a sound, if they do not produce a distinction in the tones, how will it be known what is played on the flute or on the harp?

8 For if ^athe ¹bugle produces an indistinct sound, who will prepare himself for battle?

9 So also you, unless you utter by the tongue speech that is clear, how will it be known what is spoken? For you will be ^aspeaking into the air.

10 There are, perhaps, a great many kinds of ¹languages in the world, and no kind is without meaning.

11 If then I do not know the meaning of the language, I shall be to the one who speaks a ^{1a}barbarian, and the one who speaks will be a ^{1b}barbarian ²to me.

12 So also you, since you are zealous of ¹spiritual gifts, seek to abound for the ^aedification of the church

13 Therefore let one who speaks in a tongue pray that he may interpret.

14 For if I pray in a tongue, my spirit prays, but my mind is unfruitful.

15 ^aWhat is the outcome then? I shall pray with the spirit and I shall pray with the mind also; I shall ^bsing with the spirit and I shall sing with the mind also.

16 Otherwise if you bless ¹in the spirit only, how will the one who fills the place of the ²ungifted say ^athe "Amen" at your ^bgiving of thanks, since he does not know what you are saying?

17 For you are giving thanks well enough, but the other man is not ^aedified.

40 ^a1 Cor. 14:33

18 I thank God, I speak in tongues more than you all;
19 however, in the church I desire to speak five words with my mind, that I may instruct others also, rather than ten thousand words in a tongue.

20 ^aBrethren, ^bdo not be children in your thinking; yet in evil ^cbe babes, but in your thinking be mature.

21 In ^athe Law it is written, "^bBY MEN OF STRANGE TONGUES AND BY THE LIPS OF STRANGERS I WILL SPEAK TO THIS PEOPLE, AND EVEN SO THEY WILL NOT LISTEN TO ME," says the Lord.

22 So then tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to unbelievers; but ^aprophecy is for a sign, not to unbelievers, but to those who believe.

23 If therefore the whole church should assemble together and all speak in tongues, and ¹ungifted men or unbelievers enter, will they not say that ^ayou are mad?

24 But if all ^aprophecy, and an unbeliever or an ¹ungifted man enters, he is ^bconvicted by all, he is called to account by all;

25 ^athe secrets of his heart are disclosed; and so he will ^bfall on his face and worship God, ^cdeclaring that God is certainly among you.

26 ^aWhat is the outcome then, ^bbrethren? When you assemble, ^ceach one has a ^dpsalm, has a ^eteaching, has a ^frevelation, has a ^gtongue, has an ^hinterpretation. Let ^ball things be done for ⁱedification!

27 If any one speaks in a ^atongue, it should be by two or at the most three, and each in turn, and let one ^binterpret;

28 but if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the church; and let him speak to himself and to God.

29 And let two or three ^aprophets speak, and let the others ^bpass judgment.

30 But if a revelation is made to another who is seated, let the first keep silent.

31 For you can all prophesy one by one, so that all may learn and all may be exhorted;

32 and the spirits of prophets are subject to prophets;

33 for God is not a God of ^aconfusion but of ¹peace, as in ^ball the churches of the ^csaints.

34 Let the women ^akeep silent in the churches; for they are not permitted to speak, but ^blet them subject themselves, just as ^cthe Law also says.

35 And if they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home; for it is ¹improper for a woman to speak in church.

36 ¹Was it from you that the word of God first went forth? Or has it come to you only?

37 ^aIf any one thinks he is a prophet or ^bspiritual, let him recognize that the things which I write to you ^care the Lord's commandment.

38 But if any one ¹does not recognize this, he is not recognized.

39 Therefore, my brethren, ^adesire earnestly to ^bprophecy, and do not forbid to speak in tongues.

40 But ^alet all things be done properly and in an orderly manner;

CHAPTER 15

NOW ^aI make known to you, brethren, the ^bgospel which I preached to you, which also you received, ^cin which also you stand, ² by which also you are saved, ^aif you hold fast ¹the word which I preached to you, ^bunless you believed in vain.

³ For ^aI delivered to you ¹as of first importance what I also received, that Christ died ^bfor our sins ^caccording to the Scriptures,

⁴ and that He was buried, and that He was ^araised on the third day ^baccording to the Scriptures,

⁵ and that ^aHe appeared to ^bCephas, then ^cto the twelve.

⁶ After that He appeared to more than five hundred brethren at one time, most of whom remain until now, but some ^ahave fallen asleep;

⁷ then He appeared to ^{1a}James, then to ^ball the apostles;

⁸ and last of all, as it were ¹to one untimely born, ^aHe appeared to me also.

⁹ For I am ^athe least of the apostles, who am not fit to be called an apostle, because I ^bpersecuted the church of God.

¹⁰ But by ^athe grace of God I am what I am, and His grace toward me did not prove vain; but I ^blabored even more than all of them, yet ^cnot I, but the grace of God with me.

¹¹ Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

¹² Now if Christ is preached, that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there ^ais no resurrection of the dead?

¹³ But if there is no resurrection of the dead, not even Christ has been raised;

¹⁴ and ^aif Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is vain, your faith also is vain.

¹⁵ Moreover we are even found to be false witnesses of God, because we witnessed ¹against God that He ^araised ²Christ, whom He did not raise, if in fact the dead are not raised.

¹⁶ For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised;

¹⁷ and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is worthless; ^ayou are still in your sins.

¹⁸ Then those also who ^ahave fallen asleep in Christ have perished.

¹⁹ If we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are ^aof all men most to be pitied.

²⁰ But now Christ ^ahas been raised from the dead, the ^bfirst fruits of those who ^care asleep.

²¹ For since ^aby a man came death, by a man also came the resurrection of the dead.

²² For ^aas in Adam all die, so also in ¹Christ all shall be made alive.

²³ But each in his own order: Christ ^athe first fruits, after that ^bthose who are Christ's at ^cHis coming, ²⁴ then comes the end, when He delivers up ^athe kingdom to the ^bGod and Father, when He has abolished ^call rule and all authority and power.

25 For He must reign ^auntil He has put all His enemies under His feet.

26 The last enemy that will be ^aabolished is death.

27 For ^aHE HAS PUT ALL THINGS IN SUBJECTION UNDER HIS FEET. But when He says, "^bAll things are put in subjection," it is evident that He is excepted who put all things in subjection to Him.

28 And when ^aall things are subjected to Him, then the Son Himself also will be subjected to the one who subjected all things to Him, that God may be all in all.

29 Otherwise, what will those do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead are not raised at all, why then are they baptized for them?

30 Why are we also ^ain danger every hour?

31 I protest, brethren, by the boasting in you, which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, ^aI die daily.

32 If ¹from human motives I ¹fought with wild beasts at ^bEphesus, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, ^cLET US EAT AND DRINK, FOR TOMORROW WE DIE.

33 ^aDo not be deceived: "Bad company corrupts good morals."

34 ^aBecome sober-minded ¹as you ought, and stop sinning; for some have ^bno knowledge of God. ^cI speak this to your shame.

35 But ^asome one will say, "How are ^bthe dead raised? And with what kind of body do they come?"

36 ^aYou fool! That which you ^bsow does not come to life unless it dies;

37 and that which you sow, you do not sow the body which is to be, but a bare grain, perhaps of wheat or of ¹something else.

38 But God gives it a body just as He wished, and ^ato each of the seeds a body of its own.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another flesh of birds, and another of fish.

40 There are also heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is one, and the glory of the earthly is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for star differs from star in glory.

42 ^aSo also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown ¹ba perishable body, it is raised ²can imperishable body;

43 it is sown in dishonor, it is raised in ^aglory; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power;

44 it is sown a ^anatural body, it is raised a ^bspiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.

45 So also it is written, "The first ^aMAN, Adam, BECAME A LIVING SOUL." The last Adam became a ^clife-giving spirit.

46 However, the spiritual is not first, but the natural; then the spiritual.

47 The first man is ^afrom the earth, ¹bearthy; the second man is from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, so also are those who are earthy; and as is the heavenly, ^aso also are those who are heavenly.

49 And just as we have ^aborne the image of the earthy, ¹we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

50 Now I say this, brethren, that ^aflesh and blood cannot ^binherit the kingdom of God; nor does ¹the perishable inherit ^{2c}the imperishable.

51 Behold, I tell you a ^amystery; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be ^bchanged, 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for ^athe trumpet will sound, and ^bthe dead will be raised ¹imperishable, and ^cwe shall be changed.

53 For this ¹perishable must put on ^{2a}the imperishable, and this ^bmortal must put on immortality.

54 But when this ¹perishable will have put on ¹the imperishable, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then will come about the saying that is written, "^aDEATH IS SWALLOWED UP IN VICTORY.

55 "^aO DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR VICTORY? O DEATH, WHERE IS YOUR STING?"

56 The sting of ^adeath is sin, and ^bthe power of sin is the law;

57 but ^athanks be to God, who gives us the ^bvictory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 ^aTherefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in ^bthe work of the Lord, knowing that your toil is not in vain in the Lord.

CHAPTER 16

NOW concerning ^athe collection for ^bthe saints, as ^cI directed the churches of ^aGalatia, so do you also.

2 On ^athe first day of every week let each one of you ¹put aside and save, as he may prosper, that ^bno collections be made when I come.

3 And when I arrive, ^awhomever you may approve, I shall send them with letters to carry your gift to Jerusalem;

4 and if it is fitting for me to go also, they will go with me.

5 But I ^ashall come to you after I go through ^bMacedonia, for I ^cam going through Macedonia;

6 and perhaps I shall stay with you, or even spend the winter, that you may ^asend me on my way wherever I may go.

7 For I do not wish to see you now ^ajust in passing; for I hope to remain with you for some time, ^bif the Lord permits.

8 But I shall remain in ^aEphesus until ^bPentecost;

9 for a ^awide door ¹for effective service has opened to me, and ^bthere are many adversaries.

10 Now if ^aTimothy comes, see that he is with you without ¹cause to be afraid; for he is doing ^bthe Lord's work, as I also am.

11 ^aLet no one therefore despise him. But ^bsend him on his way ^cin peace, so that he may come to me; for I expect him with the brethren.

12 But concerning ^aApollos our brother, I encouraged him greatly to come to you with the brethren; and it was not at all his desire to come now, but he will come when he has opportunity.

54-10

Salutation. The Divine Comfort &

PAUL, an apostle of bChrist Jesus cby the will of God, and dTimothy our brother, to e the church of God which is at fCorinth with all the 1saints who are throughout gAchaia:

2 aGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 aBlessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and bGod of all comfort;

4 who ccomforts us in all our affliction so that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction with the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted d by God.

5 For just aas the sufferings of Christ are 1ours in abundance, so also our ccomfort is abundant through Christ.

6 But if we are afflicted, it is afor your comfort and salvation; or if we are comforted, it is for your comfort; which is effective in the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer;

7 and our hope for you is firmly grounded, knowing that aas you are sharers of our sufferings, so also you are sharers of our comfort:

8 For a we do not want you to be unaware, brethren, of our baffliction which came to us in 1cAsia, that we were burdened excessively, beyond our strength, so that we despaired even of life; [LIVING]

9 ¹indeed, we had the sentence of death within ourselves in order that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead;

10 who ^adelivered us from so great a peril of death, and will deliver us, ¹He ^bon whom we have set our hope. And He will yet deliver us,

12 For our ¹proud confidence is this, the testimony of ^aour conscience that in holiness and ^bgodly sincerity, ^cnot in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God, we have conducted ourselves in the world, and especially toward you.

13 For we write nothing else to you than what you read and understand, and I hope you will understand ^auntil the end;

14 just as you also partially did understand us, that we are your reason to be proud as you also are ours, in ^athe day of our Lord Jesus.

15 And in this confidence I ^{intended} at first to ^acome to you, that you might ¹twice receive a ²blessing; sorrowful, but that you might know the love which I have especially for you.

⁵ But ^aif any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow not to me, but in some degree—¹in order not to say too much—to all of you.

⁶ Sufficient for such a one is ^athis punishment which was inflicted by the majority,

⁷ so that on the contrary you should rather ^aforgive and comfort him, lest somehow such a one be overwhelmed by excessive sorrow.

⁸ Wherefore I urge you to reaffirm your love for him.

⁹ For to this end also ^aI wrote that I might ^{1b}put you to the test, whether you are ^cobedient in all things.

¹⁰ But whom you forgive anything, I forgive also; for indeed what I have forgiven, if I have forgiven anything, I did it for your sakes ^ain the presence of Christ, ¹¹ in order that ^ano advantage be taken of us by ^aSatan; for ^bwe are not ignorant of his schemes.

¹² Now when I came to ^aTroas for the ^bgospel of Christ and when a door was opened for me in the Lord, ¹³ I ^ahad no rest for my spirit, not finding ^bTitus my brother; but ^ataking my leave of them, I went on to ^dMacedonia.

¹⁴ But thanks be to God, who always ^bleads us in His triumph in Christ, and manifests through us the ^csweet aroma of the ^dknowledge of Him in every place.

¹⁵ For we are a ^afragrance of Christ to God among ^bthose who are being saved and among those who are perishing;

¹⁶ ^ato the one an aroma from death to death, to the other an aroma from life to life. And who is ^badequate for these things?—None in his self.

¹⁷ For we are not like many, ^{1a}peddling the word of God, but ^{as} from sincerity, but as from God, we speak in Christ ^cin the sight of God.

CHAPTER 3

ARE we beginning to ^acommend ourselves again? Or do we need, as some, ^bletters of commendation to you or from you?

² ^aYou are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men;

³ being manifested that you are a letter of Christ, ^{1a}cared for by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of ^bthe living God, not on ^ctablets of stone, but on ^dtablets of ^{2c}human hearts.

⁴ And such ^aconfidence we have through Christ toward God.

⁵ Not that we are adequate in ourselves to consider anything as coming from ourselves, but ^aour adequacy is from God.

⁶ who also made us adequate as ^aservants of a ^bnew covenant, not of ^cthe letter, but of the Spirit; for the letter kills, but ^dthe Spirit gives life.

⁷ But if the ^aministry of death, ^bin letters engraved on stones, came ¹with glory, ^cso that the sons of Israel could not look intently at the face of Moses because of the glory of his face, fading as it was,

8 how shall the ministry of the Spirit fail to be even more with glory? not limited to the same

9 For if ^athe ministry of condemnation has glory, much more does the ^bministry of righteousness abound in glory!

10 For indeed what had glory, in this case has no glory on account of the glory that surpasses it. Christ & Moses.

11 For if that which fades away was ^awith glory, much more that which remains is ^bin glory!

12 ^aHaving therefore such a hope, ^bwe use great boldness in our speech, — independent claim of boldness

13 and ~~are~~ not as Moses, ^awho used to put a veil over his face that the sons of Israel might not look intently at the end of what was fading away.

14 But their minds were ^ahardened; for until this very day at the ^breading of ^cthe old covenant the same veil ¹remains unlifted, because it is removed in Christ. Moses' veil

15 But to this day whenever Moses is read, a veil lies over their heart;

16 ^aBUT WHENEVER A MAN TURNS TO THE LORD, THE VEIL IS TAKEN AWAY. — limited access to veil

17 Now the Lord is the Spirit; and where ^athe Spirit of the Lord is, ^bthere is liberty. — freedom, no more without fear

18 But we all, with unveiled face ^abeholding as in a mirror the ^bglory of the Lord, are being ^ctransformed into the same image from glory to glory, just as from ^dthe Lord, the Spirit.

CHAPTER 4

THEREFORE since we have this ^aministry, as we ^breceived mercy, we ^cdo not lose heart,

2 but we have renounced the ^athings hidden because of shame, not walking in craftiness or ^badulterating the word of God, but by the manifestation of truth ^ccommending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.

3 And even if our ^agospel is ^bveiled, it is veiled ¹to ^cthose who are perishing,

4 in whose case ^athe god of ^bthis ¹world has ^cblinded the minds of the unbelieving, ²that they might not see the ^dlight of the gospel of the ^eglory of Christ, who is the ^fimage of God.

5 For we ^ado not preach ourselves but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your bond-servants {for Jesus' sake.}

6 For God, who said, "Light shall shine out of darkness," is the One who has ^bshone in our hearts to give the ^clight of the knowledge of the glory of God in (the face of Christ). 2:14-15

7 But we have this {treasure} in ^aearthen vessels, that the surpassing greatness of ^bthe power may be of God and not from ourselves; — and is the dynamic that men

8 we are ^aafflicted in every way, but not ^bcrushed; {perplexed, but not despairing} not lost, but not lost and!

9 ^apersecuted, but not ^bforsaken; ^cstruck down, but not destroyed;

10 ^aalways carrying about in the body the dying of Jesus, that ^bthe life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body.

11 For we who live are constantly being delivered over to death for Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our mortal flesh.

12 So death works in us, but life in you. - Parade

13 But having the same ^aspirit of faith, according to what is written, "^bI BELIEVED, THEREFORE I SPOKE," we also believe, therefore also we speak;

14 knowing that He who ^araised the Lord Jesus ^bwill raise us also with Jesus and will ^cpresent us with you.

15 For all things are ^afor your sakes, that the grace which is ^bspreading to more and more people may cause the giving of thanks to abound to the glory of God.

16 Therefore we ^ado not lose heart, but though our outer man is decaying, yet our ^binner man is ^cbeing renewed day by day. For within of us, I

17 For ^amomentary, ^blight affliction is producing for us an ^ceternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison, for 18 while we ^alook not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

CHAPTER 5

FOR we know that if ¹the ^aearthly ^btent which is our house is torn down, we have a building from God, a house ^cnot made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For indeed in this house we ^agroan, longing to be clothed with our dwelling from heaven;

3 inasmuch as we, having put it on, shall not be found naked.

4 For indeed while we are in this tent, we ^agroan, being burdened, because we do not want to be unclothed, but to be clothed, in order that what is ^cmortal may be swallowed up by life.

5 Now He who prepared us for this very purpose is God, who ^agave to us the Spirit as a ^bpledge.

6 Therefore, being always of good courage, and knowing that ^awhile we are at home in the body we are absent from the Lord—

7 for ^awe walk by faith, ^bnot by ^csight—

8 we are of good courage, I say, and ^aprefer rather to be absent from the body and ^bto be at home with the Lord.

9 Therefore also we have as our ambition, whether at home or absent, to be ^apleasing to Him.

10 For we must all appear before ^athe judgment-seat of Christ, that each one may be recompensed for ^bhis deeds in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad.

11 Therefore knowing the ^afear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are made manifest to God; and I hope that we are ^bmade manifest also in your consciences.

12 We are not ^aagain commending ourselves to you but are giving you an ^boccasion to be proud of us, that you may have an answer for those who take pride in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For if we ¹are ^abeside ourselves, it is for God; if we are of sound mind, it is for you.

The Love of Christ Controls.
Reconciliation in All Experiences.

14 For the love of Christ ^acontrols us, having concluded this, that ^bone died for all, therefore all died;

15 and He died for all, that they who live should no longer ^alive for themselves, but for Him who died and rose again on their behalf.

16 Therefore from now on we recognize no man ^{1a}according to the flesh; even though we have known Christ ^{1a}according to the flesh, yet now we know Him thus no longer.

17 Therefore if any man is ^ain Christ, ^{1b}he is ^aa new creature; ^cthe old things passed away; behold, new things have come.

18 Now ^aall these things are from God, ^bwho reconciled us to Himself through Christ, and gave us the ^cministry of reconciliation, 19 namely, that ^aGod was in Christ ^{reconciling the world} to Himself, ^bnot counting their trespasses against them, and ^{1c}He has ²committed to us the word of reconciliation.

20 Therefore, we are ^aambassadors for Christ, ^bas though God were entreating through us; we beg you on behalf of Christ, ^{be reconciled to God}, ^{salvation}

21 He made Him who ^aknew no sin ^{to be} ^bsin on our behalf, that we might become the ^crighteousness of God in Him.

CHAPTER 6

AND ^aworking together with Him, ^bwe also urge you not to receive ^cthe grace of God in vain;—

2 for He says,

"AT THE ACCEPTABLE TIME I LISTENED TO YOU, AND ON THE DAY OF SALVATION I HELPED YOU";

behold, now is "THE ACCEPTABLE TIME," behold, now is "THE DAY OF SALVATION";—

3 ^agiving no cause for offense in anything, in order that the ministry be not discredited,

4 but in everything ^acommending ourselves as ^{1b}servants of God, ^cin much endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses,

5 in ^astripes, in ^aimprisonments, in ^btumults, in labors, in watchings, in ^cfastings,

6 in purity, in ^aknowledge, in ^bpatience, in kindness, in the ^cHoly Spirit, in ^dgenuine love,

7 in ^athe word of truth, in ^bthe power of God; by ^cthe weapons of righteousness for the right hand and the left,

8 by glory and ^adishonor, by ^bevil report and good report; regarded as ^cdeceivers and yet ^dtrue;

9 as unknown yet well-known, as ^adying yet behold, ^bwe live; as ^{1b}punished yet not put to death,

10 as ^asorrowful yet always ^arejoicing, as ^bpoor yet making many rich, as ^chaving nothing yet possessing ^dall things.

11 ^aOur mouth ^{1b}has spoken freely to you, O Corinthians, our ^bheart is opened wide.

12 You are not restrained ^{1b}by us, but ^ayou are restrained in your own ²affections.

13 Now in a like ^aexchange—I speak as to ^bchildren,—open wide to us also.

12 ²2 Cor. 7:8; 2:3, 9 ³1 Cor.
 5:1f.

14 ²Do not be ¹bound together with ^bunbelievers; for what ^cpartnership have righteousness and lawlessness, or what fellowship has light with darkness?

15 Or what ^aharmony has Christ with ¹Belial, or ²what has a ^bbeliever in common with an ^cunbeliever?

16 Or ^awhat agreement has the temple of God with idols? For we are ^bthe temple of ^cthe living God; just as God said,

“^dI WILL DWELL IN THEM AND ^fWALK AMONG THEM;

AND I WILL BE THEIR GOD, AND THEY SHALL BE MY PEOPLE.

17 “^aTherefore, ^bCOME OUT FROM THEIR MIDST AND BE SEPARATE, says the Lord.

AND DO NOT TOUCH WHAT IS UNCLEAN;

AND I WILL WELCOME YOU.

18 ^aAND I WILL BE A FATHER TO YOU.

AND YOU SHALL BE ^bSONS and daughters to ME, SAYS THE LORD ALMIGHTY.”

CHAPTER 7

THEFORE, having these promises, ^abeloved, ^blet us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 ^aMake room for us in your hearts; we wronged no one, we corrupted no one, we took advantage of no one.

3 I do not speak to condemn you; for I have said ^abefore that you are ^bin our hearts to die together and to live together.

4 Great is my ^aconfidence ¹in you, great is my ^bboasting on your behalf; I am filled with ^ccomfort. I am overflowing with ^djoy in all our affliction.

5 For even when we came into ^aMacedonia our flesh had no rest, but we were ^bafflicted on every side: ^cconflicts without, fears within.

6 But ^aGod, who comforts the ¹depressed, ^bcomforted us by the coming of ^cTitus;

7 and not only by his coming, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, as he reported to us your longing, your mourning, your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced even more.

8 For though I ^acaused you sorrow by my letter, I do not regret it; though I did regret it,—for I see that that letter caused you sorrow, though only for a while—

9 I now rejoice, not that you were made sorrowful, but that you were made sorrowful to the point of repentance; for you were made sorrowful according to the will of God, in order that you might not suffer loss in anything through us.

10 For the sorrow that is according to the will of God produces a ^arepentance ¹without regret, leading to salvation; but the sorrow of the world produces death.

11 For behold what earnestness this very thing, this ¹godly sorrow, has produced in you, what vindication of yourselves, what indignation, what fear, what ^alonging, what zeal, what ^bavenging of wrong! In everything you ^cdemonstrated yourselves to be innocent in the matter.

12 So although ^aI wrote to you it was not for the sake of ^bthe offender, nor for the sake of the one offended, but that

Liberty of the Macedonians.
Rich in Christ.

your earnestness on our behalf might be made known to you in the sight of God.

13 For this reason we have been ^acomforted.

And besides our comfort, we rejoiced even much more for the joy of ^bTitus, because his ^cspirit has been refreshed by you all.

14 For if in anything I have ^aboasted to him about you, I was not put to shame; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, so also our boasting before ^bTitus proved to be the truth.

15 And his ¹affection abounds all the more toward you, as he remembers the ^obedience of you all, how you received him with ^bfear and trembling.

16 I rejoice that in everything ^aI have confidence in you.

CHAPTER 8

NOW, brethren, we wish to make known to you the grace of God which has been ^agiven in the churches of ^bMacedonia,

2 that in a great ordeal of affliction their abundance of joy and their deep poverty overflowed in the ^awealth of their liberality.

3 For I testify that ^aaccording to their ability, and beyond their ability they gave of their own accord,

4 begging us with much entreaty for the ^afavor of participation in the ^{1b}support of the ²saints,

5 and this, not as we had ¹expected, but they first ^agave themselves to the Lord and to us by ^bthe will of God.

6 Consequently we ^aurged ^bTitus that as he had previously ^cmade a beginning, so he would also complete in you ^dthis gracious work as well.

7 But just as you ^aabound ^bin everything, in faith and utterance and knowledge and in all earnestness and in the ¹love we inspired in you, see that you ^aabound in this gracious work also.

8 I ^aam not speaking this as a command, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity of your love also.

9 For you know ^athe grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ^bthough He was rich, yet for your sake He became poor, that you through His poverty might become rich.

10 And I ^agive my opinion in this matter, for this is to your advantage, who were the first to begin ^aa year ago not only to do this, but also to desire to do it.

11 But now finish ¹doing it also; that just as there was the ^areadiness to desire it, so there may be also the completion of it by your ability.

12 For if the readiness is present, it is acceptable ^aaccording to what a man has, not according to what he does not have.

13 For this is not for the ease of others and for your affliction, but by way of equality—

14 at this present time your abundance being a supply for ^atheir want, that their abundance also may become a supply for ^ayour want, that there may be equality;

16 But ^athanks be to God, who ^bputs the same earnestness on your behalf in the heart of ^cTitus.

17 For he not only accepted our ^aappeal, but being himself very earnest, he has gone to you of his own accord.

18 And we have sent along with him ^athe brother whose fame in the things of the ^bgospel has spread through ^call the churches;

19 ^aand not only this, but he has also been ^bappointed by the churches to travel with us in ^cthis gracious work, which is being administered by us for the glory of the Lord Himself, and to show our ^dreadiness,

20 ¹taking precaution that no one should discredit us in our administration of this generous gift;

21 for we ^ahave regard for what is honorable, not only in ^bthe sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have often tested and found diligent in many things, but now even more diligent, because of his great confidence in you.

23 As for ^aTitus, he is my ^bpartner and fellow-worker ¹among you; as for our ^cbrethren, they are ²messengers of the churches, ^aa glory to Christ.

24 Therefore ¹openly before the churches ²show them the proof of your love and of our ^areason for boasting about you.

CHAPTER 9

FOR ^ait is superfluous for me to write to you about this ^bministry to the ¹saints;

2 for I know your readiness, of which I ^aboast about you to the ^bMacedonians, namely, that ^cAchaia has been prepared since ^dlast year, and your zeal has stirred up most of them.

3 But I have sent the brethren, that our ^aboasting about you may not be made empty in this case, that, ^bas I was saying, you may be prepared;

4 lest if any ^aMacedonians come with me and find you unprepared, we (not to speak of you) should be put to shame by this confidence.

5 So I thought it necessary to urge the ^abrethren that they would go on ahead to you and arrange beforehand your previously promised ^bbountiful gift, that the same might be ready as a ¹bountiful gift, and not ²affected by covetousness.

6 Now this I say, ^ahe who sows sparingly shall also reap sparingly; and he who sows ¹bountifully shall also reap ¹bountifully.

7 Let each one do just as he has purposed in his heart; not ^agrudgingly or under compulsion; for ^bGod loves a cheerful giver.

8 And ^aGod is able to make all grace abound to you, that always having all sufficiency in everything, you may have an abundance for every good deed;

9 as it is written,

"A HE SCATTERED ABROAD, HE GAVE TO THE POOR, HIS RIGHTEOUSNESS ABIDES FOREVER."

10 Now He who supplies ^aseed to the sower and bread for food, will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness;

11 you will be ^aenriched in everything for all liberality, which through us is producing ^bthanksgiving to God.

12 For the ministry of this service is not only fully supplying ^athe needs of the ¹saints, but is also overflowing ^bthrough many thanksgivings to God.

13 Because of the proof given by this ^aministry they will glorify God for your obedience to your ^aconfession of the ^dgospel of Christ, and for the liberality of your ¹contribution to them and to all,

14 while they also, by prayer on your behalf, yearn for you because of the surpassing grace of God in you.

15 ^aThanks be to God for His indescribable ^bgift!

CHAPTER 10

NOW ^aI Paul myself ^burge you by the ^cmeekness and gentleness of Christ,—I who ^dam ¹meek when face to face with you, but bold toward you when absent!—

2 I ask that ^awhen I am present I may not be bold with the confidence with which I propose to be courageous against ^bsome, who regard us as if we walked ^caccording to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war ^aaccording to the flesh,

4 for the ^aweapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but ¹divinely powerful ^cfor the destruction of fortresses.

5 We are destroying speculations and every ^alofty thing raised up against the knowledge of God, and we are taking every thought captive to the ^bobedience of Christ,

6 and we are ready to punish all disobedience, whenever ^ayour obedience is complete.

7 ^{1a}You are looking at ²things as they are outwardly. ^bIf any one is confident in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again within himself, that just as he is Christ's, ^cso also are we.

8 For even if ^aI should boast somewhat ¹further about our ^bauthority, which the Lord gave for building you up and not for destroying you, I shall not be put to shame,

9 ¹for I do not wish to seem as if I would terrify you by my letters.

10 For they say, "His letters are weighty and strong, but his ¹personal presence is ^aunimpressive, and ^bhis speech contemptible."

11 Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when absent, such persons we are also in deed when present.

12 For we are not bold to class or compare ourselves with ¹some of those who ^acommend themselves; but when they measure themselves by themselves, and compare themselves with themselves, they are without understanding.

13 But we will not boast ^abeyond our measure, but ^{1b}within the measure of the sphere which God apportioned to us as a measure, to reach even as far as you.

14 For we are not overextending ourselves, as if we did not reach to you, for ^awe were the first to come even as far as you in the ^bgospel of Christ;

 15 not boasting ^abeyond our measure, that is, in ^bother men's labors, but with the hope that as ^cyour faith grows, we shall be, ¹within our sphere, ^denlarged even more by you,
 16 so as to ^apreach the gospel even to ^bthe regions beyond you, and not to boast ^{1c}in what has been accomplished in the sphere of another.
 17 But ^aHE WHO BOASTS, LET HIM BOAST IN THE LORD.
 18 For not he who ^acommends himself is approved, but ^bwhom the Lord commends.

CHAPTER 11

I WISH that you would ^abear with me in a little ^bfoolishness; but ¹indeed you are bearing with me.
 2 For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy; for I ^abetrothed you to one husband, that to Christ I might ^bpresent you ^aas a pure virgin.
 3 But I am afraid, lest as the ^aserpent deceived Eve by his craftiness, your minds should be ^{led} astray from the simplicity and purity ^{of devotion} to Christ.
 4 For if one comes and preaches ^aanother Jesus whom we have not preached, or you receive ^aa ^bdifferent spirit which you have not received, or a ^cdifferent gospel which you have not accepted, you ^dbear ^{this} ^ebeautifully.
 5 For I consider myself ^anot in the least inferior to the ¹most eminent apostles.
 6 But even if I am ^aunskilled in speech, yet I am not so in ^bknowledge; in fact, in every way we have ^cmade ^{this} evident to you in all things.
 7 Or ^adid I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached the ^bgospel of God to you ^cwithout charge?
 8 I robbed other churches, ^ataking wages ^{from them} to serve you;
 9 and when I was present with you and was in need, I was ^anot a burden to anyone; for when ^bthe brethren came from ^cMacedonia, they fully supplied my need, and in everything I kept myself from ^abeing a burden to you, ¹and will continue to do so.
 10 ^aAs the truth of Christ is in me, ^bthis boasting of mine will not be stopped in the regions of ^cAchaia.
 11 Why? ^aBecause I do not love you? ^bGod knows I do!
 12 But what I am doing, I will continue to do, ^athat I may cut off opportunity from those who desire an opportunity to be ¹regarded just as we are in the matter about which they are boasting.
 13 For such men are ^afalse apostles, ^bdeceitful workers, ^{disguising} themselves as apostles of Christ.
 14 And no wonder, for even ^aSatan ^{disguises} himself as an ^bangel of light.
 15 Therefore it is not surprising if his servants also disguise themselves as servants of righteousness; ^awhose end shall be according to their deeds.

16 ^aAgain I say, let no one think me foolish; but if you do, receive me even as foolish, that I also may boast a little.

17 That which I am speaking, I am not speaking ^{1a}as the Lord would, but as ^bin foolishness, in this confidence of boasting.

18 Since ^amany boast ^baccording to the flesh, I will boast also.

19 For you, ^abeing so wise, bear with the foolish gladly.

20 For you bear with anyone if he ^aenslaves you, if he ^bdevours you, if he ^ctakes advantage of you, if he ^dexalts himself, if he ^ehits you in the face.

21 To my ^ashame I must say that we have been ^bweak by comparison. But in whatever respect anyone else ^cis bold (I ^dspeak in foolishness), I am just as bold myself.

22 Are they ^aHebrews? ^bSo am I. Are they ^cIsraelites? ^eSo am I. Are they ^{1d}descendants of Abraham? ^eSo am I.

23 Are they ^aservants of Christ? (I speak as if insane) I more so; in ^{1b}far more labors, in ^{1c}far more imprisonments, ^{2d}beaten times without number, often in ^cdanger of death.

24 Five times I received from the Jews ^athirty-nine lashes.

25 Three times I was ^abeaten with rods, once I was ^bstoned, three times I was shipwrecked, a night and a day I have spent in the deep.

26 I have been on frequent journeys, in dangers on rivers, dangers from robbers, dangers from my ^acountrymen, dangers from the ^bGentiles, dangers in the ^ccity, dangers in the wilderness, dangers on the sea, dangers among ^dfalse brethren;

27 I have been in ^alabor and hardship, ¹through many sleepless nights, in ^bhunger and thirst, often ^cwithout food, in cold and ^{2d}exposure.

28 Apart from such ¹external things, there is the daily pressure upon me of concern for ^aall the churches.

29 Who is ^aweak without my being weak? Who is ¹led into sin ²without my intense concern?

30 If I have to boast, I will boast of what pertains to my ^aweakness.

31 The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, ^aHe who is blessed forever, ^bknows that I am not lying.

32 In ^aDamascus the ethnarch under Aretas the king was ^bguarding the city of the Damascenes in order to seize me,

CHAPTER 12

^aBOASTING is necessary, though it is not profitable; but I will go on to visions and ^brevelations ¹of the Lord.

2 I know a man ^ain Christ who fourteen years ago—whether in the body I do not know, or out of the body I do not know, ^bGod knows—such a man was ^ccaught up to the ^dthird heaven.

3 And I know how such a man—whether in the body or apart from the body I do not know, ^aGod knows—

4 was ^acaught up into ^bParadise, and heard inexpressible words, which a man is not permitted to speak.

5^a On behalf of such a man will I boast; but on my own behalf I will not boast, except in regard to my^b weaknesses.

6 For if I do wish to boast I shall not be^a foolish, ^bfor I shall be speaking the truth; but I refrain from this, so that no one may credit me with more than he sees in me or hears from me.

7 And because of the surpassing greatness of the^a revelations, for this reason, to keep me from exalting myself, there was given me a^b thorn in the flesh, a^c messenger of Satan to buffet me—to keep me from exalting myself!

8 Concerning this I entreated the Lord^a three times that it might depart from me.

9 And He has said to me, "My^a grace is sufficient for you, for^{1a} power is perfected in weakness." Most gladly, therefore, I will rather^b boast about my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

10 Therefore^a I am well content with weaknesses, with¹ insults, with^b distresses, with^c persecutions, with^d difficulties, ^dfor Christ's sake; for^e when I am weak, then I am strong, 11 I have become^a foolish; you yourselves compelled me. Actually I should have been commended by you, for^b in no respect was I inferior to the¹ most eminent apostles, even though^c I am a nobody.

12 The^{1a} signs² of a true apostle were performed among you with all perseverance, by¹ signs and wonders and³ miracles.

13 For in what respect were you treated as inferior to the rest of the churches, except that^a I myself did not become a burden to you? Forgive me^b this wrong!

14 Here^a for this third time I am ready to come to you, and I^b will not be a burden to you; for I^c do not seek what is yours, but^d you; for^e children are not responsible to save up for their parents, but^f parents for their children.

15 And I will^a most gladly spend and be expended for your souls. If^b I love you the more, am I to be loved the less?

16 But be that as it may, I^a did not burden you myself; nevertheless, crafty fellow that I am, I^b took you in by deceit.

17^a Certainly I have not taken advantage of you through any of those whom I have sent to you, have I?

18 I^a urged^b Titus to go, and sent^c the brother with him. Titus did not take any advantage of you, did he? Did we not¹ conduct ourselves² in the same^d spirit and walk^e in the same steps?

19 All this time¹ you have been thinking that we are defending ourselves to you. Actually, ^ait is in the sight of God that we have been speaking in Christ; and^b all for your upbuilding, ^cbeloved.

20 For I am afraid that perhaps^a when I come I may find you to be not what I wish and may be found by you to be not what you wish; that perhaps there may be^b strife, jealousy, ^cangry tempers, ^ddisputes, ^eslanders, ^fgossip, ^garrogance, ^hdisturbances;

21 I am afraid that when I come again my God may humiliate me before you, and I may mourn over many of those who have^a sinned in the past and not repented of the^b impurity, ¹immorality and sensuality which they have practiced.

CHAPTER 13

^aTHIS is the third time I am coming to you. ^bEVERY ¹FACT ²IS TO BE CONFIRMED BY THE ³TESTIMONY OF TWO OR THREE WITNESSES.

² I have previously said when present the second time, and though now absent I say in advance to those who have ^asinned in the past and to all the rest as well, that ^bif I come again, I will not ^cspare anyone,—

³ since you are ^aseeking for proof of the ^bChrist who speaks in me, and who is not weak toward you, but ^cmighty in you.

⁴ For indeed He was ^acrucified because of weakness, yet He lives ^bbecause of the power of God. For we also are ^cweak ¹in Him, yet ^dwe shall live with Him because of the power of God directed toward you.

⁵ ^aTest yourselves to see if you are in the faith; ^bexamine yourselves! Or do you not recognize this about yourselves, that Jesus Christ is in you—unless indeed you ¹fail the test?

⁶ But I trust that you will realize that we ourselves ¹do not fail the test.

⁷ Now we pray to God that you do no wrong; not that we ourselves may appear approved, but that you may do what is right, even though we should ¹appear unapproved.

⁸ For we can do nothing against the truth, but only for the truth.

⁹ For we rejoice when we ourselves are ^aweak but you are strong; this we also pray for, ¹that you be ^bmade complete.

¹⁰ For this reason I am writing these things while absent, in order that when present ^aI may not use ^bseverity in accordance with the ^cauthority which the Lord gave me for building up and not for tearing down.

¹¹ ^aFinally, brethren, ¹rejoice, ²^bbe made complete, be comforted, ^cbe like-minded, ^dlive in peace; and ^ethe God of love and peace shall be with you.

¹² ^aGreet one another with a holy kiss.

¹³ ^aAll the ¹saints greet you.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE GALATIANS ANAL. 1911

Salutation. The Galatians' Falling Away.
The Gospel I Preach Came from Christ.
Visit to Jerusalem.

PAUL, ^aan apostle (^bnot sent from men, nor through the agency of man, but ^cthrough Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who ^draised Him from the dead),

2 and all ^athe brethren who are with me, to ^bthe churches of Galatia:

3 ^aGrace to you and peace from ¹God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ,

4 who ^agave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us out of ^bthis present evil ¹age, according to the will of ^cour God and Father,

5 ^ato whom be the glory forevermore. Amen.

6 I am amazed that you are ^aso quickly deserting ^bHim who called you ¹by the grace of Christ, for a ^cdifferent gospel;

7 which is really not another; only there are some who are ^adisturbing you, and want to distort the gospel of Christ.

8 But even though we, or ^aan angel from heaven, should preach to you a gospel ¹contrary to that which we have preached to you, let him be ^{2b}accursed.

9 As we ^ahave said before, so I say again now, ^bif any man is preaching to you a gospel ¹contrary to that which you received, let him be ^{2c}accursed.

10 For am I now ^aseeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a ^bbond-servant of Christ.

11 For ^aI would have you know, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is ^bnot according to man.

12 For ^aI neither received it from man, nor was I taught it, but I received it through a ^brevelation of Jesus Christ.

13 For you have heard of ^amy former manner of life in Judaism, how I ^bused to persecute ^cthe church of God beyond measure, and ^dtried to destroy it;

14 and I ^awas advancing in Judaism beyond many of my contemporaries among my ¹countrymen, being more extremely zealous for my ^bancestral traditions.

15 But when He who had set me apart, even from my mother's womb, and ^acalled me through His grace, was ^bpleased

16 to reveal His Son in me, that I might ^apreach Him among the Gentiles, ^bI did not immediately consult with ^{1c}flesh and blood, 17 ^anor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went away to Arabia, and returned once more to ^bDamascus.

18 Then ^athree years later I went up ^bto Jerusalem to ¹become acquainted with ^cCephas, and stayed with him fifteen days.

^{1a}James the Lord's brother.
20 (Now in what I am writing to you, ¹I assure you ^abefore God that I am not lying.)
21 Then ^aI went into the regions of ^bSyria and ^cCilicia.
22 And I was still unknown by ¹sight to ^athe churches of Judea which were ^bin Christ;
23 but only, they kept hearing, "He who once persecuted us is now preaching ^athe faith which he once ^btried to destroy."
24 And they ^awere glorifying God ^bbecause of me.

CHAPTER 2

THEN after an interval of fourteen years I ^awent up again to Jerusalem with ^bBarnabas, taking ^cTitus along also.
2 And ¹it was because of a ^arevelation that I went up; and I submitted to them the ^bgospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but I did so in private to those who were of reputation, for fear that I might be ^crunning, or had run, in vain.
3 But not even ^aTitus who was with me, though he was a Greek, was ^bcompelled to be circumcised.
4 But it was because of the ^afalse brethren who ^bhad sneaked in to spy out our ¹liberty which we have in Christ
Jesus, in order to ^dbring us into bondage.
5 But we did not yield in subjection to them for even an hour, so that ^athe truth of the gospel might remain with you.
6 But from those who ¹were of high ^areputation (what they were makes no difference to me; ^bGod ²shows no partiality)—well, those who were of reputation contributed nothing to me.
7 But on the contrary, seeing that I had been ^aentrusted with the ^bgospel ¹to the uncircumcised, just as ^cPeter with the gospel ²to the circumcised
8 (for He who effectually worked for Peter in his ^aapostleship ¹to the circumcised effectually worked for me also to the Gentiles),
9 and recognizing ^athe grace that had been given to me, ^{1b}James and ^cCephas and John, who were ^dreputed to be ^cpillars, gave to me and ^fBarnabas the ^eright ²hand of fellowship, that we might ^bgo to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcised.
10 They only asked us to remember the poor—^athe very thing I also was eager to do.
11 But when ^aCephas came to ^bAntioch, I opposed him to his face, because he ¹stood condemned.
12 For prior to the coming of certain men from ^{1a}James, he used to ^beat with the Gentiles; but when they came, he began to withdraw and hold himself aloof, ^cfearing the ²party of the circumcision.
13 And the rest of the Jews joined him in hypocrisy, with the result that even ^aBarnabas was carried away by their hypocrisy.
14 But when I saw that they ^awere not ¹straightforward about ^bthe truth of the gospel, I said to ^cCephas in the presence of all, "If you, being a Jew, ^dlive like the Gentiles and not like the Jews, how is it that you compel the Gentiles to live like Jews?"

15 "We are ^aJews by nature, and not ^bsinners from among the Gentiles;

16 nevertheless knowing that ^aa man is not justified by the works of ¹the Law but through faith in Christ Jesus, even we have believed in Christ Jesus, that we may be justified by ^bfaith in Christ, and not by the works of ¹the Law; since ^cby the works of ¹the Law shall no ²flesh be justified.

17 "But if, while seeking to be justified in Christ, we ourselves have also been found ^asinners, is Christ then a minister of sin? ^bMay it never be!

18 "For if I rebuild what I have once destroyed, I ^aprove myself to be a transgressor.

19 "For through ¹the Law I ^adied to ¹the Law, that I might live to God.

20 "I have been ^acrucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but ^bChrist lives in me; and ¹the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in ^cthe Son of God, who ^dloved me, and ^edelivered Himself up for me.

21 "I do not nullify the grace of God; for ^aif righteousness comes through ¹the Law, then Christ died needlessly."

CHAPTER 3

YOU foolish ^aGalatians, who has bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ ^bwas publicly portrayed as crucified?

2 This is the only thing I want to find out from you: Did you receive the Spirit by the works of ¹the Law, or by ^{2a}hearing with faith?

3 Are you so foolish? Having begun ¹by the Spirit, are you now ²being perfected by the flesh?

4 Did you suffer so many things in vain—^aif indeed it was in vain?

5 Does He then who ^aprovides you with the Spirit and ^bworks ¹miracles among you, do it by the works of ²the Law, or by ³hearing with faith?

6 ¹Even so ^aAbraham ^bBELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS RECKONED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS.

7 Therefore, ¹be sure that ^ait is those who are of faith that are ^bsons of Abraham.

8 And the Scripture, foreseeing that God ¹would justify the ²Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, "^aALL THE NATIONS SHALL BE BLESSED IN YOU."

9 So then ^athose who are of faith are blessed with ¹Abraham, the believer.

10 For as many as are of the works of ¹the Law are under a curse; for it is written, "^aCURSED IS EVERY ONE WHO DOES NOT ABIDE BY ALL THINGS WRITTEN IN THE BOOK OF THE LAW, TO PERFORM THEM."

11 Now that ^ano one is justified ¹by ²the Law before God is evident; for, "^bTHE RIGHTEOUS MAN SHALL LIVE BY FAITH."

12 ¹However, the Law is not ²of faith; on the contrary, "^aHE WHO PRACTICES THEM SHALL LIVE ³BY THEM."

13 Christ ^aredeemed us from the curse of the Law, having become a curse for us—for it is written, "^bCURSED IS EVERY ONE WHO HANGS ON ^aA TREE"—

14 in order that ^ain Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might ¹come to the Gentiles, so that we ^bmight receive ^cthe promise of the Spirit through faith.

15 ^aBrethren, ^bI speak ¹in terms of human relations: ^ceven though it is only a man's ²covenant, yet when it has been ratified, no one sets it aside or adds ³conditions to it.

16 Now the promises were spoken ^ato Abraham and to his seed. He does not say, "^bAND TO SEEDS," as referring to many, but rather to one, "^cAND TO YOUR SEED," that is, Christ.

17 What I am saying is this: the Law, which came ^afour hundred and thirty years later, does not invalidate a covenant previously ratified by God, so as to nullify the promise.

18 For ^aif the inheritance is ¹based on law, it is no longer ¹based on a promise; but ^bGod has granted it to Abraham by means of a promise.

19 ^aWhy the Law then? It was added ¹because of transgressions, having been ^bordained through angels ^cby the ^dagency of a mediator, until ^ethe seed should come to whom the promise had been made.

20 Now ^aa mediator is not ¹for one party only; whereas God is only one.

21 Is the Law then contrary to the promises of God? ^aMay it never be! For ^bif a law had been given which was able to impart life, then righteousness ¹would indeed have been ²based on law.

22 But the Scripture has ^ashut up all ^bmen under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.

23 But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, ^abeing shut up to the faith which was later to be revealed.

24 Therefore the Law has become our ¹tutor to lead us to Christ, that ^bwe may be justified by faith.

25 But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a ¹tutor.

26 For you are all ^asons of God through faith in ^bChrist Jesus.

27 For all of you who were ^abaptized into Christ have ^bclothed yourselves with Christ.

28 ^aThere is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is ¹neither male nor female; for ^byou are all one in ^cChrist Jesus.

29 And if ^ayou ¹belong to Christ, then you are Abraham's ²offspring, heirs according to ^bpromise.

CHAPTER 4

NOW I say, as long as the heir is a ¹child, he does not differ at all from a slave although he is ²owner of everything,

2 but he is under guardians and ¹managers until the date set by the father.

3 So also we, while we were children, were held ^ain bondage under the ^belemental things of the world.

4 But when ^athe fullness of the time came, God sent forth His Son, ^bborn of a woman, born ^cunder ¹the Law,

5 in order that He might redeem those who were under ¹the Law, that we might receive the adoption as ^asons.

6 And because you are sons, ^aGod has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying, "bAbba! Father!"

7 Therefore you are no longer a slave, but a son; and ^aif a son, then an heir ¹through God.

8 However at that time, ^awhen you did not know God, you were ^bslaves to ^cthose which by nature are no gods.

9 But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be ^aknown by God, ^bhow is it that you turn back again to the weak and worthless ¹elemental things, to which you desire to be enslaved all over again?

10 You ^aobserve days and months and seasons and years.

11 I fear for you, that perhaps I have labored ¹over you in vain.

12 I beg of you, ^abrethren, ^bbecome as I am, for I also have become as you are. You have done me no wrong;

13 but you know that it was because of a ¹bodily illness that I preached the gospel to you the ²first time;

14 and that which was a ¹trial to you in my ²bodily condition you did not despise or ³loathe, but ^ayou received me as an angel of God, as ^bChrist Jesus Himself.

15 Where then is ¹that sense of blessing you had? For I bear you witness, that if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me.

16 Have I therefore become your enemy ^aby ¹telling you the truth?

17 They eagerly seek you, not commendably, but they wish to shut you out, in order that you may seek them.

18 But it is good always to be eagerly sought in a commendable manner, and ^anot only when I am present with you.

19 ^aMy children, with whom ^bI am again in labor until ^cChrist is formed in you —

20 but I could wish to be present with you now and to change my tone, for ^aI am perplexed about you.

21 Tell me, you who want to be under law, do you not ^alisten to the law?

22 For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the bondwoman and one by the free woman.

23 But ^athe son by the bondwoman was born according to the flesh, and ^bthe son by the free woman through the promise.

24 ^{1a}This contains an allegory; for these women are two covenants, one proceeding from ^bMount Sinai bearing children ²who are to be ^cslaves; ³she is Hagar.

25 Now this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to the present Jerusalem, for she is in slavery with her children.

26 But ^athe Jerusalem above is free; ¹she is our mother.

27 For it is written,

“^aREJOICE, BARREN WOMAN WHO DOES NOT BEAR;

BREAK FORTH AND SHOUT, YOU WHO ARE NOT IN LABOR;

FOR MORE ARE THE CHILDREN OF THE DESOLATE

THAN OF THE ONE WHO HAS A HUSBAND.”

28 And you brethren, ^alike Isaac, are ^bchildren of promise.

29 But as at that time ^ahe who was born according to the flesh ^bpersecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, ^cso it is now also.

Serve One Another.
Exhortation to Helpfulness.

30 But what does the Scripture say?
"CAST OUT THE BONDWOMAN AND HER SON,
FOR THE SON OF THE BONDWOMAN SHALL NOT BE AN HEIR WITH THE SON OF THE FREE WOMAN."

31 So then, brethren, we are not children of a bondwoman, but of the free woman.

1a

CHAPTER 5

IT was for freedom that Christ set us free; therefore keep standing firm and do not be subject again to a yoke of slavery.)

2 Behold I, Paul, say to you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will be of no benefit to you.

3 And I testify again to every man who receives circumcision, that he is under obligation to keep the whole Law.

4 You have been severed from Christ, you who are seeking to be justified by law; you have fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit, by faith, are waiting for the hope of righteousness.

6 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything, but faith working through love.

7 You were running well; who hindered you from obeying the truth?

8 This persuasion did not come from Him who calls
you.

9 A little leaven leavens the whole lump of dough.

10 I have confidence in you in the Lord, that you will adopt no other view; but the one who is disturbing you shall bear his judgment, whoever he is.

11 But I, brethren, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling-block of the cross has been abolished.

12 Would that those who are troubling you would even mutilate themselves.

13 For you were called to freedom, brethren; only do not turn your freedom into an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another.

14 For the whole Law is fulfilled in one word, in the statement, "YOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF."

15 But if you bite and devour one another, take care lest you be consumed by one another.

16 But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you will not carry out the desire of the flesh.

17 For the flesh sets its desire against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are in opposition to one another, so that you may not do the things that you please.

18 But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the Law.

19 Now the deeds of the flesh are evident, which are:
immorality, impurity, sensuality,

20 idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, disputes, dissensions, factions,

21 envyings, drunkenness, carousings, and things like these, of which I forewarn you just as I have forewarned you that those who practice such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.

25 If we live by the Spirit, let us also ¹walk ^aby the Spirit.

26 Let us not become ^aboastful, challenging one another, envying one another.

BRETHREN, even if a man is caught in any trespass, you who are ^bspiritual, ^crestore such a one ^din a spirit of gentleness; looking to yourself, lest you too be tempted.

2 ^aBear one another's burdens, and thus fulfil ^bthe law of Christ.

3 For ^aif anyone thinks he is something when he is nothing, he deceives himself.

4 But let each one ^aexamine his own work, and then he will have reason for ^bboasting in regard to himself alone, and not in regard to another.

5 For ^aeach one shall bear his own load.

6 And ^alet the one who is taught ^bthe word share all good things with him who teaches.

7 ^aDo not be deceived, ^bGod is not mocked; for ^cwhatever a man sows, this he will also reap.

8 ^aFor the one who sows to his own flesh shall from the flesh reap ^bcorruption, but ^cthe one who sows to the Spirit shall from the Spirit reap eternal life.

9 And ^alet us not lose heart in doing good, for in due time we shall reap if we ^bdo not grow weary.

10 So then, ^{1a}while we have opportunity, let us do good to all men, and especially to those who are of the ^bhousehold of ^cthe faith.

11 See with what large letters I ^{1a}am writing to you ^awith my own hand.

12 Those who desire ^ato make a good showing in the flesh try to ^bcompel you to be circumcised, simply that they ^cmay not be persecuted ¹for the cross of Christ.

13 For those who ^{1a}are circumcised do not even ^akeep ²the Law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may ^bboast in your flesh.

14 But ^amay it never be that I should boast, ^bexcept in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, ^cthrough ¹which the world has been crucified to me, and ^{d1}to the world.

15 For ^aneither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a ^bnew ¹creation.

16 And those who will ^{1a}walk by this rule, peace and mercy ^bbe upon them, and upon the ¹Israel of God.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE EPHESIANS A.D. 61-63

Salutation. The Blessings of Redemption.
Prayer.

PAUL, ^aan apostle of ^bChrist Jesus ^{1c}by the will of God, to the ^{2d}saints who are ^{3at} ^eEphesus, and ^fwho are faithful in ^bChrist Jesus:

2 ^aGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ^aBlessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in ^bthe heavenly places in Christ,

4 just as ^aHe chose us in Him before ^bthe foundation of the world, that we should be ^choly and blameless before ¹Him. ^dIn love

5 ¹He ^apredestined us to ^badoption as sons through Jesus Christ to Himself, ^caccording to the ²kind intention of His will,

6 ^ato the praise of the glory of His grace, which He freely bestowed on us in ^bthe Beloved.

7 ^aIn ¹Him we have ^bredemption ^cthrough His blood, the ^dforgiveness of our trespasses, according to ^ethe riches of His grace,

8 which He ¹lavished upon ²us. In all wisdom and insight

9 He ^{1a}made known to us ^{the} mystery of His will, ^baccording to His ²kind intention which He ^cpurposed in Him

10 with a view to an administration ¹suitable to ^{the} fullness of the times, ^{that is,} ^bthe summing up of all things in Christ, things ²in the heavens and things upon the earth. In Him

11 ¹also we ^{2a}have obtained an inheritance, having been ^bpredestined ^caccording to His purpose who works all things ^dafter the counsel of His will,

12 to the end that we who were the first to hope in ¹Christ should be ^ato the praise of His glory.

13 In ¹Him, you also, after listening to ^athe message of truth, the gospel of your salvation—having also ²believed, you were ^bsealed in ¹Him with ^cthe Holy Spirit of promise, 14 who is ^{1a}given as a pledge of ^bour inheritance, with a view to the ^credemption of ^dGod's own possession, ^eto the praise of His glory.

15 For this reason I too, ^ahaving heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which ^{exists} among you, and ¹your love for ^ball the ²saints, toward us who believe. ^aThese are in accordance with the working of the ^bstrength of His might ²⁰ which He brought about in Christ, when He ^araised Him from the dead, and ^bseated Him at His right hand in ^cthe heavenly ^{places}, ²¹ far above ^aall rule and authority and power and dominion, and every ^bname that is named, not only in ^cthis age, but also in the one to come.

²² And He ^aput all things in subjection under His feet, and gave Him as ^bhead over all things to the church, ²³ which is His ^abody, the ^bfulness of Him who ^cfills ^dall in all.

CHAPTER 2

AND you ¹were ^adead ²in your trespasses and sins,

² in which you ^aformerly walked according to the ¹course of ^bthis world, according to ^cthe prince of the power of the air, of the spirit that is now working in ^dthe sons of disobedience.

³ Among them we too ^aformerly lived in ^bthe lusts of our flesh, ¹indulging the desires of the flesh and of the ²mind, and were ^cby nature ^dchildren of wrath, ^eeven as the rest.

⁴ But God, being ^arich in mercy, because of ^bHis great love with which He loved us,

⁵ even when we were ^adead ¹in our transgressions, ²made us alive together ³with Christ (^bby grace you have been saved),

⁶ and ^araised us up with Him, and ^bseated us with Him in ^cthe heavenly ^{places}, in ^dChrist Jesus,

⁷ in order that in the ages to come He might show the surpassing ^ariches of His grace in ^bkindness toward us in Christ Jesus.

⁸ For ^aby grace you have been saved ^bthrough faith; and ¹that ²not of yourselves, ³it is ^cthe gift of God;

⁹ ^anot as a result of works, that ^bno one should boast.

¹⁰ For we are His workmanship, ^acreated in ^bChrist Jesus for ^cgood works, which God ^dprepared beforehand, that we should ^ewalk in them.

¹¹ Therefore remember, that ^aformerly ^byou, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called ^c“Uncircumcision” by the so-called ^d“Circumcision,” ¹which is performed in the flesh by human hands—

¹² ^aremember that you were at that time separate from Christ, ¹excluded from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to ^bthe covenants of promise, having ^cno hope and ^dwithout God in the world.

¹³ But now in ^aChrist Jesus you who ^bformerly were ^cfar off ¹have been brought near ²by the blood of Christ.

¹⁴ For He Himself is ^aour peace, ^bwho made both ^{groups} ¹into one, and broke down the ²barrier of the dividing wall,

¹⁵ ¹by ^aabolishing in His flesh the enmity, ²which is ^bthe Law of commandments ³contained in ordinances, that in Himself He might ⁴make the two into ^done new man, ¹thus establishing ^cpeace, ¹⁶ and might ^areconcile them both in ^bone body to God through the cross, ¹by it having ^cput to death the enmity.

17 AND ^aHE CAME AND PREACHED ^bPEACE TO YOU WHO WERE ^cFAR AWAY, AND PEACE TO THOSE WHO WERE ^cNEAR;

18 for through Him we both have ^aour access in ^bone Spirit to ^cthe Father.

19 So then you are no longer ^astrangers and aliens, but you are ^bfellow-citizens with the ¹saints, and are of ^cGod's household,

20 having been ^abuilt upon ^bthe foundation of ^cthe apostles and prophets, ^dChrist Jesus Himself being the ^ecornerstone,

21 ^ain whom the whole building, being fitted together is growing into ^ba holy ¹temple in the Lord;

22 in whom you also are being ^abuilt together into a ^bdwelling of God in the Spirit.

CHAPTER 3

FOR this reason I Paul, ^athe prisoner of ^bChrist Jesus ^cfor the sake of you ^dGentiles—

2 if indeed you have heard of the ^astewardship of God's grace which was given to me for you;

3 ^athat ^bby revelation there was ^cmade known to me ^dthe mystery, ^eas I wrote before in brief.

4 ¹And by referring to this, when you read you can understand ^amy insight ²into the ^bmystery of Christ;

5 which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed to His holy ^aapostles and prophets ¹in the Spirit;

6 ^ato be specific, that the Gentiles are ^afellow-heirs and ^bfellow-members of the body, and ^cfellow-partakers of the promise in ^dChrist Jesus through the gospel,

7 ^aof which I was made a ^bminister, according to the gift of ^cGod's grace which was given to me ^daccording to the working of His power.

8 To me, ^athe very least of all ¹saints, this grace was given, to ^bpreach to the Gentiles the unfathomable ^criches of Christ,

9 and to bring to light what is the administration of the ^amystery which for ages has been ^bhidden in God, ^cwho created all things;

10 in order that the manifold ^awisdom of God might now be ^bmade known through the church to the ^crulers and the authorities in ^dthe heavenly ^eplaces.

11 This was in ^aaccordance with the ¹eternal purpose which He ²carried out in ^bChrist Jesus our Lord, 12 in whom we have ^aboldness and ¹confident ^aaccess through faith ²in Him.

13 Therefore I ask ¹you not ^ato lose heart at my tribulations ^bon your behalf, ²for they are your glory.

14 For this reason, I ^abow my knees before the Father,

15 from whom ¹every family in heaven and on earth derives its name,

16 that He would grant you, according to ^athe riches of His glory, to be ^bstrengthened with power through His Spirit in ^cthe inner man; and that you, being ^brooted and ^cgrounded in love,

18 may be able to comprehend with ^aall the ¹saints what is ^bthe breadth and length and height and depth,

19 and to know ^athe love of Christ which ^bsurpasses knowl-

20 ^aNow to Him who is ^bable to do exceeding abundantly beyond all that we ask or think, ^caccording to the power that works within us,

21 ^ato Him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations ¹forever and ever. Amen.

CHAPTER 4

I, THEREFORE, ^athe prisoner of the Lord, ^btreat you to ^cwalk in a manner worthy of the ^dcalling with which you have been ^ecalled,

2 with all ¹humility and gentleness, with ²patience, showing ³forbearance to one another ⁴in love,

3 being diligent to preserve the unity of the Spirit in the ^abond of peace.

4 There is ^aone body and ^bone Spirit, just as also you were called in ^cone ^dhope of your calling;

5 ^aone Lord, ^bone faith, ^cone baptism,

6 ^aone God and Father of all ^awho is over all and through all and in all.

7 But ^ato each one of us ^bgrace was given ^caccording to the measure of Christ's gift.

8 Therefore ¹it says,

*"A WHEN HE ASCENDED ON HIGH,
HE ^bLED CAPTIVE A HOST OF CAPTIVES,
AND HE GAVE GIFTS TO MEN."*

9 (Now this expression, "He ascended," what ¹does it mean except that He also ²had descended into ^bthe lower parts of the earth? All in the same way.)

10 He who descended is Himself also He who ascended ^afar above all the heavens, that He might ^bfill all things.)

11 And He ^agave ^bsome ~~as~~ apostles, and some ~~as~~ prophets, and some ~~as~~ evangelists, and some ~~as~~ pastors and ^dteachers,

12 ^afor the equipping of the ¹saints for the work of service; to the building up of ^bthe body of Christ;

13 until we all attain to ^athe unity of the faith, and of the ^{1b}knowledge of the Son of God, to a ^cmature man, to the measure of the stature ²which belongs to the ^dfulness of Christ.

14 ¹As a result, we are ^ano longer to be children, ^btossed here and there by waves, and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, by ^ccraftiness ²in ^ddeceitful scheming;

15 but ¹speaking the truth ^ain love, we ²are to ^bgrow up in all ^aaspects into Him, who is the ^chead, even Christ,

16 from whom ^athe whole body, being fitted and held together ^{1b}by that which every ^cjoint supplies, according to the ²proper working of each individual part, causes the growth of the body for the building up of itself ⁴in love.

17 ^aThis I say therefore, and ^baffirm together with the Lord, that you walk no longer just as the Gentiles also walk, in the ^afutility of their mind,

18 being ^adarkened in their understanding, ¹excluded from ^bthe life of God, because of the ^cignorance that is in them, because of the ^dhardness of their heart;

19 and they, having ^abecome callous, ^bhave given themselves over to ^csensuality, ¹for the practice of every kind of impurity with greediness.

20 But you did not ^alearn ¹Christ in this way,

21 if indeed you ^ahave heard Him and have ^bbeen taught in Him, just as truth is in Jesus,

22 that, in reference to your former manner of life, you ^alay aside the ^bold ¹self, which is being corrupted in accordance with the ^clusts of deceit,

23 and that you be ^arenewed in the spirit of your mind,

24 and ^aput on the ^bnew ¹self, which ²in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of the truth.

25 Therefore, ^alaying aside falsehood, ^bSPEAK TRUTH; EACH ONE OF YOU, WITH HIS NEIGHBOR, for we are ^cmembers of one another.

26 ^aBE ANGRY, AND yet DO NOT SIN; do not let ^bthe sun go down on your anger, 27 and do not ^agive the devil an ¹opportunity.

28 Let him who steals steal no longer; but rather ^alet him labor, ^bperforming with his own hands what is good, ^cin order that he may have something to share with him who has need.

29 Let no ¹unwholesome word proceed from your mouth, but only such a word as is good for ^bedification ²according to the need of the moment, that it may give grace to those who hear.

30 And ^ado not ^bgrieve the Holy Spirit of God, ¹by whom you were ^bsealed for the day of redemption.

31 ^aLet all bitterness and wrath and anger and clamor and slander be ^bput away from you, along with all ^cmalice.

32 And ^abe kind to one another, tender-hearted, forgiving each other, ^bjust as God in Christ also has forgiven ¹you.

CHAPTER 5

^aTHEREFORE be imitators of God, as beloved children; ² and ^awalk in love, just as Christ also ^bloved ¹you, and ^cgave Himself up for us, an ^doffering and a sacrifice to God ²as a ^cfragrant aroma.

3 But do not let ^aimmorality ¹or any impurity ^bor greed even be named among you, as is proper among ²saints;

4 and there must be no ^afilthiness and silly talk, or coarse jesting, which ^bare not fitting, but rather ^cgiving of thanks.

5 For this you know with certainty, that ^ano ¹immoral or impure person or covetous man, who is an idolater, has an inheritance in the kingdom ^bof Christ and God.

6 ^aLet no one deceive you with empty words, for because of these things ^bthe wrath of God comes upon ^cthe sons of disobedience.

7 Therefore do not be ^apartakers with them;

^aEph. 5:25, 28; 1 Pet. 3:7
^b1 Pet. 3:2, 5f.

8 for ^ayou were formerly ^bdarkness, but now you are light in the Lord; walk as ^cchildren of light

9 (for ^athe fruit of the light consists in all ^bgoodness and righteousness and truth),

10 ^{1a}trying to learn what is pleasing to the Lord.

11 And ^ado not participate in the unfruitful ^bdeeds of ^cdark-ness, but instead even ^dexpose them;

12 for it is disgraceful even to speak of the things which are done by them in secret.

13 But all things become visible ^awhen they are ¹exposed by the light, for everything that becomes visible is light.

14 For this reason ^{1a}it says,

“^bAWAKE, SLEEPER,

AND ARISE FROM ^cTHE DEAD,

AND CHRIST ^dWILL SHINE ON YOU.”

15 Therefore ^{1b}be careful how you ^awalk, not ^bas unwise men, but as wise,

16 ^{1a}making the most of your time, because ^bthe days are evil.

17 So then do not be foolish, but ^aunderstand what the will of the Lord is.

18 And ^ado not get drunk with wine, ¹for that is ^bdissipa-tion, but be ^cfilled with the Spirit,

19 ^aspeaking to ¹one another in ^bpsalms and ^chymns and spiritual ^dsongs, ^esinging and making melody with your heart to the Lord;

20 ^aalways giving thanks for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ to ^{1b}God, even the Father;

21 ^{1a}and be subject to one another in the ^{2b}fear of Christ.

22 ^aWives, ^bbe subject to your own husbands, ^cas to the Lord.

23 For ^athe husband is the head of the wife, as Christ also is the ^bhead of the church, He Himself ^cbeing the Savior of the body.

24 But as the church is subject to Christ, so also the wives ought to be to their husbands in everything.

25 ^aHusbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church and ^bgave Himself up for her;

26 ^athat He might sanctify her, having ^bcleansed her by the ^cwashing of water with ^dthe word, ^eLev 11:4

27 that He might ^apresent to Himself the church ¹in all her glory, having no spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that she should be ^bholy and blameless.

28 So husbands ought also to ^alove their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself;

29 for no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as Christ also does the church,

30 because we are ^amembers of His ^bbody.

31 ^aFOR THIS CAUSE A MAN SHALL LEAVE HIS FATHER AND MOTHER, AND SHALL CLEAVE TO HIS WIFE; AND THE TWO SHALL BECOME ONE FLESH.

32 This mystery is great; but I am speaking with reference to Christ and the church.

33 Nevertheless let each individual among you also ^alove his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see to it that she ^{1b}respect her husband.

CHAPTER 6

CHILDREN, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.

2 ^aHONOR YOUR FATHER AND MOTHER (which is the first commandment with a promise),

3 ^aTHAT IT MAY BE WELL WITH YOU, AND THAT YOU MAY LIVE LONG ON THE EARTH.

4 And, ^afathers, do not provoke your children to anger; but ^bbring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

5 ^aSlaves, be obedient to those who are your ¹masters according to the flesh, with ^bfear and trembling, in the sincerity of your heart, ^cas to Christ;

6 ^anot ¹by way of eyeservice, as ^bmen-pleasers, but as ^cslaves of Christ, doing the will of God from the ²heart.

7 With good will ¹render service, ^aas to the Lord, and not to men,

8 ^aknowing that ^bwhatever good thing each one does, this he will receive back from the Lord, ^cwhether slave or free.

9 And, masters, do the same things to them, and ^agive up threatening, knowing that ^bboth their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is ^cno partiality with Him.

10 Finally, ^abe strong in the Lord, and in ^bthe strength of His might.

11 ^aPut on the full armor of God, that you may be able to stand firm against the ^bschemes of the devil.

12 For our ^astruggle is not against ¹ flesh and blood, but ^cagainst the rulers, against the powers, against the ^dworld-forces of this ^cdarkness, against the ^sspiritual forces of wickedness in ^ethe heavenly places.

13 Therefore take up ^athe full armor of God, that you may be able to ^bresist in ^cthe evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm.

14 Stand firm therefore, ^aHAVING GIRDED YOUR LOINS WITH TRUTH, AND HAVING ^bPUT ON THE ^cBREASTPLATE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS,

15 and having ^ashod YOUR FEET WITH THE PREPARATION OF THE GOSPEL OF PEACE; between idea & fact

16 ¹in addition to all, taking up the ^ashield of faith with which you will be able to extinguish all the ^bflaming missiles of ^cthe evil one.

17 And take the ^ahelmet of salvation, and the ^bsword of the Spirit, which is ^cthe word of God. Use

18 With all ^aprayer and petition ¹pray at all times ^cin the Spirit, and with this in view, ²be on the alert with all ^cperseverance and ^dpetition for all the saints,

19 and ^apray on my behalf, that utterance may be given to me ¹in the opening of my mouth, to make known with ^cboldness ^dthe mystery of the gospel,

20 for which I am an ^aambassador ¹in ¹chains; that ²in proclaiming it I may speak ^cboldly, ^das I ought to speak.

21 ^aBut that you also may know about my circumstances, how I am doing, ^bTychicus, ^cthe beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, will make everything known to you.

^a Paul and ^bTimothy, ^cbond-servants of ^dChrist Jesus, to ^eall the ^fsaints in Christ Jesus who are in ^gPhilippi, including the ^boverseers and ^ddeacons:

2 ^aGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 ^aI thank my God in all my remembrance of you,

4 always offering prayer with joy in ^amy every prayer for you all,

5 in view of your ^{1a}participation in the ^bgospel ^cfrom the first day until now.

6 For I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until ^athe day of Christ Jesus.

7 ¹For ^ait is only right for me to feel this way about you all, because I ^bhave you in my heart, since both in my ^{2c}imprisonment and in the ^ddefense and confirmation of the ^egospel, you all are partakers of grace with me.

8 For ^aGod is my witness, how I long for you all with the ^{1a}affection of ^bChrist Jesus.

9 And this I pray, that ^ayour love may abound still more and more in ^breal knowledge and all discernment,

10 so that you may ^{1a}approve the things that are excellent, in order to be sincere and blameless ²until ^bthe day of Christ;

11 having been filled with the ^afruit of righteousness which comes through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

12 Now I want you to know, brethren, that my circumstances ^ahave turned out for the greater progress of the ^bgospel,

13 so that my ^{1a}imprisonment in the cause of Christ has become well-known throughout the whole ²praetorian guard and to ^beveryone else,

14 and that most of the ¹brethren, trusting in the Lord because of my ^{2a}imprisonment, have ^bfar more courage to speak the word of God without fear.

15 ^aSome, to be sure, are preaching Christ even from envy and strife, but some also from good will;

16 ¹the latter do it out of love, knowing that I am ^aappointed for the defense of the ^bgospel;

17 the former proclaim Christ ^aout of selfish ambition, ¹rather than from pure motives, thinking to cause me distress in my ^{2b}imprisonment.

18 What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed; and in this I rejoice, yes, and I will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn out for my ¹deliverance
^athrough your ²prayers and the provision of ^bthe Spirit of Jesus Christ,

20 according to my ^aearnest expectation and ^bhope, that I shall not be ^bput to shame in anything, but that with ^call boldness, Christ shall even now, as always, be ^dexalted in my body, ^ewhether by life or by death.

21 For to me, ^ato live is Christ, and to die is gain.

22 ¹But if I am to live on in the flesh, this will mean
^afruitful labor for me; and I do not know ²which to choose.

23 But I am hard pressed from both directions, having the ^adesire to depart and ^bbe with Christ, for that is very much better;

24 yet to remain on in the flesh is more necessary for your sake.

25 And ^aconvinced of this, I know that I shall remain and continue with you all for your progress and joy in the faith,

26 so that your ^aproud confidence in me may abound in Christ Jesus through my coming to you again.

27 Only conduct yourselves in a manner ^aworthy of the ^bgospel of Christ; so that whether I come and see you or remain absent, I may hear of you that you are ^cstanding firm in ^done spirit, with one ¹mind ^estriving together for the faith of the gospel;

28 in no way alarmed by your opponents—which is a ^asign of destruction for them, but of salvation for you, and that too, from God.

29 For to you ^ait has been granted for Christ's sake, not only to believe in Him, but also to ^bsuffer for His sake,

30 experiencing the same ^aconflict which ^byou saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

CHAPTER 2

any consolation of love, if there is any ^afellowship of the Spirit, if any ¹affection and compassion,

Himself by becoming ^bobedient to the point of death, even ^cdeath ¹on a cross.

⁹ ^aTherefore also God ^bhighly exalted Him, and bestowed on Him ^cthe name which is above every name,

¹⁰ that at the name of Jesus ^aevery knee should bow, of ^bthose who are in heaven, and on earth, and under the earth,

¹¹ and that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is ^aLord, to the glory of God the Father.

¹² So then, my beloved, ^ajust as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your ^bsalvation with ^cfear and trembling;

¹³ for it is ^aGod who ^bis at work in you, both to will and to work ^bfor His good pleasure.

¹⁴ Do all things without ^agrumbling or disputing;

¹⁵ that you may ¹prove yourselves to be ^ablameless and innocent, ^bchildren of God above reproach in the midst of a ^ccrooked and perverse generation, among whom you ^{2d}appear as ^{3e}lights in the world,

¹⁶ holding ¹fast the word of life, so that in ^athe day of Christ I may have cause to glory because I did not ^brun in vain nor ^ctoil in vain.

¹⁷ But even if I am being ^apoured out as a drink offering upon ^bthe sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice and share my joy with you all.

¹⁸ And you too, I urge you, rejoice in the same way and share your joy with me.

¹⁹ But I hope ¹in the Lord Jesus to ^asend ^bTimothy to you shortly, so that I also may be encouraged when I learn of your condition.

²⁰ For I have no one else ^aof kindred spirit who will genuinely be concerned for your welfare.

²¹ For they all ^aseek after their own interests, not those of Christ Jesus.

²² But you know ^aof his proven worth that ^bhe served with me in the furtherance of the gospel ^clike a child *serv*ing his father.

²³ ^aTherefore I hope to send him immediately, as soon as I see how things go with me;

²⁴ and ^aI trust in the Lord that I myself also shall be coming shortly.

²⁵ But I thought it necessary to send to you ^aEpaphrodi-tus, my brother and ^bfellow-worker and ^cfellow-soldier, who is also your ^{1d}messenger and ^eminister to my need;

²⁶ because he was longing ¹for you all and was distressed because you had heard that he was sick.

²⁷ For indeed he was sick to the point of death, but God had mercy on him, and not on him only but also on me, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.

²⁸ Therefore I have sent him all the more eagerly in order that when you see him again you may rejoice and I may be less concerned about you.

²⁹ Therefore ^areceive him in the Lord with all joy, and ^bhold men like him in high regard;

³⁰ because he came close to death ^afor the work of Christ, risking his life to ^bcomplete ¹what was deficient in your service
 to me.

CHAPTER 3

FINALLY, my brethren, ^arejoice in the Lord. To write the same things again is no trouble to me, and it is a safeguard for you.

2 Beware of the ^adogs, beware of the ^bevil workers, beware of the ¹false circumcision;

3 for ^awe are the true ¹circumcision, who ^bworship in the Spirit of God and ^cglory in ^dChrist Jesus and put no confidence in the flesh,

4 although ^aI myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If anyone else has a mind to put confidence in the flesh, I far more:

5 ^acircumcised the eighth day, of the ^bnation of Israel, of the ^ctribe of Benjamin, a ^bHebrew of Hebrews, as to the Law, ^aa Pharisee;

6 as to zeal, ^aa persecutor of the church, as to the ^brighteousness which is in the Law, found ^cblameless.

7 But ^awhatever things were gain to me, those things I have counted as loss for the sake of Christ.

8 More than that, I count all things to be loss in view of the surpassing value of ^{1a}knowing ^bChrist Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but rubbish in order that I may gain Christ,

9 and may be found in Him, not having ^aa righteousness of my own derived from the Law, but that which is through faith in Christ, ^bthe righteousness which comes from God on the basis of faith,

10 that I may ^aknow Him, and ^bthe power of His resurrection and ^{1c}the fellowship of His sufferings, being ^dconformed to His death;

11 ¹ⁱⁿ order that I may ^aattain to the resurrection from among the dead.

12 Not that I have already ^aobtained it, or have already ^bbecome perfect, but I press on ¹ⁱⁿ order that I may ^clay hold of that ²for which also I ^dwas laid hold of by ^cChrist Jesus.

13 Brethren, I do not regard myself as having laid hold of it yet; but one thing I do: ^aforgetting what lies behind and reaching forward to what lies ahead.

14 I ^apress on toward the goal for the prize of the ^bupward call of God in ^cChrist Jesus.

15 Let us therefore, as many as are ^{1a}perfect, have this attitude; and if in anything you have a ^bdifferent attitude, ^cGod will reveal that also to you;

16 however, let us keep ^{1a}living by that same standard to which we have attained.

17 Brethren, ^ajoin in following my example, and observe those who walk according to the ^bpattern you have in us.

18 For ^amany walk, of whom I often told you, and now tell you even ^bwEEPING, that they are enemies of ^cthe cross of Christ, 19 whose end is destruction, whose god is their ^{1a}appetite, and whose ^bglory is in their shame, who ^cset their minds on earthly things.

20 For ^aour ^{1c}citizenship is in heaven, from which also we eagerly ^bwait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ;

CHAPTER 4

THEREFORE, my beloved brethren ¹whom I ^along to see, my joy and crown, so ^bstand firm in the Lord, my beloved.

2 I urge Euodia and I urge Syntyche to ¹live in harmony in the Lord.

3 Indeed, true comrade, I ask you also to help these women who have shared my struggle in the cause of the gospel, together with Clement also, and the rest of my ^afellowworkers, whose ^bnames are in the book in life.

4 ^aRejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice!

5 Let your forbearing spirit be known to all men. ^aThe
Lord is ¹near.

6 ^aBe anxious for nothing, but in everthing by ^bprayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

7 And ^athe peace of God, which ^bsurpasses all ¹compre-hension, shall ^cguard your hearts and your ^dminds in ^eChrist Jesus.

8 Finally, brethren, ^awhatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is ¹of good repute, if there is any excellence and if anything worthy of praise, ²let your mind dwell on these things.

9 The things you have learned and received and heard and seen ^ain me, practice these things; and ^bthe God of peace shall be with you.

10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at last ^ayou have revived your concern for me; indeed, you were concerned before, but you lacked opportunity.

11 Not that I speak ¹from want; for I have learned to be ^{2a}content in whatever circumstances I am.

12 I know how to get along with humble means, and I also know how to live in prosperity; in any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of being filled and going ^ahungry, both of having abundance and ^bsuffering need.

13 I can do all things ¹through Him who ^astrengthens me.
14 Nevertheless, you have done well to ^ashare with me in my affliction.

15 And you yourselves also know, Philippians, that at the ^{1a}first preaching of the gospel, after I departed from ^bMacedonia, no church ^cshared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you alone;

16 for even in ^aThessalonica you sent a gift more than once for my needs.

17 ^aNot that I seek the gift itself, but I seek for the ¹profit which increases to your account.

18 But I have received everything in full, and have an abundance; I am ¹amply supplied, having received from ^aEpaphroditus ²what you have sent, ^{3b}a fragrant aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God.

19 And ^amy God shall supply ¹all your needs according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

20 Now to ^aour God and Father ^bbe the glory ¹forever and ever. Amen.

21 Greet every ¹saint in Christ Jesus. ^aThe brethren who are with me greet you.

22 ^aAll the ^{1b}saints greet you, especially those of Caesar's household.

23 ^aThe grace of the Lord Jesus Christ ^bbe with your spirit.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE COLOSSIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving for their Attainments.

^aPAUL, ^ban apostle of Jesus Christ ^{1b}by the will of God, and ^dTimothy ²our brother,

2 to the ^{1a}saints and faithful brethren in Christ who are at Colossae: ^bGrace to you and peace from God our Father.

3 ^aWe give thanks to God, ^bthe Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, saying always for you,

4 ^asince we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus and the ^blove which you have ¹for ^aall the ²saints;

5 because of the ^ahope ^blaid up for you in ¹heaven, of which you previously ^cheard in the word of truth, ²the gospel,

6 which has come to you, just as ^{1a}in all the world also it is constantly bearing ^bfruit and ²increasing, even as it has been doing in you also since the day you ^cheard of it and ³understood the grace of God in truth;

7 just as you learned it from ^aEpaphras, our ^bbeloved fellow bond-servant, who is a faithful servant of Christ on ¹our behalf,

8 and he also informed us of your ^alove in the Spirit.

9 For this reason also, ^asince the day we heard of it, ^bwe have not ceased to pray for you and to ask that you may be filled with the ^{1c}knowledge of His will in all spiritual ^dwisdom and understanding,

10 so that you may ^awalk in a manner worthy of the Lord, ^bto please Him in all respects, ^cbearing fruit in every good work and ²increasing in the ¹knowledge of God;

11 ^astrengthened with all power, according to ¹His glorious might, ²for the attaining of all steadfastness and ³patience, ^bjoyously

12 giving thanks to ^athe Father, who has qualified us ¹to share in ^bthe inheritance of the ²saints in ^clight.

13 For He delivered us from the ^{1a}domain of darkness, and transferred us to the kingdom of ^{2b}His beloved Son,

Rom. 16:25f.; Col. 1:26; 4:3

15 And He is the ^aimage of the ^binvisible God, the ^cfirst-born of all creation.

16 For ^ain Him all things were created, ^aboth in the heavens and on earth, visible and invisible, whether ^bthrones or dominions or rulers or authorities—all things have been created through Him and for Him.

17 And He ^ais before all things, and in Him all things ²hold together.

18 He is also ^ahead of ^bthe body, the church; and He is ^cthe beginning, ^dthe first-born from the dead; so that He Himself might come to have first place in everything.

19 For ¹it was ^athe Father's good pleasure for all ^bthe ²fullness to dwell in Him,

20 and through Him to ^areconcile all things to Himself, having made ^bpeace through ^cthe blood of His cross; through Him, I say, ^dwhether things on earth or things in ^eheaven.

21 And although you were ^aformerly alienated and hostile in mind, engaged in evil deeds,

22 yet He has now ^areconciled you in His fleshly ^bbody through death, in order to ^cpresent you before Him ^dholy and blameless and beyond reproach—

23 if indeed you continue in ¹the faith firmly ^aestablished and steadfast, and not moved away from the ^bhope of the gospel that you have heard, which was proclaimed ^cin all creation under heaven, ^dand of which I Paul ²was made a ³minister.

24 ^aNow I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and in my flesh ^bI do my share on behalf of ^cHis body (which is the church) in filling up that which is lacking ²in Christ's afflictions.

25 ^aOf this church I ¹was made a minister according to the ^bstewardship from God bestowed on me for your benefit, that I might ²fully carry out the preaching of the word of God,

26 that is, ^athe mystery which has been hidden from the past ages and generations; but has now been manifested to His ¹saints,

27 to whom ^aGod willed to make known what is ^bthe riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is ^cChrist in you, the ^dhope of glory.

28 And we proclaim Him, ^aadmonishing every man and teaching every man ^bwith all ^cwisdom, that we may ^cpresent every man ^{2d}complete in Christ.

29 And for this purpose also I ^alabor, ^bstriving ^caccording to His ¹power, which ²mightily works within me.

CHAPTER 2

FOR I want you to know how great a ^astruggle I have on your behalf, and for those who are at ^bLaodicea, and for all those who have not ¹personally seen my face,

2 that their ^ahearts may be encouraged, having been ^bknit together in love, and attaining to all ^cthe wealth ¹that comes from the ^dfull assurance of understanding, resulting in a ^ctrue knowledge of ^fGod's mystery, that is, Christ Himself,

3 in whom are hidden all ^athe treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 ^aI say this in order that no one may delude you with ^bpersuasive argument.

5 For even though I am ^aabsent in body, nevertheless I am with you in spirit, rejoicing ¹to see ²your ^bgood discipline and the ^cstability of your faith in Christ.

6 As you therefore have received ^aChrist Jesus the Lord, so ^bwalk in Him,

7 having been firmly ^arooted and now being ^bbuilt up in Him and ^cestablished ¹in your faith, just as you ^dwere instructed, and overflowing ²with gratitude.

8 ^aSee to it that no one take you captive through ^bphilosophy and ^cempty deception, according to the tradition of men, according to the ^celementary principles of the world, ¹rather than according to Christ.

9 For in Him all the ^afulness of Deity dwells in bodily form,

10 and in Him you have been ^amade ¹complete, and ^bHe is the head ²over all ^crule and authority;

11 and in Him ^ayou were also circumcised with a circumcision made without hands, in the removal of ^bthe body of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ;

12 having been ^aburied with Him in baptism, in which you were also ^braised up with Him through faith in the working of God, who ^craised Him from the dead.

13 And when you were ^adead ¹in your transgressions and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He ^bmade you alive together with Him, having forgiven us all our transgressions, 14 having cancelled out ^athe certificate of debt consisting of decrees against us and which was hostile to us; and ^bHe has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the cross.

15 When He had ^{1a}disarmed the ^brulers and authorities, He ^cmade a public display of them, having ^dtriumphed over them through ²Him.

16 Therefore let no one ^{1a}act as your judge in regard to ^bfood or ^bdrink or in respect to a ^cfestival or a ^dnew moon or a ^eSabbath ²day—

17 things which are ^aa mere shadow of what is to come; but the ^{1b}substance ²belongs to Christ.

18 Let no one keep ^{1a}defrauding you of your prize by ^bdelighting in ²self-abasement and the worship of the angels, taking his stand on visions he has seen, ^cinflated without cause by his ^dfleshly mind,

19 and not holding fast to ^athe Head, from whom ^bthe entire body, being supplied and held together by the joints and ¹ligaments, grows with a growth ²which is from God.

20 ^aIf you have died with Christ ¹to the ^belementary principles of the world, ^cwhy, as if you were living in the world, do you submit yourself to ^ddecrees, such as,

21 "Do not handle, do not taste, do not touch!"

22 (which all refer ^ato things destined to perish ¹with the using)—in accordance with the ^bcommandments and teachings of men?

23 These are matters which have, to be sure, the appearance of wisdom in ^{1a}self-made religion and self-abasement

CHAPTER 3

IF then you have been ^araised up with Christ, keep seeking the things above, where Christ is, ^bseated at the right hand of God.

2 ^{1a}Set your mind on the things above, not on the things that are on earth.

3 For you have ^adied and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

4 When Christ, ^awho is our life, is revealed, ^bthen you also will be revealed with Him in glory.

5 ^aTherefore ¹consider ^bthe members of your earthly body as dead to ²immorality, impurity, passion, evil desire, and greed, which ³amounts to idolatry.

6 For it is on account of these things that ^athe wrath of God will come¹,

7 and ^ain them you also once walked, when you were living in them.

8 But now you also, ^aput them all aside: ^banger, wrath, malice, slander, and ^cabusive speech from your mouth.

9 ^{1a}Do not lie to one another, since you ^blaid aside the old ²self with its evil practices,

10 and have ^aput on the new ¹self who is being ²renewed to a true knowledge ^caccording to the image of the One who ^dcreated him,

11 —a renewal in which ^athere is no distinction between Greek and Jew, ^bcircumcised and uncircumcised, ^cbarbarian, Scythian, ^dslave and freeman, but ^eChrist is all, and in all.

12 And so, as those who have been ^achosen of God, holy and beloved, ^bput on a ^cheart of compassion, kindness, ^dhumility, gentleness and ^{1e}patience;

13 ^abearing with one another, and ^bforgiving each other, whoever has a complaint against any one; ^bjust as the Lord forgave you, so also should you.

14 And beyond all these things put on love, which is ^{1a}the perfect bond of ^bunity.

15 And let ^athe peace of Christ ¹rule in your hearts, to which ²indeed you were called in ^bone body; and ³be thankful.

16 Let ^athe word of ¹Christ richly dwell within you; ²with all wisdom ^bteaching and admonishing one another ^cwith psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, ^dsinging ³with thankfulness in your hearts to God.

17 And ^awhatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, ^bgiving thanks through Him to God the Father.

18 ^aWives, ^bbe subject to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

19 ^aHusbands, love your wives, and do not be embittered against them.

20 ^aChildren, be obedient to your parents in all things, for this is well pleasing ¹to the Lord.

Domestic Responsibilities,¹ Witnessing to Outsiders. Personal Matters.

Colossians 3, 4

21 ^aFathers, do not ¹exasperate your children, that they may not lose heart.

22 ^aSlaves, in all things obey those who are your masters ¹on earth, ^bnot with ²external service, as those who merely please men, but with sincerity of heart, fearing the Lord.

23 Whatever you do, do your work ¹heartily, ^aas for the Lord ²rather than for men;

24 ^aknowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward ¹of ^bthe inheritance. It is the Lord Christ whom you ^cserve.

25 For ^ahe who does wrong will receive the consequences of the wrong which he has done, and ^{1b}that without partiality.

CHAPTER 4

MASTERS, grant to your slaves justice and fairness, knowing that you too have a Master in heaven.

2 ^aDevote yourselves to prayer, keeping alert in it with an attitude of thanksgiving;

3 praying at the same time ^afor us as well, that God may open up to us a ^bdoor for ^cthe word, so that we may speak forth ^dthe mystery of Christ, for which I have also ^ebeen imprisoned;

4 in order that I may make it clear ^ain the way I ought to speak.

5 ^{1a}Conduct yourselves with wisdom toward ^boutsiders, ^{2c}making the most of the opportunity.

6 ^aLet your speech always be ¹with grace, seasoned, as it were, with ^bsalt, so that you may know how you should ^crespond to each person.

7 ^aAs to all my affairs, ^bTychicus, our ^cbeloved brother and faithful servant and fellow-bondslave in the Lord, will bring you information.

8 ^aFor I have sent him to you for this very purpose, that you may know about our circumstances and that he may ^bencourage your hearts;

9 ¹and with him ^aOnesimus, our faithful and ^bbeloved brother, ^cwho is one of your number. They will inform you about the whole situation here.

12 ^aEpaphras, ^bwho is one of your number, a bondslave of Jesus Christ, sends you his greetings, always ^claboring earnestly for you in his prayers, that you may ¹stand ^{2d}perfect and ^{3c}fully assured in all the will of God.

13 For I bear him witness that he has ^{1a}a deep concern for you and for those who are in ^aLaodicea and Hierapolis.

14 ^aLuke, the beloved physician, sends you his greetings, and also ^bDemas.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE THESSALONIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving for their Reception of the Gospel.

^aPAUL and ^bSilvanus and ^cTimothy to the ^dchurch of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: ^eGrace to you and peace.

2 ^aWe give thanks to God always for all of you, ^bmaking mention of you in our prayers;

3 constantly bearing in mind your ^awork of faith and labor of ^blove and ^{1c}steadfastness of hope ²in our Lord Jesus Christ in the presence of ^dour God and Father;

4 knowing, ^abrethren beloved by God, ^bHis choice of you,

5 for our ^agospel did not come to you in word only, but also ^bin power and in the Holy Spirit and with ^cfull conviction; just as you know ^dwhat kind of men we ¹proved to be among you for your sake.

6 You also became ^aimitators of us and of the Lord, ^bhaving received ^cthe word in much tribulation with the ^djoy ¹of the Holy Spirit,

7 so that you became an example to all the believers in ^aMacedonia and in ^bAchaia.

8 For ^athe word of the Lord has ^bsounded forth from you, not only in ^cMacedonia and ^dAchaia, but also ^ein every place your faith toward God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything.

9 For they themselves report about us what kind of a ^{1a}reception we had ²with you, and how you ^bturned to God ^cfrom ³idols to serve ^{4d}a living and true God,

10 and to ^await for His Son from ¹heaven, whom He ^bbraised from the dead, that is Jesus, who ^cdelivers us from ^dthe wrath to come.

CHAPTER 2

FOR you yourselves know, brethren, that our ^{1a}coming to you ^bwas not in vain,

2 but after we had already suffered and been ^amistreated in ^bPhilippi, as you know, we had the ^bboldness in our God ^cto speak to you the ^dgospel of God amid much ^{1c}opposition.

3 For our ^aexhortation does not come from ^berror or ¹simplicity or ^{1b}by way of ^ddeceit;

4 ^abut just as we have been approved by God to be ^bentrusted with the gospel, ^cso we speak; ^dnot as pleasing men but God, who ^eexamines our hearts.

5 For we never came ¹with flattering speech, as you know, nor with ^{2a}pretext for greed—^bGod is witness—

6 nor did we ^aseek glory from men, either from you or from others, even though as ^bapostles of Christ we might have ¹asserted our authority.

7 But we ¹proved to be ^{2a}gentle ³among you, ^{4a}as a nursing mother ⁴tenderly cares for her own children.

8 Having thus a fond affection for you, we were well pleased to ^aimpart to you not only the ^bgospel but also our own ¹lives, because you had become ²very dear to us.

9 For you recall, brethren, our ^alabor and hardship, ^{how} ^bworking night and day so as not to be a ^cburden to any of you, we proclaimed to you the ^dgospel of God.

10 You are witnesses, and so is ^aGod, ^bhow devoutly and uprightly and blamelessly we ¹behaved toward you ²believers;

11 just as you know how we ^{were} ^aexhorting and encouraging and ^bimploring each one of you as ^ca father would his own children,

12 so that you may ^awalk in a manner worthy of the God who ^bcalls you into His own kingdom and ^cglory.

13 And for this reason we also constantly ^athank God that when you received from us the ^bword of God's message, you accepted it ^cnot as the word of men, but ^dfor what it really is, the word of God, ^ewhich also performs its work in you who believe.

14 For you, brethren, became ^aimitators of ^bthe churches of God in Christ Jesus that are ^cin Judea, for ^dyou also endured the same sufferings at the hands of your own countrymen, ^eeven as they ^{did} from the Jews,

15 ^awho both killed the Lord Jesus and ^bthe prophets, and ¹drove us out; ²they are not pleasing to God, ³but hostile to all men, 16 ^ahindering us from speaking to the Gentiles ^bthat they might be saved; with the result that they always ^cfill up the measure of their sins. But ^dwrath has come upon them ¹to the utmost.

17 But we, brethren, having been bereft of you for a ¹short while—^ain ²person, not in ³spirit—were all the more eager with great desire ^bto see your face.

18 ¹For ^awe wanted to come to you—I, Paul, ^{2b}more than once—and yet ^cSatan ^dthwarted us.

19 For who is our hope or ^ajoy or crown of exultation? Is it not even you, in the presence of our Lord Jesus at His ^{1b}coming?

20 For you are ^aour glory and joy.

CHAPTER 3

THEREFORE ^awhen we could endure it no longer, we thought it best to be left behind at ^bAthens alone;

3 so that no man may be ¹disturbed by these afflictions; for you yourselves know that ^awe have been destined for this.

4 For indeed when we were with you, we kept telling you in advance that we were going to suffer affliction; ^{1a}and so it came to pass, ^{2a}as you know.

5 For this reason, ^awhen I could endure it no longer, I also ^bsent to ¹find out about your faith, for fear that ^cthe tempter might have tempted you, and ^dour labor should be in vain.

6 But now that ^aTimothy has come to us from you, and has brought us good news of ^byour faith and love, and that you always ^cthink kindly of us, longing to see us just as we also long to see you,

7 for this reason, brethren, in all our distress and affliction we were comforted about you through your faith;

8 for now we really live, if you ^astand firm in the Lord.

9 For ^awhat thanks can we render to God for you in return for all the joy with which we rejoice before our God on your account,

10 as we ^anight and day keep praying most earnestly that we may ^bsee your face, and may ^ccomplete what is lacking in your faith?

11 ^aNow may ^bour God and Father ^cHimself and Jesus our Lord ^ddirect our way to you;

12 and may the Lord cause you to increase and ^aabound in love for one another, and for all men, just as we also do for you;

13 so that He may ^aestablish your hearts ^bunblamable in holiness before ^cour God and Father at the ^{1d}coming of our Lord Jesus ^cwith all His ²saints.

CHAPTER 4

^aFINALLY then, ^bbrethren, we request and exhort you in the Lord Jesus that, as you received from us instruction as to how you ought to ^{1c}walk and ^dplease God (just as you actually do ¹walk), that you may ^cexcel still more.

2 For you know what commandments we gave you ^{1b}by the authority of the Lord Jesus.

3 For this is the will of God, your sanctification; that is, that you ^aabstain from ¹sexual immorality;

4 that ^aeach of you know how to ¹possess his own ^{2b}vessel in sanctification and ^chonor,

5 not in ^{1a}lustful passion, like the Gentiles who ^bdo not know God;

6 and that no man transgress and ^adefraud his brother ^bin the matter because ^cthe Lord is the avenger in all these things, just as we also ^dtold you before and solemnly warned you.

7 For ^aGod has not called us for ^bthe purpose of impurity, but ¹in sanctification.

8 Consequently, he who rejects this is not rejecting man but the God who ^agives His Holy Spirit to you.

9 Now as to the ^alove of the brethren, you ^bhave no need for any one to write to you, for you yourselves are ^ctaught by God to love one another;

10 for indeed ^ayou do practice it toward all the brethren who are in all Macedonia. But we urge you, brethren, to ^bexcel still more,

11 and to make it your ambition ^ato lead a quiet life and ^battend to your own business and ^cwork with your hands, just as we commanded you;

12 so that you may ^{1a}behave properly toward ^boutsiders and ^{2c}not be in any need.

13 But ^awe do not want you to be uninformed, brethren, about those who ^bare asleep, that you may not grieve, as do ^cthe rest who have ^dno hope.

14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, ^aeven so God will bring with Him ^bthose who have fallen asleep ¹in Jesus.

15 For this we say to you ^aby the word of the Lord, that ^bwe who are alive, ¹and remain until ^cthe coming of the Lord, shall not precede ^dthose who have fallen asleep.

16 For the Lord ^aHimself ^bwill descend from heaven with a ^{1c}shout, with the voice of ^dthe archangel, and with the ^etrumpet of God; and ^fthe dead in Christ shall rise first.

17 Then ^awe who are alive ¹and remain shall be ^bcaught up together with them ^cin the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and thus we shall always ^bbe with the Lord.

18 Therefore comfort one another with these words.

CHAPTER 5

NOW as to the ^atimes and the epochs, brethren, you ^bhave no need of anything to be written to you.

2 For you yourselves know full well that ^athe day of the Lord ¹will come ^bjust like a thief in the night.

3 While they are saying, "aPeace and safety!" then ^{1b}destruction ²will come upon them suddenly like ^cbirth pangs upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 But you, brethren, are not in ^adarkness, that the day should overtake you ^{1b}like a thief;

5 for you are all ^asons of light and sons of day. We are not of night nor of ^bdarkness;

6 so then let us not ^asleep as ^{1b}others do, but let us be alert and ^{2c}sober.

7 For those who sleep do their sleeping at night, and those who get drunk get ^adrunk at night.

8 But since ^awe are of ^dthe day, let us ^bbe ¹sober, having put on the ^cbreastplate of ^dfaith and love, and as a ^chelmet, the ^dhope of salvation.

9 For God has not destined us for ^awrath, but for ^bobtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,

10 ^awho died for us, that whether we are awake or asleep, we may live together with Him.

11 Therefore ¹encourage one another, and ^abuild up one another, just as you also are doing.

12 But we request of you, brethren, that you ^{1a}appreciate those ^bwho diligently labor among you, and ^chave charge over you in the Lord and give you ²instruction, 13 and that you esteem them very highly in love because of their work. ^aLive in peace with one another.

14 And we urge you, brethren, ^aadmonish ^bthe ¹unruly, en-

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO THE THESSALONIANS

Salutation. Thanksgiving for their Faith and Perseverance.

a PAUL and bSilvanus and cTimothy to the dchurch of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 aGrace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We ought always ato give thanks to God for you, bbrethren, as is only fitting, because your faith is greatly enlarged, and the clove of each one of you all toward one another grows ever greater;

4 therefore, we ourselves aspeak proudly of you among the churches of God for your ¹perseverance and faith bin the midst of all your persecutions and afflictions which you endure.

5 This is a plain indication of God's righteous judgment so that you may be bconsidered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which indeed you are suffering.

6 ¹For after all ait is only just ²for God to repay with affliction those who afflict you,

7 and to give relief to you who are afflicted ¹and to us as well ²when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed bfrom heaven cwith ³His mighty angels din flaming fire,

8 dealing out retribution to those who ^ado not know God and to those who ^bdo not obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus.

9 And these will pay the penalty of ^aeternal destruction, ^baway from the presence of the Lord and from the glory of His power,

10 when He comes to be ^aglorified ¹in His ²saints on that ^bday, and to be marveled at among all who have believed—for our ^ctestimony to you was believed.

11 To this end also we ^apray for you always that our God may ^bcount you worthy of your ^ccalling, and fulfill every desire for ^dgoodness and the ^ework of faith with power;

12 in order that the ^aname of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and ¹the Lord Jesus Christ.

CHAPTER 2

NOW we request you, ^abrethren, with regard to the ^bcoming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our ^cgathering together to Him,

2 that you may not be quickly shaken from your ¹composure or be disturbed either by a ^aspirit or a ²message or a ^cletter as if from us, to the effect that ^dthe day of the Lord ^ehas come.

3 ^aLet no one in any way deceive you, for it will not come unless the ^bapostasy comes first, and the ^cman of ²lawlessness is revealed, the ^dson of destruction,

4 who opposes and exalts himself above ¹every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, ^bdisplaying himself as being God.

5 Do you not remember that ^awhile I was still with you, I was telling you these things?

6 And you know ^awhat restrains him now, so that in his time he may be revealed.

7 For ^athe mystery of lawlessness is already at work; only ^bhe who now restrains will do so until he is taken out of the way.

8 And then that lawless one ^awill be revealed whom the Lord will slay ^bwith the breath of His mouth and bring to an end by the ^cappearance of His ¹coming;

9 that is, the one whose ¹coming is in accord with the activity of ^aSatan, with all power and ²signs and false wonders,

10 and with ¹all the deception of wickedness for ^athose who perish, because they did not receive the love of ^bthe truth so as to be saved.

11 And for this reason ^aGod ¹will send upon them ²a ^bdecluding influence so that they might believe ³what is false, 12 in order that they all may be ¹judged who ^adid not believe the truth, but ²took pleasure in wickedness.

13 ^aBut we should always give thanks to God for you, ^bbrethren beloved by the Lord, because ^cGod has chosen you ¹from the beginning ^dfor salvation ²through sanctification ³by the Spirit and faith in the truth.

14 And it was for this He ^acalled you through ^bour gospel, ¹that you may gain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

15 So then, brethren, ^astand firm and ^bhold to the traditions which you were taught, whether ^cby word of mouth or ^bby letter ¹from us.

16 ^aNow may our Lord Jesus Christ ^bHimself and God our Father, who has ^cloved us and given us eternal comfort and ^dgood hope by grace, 17 ^acomfort and ^bstrengthen your hearts in every good work and word.

CHAPTER 3

FINALLY, brethren, ^bpray for us that ^cthe word of the Lord may ¹spread rapidly and be glorified, just as it did also with you;

2 and that we may be ^adelivered from ¹perverse and evil men; for not all have ²faith.

3 But ^athe Lord is faithful, and ¹He will strengthen and protect you ²from ^bthe evil one.

4 And we have ^aconfidence in the Lord concerning you, that you ^bare doing and will continue to do what we command.

5 And may the Lord ^adirect your hearts into the love of God and into the steadfastness of Christ.

6 Now we command you, brethren, ^ain the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you ^{1b}keep aloof from every brother who ²leads an ³unruly life and not according to ⁴the tradition which ⁴you received from us.

7 For you yourselves know how you ought to ^{1a}follow our example; because we did not act in an undisciplined manner among you,

8 nor did we ^aeat ¹anyone's bread ²without paying for it, but with ^blabor and hardship we kept ^cworking night and day so that we might not be a burden to any of you;

9 not because we do not have ^athe right to this, but in order to offer ourselves ^bas a model for you, that you might ¹follow our example.

10 For even ^awhen we were with you, we used to give you this order: ^bIf anyone will not work, neither let him eat.

11 For we hear that some among you are ^aleading an undisciplined life, doing no work at all, but acting like ^bbusybodies.

12 Now such persons we command and ^aexhort in the Lord Jesus Christ to ^bwork in quiet fashion and eat their own bread.

13 But as for you, ^abrethren, ^bdo not grow weary of doing good.

14 And if anyone does not obey our ¹instruction ^{2a}in this letter, take special note of that man ^{3b}and do not associate with him, so that he may be ^cput to shame.

15 And yet ^ado not regard him as an enemy, but ^{1b}admonish him as a ^cbrother. And of last things...

16 Now ^amay the Lord of peace ^bHimself continually grant you peace in every ¹circumstance. ^cThe Lord be with you all!

17 ¹I Paul write this greeting ^awith my own hand, and this is a distinguishing mark in every letter: this is the way I write.

18 ^aThe grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY A.D. 66-68

Salutation. Charge Respecting Misuse of the Law.
Personal Thanksgiving.

PAUL, ^aan apostle of ^bChrist Jesus ^caccording to the commandment of ^dGod our Savior, and of ^bChrist Jesus, who is our hope;

2 to ^aTimothy, ^bmy true child in the faith: ^cGrace, mercy and peace from God the Father and ^dChrist Jesus our Lord.

3 As I urged you ¹upon my departure for ^aMacedonia, ²remain on at ^bEphesus, in order that you may instruct certain men not to ^cteach strange doctrines,

4 nor to ¹pay attention to ^amyths and endless ^bgenealogies, which give rise to mere ^cspeculation rather than ^dfurthering ²God's provision which is by faith.

5 But the goal of our ¹instruction is love ^bfrom a pure heart and a ^cgood conscience and a sincere ^dfaith.

6 For some men, straying from these things, have turned aside to ^afruitless discussion,

7 ^awanting to be ^bteachers of the Law, even though they do not understand either what they are saying or the matters about which they make confident assertions.

8 But we know that ^athe Law is good, if one uses it lawfully,

9 realizing the fact that ^alaw is not made for a righteous man, but for those who are lawless and ^brebellious, for the ^cungodly and sinners, for the unholy and ^dprofane, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers

10 ¹and ²immoral men ¹and ^bhomosexuals ¹and ^ckidnappers ¹and ^dliars ¹and ^eperjurers, and whatever else is contrary to ^fsound teaching,

11 according to ^athe glorious gospel of ^bthe blessed God, with which I have been ^centrusted.

12 I thank ^aChrist Jesus our Lord, who has ^bstrengthened me, because He considered me faithful, ^cputting me into service;

13 even though I was formerly a blasphemer and a ^apersecutor and a violent aggressor. And yet I was ^bshown mercy, because ^cI acted ignorantly in unbelief;

14 and the ^agrace of our Lord was more than abundant, with the ^bfaith and love which are found in Christ Jesus.

15 ^aIt is a trustworthy statement, deserving full acceptance, that ^bChrist Jesus came into the world to ^csave sinners, among whom ^dI am foremost of all.

16 And yet for this reason I ^afound mercy, in order that in me as the foremost, Jesus Christ might ^bdemonstrate His perfect patience, as an example for those ¹who would believe in Him for eternal life.

17 Now to the King ¹eternal, ^bimmortal, ^cinvisible, the ^donly God, ^ebe honor and glory ²forever and ever. Amen.]

10 And ^alet these also first be tested; then let them serve as deacons if they are beyond reproach. - 1/10/67 is profitable for all things, since it ^cholds promise for the ^dpresent life and also for the life to come.

9 ^{a1}It is a trustworthy statement deserving full acceptance.

10 For it is for this we labor and strive, because we have fixed ^aour hope on ^bthe living God, who is ^cthe Savior of all men, especially of believers.

11 ^{1a}Prescribe and teach these things.

12 ^aLet no one look down on your youthfulness, but rather in speech, conduct, ^blove, faith and purity, show yourself ^can example ¹of those who believe.

13 ^aUntil I come, give attention to the public ^breading of Scripture, to exhortation and teaching.

14 Do not neglect the spiritual gift within you, which was bestowed upon you through ^aprophetic utterance with ^bthe laying on of hands by the ^{1c}presbytery.

15 Take pains with these things; be absorbed in them, so that your progress may be evident to all.

16 ^aPay close attention to yourself and to your teaching; persevere in these things; for as you do this you will ^{1b}insure salvation both for yourself and for those who hear you.

CHAPTER 5

^aDO not sharply rebuke an ^bolder man, but rather appeal to him as a father; ^cthe younger men as brothers,

2 the older women as mothers, and the younger women as sisters, in all purity.

3 Honor widows who are ^awidows indeed;

4 but if any widow has children or grandchildren, ^alet them first learn to practice piety in regard to their own family, and to ¹make some return to their parents; for this is ^bacceptable in the sight of God.

5 Now she who is a ^awidow indeed and who has been left alone ^bhas fixed her hope on God, and continues in ^centreaties and prayers night and day.

6 But she who ^agives herself to wanton pleasure is ^bdead even while she lives.

7 ^{1a}Prescribe these things as well, so that they may be above reproach.

8 But if any one does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has ^adenied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever.

9 Let a widow be ^aput on the list only if she is not less than sixty years old, having been ^bthe wife of one man,

10 having a reputation for ^agood works; and if she has brought up children, if she has ^bshown hospitality to strangers, if she ^chas washed the ¹saints' feet, if she has ^dassisted those in distress, and if she has devoted herself to every good work.

11 But refuse to put younger widows on the list, for when they feel ^asensual desires in disregard of Christ, they want to get married, 12 thus incurring condemnation, because they have set aside their previous ¹pledge.

13 And at the same time they also learn to be idle, as they go around from house to house; and not merely idle, but also Concerning Elders. Controversial Questions.

^agossips and ^bbusybodies, talking about ^cthings not proper to mention.

14 Therefore, ^aI want younger widows to get ^bmarried, bear children, ^ckeep house, and ^dgive the enemy no occasion for reproach;

15 for some ^ahave already turned aside to follow ^bSatan.

16 If any woman who is a believer ^ahas dependent widows, let her ^bassist them, and let not the church be burdened, so that it may assist those who are ^cwidows indeed.

17 Let ^athe elders who ^brule well be considered worthy of double honor, especially those who ^cwork hard ¹at preaching and teaching.

18 For the Scripture says, "^aYOU SHALL NOT MUZZLE THE OX WHILE HE IS THRESHING," and "^bThe laborer is worthy of his wages."

19 Do not receive an accusation against an ^aelder except on the basis of ^btwo or three witnesses.

20 Those who continue in sin, ^arebuke in the presence of all, ^bso that the rest also may be fearful of sinning.

21 ^aI solemnly charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus and of His chosen angels, to maintain these principles without bias, doing nothing in a spirit of partiality.

22 ^aDo not lay hands upon any one too hastily and ¹thus share ^bresponsibility for the sins of others; keep yourself ²free from sin.

23 No longer drink water exclusively, but ^ause a little wine for the sake of your stomach and your frequent ailments.

24 The sins of some men are quite evident, going before them to judgment; for others, their sins ^afollow after.

25 Likewise also, deeds that are good are quite evident, and ^athose which are otherwise cannot be concealed.

CHAPTER 6

^aLET all who are under the yoke as slaves regard their own masters as worthy of all honor so ^bthat the name of God and our doctrine may not be spoken against.

2 And let those who have believers as their masters not be disrespectful to them because they are ^abrethren, but let them serve them all the more, because those who ¹partake of the benefit are believers and beloved. ^aTeach and ²preach these principles.

3 If any one ^aadvocates a different doctrine, and does not ¹agree with ^bsound words, those of our Lord Jesus Christ, and with the doctrine ^cconforming to godliness,

4 he is ^aconceited and understands nothing; but he ¹has a morbid interest in ^bcontroversial questions and ^cdisputes about words, out of which arise envy, strife, abusive language, evil suspicions,

5 and constant friction between ^amen of depraved mind and deprived of the truth, who ^bsuppose that ¹godliness is a means of gain.

6 ^aBut godliness actually is a means of ^bgreat gain, when accompanied by ^ccontentment.

7 For ^awe have brought nothing into the world, ¹so we cannot take anything out of it either.

8 And if we ^ahave food and covering, with these we shall be content.

9 ^aBut those who want to get rich fall into temptation and ^ba snare and many foolish and harmful desires which plunge men into ruin and destruction.

10 For ^athe love of money is ^ba root of all ¹sorts of evil, and some by longing for it have ^cwandered away from the faith, and pierced themselves with many a pang.

11 But ^aflee from these things, you ^bman of God; and pursue after righteousness, godliness, ^cfaith, ^dlove, ¹perseverance and gentleness.

12 ^aFight the good fight of ^bfaith; ^ctake hold of the eternal life ^dto which you were called, and you made the good ^econfession in the presence of ^fmany witnesses.

13 ^aI charge you in the presence of God, who ¹gives life to all things, and of ^bChrist Jesus, who testified the ^cgood confession ^dbefore Pontius Pilate;

14 that you keep the commandment without stain or reproach, until the ^aappearing of our Lord Jesus Christ,

15 which He will ¹bring about at ^athe proper time. ^fHe who is ^bthe blessed and ^conly Sovereign, ^dthe King of ²kings and ^eLord of ³lords;

16 ^awho alone possesses immortality and ^bdwells in unapproachable light; ^cwhom no man has seen or can see. ^f[To Him be honor and eternal dominion! Amen.]

17 Instruct those who are rich in ^athis present world ^bnot to be conceited or to ^cfix their hope on the uncertainty of riches, but on God, ^dwho richly supplies us with all things to enjoy.

18 Instruct them to do good, to be rich in ^agood ¹works, ^bto be generous and ready to share, 19 ^astoring up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may ^btake hold of that which is life indeed.

20 O ^aTimothy, ^bguard ^cwhat has been entrusted to you, avoiding ^cworldly and empty chatter and the opposing arguments of what is falsely called 'knowledge'—

21 which some have professed and thus ^agone astray ¹from ^bthe faith.

^cGrace be with you.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TIMOTHY

Salutation. Timothy Charged to Guard His Trust.

PAUL, ^aan apostle of ^bChrist Jesus ^{1c}by the will of God, according to the promise of ^dlife in Christ Jesus,

2 to ^aTimothy, my beloved ^{1b}son: ^cGrace, mercy and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 ^aI thank God, whom I ^bserve with a ^cclear conscience ¹the way my forefathers did, ^{das} I constantly remember you in my ²prayers night and day,

4 ^alonging to see you, ^beven as I recall your tears, so that I may be filled with joy.

5 ¹For I am mindful of the ^asincere faith within you, which first dwelt in your grandmother Lois, and ^byour mother Eunice, and I am sure that it is in you as well.

6 And for this reason I remind you to kindle afresh ^athe gift of God which is in you through ^athe laying on of my hands.

7 For God has not given us a ^aspirit of timidity, but of power and love and ¹discipline.

8 Therefore ^ado not be ^ashamed of the ^btestimony of our Lord, or of me ^cHis prisoner; but join with me in ^dsuffering for the ^egospel according to the power of God;

9 who has ^asaved us, and ^bcalled us with a holy ^ccalling, ^dnot according to our works, but ^aaccording to His own ^bpurpose; and grace which was granted us in ^cChrist Jesus from ¹all eternity,

10 but ^anow has been revealed by the ^bappearing of our Savior ^cChrist Jesus, who ^dabolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel,

11 ^afor which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle and a teacher.

12 For this reason I also suffer these things, but ^aI am not ashamed; for I know ^bwhom I have believed and I am convinced that He is able to ^cguard what I have entrusted to Him ¹until ^dthat day.

13 ^{1a}Retain the ^bstandard of ^csound words ^dwhich you have heard from me, in the ^efaith and love which are in ^fChrist Jesus.

14 Guard through the Holy Spirit who ^adwells in us, the ^{1b}treasure which has been entrusted to you.

15 You are aware of the fact that all who are in ^{1a}Asia ^bturned away from me, among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes.

16 The Lord grant mercy to ^athe house of Onesiphorus for he often refreshed me, and ^bwas not ashamed of my ^{1c}chains;

17 but when he was in Rome, he eagerly searched for me, and found me—

18 the Lord grant to him to find mercy from the Lord on ^athat day—and you know very well what services he rendered at ^bEphesus.

CHAPTER 2

YOU therefore, my ¹son, ^bbe strong in the grace that is in ^cChrist Jesus.

2 And the things ^awhich you have heard from me in the presence of ^bmany witnesses, these ^centrust to ^dfaithful men, who will be ^eable to teach others also.

3 ^aSuffer hardship with me, as a good ^bsoldier of ^cChrist Jesus.

4 No soldier in active service ^aentangles himself in the affairs of everyday life, so that he may please the one who enlisted him as a soldier.

5 And also if any one ^acompetes as an athlete, he ¹does not win the prize unless he competes according to the rules.

6 ^aThe hard-working farmer ought to be the first to receive his share of the crops.

7 Consider what I say, for the Lord will give you understanding in everything.

8 Remember Christ, ^arisen from the dead, ^bdescendant of David, ^caccording to my gospel;

9 ¹for which I ^asuffer hardship even to ^bimprisonment as a ^ccriminal, but ^dthe word of God ^eis not imprisoned.

10 For this reason ^aI endure all things for ^bthe sake of those who are chosen, ^cthat they also may obtain the ^dsalvation which is in ^eChrist Jesus and with it ^feternal glory.

11 ^aIt is a trustworthy statement: if you

For ^bif we died with Him, we shall also live with Him;

12 If we endure, ^awe shall also reign with Him;
 If we ¹deny Him, He also will deny us;

13 If we are faithless, ^aHe remains faithful; for ^bHe cannot deny Himself.

14 Remind them of these things, and solemnly ^acharge them in the presence of God not to ^bwrangle about words, which is useless, and leads to the ruin of the hearers.

15 Be diligent to ^apresent yourself approved to God as a workman who does not need to be ashamed, handling accurately ^bthe word of truth.

16 But ^aavoid ^bworldly and empty chatter, for ¹it will lead to further ungodliness,

17 and their ¹talk will spread like ²gangrene. Among them are ^aHymenaeus and Philetus, 18 men who have gone astray from the truth saying that ^athe resurrection has already taken place, and thus they upset ^bthe faith of some.

19 Nevertheless, the ^afirm foundation of God stands, having this ^bseal, "^cThe Lord knows those who are His," and, "^dLet every one who names the name of the Lord abstain from wickedness."

20 Now in a large house there are not only gold and silver vessels, but also vessels of wood and of earthenware, and ^asome to honor and some to dishonor.

21 Therefore, if a man cleanses himself from ^athese things, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, useful to the Master, ^bprepared for every good work.

22 Now ^aflee from youthful lusts, and ^apursue after righteousness, ^bfaith, love and peace, with those who ^ccall on the Lord ^dfrom a pure heart.

23 But refuse foolish and ignorant ^aspeculations, knowing that they ^bproduce ¹quarrels.

24 And ^athe Lord’s bond-servant must not be quarrelsome, but be kind to all, ^bable to teach, patient when wronged,

25 ^awith gentleness correcting those who are in opposition; ^bif perhaps God may grant them repentance leading to ^cthe knowledge of the truth,

26 and they may come to their senses and escape from ^athe snare of the devil, having been ^bheld captive ¹by him to do his will.

CHAPTER 3

BUT realize this, that ^ain the last days difficult times will come.

2 For men will be ^alovers of self, ^blovers of money, ^cboastful, ^darrogant, ^erevilers, ^fdisobedient to parents, ^gungrateful, ^hunholy,

3 ^aunloving, irreconcilable, ^bmalicious gossips, without self-control, brutal, ^{1c}haters of good,

4 ^atreacherous, ^breckless, ^cconceited, ^dlovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God;

5 holding to a ^aform of ^{1b}godliness, although they have ^cdenied its power; and ^davoid such men as these.

6 For among them are those who ^{1a}enter into households and captivate ^bwreak women weighed down with sins, led on by ^cvarious impulses,

7 always learning and never able to ^acome to the ¹knowledge of the truth.

8 And just as ^aJannes and Jambres ^bopposed Moses, so these men also oppose the truth, ^cmen of depraved mind, rejected as regards the faith.

9 But they will not make further progress; for their ^afolly will be obvious to all, ^bas also that of those two came to be.

10 But you ^afollowed my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, ^blove, ¹perseverance, 11 ^apersecutions, ^bsufferings, such as happened to me at ^cAntioch, at ^dIconium and at ^eLystra; what ^fpersecutions I endured, and out of them all ^athe Lord delivered me!

12 And indeed, all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus ^awill be persecuted.

13 But evil men and impostors ^awill proceed from bad to worse, ^bdeceiving and being deceived.

14 You, however, ^acontinue in the things you have learned and become convinced of, knowing from whom you have learned them;

15 and that ^afrom childhood you have known ^bthe sacred writings which are able to ^cgive you the wisdom that leads to ^dsalvation through faith which is in ^eChrist Jesus.

16 ^{1a}All Scripture is ²inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for ³training in righteousness;

17 that ^athe man of God may be adequate, ^bequipped for every good work.

I SOLEMNLY charge you in the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who is to ^bjudge the living and the dead, and by His ^aappearing and His kingdom:

2 ^aPreach ^athe word; be ready in season and out of season; ^breprove, rebuke, exhort, with ¹great ^cpatience and instruction.

3 For ^athe time will come when they will not endure ^bsound doctrine; but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance to their own desires;

4 and ^awill turn away their ears from the truth, and ^bwill turn aside to myths.

5 But you, ^abe sober in all things, ^bendure hardship, do the work of an ^cevangelist, ^dfulfill your ^eministry.

6 For I am already being ^apoured out as a drink offering, and the time of ^bmy departure has come.

7 ^aI have fought the good fight, I have finished ^bthe course, I have kept ^cthe faith;

8 in the future there ^ais laid up for me ^bthe crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on ^cthat day; and not only to me, but also to ^dall who have loved His ^eappearing.

9 ^aMake every effort to come to me soon;

10 for ^aDemas having loved ^bthis present ¹world, has deserted me and gone to ^cThessalonica; Crescens has gone to ^{2d}Galatia, ^eTitus to Dalmatia.

11 ^aOnly ^bLuke is with me. Pick up ^cMark and bring him with you, ^dfor he is useful to me for service.

12 But ^aTychicus I have sent to ^bEphesus.

13 When you come bring the cloak which I left at ^aTroas with Carpus, and the books, especially the parchments.

14 ^aAlexander the coppersmith did me much harm; ^bthe Lord will repay him according to his deeds.

15 Be on guard against him yourself, for he vigorously opposed our ¹teaching.

16 At my first defense no one supported me, but all deserted me; ^amay it not be counted against them.

17 But the Lord stood with me, and ^astrengthened me, in order that through me ^bthe proclamation might ¹be ^cfully accomplished, and that all ^dthe Gentiles might hear; and I was ^edelivered out of ^fthe lion's mouth.

18 The Lord will deliver me from every evil deed, and will ^{1a}bring me safely to His ^bheavenly kingdom; ^cto ²Him be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

19 Greet Prisca and ^aAquila, and ^bthe household of Onesiphorus.

20 ^aErastus remained at ^bCorinth; but Trophimus I left sick at ^cMiletus.

21 ^aMake every effort to come before ^bwinter. Eubulus greets you, also Pudens and Linus and Claudia and all the brethren.

22 ^aThe Lord be with your spirit. ^bGrace be with you.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS

Salutation. Qualifications of an Elder.
Disorderly Teachers to be Reproved.

PAUL, ^aa bond-servant of God, and an ^bapostle of Jesus Christ, ¹for the faith of those ^cchosen of God and ^dthe knowledge of the truth which is ^eaccording to godliness,

2 in ^athe hope of eternal life, which God, ^bwho cannot lie, ^cpromised ^dlong ages ago,

3 but ^aat the proper time manifested, even His word, in ^bthe proclamation ^cwith which I was entrusted ^daccording to the commandment of ^eGod our Savior

4 to ^aTitus, ^bmy true child ¹in a ^ccommon faith: ^dGrace and peace from God the Father and ^eChrist Jesus our Savior

5 For this reason I left you in ^aCrete, that you might set in order what remains, and ^bappoint ^celders in every city as I directed you,

6 namely, ^aif any man be above reproach, the ^bhusband of one wife, having children who believe, not accused of ^cdissipation or ^drebellion.

7 For the ^aoverseer must be above reproach as ^bGod's steward, not ^cself-willed, not quick-tempered, not ^daddicted to wine, not pugnacious, ^enot fond of sordid gain,

8 but ^ahospitable, ^bloving what is good, sensible, just, devout, self-controlled,

9 ^aholding fast the faithful word which is in accordance with the teaching, that he may be able both ^bto exhort ^cin ^dsound doctrine and ^eto refute those who contradict.

10 ^aFor there are many ^brebellious men, ^cempty talkers and deceivers, especially ^dthose of the circumcision, 11 who must be silenced because they are upsetting ^awhole families, teaching ^bthings they should not teach, ^cfor the sake of sordid gain.

12 ^aOne of themselves, a prophet of their own, said, ^b"Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons."

13 This testimony is true. For this cause ^areprove them ^bseverely that they may be ^csound in the faith, 14 not paying attention to Jewish ^amyths and ^bcommandments of men who ^cturn away from the truth.

15 ^aTo the pure, all things are pure; but ^bto those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure, but both their ^cmind and their conscience are defiled.

16 ^aThey profess to know God, but by their deeds they ^bdeny Him, being ^cdetestable and ^ddisobedient, and ^eworthless ^ffor any good deed.

CHAPTER 2

BUT as for you, speak the things which are fitting for ^asound doctrine.

3 Older women likewise are to be reverent in their behavior, ^anot malicious gossips, nor ^benslaved to much wine, teaching what is good,

4 that they may ¹encourage the young women to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 ¹to be sensible, pure, ^aworkers at home, kind, being ^bsubject to their own husbands, ^cthat the word of God may not be dishonored.

6 Likewise urge ^athe young men to be ^{1b}sensible;

7 ¹in all things show yourself to be ^aan example of good deeds, with ¹purity in doctrine, dignified,

8 ¹sound in speech which is beyond reproach, in order ^athat the opponent may be put to shame, having nothing bad to say about us.

9 Urge ^abond-slaves to be subject to their own masters in everything, to be well pleasing, not ¹argumentative,

10 not pilfering, but showing all good faith that they may adorn the doctrine of ^aGod our Savior in every respect.

11 For the grace of God has ^aappeared, ^{1b}bringing salvation to all men,

12 ¹instructing us to deny ungodliness and ^aworldly desires and ^bto live sensibly, righteously and godly ^cin the present age,

13 looking for the blessed hope and the ^aappearing of the glory of ^{1b}our great God and Savior, Christ Jesus;

14 who ^agave Himself for us, ^bthat HE MIGHT REDEEM US FROM EVERY LAWLESS DEED AND ^cPURIFY FOR HIMSELF A ^dPEOPLE FOR HIS OWN POSSESSION, ^ezealous for good deeds.

15 These things speak and ^aexhort and ^areprove with all ¹authority. ^bLet no one disregard you.

CHAPTER 3

^a REMIND them ^bto be subject to rulers, to authorities, to be obedient, to be ^cready for every good deed,

2 to malign no one, ^ato be uncontentious, ^agentle, ^bshowing every consideration for all men.

3 ^aFor we also once were foolish ourselves, ^bdisobedient, ^cdeceived, ^denslaved to ^evarious lusts and pleasures, spending our life in ^fmalice and ^fenvy, hateful, hating one another.

4 But when the ^akindness of ^bGod our Savior and His love for mankind ^cappeared,

5 ^aHe saved us, ^bnot on the basis of deeds which we have done in righteousness, but ^caccording to His mercy, by the ^dwashing of regeneration and ^erenewing by the Holy Spirit,

6 ^awhom He poured out upon us ^brichly through Jesus Christ our Savior,

7 that being justified by His grace we might be made ^aheirs ¹according to the hope of eternal life.

8 ^aThis is a trustworthy statement, and concerning these things I ¹want you to speak confidently, so that those who have ^cbelieved God may be careful to ^dengage in good deeds. These things are good and profitable for a man.

9 But ^ashun ^bfoolish controversies and ^cgenealogies and strife and ^ddisputes about the Law; for they are ^eunprofitable and worthless.

10 ^aReject a ^bfacious man ^cafter a first and second warning,

11 knowing that such a man is ^aperverted and is sinning, being self-condemned.

12 When I send Artemas or ^aTychicus to you, ^bmake every effort to come to me at ^cNicopolis, for I have decided to ^dspend the winter there.

13 ^aDiligently help Zenas the ^blawyer and ^cApollos on their way so that nothing is lacking for them.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON

Salutation. Thanksgiving for Philemon's Love and Fellowship.

^aPAUL, ^{ba} prisoner of ^cChrist Jesus, and ^dTimothy ¹our brother, to Philemon our beloved brother and ^cfellow-worker,

2 and to Apphia ^{1a}our sister, and to ^bArchippus our ^cfellow-soldier, and to ^dthe church in your house:

3 ^aGrace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 ^aI thank my God always, ^bmaking mention of you in my prayers,

5 because I ^ahear of your love, and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the ¹saints;

6 and I pray that the fellowship of your faith may become effective ¹through the ^aknowledge of every good thing which is in ²you ³for Christ's sake.

7 For I have come to have much ^ajoy and comfort in your love, because the ¹hearts of the ²saints have been ^{2b}refreshed through you, brother.

8 Therefore, ^athough I have ¹enough confidence in Christ to order you to do that which is ^bproper,

9 yet for love's sake I rather ^aappeal to you—since I am such a person as Paul ¹the ^baged, and now also ^{ca} a prisoner of ^dChrist Jesus—

10 I ^aappeal to you for my ^bchild, whom I have begotten in my ¹imprisonment, ^{2c}Onesimus, 11 who formerly was useless to you, but now is useful both to you and to me.

12 And I have sent him back to you in person, that is, sending my very heart;

13 whom I wished to keep with me, that in your behalf he might minister to me in my ^{1a}imprisonment for the gospel; that your goodness should not be as it were by compulsion, but of your own free will.

15 For perhaps he was for this reason parted from you for a while, that you should have him back forever,

16 no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

17 If then you regard me a partner, accept him as you would me.

18 But if he has wronged you in any way, or owes you anything, charge that to my account;

19 I, Paul, am writing this with my own hand, I will repay it (blessed I should mention to you that you owe to me even your own self as well).

20 Yes, brother, let me benefit from you in the Lord; refresh my heart in Christ.

21 Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, since I know that you will do even more than what I say.

22 And at the same time also prepare me a lodging; for I hope that through your prayers I shall be given to you.

23 Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you;

GOD, after He spoke long ago to the fathers in the prophets in many portions and in many ways,

2 in these last days has spoken to us in His Son, whom He appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the world.

3 And He is the radiance of His glory and the exact representation of His nature, and upholds all things by the word of His power. When He had made purification of sins, He sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high;

4 having become as much better than the angels, as He has inherited a more excellent name than they.

5 For to which of the angels did He ever say, "THOU ART MY SON, TODAY I HAVE BEGOTTEN THEE"?

And again, "I WILL BE A FATHER TO HIM, AND HE SHALL BE A SON TO ME"?

subject to him. But now ^bwe do not yet see all things subjected to him.

9 But we do see Him who has been ^amade ¹for a little while lower than the angels, namely, Jesus, ^bbecause of the suffering of death; ^ccrowned with glory and honor, that ^dby the grace of God He might ^etaste death ^ffor every one.

10¹ For ^ait was fitting for Him, ^bfor whom are all things, and ^cthrough whom are all things, ^din bringing many sons to glory, ^eto perfect the ^fauthor of their salvation through sufferings.

11 For both He who ¹sanctifies and those who ²are ³sanctified are all ⁴from one Father; for which reason He is not ashamed to call them ⁵brethren.

12 saying,
"I WILL PROCLAIM THY NAME TO MY BRETHREN, IN THE MIDST OF THE ¹CONGREGATION I WILL SING THY PRAISE."

13 And again,
"I WILL PUT MY TRUST IN HIM."

And again,
"¹BEHOLD, I AND THE CHILDREN WHOM GOD HAS GIVEN ME."

14 Since then the children share in ¹flesh and blood, ²He Himself likewise also partook of the same, that ³through death He might render powerless ⁴him who had the power of death, that is, the devil; ⁵and ⁶might deliver those who through ⁷fear of death were subject to slavery all their lives.

16 For assuredly He does not ¹give help to angels, but He gives help to the ²seed of Abraham.

17 Therefore, He ¹had ²to be made like His brethren in all things, that He might ³become a merciful and faithful ⁴high priest in ⁵things pertaining to God, to ⁶make propitiation for the sins of the people.

18 For since He Himself was ¹tempted in that which He has suffered, He is able to come to the aid of those who are tempted.

CHAPTER 3

THEREFORE, ^aholy brethren, partakers of a ^bheavenly calling, ^cconsider Jesus, ^dthe Apostle and ^eHigh Priest of our ^fconfession.

2 ¹He was faithful to Him who ²appointed Him, as ³Moses also was in all ⁴His house.

3 ¹For He has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by just so much as the builder of the house has more honor than the house.

4 For every house is built by someone, but the builder of all things is ¹God.

5 Now ¹Moses was faithful in all His house as ²a servant, ³for a testimony of those things ⁴which were to be spoken later;

6 but ¹Christ was faithful as ²a Son over His house ³whose house we are, ⁴if we hold fast our ⁵confidence and the ⁶boast of our ⁷hope firm until the end.

7 Therefore just as ¹the Holy Spirit says,

8 ^bTODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE, [O.T. - Jehovah / N.F. - Jesus]
^aDO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS AS ¹WHEN THEY PROVOKED ME. [unbelief [denying the presence]]

9 AS IN THE DAY OF TRIAL IN THE WILDERNESS, ^aWHERE YOUR FATHERS TRIED Me BY TESTING Me,
 AND SAW My WORKS FOR ^bFORTY YEARS.

10 ^aTHEREFORE I WAS ANGRY WITH THIS GENERATION, AND SAID, 'THEY ALWAYS GO ASTRAY IN THEIR HEART; AND THEY DID NOT KNOW My WAYS';

11 ^aAS I SWORE IN MY WRATH,
 'THEY SHALL NOT ENTER MY REST.' "

12 ^aTake care, brethren, lest there should be in any one of you an evil, unbelieving heart, in falling away [from] ^bthe living God.

13 But ^aencourage one another day after day, as long as it is still called "Today," lest any one of you be hardened by the ^bdeceitfulness of sin.

14 For we have become partakers of Christ, ^aif we hold fast [the beginning] of our ^bassurance firm until the end;

15 while it is said,
 "TODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE,
 DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS, AS ¹WHEN THEY PROVOKED ME."

16 For who ^aprovoked Him when they had heard? Indeed, ^bdid not all those who came out of Egypt led by Moses?

17 And with whom was He angry for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, ^awhose bodies fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom did He swear ^athat they should not enter His rest; but to those who were ^bdisobedient?

19 And so we see that they were not able to enter because of ^aunbelief.

^aTherefore, let us fear lest, while a promise remains of entering His rest, any one of you should seem to have ^acome short of it.

2 For indeed we have had ^agood news preached to us, just as they also; but ^athe word ¹they heard did not profit them, because ²it was not united by faith in those who heard.

3 ¹For we who have believed enter that rest; just as He has said,

7 He again fixes a certain day, "Today," saying ¹through David after so long a time just ²as has been said before.

"^cTODAY IF YOU HEAR HIS VOICE, DO NOT HARDEN YOUR HEARTS."

8 For ^aif Joshua had given them rest, He would not have ^bspoken of another day after that.

9 There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God.

10 For the one who has entered His rest has himself also ^arested from his works, as ^bGod did from His.

11 Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest; lest anyone fall through following the same ^aexample of ^bdisobedience.

→12 For ¹the word of God is ^bliving and ^cactive and sharper than any two-edged ^dsword, and piercing as far as the division of ^esoul and ^fspirit, of both joints and marrow, and ^gable to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

13 And ^athere is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are ^bopen and laid bare to the eyes of Him with whom we have to do.

14 Since then we have a great ^ahigh priest who has ^bpassed through the heavens, Jesus ^cthe Son of God, let us hold fast our ^dconfession.

→15 For we do not have ^aa high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has been ^btempted in all things as we are, yet ^cwithout sin.

16 Let us therefore ^adraw near with ^bconfidence to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy and may find grace to help in time of need. G. Luse, 1918, p. 102

CHAPTER 5

FOR every high priest taken from among men is appointed on behalf of men in ^bthings pertaining to God in order to ^coffer both gifts and sacrifices ^dfor sins;

2 ¹he can deal gently with the ^bignorant and ^cmisguided, since he himself also is ²beset with weakness;

3 and because of it he is obligated to offer sacrifices ^afor sins, ^bas for the people, so also for himself.

4 And no one takes the honor to himself, but receives it when he is called by God, even ^bas Aaron was.

5 ²So also Christ ^adid not glorify Himself so as to become a ^bhigh priest, but He who ^csaid to Him,

"^dTHOU ART MY SON,
TODAY I HAVE BEGOTTEN THEE";

6 just as He says also in another passage,
"^aTHOU ART A PRIEST FOREVER

ACCORDING TO ^bTHE ORDER OF MELCHIZEDEK."

7 ¹In the days of His flesh, ^awhen He offered up both prayers and supplications with ^bbloud crying and tears to Him who was ^cable to save Him ¹from death, and who was heard because of His ^dpiety,

8 although He was ^aa Son, He learned ^bobedience from the things which He suffered;

9 and having been made ^aperfect; He became to all those who obey Him the source of eternal salvation;

10 being designated by God as ^aa high priest according to ^bthe order of Melchizedek.

11 Concerning ¹him we have much to say, and it is hard to explain, since you have become dull of hearing.

12 For though ¹by this time you ought to be teachers, you have need again for some one to teach you ^athe ²elementary principles of the oracles of God, and you have come to need ^amilk and not solid food.

13 For every one who partakes only of milk is not accustomed to the word of righteousness, for he is a ^ababbe.

14 But solid food is for ^athe mature, who because of practice have their senses ^btrained) to ^cdiscern good and evil.

CHAPTER 6

THEREFORE ^aleaving ^bthe ¹elementary teaching about the ²Christ, let us press on to ³maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from ^ddead works and of faith toward God,

2 of ^ainstruction about ^cwashings, and ^dlaying on of hands, and the ^eresurrection of the dead, and ^feternal judgment.

3 And this we shall do, if God permits.

4 For in the case of those who have ¹once been ^aenlightened and have ²tasted of ^bthe heavenly gift and have been ^cmade ^dpartakers of the Holy Spirit,

5 and ^ahave ^btasted the good ^cword of God and the powers of ^dthe age to come,

6 and then have fallen away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance; ¹since they again ²crucify to themselves the Son of God, and put Him to open shame.

7 For ground that drinks the rain which often ¹falls upon it and brings forth vegetation useful to those ^afor whose sake it is also tilled, receives a ^bblessing from God;

8 but if it yields thorns and thistles, it is worthless and ^aclose ¹to being cursed, and ^bitself ends up being burned.

9 But, ¹beloved, we are convinced of better things concerning you, and things that ¹accompany salvation, though we are speaking in this way.

10 For ^aGod is not unjust so as to forget ^byour work and the love which you have shown toward His name, in having ^cministered and in still ministering to the ¹saints.

11 And we desire that each one of you show the same diligence ¹so as to realize the ^afull assurance of ^bhope until the end,

12 that you may not be sluggish, but ^aimitators of those who through ^bfaith and patience ^cinherit the promises.

13 For ^awhen God made the promise to Abraham, since He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself, saying, "I WILL SURELY BLESS YOU, AND I WILL SURELY MULTIPLY YOU."

15 And thus, ^ahaving patiently waited, he obtained the promise.

16 ^aFor men swear by one greater than themselves, and with them ^ban oath ^cgiven as confirmation is an end of every dispute.

CHAPTER 7

FOR this ^aMelchizedek, king of Salem, priest of the ^bMost High God, who met Abraham as he was returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,

2 to whom also Abraham apportioned a tenth part of all ~~the spoils~~, was first of all, by the translation of ~~his name~~, king of righteousness, and then also king of Salem, which is king of peace.

3 Without father, without mother, ^awithout genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like ^bthe Son of God, he abides a priest perpetually.

4 Now observe how great this man was to whom Abraham, the ^apatriarch, gave a tenth of the choicest spoils.

5 And those indeed of ^athe sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have commandment ¹in the Law to collect ²a tenth from the people, that is, from their brethren, although these ³are descended from Abraham.

6 But the one ^awhose genealogy is not traced from them ^bcollected ¹a tenth from Abraham, and blessed the one who ^chad the promises.

7 But without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater.

8 And in this case mortal men receive tithes, but in that case one receives them, ^aof whom it is witnessed that he lives on.

9 And, so to speak, through Abraham even Levi, who received tithes, paid tithes.

10 for he was still in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.

11 ^aNow if perfection was through the Levitical priesthood (for on the basis of it ^bthe people received the Law), what further need was there for another priest to arise ^caccording to the order of Melchizedek, and not be designated according to the order of Aaron?

12 For when the priesthood is changed, of necessity there takes place a change of law also.

13 For ^athe one concerning whom ^bthese things are spoken belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar.

14 For it is evident that our Lord ¹was ^adescended from Judah, a tribe with reference to which Moses spoke nothing concerning priests.

15 And this is clearer still, if [another] priest arises according to the likeness of Melchizedek, [et cetera; continue]

16 who has become such not on the basis of a law of physical requirement, but according to the power of an indestructible life.

17 For it is witnessed of Him,
"A THOU ART A PRIEST FOREVER

ACCORDING TO THE ORDER OF MELCHIZEDEK."

18 For, on the one hand, there is a setting aside of a former commandment because of its weakness and uselessness

19 (for the Law made nothing perfect), and on the other hand there is a bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God.

20 And inasmuch as it was not without an oath

21 (for they indeed became priests without an oath) but He with an oath through the One who said to Him,

"THE LORD HAS SWORN AND WILL NOT CHANGE HIS MIND,
"THOU ART A PRIEST FOREVER";

22 so much the more also Jesus has become the guarantee of a better covenant.

23 And the former priests, on the one hand, existed in greater numbers, because they were prevented by death from continuing,

24 but He, on the other hand, because He abides forever, holds His priesthood permanently.

25 Hence also He is able to save forever those who draw near to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them.

26 For it was fitting that we should have such a high priest, holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners and exalted above the heavens;

27 who does not need daily, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices, first for His own sins, and then for the sins of the people, because this He did once for all when He offered up Himself.

28 For the Law appoints men as high priests who are weak, but the word of the oath, which came after the Law, appoints a Son, made perfect forever.

CHAPTER 8

NOW the main point in what has been said is this: we have such a high priest, who has taken His seat at the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,

2 a minister in the sanctuary, and in the true tabernacle; which the Lord pitched, not man.

3 For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices; hence it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer.

4 Now if He were on earth, He would not be a priest at all, since there are those who offer the gifts according to the Law;

5 who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, just as Moses is warned by God when he was about to erect the ¹tabernacle; for, "dSEE," He says, "THAT YOU MAKE ALL THINGS ACCORDING TO THE PATTERN WHICH WAS SHOWN YOU ON THE MOUNTAIN."

6 But now He has obtained a more excellent ministry, by as much as He is also the ^amediator of ^ba better covenant, which has been enacted on better promises.

7 For ^aif that first covenant had been faultless, there would have been no occasion sought for a second.

8 For finding fault with them He says, "aBEHOLD, DAYS ARE COMING, SAYS THE LORD, WHEN I WILL EFFECT ^bA NEW COVENANT WITH THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL AND WITH THE HOUSE OF JUDAH;

9 ^aNOT LIKE THE COVENANT WHICH I MADE WITH THEIR FATHERS

ON THE DAY WHEN I ^bTOOK THEM BY THE HAND TO LEAD THEM OUT OF THE LAND OF EGYPT; FOR THEY DID NOT CONTINUE IN MY COVENANT, AND I DID NOT CARE FOR THEM, SAYS THE LORD.

10 ^aFOR ^bTHIS IS THE COVENANT THAT I WILL MAKE WITH THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL.

AFTER THOSE DAYS, SAYS THE LORD: I WILL PUT MY LAWS INTO THEIR MINDS, AND I WILL WRITE THEM ^cUPON THEIR HEARTS. AND I WILL BE THEIR GOD, AND THEY SHALL BE MY PEOPLE.

11 ^aAND THEY SHALL NOT TEACH EVERY ONE HIS FELLOW-CITIZEN, AND EVERY ONE HIS BROTHER, SAYING, 'KNOW THE LORD,' FOR ^bALL SHALL KNOW ME, FROM THE LEAST TO THE GREATEST OF THEM.

12 ^aFOR I WILL BE MERCIFUL TO THEIR INIQUITIES, ^bAND I WILL REMEMBER THEIR SINS NO MORE."

13 ¹When He said, "aA new covenant," He has made the first obsolete. ^bBut whatever is becoming obsolete and growing old is ²ready to disappear.

CHAPTER 9

NOW even the first covenant had ^aregulations of divine worship and ^bthe earthly sanctuary.

2 For there was ^aa ¹tabernacle prepared, the ²outer one, in which were ^bthe lampstand and ^cthe table and ^dthe ³sacred bread; this is called the holy place.

3 And behind ^athe second veil, there was a ¹tabernacle which is called the ^bHoly of Holies,

4 having a golden ¹altar of incense and ^bthe ark of the covenant covered on all sides with gold, in which was ^aa golden jar holding the manna, and ^dAaron's rod which budded, and ^cthe tables of the covenant.

5 And above it were the ^acherubim of glory ^bovershadowing the mercy seat; but of these things we cannot now speak in detail.

6 Now when these things have been thus prepared, the priests ^aare continually entering ^bthe ¹outer ²tabernacle, performing the divine worship,

The Blood of the New Covenant.
Superior to the Old.

7 but into ^athe second only ^bthe high priest enters, ^conce a year, ^dnot without taking blood, which he ^eoffers for himself and for the ^fsins of the people committed in ignorance.

8 ^aThe Holy Spirit ^bsignifying this, ^cthat the way into the holy place has not yet been disclosed, while the ^douter tabernacle is still standing;

9 which ^ais a symbol for the time ^bthen present, according to which both gifts and sacrifices are ^coffered which cannot ^dmake the worshiper perfect ^ein conscience;

10 since they ^arelate only to ^bfood and ^cdrink and various ^dwashings, ^eregulations for the ^fbody imposed until ^ga time of reformation!

11 But when Christ appeared ^aas a ^bhigh priest of the ^cgood things ^dto come, He entered through ^ethe greater and more perfect ^ftabernacle; ^gnot made with hands, that is to say, ^hnot of this creation;

12 and not through ^athe blood of goats and calves, but ^bthrough His own blood; ^cHe ^dentered the holy place ^eonce for all, ^fhaving obtained ^geternal redemption.

13 For if ^athe blood of goats and bulls and ^bthe ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify for the ^ccleansing of the flesh;

14 how much more will ^athe blood of Christ, who through ^bthe eternal Spirit ^coffered Himself without blemish to God, ^dcleanse ^eyour conscience from ^fdead works to serve ^gthe living God?

15 And for this reason ^aHe is the ^bmediator of a ^cnew covenant, in order that since a death has taken place for the ^dredemption of the transgressions that were ^ecommitted under the first covenant, those who have been ^fcalled may ^greceive the promise of ^hthe eternal inheritance.

16 For where a ^acovenant is, there must of necessity ^bbe the death of the one who made it.

17 For a ^acovenant is valid ^bonly when ^cmen are dead, ^dfor it is never in force while the one who made it lives.

18 Therefore even the first ^acovenant was not inaugurated without blood.

19 For when every commandment had been ^aspoken by Moses to all the people according to the Law, ^bhe took the ^cblood of the calves and the goats, with ^dwater and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both ^ethe book itself and all the people,

20 saying, "THIS IS THE BLOOD OF THE COVENANT WHICH GOD COMMANDED YOU."

21 And in the same way he sprinkled both the ^atabernacle and all the vessels of the ministry with ^bthe blood!

22 And according to the ^aLaw, ^bone may ^calmost say, all things are cleansed with blood; and ^dwithout shedding of blood there is no forgiveness!

23 Therefore it was necessary for the ^acopies of the things in the heavens to be cleansed with these, but ^bthe heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ ^adid not enter a holy place made with hands, a ^bmere copy of ^cthe true one, but into ^dheaven itself, now ^eto appear in the presence of God ^ffor us;

25 nor was it that He should offer Himself often, as ^athe high priest enters ^bthe holy place ^ayear by year with blood not his own.

26 Otherwise, He would have needed to suffer often since ^athe foundation of the world; but now ^bonce at ^cthe consummation He has been ^dmanifested to put away sin ^{1b}by the sacrifice of Himself.

27 And inasmuch as ^ait is ^{1a}appointed for men to die once, and after this ^bcomes judgment;

28 so Christ also, having been ^aoffered once to ^bbear the sins of many, shall appear ^aa second time, ^{1d}not to bear sin, to those who ^ceagerly await Him, for ^fsalvation.

CHAPTER 10

FOR the Law, since it has ^aonly ^aa shadow of ^bthe good things to come ^{and} not the very ^{1b}form of things, ^{2c}can ^cnever by the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, ^dmake perfect those who draw near.

2 Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered, because the worshipers, having once been cleansed, would no longer have had ^aconsciousness of sins?

3 But ^ain ¹those sacrifices there is a reminder of sins year by year.

4 For it is ^aimpossible for the ^bblood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

5 Therefore, ^awhen He comes into the world, He says, "SACRIFICE AND OFFERING THOU HAST NOT DESIRED,

BUT ^aA BODY THOU HAST PREPARED FOR ME;

6 ^aIN WHOLE BURNT OFFERINGS AND sacrifices FOR SIN THOU HAST TAKEN NO PLEASURE.

7 "THEN I SAID, 'BEHOLD, I HAVE COME (IN ^bTHE ROLL OF THE BOOK IT IS WRITTEN OF ME) TO DO THY WILL, O GOD.'

8 After saying above, "SACRIFICES AND OFFERINGS AND ^bWHOLE BURNT OFFERINGS ~~AND~~ sacrifices ^cFOR SIN THOU HAST NOT DESIRED, NOR HAST THOU TAKEN PLEASURE in them" (which are offered according to the Law),

9 then He said, "BEHOLD, I HAVE COME TO DO THY WILL." He takes away the ¹first in order to establish the ²second.

10 By ¹this will we have been ^asanctified through ^bthe offering of ^cthe body of Jesus Christ ^donce for all.

11 And every priest stands daily ministering and ^aoffering time after time the same sacrifices, which ^bcan never take away sins;

12 but He, having offered one sacrifice ^afor ¹sins ^bfor all time, ^csat down at the right hand of God, 13 waiting from that time onward ^aUNTIL HIS ENEMIES BE MADE A FOOTSTOOL FOR HIS FEET.

14 For by one offering He has ^aperfected ^bfor all time those who are ¹sanctified.

15 And ^athe Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying,

16 "THIS IS THE COVENANT THAT I WILL MAKE WITH THEM AFTER THOSE DAYS, SAYS THE LORD: I WILL PUT MY LAWS UPON THEIR HEART, AND UPON THEIR MIND I WILL WRITE THEM,"

He then says,

17 "AND THEIR SINS AND THEIR LAWLESS DEEDS

I WILL REMEMBER NO MORE."

18 Now where there is forgiveness of these things, there is no longer any offering for sin.

19 Since therefore, brethren, we have confidence to enter the holy place by the blood of Jesus,

20 by a new and living way which He inaugurated for us through the veil, that is, His flesh,

21 and since we have a great priest over the house of God,

22 let us draw near with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our body washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering, for He who promised is faithful;

24 and let us consider how to stimulate one another to love and good deeds,

25 not forsaking our own assembling together, as is the habit of some but encouraging one another; and all the more, as you see the day drawing near.

26 For if we go on sinning willfully after receiving the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins, 27 but a certain terrifying expectation of judgment, and the fury of a fire which will consume the adversaries.

28 Anyone who has set aside the Law of Moses dies without mercy on the testimony of two or three witnesses.

29 How much severer punishment do you think he will deserve who has trampled under foot the Son of God, and has regarded as unclean the blood of the covenant by which he was sanctified, and has insulted the Spirit of grace?

30 For we know Him who said, "VENGEANCE IS MINE, I WILL REPAY." And again, "THE LORD WILL JUDGE HIS PEOPLE."

31 It is a terrifying thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

32 But remember the former days, when, after being enlightened, you endured a great conflict of sufferings, 33 partly, by being made a public spectacle through reproaches and tribulations, and partly by becoming sharers with those who were so treated.

34 For you showed sympathy to the prisoners, and accepted joyfully the seizure of your property, knowing that you have for yourselves a better possession and an abiding one.

35 Therefore, do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward.

36 For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God, you may receive what was promised.

37 FOR YET IN A VERY LITTLE WHILE,

HE WHO IS COMING WILL COME, AND WILL NOT DELAY.

38 BUT MY RIGHTEOUS ONE SHALL LIVE BY FAITH;

AND IF HE SHRINKS BACK, MY SOUL HAS NO PLEASURE IN HIM.

39 But we are not of those who shrink back to destruction, but of those who have faith to the preserving of the soul.

Now faith is the ¹assurance of things ^bhoped for, the ²conviction of ^cthings not seen.

2 For by it the ^amen of old ^bgained approval.

3 By faith we understand that the ¹worlds were prepared by the ²sword of God; so that what is seen ^dwas not made out of ^ethings which are visible.

4 By faith ^aAbel offered to God a better sacrifice than Cain, through which he ^bobtained the testimony that he was righteous, God testifying ¹about his ^cgifts, and through ²faith, though ^dhe is dead, he still speaks.

5 By faith ^aEnoch was taken up so that he should not ^bsee death; and he was not found because God took him up; for he obtained the witness that before his being taken up he was pleasing to God.

6 And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who ^acomes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.

7 By faith ^aNoah, being ^bwarned by God about ^cthings not yet seen, ^din reverence ^eprepared an ark for the salvation of his household, by which he condemned the world, and became an heir of ^fthe righteousness which is according to faith.

8 By faith ^aAbraham, when he was called, obeyed by going out to a place which he was to ^breceive for an inheritance; and he went out, not knowing where he was going.

9 By faith he lived as an alien in ^athe land of promise, as in a foreign land, ^bdwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, ^cfellow-heirs of the same promise;

10 for he was looking for ^athe city which has ^bfoundations, whose architect and builder is God.

11 By faith even ^aSarah herself received ^bability to conceive, even beyond the proper time of life, since she considered Him ^bfaithful who had promised;

12 therefore also there was born of one man, and ^ahim as good as dead ¹at that, as many descendants ^bAS THE STARS OF HEAVEN IN NUMBER, AND INNUMERABLE AS THE SAND WHICH IS BY THE SEASHORE.

13 ^aAll these died in faith, ^bwithout receiving the promises, but ^chaving seen them and having welcomed them from a distance, and ^dhaving confessed that they were strangers and exiles on the earth.

14 For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a country of their own.

15 And indeed if they had been ¹thinking of that country from which they went out, ^athey would have had opportunity to return.

16 But as it is, they desire a better country, that is a ^aheavenly one. Therefore ^bGod is not ¹ashamed to be ^ccalled their God; for ^dHe has prepared a city for them.

17 By faith ^aAbraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac; and he who had ^breceived the promises was offering up his only begotten son;

18 it was he to whom it was said, ^a"IN ISAAC YOUR SEED SHALL BE CALLED."

19 ¹He considered that ^aGod is able to raise men even from the dead; from which he also received him back ²as a ^btype.

20 By faith ^aIsaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even regarding things to come.

21 By faith ^aJacob, as he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and ^bworshiped, leaning on the top of his staff.

22 By faith ^aJoseph, when he was dying, made mention of the exodus of the sons of Israel, and gave orders concerning his bones.

23 By faith ^aMoses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw he was a beautiful child; and they were not afraid of the ^bking's edict.

24 By faith Moses, ^awhen he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;

25 choosing rather to ^aendure ill-treatment with the people of God, than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin;

26 ^aconsidering the reproach of ¹Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he was looking to the ^breward.

27 By faith he ^aleft Egypt, not ^bfearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as ^cseeing Him who is unseen.

28 By faith he ^akept the Passover and the sprinkling of the blood, so that ^dhe who destroyed the first-born might not touch them.

29 By faith they ^apassed through the Red Sea as though they were passing through dry land; and the Egyptians, when they attempted it, were ¹drowned.

30 By faith ^athe walls of Jericho fell down, ^bafter they had been encircled for seven days.

31 By faith ^aRahab the harlot did not perish along with those who were disobedient, after she had welcomed the spies ¹in peace.

32 And what more shall I say? For time will fail me if I tell of ^aGideon, ^bBarak, ^cSamson, ^dJephthah; of ^eDavid and ^fSamuel and the prophets;

33 who by faith ^aconquered kingdoms, ^bperformed acts of righteousness, ^cobtained promises, ^dshut the mouths of lions,

34 ^aquenched the power of fire, ^bescaped the edge of the sword, ^cfrom weakness were made strong, ^dbecame mighty in war, ^eput foreign armies to flight.

35 ^aWomen received back their dead by resurrection; and others were tortured, not accepting their ¹release, in order that they might obtain a better resurrection;

36 and others ¹experienced mockings and scourings, yes, also ^achains and imprisonment.

37 They were ^astoned, they were ^bsawn in two, ¹they were tempted, they were ^cput to death with the sword; they went about ^din sheepskins, in goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, ^eill-treated 38 (men of whom the world was not worthy), ^awandering in deserts and mountains and caves and holes ¹in the ground.

39 And all these, having ¹gained approval through their faith, ^bdid not receive ²what was promised,

40 because God had ¹provided ^asomething better for us, so that ^bapart from us they should not be made perfect.

THEREFORE, since we have so great a cloud of witnesses surrounding us, let ^aus also ^blay aside every encumbrance, and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us ^crun with ^dendurance the race that is set before us,

² ¹fixing our eyes on Jesus the ^{2a}author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy set before Him ^bendured the cross, ^cdespising the shame, and has ^dsat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

³ For ^aconsider Him who has endured such hostility by sinners against Himself, so that you may not grow weary ^{1b}and lose heart.

⁴ ^aYou have not yet resisted ^{1b}to the point of shedding blood, in your striving against sin;

⁵ and you have forgotten the exhortation which is addressed to you as sons,

“^aMY SON, DO NOT REGARD LIGHTLY THE DISCIPLINE OF THE LORD,

NOR ^bFAINT WHEN YOU ARE REPROVED BY HIM;

⁶ ^aFOR THOSE ^bWHOM THE LORD LOVES HE DISCIPLINES, AND HE SCOURGES EVERY SON WHOM HE RECEIVES.”

⁷ It is for discipline that you endure; ^aGod deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline?

⁸ But if you are without discipline, ^aof which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate children and not sons.

⁹ Furthermore, we had ¹earthly fathers to discipline us, and we ^arespected them; shall we not much rather be subject to ^bthe Father of ²spirits, and ^clive?

¹⁰ For they ¹disciplined us for a short time as seemed best to them, but He disciplines us for our good, ^athat we may share His holiness.

¹¹ All discipline ^afor the moment seems not to be joyful, but sorrowful; yet to those who have been trained by it, afterwards it yields the ^bpeaceful fruit of righteousness.

¹² Therefore, ^{1a}strengthen the hands that are weak and the knees that are feeble, ¹³ and ^amake straight paths for your feet, so that the limb which is lame may not be put out of joint, but rather ^bbe healed.

¹⁴ ^aPursue after peace with all men, and after the ^bsanctification without which no one will ^csee the Lord.

¹⁵ See to it that no one ^acomes short of the grace of God; that no ^broot of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by it may be ^cdefiled;

¹⁶ that there be no ^aimmoral or ^bgodless person like Esau, ^cwho sold his own birthright for a single meal.

¹⁷ For you know that even afterwards, ^awhen he desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for repentance, though he sought for it with tears.

¹⁸ ^aFor you have not come ¹to ^{ba}a mountain that may be touched and to a blazing fire, and to darkness and gloom and whirlwind,

¹⁹ and to the ^ablast of a trumpet and the ^bsound of words

Contrast Between Sinal and Mount Zion.
Jesus Christ Forever.

Hebrews 12, 13

which sound was such that those who heard ^cbegged that no further word should be spoken to them.

20 For they could not bear the command, "aIF EVEN A BEAST TOUCHES THE MOUNTAIN, IT WILL BE STONED."

21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, "aI AM FULL OF FEAR AND TREMBLING."

22 But ^ayou have come to Mount Zion and to ^bthe city of ^cthe living God, ^dthe heavenly Jerusalem; and to ^emyriads of ^fangels,

23 to the general assembly and ^achurch of the first-born who ^bare enrolled in heaven, and to ^cGod ^dthe Judge of all; and to the ^espirits of righteous men made perfect;

24 and to Jesus the ^amediator of a new covenant and to the ^bsprinkled blood, which speaks better than ^cthe blood of Abel.

25 ^aSee to it that you do not refuse him who is ^bspeaking. For if those ¹did not escape when they ^drefused him who ^ewarned them on earth, much ²less shall we escape who turn away from Him who ^ewarns from heaven.

26 And ^aHis voice shook the earth then, but now He has promised, saying, "bYET ONCE MORE I WILL SHAKE NOT ONLY THE EARTH, BUT ALSO THE HEAVEN."

27 And this expression, "Yet once more," denotes ^athe removing of those things which can be shaken, as of created things, in order that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Therefore, since we receive a ^akingdom which cannot be shaken, let us ¹show gratitude, by which we may ^boffer to God an acceptable service with reverence and awe;

29 for ^aour God is a consuming fire.

CHAPTER 13

LET ^alove of the brethren continue.

2 Do not neglect to ¹show hospitality to strangers, for by this some have ^bentertained angels without knowing it.

3 ^aRemember ^bthe prisoners, as though in prison with them; and those who are ill-treated, since you yourselves also are in the body.

4 ^aLet marriage be held in honor among all, and let the marriage bed be undefiled; ^bfor fornicators and adulterers God will judge.

5 Let your way of life be ^afree from the love of money, ^bbeing content with what you have; for ^cHe Himself has said, "cI WILL NEVER DESERT YOU, NOR WILL I EVER FORSAKE YOU,"

6 so that we confidently say} "aTHE LORD IS MY HELPER, I WILL NOT BE AFRAID.

WHAT SHALL MAN DO TO ME?"

7 Remember ^athose who led you, who spoke ^bthe word of God to you; and considering the ¹outcome of their way of life, ^cimitate their faith.

THE EPISTLE OF JAMES

Address and Greeting. Pray in Faith.
Rejoice in Lowliness.
Temptation not from God.

^{1a}JAMES, a ^bbond-servant of God and ^cof the Lord Jesus Christ, to ^dthe twelve tribes who are ^{2e}dispersed abroad, ^fgreetings.

2 ^aConsider it all joy, my brethren, when you encounter ^bvarious ¹trials;

3 knowing that ^athe testing of your ^bfaith produces ^{1c}endurance.

4 And let ^{1a}endurance have its perfect ²result, that you may be ^{3b}perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

5 But if any of you ^alacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all men generously and ¹without reproach, and ^bit will be given to him.

6 But let him ^aask in faith ^bwithout any doubting, for the one who doubts is like the surf of the sea ^cdriven and tossed by the wind.

7 For let not that man expect that he will receive anything from the Lord,

8 being a ^{1a}double-minded man, ^bunstable in all his ways.

9 ^aBut let the ¹brother of humble circumstances glory in his high position;

10 and let the rich man ^aglory in his humiliation, because ^alike ¹flowering grass he will pass away.

11 For the sun rises with ^{1a}a scorching wind, and ^bwithers the grass; and its flower falls off, and the beauty of its appearance is destroyed; so too the rich man in the midst of his pursuits will fade away.

12 ^aBlessed is a man who perseveres under trial; for once he has ^{1b}been approved, he will receive ^bthe crown of life, which the Lord ^chas promised to those who ^dlove Him.

13 Let no one say when he is tempted, "I am being tempted ^{1b}by God"; for God cannot be tempted ^{2b}by evil, and He Himself does not tempt any one.

14 But each one is tempted when he is carried away and enticed by his own lust.

15 Then ^awhen lust has conceived, it gives birth to sin; and when ^bsin is accomplished, it brings forth death.

16 ^aDo not be deceived, ^bmy beloved brethren.

17 Every good thing bestowed and every perfect gift is ^afrom above, coming down from ^bthe Father of lights, ^cwith whom there is no variation, or ¹shifting shadow.

18 In the exercise of ^aHis will He ^bbrought us forth by ^cthe word of truth, so that we might be ^{1a}as it were the ^dfirst fruits ²among His creatures.

19 ¹This ^ayou know, ^bmy beloved brethren. But let every one be quick to hear, ^cslow to speak and ^dslow to anger;

20 for ^athe anger of man does not achieve the righteousness of God.

21 Therefore ^aputting aside all filthiness and all ¹that remains of wickedness, in ²humility receive ^bthe word implanted, which is able to save your souls.

22 ^aBut prove yourselves doers of the word, and not merely hearers who delude themselves.

23 For if any one is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his ¹natural face ^ain a mirror;

24 for once he has looked at himself and gone away, ¹he has immediately forgotten what kind of person he was.

25 But one who looks intently at the perfect law, ^athe law of liberty and abides by it, not having become a forgetful hearer but ¹an effectual doer, this man shall be ^bblessed in ²what he does.

26 If any one thinks himself to be religious, and yet does not ^abridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is worthless.

27 This is pure and undefiled religion ^ain the sight of our God and Father, to ^bvisit ^corphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained ¹by ^dthe world.

CHAPTER 2

MY brethren, ^bdo not hold your faith in our ^cglorious Lord Jesus Christ with an attitude of ^dpersonal favoritism.

2 For if a man comes into your ¹assembly with a gold ring and dressed in ²fine clothes, and there also comes in a poor man in ^bdirty clothes,

3 and you ¹pay special attention to the one who is wearing the ^afine clothes, and say, "You sit here in a good place," and you say to the poor man, "You stand over there, or sit down by my footstool";

4 have you not made distinctions among yourselves, and become judges ^awith evil ¹motives?

5 Listen, ^amy beloved brethren: did not ^bGod choose the poor ¹of this world to be ^crich in faith and ^dheirs of the kingdom which He ^epromised to those who love Him?

6 But you have dishonored the poor man. Is it not the rich who oppress you and ¹personally ^adrag you into ²court?

7 ^aDo they not blaspheme the fair name ¹by which you have been called?

8 If, however, you ^aare fulfilling the ¹royal law, according to the Scripture, "^bYOU SHALL LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR AS YOURSELF," you are doing well.

9 But if you ^ashow partiality, you are committing sin and are ^bconvicted by the ¹law as transgressors.

10 For whoever keeps the whole ¹law and yet ^astumbles in one point, he has become ^bguilty of all.

11 For He who said, "^aDO NOT COMMIT ADULTERY," also said, "^bDO NOT COMMIT MURDER." Now if you do not commit adultery, but do commit murder, you have become a transgressor of the ¹law.

12 So speak and so act, as those who are to be judged by ^athe law of liberty.

13 For ^ajudgment will be merciless to one who has shown no mercy; mercy ¹triumphs over judgment.

Faith and Works. The Tongue Is a Fire.

14 ^aWhat use is it, ^bmy brethren, if a man says he has faith, but he has no works? Can ¹that faith save him?

15 ^aIf a brother or sister is without clothing and in need of daily food,

16 and one of you says to them, “^aGo in peace, be warmed and be filled”; and yet you do not give them what is necessary for their body; what use is that?

17 Even so ^afaith, if it has no works, is dead, being by itself.

18 ^aBut someone ¹may well say, “You have faith, and I have works; show me your ^bfaith without the works, and I will ^cshow you my faith ^dby my works.”

19 You believe that ^{1a}God is one. ^bYou do well; ^cthe demons also believe, and shudder.

20 But are you willing to recognize, ^ayou foolish fellow, that ^bfaith without works is useless?

21 ^aWas not Abraham our father justified by works, when he offered up Isaac his son on the altar?

22 You see that ^afaith was working with his works, and ¹as a result of the ^bworks, faith was ²perfected;

23 and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, “^aAND ABRAHAM BELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS RECKONED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS,” and he was called ^bthe friend of God.

24 You see that a man is justified by works, and not by faith alone.

25 And in the same way was not ^aRahab the harlot also justified by works, ^bwhen she received the messengers and sent them out by another way?

26 For just as the body without the spirit is dead, so also ^afaith without works is dead.

CHAPTER 3

^aLET not many of you become teachers, ^bmy brethren, knowing that as such we shall incur a ¹stricter judgment.

2 For we all ^astumble in many ways. ^bIf any one does not stumble in ¹what he says, he is a ^cperfect man, able to ^dbridle the whole body as well.

3 Now ^aif we put the bits into the horses' mouths so that they may obey us, we direct their entire body as well.

4 Behold, the ships also, though they are so great and are driven by strong winds, are still directed by a very small rudder, wherever the inclination of the pilot desires.

5 So also the tongue is a small part of the body, and yet it ^aboasts of great things. ^bBehold, how great a forest is set aflame by such a small fire!

6 And ^athe tongue is a fire, the very world of iniquity; the tongue is set among our members as that which ^bdefiles the entire body, and sets on fire the course of our ¹life, and is set on fire by ²hell.

7 For every ¹species of beasts and birds, of reptiles and creatures of the sea, is tamed, and has been tamed by the human ¹race.

11 Does a fountain send out from the same opening both ¹fresh and bitter water?

12 ^aCan a fig tree, my brethren, produce olives, or a vine produce figs? Neither can salt water produce ¹fresh.

13 Who among you is wise and understanding? ^aLet him show by his ^bgood behavior his deeds in the gentleness of wisdom.

14 But if you have bitter ^ajealousy and ¹selfish ambition in your heart, do not be arrogant and so lie against ^bthe truth.

15 This wisdom is not that which comes down ^afrom above, but is ^bearthly, ^{1c}natural, ^ddemonic.

16 For where ^ajealousy and ¹selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every evil thing.

17 But the wisdom ^afrom above is first ^bpure, then ^cpeaceable, ^dgentle, ^ereasonable, ^ffull of mercy and good fruits, ^gunwavering, without ^hhypocrisy.

18 And the ^{1a}seed whose fruit is righteousness is sown in peace ^{2b}by those who make peace.

CHAPTER 4

WHAT is the source of quarrels and ^aconflicts among you? ²Is not the source your pleasures that wage ^bwar in your members?

2 You lust and do not have; so you ^acommit murder. And you are envious and cannot obtain; so you fight and quarrel. You do not have because you do not ask.

3 You ask and do not receive, because you ask ¹with wrong motives, so that you may spend it ²on your pleasures.

4 You ^aadulteresses, do you not know that friendship with ^bthe world is ^chostility toward God? ^dTherefore whoever wishes to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.

5 Or do you think that the Scripture ^aspeaks to no purpose: “¹He ²jealously desires ^bthe spirit which He has made to dwell in us”?

6 But ^aHe gives a greater grace. Therefore it says, “^bGOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD, BUT GIVES GRACE TO THE HUMBLE.”

7 ^aSubmit therefore to God. ^bResist the devil and he will flee from you.

8 ^aDraw near to God and He will draw near to you. ^bCleanse your hands, you sinners; and ^cpurify your hearts, you ^ddouble-minded.

9 ^aBe miserable and mourn and weep; let your laughter be turned into mourning, and your joy to gloom.

10 ^aHumble yourselves in the presence of the Lord, and He will exalt you.

11 ^aDo not speak against one another, ^bbrethren. He who speaks against a brother, or ^cjudges his brother, speaks against ^dthe law, and judges the law; but if you judge the law, you are not ^ea doer of the law, but a judge of it.

12 There is only one ^aLawgiver and Judge, the One who is able to save and to destroy; but ^cwho are you who judges your neighbor?

13 ^aCome now, you who say, ^b“Today or tomorrow, we shall go to such and such a city, and spend a year there and engage in business and make a profit.”

14 ¹Yet you do not know ²what your life will be like tomorrow. ^aYou are just a vapor that appears for a little while and then vanishes away.

15 ¹Instead, you ought to say, ^a“If the Lord wills, we shall live and also do this or that.”

16 But as it is, you boast in your ¹arrogance; ^aall such boasting is evil.

17 Therefore, ^ato one who knows the ¹right thing to do, and does not do it, to him it is sin.

CHAPTER 5

^aCOME now, ^byou rich, ^cweep and howl for your miseries which are coming upon you.

2 ^aYour riches have rotted and your garments have become moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and your silver have rusted; and their rust will be a witness against you and will consume your flesh like fire. It is ^ain the Last Days that you have stored up your treasure!

4 Behold, ^athe pay of the laborers who mowed your fields, ^{and} which has been withheld by you, cries out against you; and ^bthe outcry of those who did the harvesting has reached the ears of ^cthe Lord of ¹Sabaoth.

5 You have ^alived luxuriously on the earth and led a life of wanton pleasure; you have ¹fattened your hearts in ^aday of slaughter.

6 You have condemned and ¹aput to death ^bthe righteous man; he does not resist you.

7 Be patient, therefore, ^abrethren, ^buntil the coming of the Lord. ^cBehold, the farmer waits for the precious produce of the soil, being patient about it, until ¹it gets ^dthe early and late rains.

8 ^aYou too be patient; ^bstrengthen your hearts, for ^cthe coming of the Lord is ^dat hand.

9 ^aDo not ¹complain, ^bbrethren, against one another, that you yourselves may not be judged; behold, ^cthe Judge is standing ²right at the ³door.

10 As an example, ^abrethren, of suffering and patience, take ^bthe prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

11 Behold, we count those ^ablessed who endured. You have heard of ^bthe ¹endurance of Job and have seen ^cthe ²outcome of the Lord's dealings, that ^dthe Lord is full of compassion and is merciful.

12 But above all, ^amy brethren, ^bdo not swear, either by heaven or by earth or with any other oath; but ¹let your yes be yes, and your no, no; so that you may not fall under judgment.

13 Is anyone among you ^asuffering? ^bLet him pray. Is anyone cheerful? Let him ^csing praises.

14 Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for ^athe elders of the church, and let them pray over him, ^{1b}anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord;

15 and the ^aprayer ¹offered in faith will ^{2b}restore the one who is sick, and the Lord will ^craise him up, and if he has committed sins, ³they will be forgiven him.

16 Therefore, ^aconfess your sins to one another, and pray for one another, so that you may be ^bhealed. ^cThe effective ¹prayer of a righteous man can accomplish much.

17 Elijah was ^aa man with a nature like ours, and ^bhe prayed ¹earnestly that it might not rain; and it did not rain on the earth for ^cthree years and six months.

18 And he ^aprayed again, and ^bthe ¹sky ²poured rain, and the earth produced its fruit.

19 My brethren, ^aif any among you strays from ^bthe truth, and one turns him back;

20 let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will ^asave his soul from death, and will ^bcover a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PETER

Salutation. Our Living Hope through Christ's Resurrection.

PPETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who reside as ^baliens, ^cscattered throughout ^dPontus, ^eGalatia, ^dCappadocia, ^dAsia, and ^fBithynia, ^gwho are chosen

2 according to the ^aforeknowledge of God the Father, ^bby the sanctifying work of the Spirit, ¹that you may ^cobey Jesus Christ and be ^dsprinkled with His blood: ^eMay grace and peace ²be yours in fullest measure.

3 ^aBlessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who ^baccording to His great mercy ^chas caused us to be born again to ^da living hope through the ^eresurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 to obtain an ^ainheritance which is imperishable and undefiled and ^bwill not fade away, ^creserved in heaven for you,

5 who are ^aprotected by the power of God ^bthrough faith for ^ca salvation ready ^dto be revealed in the last time.

6 ^aIn this you greatly rejoice, even though now ^bfor a little while, ^cif necessary, you have been distressed by ^dvarious ¹trials,

7 that the ^{1a}proof of your faith, being more precious than gold which ²is perishable, ^beven though tested by fire, ^cmay be found to result in praise and glory and honor at ^dthe revelation of Jesus Christ;

8 and ^athough you have not seen Him, you ^blove Him, and though you do not see Him now, but believe in Him, you greatly rejoice with joy inexpressible and ¹full of glory,

9 obtaining as ^athe outcome of your faith the salvation of ¹your souls.

10 ^aAs to this salvation, the prophets who ^bprophesied of the ^cgrace that would come to you made careful search and inquiry,

11 ¹seeking to know what person or time ^athe Spirit of Christ within them was indicating as He ^bpredicted the sufferings of Christ and the glories ²to follow.

12 It was revealed to them that they were not serving themselves but you in these things which now have been announced to you through those who ^apreached the gospel to you by ^bthe Holy Spirit sent from heaven,—things into which ^cangels long to ¹look.

13 Therefore, ^agird ¹your minds for action, ^{2b}keep sober in spirit, fix your ^chope completely on the ^dgrace ³to be brought to you at ^ethe revelation of Jesus Christ.

14 As ^{1a}obedient children, do not ^{2b}be conformed to the former lusts which were yours in your ^cignorance,

15 but ^{1a}like the Holy One who called you, ^{2b}be holy yourselves also ^cin all your behavior;

16 because it is written, “YOU SHALL BE HOLY, FOR I AM HOLY.”

17 And if you ^aaddress as Father the One who ^bimpartially judges according to each man’s work, conduct yourselves ^din fear during the time of your ^estay upon earth;

18 knowing that you were not ^{1a}redeemed with perishable things like silver or gold from your ^bfruitless way of life inherited from your forefathers,

19 but with precious ^ablood, as of a ^blamb unblemished and spotless, the blood of Christ.

20 For He was ^aforeknown before ^bthe foundation of the world, but has ^cappeared ¹in these last times ^dfor the sake of you

21 who through Him are ^abelievers in God, who raised Him from the dead and ^bgave Him glory, so that your faith and ^chope are in God.

22 Since you have ^ain obedience to the truth ^bpurified your souls for a ^{1c}sincere love of the brethren, fervently love one another from ²the heart,

23 for you have been ^aborn again ^bnot of seed which is perishable but imperishable, that is, through the living and abiding ^cword of God.

24 For,

“ALL FLESH IS LIKE GRASS,
AND ALL ITS GLORY LIKE THE FLOWER OF GRASS.
THE GRASS WITHERS, AND THE FLOWER FALLS OFF,

25 ^aBUT THE WORD OF THE LORD ABIDES FOREVER.”

And this is ^bthe word which was ¹preached to you.

CHAPTER 2

THEREFORE, ^aputting aside all ¹malice and all guile and ²hypocrisy and ²envy and all ^{2b}slander,

2 ^alike newborn babes, long for the ^{1b}pure milk ²of the word, that by it you may ^cgrow ³in respect to salvation,

3 if you have ^atasted ^{1b}the kindness of the Lord.

4 And coming to Him as to a living stone, ^arejected by men, but ¹choice and precious in the sight of God,
 5 ^ayou also, as living stones, ¹are being built up as a ^bspiritual house for a holy ^cpriesthood; to ^doffer up spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.

6 For this is contained in ¹Scripture:

^a"BEHOLD I LAY IN ZION A CHOICE STONE, A ^bPRECIOUS CORNERSTONE,

AND HE WHO BELIEVES IN ²HIM SHALL NOT BE ³DISAPPOINTED."

7 ^aThis precious value, then, is for you who believe, but for those who disbelieve,

^b"THE STONE WHICH THE BUILDERS ^cREJECTED, THIS BECAME THE VERY CORNERSTONE,"

8 and,

^a"A STONE OF STUMBLING AND A ROCK OF OFFENSE";

^bfor they stumble because they are disobedient to the word, ^cand to this doom they were also appointed.

9 But you are ^aA CHOSEN RACE, A ROYAL ^bPRIESTHOOD, A ^cHOLY NATION, ^dA PEOPLE FOR God's OWN POSSESSION, that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who has called you ^eout of darkness into His marvelous light;

10 ^afor you once were NOT A PEOPLE, but now you are THE PEOPLE OF GOD; you had NOT RECEIVED MERCY, but now you have RECEIVED MERCY.

11 ^aBeloved, ^bI urge you as ^caliens and strangers to abstain from ^dfleshly lusts, which wage ^ewar against the soul.

12 ^aKeep your behavior excellent among the Gentiles, so that in the thing in which they ^bslander you as evildoers, they may ¹on account of your good deeds, as they observe them, ^cglorify God ^din the day of ²visitation.

13 ^aSubmit yourselves for the Lord's sake to every human institution: whether to a king as the one in authority;

14 or to governors as sent ¹by him ^afor the punishment of evildoers and the ^bpraise of those who do right.

15 For ^asuch is the will of God that by doing right you may ^bsilence the ignorance of foolish men.

16 Act as ^afree men, and do not use your freedom as a covering for evil, but use it as ^bbondslaves of God.

17 ^aHonor all men; ^blove the brotherhood, ^cfear God, ^dhonor the ¹king.

18 ^aServants, be submissive to your masters with all respect, not only to those who are good and ^bgentle, but also to those who are ¹unreasonable.

19 For this finds ¹favor, if for the sake of ^aconscience toward God a man bears up under sorrows when suffering unjustly.

20 For what credit is there if, when you sin and are harshly treated, you endure it with patience? But if ^awhen you do what is right and suffer for it you patiently endure it, this finds ¹favor with God.

21 For ^ayou have been called for this purpose, ^bsince Christ also suffered for you, leaving you ^can example for you to follow in His steps,

22 WHO ^aCOMMITTED NO SIN, NOR WAS ANY DECEIT FOUND IN HIS MOUTH;

23 ¹and while being ^areviled, He ²did not revile in return; while suffering, He uttered no threats, but kept entrusting Himself to Him who judges righteously;

24 and He Himself ^{1a}bore our sins in His body on the ^{2b}cross, that we ^cmight die to ³sin and live to righteousness; for ^dby His ⁴wounds you were ^ehealed.

25 For you were ^acontinually straying like sheep, but now you have returned to the ^bShepherd and ¹Guardian of your souls.

CHAPTER 3

^aIN the same way, you wives, ^bbe submissive to your own husbands so that even if any of them are disobedient to the word they may be ^cwon without a word by the behavior of their wives,

2 as they observe your chaste and ¹respectful behavior.

3 ^aAnd let not your adornment be external only—braiding the hair, and wearing gold jewelry, and putting on dresses;

4 but let it be ^athe hidden person of the heart, with the imperishable quality of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is precious in the sight of God.

5 For in this way in former times the holy women also, ^awho hoped in God, used to adorn themselves, being submissive to their own husbands.

6 Thus Sarah obeyed Abraham, ^acalling him lord, and you have become her children if you do what is right ^{1b}without being frightened by any fear.

7 ^aYou husbands likewise, live with your wives in an understanding way, as with a weaker ^bvessel, since she is a woman; and grant her honor as a fellow-heir of the grace of life, so that your prayers may not be hindered.

8 ¹To sum up, ^alet all be harmonious, sympathetic, ^bbrotherly, ^ckind-hearted, and ^dhumble in spirit;

9 ^anot returning evil for evil, or ^binsult for insult, but ¹giving a ^cblessing instead; for ^dyou were called for the very purpose that you might ^einherit a blessing.

10 For

“^aLET HIM WHO MEANS TO LOVE LIFE AND SEE GOOD DAYS REFRAIN HIS TONGUE FROM EVIL AND HIS LIPS FROM SPEAKING GUILE.

11 “^aAND LET HIM TURN AWAY FROM EVIL AND DO GOOD; LET HIM SEEK PEACE AND PURSUE IT.

12 “^aFOR THE EYES OF THE LORD ARE UPON THE RIGHTEOUS, AND HIS EARS ATTEND TO THEIR PRAYER,
BUT THE FACE OF THE LORD IS AGAINST THOSE WHO DO
EVIL.”

13 And ^awho is there to harm you if you prove zealous for what is good?

14 But even if you should ^asuffer for the sake of righteousness, ^byou are blessed. ^cAND DO NOT FEAR THEIR ¹INTIMIDATION, AND DO NOT BE TROUBLED,

15 but ¹SANCTIFY ^aChrist as Lord in your hearts, always being ready ^bto make a defense to every one who asks you to give an account for the ^chope that is in you, yet ^dwith gentleness and ²reverence;

16 ¹and keep a ^agood conscience so that in the thing in which ^byou are slandered, those who revile your good behavior in Christ may be put to shame.

17 For ^ait is better, ^bif ¹God should will it so, that you suffer for doing what is right rather than for doing what is wrong.

18 For ^aChrist also died for sins ^bonce for all, the just for the unjust, in order that He might ^cbring us to God, having been put to death ^din the flesh, but made alive ^ein the ¹spirit;

20 who once were disobedient; when the ^apatience of God ^bkept waiting in the days of Noah, during the construction of ^cthe ark, in which a few, that is, ^deight ^epersons, were brought safely through the water.

21 ^aAnd corresponding to that, baptism now saves you—^bnot the removal of dirt from the flesh, but an appeal to God for a ^cgood conscience—through ^dthe resurrection of Jesus Christ,

22 ^awho is at the right hand of God, ^bhaving gone into heaven, ^cafter angels and authorities and powers had been subjected to Him.

CHAPTER 4

THEREFORE, since ^aChrist has ¹suffered in the flesh, ^barm yourselves also with the same purpose, because ^che who has ¹suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin,

2 ^aso as to live ^bthe rest of the time in the flesh no longer for the lusts of men, but for the will of God.

3 For ^athe time already past is sufficient for you to have carried out the desire of the Gentiles, ^bhaving pursued a course of sensuality, lusts, drunkenness, carousals, drinking parties and ¹abominable idolatries.

4 And in all this, they are surprised that you do not run with them into the same excess of ^adissipation, and they ^bma-lign you;

5 but they shall give account to Him who is ready to judge ^athe living and the dead.

6 For ^athe gospel has for this purpose been preached even to those who are dead, that though they are judged in the flesh as men, they may live in the spirit according to the will of God.

7 ^aThe end of all things ¹is at hand; therefore, ^bbe of sound judgment and sober spirit for the purpose of ²prayer.

8 Above all, ^akeep fervent in your love for one another, because ^blove covers a multitude of sins.

9 ^aBe hospitable to one another without ^bcomplaint.

10 ^aAs each one has received a special gift, employ it in serving one another, as good ^bstewards of the manifold grace of God.

11 ^aWhoever speaks, let him speak, as it were, the ^bbutter-ances of God; whoever serves, let him do so as ¹by the strength which God supplies; so that ^din all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, ^cto whom belongs the glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen.

12 ^aBeloved, do not be surprised at the ^bfiery ordeal among you, which comes upon you for your testing, as though some strange thing were happening to you;

13 but to the degree that you ^ashare the sufferings of Christ, keep on rejoicing; so that also at the ^brevelation of His glory, you may rejoice with exultation.

14 ^aFor you are reviled ^{1a}for the name of Christ, ^byou are blessed, ^cbecause the Spirit of glory and of God rests upon you.

15 By no means ^alet any of you suffer as a murderer, or thief, or evil-doer, or a ^{1b}troublesome meddler;

16 but if anyone suffers as a ^aChristian, let him not feel ashamed, but in that name let him ^bglorify God.

17 For it is time for judgment ^ato begin ¹with ^bthe household of God; and if it ^cbegins with us first, what will be the outcome for those ^dwho do not obey the ^egospel of God?

18 ^aAND IF IT IS WITH DIFFICULTY THAT THE RIGHTEOUS IS SAVED, ¹WHAT WILL BECOME OF THE ^bGODLESS MAN AND THE SINNER?

19 Therefore, let those also who suffer according to ^athe will of God entrust their souls to a faithful Creator in doing what is right.

CHAPTER 5

^aTHEREFORE, I exhort the elders among you, as your ^b fellow-elder and ^cwitness of the sufferings of Christ, and a ^dpartaker also of the glory that is to be revealed,

2 shepherd ^athe flock of God among you, ^bnot under compulsion, but voluntarily, according to the will of God; and ^cnot for sordid gain, but with eagerness;

3 nor yet as ^alording it over ¹those allotted to your charge, but ²proving to be ^bexamples to the flock.

4 And when the Chief ^aShepherd appears, you will receive the ^bunfading ^{1c}crown of glory.

5 ^aYou younger men, likewise, ^bbe subject to your elders; and all of you, clothe yourselves with ^chumility toward one another, for ^dGOD IS OPPOSED TO THE PROUD, BUT GIVES GRACE TO THE HUMBLE.

6 ^aHumble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you at the proper time,

7 casting all your ^aanxiety upon Him, because He cares for you.

8 ^aBe of sober spirit, ^bbe on the alert. Your adversary, ^cthe devil, prowls about like a roaring ^dlion, seeking someone to devour.

9 ^{1a}But resist him, ^bfirm in your faith, knowing that ^cthe same experiences of suffering are being accomplished by your ²brethren who are in the world.

10 And after you have suffered ^afor a little, the ^bGod of all grace, who ^ccalled you to His ^deternal glory in Christ, will Himself ^eperfect, ^fconfirm, strengthen and ¹establish you.

11 ^aTo Him be dominion forever and ever. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PETER

Salutation. Growth in Christian Virtue.

¹SIMON PETER, a ^abond-servant and ^bapostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have received ^aa faith of the same ²kind as ours, ³by ^dthe righteousness of ^cour God and Savior, Jesus Christ;

2 ^aGrace and peace be multiplied to you in ^bthe knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord;

3 seeing that His ^adivine power has granted to us everything pertaining to life and godliness, through the true ^bknowledge of Him who ^ccalled us ¹by His own glory and ²excellence.

4 ¹For by these He has granted to us His precious and magnificent ^apromises, in order that by them you might become ^bpartakers of the divine nature, having ^cescaped the ^dcorruption that is in ^ethe world by lust.

5 Now for this very reason also, applying all diligence, in your faith ^asupply ^bmoral ¹excellence, and in your moral excellence, ^cknowledge;

6 and in your knowledge, ^aself-control, and in your self-control, ^bperseverance, and in your perseverance, ^cgodliness;

7 and in your godliness, ^abrotherly kindness, and in your brotherly kindness, Christian love.

8 For if these qualities are yours and are increasing, they render you neither useless nor ^aunfruitful in the true ^bknowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

9 For he who lacks these qualities is ^ablind or short-sighted, having forgotten his ^bpurification from his former sins.

10 Therefore, brethren, be all the more diligent to make certain about His ^acalling and ^bchoosing you; for as long as you practice these things, you will never ^cstumble; 2 J. 1:1

11 for in this way the entrance into ^athe eternal kingdom of our ^bLord and Savior Jesus Christ will be ^cabundantly ^dsupplied to you.

12 Therefore, ^aI shall always be ready to remind you of these things, even though you already know them, and have been established in ^bthe truth which is present with you.

13 And I consider it ^aright, as long as I am in ^bthis earthly dwelling, to ^cstir you up by way of reminder, 14 knowing that ^athe laying aside of my earthly dwelling is imminent, ^bas also our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.

15 And I will also be diligent that at any time after my ^adeparture you may be able to call these things to mind.

16 For we did not follow cleverly devised ^atales when we made known to you the ^bpower and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were ^ceyewitnesses of His majesty.

17 For when He received honor and glory from God the Father, such an ^{1a}utterance as this was ²made to Him by the ^bMajestic Glory, "This is My beloved Son with whom I am well pleased,"—

18 and we ourselves heard this ¹utterance made from heaven when we were with Him on the ^aholy mountain.

19 ¹And ~~we~~ we have ^athe prophetic word made more ^bsure, to which you do well to pay attention as to ^alamp shining in a dark place, until the ^dday dawns and the ^emorning star arises ^fin your hearts.

20 But ^aknow this first of all, that ^bno prophecy of Scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, 21 for ^ano prophecy was ever made by an act of human will, but men ^bmoved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

(hōi nē zōria)

CHAPTER 2

BUT ^afalse prophets also arose among the people, just as there will also be ^bfalse teachers ^camong you, who will ^dsecretly introduce ^edestructive heresies, even ^fdenying the ^gMaster who ^bbought them, bringing swift destruction upon themselves.

2 And many will follow their ^asensuality, and because of them ^bthe way of the truth will be ^cmaligned;

3 and in their ^aagreed they will ^bexploit you with ^cfalse words; ^dtheir judgment from long ago is not idle, and their destruction is not asleep.

4 For ^aif God did not spare angels when they sinned, but cast them into hell and ^bcommitted them to pits of darkness, reserved for judgment;

5 and did not spare ^athe ancient world, but preserved ^bNoah, a ^cpreacher of righteousness, with seven others, when He brought a ^dflood upon the world of the ^eungodly;

6 and if He ^acondemned the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah to destruction by reducing them to ashes, having made them an ^bexample to those who would ^clive ungodly thereafter;

7 and if He ^arescued righteous Lot, oppressed by the ^bsensual conduct of ^cunprincipled men

8 (for by what he saw and heard that ^arighteous man, while living among them, felt his righteous soul tormented day after day with their lawless deeds),

9 ^athen the Lord knows how to rescue the godly from ¹temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the ^bday of judgment,

10 and especially those who ^{1a}indulge the flesh in its corrupt desires and ^bdespise authority. Daring, ^cself-willed, they do not tremble when they ^brevile ²angelic majesties,

11 ^awhereas angels who are greater in might and power do not bring a reviling judgment against them before the Lord.

12 But ^athese, like unreasoning animals, ^bborn as creatures of instinct to be captured and killed, reviling where they have no knowledge, will in ¹the destruction of those creatures also be destroyed,

13 suffering wrong as ^athe wages of doing wrong. They count it a pleasure to ^brevel in the ^cdaytime. They are stains and blemishes, ^brevelling in their ¹deceptions, as they ^dcarouse with you;

14 having eyes full of adultery and that never cease from sin; ^aenticing ^bunstable souls, having a heart trained in ^cgreed, ^daccursed children;

15 forsaking ^athe right way they have gone astray, having followed ^bthe way of Balaam, the son of Beor, who loved ^cthe wages of unrighteousness, 16 but he received a rebuke for his own transgression; ^afor a dumb donkey, speaking with a voice of a man, restrained the madness of the prophet.

17 These are ^asprings without water, and mists driven by a storm, ^bfor whom the ¹black darkness has been reserved.

18 For speaking out ^aarrogant words of ^bvanity they ^centice by fleshly desires, by ^dsensuality, those who barely ^eescape from the ones who live in error,

19 promising them freedom while they themselves are slaves of corruption; for ^aby what a man is overcome, by this he is enslaved.

20 For if after they have ^aescaped the defilements of the world by ^bthe knowledge of the ^cLord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again ^dentangled in them and are overcome, ^ethe last state has become worse for them than the first.

21 ^aFor it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn away from ^bthe holy commandment ^cdelivered to them.

22 It has happened to them according to the true proverb, ^a“A DOG RETURNS TO ITS OWN VOMIT,” and, ^b“A sow, after washing, returns to wallowing in the mire.”

CHAPTER 3

THIS is now, ^abeloved, the second letter I am writing to you in which I am ^bstirring up your sincere mind by way of reminder,

2 that you should ^aremember the words spoken beforehand by ^bthe holy prophets and ^cthe commandment of the Lord and Savior spoken by your apostles.

3 ^aKnow this first of all, that ^bin the last days ^cmockers will come with their mocking, ^dfollowing after their own lusts,

4 and saying, ^a“Where is the promise of His ^bcoming?” For ever since the fathers ^cfell asleep, all continues just as it was ^dfrom the beginning of creation.

5 For ¹when they maintain this, it escapes their notice that ^aby the word of God the heavens existed long ago and the earth was ^bformed out of water and by water,

6 through which ^athe world at that time was ^bdestroyed, being flooded with water.

7 But ^athe present heavens and earth by His word are being reserved for ^bfire, kept for ^cthe day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.

8 But do not let this one fact escape your notice, ^abeloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and ^{ba} thousand years as one day.

9 ^aThe Lord is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness, but ^{bis} patient toward you, ^cnot wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance.

10 But ^athe day of the Lord ^bwill come like a thief, in which ^cthe heavens ^dwill pass away with a roar and the ^eelements will be destroyed with intense heat, and ^fthe earth and ^lits works will be ²burned up.

11 Since all these things are to be destroyed in this way, what sort of people ought you to be in holy conduct and godliness, 12 ^alooking for and hastening the coming of the day of God, on account of which ^bthe heavens will be destroyed by burning, and the ^eelements will melt with intense heat.

13 But according to His ^apromise we are looking for ^bnew heavens and a new earth, ^cin which righteousness dwells.

14 ^aTherefore, ^bbeloved, since you look for these things, be diligent to be ^cfound by Him in peace, ^dspotless and blameless,

15 and regard the ^apatience of our Lord to be salvation; just as also ^bour beloved brother Paul, ^caccording to the wisdom given him, wrote to you,

16 as also in all his letters, speaking in them of ^athese things, ^bin which are some things hard to understand, which the untaught and ^cunstable distort, as they do also ^dthe rest of the Scriptures, to their own destruction.

17 You therefore, ^abeloved, knowing this beforehand, ^bbe on your guard lest, being carried away by ^cthe error of ^dunprincipled men, you ^efall from your own steadfastness, ὑποστήσεσθε

18 but grow in the grace and ^aknowledge of our ^bLord and Savior Jesus Christ. ^cTo Him be the glory, both now and to the day of eternity. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF
JOHN

Introduction. Our Joy Complete.

WHAT was ^afrom the beginning, what we have ^bheard, what we have ^cseen with our eyes, what we ^dbeheld and our hands ^ehandled, concerning the ^fWord of life—

2 and ^athe life was manifested, and we have ^bseen and ^cbear witness and proclaim to you ^dthe eternal life, which was ^ewith the Father and was ^amanifested to us—

3 what we have ^aseen and ^bheard we proclaim to you also, that you also may have fellowship with us; and indeed our ^cfellowship is with the Father, and with His Son Jesus Christ.

4 And ^athese things we write, so that our ^bjoy may be made complete.

5 And ^athis is the message we have heard from Him and announce to you, that ^bGod is light, and in Him there is no darkness at all.

6 ^aIf we say that we have fellowship with Him and yet walk in the darkness, we ^blie and ^cdo not practice the truth;

7 but if we ^awalk in the light as ^bHe Himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and ^cthe blood of Jesus His Son cleanses us from all sin.

8 ^aIf we say that we have no sin, we are deceiving ourselves, and the ^btruth is not in us.

9 ^aIf we confess ^bour sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us ^cour sins and ^dto cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

10 ^aIf we say that we have not sinned, we ^bmake Him a liar, and ^cHis word is not in us.

CHAPTER 2

^aMY little children, I am writing ^bthese things to you that you may not sin. And if anyone sins, ^cwe have an ^dAdvocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous;

2 and He Himself is ^athe ^bpropitiation for our sins; and ^cnot for ours only, but also ^dfor ^ethose of the whole world.

3 And ^aby this we know that we have come to ^bknow Him, if we ^ckeep His commandments.

4 The one who says, "I have come to ^bknow Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a ^cliar, and ^dthe truth is not in him;

5 but whoever ^akeeps His word, in him the ^blove of God has truly been perfected. ^cBy this we know that we are in Him:

6 the one who says he ^aabides in Him ^bbought himself to walk in the same manner as He walked.

7 ^aBeloved, I am ^bnot writing a new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you ¹have had ^cfrom the beginning; the old commandment is the word which you have heard.

8 ¹On the other hand, I am writing ^aa new commandment to you, which is true in Him and in you, because ^bthe darkness is passing away, and ^cthe true light is already shining.

9 The one who says he is in the light and yet ^ahates his ^bbrother is in the darkness until now.

10 ^aThe one who loves his brother abides in the light and there is no cause for stumbling in him.

11 But the one who ^ahates his brother is in the darkness and ^bwalks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going because the darkness has ^cblinded his eyes.

12 I am writing to you, ^alittle children, because ^byour sins are forgiven you for His name's sake.

13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you know Him ^awho has been from the beginning. I am writing to you, young men, because ^byou have overcome ^cthe evil one. I have written to you, children, because ^dyou know the Father.

14 I have written to you, fathers, because you know Him ^awho has been from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are ^bstrong, and the ^cword of God abides in you, and ^dyou have overcome the evil one.

“Do Not Love the World.”
The Promise: Eternal Life.

15 Do not love ^athe world, nor the things in the world. ^bIf any one loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

16 For all that is in the world, ^athe lust of the flesh and ^bthe lust of the eyes and ^cthe boastful pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world.

17 And ^athe world is passing away, and also its lusts; but the one who does the will of God abides forever.

18 Children, ^ait is the last hour; and just as you heard that ^bantichrist is coming, ^ceven now many antichrists have arisen; from this we know that it is the last hour.

19 ^aThey went out from us, but they were not really of us; for if they had been of us, they would have remained with us; but they went out, ^bin order that ¹it might be shown that they ²all are not of us.

20 ¹But you have an ^aanointing from ^bthe Holy One, and ²you all know.

21 I have not written to you because you do not know the truth, but ^abecause you do know it, and ¹because no lie is ^bof the truth.

22 Who is the liar but ^athe one who denies that Jesus is the ¹Christ? This is ^bthe antichrist, the one who denies the Father and the Son.

23 ^aWhoever denies the Son does not have the Father; the one who confesses the Son has the Father also.

24 As for you, let that abide in you which you heard ^afrom the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, you also ^bwill abide in the Son and in the Father.

25 And ^athis is the promise which He Himself ¹made to us, the eternal life.

26 These things I have written to you concerning those who are trying to ^adeceive you.

27 And as for you, the ^aanointing which you received from Him abides in you, and you have no need for any one to teach you; but as His anointing ^bteaches you about all things, and is ^ctrue and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, ¹you abide in Him.

28 And now, ^alittle children, abide in Him, so that if He ^bshould appear, we may have ^cconfidence and ^dnot ¹shrink away from Him in shame ²at His ^ccoming.

29 If you know that ^aHe is righteous, you know that every one also who practices righteousness ^bis ¹born of Him.

CHAPTER 3

SEE ¹how great a love the Father has bestowed upon us, that we should be called ^bchildren of God; and such we are. For this reason the world does not know us, because ^cit did not know Him.

2 ^aBeloved, now we are ^bchildren of God, and ^cit has not appeared as yet that we shall be. We know that, if He ^dshould appear, we shall be ^elike Him, because we shall ¹see Him just as He is.

3 And every one who has this ^ahope fixed on Him ^bpurifies himself, just as He is pure.

4 Every one who practices sin also practices lawlessness; and ^asin is lawlessness.

5 And you know that He ^aappeared in order to ^btake away sins; and ^cin Him there is no sin.—

6 No one who abides in Him ^asins; no one who sins has seen Him or ^bknows Him.

7 ^aLittle children, let no one ^bdeceive you; ^cthe one who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous;

8 the one who practices sin is ^aof the devil; for the devil ¹has sinned from the beginning. ^bThe Son of God ^cappeared for this purpose, ^dthat He might destroy the works of the devil.

9 No one who is ¹born of God ^bpractices sin, because His seed abides in him; and he cannot sin, because he is ¹born of God.

10 By this the ^achildren of God and the ^bchildren of the devil are obvious; any one who does not practice righteousness is not of God, nor the one who ^cdoes not love his ^dbrother.

11 ^aFor this is the message ^bwhich you have heard from the beginning, ^cthat we should love one another;

12 not as ^aCain who was of ^bthe evil one, and slew his brother. And for what reason did he slay him? Because ^chis deeds were evil, and his brother's were righteous.

13 Do not marvel, brethren, if ^athe world hates you.

14 We know that we have ^apassed out of death into life, ^bbecause we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death.

15 Every one who ^ahates his brother is a murderer; and you know that ^bno murderer has eternal life abiding in him.

16 We know love by this, that ^aHe laid down His life for us; and ^bwe ought to lay down our lives for the ^cbrethren.

17 But ^awhoever has the world's goods, and beholds his brother in need and ^bcloses his ¹heart ²against him, ^chow does the love of God abide in him?

18 ^aLittle children, let us not love with word or with tongue, but in deed and ^btruth.

19 We shall know by this that we are ^aof the truth, and shall ¹assure our heart ²before Him, 20 in whatever our heart condemns us; for God is greater than our heart, and knows all things.

21 ^aBeloved, if our heart does not condemn us, we have ^bconfidence ¹before God;

22 and ^awhatever we ask we receive from Him, because we ^bkeep His commandments and do ^cthe things that are pleasing in His sight.

23 And this is His commandment, that we ¹believe in ^bthe name of His Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, just as ^cHe ²commanded us.

24 And the one who ^akeeps His commandments ^babides in Him, and He in him. And ^cwe know by this that ^dHe abides in us, by the Spirit which He has given us.

CHAPTER 4

BELOVED, do not believe every ^bspirit, but test the spirits to see whether they are from God; because ^cmany false prophets have gone out into the world.

2 By this you know the Spirit of God: ^aevery spirit that ^bconfesses that ^cJesus Christ has come in the flesh is from God;

The Spirit of Error.

God Is Love. No Fear In Love.

1 John 4, 5

3 and every spirit that ^adoes not confess Jesus is not from God; and this is the spirit of the ^bantichrist, of which you have heard that it is coming, and ^cnow it is already in the world.

4 You are from God, ^alittle children, and ^bhave overcome them; because ^cgreater is He who is in you than ^dhe who is in the world.

5 ^aThey are from the world; therefore they speak as from the world, and the world listens to them.

6 ^aWe are from God; ^bhe who knows God listens to us; ^che who is not from God does not listen to us. By this we know ^dthe spirit of truth and ^ethe spirit of error.

7 ^aBeloved, let us ^blove one another, for love is from God; and ^cevery one who loves is ^dborn of God and ^eknows God.

8 The one who does not love does not know God, for ^aGod is love.

9 By this the love of God was manifested ^{1a}in us, that ^bGod has sent His ²only begotten Son into the world so that we might live through Him.

10 In this is love, ^anot that we ¹loved God, but that ^bHe loved us and sent His Son to be ^cthe propitiation for our sins.

11 ^aBeloved, if God so loved us, ^bwe also ought to love one another.

12 ^aNo one has beheld God at any time; if we love one another, God abides in us, and His ^blove is perfected in us.

13 ^aBy this we know that we abide in Him and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit.

14 And we have beheld and ^abear witness that the Father has ^bsent the Son ~~to be~~ the Savior of the world.¹

15 ^aWhoever confesses that ^bJesus is the Son of God, God ^cabides in him, and he in God.

16 And ^awe have come to know and have believed the love which God has ^{1b}for us. ^cGod is love, and the one who ^dabides in love abides in God, and God abides in him.

17 By this, ^alove is perfected with us, that we may have ^bconfidence in ^cthe day of judgment; because ^das He is, so also are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love; but ^aperfect love casts out fear, because fear ¹involves punishment, and the one who fears is not ^bperfected in love.

19 ^aWe love, because He first loved us.

20 ^aIf some one says, "I love God," and ^bhates his brother, he is a ^cliar; for ^dthe one who does not love his brother whom he has seen, ^{1c}cannot love God whom he has not seen.

21 And ^athis commandment we have from Him, that the one who loves God ^bshould love his brother also.

3 For ^athis is the love of God, that we ^bkeep His commandments; and ^cHis commandments are not burdensome.

4 For whatever is ¹born of God ^bovercomes the world; and this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith.

5 And who is the one who overcomes the world, but he who ^abelieves that Jesus is the Son of God?

6 This is the one who came ^aby water and blood, Jesus Christ; not ¹with the water only, but ¹with the water and ¹with the blood.

7 And it is ^athe Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is the truth.

8 For there are ^athree that bear witness, the Spirit and the water and the blood; and the three are ¹in agreement.

9 ^aIf we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for the witness of God is this, that ^bHe has borne witness concerning His Son.

10 The one who believes in the Son of God ^ahas the witness in himself; the one who does not believe God has ^bmade
 Him a liar, because he has not believed in the witness that God has borne concerning His Son.

11 And the witness is this, that God has given us ^aeternal life, and ^bthis life is in His Son.

12 ^aHe who has the Son has the life; he who does not have the Son of God does not have the life.

13 ^aThese things I have written to you who ^bbelieve in the name of the Son of God, in order that you may know that you have ^ceternal life.

14 And this is ^athe confidence which we have ¹before Him, that, ^bif we ask anything according to His will, He hears us.

15 And if we know that He hears us in whatever we ask, ^awe know that we have the requests which we have asked from Him.

16 If any one sees his brother ¹committing a sin not lead- ing to death, ^ahe shall ask and God will for him give life to those who commit sin not leading to death. ^bThere is a sin leading to death; ^cI do not say that he should make request for this.

17 ^aAll unrighteousness is sin, and ^bthere is a sin not lead- ing to death.

18 ^aWe know that ^bno one who is ¹born of God sins; but He who was ¹born of God ^ckeeps him and ^dthe evil one does not ^etouch him.

19 ^aWe know that ^bwe are of God, and ^cthe whole world lies in the power of the evil one.

20 And ^awe know that ^bthe Son of God has come, and has ^cgiven us understanding, in order that we might know ^dHim who is true, and we ^eare in Him who is true, in His Son Jesus Christ. ^fThis is the true God and ^geternal life.

21 ^aLittle children, guard yourselves from ^bidols.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF
JOHN

Salutation. "Walk According to His Commandments."
"Abide in the Teachings of Christ." Farewell.

^aTHE elder to the ^bchosen ^clady and her children, whom I ^dlove in truth; and not only I, but also all who ^eknow the truth,

2 for ^athe sake of the truth which abides ^bin us and will be ^cwith us forever:

3 ^aGrace, mercy and peace will be with us, from God the Father and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 ^aI was very glad to find some of your children walking in truth, just as we have received commandment to do from the Father.

5 And now I ask you, lady, ^anot as writing to you a new commandment, but the one which we have had ^afrom the beginning, that we ^blove one another.

6 And ^athis is love, that we walk according to His commandments. This is the commandment, ^bjust as you have heard ^cfrom the beginning, that you should walk in it.

7 For ^amany deceivers have ^bgone out into the world, those who ^cdo not acknowledge Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is ^athe deceiver and the ^dantichrist.

8 ^aWatch yourselves, ^bthat you might not lose what ^lwe have accomplished, but that you may receive a full reward.

9 Any one who ^lgoes too far and ^adoes not abide in the teaching of Christ, does not have God; the one who abides in the teaching, he has both the Father and the Son.

10 If any one comes to you and does not bring this teaching, ^ado not receive him into your house, and do not give him a greeting;

11 for the one who gives him a greeting ^aparticipates in his evil deeds.

12 ^aHaving many things to write to you, I do not want to do so with paper and ink; but I hope to come to you and speak face to face, that ^lyour ^bjoy may be made full.

13 The children of your ^achosen sister greet you.

^aTHE elder to the beloved Gaius, whom I ^blove in truth.
2 Beloved, I pray that in all respects you may prosper and be in good health, just as your soul prospers.

3 For I ¹was very glad when ^bbrethren came and bore witness to your truth, that is, how you ^aare walking in truth.

4 I have no greater joy than ¹this, to hear of ^amy children ^bwalking in the truth.

5 Beloved, you are acting faithfully in whatever you accomplish for the ^abrethren, and especially when they are ^bstrangers;

6 and they bear witness to your love before the church; and you will do well to ^asend them on their way in a manner ^bworthy of God.

7 For they went out for the sake of ^athe Name, ^baccepting nothing from the Gentiles.

8 Therefore we ought to ¹support such men, that we may be fellow-workers ²with the truth.

9 I wrote something to the church; but Diotrophes, who loves to ^abe first among them, does not accept ¹what we say.

10 For this reason, ^aif I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with wicked words; and not satisfied with this, neither does he himself ^breceive the ^cbrethren, and he forbids those who desire to do so, and ^aputs them out of the church.

11 Beloved, ^ado not imitate what is evil, but what is good. ^bThe one who does good is of God; ^cthe one who does evil has not seen God.

12 Demetrius ^ahas received a good testimony from every one, and from the truth itself; and we also bear witness, and ^byou know that our witness is true.

13 ^aI had many things to write to you, but I am not willing to write them to you with pen and ink;

14 but I hope to see you shortly, and we shall speak face to face. ^aPeace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends ^bby name.

THE EPISTLE OF JUDE

General Salutation. "Contend Earnestly for the Faith."
The Warnings of History to the Ungodly.

1a

JUDE, a ^bbond-servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of ²James, to ^cthose who are the called, beloved in God the Father, and ^dkept for Jesus Christ:

2 ^aMay mercy and peace and love ^bbe multiplied to you.

3 ^aBeloved, while I was making every effort to write you about our ^bcommon salvation, I felt the necessity to write to you appealing that you ^ccontend earnestly for ^dthe faith which was once for all ^edelivered to ^fthe ¹saints.

4 For certain persons have ^acrept in unnoticed, those who were long beforehand ^bmarked out for this condemnation, ungodly persons who turn ^cthe grace of our God into ^dlicentiousness and ^edeny our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

5 Now I desire to ^aremind you, though ^byou know all things once for all, that ¹the Lord, ^cafter saving a people out of the land of Egypt, ²subsequently destroyed those who did not believe.

6 And ^aangels who did not keep their own domain, but abandoned their proper abode, He has ^bkept in eternal bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day.

7 Just as ^aSodom and Gomorrah and the ^bcities around them, since they in the same way as these indulged in gross immorality and ^cwent after strange flesh, are exhibited as an ¹dexample, in undergoing the ^cpunishment of eternal fire.

8 Yet in the same manner these men also by dreaming ^adefile the flesh, and ^areject authority, and ^arevile ¹angelic majesties.

9 But ^aMichael ^bthe archangel, when he disputed with the devil and argued about ^cthe body of Moses did not dare pronounce against him a railing judgment, but said, "dTHE LORD REBUKE YOU."

10 But ^athese men revile the things which they do not understand; and ^bthe things which they know by instinct, ^alike unreasoning animals, by these things they are ¹destroyed.

11 Woe to them! For they have gone ^athe way of Cain, and for pay ¹they have rushed headlong into ^bthe error of Balaam, and ^cperished in the rebellion of Korah.

12 These men are those who are ¹hidden reefs ^ain your love-feasts when they feast with you ^bwithout fear, caring for themselves; ^cclouds without water, ^dcarried along by winds; autumn trees without fruit, ²doubly dead, ^euprooted;

13 ^awild waves of the sea, casting up ^btheir own ¹shame like foam; wandering stars, ^cfor whom the ²black darkness has been reserved forever.

14 And about these also ^aEnoch, in the seventh generation from Adam prophesied, saying, "^bBehold, the Lord came with ¹many thousands of His holy ones,

4 ^aJohn to ^bthe seven churches that are in ^cAsia: ^dGrace to you and peace, from ^eHim who is and who was and who is to come; and from ^fthe seven Spirits who are before His throne;

5 and from Jesus Christ, ^athe faithful witness, the ^bfirst-born of the dead, and the ^cruler of the kings of the earth. To Him who ^dloves us, and released us from our sins ¹by His blood,

6 and He has made us ~~to be~~ ^akingdom, ^apriests to ^{1b}His God and Father; ^cto Him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

7 ^aBEHOLD, HE IS COMING WITH THE CLOUDS,¹ and ^bevery eye will see Him, even those who pierced Him; AND ALL THE TRIBES OF THE EARTH WILL ^cMOURN OVER HIM. Even so. Amen.

8 "I am ^athe Alpha and the Omega," says the ^bLord God, "^cwho is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

9 ^aI, John, your ^bbrother and ^cfellow-partaker in the tribulation and ^dkingdom and ^eperseverance which are in Jesus, was on the island called Patmos, ^fbecause of the word of God and the testimony of Jesus.

10 I was ^ain the Spirit on ^bthe Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice ^clike the sound of a trumpet,

11 saying, "^aWrite in a ^bbook what you see, and send it to the ^cseven churches: to ^dEphesus and to ^eSmyrna and to ^fPergamum and to ^gThyatira and to ^hSardis and to ⁱPhiladelphia and to ^jLaodicea."

12 And I turned to see the voice that was speaking with me. And having turned I saw ^aseven golden lampstands;

13 and ^ain the middle of the lampstands one ^blike ^ason of man, ^cclothed in a robe reaching to the feet, and ^dgirded across His breasts with a golden girdle.

14 And His head and His ^ahair were white like white wool, like snow; and ^bHis eyes were like a flame of fire;

15 and His ^afeet were like burnished bronze, when it has been caused to glow in a furnace, and His ^bvoice was like the sound of many waters.

16 And in His right hand He held ^aseven stars; and out of His mouth came a ^bsharp two-edged sword; and His ^cface was like ^dthe sun ¹shining in its strength.

17 And when I saw Him, I ^afell at His feet as a dead man. And He ^blaid His right hand upon me, saying, "^cDo not be afraid; ^dI am the first and the last,

18 and the ^aliving One; and I ^bwas dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore, and I have ^cthe keys of death and of Hades.

19 "^aWrite therefore ^bthe things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall take place ^cafter these things.

20 "As for the ^amystery of the ^bseven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the ^cseven golden lampstands, the ^bseven stars are the angels of ^dthe seven churches, and the seven ^elampstands are the seven churches.

CHAPTER 2

"^TO the angel of the church in ^aEphesus write:

^{The One who holds ^bthe seven stars in His right hand, the One who walks ^{1c}among the seven golden lampstands, says this:}

7 'He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. ^bTo him who overcomes, I will grant to eat of ^cthe tree of life, which is in the ^dParadise of God.'

8 "And to the angel of the church in ^aSmyrna write:

^b'The first and the last, who ¹was dead, and has come to life, says this:

9 'I know your ^atribulation and your ^bpoverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy by those who ^csay they are Jews and are not, but are a synagogue of ^dSatan.

15 'Thus you also have some who in the same way hold the teaching of the ^aNicolaitans.

AND I saw ¹in the right hand of Him who ^asat on the throne a ^{2b}book written inside and on the back, ^csealed up with seven seals.

2 And I saw a ^astrong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the ¹book and to break its seals?”

3 And no one ^ain heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the ¹book, or to look into it.

4 And I began to weep greatly, because no one was found worthy to open the ¹book, or to look into it;

5 and one of the elders ^asaid to me, “Stop weeping; behold, the ^aLion that is ^bfrom the tribe of Judah, the ^cRoot of David, has overcome so as to open the ¹book and its seven seals.”

6 And I saw ¹between the throne (with the four living creatures) and ^athe elders a ^bLamb standing, as if ^cslain, having seven ^dhorns and ^eseven eyes, which are ^fthe seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth.

7 And He came, and He took ^ait out of the right hand of Him who ^asat on the throne.

8 And when He had taken the ¹book, the ^afour living creatures and the ^btwenty-four elders ^cfell down before the ^dLamb, having each one a ^eharp, and ^fgolden bowls full of incense, which are the ^gprayers of the ²saints.

9 And they ^asang a ^bnew song, saying, “^bWorthy art Thou to take the ¹book, and to break its seals; for Thou wast ^cslain, and didst ^dpurchase for God with Thy blood ^emen from ^eevery tribe and tongue and people and nation.

10 “And Thou hast made them to be a ^akingdom and ^apriests to our God; and they will ^breign upon the earth.”

11 And I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels

^aaround the throne and the ^bliving creatures and the ^celders; and the number of them was ^dmyriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands;

12 saying with a loud voice,

"^aWorthy is the ^bLamb that was ^bslain to receive power and riches and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing."

13 And ^aevery created thing which is in heaven and on the earth and under the earth and on the sea, and all things in them, I heard saying,

"To Him who ^bsits on the throne, and to the ^cLamb, ^dbe blessing and honor and glory and dominion forever and ever."

14 And the ^afour living creatures kept saying, "^bAmen." And the ^celders ^dfell down and worshipped.

CHAPTER 6

AND I saw when the ^aLamb broke one of the ^bseven seals, and I heard one of the ^cfour living creatures saying as with a ^dvoice of thunder, "Come.1"

2 And I looked, and behold, a ^awhite horse, and he who sat on it had a bow; and ^ba crown was given to him; and he went out ^cconquering, and to conquer.

3 And when He broke the second seal, I heard the ^asecond living creature saying, "Come.1"

4 And another, ^aa red horse, went out; and to him who sat on it, it was granted to ^btake peace from the earth, and that ^{men} should slay one another; and a great sword was given to him.

5 And when He broke the third seal, I heard the ^athird living creature saying, "Come.1" And I looked, and behold, a ^bblack horse; and he who sat on it had a ^cpair of scales in his hand.

6 And I heard as it were a voice in the center of the ^afour living creatures saying, "A ¹quart of wheat for a ²denarius, and three ¹quarts of barley for a ²denarius; and ^bdo not harm the oil and the wine."

7 And when He broke the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the ^afourth living creature saying, "Come.1"

8 And I looked, and behold, an ^aashen horse; and he who sat on it had the name "^bDeath"; and ^bHades was following with him. And authority was given to them over a fourth of the earth, ^cTO KILL WITH SWORD AND WITH FAMINE AND WITH ²PESTILENCE AND BY THE WILD BEASTS OF THE EARTH.

9 And when He broke the fifth seal, I saw ^aunderneath the ^baltar the ^csouls of those who had been slain ^dbecause of the word of God, and because of the ^etestimony which they had maintained;

10 and they cried out with a loud voice, saying, "^aHow long, O ^bLord, ^choly and true, ²wilt Thou refrain from ^djudging and avenging our blood on ^ethose who dwell on the earth?"

11 And ^athere was given to each of them a white robe; and they were told that they should ^brest for a little while longer, ^cuntil the number of their fellow-servants and their brethren who were to be killed even as they had been, should be ^dcompleted also.

12 And I looked when He broke the sixth seal, and there was a great ^aearthquake; and the ^bsun became black as ^csackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became like blood;

13 and ^athe stars of the sky fell to the earth, ^bas a fig tree casts its unripe figs when shaken by a great wind.

14 And ^athe sky was split apart like a scroll when it is rolled up; and ^bevery mountain and island were moved out of their places.

15 And ^athe kings of the earth and the great men and the ^lcommanders and the rich and the strong and every slave and free man, hid themselves in the caves and among the rocks of the mountains;

16 and they ^asaid to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us and hide us from the ^lpresence of Him ^bwho sits on the throne, and from the ^cwrath of the Lamb;

17 for ^athe great day of their wrath has come; and ^bwho is able to stand?"

CHAPTER 7

AF*T*E*R this I saw ^afour angels standing at the ^bfour corners of the earth, holding back ^cthe four winds of the earth, ^dso that no wind should blow on the earth or on the sea or on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel ascending ^afrom the rising of the sun, having the ^bseal of ^cthe living God; and he cried out with a loud voice to the ^dfour angels to whom it was granted to harm the earth and the sea,

3 saying, "^aDo not harm the earth or the sea or the trees, until we have ^bsealed the bond-servants of our God on their ^cforeheads."

4 And I heard the ^anumber of those who were sealed, ^bone hundred and forty-four thousand sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel:

5 from the tribe of Judah, twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, from the tribe of Gad twelve thousand,

6 from the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, from the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, from the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand,

7 from the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, from the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, from the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand,

8 from the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, from the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, from the tribe of Benjamin, twelve thousand were sealed.

9 After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no one could count, from ^aevery nation and all tribes and peoples and tongues, standing ^bbefore the throne and ^cbefore the Lamb, clothed in ^dwhite robes, and ^epalm branches were in their hands;

10 and they cry out with a loud voice, saying, "^aSalvation to our God ^bwho sits on the throne, and to the Lamb."

11 And all the angels were standing ^aaround the throne life; and ^cGod shall wipe every tear from their eyes."

CHAPTER 8

AND when He broke the ^aseventh seal, there was ^bsilence in heaven for about half an hour.

2 And I saw ^athe seven angels who stand before God; and seven ^btrumpets were given to them.

3 And ^aanother angel came and stood at the ^baltar, holding a ^cgolden censer; and much ^dincense was given to him, that he might ¹add it to the ^dprayers of all the ²saints upon the ^cgolden altar which was before the throne.

4 And ^athe smoke of the incense, ¹with the prayers of the ²saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the censer; and he ^afilled it with the fire of the altar and ^bthrew it to the earth; and there followed ^cpeals of thunder and sounds and flashes of lightning and an ^dearthquake.

6 ^aAnd the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound them.

7 And the first sounded, and there came ^ahail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth; and ^ba third of the earth was burnt up, and ^ba third of the ^ctrees were burnt up, and all the green ^cgrass was burnt up.

8 And the second angel sounded, and something like a great ^amountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea; and ^ba third of the ^csea became blood;

9 and ^aa third of the creatures, which were in the sea ¹and had life, died; and a third of the ^bships were destroyed.

10 And the third angel sounded, and a great star ^afell from heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a ^bthird of the rivers and on the ^csprings of waters;

11 and the name of the star is called Wormwood; and a ^athird of the waters became ^bwormwood; and many men died from the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth angel sounded, and a ^athird of the ^bsun and a third of the ^bmoon and a ^athird of the ^bstars were smitten, so that a ^athird of them might be darkened and the day might not shine for a ^athird of it, and the night in the same way.

13 And I looked, and I heard ¹an eagle flying in ^amid-heaven, saying with a loud voice, "^bWoe, woe, woe, to ^cthose who dwell on the earth; because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the ^dthree angels who are about to sound!"

CHAPTER 9

AND the ^afifth angel sounded, and I saw a ^bstar from heaven which had fallen to the earth; and the ^ckey of the ^{1d}bottomless pit was given to him.

2 And he opened the ¹bottomless pit; and ^asmoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke of a great furnace; and ^bthe sun and the air were darkened by the smoke of the pit.

3 And out of the smoke came forth ^alocusts ¹upon the earth; and power was given them, as the ^bscorpions of the earth have power.

4 And they were told that they should not ^ahurt the ^bgrass of the earth, nor any green thing, nor any tree, but only the men who do not have the ^cseal of God on their foreheads.

5 And ¹they were not permitted to kill ²anyone, but to torment for ^afive months; and their torment was like the torment of a ^bscorpion when it ³stings a man.

6 And in those days ^amen will seek death and will not find it; and they will long to die and death flees from them.

7 And the ^{1a}appearance of the locusts was like horses prepared for battle; and on their heads, as it were, crowns like gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 And they had hair like the hair of women, and their ^ateeth were like the teeth of lions.

9 And they had breastplates like breastplates of iron; and the ^asound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, of many horses rushing to battle.

10 And they have tails like ^ascorpions, and stings; and in their ^btails is their power to hurt men for ^cfive months.

11 They have as king over them, the angel of the ^aabyss; his name in ^bHebrew is ^{1c}Abaddon, and in the Greek he has the name ²Apollyon.

12 ^aThe first Woe is past; behold, two Woes are still coming after these things.

13 And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard ^{1a}a voice from the ²four ^ahorns of the ^bgolden altar which is before God,

14 one saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, "Release the ^afour angels who are bound at the ^bgreat river Euphrates."

15 And the four angels, who had been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were ^areleased, so that they might kill a ^bthird of ¹mankind.

16 And the number of the armies of the horsemen was ^atwo hundred million; ^b1 heard the number of them.

17 And ¹this is how I saw ^ain the vision the horses and those who sat on them: the riders had breastplates the color of fire and of hyacinth and of ^{2b}brimstone; and the heads of the horses are like the heads of lions; and ^cout of their mouths proceed fire and smoke and ^{2b}brimstone.

18 A ^athird of ¹mankind was killed by these three plagues, by the ^bfire and the smoke and the ^{2b}brimstone, which proceeded out of their mouths.

19 For the power of the horses is in their mouth and in their tails; for their tails are like serpents and have heads; and with them they do harm.

20 And the rest of ¹mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, ^adid not repent of ^bTHE WORKS OF THEIR HANDS, SO AS NOT TO ^cWORSHIP DEMONS, AND ^dTHE IDOLS OF GOLD AND OF SILVER AND OF BRASS AND OF STONE AND OF WOOD, WHICH CAN NEITHER SEE NOR HEAR NOR WALK;

21 and they ^adid not repent of their murders nor of their ^bsorceries nor of their ^cimmorality nor of their thefts.

CHAPTER 10

AND I saw another ^astrong angel ^bcoming down out of heaven, clothed with a cloud; and the ^crainbow was upon his head, and ^dhis face was like the sun, and his ^efeet like pillars of fire;

2 and he had in his hand a ^alittle book which was open. And he placed ^bhis right foot on the sea and his left on the land;

3 and he cried out with a loud voice, ^aas when a lion roars; and when he had cried out, the ^bseven peals of thunder ¹uttered their voices.

4 And when the seven peals of thunder had spoken, ^aI was about to write; and I ^bheard a voice from heaven saying, "Seal up the things which the seven peals of thunder have spoken, and do not write them."

5 And the angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land ^aLIFTED UP HIS RIGHT HAND TO HEAVEN,

6 AND SWORE BY ^aHIM WHO LIVES FOREVER AND EVER, WHO ^bCREATED HEAVEN AND THE THINGS IN IT, AND THE EARTH AND THE THINGS IN IT, AND THE SEA AND THE THINGS IN IT, that ^cthere shall be delay no longer,

7 but in the days of the voice of the ^aseventh angel, when he is about to sound, then ^bthe mystery of God is finished, as He ¹preached to His servants the prophets.

8 And ^athe voice which I heard from heaven, I heard again speaking with me, and saying, "Go, take ^bthe ¹book which is open in the hand of the angel who ^bstands on the sea and on the land."

9 And I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little book. And he ^asaid to me, "Take it, and eat it; and it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey."

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand and ate it, and it was in my mouth sweet as honey; and when I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter.

11 And ^athey ^asaid to me, "You must ^bprophesy again concerning ^cmany peoples and nations and tongues and ^dkings."

CHAPTER 11

AND there was given me a ¹measuring rod like a staff; ²and ^bsomeone said, "Rise and measure the ³temple of God, and the altar, and those who worship in it.

² "And ¹leave out the ^acourt which is outside the ²temple, and do not measure it, for ^bit has been given to the nations; and they will ^btread under foot ^cthe holy city for ^dforty-two months.

³ "And I will grant authority to my two ^awitnesses, and they will prophesy for ^btwelve hundred and sixty days, clothed in ^csackcloth."

⁴ These are the ^atwo olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth.

⁵ And if any one desires to harm them, ^afire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies; and if any one would desire to harm them, ^bin this manner he must be killed.

⁶ These have the power to ^ashut up the sky, in order that rain may not fall during ^bthe days of their prophesying; and they have power over the waters to ^cturn them into blood, and to smite the earth with every plague, as often as they desire.

⁷ And when they have finished their testimony, ^athe beast ^bthat comes up out of the ^cabyss will ^dmake war with them, and overcome them and kill them.

⁸ And their dead ¹bodies will lie in the street of the ^agreat city which ²mystically is called ^bSodom and ^cEgypt, where also their Lord was crucified.

⁹ And those from ^athe peoples and tribes and tongues and nations will look at their dead ¹bodies for three days and a half, and ²will not permit their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb.

¹⁰ And ^athose who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them and make merry; and they will ^bsend gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented ^athose who dwell on the earth.

¹¹ And after the three days and a half ^athe breath of life from God came into them, and they stood on their feet; and great fear fell upon those who were beholding them.

¹² And they heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "^aCome up here." And they ^bwent up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies beheld them.

¹³ And in that hour there was a great ^aearthquake, and a tenth of the city fell; and ¹seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified and ^bgave glory to the ^cGod of heaven.

¹⁴ The second ^aWoe is past; behold, the third Woe is coming quickly.

¹⁵ And the ^aseventh angel sounded; and there arose ^bloud voices in heaven, saying,

"^cThe kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord, and of ^dHis ¹Christ; and ^cHe will reign forever and ever."

¹⁶ And the twenty-four elders, who ^asit on their thrones before God, ^bfell on their faces and worshiped God,

¹⁷ saying,

"We give Thee thanks, ^aO Lord God, the Almighty, who art

19 And ^athe ¹temple of God which is in heaven was opened; and ^bthe ark of His covenant appeared in His ¹temple, and there were flashes of ^clightning and sounds and peals of thunder and an earthquake and a ^dgreat ²hailstorm.

CHAPTER 12

AND a great ^asign appeared ^bin heaven: ^ca woman ^dclothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars;

2 and she was with child; and she ^acried out, being in labor and in pain to give birth.

3 And ^aanother sign appeared in heaven: and behold, a great red ^bdragon having ^cseven heads and ^dten horns, and on his heads were ^eseven diadems.

4 And his tail ^aswept away a ^athird of the stars of heaven, and ^bthrew them to the earth. And the ^cdragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth ^dhe might devour her child.

5 And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to ¹rule all the ²nations with a rod of iron; and her child was ^bcaught up to God and to His throne.

6 And the woman fled into the wilderness where she ^ahad a place prepared by God, so that there ¹she might be nourished for ^aone thousand two hundred and sixty days.

7 And there was war in heaven, ^aMichael and his angels waging war with the ^bdragon. And the dragon and ^chis angels waged war,

8 and they were not strong enough, and there was no longer a place found for them in heaven.

9 And the great ^adragon was thrown down, the ^bserpent of old who is called the Devil and ^cSatan, who ^ddeceives the whole ¹world; he was ^ethrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.

10 And I heard ^aa loud voice in heaven, saying,

"Now the ^bsalvation, and the power, and the ^akingdom of our God and the authority of His Christ have come, for the ¹accuser of our brethren has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night.

11 "And they ^aovercame him because of ^bthe blood of the Lamb and because of ^cthe word of their testimony, and they ^ddid not love their life even to death.

12 "For this reason, ^arejoice, O heavens and ^byou who ¹dwell in them. ^cWoe to the earth and the sea; because ^dthe devil has come down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has only ^aa short time."

13 And when the ^adragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted ^bthe woman who gave birth to the male child.

14 And the ^atwo wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, in order that she might fly ^binto the wilderness to her place, where she ^awas nourished for ^ca time and times and half a time, from the ¹presence of the serpent.

15 And the ^aserpent ¹poured water ^blike a river out of his mouth after the woman, so that he might cause her to be swept away with the flood.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and drank up the river which the dragon ¹poured out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was enraged with the woman, and went off to ^amake war with the rest of her ^boffspring, who ^ckeep the commandments of God and ^dhold to the testimony of Jesus.

And I saw a ^abeast coming up out of the sea, having ^bten horns and ^bseven heads, and on his horns were ^cten diadems, and on his heads were ^dblasphemous names.

2 And the beast which I saw was ^alike a leopard, and his feet were ^blike ^bthose of ^aa bear, and his mouth like the mouth of ^ca lion. And the ^ddragon gave him his power and his ^ethrone and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads as if it had been ¹slain, and his ^afatal wound was healed. And the whole earth ^bwas amazed and ^cfollowed after the beast;

4 and they worshiped the ^adragon, because he ^agave his authority to the beast; and they worshiped the beast, saying, ^b“Who is like the beast, and who is able to wage war with him?”

5 And there was given to him a mouth ^aspeaking ¹arrogant words and blasphemies; and authority to ²act for ^bforty-two months was given to him.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemies against God, to blaspheme His name and His tabernacle, that is, ^athose who ¹dwell in heaven.

7 And it was given to him to ^amake war with the ¹saints and to overcome them; and authority over ^bevery tribe and people and tongue and nation was given to him.

8 And all who ^adwell on the earth will worship him, every one ^bwhose name has not been ¹written ^cfrom the foundation of the world in the book of life of ^dthe Lamb who has been slain.

11 And ^aI saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and he ¹had ^btwo horns like a lamb, and he ²spoke as a ^cdragon.

^bfire come down out of heaven to the earth in the presence of men.

14 And he ^adeceives ^bthose who dwell on the earth because of ^cthe signs which it was given him to perform ^din the presence of the beast, telling those who dwell on the earth to make an image to the beast who ^ehad the ^cwound of the sword and has come to life.

15 And there was given to him to give breath to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast might even ¹speak and cause ^aas many as do not ^bworship the image of the beast to be killed.

16 And he causes all, ^athe small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free men and the slaves, ¹to be given a ^bmark on their right hand, or on their forehead,

17 and he provides that no one should be able to buy or to sell, except the one who has the ^amark, either ^bthe name of the beast or ^cthe number of his name.

18 ^aHere is wisdom. Let him who has understanding calculate the number of the beast, for the number is that ^bof a man; and his number is ¹six hundred and sixty-six.

CHAPTER 14

AND I looked, and behold, ^athe Lamb was standing on ^bMount Zion, and with Him ^cone hundred and forty-four thousand, having ^dHis name and the ^ename of His Father written ^con their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, like ^athe sound of many waters and like the ^bsound of loud thunder, and the voice which I heard was like the sound of ^ccharpists playing on their harps.

3 And they ¹sang ^aa new song before the throne and before the ^bfour living creatures and the ^celders; and ^dno one could learn the song except the ^eone hundred and forty-four thousand who had been ^apurchased from the earth.

4 ^aThese are the ones who have not been defiled with women, for they are ¹celibates. These are the ones who ^bfollow the Lamb wherever He goes. These have been ^cpurchased from among men ^das first fruits to God and to the Lamb.

5 And no lie was found ^ain their mouth; they are ^bblameless.

6 And I saw another angel flying in ^amidheaven, having ^ban eternal gospel to preach to ^cthose who ¹live on the earth, and to ^devery nation and tribe and tongue and people;

7 and He said with a loud voice, ^a"Fear God, and ^bgive Him glory, because the hour of His judgment has come; and worship Him who ^cmade the heaven and the earth and sea and ^dsprings of waters."

8 And another angel, a second one, followed, saying, ^a"Fallen, fallen is ^bBabylon the great, she who has ^cmade all the nations drink of the ^dwine of the ¹passion of her immorality."

9 And another angel, a third one, followed them, saying with a loud voice, ^a"If any one ^bworships the beast and his ^cimage, and receives a ^dmark on his forehead or upon his hand,

10 he also will drink of the ^awine of the wrath of God, which is mixed ¹in full strength ²in the cup of His anger; and he will be tormented with ³fire and brimstone in the presence of the ⁴holy angels and in the presence of the Lamb.

11 "And the ⁵smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever; and ⁶they have no rest day and night, those who ⁷worship the beast and his ⁸image, and whoever receives the ⁹mark of his name."

12 Here is ¹⁰the ¹¹perseverance of the ¹²saints who ¹³keep the commandments of God and ¹⁴their faith in Jesus.

13 And I heard a voice from heaven, saying, "Write, ¹⁵Blessed are the dead who ¹⁶die in the Lord ¹⁷from now on!" "Yes," ¹⁸says the Spirit, "that they may ¹⁹rest from their labors, for their ²⁰deeds follow with them."

14 And I looked, and behold, a ²¹white cloud, and sitting on the cloud was one ²²like ²³a son of man, having a golden ²⁴crown on His head, and a sharp sickle in His hand.

15 And another angel ²⁵came out of the ²⁶temple, crying out with a loud voice to Him who sat on the cloud, "²⁷Put in your sickle—and reap, because the hour to reap has come, because the ²⁸harvest of the earth ²⁹is ripe."

16 And He who sat on the cloud ³⁰swung His sickle over the earth; and the earth was reaped.

17 And another angel ³¹came out of the ³²temple which is in heaven, ³³and he also had a sharp sickle.

18 And another angel, ³⁴the one who has power over fire, came out from ³⁵the altar; and he called with a loud voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "³⁶Put in your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters ³⁷from the vine of the earth, ³⁸because her grapes are ripe."

19 And the angel ³⁹swung his sickle to the earth, and gathered ⁴⁰the clusters from the vine of the earth, and threw them into ⁴¹the great wine press of the wrath of God.

20 And the wine press was trodden ⁴²outside the city, and ⁴³blood came out from the wine press, up to the horses' bridles, ⁴⁴for a distance of ⁴⁵two hundred miles.

CHAPTER 15

AND I saw ¹another sign in heaven, great and marvelous, ²seven angels who had ³seven plagues, which are ⁴the last, because in them the wrath of God is finished.

2 And I saw, as it were, a ⁵sea of glass mixed with fire, and those who had ⁶come off victorious from the ⁷beast and from ⁸his image and from the ⁹number of his name, standing on the ¹⁰sea of glass, holding ¹¹harps of God.

3 And they ¹²sang the ¹³song of Moses ¹⁴the bond-servant of God and the ¹⁵song of the Lamb, saying,
 "dGREAT AND MARVELOUS ARE THY WORKS,
 eO LORD GOD, THE ALMIGHTY; fRIGHTEOUS AND TRUE ARE THY WAYS, gTHOU fKING OF THE hNATIONS.

4 "aWHO WILL NOT FEAR, O LORD, AND GLORIFY THY NAME? bFOR THOU ALONE ART HOLY; cFOR bALL THE NATIONS WILL COME AND WORSHIP BEFORE THEE,
 dFor Thy ¹⁶righteous acts have been revealed."

⁵ After these things I looked, and ^athe ¹temple of the ^btabernacle of testimony in heaven was opened,

⁶ and the ^aseven angels who had the seven plagues ^bcame out of the ¹temple, clothed ^cin ²linen, clean and bright, and ^dgirded around their breasts with golden girdles.

⁷ And one of the ^afour living creatures gave to the ^bseven angels seven ^cgolden bowls full of the ^dwrath of God, who ^elives forever and ever.

⁸ And the ¹temple was filled with ^asmoke from the glory of God and from His power; and no one was able to enter the ¹temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished.

CHAPTER 16

AND I heard a loud voice from ^athe ¹temple, saying to the ^bseven angels, "Go and ^cpour out the ^dseven bowls of the wrath of God into the earth."

² And the first angel went and poured out his bowl ^ainto the earth; and it became a loathsome and malignant ^bsores upon the men ^cwho had the mark of the beast and who worshipped his image.

³ And the second angel poured out his bowl ^ainto the sea, and it became blood like ^bthat of a dead man; and every living ¹thing in the sea died.

⁴ And the third angel poured out his bowl into the ^arivers and the springs of waters; and ^bthey ^bbecame blood.

⁵ And I heard the angel of the waters saying, "^aRighteous art Thou, ^bwho art and who wast, O ^cHoly One, because Thou didst ^djudge these things;

⁶ for they poured out ^athe blood of saints and prophets, and Thou hast given them ^bblood to drink. They ¹deserve it."

⁷ And I heard ^athe altar saying, "Yes, O ^bLord God, the Almighty, ^ctrue and righteous are Thy judgments."

⁸ And the fourth angel poured out his bowl upon ^athe sun; ^band it was given to it to scorch men with fire.

⁹ And men were scorched with ¹fierce heat; and they ^ablasphemed the name of God who has the power over these plagues; and they ^bdid not repent, so as to ^cgive Him glory.

¹⁰ And the fifth angel poured out his bowl upon the ^athrone of the beast; and his kingdom became ^bdarkened; and they gnawed their tongues because of pain.

¹¹ and they ^ablasphemed the ^bGod of heaven because of their pains and their ^csores; and they ^ddid not repent of their deeds.

¹² And the sixth angel poured out his bowl upon the ^agreat river, the Euphrates; and ^bits water was dried up, that ^cthe way might be prepared for the kings ^dfrom the ^eeast.

¹³ And I saw coming out of the mouth of the ^adragon and out of the mouth of the ^bbeast and out of the mouth of the ^cfalse prophet, three ^dunclean spirits like ^efrogs;

¹⁴ for they are ^aspirits of demons, ^bperforming signs, which go out to the kings of the ^cwhole ¹world, to ^dgather them together for the war of the ^egreat day of God, the Almighty.

¹⁵ (Behold, ^aI am coming like a thief. ^bBlessed is the one who stays awake and keeps his garments, ^clest he walk about naked and ¹men see his shame.)

16 And they ^agathered them together to the place which ^bin Hebrew is called ¹Har-^cMagedon.

17 And the seventh ^aangel poured out his bowl upon ^athe air; and a ^bloud voice came out of the ¹temple from the throne, saying, "^dIt is done."

18 And there were flashes of ^alightning and sounds and peals of thunder; and there was ^ba great earthquake, ^csuch as there had not been since man came to be upon the earth, so great an earthquake was it, and so mighty.

19 And ^athe great city was split into three parts, and the cities of the ¹nations fell. And ^bBabylon the great was ^cremembered before God, to give her ^dthe cup of the wine of His fierce wrath.

20 And ^aevery island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And ^ahuge ¹hailstones, about ²one hundred pounds each, ^acame down from heaven upon men; and men ^bblasphemed God because of the ^cplague of the hail, because its plague ^awas extremely ³severe.

CHAPTER 17 [Ecclesiastical Party]

^aAND one of the ^bseven angels who had the ^cseven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here, I shall show you ^dthe judgment of the ^egreat harlot who ^fsits on many waters,

2 with whom ^athe kings of the earth committed acts of immorality, and ^bthose who dwell on the earth were ^cmade drunk with the wine of her immorality."

3 And ^ahe carried me away ¹in the Spirit ^cinto a wilderness; and I saw a woman sitting on a ^dscarlet beast, full of ^eblasphemous names, having ^fseven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman ^awas clothed in purple and scarlet, and ¹adorned with gold and precious ²stones and pearls, having in her hand ^ba gold cup full of abominations and of the unclean things of her immorality,

5 and upon her forehead a name was written, a ^amystery, "^bBABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND OF ^cTHE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH."

6 And I saw the woman drunk with the ^ablood of the ¹saints, and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus. And when I saw her, I wondered ²greatly.

7 And the angel said to me, "Why ¹do you wonder? I shall tell you the ^amystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the ^bseven heads and the ten horns.

8 "The beast that you saw ^awas and is not, and is about to come up out of the ^cabyss and ¹to ^dgo to destruction. And ^ethose who dwell on the earth will ^fwonder, ^gwhose name has not been written in the book of life ^bfrom the foundation of the world, when they see the beast, that ^ahe was and is not and will come.

CHAPTER 18 [Commercial Part]

AFTER these things I saw ^aanother angel ^bcoming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was ^cilluminated with his glory.

2 And he cried out with a mighty voice, saying, "^aFallen, fallen is Babylon the great! And she ^bhas become a dwelling place of demons and a ¹prison of every ^cunclean spirit, and a ¹prison of every unclean and hateful bird.

3 "For all the nations ¹have drunk of the ^awine of the ²passion of her immorality, and ^bthe kings of the earth have committed acts of immorality with her, and the ^cmerchants of the earth have become rich by the ³wealth of her ^dsensuality."

4 And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "^aCome out of her, my people, that you may not participate in her sins and that you may not receive of her plagues;

5 for her sins have ¹piled up as high as heaven, and God has ^bremembered her iniquities.

6 "^aPay her back even as she has paid, and ¹give back to her double according to her deeds; in the ^bcup which she has mixed, mix twice as much for her.

7 "^aTo the degree that she glorified herself and ^blived ¹sensuously, to the same degree give her torment and mourning; for she says in her heart, "I sit as a queen and I am not a widow, and will never see mourning."

8 "For this reason ^ain one day her plagues will come, ¹pestilence and mourning and famine, and she will be ^bburned up with fire; for the Lord God who judges her ^cis strong.

9 "And ^athe kings of the earth, who committed acts of immorality and ^blived ¹sensuously with her, will ^cweep and lament over her when they ^dsee the smoke of her burning,

10 ^astanding at a distance because of the fear of her torment, saying, ^bWoe, woe, ^cthe great city, Babylon, the strong city! For in ^done hour your judgment has come.'

12 cargoes of ^agold and silver and precious ¹stones and pearls and fine linen and purple and silk and scarlet, and every kind of citron wood and every article of ivory and every article made from very costly wood and ²bronze and iron and marble,

14 "And the fruit ¹you long for has gone from you, and all things that were luxurious and splendid have passed away from you and men will no longer find them.

15 "The ^amerchants of ^bthese things, who became rich from her, will ^cstand at a distance because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning,

16 saying, ^aWoe, woe, ^bthe great city, she who ^cwas clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and ¹adorned with gold and precious ²stones and pearls;

18 and were ^acrying out as they ^bsaw the smoke of her burning, saying, ^cWhat city is like ^dthe great city?

19 "And they threw ^adust on their heads and were crying out, weeping and mourning, saying, ^bWoe, woe, the great city, in which all who had ships at sea ^cbecame rich by her ¹wealth, for in ^bone hour she has been laid ^dwaste.'

20 "Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you ¹saints and ^bapostles and prophets, because ^cGod has ²pronounced judgment for you against her."

21 And ¹a ^astrong angel ^btook up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, "Thus will Babylon, ^cthe great city, be thrown down with violence, and will not be found any longer.

22 "And ^athe sound of harpists and musicians and flute-players and trumpeters will not be heard in you any longer; and no craftsman of any craft will be found in you any longer; and the ^bsound of a mill will not be heard in you any longer;

23 and the light of a lamp will not shine in you any longer; and the ^avoice of the bridegroom and bride will not be heard in you any longer; for your ^bmerchants were the great men of the earth, because all the nations were deceived ^cby your sorcery.

24 "And in her was found the ^ablood of prophets and of ¹saints and of ^ball who have been slain on the earth."

He has judged the ^dgreat harlot who was corrupting the earth with her immorality, and HE HAS ^{AVENGED THE BLOOD OF HIS BOND-SERVANTS} ¹ON HER."

3 And a second time they said, "Hallelujah! Her ^bSMOKE RISES UP FOREVER AND EVER."

4 And the ^atwenty-four elders and the ^bfour living creatures ^cfell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne saying, "Amen. Hallelujah!"

5 And a voice came from the throne, saying, "GIVE PRAISE TO OUR GOD, ALL YOU HIS BOND-SERVANTS, ^bYOU WHO FEAR HIM, THE SMALL AND THE GREAT."

6 And I heard, as it were, ^athe voice of a great multitude and as ^bthe sound of many waters and as the ^csound of mighty peals of thunder, saying,

"Hallelujah! For the ^dLord our God, the Almighty, reigns.

7 "Let us rejoice and be glad and ^agive the glory to Him, for ^bthe marriage of the Lamb has come and His ^cbride has made herself ready."

8 And it was given to her to clothe herself in ^afine linen, bright and clean; for the fine linen is the ^brighteous acts of the ¹saints.

9 And ^ahe ^{}said to me, "Write, ^cBlessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb." And he ^{}said to me, "These are true words of God."

10 And ^aI fell at his feet to worship him. ^bAnd he ^{*}said to me, "Do not do that; I am a ^cfellow-servant of yours and your brethren who ^dhold the testimony of Jesus; worship God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

11 And I saw ^aheaven opened; and behold, a ^bwhite horse, and He who sat upon it is called ^cFaithful and True; and in ^drighteousness He judges and wages war.

12 And His ^aeyes are a flame of fire; and upon His head are many ^bdiadems; and He has a ^cname written upon Him which no one knows except Himself.

13 And ^bHe is clothed with a ^arobe dipped in blood; and His name is called ^bThe Word of God.

14 And the armies which are in heaven, clothed in ^afine linen, ^bwhite and clean, were following Him on white horses.

15 And ^afrom His mouth comes a sharp sword, so that ^bwith it He may smite the nations; and He will ¹rule them with a rod of iron; and ^dHe treads the ²wine press of the fierce wrath of God, the Almighty.

16 And on His robe and on His thigh He has ^aa name written, "KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

17 And I saw ¹an angel standing in the sun; and he cried out with a loud voice, saying to ^aall the birds which fly in ^bmidheaven, "Come, assemble for the ^dgreat supper of God:

18 in order that you may ^aeat the flesh of kings and the flesh of ¹commanders and the flesh of mighty men and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them and the flesh of all men, ^bboth free men and slaves, and ^csmall and great."

19 And I saw ^athe beast and ^bthe kings of the earth and their armies, assembled to make war against Him who ^csat upon the horse, and against His army.

20 And the beast was seized, and with him the ^afalse prophet who ^bperformed the signs ¹in his presence, by which he 21 And the rest were killed with the sword which ^acame from the mouth of him who ^bsat upon the horse, and ^call the birds were filled with their flesh.

CHAPTER 20

AND I saw ^aan angel coming down from heaven, having the ^bkey of the abyss and a great chain ⁱⁿ his hand.

2 And he laid hold of the ^adragon, the serpent of old, who is the Devil and Satan, and ^bbound him for a thousand years,

3 and threw him into the ^aabyss, and shut it and ^bsealed it over him, so that he should ^cnot deceive the nations any longer, until the thousand years were completed; after these things he must ^dbe released for a short time.

4 And I saw ^athrones, and ^bthey sat upon them, and ^cjudgment was given to them. And I saw ^dthe souls of those who had been ^ebeheaded because of the ^ftestimony of Jesus and because of the word of God, and those who had not ^gworshiped the beast or his image, and had not received the ^hmark upon their forehead and upon their hand; and they ⁱcame to life and ^{reigned} with Christ for a thousand years.

5 The rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were completed. ^aThis is the first resurrection.

6 ^aBlessed and holy is the one who has a part in the first resurrection; over these the ^bsecond death has no power, but they will be ^cpriests of God and of Christ and will ^dreign with Him for a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are completed, Satan will be ^areleased from his prison,

8 and will come out to ^adeceive the nations which are in the ^bfour corners of the earth, ^cGog and Magog, to ^dgather them together for the war; the number of them is like the ^esand of the ^lseashore.

9 And they ^acame up on the ^lbroad plain of the earth and surrounded the ^bcamp of the ²saints and the ^cbeloved city, and ^dfire came down from heaven and devoured them.

10 And ^athe devil who ^adeceived them was thrown into the ^llake of fire and brimstone, where the ^cbeast and the ^cfalse prophet are also; and they will be ^dtormented day and night forever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white ^athrone and Him who sat upon it, from whose ^lpresence ^bearth and heaven fled away, and ^cno place was found for them.

12 And I saw the dead, the ^agreat and the small, standing before the throne, and ^bbooks were opened; and another ²book was opened, which is ^cthe book of life; and the dead ^dwere judged from the things which were written in the ^lbooks, ^eaccording to their deeds. CHAPTER 21

AND I saw ^aa new heaven and a new earth; for ^bthe first heaven and the first earth passed away, and there is no longer any sea.

2 And I saw ^athe holy city, ^bnew Jerusalem, ^ccoming down out of heaven from God, ^dmade ready as a bride adorned for her husband.

3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne, saying, "Behold, ^athe tabernacle of God is among men, and He shall ^bdwell among them, and they shall be His peoples, and God Himself shall be among them;²

4 and He shall ^awipe away every tear from their eyes; and ^bthere shall no longer be any death; ^cthere shall no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain; ^dthe first things have passed away."

5 And ^aHe who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am ^bmaking all things new." And He ^csaid, "Write, for ^cthese words are faithful and true."

6 And He said to me, "¹It is done. I am the ^bAlpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. ^cI will give to the one who thirsts from the spring of the ^dwater of life without cost.

7 ^aHe who overcomes shall inherit these things, and ^bhe will be his God and he will be My son.

8 ^aBut for the cowardly and ^bunbelieving and abominable and murderers and immoral persons and sorcerers and idolaters and all liars, their part ^{will be} in ^bthe lake that burns with fire and brimstone, which is the ^csecond death."

9 ^aAnd one of the seven angels who had the ^bseven bowls ¹full of the ^cseven last plagues, came and spoke with me, saying, "^dCome here, I shall show you the ^ebride, the wife of the Lamb."

10 And ^ahe carried me away ^bin the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me ^cthe holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, 11 having ^athe glory of God. Her ¹brilliance was like a very costly stone, as a ^bstone of ^ccrystal-clear jasper.

12 ¹It had a great and high wall, ^{1a}with twelve ^bgates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names ^{were} written on them, which are ^{those of} the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel.

13 ^{There were} three gates on the east and three gates on the north and three gates on the south and three gates on the west.

14 And the wall of the city had ^atwelve foundation stones, and on them ^{were} the twelve names of the ^btwelve apostles of the Lamb.

15 And the one who spoke with me had a ¹gold measuring ^arod to measure the city, and its ^bgates and its wall.

16 And the city is laid out as a square, and its length is as great as the width; and he measured the city with the ¹rod,

The Holy City Detailed.

²fifteen hundred miles; its length and width and height are equal.

17 And he measured its wall, ¹seventy-two yards, according to ^ahuman ²measurements, which are also ^bangelic measurements.

18 And the material of the wall was ^ajasper; and the city was ^bpure gold, like ¹clear ^cglass.

19 ^aThe foundation stones of the city wall were adorned with every kind of precious stone. The first foundation stone was ^bjasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, ^cemerald;

20 the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, ^asardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chryso-prase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst.

21 And the twelve ^agates were twelve ^bpearls; each one of the gates was a single pearl. And the street of the city was ^cpure gold, like transparent ^dglass.

22 And I saw ^ano ¹temple in it, for the ^bLord God, the Almighty, and the ^cLamb, are its ¹temple.

23 And the city ^ahas no need of the sun or of the moon to shine upon it, for ^bthe glory of God has illumined it, and its lamp is the ^cLamb.

24 And ^athe nations shall walk by its light, and the ^bkings of the earth ¹shall bring their glory into it.

25 And in the daytime (for ^athere shall be no night there) ^bits gates ^cshall never be closed;

26 and ^athey shall bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it;

27 and nothing unclean and no one who practices abomination and lying, ^ashall ever come into it, but only those ^bwhose names are ^cwritten in the Lamb's book of life.

CHAPTER 22

AND ^ahe showed me a ^briver of the ^cwater of life, ¹clear ^das crystal, coming from the throne of God and of ²the Lamb,

2 in the middle of ^aits street. And ^bon either side of the river was ^cthe tree of life, bearing twelve ¹kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit every month; and the ^bleaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And ^athere shall no longer be any curse; and ^bthe throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it, and His bond-servants shall ^cserve Him;

4 and they shall ^asee His face, and His ^bname shall be on their ^cforeheads.

5 And ^athere shall no longer be any night; and they ¹shall not have need ^bof the light of a lamp nor the light of the sun, because the Lord God shall illumine them; and they shall ^creign forever and ever.

6 And ^ahe said to me, "^bThese words are faithful and true"; and the Lord, the ^cGod of the spirits of the prophets, ^dsent His angel to show to His bond-servants the things which must shortly take place.

7 "And behold, ^aI am coming quickly. ^bBlessed is he who ¹heeds ^cthe words of the prophecy of this book."

things. And when I heard and saw, ^bI fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed me these things.

9 And ^ahe ^ssaid to me, "Do not do that; I am a ^bfellow-servant of yours and of your brethren the prophets and of those who ¹heard the words of ^cthis book: worship God."

10 And he ^ssaid to me, "Do not seal up ^bthe words of the prophecy of this book, ^cfor the time is near.

11 "Let the one who does wrong, still do wrong; and let the one who is filthy, still be filthy; and let the one who is righteous, still practice righteousness; and let the one who is holy, still keep himself holy.

12 "Behold, ^aI am coming quickly, and ^MMy ^bbreward is with Me, ^cto render to every man ¹according to what he has done.

13 "I am the ^aAlpha and the Omega, ^bthe first and the last, ^cthe beginning and the end."

14 Blessed are those who ^awash their robes, that they may have the right to ^bthe tree of life, and may ^center by the ^dgates into the city.

15 ^aOutside are the ^bdogs and the sorcerers and the immoral persons and the murderers and the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices lying.

16 "^aI, Jesus, have sent ^bMy angel to testify to you these things ¹for the churches. I am ^dthe root and the ^eoffspring of David, the bright ^fmorning star."

17 And the ^aSpirit and the ^bbride say, "Come." And let the one who hears say, "Come." And ^clet the one who is thirsty come; let the one who wishes take the ^dwater of life without cost.

18 I testify to everyone who hears ^athe words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone ^badds to them, God shall add to him ^cthe plagues which are written in ^dthis book;

19 and if anyone ^atakes away from the ^bwords of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part from ^cthe tree of life and ¹from the holy city, ^dwhich are written in this book.

20 He who ^atestifies to these things says, "Yes, ^bI am coming quickly." Amen. ^cCome, Lord Jesus.

21 ^aThe grace of the Lord Jesus be with ¹all. Amen.
